May the blessing of the Father of Lights rest on all readers and expounders of his inspired Word, and move us all, in these proud and dangerous days, to yield up our high thoughts unto him who 'of God is made unto us wisdom,' and to determine, even as an inspired apostle determined amid the skeptical disputants of his own times, 'not to know anything save Jesus Christ and Him crucified.'

—Charles Ellicott, September 1861, England

The grass withers, the flower fades, but the Word of our God stands forever.

— Isaiah, a prophet of God

All Scripture is God-breathed, and profitable for teaching, for rebuking, for correcting, for training in righteousness, in order that the person of God may be complete, having been equipped for every good work.

Introduction

The New Testament TransLine is a combination of a TRANS-lation and an out-LINE. It is a literal translation arranged in outline format so as not only to translate the words, but also to visually display the flow of thought contained in the Greek words. The outline format allows the translation to correspond more closely to the Greek forms, grammar, and sentence structure than ever before seen in an English translation, and thus allows the reader to see many things that would have been obvious to Greek readers of the first century, and to see the flow of thought contained in the Greek, as the original writers intended it. The goal of the New Testament TransLine is to enable Bible readers who do not know Greek to gain a depth of insight into the Word formerly available only to those who do. It puts the power to understand God's word at a much deeper level into the hands of all God's people.

The New Testament TransLine features:

1. A literal translation from the Greek corresponding more precisely to the original Greek words and grammar than anything possible in a translation done in prose format. Words not in the Greek are in italics or in [brackets]. Words emphasized in the Greek are in bold.
2. A visual display of the flow of thought of each book based on the Greek grammar.
3. An overview of each book using the words of the biblical writer.
4. Notes on alternate meanings of a Greek word that help flesh out its meaning.
5. Notes in English listing all the places a Greek word is used in the New Testament for over 3200 words, 59% of the New Testament vocabulary. Thus you can confirm the translation and gain valuable insight into the meaning and usage of a Greek word without knowing any Greek. Abbreviated notes on over 450 additional words (8%) are also included.
6. Notes on interpretation that explain the meaning where needed, or that list the different interpretations made of a particular passage.
7. Notes describing over 3000 textual variations in the Greek manuscripts that lie behind all English translations.
8. The Greek word number (GK number) for each Greek word in the notes. Using this number, readers who do not know any Greek can directly link up to other helpful tools using these word numbers.

Using the New Testament TransLine:

The outline style. When you read, consider the outline numbers as simply a different kind of verse numbering system. Use them to follow the flow of thought. Each outline number is made up of a number and a letter, such as 1A., 1B., 1C., 1D. The letter indicates the outline level (like the traditional I., A., 1., a.). The number indicates the sequential points at that level (as in I., II., III., IV., V.). This style is used because it permits a deeper outline (in one place the outline extends to the "J" level), and is easier to follow over multiple pages. The introduction and conclusion are numbered in the traditional style to separate them from the main flow of thought of the book.

Traditional style

1A.

Focus on the New Testament text. Just by reading the translation and following the outline connections, you will understand the flow of thought in most cases. You can read all the “A” points of a book to see the main divisions of the book. You can read all the “B” points under a certain “A” point to see how that point is developed, etc. Using the overview as a guide to the flow of thought, you can follow what is being said at every level throughout the book. This is God’s Word. This is where the emphasis of your reading and meditation should be placed. Think about what you do and do not understand, what you want to know and pursue, and what God is calling you to do in response to His Word.

Use only the notes that interest you. The notes are included to assist you, and to be there as a reference when you need them. They speak to many levels of interest, so you will not be interested in all the notes all the time. Just follow your own interests, which will grow as your understanding grows. The notes are not intended to be read all at one time as you are reading the New Testament text. But when you desire, the notes will enable you to study a Greek word by looking up and comparing all its uses, for example.

Use the GK numbers to access other tools. Since the study of the meaning and usage of Greek words is so highly profitable in understanding the New Testament, the Greek word numbers (GK numbers, based on the Goodrick and Kohlenberger numbering system) for each Greek word have been included in the word notes. The reader with no knowledge of Greek can use these word numbers to directly access Kohlenberger’s Greek-English Concordance to the New Testament (this is often more convenient than looking up the verses one by one), Verbrugge’s The NIV Theological Dictionary of New Testament Words (this provides a full view of the meaning and usage of significant Greek words), and other tools using this numbering system. The New Testament TransLine will serve you well as the starting point for your studies.

Reference numbers and letters. The small number after a word links you to the corresponding note on the facing page. The small letter after a word links this word to the cross references at the bottom of the facing page. This cross reference links you to the note on this Greek word in the New Testament TransLine. Look for the same English word at the cross reference noted, although the form may be different. For example, if you are looking for “doing” in 1 Jn 3:9, the form at the cross reference may be “doing”, “does”, “did”, “do”, or “done”. If the English rendering at the cross reference is not the same, then the word to look for is provided after the cross reference. For example, on “appeared” in Mt 1:2, look for a form of “shine” in Phil 2:15.

Verse numbers. The verse numbers down the right hand side of the page indicate that the verse begins on that line, at the left margin. If a verse does not begin at the left margin, or if more than one verse begin on one line, then a raised dot marks the place where the verse begins.

Old Testament references. Unless otherwise noted, all references to words in the Old Testament (such as, “Same word as in Gen 1:1”) are to the Greek words in the Septuagint, the ancient Greek translation of the Old Testament (but always using the standard English/Hebrew verse numbers).

How does the outline format contribute to the translation?

Understanding translations. Two general approaches exist for making translations. One is called formal equivalence, or word-for-word translation. It seeks to convey the words and grammar used by the writers as much as possible. The NKJV, NASB, RSV, and the New Testament TransLine are examples. The other method is called dynamic equivalence, or thought-for-thought translation. It seeks to convey the meaning intended by the writers, using normal and pleasing English terms and grammar that convey the same meaning, rephrasing sentences as needed. This is done to various degrees based on how far the focus is moved from the Greek to the English, and how much “interpretation” is added to the “translation.” At one extreme the translation remains close to the Greek, but enhances or clarifies the meaning in English. The NRSV is an example. At the other extreme the translation is a paraphrase completely rewritten into words and phrases chosen by the translator to convey what the translator feels is being said. The Living Bible and The Message are examples. All of these approaches are valid and useful.

Word-for-word translation. Even word-for-word translation, however, cannot follow the Greek absolutely. English is just too different from Greek. Greek does not rely on word order as English does. Long “run on” sentences are normal in Greek, but difficult to follow in English. A strictly word-for-word translation is very difficult for an English reader to follow. To experience this for yourself, just look at an interlinear Greek New Testament, which has the English words printed directly under the Greek words.

The outline format. The outline format permits a translation that corresponds much more precisely to the Greek words and sentence structure. Even the flavor, style and feel of the Greek can be reflected in English. For example, you will see and feel the difference in the writing styles of the four Gospel writers. The outline format serves as a skeleton on which to hang the phrases and sentences, avoiding the need to add words or rephrase in English. For example, Eph 1:3-14 is one long sentence in the Greek. In a prose-format translation, it must be broken up into smaller sentences in order to be understood in English. But this very process, while absolutely necessary and unavoidable, obscures the apostle’s flow of thought. The outline format provides a framework that allows you to see Paul’s words and his flow of thought as they are in Greek, and the notes help you see the places where people disagree about the flow of thought. Thus the outline format clarifies the meaning intended by the apostle. Commentaries do a wonderful job explaining the New Testament on the Greek or the English level and are essential tools. But often the more words one uses to try to explain the flow of thought, the harder it is to grasp. With the New Testament TransLine, the flow of thought is contained in the outline structure itself. Words of explanation are replaced by the visual presentation, allowing you to focus directly on the words of Scripture.

Comparing translations. Imagine a translation scale of zero to ten, where zero is the Greek New Testament and ten is an exciting English paraphrase such as The Message or The Living Bible. A one would be a Greek-English interlinear. A five would be a translation that seeks to perfectly balance the Greek and English, staying as close to the Greek as possible, but using English sentence structures and phrasing so as to be beautiful and elegant in English. The NASB, KJV, and RSV would be examples of a five. The NRSV would be a six; the NIV a seven. There are many wonderful translations available between five and ten. But none have been able to be more literal than the NASB, for example, because of the limitations of the prose format. The New Testament TransLine would be a three, opening a view into the New Testament never before seen by English readers.

Limitations of the New Testament TransLine:

The translation. Because the New Testament TransLine is more closely equivalent to the Greek, it is also more foreign-sounding to the English ear. Translators call this “translation English,” meaning that it reflects the Greek ways of writing rather than the English ways of writing. In good English translations, this is not desirable, since a certain beauty and elegance in English is being sought. But since the goal of the New Testament TransLine is not elegance in English, but to more closely reflect the Greek writings, a more foreign-sounding translation is to be expected. By way of comparison, the NIV expresses the thoughts contained in the Greek using the full breadth and beauty of English, foregoing strict conformity to the Greek phraseology. The New Testament TransLine expresses much more of the breadth and beauty of the Greek phraseology, sacrificing normal English idiom. The RSV, NASB, and NKJV represent the best attempts to strike a pleasing balance between the two languages. There is no perfect translation, only translations that achieve the balance of translation goals they set out to accomplish. The New Testament TransLine is aimed at providing a view of the Greek not currently available to the English reader, even though this results in a translation that from the point of view of English idiom and grammar is inferior to all of the other versions mentioned. But this limitation will not hinder you at all, because if you use the New Testament TransLine together with your regular Bible, you will have the best of both viewpoints! You will be able to clearly see and appreciate the choices made by the translators of your version—how they made short sentences out of long ones, how they smoothed out a foreign-sounding idiom, how they clarified a difficult phrase or sentence, how they phrased the Greek in proper and pleasing English.

Think of it this way. When you hear a foreigner first learning to speak English, you commonly hear such a person rendering the forms and sentence structures of their native language in English words. It sounds foreign to English-speakers. It is improper English. Sometimes it is difficult to understand. As the person learns more English, they adopt the commonly understood English patterns of expression. In a similar way, since the New Testament TransLine is seeking to give the English reader more insight from the Greek point of view, the Greek forms and structures are retained to a greater degree than proper in good English, but not to such a degree that the meaning is obscured. This allows the reader to see and feel more of the Greek. For example, when referring to a man, the Greek form of expression can be “he,” “he” or “he himself,” “the one,” “this one,” or “that one.” All of these are rendered as such in the New Testament TransLine, according to their form in the Greek way of speaking, whereas in the polished English translations mentioned above, they are usually all rendered with the simple “he,” according to their function in the normal English way of speaking. In general, the New Testament TransLine seeks to render the actual form of the Greek expressions. When this cannot be consistently done, or when it obscures rather than illuminates, then it is rendered according to its function in normal English, and a note is provided with the more literal rendering.

If the New Testament TransLine, used together with the other versions, permits the English reader to see and feel more of the Greek perspective, to see what the other translations have done to more explicitly render the Greek in better English, and to understand the various ways in which other translations move from the Greek forms of phrasing to normal English patterns of phrasing, and from translating to paraphrasing, then its translation goals will have been attained. The English reader will then be able to evaluate and appreciate the benefits and limitations of each type of translation.

The outline. The outline itself does not come 100% straight from the Greek. No such thing is possible. Said in reverse, the Greek grammar alone does not demand that every point be connected exactly as in the New Testament TransLine. The flow of thought is contained in the events, the ideas, and the grammar. When the flow of thought is contained in the ideas, sometimes it is easy to see and follow, other times it is very difficult. In the places where the reasoning is difficult, meditation on why the thoughts are connected as they are in the New Testament TransLine will result in the reader thinking about the same things Greek scholars and commentary writers think about. In all cases, the outline is based on consideration of every Greek word and the immediate context, with the goal of accurately reflecting what is there. The guiding principle has been that the words themselves must carry the flow of thought. The most natural, simple, clear connection of thought has been sought.

The problem passages. When they exist, the multiple viewpoints on a word or verse are listed. The supporting arguments for the views can be found in the commentaries. The goal of the New Testament TransLine is to alert you to these issues so that you can direct your meditation and study according to your interests. Since the New Testament TransLine is an annotated translation, not a commentary, I do not express my own opinion about which view I prefer (although sometimes it is necessary to reflect a view in the translation). To do so would be of little value without analyzing the issue and all the views, and giving the reasons for my preference, and this would have added considerable length to this volume.

Notes for English readers on the Greek translation:

Vocabulary. In general, the renderings given to the Greek words in the New Testament TransLine are of a broad, simple, standardized nature, and are not as finely nuanced as in other translations. Most translations try to reflect the particular shade or nuance of meaning in each place a certain word is used, minimizing footnotes. The New Testament TransLine tries to use the same rendering in all places a Greek word is used, adding a note containing the other shades of meaning and the other places that word is used so that the reader can compare all the uses of that Greek word. An attempt is made to render different forms of a Greek word (a noun, adjective, adverb, and verb of the same root word, for example) in a way that reflects the relationship between them. For example, see “sound-minded” in 1 Tim 3:2. Words are not independent islands, and by this method the New Testament TransLine seeks to reflect and display more of the interrelationships and connections between the Greek words than is normally done in English. The Greek student can find the more finely-tuned renderings in a lexicon, and English readers can see them in the standard English translations. In addition, the writers often use the same root word in its verb, noun, and adjective form in the same context. For example, “If the salt became tasteless, by what will it be salted?” (Mt 5:13); “the good-news which I announced-as-good-news” (1 Cor 15:1). Or they use the same verb multiple times, as “think” is used three times in Phil 2:2, 5. This repetition is mirrored in the New Testament TransLine whenever possible, allowing the English reader to see the words from the Greek perspective.

Word order. Greek words have different endings that determine the part of speech of each word, so they can be placed almost anywhere in the sentence. English words do not have such endings, so word order is critical. Normal English word order is subject, verb, object, prepositional phrase, as in “Fred hit the ball with the bat.” In Greek the word order could be “The ball hit Fred with the bat” or “Hit Fred with the bat the ball.” Clearly these must be placed in English word order to be understood in English. Sometimes the Greek word order could be kept in English, but it sounds like poetry to us. For example, “Imitators of me be, brothers,” Phil 3:17. Since the writers of the New Testament wrote in the common language of the people, not poetry, the New Testament TransLine in general places words in normal English word order whenever possible, “Brothers, be imitators of me.” Thus the word order of the Greek is not retained in the New Testament TransLine, in the interests of understandability. Using English word order in general allows the New Testament TransLine to include other literal aspects of the Greek without overwhelming the English reader with foreignness. But in those cases where the word order is a factor in understanding what is being said, the Greek word order is retained, or an explanation is given in the notes.

Italics. Words in italics in the New Testament TransLine are a vital part of the literal translation into English. They are not optional words, but words required or implied by the use in context of various aspects of Greek grammar and sentence construction. Do not skip over them when reading. Warning: Italics are used in a different way in the New Testament TransLine and are not directly comparable to their use in other translations! The need to use italics at all illustrates the fact that Greek and English express certain matters in different ways. The Greek can express things through the grammar of the words that the English can express only with additional words. In the New Testament TransLine, the expressed Greek words are in plain type; the words implied by the grammar of the Greek word, phrase, or sentence structure are in italic type. Both together make up a literal translation into English. Using italics to display these words is not a perfect solution, but it does permit more visibility of the Greek word relations than has previously been available to the English reader. Taking this approach, instead of putting all the implied words in plain type as is usually and properly done in English translations, allows the New Testament TransLine to more precisely display the forms of the Greek word relations. This allows the English reader to see things a little more from the Greek perspective. The English reader will understand that these words are implied; the reader who knows Greek will understand why. In the vast majority of cases, there is no dispute about what word is implied by the grammar, or about the alternate ways to express it accurately in English. It is all quite routine. Where there is uncertainty regarding the intended meaning, the alternatives are given in the notes.

Here are a few examples of the use of italics. Some readers may prefer to skip past these details.

In Greek, the relationship that a noun, pronoun, adjective or article has to the sentence is indicated by the ending on the word, and its use in the context. For example, one ending can imply “of” or “from” or “than”; another, “for” or “to” or “with” or “by” or “in,” depending on how the word is used. Thus, the Greek says “the disciples of the Pharisees,” “of” being part of the article “the,” so to speak, not an independent word. These implied helping words are in italics in the New Testament TransLine, since which one to use is based on the use of the word in context. But Greek also separately expresses these helping words (prepositions), for various reasons. When this is the case, they are in plain type. Thus, the difference in the form of expression chosen by the biblical writer can be clearly seen by the English reader in cases like Luke 1:55, “just as He spoke to [an expressed preposition] our fathers—to [implied by the grammar] Abraham and to [implied by the grammar] his seed forever.”

In Greek, the pronoun “you” has different endings for the singular and the plural. In English, it is not always clear in the context which is being used. So in order to make clear that the “you” is plural, sometimes the word “all” or “people” is added in italics. For example, “Do not marvel that I said to you ‘You all must be born again’” (Jn 3:7). “If I told you people earthly things” (Jn 3:12).

In Greek, a writer may deliberately leave routine words out of a phrase or sentence, expecting the reader to supply them from the context. The structure of the phrase or sentence demands that the reader supply the necessary word to make it complete. This is a very common feature of Greek, but not English, which requires more explicitness. For example, the writer may intend that the reader supply the verb, as Peter does in 1 Peter 1:3, “Blessed be the God”; “and His ears are open” in 3:12; “But if one suffers” in 4:16; “Because it is time” in 4:17, etc. Or, the reader may be expected to supply the object, as in “I exhort you” in 2:11; “blessing them” in 3:9; or a possessive pronoun, as in “observing your good works” in 2:12; “for His possession” in 2:9.

In Greek, the grammar of a participle in context often implies a personal subject, expressed in the New Testament TransLine with the word “one” in italics. For example, Peter says “the One having caused” in 1:3; “the ones being guarded” in 1:5. The “one” is implied by the usage of the participle. These are commonly rephrased in English as “who caused,” “who are being guarded.”

In Greek, the gender relation of a word is implied by the ending of the word as used in context. For example, Peter says the work of “each person” (1:17), the grammar of the adjective “each” in context implying the word “person,” or “one” (NASB), or “man” in a generic sense (NIV). The NRSV rephrases “each person” here as “their.” Peter’s intent is perfectly clear and may be properly expressed in English in these various ways. “Free ones” (2:16) and “all things” (4:7) are other examples.

In Greek, purpose and result are expressed in several ways, as in English. There are words that are translated “that,” “in order that,” and “so that.” Take for example, “He died in order that He might save us.” But many times the word “that” is not stated or is represented by another word. The required words are added in italics. For example, “He died that He might save us,” “He died that He might save us,” “He died so as to save us.” These all mean the same thing, but represent different grammatical constructions.

In Greek, the usage of the article “the” is not like English. There are many places where Greek includes the article, but it is not needed in English (for example, “I thank God always” would read “I thank the God always”). In these cases, the article is not included in the New Testament TransLine. On the other hand, there are many places where Greek implies an article but does not write it (such as the object of a preposition, “for the praise of the glory of His grace”). If it is needed in English, it is included in italics. Finally, in many places smooth English prefers an article where the Greek does not have one for various reasons (“having taken the form of a slave”). These are also included in italics. Since Greek has no indefinite article, “a” or “an,” they are always included in italics.

Brackets. When words are added to clarify the meaning of a word, phrase or sentence, they are added in brackets. These words are not implied by the grammar or sentence structure, but by the intended meaning of the biblical writer. If one skips over them, the actual words expressed in Greek may be read. For example, the word “deep feelings” in Mt 9:36 can refer to several specific emotions. The phrase “[of compassion]” is added to clarify the word, but the word is understandable without this clarification. In the phrase “reclining back [to eat]” in Mt 26:20, “[to eat]” is added to the word “reclining back” to bring out its meaning in this context. Others rephrase this idiom as “sat down,” since we do not recline to eat in our society as people did in that day. In Mt 9:31, “[the news about]” is added to clarify the meaning. As with words in italics, these words are rarely in dispute. Most are usually in plain type in the other translations; some are in italics. When they are in doubt, the various views are mentioned in a note.

The gender issue. Words such as “sons,” “brothers,” “man,” and the pronoun “he” are often used in the New Testament when both men and women are in view, a custom also followed in English until recent times. Since the New Testament TransLine is reflecting the ancient Greek, these words are rendered as the biblical writers wrote them. Although this is not the modern gender-explicit or gender-neutral way of speaking, it accurately reflects the Greek point of view. The modern reader can easily make the transition between how the Greek states it, and how we in the 21st century prefer to state it. In the case of “brother” and “son,” the reader can discern from the context whether physical brothers/sons, fellow-members of Abraham’s physical family (Israelites, male and female), or fellow-members of God’s spiritual family (fellow-believers, brothers and sisters in the Lord) are in view. In the case of “man,” there are Greek words that always refer specifically to a male or a female, and they are translated as such. But there is another Greek word (anthropos, from which we get “anthropo”-logy) which means “man” in the sense of “male” and “mankind, a person, whether male or female.” In order to clearly reflect the writers’ intended meaning in English, this word is translated “man” only when a male person is intended. Otherwise, it is rendered “person, mankind, human.” This permits the English reader to see the meaning in places like Jn 6:10, which uses two different words to say that the “people” (anthropos) sat down to eat, and the “men” were counted.

Verbs. In English we use helping words to convey the meaning of the verb. For example, consider the verb “walk.” We say “to walk,” “he has walked,” “I have been walking,” “having walked,” “while walking,” “he will walk,” “he had walked,” “I am walking,” “I was walking,” etc. The words “to, has, have been, having, while, will, had, am, was,” and the pronouns, are helping words. In Greek there are no helping words. Whether the verb means “I am walking,” “You will walk,” or “They have walked” is indicated by the form of the verb, by the ending on the verb itself (the context indicates whether the third person singular means “he,” “she,” or “it”). In the New Testament TransLine, the helping words are considered to be part of the verb form itself and are not placed in italics. Special renderings of the tense indicated by the context that overrule the routine meaning of the verb forms are described in the notes. If the pronoun (I, we, you, he, she, they) is separately expressed in Greek, it is done for emphasis. In the New Testament TransLine, such words are in bold.

The Greek tenses do not correspond precisely to English tenses. This is especially true of the Perfect tense. For example, consider “It has been written.” Put simply, the Greek perfect tense can either lay the stress on a past completed action (as in English, translated as “it has been written”), or on the continuing result of that completed action (translated as “it is written,” which sounds like a present tense in English). There is no clear way to bring both senses into English. Most translations choose which emphasis to bring across in each specific case. In general, the New Testament TransLine renders the tenses in an artificially strict fashion. Present tense, “I walk” or “I am walking.” Imperfect tense, “I was walking.” Future tense, “I will walk.” Aorist tense, “I walked” or “I walk.” Perfect tense, “I have walked.” Pluperfect tense, “I had walked.” This method displays the difficult cases in which the meaning of the Greek tense must be interpreted. For example, “I was well pleased” in Mt 17:5.

The Greek participle is one of the rich features of the Greek language and is used in various ways. For example, consider the participle “having come.” Based on the context, this could mean “when he came,” “after he came,” “since he came,” “although he came,” “if he comes,” “because he came,” “by his coming,” etc. In the New Testament TransLine, however, the participle is translated in an artificially strict fashion in order to communicate to the English reader that a participle is being used and to retain the Greek sentence structure. To illustrate using the word “walk,” the verbal use of the participle for the present tense is translated “walking” or “while walking”; for the aorist and perfect tenses, “having walked.” The substantive use of the participle for the present tense is translated “The one walking” (one is in italics because it is implied in the usage of the participle with the article); for the aorist and perfect tense, “The one having walked.” The reader can easily discern in most cases which nuance to place on the “while” or “having.” When this convention cannot be followed, a note is added to point it out. While the result may not sound like the way we would normally speak in English, it allows the English reader to “hear” the text from the Greek perspective. For example, note Matthew 2:10-12, and Mt 27:48.

Here is more detail on the verb and participle. Some readers may prefer to skip this section.

The New Testament TransLine rendering of verbs and participles is deliberately standardized with a non-nuanced, basic significance, reflecting the Greek form of the word. In other words, they are generally rendered in a “raw” form, to which a translator would then normally add a more explicit nuance in English, based on the implications of the context. English simply prefers more explicitness than Greek. In most cases, these nuances from the context are clear and obvious to everyone, and can be supplied by the reader, as intended by the Greek. In some places, there are different opinions about which grammatical nuance the context implies, and these are addressed in the notes. In general, the intent of the New Testament TransLine is to remain one step short of interpreting the grammatical nuance, allowing the reader to see the raw data from which such interpretation proceeds. For example, based on the context, the usage of the participle in “having known God, they did not glorify Him as God” in Rom 1:21 more explicitly means “although they knew”; the verb in “He was teaching them, saying” in Mt 5:2 may mean “He began to teach”; the verb in “I was compelling them to blaspheme” in Act 26:11 may mean “I was trying to compel”; the participle in “how shall we escape, having neglected” in Heb 2:3 more explicitly means “if we neglect.”

This does not mean that the New Testament TransLine’s rendering of verbs and participles is “more accurate” or “more literal.” Rather, the New Testament TransLine has more simple, more rudimentary, less explicit renderings that follow the Greek forms more closely. The renderings in other translations are fuller, more explicit expressions of the meaning of the word together with its contextual implications, in normal English forms. The one contains the raw data; the other, the finely tuned and polished end-product. But this does mean that the other versions are more interpretive, since they seek to make explicit what is implied by the context, although in the vast majority of cases the interpretation required is minimal, routine, obvious, and undisputed. And this explains, in part, why we see differences of phrasing in the various standard translations. There is more than one way to correctly rephrase these things in English!

The reader who knows Greek will understand the New Testament TransLine renderings for what they are, and will immediately begin considering how to properly nuance them. The English reader can also do this, to some degree. But with English readers, the renderings in the New Testament TransLine face a danger from their “rawness” and standardization, a danger of not being fully understood or perhaps of even being misunderstood. The English reader can avoid such dangers by using the other translations as a guide to the various ways in which the verbs and participles can be properly nuanced.

Linked contrasts. About 90 times in the New Testament, the Greek uses a certain construction (men... de) to link two phrases or sentences together in a contrast, similar to “on the one hand... on the other hand” (but this rendering is too strong in all but a few cases). This idiom is normally not translated into English because we have no equivalent way of saying it. The New Testament TransLine attempts to reflect it by using a bolded word and a dash. For example, “The harvest is great— but the workers are few” (Mt 9:37). This idiom does two things: it links the two parts together as one unit of thought, and it alerts the reader at the beginning of the first part that a second part is coming, causing the reader to anticipate the conclusion of the contrast. If while reading you emphasize the bolded word, and pause at the dash, you will approximate the idea of the Greek. When this idiom is used, a note is added saying that the grammar is emphasizing the contrast between the two halves of the sentence.

The Gospels. Because the Gospels each present the details of the life of Christ, there are many parallel accounts of the same events or words. Special care has been taken to ensure that when two Gospels use the same words and grammar, it is translated the same way in both. When they use different words or grammar, the New Testament TransLine reflects it. The cross-references to parallel accounts and verbally similar places are provided in the notes.

The Greek text behind the New Testament TransLine:

The history of the Greek text. The books of the New Testament were written in Greek. In His wisdom, God did not think it necessary to preserve for us the original copy of these books. Instead, we have thousands of handwritten copies—Greek manuscripts and papyrus fragments produced from the second century up to the invention of the printing press. There is far more manuscript evidence for the New Testament documents than for any other document of ancient history. We also have ancient translations of the New Testament, and quotations of New Testament verses in ancient writings, dating from the second to the sixth century and beyond. These and other sources form the raw material from which the Greek New Testament is constructed. Soon after the invention of the printing press, Greek New Testaments began to be printed. Among others were those of Erasmus (1527), Stephanus (1551), and Beza (1598). In fact, it was Robert Stephanus, in his fourth edition of the Greek New Testament published in 1551, who first added the verse numbers which we now use. These Greek texts were the sources used to produce the King James translation in 1611. In 1633, the Greek text behind the KJV began to be called the “Textus Receptus”—the received or standard Greek text. It remained the standard Greek text for 250 years, although other Greek texts continued to be produced. Even today, some still prefer to follow this time-honored text, or one similar to it. The situation changed as a result of the great manuscript discoveries of the 19th and 20th centuries. These resulted in new Greek texts incorporating this important new manuscript evidence. Most modern translations are based upon one of these updated Greek texts. Today’s standard Greek text was prepared by a committee of scholars and is used worldwide by Protestants and Catholics, liberals and conservatives, scholars and pastors (though other Greek texts do exist). Except for punctuation, the New Testament TransLine follows this Greek text exactly—not because any (including those who produced it) consider it the final word on the subject, but so that the starting point of this translation is clear to everyone, and so that the variants can be clearly seen and understood.

This Greek New Testament is printed in two formats, which differ only in the footnotes. The first is published by the United Bible Societies and is called The Greek New Testament. The Fourth Revised Edition (UBS4) was published in 1993. The second is published by the German Bible Society and is called the Nestle-Aland Novum Testamentum Graece. The 27th edition (NA27) was published in 1993.

Textual variants— the differences between the Greek manuscripts. The handwritten copies which God has left us contain all the types of errors which any honest hand-copier would make. Some were accidental, as when one’s eye skips from one line to a similar word in the next line. Some were intentional, as when a difficult idiom or word order or spelling was smoothed out. Sometimes explanatory marginal notes were incorporated into the text by a subsequent copier because he thought the previous copier had accidentally left them out. Each change was then included in all the subsequent copies made from that manuscript. These differences between the Greek manuscripts are called “textual variants.” Most of these variances relate to differences of spelling and similar matters of no significance to the meaning of the text. But some are “significant.” All the textual variants have been identified and studied by scholars. Many unsung heroes over the centuries have toiled over the thousands of Greek manuscripts and other writings in multiple languages, in a painstaking effort to produce the most accurate Greek text possible. Textual scholars have analyzed every minute detail in all the copies, making the text of the New Testament far more reliable than any other document of antiquity. The result of their work is contained in the Greek New Testament in footnotes listing the significant variants, and detailing the manuscripts that contain them. These textual details may not be important to the average Bible reader. He or she may even ignore the subject and continue to use whatever Bible version is most familiar—a perfectly acceptable choice. But should he or she ever desire to know more about the subject, the laborers have been in the field for centuries, and their work is available for public examination.

The UBS Greek New Testament lists 1438 sets of variants with a broad description of the manuscripts supporting them. The Nestle-Aland Greek New Testament lists a much larger number of variants with a more brief description of the manuscript support.

Because the New Testament TransLine is a very literal translation, it is able for the first time to allow the English reader to personally examine these variants in detail. As you examine them, you will see that most of them make little if any difference to the meaning of the verse. Some are important, such as Mk 16:8-20, Jn 7:53-8:11. Some will help you understand a difference between English translations such as the NKJV and the NIV. And some will help you in your understanding of the verse. You will also notice the extreme detail and precision reflected in the variants. For example, does it say “Jesus Christ” or “Christ Jesus”; “Spirit” or “Holy Spirit”; “His hands” or “His hands”; “He said” or “Jesus said.” A substantial but not exhaustive list of variants is included in the New Testament TransLine, providing an accurate picture of the nature of the issue, with particular focus on the variants that are reflected in the major translations and that might be of interest to the English reader.

Over 1300 textual variants from UBS4 are listed in the notes of the New Testament TransLine in a simplified manner. Over 1300 more variants are provided from NA27. Most of these relate to the KJV. Over 400 more variants are provided that are not listed in either Greek text, but are seen in the KJV. Variants of mainly scholarly interest are not included.

Rating the textual variants. To provide some understanding of the relative certainty of each of the readings in the New Testament TransLine, the ratings given to them by the UBS committee are also given. These ratings represent a thorough analysis of a great deal of detailed and complex manuscript information. Each one is based on manuscript evidence, a theory for weighing that evidence, knowledge of errors common to copyists, and an analysis of the context. These considerations result in a probability as to which reading is most likely to have been the oldest, the one from which the others proceeded. The rating reflects the strength of that probability in the opinion of the UBS committee. The reasoning behind the rating of each variant in UBS4 has been published in Metzger’s A Textual Commentary on the Greek New Testament. Variants described in the footnotes of UBS4 are identified in the notes of the New Testament TransLine using the letter rating given to them by the UBS4 committee.

- {A} means that in the opinion of the committee, the reading is certain.
- {B} means that in the opinion of the committee, the reading is almost certain.
- {C} means that the committee had difficulty determining which reading was best.
- {D} means that the committee had great difficulty arriving at a decision.

The “reading” is the New Testament text. The “variants” or “alternate readings” are in the notes. Variants not listed in UBS4 are identified as follows:

- {N} means that the source describing the variant is the 27th edition of the Nestle Aland Greek text. Had these variants been rated by the UBS4 committee, most of them would be {A}, but some were the accepted reading in the 25th edition.
- {K} means that the variant comes from the Greek text underlying the KJV but is not listed in UBS4 or NA27, or that the variant is found in the KJV without Greek manuscript support (for example, some readings were included in the KJV based on the Latin translation). Had these variants been rated by the UBS4 committee, most if not all of them would be {A}.

Understanding the ratings. In order to truly understand what lies behind a variant reading and its rating, and to determine whether you agree with the rating, the Greek sources must be studied. Since the English reader cannot do so, he or she will not be able to assess the manuscript evidence for the variants or the theories for weighing it. However, the English reader can understand what the variants are and observe their potential significance to the meaning of the verse. The ratings provide a highly simplified glimpse into the relative strengths of the variants as perceived by the UBS committee. This helps because it will not work to just pick the reading that you think makes best sense. Many variants arose precisely because copyists tried to clarify or simplify a word or phrase that was obscure to them. When utilizing the ratings, however, be aware that other scholars may assess the probabilities differently for a given variant. Even the UBS committee had “majority” and “minority” opinions in a few cases. In addition, some scholars use a different theory to weigh the manuscript evidence, resulting in readings more similar to the KJV. It is not the place of the New Testament TransLine to advocate any theory, to endorse any of these good-faith efforts to produce the best possible Greek text, or to express its own opinion regarding any variant, but simply to present the textual facts for the reader’s consideration. The UBS/NA Greek text serves best as the starting point for this purpose.

All these works are of monumental importance and represent the present culmination of the efforts of hundreds of people over the centuries. They are foundational to our English Bible and to all Bible study. In addition, many commentaries from the last 150 years have been used to define alternate views of problem passages and to double-check the New Testament TransLine. Though I deemed it best not to include source reference details in this volume, I wish to acknowledge my great debt to all these who labored before me with quill and computer. In fact, in a real sense, the New Testament TransLine is a fruit of their labors. It makes available to the English reader a more sizeable and worthy portion of their work.

KEY TO THE TRANSLATION

Italics indicate words that are implied by the grammar of the Greek word, phrase, or sentence structure, or are required in normal English grammar. They are part of the literal translation.

[Brackets] indicate words added to clarify the meaning intended by the biblical writer. Skip over these words if you like, and what remains will be the literal translation.

Bold words are the words actually emphasized in the Greek by the biblical writer. For example, sometimes a subject is emphasized, “But I say to you,” or, “they will be comforted.” Sometimes the Greek word order is arranged so as to place emphasis on a word.

Dashed words are single Greek words translated by multiple English words. For example, “announced-as-good-news” represents a single Greek word. Such words are dashed when linked to notes, and on some other occasions. Every occurrence of such words is not dashed.

Small numbers after a word, like Savior¹², point to a note on the facing note page.

Small letters after a word, like Savior^A, point to the list of cross references at the bottom of the note page. The reference listed for that letter gives the location of the note on that word.

Verse numbers in the right-hand column mark the beginning of each verse. If the verse does not start at the beginning of the line, a raised dot marks the place.

KEY TO THE NOTES

Or, means that alternate translations of that Greek word or phrase are being given.

Some ... Others indicate different views as to the meaning.

Elsewhere only means that all the other places where that Greek word is used are listed.

Same word as means that some of the other uses are listed, but not all.

Related to indicates that another form of the same root word is being given. For example, the noun, verb and adjective forms of the same Greek root word might be listed.

{A}, {B}, {C}, {D}, {N}, {K} are ratings of the probability that the reading in the text is the oldest. This is explained in the Introduction under “The Greek text behind the New Testament TransLine.”

- 1A.¹ The book² of the genealogy³ of Jesus Christ, son of David, son of Abraham— 1
- 1B. Abraham fathered⁴ Isaac, and Isaac fathered Jacob, and Jacob fathered Judah and his brothers,^{} and Judah fathered Perez and Zerah by Tamar, and Perez⁵ fathered Hezron, and Hezron fathered Ram, and Ram fathered Aminadab, and Aminadab fathered Nahshon, and Nahshon fathered Salmon,^{} and Salmon fathered Boaz by Rahab, and Boaz fathered Obed by Ruth, and Obed fathered Jesse,^{*} and Jesse fathered David the king 2-3
- 2B. And David⁶ fathered Solomon by the one of Uriah,^{} and Solomon fathered Rehoboam, and Rehoboam fathered Abijah, and Abijah fathered Asaph⁷,^{} and Asaph fathered Jehoshaphat, and Jehoshaphat fathered Joram, and Joram fathered⁸ Uzziah,^{} and Uzziah fathered Jotham, and Jotham fathered Ahaz, and Ahaz fathered Hezekiah,^{} and Hezekiah fathered Manasseh, and Manasseh fathered Amos⁹, and Amos fathered Josiah,^{*} and Josiah fathered¹⁰ Jeconiah and his brothers at the time of the deportation of Babylon 7 8 9 10 11

- 2A.¹⁶ Now the birth¹⁷ of Jesus Christ¹⁸ was as follows 18
- 1B. His mother Mary having been promised-in-marriage¹⁹ to Joseph— before they came-together²⁰, she was found²¹ having a child in the womb^C by²² the Holy Spirit
- 2B. And Joseph her husband²³— being righteous²⁴, and not wanting^D to publicly-expose²⁵ her— intended²⁶ to send her away²⁷ secretly²⁸ 19

- 2C. And Joseph, having arisen from the sleep, did as the angel of the Lord commanded^P him and took her as his wife. ^{*}And he was not knowing³⁶ her until which time she gave-birth^G to a Son³⁷. And he called^H His name Jesus 24 25
- 3A. Now Jesus having been born^A in Bethlehem of Judea in the days of Herod the king³⁸— 2:1

1. On the genealogy of Jesus, compare Lk 3:23-38.
2. Or, "record". Same word used in phrases like "the book of Psalms", "the book of life". Used 10 times. GK 1047.
3. Or, "origin, beginning, birth". Our word "genesis" is a transliteration of this word. Some translate this word "history, account" as in Gen 2:4, taking this verse as a title to the whole book. In Gen 5:1, it means "genealogy". On this word, see "existence" in Jam 3:6.
4. Or, "caused to be born, became the father or progenitor of, begat". On this word, see "born" in 1 Jn 2:29. It is used of a child, and, skipping generations, of more distant descendants, such as a grandchild or great grandchild. "Born" in v 16 and 2:1 is the same word, with different grammar.
5. From Perez to David, Matthew follows the Septuagint (or, LXX, the Greek translation of the Hebrew OT used at that time) at Ruth 4:18-22, including the spelling of names (except for Boaz and Obed). In both places, some generations appear to be omitted between Rahab and David, based on 1 King 6:1.
6. From Solomon to Zerubbabel, Matthew follows 1 Chron 3:5-19, with spelling differences on Solomon, Jotham, and Josiah. He also substitutes "Uzziah" (his name in 2 Chron 26:1) for "Azariah" (his name in 1 Chron 3:12). Some manuscripts say "David the king" {N}.
7. Some manuscripts say "Asa" here and next {B}, as in 1 Chron 3:10. Some think the incorrect "Asaph" was later changed to the correct "Asa". Others think the correct "Asa" was later changed or copied incorrectly as "Asaph". GK 811.
8. Ahaziah, Joash and Amaziah are omitted.
9. Some manuscripts say "Amon" here and next {B}, as in 1 Chron 3:14. Same issue as "Asaph".
10. Jehoiakim is omitted. His son, Jehoiachin, was also known as Jeco-niah.
11. The names from Abihud to Jacob are not otherwise known to us.
12. Some think this is the personal genealogy of Joseph. Others think it is the legal, royal line of succession to David's throne down to Joseph. There are other views. See Luke 3:23.
13. This word is feminine, referring to Mary. Some manuscripts say "Joseph—to whom having been promised-in-marriage, the virgin Mary bore Jesus, the One being called Christ" {A}.
14. That is, all the ones Matthew names above. Matthew limits his list to fourteen in each group.
15. In order to have fourteen in each group, some think Matthew intends Jeconiah to be counted twice. He is the last son before the deportation and the first father after. Others think that David is to be counted in both group one and two, and Jeconiah only in group three. Others think that the Jeconiah in group two refers to Jehoiakim and the Jeconiah in group three refers to Jehoiachin. Others think that Mary is to be counted in addition to Joseph in group three.
16. On the birth and childhood of Jesus, compare Lk 2:1-52.
17. Same word as "genealogy" in v 1.
18. Some manuscripts say "Christ Jesus"; others, "Jesus" {B}.
19. Or, "betrothed". That is, by her parents, according to their custom. Elsewhere only in Lk 1:27; 2:5. GK 3650.
20. Some think Matthew means this in a sexual sense. Others think he means "before Joseph brought her into his house", the next step after the betrothal (and which includes the sexual sense). GK 5302.
21. That is, by Joseph. This would be considered adultery even though they were only betrothed, Deut 22:23-24.
22. That is, she was pregnant by the Holy Spirit. Same word as in "by" Tamar, Rahab, Ruth, etc., v 3, 5, 6, 16, 20. GK 1666.
23. We would say "her future husband". On this word, see "man" in 1 Tim 2:12.
24. Because Joseph was righteous, he was no longer willing to take her—an adulteress—as his wife.
25. Or, "disgrace, make a public example of". Elsewhere only as "exposed" in Col 2:15. GK 1258. Related to "publicly disgrace" in Heb 6:6.
26. Or, "wanted, resolved, desired, wished". On this word, see "willed" in Jam 1:18.
27. That is, to divorce her. On this word, "send away", see 5:31. Joseph planned to end their promise to marry by giving her a bill of divorce, without publicly charging her with adultery.
28. Or, "privately, quietly, in secret", in a manner unseen, not known, not noticed, not observed, that escapes the notice of others. Elsewhere only in 2:7; Jn 11:28; Act 16:37. GK 3277. Related to "escape notice" in 2 Pet 3:5.
29. Or, "thought out, considered, reflected on". Elsewhere only as "thinking" in 9:4. GK 1926. Related to the word in Act 10:19, and "thoughts" in Heb 4:12.
30. Or, "become afraid". On this word, see "respecting" in Eph 5:33.
31. Same word as in v 24; 2:13, 14, 20, 21; 4:5, 8; Jn 14:3. On this word, see Lk 17:34.
32. Same word as was used throughout the genealogy above. See v 2.
33. Some think this is Matthew's comment. Others think it is still the words of the angel.
34. This expression "this entire thing" is elsewhere only in 26:56, in a similar statement.
35. Or, "the word having been spoken, what was spoken". This phrase "the thing having been spoken" is unique to Matthew. It occurs only in 1:22; 2:15, 17, 23; 4:14; 8:17; 12:17; 13:35; 21:4; 22:31; 24:15; 27:9. In addition, in each case where it is present, "saying" modifies "prophet" ("God" in 22:31). It is spoken by the Lord, through the prophet who says what follows.
36. That is, Joseph was not having sexual intercourse with Mary. On this word, see Lk 1:34.
37. Some manuscripts say "her firstborn Son" {A}. Compare 13:55-56.
38. That is, Herod the Great, king of Judea from 37 to 4 B.C. He is mentioned only in Mt 2 and Lk 1:5. He built the Temple in Jerusalem, the city and harbor of Caesarea, Masada, etc. Upon his death, his kingdom was divided among three of his sons—Archelaus (v 22) and Antipas (Mt 14:1) from one wife, and Philip II (Lk 3:1) from a second wife. A third wife bore Philip I (Mt 14:3). A fourth wife bore Aristobulus, who became the father of Agrippa (Act 12:1) and Herodias (Mt 14:3). Herodias married Philip I and had a daughter named Salome (Mt 14:6); and later left him and married Antipas, to which John the Baptist objected. Salome later married Philip II. Elsewhere in the Gospels, "Herod" refers to this man's son, Herod Antipas. GK 2476.

1. These were wise men-priests-seers, experts in astrology and interpretation of dreams. While their country is not known, they are at least similar to the Babylonian wise men over whom Daniel was made ruler, Dan 2:48. Perhaps their knowledge came from Daniel's prophecies. This word is used in Dan 1:20; 2:2, 10, 27; 5:7, 11, 15, where it is translated "conjurers" (NASB), "astrologers" (NKJV), or "enchanters" (NIV, NRSV). The singular is "magus". 21. Or, "enraged". Used only here. GK 2597. Related to "fury" in Rev 16:19.
22. Or, "did away with". Some think this might have involved up to twenty infants, given the size of Bethlehem. Used with reference to persons as killing in the sense of "taking" life, whether in battle, by murder, assassination, suicide, or execution. The root word is "to take". Same word as in Lk 22:2; Act 2:23; 5:33, 36; 7:28; 9:23, 24, 29; 10:39; 12:2; 16:27; 22:20; 23:15, 21, 27; 25:3; 26:10; 2 Thes 2:8. 1. This son of Herod ruled Judea, Idumea, and Samaria from 4 B.C. to A.D. 6. See 2:1. He was worse than his father. The Emperor Augustus deposed and exiled him in A.D. 6, and reorganized his territory as a Roman province under a "prefect" (a military governor), in which capacity Pilate later served. It continued as such until A.D. 41, when the Emperor Claudius added it to the territories ruled by King Agrippa I (see Act 12:1; Lk 3:1). Used only here. GK 793.
2. More literally, "is", as the Greek typically phrases it.
3. Joseph may have intended to reside in Bethlehem or Jerusalem.
4. Or, "town", of varying sizes. Used 162 times. GK 4484.
5. Or, "that", introducing a quote. This is not a quote from the OT. Matthew is referring to the "prophets" in general (as in 26:56), who say that the Messiah will be despised and lowly. He sees this as partially fulfilled in the fact that Jesus is called a Nazarene (note Jn 1:46; 7:41). Nazareth was a small and unimportant town in Galilee. Of the 12 places Matthew uses the preceding formula to introduce a reference to the OT (see 1:22), this is the only one followed by this word. GK 4022. Compare the use of this word in 4:6. There are other views.

21. Or, "expect, imagine". Do not be of this opinion. On this word, see Lk 19:11.
22. Or, "among". This very thing is said in Jn 8:39.
23. Or, "being laid". John is referring to Israel. The Messiah will win-
- now the nation, v 12. Same word as in Lk 2:12; Jn 20:5; 1 Cor 3:11; 1 Jn 5:19; as "set" in Rev 4:2; and as "appointed" in Lk 2:34. Used 24 times. GK 3023.
24. John uses grammar that emphasizes the contrast between himself and the One coming after him.
25. Or, "in". Same word as "in" the Jordan (v 6), and as "with" the Holy Spirit later in this verse. See Mk 1:8.
26. Some think John means that believers will be baptized with the Holy Spirit, unbelievers with fire, as in v 10, 12. Others think the "fire" refers to the "tongues as if of fire" on the day of Pentecost, Act 2:1-3. Others think that it refers to the purifying work of the Holy Spirit, "and with [His] fire". Compare Lk 12:49. This word is used 71 times. GK 4786. Related to "burn" in 2 Cor 11:29; and "fire-red" in Rev 6:4.
27. Oxen threshed the grain by walking on it, breaking it apart. Then this tool was used to throw it into the air so that the wind could blow away the chaff, separating it from the grain, which fell back to the floor. The One coming is ready to begin winnowing His people. Elsewhere only in Lk 3:17. GK 4768.
28. Used only here. GK 1351. Related to "clean-out" in Lk 3:17.
29. The grain is on His threshing floor. He will winnow it and take both wheat and chaff to their destination.
30. Elsewhere only in Lk 3:17. That is, the husks and straw remaining after the wheat is removed. GK 949.
31. Parallel account at Mk 1:9; Lk 3:21. Compare Jn 1:29-34; 3:22-36.
32. Same word as in v 1.
33. Some think Jesus means that as a devout son of Israel, it was fitting that He submit to John's preparatory baptism, even though He had no need to "confess out" or repent. Others think He means that this will serve as His consecration to His work as Messiah, followed by the Father's acceptance of Him in this role in v 17. There are other views. On this word, see "filled" in Eph 5:18.
34. That is, in John baptizing Jesus.
35. Or, "went up, came up". Related to "descending" later in the verse. GK 326.
36. Or, "away from", in the sense of "up on the shore". GK 608. See Mk 1:10 on this.
37. Some take "to Him" to mean that only Jesus (and John, Jn 1:32) experienced this. Some manuscripts omit "to Him" {C}.
38. Or, "He". Matthew could mean John, or Jesus. Compare Lk 3:21-22; Jn 1:32.
39. Or, "like". On this word, see Rom 6:13. It is not the same word as in Mk 1:10; Lk 3:22; Jn 1:32 (GK 6055), but is related to it. Luke links this to the bodily form.
40. Some manuscripts omit this word {C}.
41. Same word as in Rom 1:7; 1 Cor 4:14; 1 Jn 2:7. Used 61 times, all as "beloved". GK 28. Related to "devotedly-love" in Jn 21:15.
42. On "was well-pleased", see 17:5.
43. Parallel account at Mk 1:12; Lk 4:1.
44. Or, "brought up". Same word as in Lk 4:5; Act 16:34; as "bring up" in Lk 2:22; Rom 10:7; Heb 13:20; and as "put so sea" (lead the ship up on the sea) in Act 20:13. Used 23 times. GK 343.
45. Or, "tested". On this word, see Heb 2:18.

1. As God said in 3:17. Or, "Since". Same word as in v 6. The grammar assumes that the premise is true. Assuming that You are what God said You are, prove it with Your power (v 3) or His power (v 6).
2. Only God creates by speaking it. If Jesus did not have the power to do so, this would not even be a temptation. That He had the power is clear in 14:19. "Loaves-of-bread" is the same word as "bread" in Lk 4:3, where this phrase is singular, and as "bread" next in Mt 4:4. It occurs 97 times. GK 788.
3. Or, "Man, The human, The person, Humankind". This is the word anthropos, from which we get "anthropo"-logy, the study of man. It is used to refer to a "man" (a male), as in 8:9; 9:9; 19:3, 5; 26:24, 72; Mk 14:13; Lk 5:20; 9:44; and in the sense of "person, human", including male and female. There is another word which means "man, husband" (see 1 Tim 2:12), and another meaning "male" (see Mt 19:4). To distinguish this word from those, and to give the correct sense of this word, it is rendered "man" (about 260 times) only when referring to a male, except in the phrase "Son of Man" (see Jn 5:27), which emphasizes Christ's humanity (perhaps meaning "the human One") and His connection with the prophecy of Dan 7:13. Otherwise, it is rendered as "mankind" only in Mt 4:4; Mk 2:27; 11:2; Lk 4:4; 19:30; Jn 1:4; Act 4:17; 15:17; 17:26; 19:35; 2 Cor 4:2; 1 Tim 6:16; Jam 3:8; Rev 9:15, 18, 20; 14:4, 21:3; as "human" about 55 times, as in Mt 9:8; 15:9; 16:23; 19:26; 21:25; Mk 3:28; Jn 5:34; 10:33; Act 5:38; 17:29; Rom 2:1; 3:5; 1 Cor 1:25; 3:3; 13:1; 15:39; Gal 1:1, 10, 11, 12; 3:15; Eph 3:5; Phil 2:7; 1 Thes 2:13; 4:8; Heb 13:6; 2 Pet 1:21; 1 Jn 5:9; Rev 21:17; and as "person, people" about 210 times, as in Mt 10:36; 12:12, 36; 15:11; 16:26; 23:7; Mk 1:17; Jn 1:9; 2:25; 3:19; 6:10; 12:43; Act 4:12; 5:29; 17:30; Rom 2:9; 5:12; Eph 4:22; 1 Thes 2:4; 1 Tim 2:4, 5; 4:10; Tit 2:11; Heb 6:16; Jam 2:24; 1 Pet 2:4; Rev 9:6. Used 550 times. GK 476.
4. Matthew and Luke reverse the order of the second and third temptations. See Lk 4:5.
5. Or, "written that 'He will command' ", "that" introducing the quotation, as this word is rendered in Lk 4:10. However, Matthew does not use the word this way in any of his other seven quotations that follow "it has been written" (2:5; 4:4, 7, 10; 11:10; 21:13; 26:31). In addition, "because" is part of the verse quoted from Ps 91:11. The devil is saying "Jump, because God said He would protect You".
6. That is, for the second time I say. Or, "Yet-again, On the other hand", in response to Satan's quotation of Scripture. On this word, see Mk 15:13.
7. This verb, "put to the test, test out" is the same one Paul uses in 1 Cor 10:9. Elsewhere only in Lk 4:12; 10:25. GK 1733. Related to "tempted" in Heb 2:18, and "trials" in Jam 1:2. To deliberately take such an action in view of a Scriptural promise, and then ask God to save us from its consequences, is to wrongly put God to the test. God's promise in Ps 91 is true, but Satan's suggested test of it is evil. Note also Act 5:9; 15:10.
8. Same word as "worship" in v 10. On this word, see 14:33.
9. Or, "Be going" or simply "Go". Same word as "get" in 16:23; and as "go" in 8:4, 13; 18:15; 19:21; 21:28; 28:10. Used 79 times. GK 5632. Some manuscripts add "behind Me" {A}, so that it says "Get behind Me" as in 16:23.
10. Parallel to Mk 1:14; Lk 3:19; 4:14. Compare Jn 4:1-3.
11. That is, by Herod Antipas, 14:3. On this word, see Mt 26:21.
12. Or, "withdrew". Same word as in 2:12. Elsewhere only as "go-away" in Mt 2:13; 9:24; Act 26:31; "depart" in Mt 27:5; and "withdraw" in Mt 2:14, 22; 12:15; 14:13; 15:21; Mk 3:7; Jn 6:15; Act 23:19. GK 432.
13. Luke may give an incident from this time in Nazareth at Lk 4:16.
14. This word modifies "prophet", as in 2:17.
15. That is, toward the sea, west of the Jordan and the Sea of Galilee, the location of the lands of Zebulun and Naphtali.
16. Compare Lk 1:79. On this word, see Rev 14:6.
17. This phrase also occurs in 16:21 and 26:16. Elsewhere only in Lk 16:16.
18. Parallel account at Mk 1:16. Compare Lk 5:1-11; Jn 1:35-51.
19. This is a circular net used in fishing, thrown by hand. Used only here. GK 312. The related verb is in Mk 1:16. The general word for "net" is in v 20, and the word for the large "drag-net" used in fishing is in Mt 13:47.
20. This is a general word for "nets" used to catch fish, birds, etc. Used 12 times, always of fishing nets. GK 1473.
21. Or, "putting in order, restoring". It could refer to mending, cleaning, re-folding, etc. On this word, see Rom 9:22.
22. Parallel to Mk 1:39; Lk 4:44.
23. Some manuscripts say "Jesus" {N}.
24. Or, "weakness, ailment, softness". Elsewhere only in 9:35; 10:1, where this same phrase occurs. GK 3433.

- 5B. And the report¹ of Him went into all Syria². And they brought to Him all the ones being ill³, being gripped⁴ with various diseases⁵ and torments⁵, and⁶ being demon-possessed⁶, and having seizures⁷, and paralytics⁸. And He cured⁸ them 24

1. Or, "news". On this word, see "hearing" in Heb 4:2.
2. Syria is the Roman province that included Palestine. It included all the regions mentioned in v 25.
3. This is an idiom, "having it badly". On this idiom, see Mk 1:32.
4. Or, "held under the control of, ruled by". Or, in a negative sense, "afflicted, oppressed". More serious than "being ill", it may imply a loss of control of a function or of one's life. Used in this sense also in Lk 4:38; Act 28:8. On this word, see "control" in 2 Cor 5:14.
5. On this word, see Lk 16:23. Related to "tormented" in Rev 14:10.
6. Some manuscripts omit this word {C}.
7. Or, "being moonstruck, being a lunatic". That is, ones out of control of themselves. Ancient people thought this condition was brought on by the phases of the moon. Elsewhere only in Mt 17:15. GK 4944. Related to "moon". Based on the descriptions in Mk 9:18; Lk 9:39, some translate it "epileptic".
8. Our word comes from this Greek word, paralutikos. Same word as in 9:2, 6; Mk 2:3, 4, 5, 9, 10. Elsewhere only as "paralyzed" in Mt 8:6. GK 4166. Related to "make feeble" in Heb 12:12.
9. Most think this is the same occasion as Lk 6:12-49.
10. Matthew could mean the twelve (as in 10:1; 11:1), or the larger group of "learners" from whom the twelve were chosen, Lk 6:13, 17, 20. On this word, see Lk 6:40.
11. Some think Matthew means "the crowds" in 4:25 (note 7:28). Others think he means the "disciples" in v 1. Others think it is addressed to both, with a different nuance to each. In addition, some view chapters 5-7 as the attainable standard of righteousness necessary to enter the kingdom of heaven. Others view it as the premier application of the Law, giving the unattainable standards that drive us to Christ (Gal 3:24; 1 Tim 1:8). Others view it as the standard of conduct for those who have entered the kingdom of heaven. There are other views.
12. Compare Lk 6:20-26.
13. Or, "Happy, Fortunate". On this word, see Lk 6:20. This could be rendered "The poor in spirit are fortunate", and likewise with the beatitudes that follow. Jesus declares blessed the qualities that reveal the character of the heart, not the outer things we humans usually focus on (riches, health, etc.).
14. On this word, see Gal 4:9. That is, like the man in Lk 18:13.
15. The rest of the beatitudes are placed at the "C." level as a subject grouping only, not because they are subordinate to verse 3.
16. Or, "they themselves", and likewise in each case down through v 9. They and no other. Jesus emphasizes this word.
17. Or, "meek". Like Christ, 11:29; 21:5. Not the self-assertive. On this word, see 1 Pet 3:4.
18. Or, "clean", as elsewhere in Matthew (23:26; 27:59), and Tit 1:15.
19. This word is made of the noun "peace", and the verb "to make". Used only here. GK 1648. The related verb is in Col 1:20.
20. That is, ones characterized by the same trait as God, your Father. God is the ultimate peacemaker, sending His Son to make peace, Rom 5:1. On "sons of God", see Rom 8:14.
21. That is, they speak it falsely. Compare 1 Pet 4:15-16. Some manuscripts omit "while lying" {C}.
22. Or, "for the sake of". It is "because of" from the persecutor's point of view; "for the sake of" from the believer's point of view. Same word as in Lk 6:22, and as "for the sake of" here in v 10. GK 1915.
23. On this word, see "rejoice greatly" in Lk 10:21.
24. Compare Mk 9:50; Lk 14:34-35.
25. That is, the preservative against moral decay. GK 229.
26. Same word as in Lk 14:34. Mark says "unsalty" in Mk 9:50.
27. Or, "seasoned". This is the verb related to the word "salt". Elsewhere only in Mk 9:49. GK 245.
28. That is, it is not potent for anything. It no longer has the power or strength or ability to be used for anything. The Greek actually states this in reverse, "For nothing does it still have strength except...". On this word, see "can do" in Gal 5:6.
29. Some manuscripts say "except to be thrown outside and trampled-underfoot" {N}.
30. That is, the source of spiritual truth, reflected from God, lighting the darkness. Note Phil 2:15.
31. Compare Mk 4:21; Lk 8:16.
32. That is, have a lamp burning, as we would "burn" a kerosene lamp. Same word as Lk 12:35; 24:32; Rev 19:20. Used 11 times. GK 2794.
33. That is, publicly, like a city on a hill or a lamp on a lampstand, for all to see and benefit from.
34. Or, "destroy, tear down, do away with". On this word, see "tear down" in 24:2.
35. Or, "complete, finish". Some take this to mean that in His life, Jesus perfectly fulfilled the requirements of the Law; others, that in His teaching, He fulfilled or filled out the true meaning and intent of the Law; others, that in His death, He brought the Law to its completion and conclusion. Note Rom 10:4, where similar views arise. On this word, see "filled" in Eph 5:18.
36. The OT prophets said "Thus says the Lord". Jesus is the Lord! So the Son of God says "Truly I say", invoking no higher authority than Himself. This is partially responsible for the crowd's reaction in 7:28. This word is not related to the word "true" (see 14:33). It is the word also translated "amen" (29 times). GK 297. It is used only by Jesus in this sense (100 times). John has it as "truly, truly". Jesus is asserting the absolute certainty and reality of what He says based on His own authority. He directly speaks God's words on the matter. He alone speaks (and heals, 8:3) in this manner. Compare Jn 14:10. In Lk 12:44, 21:3, Luke says "truly" using the word in Mt 14:33 in place of this word.
37. This is the smallest letter in the Greek alphabet, equivalent to an English "i". Jesus is referring to the smallest letter in the Hebrew alphabet, in which the Law was written. Used only here. GK 2740.
38. In Greek, this is used of the various accents and marks. Jesus is referring to a small stroke that distinguishes some Hebrew letters from others. In English, it would be like the single stroke that distinguishes an "E" from an "F", or an "O" from a "Q". Elsewhere only in Lk 16:17. GK 3037.
39. Or, "come about, happen". A common word, used 669 times. GK 1181. Compare Lk 16:17.
40. Or, "looses, undoes, abolishes, annuls, puts an end to, repeals, does away with". Not "fails to obey" (everyone is guilty of this), but "annuls the authority of". Jesus was accused of this in Jn 5:18. Same word as "loose" in 16:19; "untie" in 21:2; and "break" in Jn 5:18; 7:23; 10:35. Used 42 times, mostly as "untie, release". GK 3395. Related to "abolish" in v 17.

- 3D. “And it was said, ‘Whoever sends-away²⁹ his wife, let him give her a divorce³⁰ certificate’ 31

1. Jesus explains this by what follows. He means not just not murdering, but not being angry; not just not committing adultery, but not lusting; not just properly executing a divorce, but not divorcing; not just keeping oaths, but not using or needing them; not just limiting revenge to a properly measured response, but not responding in kind at all; not just loving neighbors, but loving enemies. The first item is the Pharisees' righteousness; the second is the abounding He has in mind. It is the true intent of the Law, the true requirement of God. The standard is internal perfection, not merely external conformity, v 48. On this word, see 2 Cor 8:2.
2. This was a shocking statement, and something that would have been thought impossible. It is impossible, if it is based on human achievement. A different kind of righteousness will be required. Note Rom 10:3.
3. Or, "never". This is the strongest negative in Greek. Used by Matthew in 5:18, 20, 26; 10:23, 42; 13:14; 15:6; 16:22, 28; 18:3, 23:39; 24:2, 21, 34, 35; 25:9; 26:29, 35. See Gal 5:16.
4. Or, "by". In either case, it was ancient teachers of the Law teaching their interpretation of it.
5. Or, "subject, answerable". Same word as in v 22. On this word, see "guilty" in 1 Cor 11:27.
6. Same word as in v 22. Some think Jesus means the judgment of a local court. Related to "sue" in v 40; and to "go to court" in 1 Cor 6:1. On this word, see Jn 3:19.
7. Jesus is not contradicting the Law, but explaining its true meaning. He applies it to the internal thoughts of the heart, not just to outward actions. Only by limiting it to the external can a person claim to have kept the Law.
8. Some manuscripts add "without-a-cause" {B}.
9. This is a transliterated Aramaic word of verbal abuse meaning "empty one". It is like our "blockhead, numbskull". Used only here. GK 4819.
10. That is, the ruling body of Israel, the highest of human courts.
11. The distinction intended between "Raca" and "Fool" is uncertain. Some think "fool" is simply the Greek translation of "Raca", no distinction being intended. Others think it is a transliteration of a Hebrew word meaning "rebel". Others think it means "fool" from God's point of view—an obstinate, godless person, so that "Raca" would be insulting one's mental abilities, and "fool" one's character. In addition, some think there is an escalation of offense (anger, Raca, fool) and of punishment (local court, Sanhedrin, Gehenna). Others think the three concepts are equivalent. On this word, see "foolish" in Tit 3:9.
12. Or, "hell", referring to the Valley of Hinnom near Jerusalem, which symbolized to the Jews the place of future torment. Elsewhere only in v 29, 30; 10:28; 18:9; 23:15, 33; Mk 9:43, 45, 47; Lk 12:5; Jam 3:6. GK 1147.
13. Or, "the fiery hell". The Gehenna characterized by fire. Same phrase as in 18:9. Compare Mk 9:43; Jam 3:6.
14. That is, your offering. Elsewhere only in Mt 2:11; 5:24; 8:4; 15:5; 23:18, 19; Mk 7:11; Lk 21:1, 4; Eph 2:8; Heb 5:1; 8:3, 4; 9:9; 11:4; Rev 11:10. GK 1565.
15. Used only here. GK 1367. Related to the word in Rom 5:10.
16. Compare Lk 12:57-59.
17. Or, "Be of good will, Be well disposed" to him, resulting in an agreement. Used only here. GK 2333. Related to "goodwill" in Eph 6:7.
18. More literally, "up to which time". Try to settle before you come before the judge. This idiom is elsewhere only in Lk 12:50; 13:8; 22:16; Jn 9:18; all "until". Or, "as long as which", that is, "while", in which case "[to court]" could be omitted. GK 2401, 4015.
19. Some manuscripts say "and the judge hand you over to the officer" {N}.
20. On this word, see Mk 12:42. It is the smallest denomination of Roman coin. In other words, once you enter the judicial system—this world's or God's—the full penalty must be paid.
21. Some manuscripts add "to the ancient ones", as in v 21 {N}.
22. Or, "that he might desire her", expressing the purpose of looking. Jesus again focuses on the heart, not simply the external action. The same construction occurs in Mt 6:1; 13:30; 23:5; 26:12; Mk 13:22; 1 Thes 2:9; 2 Thes 3:8; and is elsewhere only as "so that" in 2 Cor 3:13; Eph 6:11; and perhaps Lk 18:1. GK 4639.
23. On this word, see Gal 5:17. It means "to desire", or in a sexual context, it can mean "to lust".
24. Same word as in v 27, on which see v 32a.
25. Compare 18:8-9; Mk 9:43-48.
26. Take whatever action necessary to avoid sinning. Flee or separate yourself from the external inducements. On the word "causing to fall", see 1 Cor 8:13.
27. Maintain an eternal perspective on the matter. Sin is more serious than seeing. On this word, see v 22.
28. Some manuscripts say "be thrown" {N}.
29. Or, "dismisses, releases". "Divorce" in the modern sense includes a physical separation aspect, and a legal aspect. Here, this word refers to the separation aspect, and "give her a divorce certificate" to the legal aspect, as also in 19:7; Mk 10:4. Elsewhere in marriage contexts (14 of its 66 uses, GK 668), this word could be rendered "divorce" in the modern sense, 1:19; 5:32; 19:3, 8, 9; Mk 10:2, 11, 12; Lk 16:18. This word also means "pardon, leave, set free, let go". On this subject, see also the word "separate" in Mt 19:6; Mk 10:9; 1 Cor 7:10, 11, 15; "leave" in 1 Cor 7:11, 12, 13; and "release" in 1 Cor 7:27.
30. Or, "abandonment", a "standing away from". That is, if you are going to force your wife to leave, do it properly according to the Law of Moses. Make it legal, so that you do not disobey the Law of Moses when you send her away. The issue is not whether to send her away (Jewish men believed they had the right) but doing it properly. This was their interpretation of Moses. It is not what the Law says. See Mk 10:4. Elsewhere only in 19:7; Mk 10:4, in the phrase "certificate of divorce". The word "certificate" is not used here. GK 687. Related to "apostasy" in 2 Thes 2:3. Not related to "send away" earlier in this verse.

1. Or, "word, account". If the husband sends his wife away for anything except sexual immorality, he is responsible for making her an adulteress when she remarries. He is guilty of the sin in this matter. Jesus is saying that the husband should not send away his wife if she has not committed sexual immorality. Beyond this, there are different views on what inferences about divorce may be drawn from this verse. Note that He is not fully addressing the issue of divorce here, but is attacking the commonly held Jewish husband's point of view stated in v 31. On this word, see "word" in 1 Cor 12:8.
2. On this word, see 1 Cor 5:1.
3. Or, "become an adulteress", that is, when she remarries. Some think Jesus means the husband causes her "to suffer from adultery" when he remarries. In any case, Jesus is holding the husband accountable for her. And when he remarries, he also commits adultery (19:9), as does the man marrying her, spoken of next. As lust is a kind of adultery (v 28), divorce and remarriage is a kind of adultery, unless the partner has already committed sexual immorality. This word has this grammar elsewhere only in Jn 8:4, also of the woman. Elsewhere only in v 27, 28; 19:18; and Mk 10:19; Lk 16:18; 18:20; Rom 2:22; 13:9; Jam 2:11; Rev 2:22. GK 3658.
4. Some manuscripts say "and the one having married..." {B}.
5. Or, "is an adulterer". Related to the word above. Elsewhere only in 19:9; Mk 10:11, 12. GK 3656.
6. Or, "make false oaths, swear falsely". Used only here. GK 2155. Related to "oath" next, and to "perjurer" in 1 Tim 1:10.
7. Or, "give back, render". If you swear by God to do something, it becomes a debt that you owe to Him in addition to the person to whom you have sworn. You "pay" the oath to God by "keeping, performing" what you swore to the person. On this word, see "render" in 16:27.
8. Some Jews believed oaths "to the Lord" must be kept, but oaths sworn by other things like those mentioned next could be violated. In other words, they were swearing an oath in a way that in their minds was not firmly linked to genuine truthfulness. On this word, see Jam 5:12. Related to "swear with an oath" next.
9. Or, "affirm, confirm with an oath" such as follows; I swear by heaven, by earth, etc. On this word, see Jam 5:12. Do not be one who must swear an oath in order to be believed. Some think this is universal in scope; others, that Jesus is referring to everyday conversations in which one might swear an oath to bolster a claim. Note 26:63. On the scope of this command, compare the verses noted in Jam 5:12.
10. That is, let your yes or no be your firm link to absolute truthfulness, without playing such games with words.
11. Or, "more than". GK 4356.
12. Or, "from evil", of evil origin.
13. That is, retaliate in kind, avenge yourself by doing the same thing back to them. Jews in Bible times took this to mean that they had to right to take personal revenge upon others.
14. Compare Lk 6:27-31.
15. Or, "oppose, stand against". On this word, see Eph 6:13. Leave vengeance to God. Jesus Himself is the prime example. He is speaking of personal retaliation, not of permitting evil to be done to others. For example, it is godly to defend the widow or orphan from the evil person exploiting them, Isa 1:17. In other words, show love to your enemies, not retaliation, not "returning evil for evil", Rom 12:17. Three examples follow.
16. Elsewhere only in 26:67, of Jesus. A slap is a personal affront. Some take this in an absolute sense. GK 4824. Related to "slap" in Jn 18:22.
17. Some manuscripts omit this word {C}, so that it says, "on the right cheek".
18. Or, "wanting you to be judged". On this word, see "judge" in 7:1.
19. That is, your undergarment worn next to the skin, a sleeveless shirt reaching below the knees. Same word as in 10:10; Mk 6:9; Lk 3:11; 6:29; 9:3; Jn 19:23; Act 9:39; Jude 23. Elsewhere only as "clothes" in Mk 14:63. GK 5945.
20. That is, the outer garment. This was also their blanket. Jews were not permitted to take it, Ex 22:26-27. On this word, see "garments" in 1 Pet 3:3.
21. This word, "press into service, requisition, compel, force" is used elsewhere only of Simon being "pressed into service" to carry the cross in Mt 27:32; Mk 15:21. Soldiers would "compel" people to carry their things. GK 30.
22. A Roman mile is 1000 paces (counted on one leg, making it 2000 steps of both legs). More precisely, it is eight stades (see Rev 14:20), which is about 4854 feet or 1.5 kilometers. Used only here. GK 3627.
23. Not simply family and friends, but the "evil person" (v 39), and "enemies" (v 44). This is what God does.
24. The Jews considered only fellow Jews to be their neighbors.
25. Compare Lk 6:32-35.
26. Some manuscripts add "be blessing the ones cursing you, be doing good to the ones hating you" {A}, as in Lk 6:27-28.
27. Some manuscripts say "the ones mistreating you and persecuting you" {A}, as in Lk 6:28.
28. Or, "be, become". GK 1181.
29. That is, characterized by the same things as your Father. He loves His enemies.
30. Or, "uncommon, remarkable; what thing more, beyond". Same word as "beyond" in v 37. GK 4356.
31. That is, the non-believers. On this word, see 3 Jn 7. Some manuscripts say "tax gatherers" {B}, as in v 46.
32. Compare Lk 6:36.
33. On this word, see "complete" in 1 Cor 13:10. Same grammar as the commands in v 21, 27, 33, 43.
34. Some manuscripts omit this word {C}.
35. That is, your righteous deeds, such as almsgiving, prayer, and fasting. Some manuscripts say "almsgiving" {N}, the word in v 2.
36. Or, "before, in the sight of". Same word as in 5:16, 24; 7:6; 10:32; Mk 2:12; 9:2; Rev 19:10; and as "before" in Mt 6:2; Lk 21:36; 2 Cor 5:10. Used 48 times. GK 1869.
37. That is, do not do them for this purpose. Same grammar as in 5:28. Compare 5:16, where the purpose is to bring glory to God, not yourself. God sees the heart.
38. On this idiom "otherwise indeed", see 2 Cor 11:16.

1. Or, "alms". That is, charity, charitable-giving to the poor. Same word as in 6:3, 4. Elsewhere only as "alms" in Lk 11:41; 12:33; Act 3:2, 3, 10; and plural, "acts of almsgiving" in Act 9:36; 10:2, 4, 31; 24:17. The Law commanded it, Deut 15:11. GK 1797. Related to "merciful" in 5:7. The root word is "have mercy".
2. Or, "pretenders, actors". Our word comes from this Greek word "hypokrites". Elsewhere only in Mt 6:5, 16; 7:5; 15:7; 22:18; 23:13, 15, 23, 25, 27, 29; 24:51; Mk 7:6; Lk 6:42; 12:56; 13:15. GK 5695. Related to "pretend" in Lk 20:20, and "hypocrisy" in Gal 2:13.
3. Or, "narrow streets, alleys". Elsewhere only in Lk 14:21; Act 9:11; 12:10. GK 4860.
4. This was used as an accounting term, "to receive in full". On this word, see Phil 4:18. Their reward is being glorified by people. They sought this, and they receive it, nothing more. Same word as in v 5, 16.
5. Some manuscripts say "will Himself reward you" {N}. Others add "in the open" {B}.
6. Or, "appear, be visible". Same word as "appear" in v 16, 18. On this word, see "shine" in Phil 2:15. Not the same word as "be seen" in v 1.
7. Or, "storeroom". That is, a room in the interior of a house. Same word as in 24:26; Lk 12:3. Elsewhere only as "storeroom" in Lk 12:24. GK 5421.
8. Some manuscripts add "in the open" {B}.
9. Some think Jesus is referring to uttering "meaningless words"; others, to "empty repetition", repeating the same words again and again (as in the two-hour incident in Act 19:34). In any case, the emphasis is on the quantity of words. Used only here. GK 1006.
10. Or, "imagining, expecting, supposing, presuming". On this word, see Lk 19:11.
11. Or, "wordiness, much talking". Used only here. GK 4494.
12. Compare Lk 11:2-4.
13. Each request is in the form of a command (as normal for a direct request), but the grammar changes with the fourth request.
14. Or, "hallowed, sanctified, consecrated". On this word, see "sanctified" in Heb 10:29. The opposite of "profane" in 12:5.
15. Or, "come about, take place, happen, come to pass, become [reality]". Same word as in 8:13; 9:29; 18:19; 26:42; Lk 23:24; 1 Cor 14:26; Rev 16:17; 21:6. GK 1181.
16. This word is found only in the phrase "daily bread" here and in Lk 11:3. Its exact nuance is uncertain. Some think it means "necessary for existence"; others, "for today"; others, our "daily ration given out for tomorrow". In any case, the only request for material things in the Lord's prayer does not reach beyond our immediate need. What about tomorrow? Jesus later says not to worry about it, v 34. GK 2157.
17. This word means "forgive" in the sense of "let go, cancel, pardon, release". This sense of the word is found only in Mt 6:14, 15; 9:2, 5, 6; 12:31, 32; 18:21, 27, 32, 35; Mk 2:5, 7, 9, 10; 3:28; 4:12; 11:25; Lk 5:20, 21, 23, 24; 7:47, 48, 49; 11:4; 12:10; 17:3, 4; 23:34; Jn 20:23; Act 8:22; Rom 4:7; Jam 5:15; 1 Jn 1:9; 2:12. Elsewhere this word mainly means "to leave, permit, allow". Used 143 times. GK 918. Related to "forgiveness" in Col 1:14.
18. Note the tenses. Forgiveness is assumed to be a characteristic part of a believer's way of life. Jesus explains this in v 14-15. Some manuscripts say "are forgiving" {N}. Note Lk 17:3.
19. This verb "to bring in" is elsewhere only in Lk 5:18, 19; 11:4; 12:11; Act 17:20; 1 Tim 6:7; Heb 13:11. GK 1662. Some render it "lead" here.
20. Or, "trial, testing". On this word, see "trials" in Jam 1:2. Some prefer "trial" here, since God does not tempt us to do evil, Jam 1:13. Others think Jesus means "do not bring us into a situation in which we will be tempted by the evil one", as God did Jesus in 4:1, and as Jesus said to Peter in Lk 22:40, "Pray that you may not enter into temptation" (using this same word).
21. Or, "rescue, save". On this word, see Col 1:13. Some think this is a separate petition, making it point 7E.
22. Or, "from evil". Some manuscripts add "Because Yours is the kingdom and the power and the glory forever, amen" {A}.
23. Compare Mk 11:25.
24. Of all the petitions above, Jesus felt this one needed further explanation.
25. Or, "false steps, sins". Elsewhere only in 6:15; Mk 11:25; Rom 4:25; 5:15, 16, 17, 18, 20; 11:11, 12; 2 Cor 5:19; Gal 6:1; Eph 1:7; 2:1, 5; Col 2:13. GK 4183. The root word means "fall". Related to "fall away" in Heb 6:6.
26. Some manuscripts include these words {C}.
27. That is, voluntarily skip meals for spiritual purposes. Elsewhere only in 4:2; 6:17, 18; 9:14, 15; Mk 2:18, 19, 20; Lk 5:33, 34, 35; 18:12; Act 13:2, 3. GK 3764. Related to "fastings" in 2 Cor 11:27.
28. Or, "sullen-faced, gloomy-faced". Elsewhere only in Lk 24:17. GK 5034.
29. Or, "render invisible or unrecognizable, ruin, destroy". This is a play on words. This is the word "appear" which follows, with a negative prefix. The hypocrites "mal-appear" or "dis-appear" their faces that they may "appear" to be fasting. They blackened their faces with ashes. Elsewhere only as "destroy" in v 19, 20; "perish" in Act 13:41; and "disappear" in Jam 4:14. GK 906. Related to "disappearance" in Heb 8:13; "hidden" in Heb 4:13; and "invisible" in Lk 24:31.
30. This word occurs only in this verse. GK 3224. It is related to the word in v 4 and 6.
31. Some manuscripts add "in the open" {A}.
32. Compare Lk 12:33-34.
33. On this word, see "store up" in 1 Cor 16:2.
34. Or, "consuming, eating-by-rust". Jesus may be broadly referring to the "eating" of treasures in general by insects, worms, and all the other natural processes of this world, as this word is normally used. In this case, "eating" refers to the broad category of consumption, of which "moth" eating is but one example. If He specifically has metal treasures in view here, then it could be rendered "eating-by-rust, corroding" (a natural extension of this word, but one not found elsewhere in Greek. The normal word group for "corrode, rust" is in Jam 5:2-3, along with "moth-eaten"). In this case, moth and rust would refer to the consumption of different categories of treasure. This noun is the same word as in v 20; Rom 14:17; 1 Cor 8:4; 2 Cor 9:10; Col 2:16. Elsewhere only as "meal" in Heb 12:16; and "food" in Jn 4:32; 6:27, 55. GK 1111. Related to "food" in Mk 7:19; "moth-eaten" in Jam 5:2; and "eaten-by-worms" in Act 12:23.
35. They "ruin, destroy", or cause to "disappear, perish". Same word as "disfigure" in v 16.
36. Jesus next uses two illustrations to explain and apply this.

- 1D.¹ “The lamp^A of the body is the eye² 22
- 1E. “Therefore if your eye is single³, your whole body will be full-of-light⁴
- 2E. “But if your eye is bad⁵, your whole body will be full-of-darkness^B 23
- 3E. “If then the light in you is darkness⁶, how great is the darkness!
- 2D.⁷ “No one can be serving⁸ two masters^C 24
- 1E. “For either he will hate^D the one and love^E the other, or he will be devoted-to⁹ one and disregard¹⁰ the other
- 2E. “You cannot be serving God and wealth¹¹
- 2C.¹² “For this reason¹³ I say to you— do not be anxious¹⁴ for your life as to what you may eat or 25 what you may drink¹⁵, nor for your body as to what you may put-on^F
- 1D. “Is not life more than food, and the body more than clothing?
- 2D. “Look at the birds of the heaven— that they do not sow, nor reap, nor gather into barns. 26
And your heavenly Father feeds them. Are you not worth¹⁶ more than they?
- 3D. “And which of you while being anxious is able to add^G one cubit¹⁷ upon his life-span¹⁸? 27
- 4D. “And why are you anxious about clothing? Observe-closely¹⁹ the lilies of the field, how 28 they grow
- 1E. “They do not labor nor spin. *But I say to you that not even Solomon in all his glory 29 clothed himself like one of these
- 2E. “But if God dresses²⁰ in this manner the grass of the field existing^H today and being 30 thrown into an oven tomorrow, will He not by much more care for you— ones of-*little-faith*²¹?
- 5D. “Therefore, do not be²² anxious, saying, ‘What may we eat?’ or ‘What may we drink?’ 31 or ‘What may we put-on?’
- 1E. “For the Gentiles are seeking-after^I all²³ these things 32
- 2E. “For your heavenly Father knows that you have need of all these things
- 3E. “But be seeking^K first the kingdom of God²⁴ and His righteousness^L, and all these 33 things will be added^G to you
- 6D. “Therefore do not be anxious for tomorrow, for tomorrow will be anxious for itself. 34
Sufficient²⁵ for the day is the trouble²⁶ of it²⁷
- 7B.²⁸ “Do not be judging²⁹, in order that you may not be judged. *For with what judgment^M you judge, 7:1-2 you will be judged.³⁰ And with what measure you measure^N, it will be measured³¹ to you
- 1C. “And why do you look-at the speck in the eye of your brother^O, but do not consider³² the log³³ 3 in your eye? *Or how will you say to your brother, ‘Permit^P me to take out³⁴ the speck from your eye’, and behold— the log is in your eye?
- 1D. “Hypocrite^Q! First take out the log from your eye, and then you will see-clearly^R to take 5 out the speck from the eye of your brother
- 2C. “Do not give the holy thing to the dogs³⁵, nor throw your pearls in front of the pigs, so that they 6 will not perhaps trample^S them with their feet, and having turned, tear you to pieces³⁶

1. Compare Lk 11:34-35.
2. That is, your eye is the source or gateway of light for your body, physically and spiritually. Whether it is focused on spiritual or earthly treasures will determine whether you live in light or darkness.
3. Or, "sincere, simple". Some think Jesus is referring to a single focus on treasures in heaven. Where your spiritual eye is focused determines how much spiritual light reaches your heart. Others think He means "healthy"; here, spiritually healthy, without guile. Elsewhere only in Lk 11:34. GK 606.
4. Or, "illuminated, shining". The light from your eye will shine in on your whole body. Your perceptions will give light to your life. Same word as in Lk 11:34, 36. Elsewhere only as "bright" in Mt 17:5. GK 5893.
5. Some think Jesus means "double-focused", on earthly wealth and God. Seeing double results in darkness for the whole body. Your perceptions will bring confusion and darkness to your path. Others think He means "damaged, sick", spiritually diseased. On this word, see "evil" in Act 25:18.
6. That is, if the spiritual "light" your eye allows in is in fact "darkness" because of your focus on earthly treasures, your darkness is great indeed. Compare Lk 11:34-35.
7. Compare Lk 16:13.
8. Or, "being a slave to, serving as slave to". That is, at the same time. On this word, see "are slaves" in Rom 6:6.
9. Or, "hold on to, help, support". On this word, see "hold on to" in 1 Thes 5:14.
10. Or, "despise, treat with contempt, look down on, care nothing for". On this word, see Rom 2:4. Either internally (love vs. hate) or externally (devoted allegiance vs. disregard), a slave will be for one of the two masters. Such slaves will either internally hate the one and what they have to do for him (if they can not escape it), or they will implement in action and time what they feel inside by devoting themselves to the one and ignoring the other (if they can make this choice).
11. Or, "property, money". Their agendas and directives lead down different paths, 1 Tim 6:9, 10. Some transliterate this word into English as "mammon", wealth personified. Elsewhere only in Lk 16:9; 11, 13. GK 3490.
12. Compare Lk 12:22-34.
13. That is, that you might act in accordance with the location of your treasure and heart in heaven.
14. Or, "be worried-about, be concerned-about". Same word as in 6:27, 28, 31, 34; Lk 10:41; 12:22, 25, 26. Elsewhere only as "be anxious-about" in Mt 10:19; Lk 12:11; Phil 4:6; "be concerned-about" in 1 Cor 7:32, 33, 34; Phil 2:20; and "have concern" in 1 Cor 12:25. GK 3534. Related to "anxiety" in 1 Pet 5:7.
15. Some manuscripts omit "or what you may drink" {C}.
16. Same word as "more-valuable" in Mt 10:31; 12:12; Lk 12:7. Same word as in Lk 12:24, where "more" is separately expressed, as it is here. On this word, see "mattering" in Phil 1:10.
17. That is, about 18 inches or a half meter. On this word, see Rev 21:17.
18. Or, "mature age, adulthood, stature, height". Jesus clearly means "one cubit" to be a trifling amount, a "very little thing", Lk 12:26. Since 18 inches would be a huge and impossible amount to add to one's height, "life-span" seems to be the better choice of meanings here. Though one could say, "add one hour to his life span", perhaps Jesus had in mind "Who can add 18 inches— one step—to his life's path". Same word as in Lk 12:25. Note Ps 39:4. Elsewhere only as "stature" in Lk 2:52; 19:3; Eph 4:13; and "mature age" in Jn 9:21, 23; Heb 11:11. GK 2461.
19. Used only here. GK 2908. Not related to the word in Lk 12:27.
20. Elsewhere only in 11:8; Lk 7:25. GK 314.
21. This adjective is elsewhere only in 8:26; 14:31; 16:8; Lk 12:28. GK 3899. Related word in 17:20.
22. The grammar here and in v 34 implies "do not become anxious, do not worry" (addressing the issue as a whole). In v 25 the grammar means "do not be worrying", focusing on the habit or pattern of behavior, and implies "do not be in the habit or process of being anxious", or "stop being anxious".
23. The word order of "all these things" is different here than in v 32b, 33, and Lk 12:30 (which are literally, "these all"), which may imply some additional emphasis on "all" here.
24. Some manuscripts omit "of God", making it "seek first His kingdom and righteousness" {C}.
25. Or, "enough, adequate". Elsewhere only as "enough" in 10:25, 1 Pet 4:3. GK 757. The related verb is in 2 Cor 12:9.
26. Or, "evil, misfortune". On this word, see "badness" in 1 Pet 2:1.
27. That is, the trouble of each day is enough for that day. Leave tomorrow to itself.
28. Compare Lk 6:37-42.
29. That is, in the sense of "passing judgment on, criticizing, finding fault with", as this word is used in Jn 8:15; Rom 14:3, 10, 13; 1 Cor 4:5; 10:29; Col 2:16; Jam 4:12, etc. Not in the sense of "distinguishing, determining, administering justice" as this word is used in Lk 7:43; 12:57; Jn 7:24; Act 4:19; 16:15; Rom 14:5; 1 Cor 5:3, 12; 6:2; 10:15; 11:13, etc. This verb covers the entire range of meaning from "evaluate, think, determine" to "decide, prefer" to "express an opinion" to "criticize, find fault with" to "sue, go to court" to "decide in court, administer justice" to "condemn". Used 114 times. GK 3212. Related to "judgment" in Jn 9:39 and Jn 3:19, and to the noun "judge".
30. You will be held to the standards you enforce on others! Some think Jesus means "by God", as Paul applies it in Rom 2:1-3. Others think He means "by people", who respond to you in kind.
31. Some manuscripts have a prefix on this word {N}, so that it means "measured-back", as in Lk 6:38.
32. Or, "notice, perceive". Same word as in Lk 6:41. On this word, see Heb 10:24.
33. Or, "beam", the main beam used in a floor or roof. Elsewhere only in v 4, 5; Lk 6:41, 42. GK 1512.
34. More literally, "Permit that I may take out".
35. By "dogs", Jesus means unholy and impure persons. On this word, see Rev 22:15. The Jews used this word to refer to Gentiles. Related to "little dogs" in Mt 15:26, 27. Note that this requires "distinguishing, deciding"— judging in the second sense of the word in v 1. Perhaps this is included here to give balance to v 1, 3. We sometimes have a tendency to judge too harshly on little things, and to be too lax about important things.
36. When they see it is not food to their liking, they may turn on you. The word "tear to pieces" is GK 4838.

- 8B.¹ “Be asking^A, and it will be given to you. Be seeking^B, and you will find. Be knocking, and it will be opened to you. *For everyone asking receives. And the one seeking finds. And to the one knocking, it will be opened 7

1. Compare Lk 11:9-13.
2. Some manuscripts say "If his son asks for bread... or if he asks for a fish" [N].
3. That is, something useless.
4. That is, something harmful.
5. The grammar indicates that a "no" answer is expected to both questions. Compare Lk 11:11-12.
6. Compare Lk 6:31.
7. Jesus is summarizing all the teaching about personal behavior, 5:17-7:11.
8. Or, "wish, desire, intend". On this word, see "willing" in Jn 7:17.
9. More literally, "want that people should be doing". GK 2671.
10. Compare Lk 13:24.
11. Or, "spacious, roomy". Used only here. GK 2353. Some take it in a metaphorical sense, "easy, comfortable".
12. Some think the road precedes the gate; others, that it follows it. On this word, see 2 Pet 2:1.
13. Some manuscripts say "because" {B}, as in v 13.
14. Or, "pressed in, compressed" and therefore "narrowed, constricted". This is a participle, "having been constricted". Some take it in a metaphorical sense, "hard, difficult". On this word, see "afflicted" in 2 Cor 4:8.
15. That is, "thieving, violently greedy, vicious". Elsewhere only as "swindler" in Lk 18:11; 1 Cor 5:10, 11; 6:10. GK 774. Related to "snatch away" in 2 Cor 12:2.
16. Or, "recognize". Same word as in v 20. On this word, see "understood" in Col 1:6.
17. That is, their teachings (Deut 13:1-3; 2 Pet 2:1-3, etc.), and their character as seen in themselves, in their works of faith (see 1 Thes 1:3), and in what they produce in others (Jam 3:13-18), not in their claims alone or their works done without connection to Christ (Mt 7:22). Same word as in 3:8, 10; 21:43; Jn 15:2, 5, 8; Gal 5:22; Phil 1:11; 4:17. Used 66 times. GK 2843.
18. Compare Lk 6:43-45.
19. The grammar indicates a "no" answer is expected. We do not gather fruit from non-fruit-bearing plants.
20. Or, "So, In this manner". Jesus is stating His intended lesson from the grape/thorn, fig/thistle illustration, with reference to "by their fruits".
21. Or, "useful, beneficial". Same word as in "good tree", v 18. On this word, see 1 Tim 5:10b.
22. Or, "sound, healthy, fit, beautiful, desirable, excellent, pleasant, fine, commendable". Same word as in "good fruit" in v 18, 19. On this word, see 1 Tim 5:10a.
23. Or, "unfit, unusable, rotten, worthless". Same word as in "bad tree" in v 18. Elsewhere only in 12:33; 13:48; Lk 6:43; Eph 4:29. GK 4911.
24. Or, "useless, harmful, evil". Same word as in "bad fruit" in v 18. The contrast may be between types of trees and the value of their fruits, as in v 16 and Lk 6:44 (grapes/thorns, figs/thistles), and similar to the good and bad fish in Mt 13:48. Thus every "beneficial" type of tree (like a fruit tree) produces fruit "fit" to eat. But the "unusable" type of tree produces "useless" fruit. Or, the contrast may be between the quality of the fruit tree and of its fruit, like the fruitless fig tree in 21:19. Thus the "good" fruit tree produces "healthy" fruit. But the "rotten" fruit tree produces "bad" fruit, or none at all. On this word, see "evil" in Act 25:18.
25. That is, a "beneficial" type tree is not able to produce "useless" fruit, nor is an "unusable" type tree able to produce "fit" fruit to eat. Or, a "good" fruit tree is not able to produce "bad" fruit, nor is a "rotten" fruit tree able to produce "healthy" fruit.
26. Compare Lk 6:46.
27. The demons acknowledge Jesus as Lord, Jam 2:19. Not the hearers, but the doers will be justified, Rom 2:13; Jam 1:22. It is not enough to simply "confess to know God", Tit 1:16. Words alone are worthless, Jam 2:14-26. Though Jesus means "Lord, Lord", many in His audience would have understood these words as "Master, Master" (see 8:2 on this word).
28. Compare Mk 9:38.
29. Or, "works of power". On this word, see 1 Cor 12:10. Judas was such a one.
30. Or, "confess". On this word, see "confess" in 1 Tim 6:12.
31. That is, as one of My people, as one of My brothers or sisters, as part of My family. On this word, see Lk 1:34.

34. Or, "sensible, prudent, shrewd", wise in a practical sense. Same word as in 24:45; 25:2, 4, 8, 9; Lk 12:42; Rom 11:25; 12:16; 1 Cor 4:10; 10:15; 2 Cor 11:19. Elsewhere only as "shrewd" in Mt 10:16; Lk 16:8. GK 5861. Related to "think" in Rom 8:5.
35. Same word as in v 25; 16:18; Lk 6:48; 8:6, 13. Elsewhere only as "rock" in Mt 27:51, 60; Mk 15:46; Rom 9:33; 1 Cor 10:4; 1 Pet 2:8; Rev 6:15, 16. GK 4376. Related word in 16:18. Compare "stone" in Mk 16:3.
36. That is, rivers of flood waters. Same word as in Lk 6:48, 49.

- 1D. "And the rain came down, and the rivers came, and the winds blew— and they struck-

- 9A. And it came about that when Jesus finished² these words, the crowds were astounded³ at His teaching. 28
For He was teaching them as One having authority^C, and not as their⁴ scribes. *And He having come 29-8:1
down from the mountain, large crowds followed Him⁵

- 3C. Now having heard, Jesus marveled^P, and said to the ones following, "Truly^Q I say to you, with no one in Israel²³ did I find so-great²⁴ a faith! 10
- 1D.²⁵ "And I say to you that many will come from east and west, and will lie-back [to eat]

7. On this word, see "worship" in 14:33.
8. This word is used 717 times, mostly as "Lord", referring to the Father or to the Son of God. It is also used of a "master" or "owner" as opposed to a slave or possession (as in 6:24; Lk 19:33). It is used as a term of respect, "sir", to a husband (1 Pet 3:6), a father (Mt 21:30), Paul and Silas (Act 16:30), a government official (Mt 27:63), the Emperor (Act 25:26), an angel (Act 10:4). In the TransLine, when this word is used in the Gospels to address Jesus, it is translated "Lord" only if the one speaking knows Him to be the Son of God (on the twelve, note 14:30). 1. Or, "divide in two, separate, dis-unite". Used only here. GK 1495.
2. Matthew uses a different word for "against" than Luke.
3. Compare Lk 14:25-27.
4. That is, we must not seek to escape from that which causes us to suffer for Christ. We must accept it, carry it, and follow Him, denying our self-interest. Our "cross" is any personal issue which for us symbolizes our self-death for Him, our denying self for Him, our suffering loss for Him, not suffering in general. Note that it is an ongoing matter, not a one-time thing. In this context, it especially means carrying the cross of rejection by an unbelieving family member, v 37. Compare Mt 16:24. This word is used 27 times. GK 5089. Related to "crucify" in Mt 27:35.
5. Compare Mt 16:25.
6. That is, having found himself, having defined his life, by choosing his own self-interest over Christ.
7. Or, "receiving hospitably, accepting". Same word as in Mt 10:14, 41; 18:5; Mk 6:11; 9:37; Lk 8:13; 9:5, 48, 53; 10:8, 10; 16:4, 9; Jn 4:45; 2 Cor 8:17; Gal 4:14; Col 4:10; Heb 11:31. Elsewhere only as "receive" in Mk 10:15; Lk 18:17; Act 3:21; 7:38, 59; 17:11; 22:5; 28:21; 2 Cor 6:1; 7:15; 11:16; Phil 4:18; 2 Thes 2:10; Jam 1:21; "accept" in Mt 11:14; Act 8:14; 11:1; 1 Cor 2:14; 2 Cor 11:4; 1 Thes 1:6; 2:13; and "take" in Lk 2:28, 16:6, 7; 22:17; Eph 6:17. GK 1312.
8. That is, because he is a prophet. Next, because he is a righteous one; then, because he is a disciple, v 42. The same concept is in Mk 9:41.
9. Or, "commanding, giving orders to". On this word, see "direct" in 1 Cor 7:17.
10. Same two words as 4:23; 9:35, "teach", "proclaim".
11. Having presented His teaching (8A.), His works (9A.), and His sending of the twelve to proclaim the kingdom to Israel (10A.), Matthew now uses John to "prepare the way" again by asking the key question, "Are You the One?". What follows details how Jesus both hid and revealed (11:25-26; 13:12) the answer to that question as He responded to opposition and continued His words and works of self-revelation. It culminates in the response of Peter. As to why John would ask such a question, some think prison made him doubt or lose patience. Others think he was expecting the kingly, conquering, judging Messiah and was puzzled over Jesus. There are other views.
12. Josephus says John was imprisoned at Machaerus, a palace of Herod Antipas (see 14:1) east of the Dead Sea, in Perea. On this word, see "jailhouse" in Act 5:21.
13. Some manuscripts say "sent two of his" {B}, as in Lk 7:18.
14. Or, "the Coming One". That is, the Messiah.
15. Or, "or are we looking for" another. Same words as in Lk 7:19.
16. Or, "another" (GK 2283). Not the same word as in Lk 7:19 (GK 257).
17. Parallel account at Lk 7:18.
18. Jesus lists things Isaiah prophesied Messiah would do, Isa 35:5-6; 61:1. His words answer John's question.
19. More literally, "are being announced good news, are being evangelized". Same word as in Lk 7:22. On this word, see Act 5:42.
20. Or, "is not caused to fall by Me". On this word, see "cause to fall" 1 Cor 8:13.
21. Or, "Why did you go out into the wilderness? To look at a reed...? But why did you go out? To see a man...? ... But why did you go out? To see a prophet?". Some manuscripts have a word order in v 9 that would require it to be punctuated as in the footnote {B}.
22. Jesus could mean "one who is more than", or, "something more than" (like 12:41, which uses a different word).
23. Compare also Mk 1:2; Lk 1:17.
24. Or, "face". On this phrase, "ahead of your presence", see Lk 9:52.
25. On this word, "make ready", see Mk 1:2.
26. Some think Jesus means greater in character, in obedience to God. Others think He means greater in what John would know and do with regard to Messiah. This word means "greater", with the specific sense coming from the context: "larger, louder, more important, more strict, older". Used 48 times. GK 3505. Related to "great" in Heb 11:24.
27. Or, "lesser". Same word as "smaller" in 13:32; Mk 4:31; and as "least" in Lk 7:28; 9:48. In the one case, Jesus would mean "lesser than John"; in the other, "least of all". This word means "little", with the specific sense coming from the context: "small, short, young, insignificant". Used 46 times. GK 3625.
28. Not in character, work or reward, but in privilege—as adult family members of God, no longer as children under a tutor (Gal 3:23; 4:1-2). John belongs to the OT order preceding the Messiah, v 13. These in the kingdom will see and hear all about His life, death, and resurrection. They get to see and know the King. Note 13:16-17.
29. This word can mean "to use violence or force, to inflict violence or force, to be treated with violence or force". Elsewhere only as "forcing-himself" in Lk 16:16. GK 1041. In the Septuagint, it is used in the sense of "urge, strongly invite" (that is, use verbal or social force or pressure) as in Gen 33:11; Judg 19:7; and in the sense of "force one's way", as in Ex 19:24; Deut 22:25. Related to "violent" next in v 12; "prevail upon" in Act 16:15; "violence" in Act 5:26; and "violent" in Act 2:2.
30. This word refers to one who uses hostile force or violence to attain his desires. Used only here. GK 1043.
31. This word means "snatch away, take by force, seize, steal". Elsewhere by Matthew only of the evil one "snatching away" the seed in 13:19, and of "snatching away" the strong man's things in 12:29. Used of taking Jesus away by force to make Him king in Jn 6:15. On this word, see 2 Cor 12:2.
32. Some think Jesus means that the kingdom is being attacked by enemies like Herod (who imprisoned John) and the Pharisees, who "are snatching away" the people and the message of the kingdom. Others think the kingdom is "forcing itself, forcefully advancing" (as seen with demons, 9:32-33), and the "forceful" (in a positive sense, the spiritually bold, daring, aggressive ones) are "taking hold" of it. Others think John and Jesus are "forcing" it on Israel, but violent men are snatching it away. Others think the kingdom is "being forced, pressed into, taken by storm". People were waiting patiently for Messiah before John, but now they are "pressing hard" to get in, to seize it. Others think people like the Zealots or those in Jn 6:15 are trying to establish it by force. There are other views.

1. On this sentence, compare Lk 16:16.
2. That is, the one predicted to come before the day of the Lord in Mal 4:5-6. Note Mt 17:12; Jn 1:21; Lk 1:17.
3. Some manuscripts add "to hear" {B}, "having ears to hear". If John is Elijah, then Jesus is Messiah.
4. Parallel account at Lk 7:31.
5. Some manuscripts say "to their friends" {N}, using the word in 20:13.
6. Or, "sang a funeral song". Elsewhere only in Lk 7:32; 23:27; Jn 16:20. Some manuscripts add "for you" {B}. GK 2577.
7. Or, "mourn greatly". On this word, see Rev 1:7. In other words, John and Jesus did not respond to them as they wanted them to do. They wanted John to make merry with them, but he was too ascetic. They wanted Jesus to mourn the things they mourn, but He was too sociable.
8. That is, he did not eat and socialize with them, but lived apart from them in the desert. Jesus did the opposite. Compare Lk 1:15.
9. Or, "a wine drinker". Both words are elsewhere only in Lk 7:34. Jesus must be eating too much food and drinking too much wine, because He eats and drinks with people who do so—sinners. GK 3884. Related to "wine" in 1 Tim 5:23.
10. Or, "justified, declared right". Wisdom is seen in the things it does, the results it produces. The results produced by the life choices of John and Jesus vindicate God's wisdom. This generation's "wisdom" has led it to reject John and Jesus! On this word, see "declare righteous" in Rom 3:24.
11. Some manuscripts say "children" {B}, as in Lk 7:35.
12. Compare Lk 10:12-15.
13. Or, "scold, reprimand". On this word, see 1 Pet 4:14.
14. Or, "His greatest miracles, His very great miracles". Same word as in 21:8.
15. This city is near Capernaum, and is mentioned elsewhere only in Lk 10:13. GK 5960. Though "most" or "very great" miracles were done there, no account of it is given explicitly in the Gospels. This reveals how much we do not know about the ministry of Jesus. Note Jn 21:25.
16. That is, "in spite of the fact that they did not repent and were judged by God, I say to you by comparison...". Or, "But", "But in contrast to what you may think about them or your own situation...". This word also means "yet, however, except, only". Used 31 times. GK 4440.
17. On this word, see 10:15. Same word as in v 24. They had far less "light" than you.
18. The grammar requires a "no" answer. Some manuscripts have it as a statement, And you Capernaum, "the one having been exalted up to heaven, you will..."; others, "who were exalted up to heaven, you will..." {B}.
19. Some manuscripts say "you will be brought down" {C}.
20. Same word as "taken place" in v 21, but with different grammar. Same word as Lk 10:13. GK 1181.
21. Compare Lk 10:21-22.
22. This took place when the 70 returned, Lk 10:17, 21.
23. Same word as in Lk 10:21, Rom 15:9. On this word, see "confess out" in Jam 5:16.
24. Or, "because". Same word translated "because" in v 26.
25. On this word, see Jn 8:59. Related to the word in Lk 10:21.
26. Or, "childlike ones". Same word as in 21:16; Lk 10:21; Rom 2:20; Eph 4:14. On this word, see "infant" in 1 Cor 3:1. The contrast is between wise ones (in their own eyes) without God's revelation, and simple, childlike ones with it.
27. Or, "that", so that is says, "Yes Father, I praise You that in this manner...". GK 4022.
28. Or, "thus, so". GK 4047.
29. Or, "was, proved to be, came to be". GK 1181.
30. On this noun, see "good pleasure" in Eph 1:5.
31. Or, "recognizes, understands, knows exactly". Same word as later in the verse. On this word, see "understood" in Col 1:6. Related to the word in Lk 10:22.
32. Or, "and to whomever the Son...".
33. Or, "wishes, desires, wants". Elsewhere by Matthew only as "intend" in 1:19. On this word, see Jam 1:18.
34. Same word as in Jn 4:6; Rev 2:3. This word means "laboring, working hard", and as a result, "being weary". Used 23 times, mostly as "labor". GK 3159. The related noun "labor" (see 1 Cor 3:8) and the following verb "rest" are used together in Rev 14:13, "rest from their labors".
35. That is, loaded down with burdens to carry. Elsewhere only in Lk 11:46. Compare Mt 23:4. These people are laboring to carry the unbearable yoke (Act 15:10) of legalistic traditions imposed by the Pharisees and scribes. GK 5844. Related to "burden" in v 30.
36. On "give rest", see "refreshed" in Phm 7. The related noun is used later in this verse.
37. That is, hitch yourself to My plow. Accept My teaching.
38. Same word as in 5:5. On this word, see 1 Pet 3:4.
39. Or, "lowly, poor". On this word, see "lowly" in Jam 1:9. Jesus is completely unlike their present teachers.
40. Or, "refreshment, relief". On this word, see 12:43.
41. Or, "pleasant". On this word, see "good" in 1 Pet 2:3. It is "good" in the sense of what one carrying a load would consider good; that is, easy, pleasant.
42. Or, "load, cargo". On this word, see "load" in Gal 6:5.

1. Some manuscripts say "he" {C}.
2. On this word, see Mk 2:26. That is, the 12 loaves of "showbread", Lev 24:6-9.
3. Same word as in v 2, 10, 12. This is a participle, it "was not being lawful". On this word, see 1 Cor 6:12.
4. Or, "desecrate". That is, treat as common. Elsewhere only in Act 24:6. GK 1014. Related to "profane" in 1 Tim 1:9.
5. That is, because the priests work on the Sabbath, performing their temple sacrifices. In other words, the temple ministry is more important than the Sabbath. And Jesus is more important than the temple.
6. Or, "innocent, without a charge, without a ground of accusation". Elsewhere only in v 7. GK 360.
7. Some manuscripts say "A greater One" {N}.
8. Some manuscripts say "even of the..." {K}, as in Mk 2:28.
9. Parallel account at Mk 3:1; Lk 6:6.
10. Some manuscripts say "a man was having the hand withered" {N}.
11. Or, "appropriately, rightly, well", to do something outwardly good and right. The Pharisees try to frame the question as regarding "work". Jesus says it is about doing good. Who among them would say that God forbids doing good on the Sabbath? He shames them into silence, and anger, v 14. This is the adverb of the word "good". Most simplify this phrase to "to do good", as Mark and Luke give it. On this phrase, see "do well" in Act 10:33.
12. Or, "sound". Same word as in 15:31; Mk 5:34; Jn 5:6, 9, 11, 14, 15; Act 4:10; Tit 2:8. Elsewhere only as "sound" in Jn 7:23. GK 5618. Related to the word in 1 Tim 1:10.
13. The phrase "to take counsel" is a Latin way of speaking, meaning "to form a plan, plot, decide, consult", and is elsewhere only in 22:15; 27:1, 7; 28:12. On "counsel", see "consultation" in Mk 15:1.
14. Some manuscripts omit this word {C}, so that it says "And many followed Him..."
15. Or, "visible, plainly seen". On this word, see "evident" in Rom 1:19.
16. This word modifies "prophet", as in 2:17.
17. Used only here. GK 147. Related to the word in 2 Thes 2:13.
18. On "was well pleased", see 17:5. On "soul", see Jam 5:20.
19. Or, "declare, proclaim, report". On this word, see 1 Jn 1:3.
20. Or, "wrangle". Used only here. GK 2248. Related to the word in 1 Cor 1:11.
21. Same word as in Lk 9:39. Elsewhere only as "broken" in Mk 5:4; 14:3; Jn 19:36; "crush" in Rom 16:20; and "broken to pieces" in Rev 2:27. GK 5341.

23. Or, "judgment", that is, God's standard of justice or judgment, as seen in the Cross. Same word as in v 18. On this word, see "judgment" in Jn 3:19.
24. Compare Mt 9:32-34; Mk 3:22-30; Lk 11:14-26.
25. Some manuscripts say "blind and mute"; others, "mute and blind" {N}.
26. The grammar indicates a "no" answer is expected, "This can't be..., can it? By "Son of David", the crowds mean "Messiah" (see 9:27). This represents a hesitant move toward acceptance. Their expectations of Messiah lead them to think "No", but His miracles lead them to think "Yes". Maybe it is He. Same grammar as in Jn 4:29.
27. On this word, see Mk 3:22. It is simple logic. It cannot be by the power of Jesus Himself, it is not by God's power (since Jesus violates the Sabbath), so it must be by Satan's power.
28. Or, "reflections", what they were thinking about. On this word, see Heb 4:12.
29. Some manuscripts say "Jesus" {C}.
30. This word is used twice in v 25, v 30, twice in v 32. GK 2848. Not the same word as in v 26.

33. That is, if I do it by Satan's power, how can you prove your sons do not do likewise? How do you know Satan is not empowering them? The reasoning required to answer in their case will also answer in His.
34. That is, since they also are casting them out (in their own way, as in Lk 9:49; Act 19:13), they will be the judges of the validity of your assertion. They will be the source of the reasoning justifying their case, and therefore His.

1. Or, "arrived". Same word as in Lk 11:20. See 1 Thes 2:16 on it.
2. On this word, see 2 Cor 12:2. Some manuscripts say "plunder" {N}, the same word as later in this verse.
3. Used in both occurrences in Mk 3:27. Related to "snatch away" earlier.
4. That is, not standing with Him, but with His enemy, Satan (like those in v 24). Such people have decided against Jesus, linking Him to evil. Compare Mk 9:40.
5. You have set yourself against His working in Me, and against Me. Compare Mk 3:30. On this word, see Mt 6:12.
6. This is GK 2848. Not the same word as in Lk 12:10.
7. It is an eternal sin, Mk 3:29.
8. The emphasis is either on "rotten" or "worthless". On this word, used twice in this verse, see "bad" tree in 7:17.
9. Some think Jesus means that they are trying to make the tree (Jesus) bad, and His fruit (casting out demons, healing) good. Jesus says, you cannot have it both ways. Make them both the same, good or bad. Stop riding the fence. Others think the tree is the Pharisees. Either repent and show the fruit (3:8), or carry out your evil desires against Me (23:32).
10. Or, "recognized". On this word, see Lk 1:34.
11. How can you have good fruit since you are bad trees? How can you say that both I and My works are good, since you are evil?
12. Or, "treasury, treasure-house", referring to the person's heart. Same word as in Lk 6:45; and as "treasure-chest" in Mt 2:11. Used 17 times. GK 2565. Some manuscripts add "of his heart" {N}, as in Lk 6:45.

16. That is, spiritually unfaithful to God. On this word, see Jam 4:4.
17. Or, "huge fish", a generic term used of large sea creatures or sea monsters. Used only here. GK 3063.
18. This is another way of saying "three days". A day and a night is one day, as in Gen 1:5. It does not mean "72 hours", but simply "three days". Note how Luke says this in Lk 11:30.
19. That is, the men from Nineveh where Jonah went to preach.
20. Or, "stand up". On this word, see Lk 18:33.
21. Or, "will arise". On this word, see "arose" in 28:6.

11. That is, the twelve plus those around Him, Mk 4:10.
12. Or, this word may simply introduce the quotation, so that it says "It has been given..."
13. Or, "understand". On this word, see Lk 1:34.
14. That is, the things formerly hidden, but now revealed by Him. Note v 35. Jesus is revealing things about the kingdom not formerly known by the Jews. Speaking in parables hides these truths from some (the unbelieving Jews) while revealing them to others (His disciples). On this word, see Rom 11:25.
15. Same word as in v 14, 15, 19, 23; and in Rom 3:11; 15:21; Eph 5:17. Used 26 times. GK 5317.
16. This word modifies "prophecy".
17. Compare also Jn 12:39-40; Act 28:25-27.
18. They will see what Jesus does and hear the words from His lips, but they will not understand their significance. Paul, Luke, Mark, Matthew and John all quote this prophecy with reference to them.
19. Or, "thick, fat, insensitive". Elsewhere only in Act 28:27. GK 4266.
20. That is, with difficulty. They are spiritually hard of hearing. Elsewhere only in Act 28:27. GK 977.
21. What Jesus says they did, John says God did in Jn 12:39.
22. The grammar expresses the purpose of the people. They willfully closed their eyes to God in order that they might not ever see what they did not want to see, and never have to change their ways and return to Him. They closed their eyes in order that they might not ever enter into the process described here— see, hear, understand, turn back, be healed. Because of this, Jesus speaks to them in parables, so that they might not understand what they do not want to understand.
23. Or, "would". The healing is the certain conclusion of this process, but they exclude themselves from it.

- 3D.¹ “But blessed^A are your eyes because they are seeing^B, and your ears, because they are hearing. *For truly^C I say to you that many prophets and righteous ones desired^D to experience² the things which you are seeing^B, and they did not experience them, and to hear the things which you are hearing, and they did not hear them 16
- 4D. “You therefore, hear the parable^E of the one having sown³— 18
- 1E. “Anyone hearing the word⁴ of the kingdom and not understanding^F it— the evil one comes and snatches-away^G the thing having been sown in his heart. This person is the one having been sown the seed along the road 19
- 2E. “And the one having been sown the seed on the rocky places— this person is the one hearing the word and immediately receiving^H it with joy. *And he does not have a root in himself, but is temporary⁵. And affliction^I or persecution^K having come about because of the word— immediately he is caused-to-fall^L 20
- 3E. “And the one having been sown the seed into the thorns— this person is the one hearing the word, and the anxiety⁶ of the age⁷ and the deceitfulness⁸ of riches is choking^M the word, and it becomes unfruitful⁹ 22
- 4E. “And the one having been sown the seed on the good soil— this person is the one hearing the word and understanding¹⁰ it, who indeed¹¹ is bearing-fruit¹² and producing: one a hundred, and another sixty, and another thirty” 23
- 3C. He put-before^N them another parable, saying, “The kingdom of the heavens became-like¹³ a man having sown good seed in his field. *But during the men’s sleeping, his enemy came and re-sowed¹⁴ darnel¹⁵ between the wheat, and went away 24
- 1D. “Now when the grass budded¹⁶ and produced fruit¹⁷, then the darnel appeared^O also 26
- 2D. “And having come to him, the slaves^P of the house-master^Q said to him, ‘Master^R, did you not sow good seed in your field?’¹⁸ Then from where does it have the darnel?’ 27
- 3D. “And the one said to them, ‘A hostile¹⁹ man did this’ 28
- 4D. “And the slaves say to him, ‘Then do you want us, having gone, to collect²⁰ them?’ 29
- 5D. “But the one says, ‘No, that while collecting the darnel, you may not perhaps uproot the wheat together with them. *Permit^S both to grow together until the harvest^T. And at the time of the harvest I will say to the harvesters, “Collect first the darnel, and bind^U them into bundles so-as to burn them up. But gather the wheat into my barn” ’” 30
- 4C.²¹ He put-before^N them another parable, saying, “The kingdom of the heavens is like a seed²² of a mustard-plant²³, which having taken, a man²⁴ sowed in his field²⁵ 31
- 1D. “Which is smaller²⁶ than all the seeds— but when it grows is larger than the garden-plants²⁷. And it becomes a tree,²⁸ so that²⁹ the birds of the heaven^V come and are nesting³⁰ in its branches” 32
- 5C.³¹ He spoke another parable to them, “The kingdom of the heavens is like leaven³², which having taken, a woman³³ concealed³⁴ into three measures³⁵ of wheat-flour³⁶ until which time the whole thing was leavened³⁷” 33
- 6C.³⁸ Jesus spoke all these things to the crowds in parables. And He was speaking nothing to them apart from a parable,³⁸ so that the thing might be fulfilled^W having been spoken through the prophet³⁹ saying⁴⁰ 34
- 1D. “I will open My mouth in parables. I will utter⁴¹ things having been hidden^X since the foundation of the world⁴²” [Ps 78:2] 36

1. Compare Lk 10:23-24.
2. Or, "see", but not the same word as next. On this word, see Lk 10:24.
3. The one sowing is the Son of Man, as in v 37.
4. Or, "message", and likewise down through v 23. The seed is the word, Mk 4:14; Lk 8:11. On this word, see "word" in 1 Cor 12:8.
5. Or, "transitory", lasting only for a time. Same word as in Mk 4:17. Elsewhere only in 2 Cor 4:18; Heb 11:25. GK 4672.
6. Or, "worry, care, concern". On this word, see 1 Pet 5:7. Related to "be anxious" in Mt 6:25.
7. Or, "world". GK 172. Some manuscripts say "this age" {N}.
8. Or, "deception". On this word, see "deceptions" in 2 Pet 2:13.
9. Fruit-bearing is the evidence of life. Lack of good fruit results in being culled out (like the trees in 3:10) and burned, like the darnel, v 30.
10. This is in contrast with the first "soil", who do not understand (v 19, same word). Same word as in v 13.
11. Or, "certainly, surely", the intent being to provide emphasis. Or, "now, at this point", if the emphasis is on time. Or, "therefore", emphasizing a conclusion. Elsewhere only as "now" in Lk 2:15; Act 13:2; 15:36; and "therefore" in 1 Cor 6:20. GK 1314.
12. This is in contrast with the second two "soils", who are unfruitful.
13. Or, "was like, was likened to". Same word and grammar as in 18:23; 22:2. Some think Jesus means it in a timeless sense, "is like". Others think He is speaking in a prophetic sense from the point of view of the end of the age. Same word as in Act 14:11; Heb 2:17. Elsewhere only as "be like" in Mt 6:8; 7:24, 26; 25:1; "liken" (compare) in Mt 11:16; Mk 4:30; Lk 7:31; 13:18, 20; Rom 9:29. GK 3929. Related to "likeness" in Heb 4:15; Phil 2:7, and Jam 3:9.
14. Or, "over-sowed, sowed upon". Used only here. GK 2178.
15. This is a seed that is indistinguishable from wheat in its earlier stages. Used only in v 25-40. GK 2429.
16. Or, "sprouted". Same word as in Mk 4:27; Heb 9:4. Elsewhere only as "produced" in Jam 5:18. GK 1056.
17. That is, heads of grain. Once the heads of grain appeared, they could be distinguished.
18. The grammar indicates a "yes" answer is expected.
19. Same word as "enemy" in v 25. GK 2398. Here it modifies "man".
20. More literally, "do You want that, having gone, we should collect them?"
21. Parallel account at Mk 4:30. Compare Lk 13:18-19.
22. Or, "kernel, berry, grain". That is, a single seed (unlike v 4, 24). Not the same word as in v 32. Elsewhere only in 17:20; Mk 4:31; Lk 13:19; 17:6; Jn 12:24; 1 Cor 15:37. All but the last two are in the phrase "seed of a mustard-plant". GK 3133. Some think the grain is "the kingdom of heaven", or the work of the Messiah, in the sense that it starts small in the world but grows large. Others apply this to individuals. There are other views of the details of the parable.
23. This plant can grow 9-12 feet high (3 to 4 meters). Elsewhere only in 17:20; Mk 4:31; Lk 13:19; 17:6. GK 4983.
24. In Mark, the man is not mentioned, Mk 4:31. Some think the man is Christ; others, the Father.
25. Some think the field is the world, as in v 38; others, an individual's life. It is "his own garden" in Lk 13:19.
26. Jesus uses grammar that emphasizes the contrast between the two halves of this sentence.
27. Same word as in Mk 4:32; Lk 11:32. Elsewhere only as "vegetables" in Rom 14:2. GK 3303.
28. That is, in relative size. The emphasis is on starting very small and growing huge in relation to the size of the original grain. The Jews, by contrast, expected a full-grown kingdom established immediately by the Messiah by force.
29. This word "so that" indicates the result. It becomes a tree with the result that the birds nest in it.
30. Some think the birds nesting are added to show how large the grain becomes. Others think this represents the evil one (as in v 4, 19) coming to live and work from within the visible kingdom that Christ grows in the world.
31. Compare Lk 13:20.
32. Leaven was used to make bread rise. It was a piece of fermented dough saved from a previous batch of bread. It was not fresh "yeast", but it functioned like it. Some think the leaven symbolizes the gospel, as in v 19; others, evil, like the darnel in v 25. Elsewhere only in 16:6, 11, 12; Mk 8:15; Lk 12:1; 13:21; 1 Cor 5:6, 7, 8; Gal 5:9. GK 2434.
33. Some think the woman is God or Christ or the church; others, the devil.
34. Or, "hid-in". Elsewhere only in Lk 13:21. Normally we would say "mixed", but that places emphasis on the mixer and the mixing. Jesus is emphasizing the "hiddenness" of the leaven within the flour, and its transformation of the whole from within. This hidden, slow, inner transforming power of the kingdom is in direct contrast to the Jewish expectation of a violent, forced imposition of God's kingdom on the Romans by the Messiah. GK 1606. The root word is "hide" in Jn 8:59.
35. Or, "seah", a Hebrew measure equal to about 1.5 Roman modius-measures, on which see Mk 4:21. That makes this about six gallons or 25 liters, a batch size seen in Gen 18:6. Some think "three" symbolizes the Jews, Samaritans, and Gentiles, Act 1:8. Elsewhere only in Lk 13:21. GK 4929.
36. Some think this symbolizes the world; others, the visible church; others, an individual. God hides the gospel in the world or an individual and it permeates and transforms from within. Or, Satan hides evil in the visible church until it is transformed. Elsewhere only in Lk 13:21. GK 236.
37. This is the verb related to "leaven" earlier. Elsewhere only in Lk 13:21; 1 Cor 5:6; Gal 5:9. GK 2435.
38. Parallel account at Mk 4:33.
39. Some manuscripts say "Isaiah the prophet" {C}. Some think "Isaiah" was inserted later. Others think Matthew wrote "Asaph", but it was changed later to the more familiar "Isaiah". "Asaph" is the correct source, Ps 78:2.
40. This word modifies "prophet", as in 1:22.
41. Used only here. GK 2243.

It is used in the Gospels in all these senses with regard to those approaching Jesus. It is not related to "kneeling" in 17:14. In the TransLine, this word is translated (depending on the grammar) "worship" (27 times), or "give worship" (21 times) when the person involved would perceive himself as worshipping God, or a supposed deity (as in Rev 9:20; 13:4, 8). What did those approaching Jesus in the Gospels perceive Him to be? Early, He was perceived as a king (2:2), or a prophet (16:13-14; Jn 6:14), or the Messiah (as they understood the term). Since the Jews would not have "worshipped" (as we use this word with reference to God) a king or prophet or the Messiah, it is translated "pay homage" (only in Mt 2:2, 8, 11; Mk 15:19; Act 10:25) or, "prostrate-onself" (only in Mt 8:2; 9:18; 15:25; 18:26; 20:20; Mk 5:6; Jn 9:38). Beginning here (compare Mk 6:52; Mt 16:17), the disciples perceived Him to be the Son of God, and so it is translated "worship". Used 60 times in the NT, it is also in Mt 28:9, 17; Jn 4:20; 12:20; Act 7:43; 8:27; 1 Cor 14:25; Heb 1:6; Rev 4:10. GK 4686.
16. Or, "really, actually". Related to the "truth" in Jn 4:23. Elsewhere by Matthew only in 26:73; 27:54. Jesus uses this word in Lk 9:27; 12:44; 21:3; Jn 1:47; 8:31; 17:8. Same word as in Mk 14:70; 15:39; Jn 4:42; 6:14; 7:40; Act 12:11; 1 Thes 2:13; 1 Jn 2:5. Elsewhere only as "really" in Jn 7:26. GK 242.
17. Parallel account at Mk 6:53. Compare Jn 6:22-25.
18. Instead of "on land in", some manuscripts say "to the land of" {N}.
19. Or, "brought safely through". Same word as in Lk 7:3.
20. Parallel account at Mk 7:1.
21. Note Mark's explanation of this in Mk 7:3-4.
22. Some manuscripts say "For God commanded, saying" {B}.
23. That is, die. On this word, see Mk 9:48.
24. That is, let him die by execution. This imitates a Hebrew idiom meaning, "let him surely die".
25. Or, "offering". I have made it a gift devoted to God. Same word as in 5:23. Mk 7:11 says "Corban", then translates it with this same word. It is like saying "I have vowed to give my estate to God when I die, so under no circumstances can I use any of it to help you".
26. Some manuscripts add a word meaning "and, indeed" {N}, so that it says "he indeed shall". Or, it could then be rendered "... gift [to God] shall be free. And he shall by no means...".
27. On this emphatic negative, see 5:20.
28. You say that whoever makes this vow must not honor the request of his parents. The vow, according to their traditions, supersedes God's direct command because the vow pertains to God, but the honor pertains only to humans. On this word, see 1 Tim 5:3.
29. Some manuscripts add "or his mother" {C}.
30. Or, "made void, made of no effect, canceled the force of, invalidated, annulled". Same word as in Mk 7:13. Elsewhere only as "unratified" in Gal 3:17. GK 218.
31. Some manuscripts say "commandment"; others, "law" {B}.
32. Some manuscripts say "This people draws near to Me with their mouth, and honors..." {N}.
33. The verb "is distant" is also in 14:24; Mk 7:6; Lk 7:6; 15:20; 24:13. GK 600.
34. Or, "to no end, pointlessly, futilely". Elsewhere only in Mk 7:7. GK 3472. Related to "futile" in 1 Cor 15:17.
35. That is, doctrines. On this word, see 1 Tim 5:17. Same word as in Mk 7:7.
36. Or, "Be listening and understanding". The grammar is different in Mk 7:14. On this word, see Mt 13:13.
37. Or, "make unclean or impure, profane". Jesus is not contradicting the Law of Moses (5:17). For a Jew at that time to knowingly defy the dietary Laws of Moses would be an example of evil from the heart. But their rules of ritual defilement (such as handwashing here) were not part of God's Law at all. In one sentence, their system of traditions built up around being "clean" and "unclean"—a major part of their life—is rejected. Note Mk 7:19.
38. Or, "were offended, were caused to fall". That is, because v 3-11 are a direct attack on them as teachers, and on their traditions. On this word, see "cause to fall" in 1 Cor 8:13.
39. Some manuscripts omit this word {C}, so that it says, "they are blind guides". Note Lk 6:39.
40. Or, "Declare, Interpret". Used only here. GK 5851.
41. Some manuscripts omit this word {C}, so that it says "explain the parable". Peter is referring to v 10-11.

18. Some manuscripts say "the feet of Jesus" {N}.
19. Some manuscripts add "and" ("and crippled..."); others omit "crippled ones healthy"; others say "deaf ones hearing" instead of "mute ones speaking" {C}.
20. Or, "faint, give out". Jesus does not want to allow this possibility to occur. On this word, see "lose heart" in Gal 6:9.
21. Some fault the disciples for not remembering 14:14-21. But after being "summoned" and hearing v 32, they would naturally think that Jesus was asking them to do something about it, as He did in 14:16. Why should their first thought be to assume that He intended to repeat the miracle? Jesus does not fault them, v 34.

9. That is, not a healing about which the source can be debated (God or Satan), but something indisputably from God, like the plagues Egypt. Jesus did such miracles (feeding 5000, calming the storm), but not for them.
10. Some manuscripts omit the rest of v 2-3 {C}, so that it says "...said to them, 'An evil and adulterous...'".
11. Compare Lk 12:54-56.
12. That is, the "sky", as this word is sometimes used. On this word, see 2 Cor 12:2.
13. Or, "gloomy, overcast". Elsewhere only as "become downcast" in Mk 10:22. GK 5145. We have the saying, "Red sky at night, sailor's delight. Red sky in the morning, sailor take warning".
14. Or, this may be a question, "Do you indeed know...?". Some manuscripts say "Hypocrites! You..." {K}.
15. The signs from heaven (v 1) are plain to see, but you can discern only the physical ones, not the spiritual ones; the ones from the physical heaven, not the ones from God's heaven. On this word, see "doubt" in Jam 1:6.
16. Jesus uses grammar that emphasizes the contrast between the two halves of this sentence.
17. That is, spiritually unfaithful to God. On this word, see Jam 4:4.
18. Some manuscripts add "the prophet" {N}, as in 12:39.
19. Parallel account at Mk 8:13.
20. Some manuscripts say "His" {N}.
21. On "beware of", see 10:17.
22. Or, "reasoning". On this word, see "reasoning" in Lk 5:21.
23. Or, "within" (GK 1877). Matthew uses this phrase "among [or, within] themselves" only in 3:9; 9:3, 21; 16:7, 8; 21:25, 38.
24. Or, "saying, 'It is because we...'". Jesus is still thinking of the incident in v 1-4. But the disciples think He is talking about literal bread, and start to discuss the fact that they forgot it.
25. Some manuscripts say "did not take" {N}.
26. Or, "understand", but not the same word as in v 12. Do you not yet perceive spiritual truth? Same word as in 15:17; 16:11. On this word, see "think" in Eph 3:20.
27. Or, "Do you not yet understand nor remember the five..., nor the seven..."
28. Some manuscripts include this in the previous sentence "...bread, but that you should beware..." {N}.
29. Some manuscripts say "leaven of bread of the Pharisees and Sadducees"; others simply "leaven" {C}.
30. That is, teaching that can permeate their thinking with leftover ideas from the past. Teaching that refused to believe unless Jesus did a sign from heaven, v 1. In Lk 12:1, the leaven of the Pharisees is "hypocrisy".
31. Parallel account at Mk 8:27; Lk 9:18.
32. That is, Herod Philip's capital city, about 25 miles or 40 kilometers north of the Sea of Galilee. Mentioned elsewhere only in Mk 8:27. On Philip, see Lk 3:1. It was called this to distinguish it from the seaport called "Caesarea" (see Act 8:40).
33. Some manuscripts say "that I, the Son of Man, am" {B}.
34. Same adjective as in 5:3. God has shown His favor toward you. "You are a blessed one".
35. This is transliterated from Hebrew, meaning "son of Jonah". Used only here. GK 980. See "John" in Jn 1:42.

1. Jesus may mean "in addition to what the Father revealed, I also reveal...", or, "in addition to you being blessed".
2. Or, "Peter". Used 156 times in the NT, all other times as Peter's name. GK 4377. The Greek word means "a piece of rock, a stone", and is related to the word "bed-rock" that follows. Jesus is not giving Peter the name here, for He has already done so in Jn 1:42. It is natural for Him to call Peter a "rock" here, after the confession he just made on behalf of all of them. "You are blessed" and "You are a rock". There is a play on words here, with the emphasis being on the meaning of his name rather than on the proper name itself. However, either way of translating is imperfect. "Rock" shows the flow of thought. "Peter" shows the connection to the apostle. The Greek reader would immediately see both. Perhaps it should be rendered "Peter (a rock), and...". "Peter" is Greek, "Cephas" is Aramaic, both meaning "rock", Jn 1:42.
3. On this word, see 7:24, the bed-rock on which the house is built. It means "a mass of rock, a cliff, bed-rock, rock, a rock". It can be a synonym of the word "rock" preceding. Here, there is a play on the two words, since Matthew uses two different Greek words to bring out what Jesus meant when He used the same Aramaic (the language Jesus spoke) word in both places. On what rock does Jesus build His church? Some think He means Peter himself, the leader of the apostles, the sense in which He intends it being described in v 19. He is a foundation rock in a house built of living stones, 1 Pet 2:5; Eph 2:20. Others think Christ is pointing to Himself. He Himself is both the builder and the cornerstone, 1 Cor 3:11; Eph 2:20. Others think it is Peter's confession. The church is built on the human confession of Christ as the Son of God. Others think it is the Father's revelation of Christ's identity to humans, v 17, starting with Peter.
4. On Hades, see Rev 1:18. Some think Jesus means the gates all humans pass through at death. Death will not be able to defeat the church in the world, nor hold the Christian dead within its gates. Others think these gates are the entrances for the forces of darkness into the world. The forces of Hades will not be victorious over His church.
5. Or, "win the victory over, be strong against". Elsewhere only as "prevail" in Lk 23:23; and "have strength" in Lk 21:36. GK 2996. Related to "prevail" in Act 19:16.
6. Having keys means having the power to open and lock doors. The use of these keys may be seen in Acts, where Peter is the one to "open" the kingdom for the Jews (2:22-41), the Samaritans (8:14-17, Peter and John), and the Gentiles (10:34-48; 15:7).
7. Or, "tie up". On this word, see 1 Cor 7:27.
8. This is a participle, it "will be having been bound" or, "it will be standing as bound". This is the rare future perfect passive tense, used twice in this verse, and elsewhere only in Mt 18:18, and perhaps Lk 12:52. Jesus is promising Peter divine guidance, so that whatever Peter "binds" will correspond to what has been "bound" in heaven. He is not saying that whatever Peter binds will be seconded by God, but that Peter will speak with God's authority, under His guidance.
9. Or, "unbind, untie, release, abolish". Same word as in 18:18, and as "break" in 5:19. Some think "binding and loosing" means "forbidding and permitting" things, as the Rabbis used the terms (note 5:19). Others think they are explained by Jn 20:23 as "forgiving and retaining sins". Others think Jesus is referring to the powers of excommunication (compare the same phrases in 18:18). In addition, some think Peter held these powers exclusively; others, that he passed them on to a successor; others, that they passed from him to all the other apostles; others, that they passed to all believers.
10. This is a participle, it "will be having been loosed". Same grammar as "bound" above.
11. Some manuscripts say "warned" {N}.
12. Some manuscripts say "His" {N}.
13. That is, the Messiah. Some manuscripts say "Jesus, the Christ" {B}. Why? To avoid a repeat of what people tried to do in Jn 6:15. "Messiah" had political overtones that Jesus did not want to fan.
14. Parallel account at Mk 8:31; Lk 9:22.
15. Matthew reaches a turning point, as in 4:17. For the first time, Jesus speaks directly about His coming death and resurrection. After this, Jesus concentrates on preparing the twelve for this event, and for their life and mission after it, as He moves toward it.
16. Or, "He has to". More literally, "that it is necessary that He go" or "that it is necessary for Him to go". The root word means "it is binding" upon Him. This frequent idiom is used of that which must necessarily take place, the necessity or compulsion proceeding from various sources (based on the context), whether internal (like duty) or external (like the will of God, law, custom, or the circumstances themselves). Here, it is necessary in the will of God. Same idiom as in 17:10; 26:54; Mk 13:10; Lk 2:49; 24:26; Jn 3:7; 4:24; Act 1:16; 4:12; 14:22; 17:3; 2 Cor 5:10; 1 Tim 3:2; Heb 11:6; Rev 1:1; etc. GK 1256. Same word as in the idiom "should have" in Mt 25:27, and "ought to" in Act 25:10.
17. This idiom means "May God mercifully spare You from this". On this word, see Heb 8:12.
18. Or, "be for You". The word "be" sometimes means "happen", as in Mk 11:23, 24; 13:4; Lk 21:7; 22:49, etc. GK 1639.
19. Or, "Be going behind Me". Jesus recognizes that Satan is using Peter. The grammar means "Be engaging in the process of going behind Me". Same command as in Mk 8:33. On this word, see "go away" in Mt 4:10.
20. Or, "offense, trap". On this word, see Rom 11:9.
21. Parallel account at Mk 8:34; Lk 9:23. Compare Mt 10:39; Lk 17:33; Jn 12:25.
22. That is, disown and refuse to follow the impulses of self. This is a stronger form of the root word "deny" (both are in Lk 12:9). Used only in this statement, Mk 8:34; of being denied before angels, Lk 12:9; and of Peter denying the Lord, Mt 26:34, 35, 75; Mk 14:30, 31, 72; Lk 22:34, 61. GK 565. Here it means to no longer own one's life, but to serve the Master, Jesus, having been bought with a price, 1 Cor 6:19; Gal 2:20.
23. That is, the instrument of suffering and death, a symbol of our death to self for Christ. Compare 10:38.

27. Or, "soul". The same Greek word is used four times in v 25-26. In v 25, Jesus means "life" in an earthly, temporal sense. In v 26, He means "life" in a spiritual and eternal sense. Lk 9:25 says "himself". On this word, see "soul" in Jam 5:20.

12. Who? Perhaps Jesus, Moses and Elijah, for the disciples hear the voice come "out of" the cloud. Compare Lk 9:34.
13. Or, "in". Same word as in 3:17; Mk 1:11; Lk 3:22. GK 1877. Mt 12:18 and 2 Pet 1:17 use a different word (GK 1650).
14. Or, "took pleasure, delighted". Some take this in a timeless sense, rendering it "I am well pleased, I delight". Others think God is speaking with reference to His choice of His Son for this task before the foundation of the world, "I was well pleased, I delighted", as in Isa 42:1. Lk 9:35 says "My Son, the One having been chosen". Others take it in a historical sense, "I have become well pleased" in His obedience. There are other views. Same word and form as in 3:17; Mk 1:11; Lk 3:22; 2 Pet 1:17. Same word as in Mt 12:18; Lk 12:32; Rom 15:26, 27; 1 Cor 1:21; 10:5; 2 Cor 12:10; Gal 1:15; Col 1:19; 1 Thes 2:8; Heb 10:6, 8, 38. 19. Some manuscripts say "His" {N}.
20. The disciples do not understand the connection between Elijah and Messiah. If Messiah is here, where is Elijah? If Elijah must come before the consummation of the age, where is he? If he came and went, and You say not to tell anyone about it (v 9), why does Mal 4:5 say he comes first? Note 11:14.
21. More literally, "that it is necessary for Elijah to come first". On this idiom, see 16:21. The necessity is based on the will of God.
22. Compare Mt 11:14; Lk 1:17; Jn 1:21.
23. Some manuscripts say "And Jesus," {N}.
24. Some manuscripts add "to them" {K}.

34. Or, "crooked". This is a participle, "having been perverted". Same word as in Lk 9:41. On this word, see Phil 2:15.
35. Some think Jesus is referring to "this generation" (see 24:34) of Jews, of which this father and his demon-possessed son are the first He encountered after the glory of His transfiguration. Others think He is referring to the nine disciples who did not have enough faith (v 20) to cast it out; others, to the scribes doubting Him; others, to everyone included here, for they all lacked faith in one sense or another.
36. This is an idiom, literally "until when", where "when" is GK 4536. This idiom is elsewhere only in Mk 9:19; Lk 9:41; Jn 10:24; Rev 6:10.

41. That is, the tiniest amount can unleash the power of God. But their "little faith" did not issue in them using any faith at all on this occasion. A little faith can be powerful because it is not the faith, but God who moves the mountains. On "seed of a mustard plant", see 13:31. Compare Lk 17:6.

2. Or, "gathering themselves". Elsewhere only in Act 28:3. GK 5370. Related to "gathering" in Act 23:12. Some manuscripts say "were staying" {B}.

4. These would be Jews commissioned by the Temple, not the hated "tax collectors" who collected for Rome.
5. That is, the yearly half-shekel (two drachma) temple tax required of all male Jews 20 to 50 years old, Ex 30:11-16. It was collected from Jews throughout the world. A drachma (see Lk 15:8) was a silver coin equivalent to a denarius (see Mt 20:2), and to one fourth of a Jewish shekel. Used only in this verse. GK 1440.
6. The grammar indicates a "yes" answer is expected.
7. That is, Jesus began to answer before Peter could ask. Perhaps He had overheard them talking. Used only here. GK 4740.
8. That is, local taxes. Same word as in Rom 13:7.
9. That is, the tax based on the census and paid to the Emperor. Elsewhere only in 22:17, 19; Mk 12:14. GK 3056.
10. Sons belonging to the royal household are contrasted to those belonging to the other households (the citizens). The King's family pays no taxes. On this word, see "foreigners" in Heb 11:34.
11. Some manuscripts say "And Peter says to Him" {B}.
12. That is, not bound by the tax, exempt from the tax. In other words, the sons of the Father (Jesus and the disciples) are exempt from His Father's temple tax. This is the logical deduction, but Jesus next gives a more practical answer. Used 23 times. GK 1801. Related to "set free" in Rom 8:2.
13. Or, "cause them to fall", on which see 1 Cor 8:13.
14. This is a Greek silver coin worth one shekel or two double-drachmas, enough to pay for both Jesus and Peter. Used only here. GK 5088.
15. Parallel account at Mk 9:33; Lk 9:46.
16. Since You are Messiah, how will we rank in your kingdom?
17. Though the form of this word means "greater", some think the sense of it here is "greatest". Likewise in v 4. On this word, see 11:11.
18. Or, "her". The grammar is not specific.
19. Or, "changed, converted" inwardly, "turned [from your ways to God]". Similar in meaning to Jn 3:2, "unless you are born again". Same word as "turned" in Jn 12:40. This is the common word for "turn", used 21 times. GK 5138.
20. That is, humble yourself to become dependent and helpless before God, as this child is before adults and God. What the child does naturally, the adult must purposefully choose. If you think "I can do it myself", you will not enter.
21. Having answered their question, Jesus now goes on to draw another lesson from this child. On this word, see 10:40.
22. Some think Jesus means one child like this child before them, one "little one believing in Me" (v 6), as in Mk 9:37; others, a child like the one who "humbles himself" in v 4, meaning one of His spiritual children regardless of age. In any case, Jesus is referring to welcoming one who is least associated with "greatness". Compare 10:40; 25:40.
23. On "on the basis of My name", see Act 2:38.
24. Or, "these little ones who are believing in Me", or more literally, "these little ones, the ones believing in Me".
25. On "causes to fall", see 1 Cor 8:13. The same word is used in v 8, 9, and a related word is used three times in v 7.
26. Same word as in 5:29, 30; Jn 11:50; 16:7; 18:14. On this word, see "beneficial" in 1 Cor 6:12. It is not the same word as in the similar statements in Lk 17:2, Mk 9:42, or as in v 8, 9.
27. On this phrase, "donkey's millstone", see Mk 9:42.
28. It is better to be killed than face the consequences of this. The death is a one-time event; the consequences are an eternal loss. The grammar is different in Mk 9:42; Lk 17:2. Elsewhere only in 14:30, of Peter sinking. GK 2931.
29. This is an idiom, literally "in the open-sea of the sea", "in the high-sea of the sea". The first word is elsewhere only as "open-sea" in Act 27:5. GK 4283.
30. Some manuscripts say "that" {N}.
31. Compare Mt 5:29-30; Mk 9:43-48.
32. Woe to "the person" (v 7) who causes God's children to fall. But as for you (v 8), if your hand causes you to fall in this area, cut it off (as Jesus also said in 5:29-30). Better to be maimed or to die in the sea (v 6) than to fall in this area.
33. Some manuscripts have this word plural, "them" {N}.
34. Though the form of this word means "good", it is sometimes used in the first part of a comparison (as here with "than"), giving it the meaning "better". On this word, see "good" in 1 Tim 5:10a.
35. On "Gehenna of fire", see 5:22.
36. Or, "despise, disregard, treat with contempt". On this word, see "disregard" in Rom 2:4. It is the opposite of "welcome" in v 5. That is, because of their age; and with reference to spiritual children, for their differences of opinion (as in Rom 14), or behavior (as in 1 Cor 8), or social status (as in Eph 6:9; 1 Cor 1:26), etc. Do not rank yourself as "greater" (v 1) than others and treat them with contempt. Rather, rescue them, if they are lost, v 12-14.
37. Some find the concept of "guardian angels" here. Others think that while angels do have a ministering role (Heb 1:14), it may be going beyond what this verse says to say that every individual person has an angel assigned to them. In any case, this verse affirms the great value and priority God places on all His children. Note Lk 15:10; 16:22.
38. That is, they have continual access to God. On this word, see Rev 1:1.
39. Some manuscripts add as v 11, "For the Son of Man came to save the lost" {B}, similar to Lk 19:10.
40. Compare Lk 15:3-7.
41. This is a second reason not to look down on "these little ones", v 10. Not only do the angels minister to them, but God rescues them.
42. The grammar indicates that a "yes" answer is expected.
43. Luke follows this parable (and its companion parable of the lost coin) with the parable of the prodigal son, in which the father illustrates this finding and rejoicing, Lk 15:20-24, 31-32.
44. Or, "before, in the presence of". This is a reverential way of saying it is not God's will. Same word as 11:26. GK 1869.
45. Some manuscripts say "My" {C}.
46. God is not a respecter of persons. He values His "little" people as much as His apostles, His slaves as much as His masters (Eph 6:9), His poor as much as His rich (Jam 2:1).
47. Or, "perish". On this word, see "perish" in 1 Cor 1:18.

- 3E. “And the one was not willing^M, but having gone, he threw him into prison until he should pay the amount being owed 30
- 3D. “Then his fellow slaves, having seen the things having taken place, were extremely grieved^X. And having come, they made-clear^Y to their master all the things having taken place 31
- 4D. “Then, having summoned him, his master says to him, ‘Evil^Z slave! I forgave^L you all that debt because you begged^W me. *Should not you also have³⁵ had mercy on your fellow slave, as I also had mercy on you?’ 32 33
- 5D. “And having become angry³⁶, his master handed him over to the tormenters³⁷ until which time he should pay^Q all the amount being owed³⁸ 34
- 6D. “So also My heavenly Father will do to you if you do not forgive³⁹— each one his brother— from your hearts” 35

1. Compare Lk 17:3.
2. This is a different case. What should be done when you are suffering an injury, not inflicting one?
3. Some manuscripts omit "against you" {C}.
4. Or, "reprove, rebuke, convict". On this word, see Eph 5:11. Note the two separate commands, "Go, expose", not as so often in Matthew "Having gone, expose". This also occurs in 8:4, 19:21; 21:28; 28:10, etc.
5. That is, gained him for the benefit of the kingdom. On this word, see Mk 8:36. Compare 1 Pet 3:1.
6. Or, "on the basis of". Same phrase as in 2 Cor 13:1, and similar to 1 Tim 5:19; Heb 10:28. It refers to Deut 19:15.
7. The church, through its leaders, speaks as one with the voice of Christ, focusing the individual on the impact of this sin upon his relationship with God, and with the Christian community. He must choose between them.
8. Or, "pagan, non-believer". On this word, see 3 Jn 7.
9. A tax collector was viewed as a traitor to Israel, a servant of the enemy (Rome). They were not allowed in the synagogue, and no one ate or socialized with them. They were outcasts. Used 21 times. GK 5467. On the tax system, see the note on Lk 3:13.
10. On "bind" and "loose", see 16:19. Here, the "you" in "you bind" and "you loose" is plural. Some think it refers to "the church" in v 17. Others think it refers to the apostles. In 16:19, it was singular, referring to Peter.
11. This is a participle, it "will be having been bound". Likewise with "loose", it "will be having been loosed". Same tense as in 16:19. Whatever you as a church "bind" will correspond to what has already been "bound" in heaven. Some think Jesus means "whatever you as a church permit or forbid with regard to his behavior...". If so, this verse is in regard to the church's behavioral decision—whether what the brother did was sin or not. Since the Jewish "traditions of the elders" which had guided their lives were rejected, new decisions would have to be made by the church based on the OT Scripture under the guidance of God. This divine guidance is what is promised here. On the other views, see 16:19.
12. Some think that Jesus now speaks with regard to the church's disciplinary decision in v 17. Even if the "church" is only two or three, if they are in agreement about what they want to ask of God (v 19), then God will do it (as in 1 Cor 5:5). Others think this refers to the apostles. Others think that v 19-20 are not connected to v 15-18 at all, but form a separate point regarding prayer in general (5C).
13. Some manuscripts omit this word {C}. See 5:18 on it.
14. Same word as in Lk 5:36; Act 5:9; 15:15. Elsewhere only as "make an agreement" in Mt 20:2, 13. GK 5244. Related to "harmony" in 2 Cor 6:15. Some manuscripts say "shall agree" {N}.
15. Or, "thing". Same word as in Rom 16:2; 1 Cor 6:1; 2 Cor 7:11; 1 Thes 4:6. Elsewhere only as "thing" in Lk 1:1; Act 5:4; Heb 6:18; 10:1; 11:1, Jam 3:16. GK 4547.
16. The divine guidance promised is made explicit here.
17. This is a participle, "are having been gathered-together". GK 5251.
18. Or, "with reference to". GK 1650. Not the same word as in v 5.
19. Compare Lk 17:4.
20. Peter is responding to v 15, "if he listens to you...". The rabbis taught that one should forgive three times.
21. Elsewhere only in v 21; Lk 17:4. GK 2232.
22. That is, seventy occasions, as with "seven-times" in v 21, 22. Some think Jesus means "seventy-times [and] seven" (77 times, as this exact phrase is used in Gen 4:24). Others think He means "seventy-times [times] seven" (490 times). In either case, it is more times than one can keep track of. It is like asking how often we should "love one another". Used only here. GK 1574.
23. Or, "was like". Same word and grammar as in 13:24. It is like this in that our own forgiveness gives us a standing obligation to forgive others.
24. Or, "to be settling". The grammar means "having started the process of settling it". On this word, see Mt 25:19.
25. This is a huge amount of money. One silver talent was 6000 denarii (see 20:2), that is, 6000 day's wages for a laborer, the wages for twenty years of work. So 10,000 talents is 60 million denarii, which is 600,000 times more than the slave in verse 28 owed. Such is our debt to God versus others' debt to us. A gold talent was worth much more, a copper talent less. Elsewhere only in 25:15, 16, 20, 22, 24, 25, 28. GK 5419.
26. On this word, see "worship" in 14:33.
27. Some manuscripts say "Master, be..." {A}.
28. Or, "Have patience". On this word, see 1 Cor 13:4. Same word as in v 29.
29. Used only here. GK 1245. Related to "lend" in Lk 6:34.
30. On this word, see 20:2. A hundred day's wages.
31. Some manuscripts include "me" {N}.
32. Or, "if". The grammar implies that the lender accepted this as the fact of the matter, so for clarity it is rendered "since" here.
33. Some manuscripts add "at his feet" {N}.
34. Some manuscripts say "everything" {K}.
35. On the idiom "should have", see 25:27. The grammar of this question expects a "yes" answer.
36. Or, "wrathful". On this word, see Rev 11:18.
37. Or, "torturers", the ones in the prison. Used only here. GK 991. Related to "torment" in Rev 14:10.
38. Some manuscripts add "to him" {N}. Of course, he would never be able to repay it.
39. On this word, see 6:12. Some manuscripts add "their trespasses" {N}.

1. Parallel account at Mk 10:1.
2. That is, chapter 18. On this phrase, see 13:53. This ends the ministry of Jesus in Galilee.
3. Or, "boundaries". On this word, see Mk 10:1.
4. Some manuscripts say "the Pharisees" {N}.
5. Some manuscripts add "to Him" {N}.
6. Note that as in Mt 5:31, this question is asked from the Jewish man's perspective. Jesus is not fully addressing the question of divorce here, but is refuting the commonly held Jewish husband's point of view.
7. That is, divorce. On this word, see Mt 5:31. Same word as in v 7, 8, 9. Not related to "divorce" in v 7.
8. Or, "based on, according to, with respect to, because of". GK 2848.
9. Or, "for all grounds, for every charge, for every cause". That is, for any fault he might accuse her. This was the Pharisees' understanding of "some uncleanness" in Deut 24:1, and their accepted practice, though some taught a stricter standard. They all thought divorce was the husband's right, debating only over the grounds. Jesus rejects this, causing the reaction in v 10. Same word as "case" in v 10. On this word, see "charge" in Jn 18:38.
10. Some manuscripts add "to them" {N}.
11. The answer is not found in Deut 24, the exception, but in Gen 1-2, the rule, the intention of God.
12. Instead of "created", some manuscripts say "made" {B}, "the One having made them".
13. That is, God made them as a pair from the beginning. This phrase, "from the beginning", is elsewhere only in v 8; 24:21; Mk 10:6; 13:19; Lk 1:2; Jn 8:44; 15:27; Act 26:4; 2 Pet 3:4; 1 Jn 1:1; 2:7, 13, 14, 24; 3:8, 11; 2 Jn 5, 6. This is the Greek word order. Some take this phrase with what precedes, and render it "at the beginning".
14. These two words refer to the man and the woman as different biological creations. This word is elsewhere only in Mk 10:6; Lk 2:23; Rom 1:27; Gal 3:28; Rev 12:5, 13. GK 781.
15. Elsewhere only in Mk 10:6; Rom 1:26, 27; Gal 3:28. GK 2559. Related to the word "nipple" (not in NT), and "nursing" in 21:16. That is, God made "man" (Gen 1:27, referring to humankind) as "male and female", a complimentary pair.
16. That is, because God made them to be a pair.
17. Or, "join himself". On this word, see 1 Cor 6:16. Related word in Mk 10:7.
18. This is an idiom reflecting a Hebrew way of speaking. Literally, "will be for one flesh".
19. Or, "yoked-together", joined as a pair. Elsewhere only in Mk 10:9. GK 5183. Related to "pair" in Lk 14:19.
20. Or, "a man, a human, man". That Jesus meant this in the broader sense is clear in Mk 10:9-12, but the Pharisees here would have taken Him to mean "a man, a husband". See the note on Mk 10:9. On this word, see "mankind" in Mt 4:4.
21. In other words, God made the two to be permanently one. This is His plan for a man and a woman. Do not send her away. Same word as in Mk 10:9; 1 Cor 7:10, 11, 15; and Rom 8:35, 39; Phm 15; Heb 7:26. Elsewhere only as "depart" in Act 1:4; 18:1, 2. GK 6004.
22. Or, "writing". Same word as in Mk 10:4, on which see "scroll" in Rev 5:1.
23. The certificate was to protect the wife, so that she could remarry. On this word, see 5:31.
24. Some manuscripts omit this word {C}, leaving it implied. "Send away" is used exactly as in 5:31.
25. On Moses' command in Deut 24:1, see Mk 10:4. He did not command it, nor does Jesus command it here.
26. That is, since creation it has never been God's desire that a man should divorce his wife. It comes from hardness of heart. The hardness of heart by the husbands under discussion here is a sin. The sending her away with the legal protection of the divorce certificate was permitted but not endorsed by Moses, and it results in another sin, as Jesus says next.
27. Compare also Mt 5:32; Lk 16:18.
28. This implies that whoever sends his wife away based on sexual immorality, and marries another, is not committing adultery. Some think this means that Jesus is permitting divorce for this cause. He is permitting what He says Moses permitted, but further defining the grounds. Others think it means only that he is not committing adultery because she has already done so, and that it does not address the question of what the husband should do if she has done this. All agree that Jesus is not endorsing the view that a husband must divorce his wife for this cause, as some in that day taught.
29. Some manuscripts say "except for a matter of sexual immorality" {B}, as in 5:32.
30. Instead of "and...adultery", some manuscripts say "makes her commit adultery" {B}, as in 5:32.
31. Or, "is an adulterer". The main point Jesus is making is, Do not send her away. It is not lawful for a husband to send his wife away for every reason, v 3. On this word, see 5:32b. Some manuscripts add "And the one marrying a woman having been sent away from her husband is committing adultery" {B}, similar to 5:32.
32. Some manuscripts say "the disciples" {C}.
33. Or, "charge, cause". Same word as "reason" in v 3. Some think the disciples mean "if this is the only valid reason a man can use to divorce his wife"; others, more generally, "if this is the condition or status of the husband". In either case, this direct attack on male authority is shocking even to the disciples.
34. Or, "advantageous, profitable". Or, "it is better not to marry". On this word, see "beneficial" in 1 Cor 6:12.
35. Or, "make room for, accept". Same word as twice in v 12. On this word, see "make room" in 2 Pet 3:9. Jesus does not deny what the disciples say, but adds to it that not all have the ability to live this way, as unmarried ones. This is clearly an understatement, because God made them as a pair from the beginning. Marriage is for most people. But Jesus states that remaining single is also a gift, validating this choice in contradiction of the views of many in His day.
36. Some manuscripts say "the statement" {C}.
37. Both remaining single and being married are gifts of God, 1 Cor 7:7.
38. That is, celibate or castrated males. On this word, see Act 8:27. Here Jesus refers to a person born with a disposition to remain unmarried. Next, to one who is forced into that condition by castration. Last, to one who chooses that path for the sake of the kingdom (who is unmarried by choice for this purpose).
39. That is, by abstaining from marriage, not by castrating themselves.
40. Why? To serve God without distraction (1 Cor 7: 29-35), a course Paul recommended (1 Cor 7:8).

- 2B.¹ Then children^A were brought to Him in order that He might lay^B His hands on them and pray. But the disciples rebuked² them³ 13

- 4D. Jesus said to him, “If you wish to be perfect¹⁴, go, sell your possessions¹⁵ and give it to the poor^L, and you will have treasure in the heavens. And come, be following Me” 21
- 5D. But having heard the¹⁶ statement, the young man went away grieving^M. For he was having¹⁷ many properties¹⁸ 22
- 2C. And Jesus said to His disciples, “Truly I say to you that a rich one will enter with-difficulty¹⁹ into the kingdom of the heavens. *And again I say to you, it is easier that a camel go through a hole²⁰ of a needle²¹, than that a rich one enter into the kingdom of God” 23
- 3C. And having heard it, the²² disciples were extremely astounded^N, saying, “Who then can be saved^O?” 24
- 4C. And having looked at them, Jesus said to them, “With humans, this is impossible^P. But with God, all things are possible²³” 25
- 5C. Then Peter, having responded, said to Him, “Behold— we left everything and followed You. What then will there be²⁴ for us?” 26
- 6C. And Jesus said to them 28
- 1D.²⁵ “Truly I say to you that you, the ones having followed Me— at the regeneration²⁶ when the Son of Man sits on the throne of His glory²⁷, you also will sit on twelve thrones, judging²⁸ the twelve tribes^Q of Israel²⁹”

1. Parallel account at Mk 10:13; Lk 18:15.
2. Or, "warned them [to stay away]". Same word as used by Matthew in 8:26; 16:22; 17:18; 20:31; and as "warned" in 12:16. On this word, see "warn" in 1 Tim 4:2.
3. That is, those who brought them. Luke calls the children "babies", Lk 18:15. See Mk 10:13.
4. Or, "Leave the children alone", taking this as a stand-alone command, as in 27:49. This is the Greek word order of this sentence. Some arrange it "Permit the children to come to Me, and do not be forbidding them", as in the Greek word order of Mk 10:14 and Lk 18:16. Here, "to come to Me" goes with both commands.
5. Or, "hinder[ing], prevent[ing], try[ing] to stop". On this word, see 1 Cor 14:39.
6. It is "made up of such ones", or it "belongs to such ones". That is, to "childlike persons" (see 18:3), whether physically a child or an adult, as Mk 10:15 and Lk 18:17 go on to state.
7. Parallel account at Mk 10:17; Lk 18:18.
8. Some manuscripts say "Good teacher" {A}, as in Mk 10:17; Lk 18:18.
9. Or, "shall", as also in Mk 10:17. Compare Lk 18:18.
10. On this question, compare Mk 10:17; Lk 10:25.
11. Instead of "Why... good", some manuscripts say "Why do you call Me good? No one is good except One—God" {A}, as in Mk 10:18; Lk 18:19. On "good", see 1 Tim 5:10b.
12. Or, "like". Love your neighbor in the same manner as you love yourself. See Lev 19:18. This command is repeated in 22:39; Mk 12:31; Lk 10:27; Rom 13:9; Gal 5:14; Jam 2:8. See also Mt 5:43; Mk 12:33; Rom 15:2; Eph 4:25; Jam 4:12. This word is used 504 times. GK 6055. On "love", see "devotedly-love" in Jn 21:15.
13. Some manuscripts add "from my youth" {A}, as in Mk 10:20.
14. Or, "complete", so as to "lack" nothing. On this word, see "complete" in 1 Cor 13:10.
15. Or, "belongings, property", like the ones in 13:45-46 and Act 4:34-35 did. This is a participle, on which see Heb 10:34. Compare Lk 12:33; 14:33.
16. Some manuscripts say "this"; others say "having heard it" {N}.
17. The grammar places emphasis on this man's continuing possession of his things.
18. Or, "possessions, acquisitions". Elsewhere only in Mk 10:22; Act 2:45; 5:1. GK 3228. Related to "acquire" in 1 Thes 4:4.
19. Or, "difficultly". Elsewhere only as "difficultly" in Mk 10:23; Lk 18:24. GK 1552. Related to "difficult" in Mk 10:24. This is another shocking statement. Wealth was considered to be a clear sign of the blessing of God.
20. Or, "bored-hole". Used only here. GK 5585. The related verb (not used in the NT) means "to bore, pierce". Matthew, Mark and Luke each use a different word. See Mk 10:25. In other words, it is humanly impossible, as they understood (v 25), and Jesus says (v 26).
21. That is, a sewing needle. Elsewhere only in Mk 10:25. GK 4827. Related to "to sew" in Mk 2:21 and to "seamless" (un-sewn) in Jn 19:23. Luke uses a different word, Lk 18:25.
22. Some manuscripts say "His" {N}.
23. Both "impossible" and "possible" are related to "can" in v 25, which could be rendered "who can-possibly be saved?".
24. Or, "What then will happen to us?". The word "be" sometimes means "happen", as in 16:22.
25. Compare Lk 22:28-30.
26. Or, "rebirth [of the world]". It is explained by what follows. P-M (see Rev 20:1 on P-M and A-M) thinks Jesus is referring to the millennial kingdom on earth (see Rev 20:1-4 on this); A-M, to the new heavens and earth where there will also be twelve foundations with their names on them, Rev 21. On this word, see Tit 3:5.
27. Or, "His throne of glory", or, "His glorious throne". Same phrase as in 25:31, when Jesus comes in glory.
28. That is, administering justice, serving as judge over. On this word, see 7:1.
29. P-M (see Rev 20:1) takes this literally; A-M, as symbolic of all believers.
30. Some manuscripts add "or wife" {C}, as in Lk 18:29.
31. Some think Jesus means "at the regeneration", like the apostles, v 28. Others think He means "in this age", as in Mk 10:30; Lk 18:30. If so, those who make such sacrifices will receive "a hundred houses, fields", "a hundred brothers, sisters, fathers, mothers, children", within the family of believers of which the person is now a part.
32. That is, a hundred times as much. Elsewhere only in Mk 10:30; Lk 8:8. GK 1671. This may simply be a hyperbole meaning "many times as much", as Lk 18:30 renders it. And here, some manuscripts say "many times as much" {B}.
33. Compare Mk 10:31; Lk 13:30.
34. Note that Jesus says "many", that is, some of the first ones, but not all of them (the whole class).
35. Or, "foremost, chief, prominent, leading ones". Jesus could mean first in time, or first in status. On this word, see 1 Cor 15:3.
36. The parable that follows is intended to explain this statement. Jesus is continuing to address their question of 19:27, "what will there be for us?". That is, what is the reward for our sacrifices? This is still on the disciples' mind in 20:20. The point of the parable seems to be not to envy others, for His rewards will not be as we might predict based on what we know. On this statement, compare 20:16; Mk 10:31; Lk 13:30.
37. Or, "a master of a house, a house owner". Same word as in 13:27, 52; 20:11; 21:33; 24:43; Mk 14:14; Lk 12:39; 13:25; 14:21. Elsewhere only as "household-master" in Mk 10:25; and "master" in Lk 22:11. GK 3867. Related to "manage the house" in 1 Tim 5:14.
38. That is, the house-master went out with daybreak, with sunrise. On this word, see Mk 13:35.
39. Based on the fact that the master enters a contract with this group and not with the others, some think the thrust of the parable is that Jews (who have a "contract") and Gentiles (who do not, and who come later) will both receive the same reward of salvation. Note Lk 13:30. Others think this detail points to self-seeking people who say "what is there for me?" like Peter in 19:27. This attitude shows itself again in their grumbling, v 11. The other three groups represent people who serve God without thought of a reward, simply trusting Him to be fair. God rewards both sovereignly.
40. The agreement was "One denarius for a day's work", the standard pay. A denarius was a Roman silver coin, a day's wage for a laborer or a soldier. 1. Some manuscripts omit this word {C}.
2. Some manuscripts add "idle" {N}.
3. Some manuscripts add "and you will receive whatever may be right" {N}.
4. Or, "foreman". On this word, see "steward" in Lk 8:3.
5. Or, "having begun from". In English, we prefer to say "beginning with" or "starting with". This idiom makes reference to the point or place from (at) which, or the person from (with) which the action in the context begins (or began). Thus here, the paying begins with the last ones. This idiom is elsewhere only in Lk 23:5; 24:27, 47; Jn 8:9; Act 1:22; 8:35; 10:37.
6. More literally, "they will receive", as the Greek typically phrases it.
7. Some manuscripts omit this word {C}, so that it says "a denarius".
8. Some think the denarius represents "eternal life", 19:29. Others think it represents the "hundred-fold" reward for our sacrifices, 19:29. It is a hundred times whatever one has "left".
9. Thus the last are paid first; all receive the same; the first expected more, more than was promised.
10. This word also means "comrade, companion, mate, fellow, associate, partner, colleague". It is used of a crewmate, comrade-in-arms, fellow partisan, fellow member of a group, etc. Elsewhere only in 22:12; 26:50. GK 2279.
11. Some manuscripts omit this word {C}.
12. This is the common word for "eye", used 100 times. GK 4057.
13. That is, are you envious because I am generous to them? "Evil eye" is also in Mk 7:22.
14. Clearly, some who appear to deserve the most will receive the same as others who appear to deserve the least, and vice versa. Beyond this, some think Jesus means "first" in the sense of time or seniority, and identify this group with the Jews (see v 2) or those who have been Christians longer. Those who come later in calendar time (the Gentiles, or Christians after the apostles) or who are Christians for a shorter amount of their lifetime, will receive the same reward— eternal life. Thus, the first and last on earth are equal in heaven. Others think He means "foremost", and identify this group with those who appear to be first in this world (because of their labor, position, sacrifice, or riches). Those less prominent will receive the same reward— a hundredfold— based on God's sovereign choice and values, not earthly appearances. Thus, the hundredfold reward of some who are first on earth will result in them being last in heaven, behind some who were considered last on earth. Consult the commentaries on these and other views. Some manuscripts add "For many are called ones, but few are chosen ones" {A}, as in 22:14.

22. Or, "Speak it", say the word. This is the common word for say or speak, on which see Jn 12:49. Some render it "command" here.
23. When the apostles sit upon their twelve thrones (19:28), let my sons sit next to you.
24. This word is plural. Jesus answers all three.
25. Some manuscripts add "or be baptized the baptism which I am baptized" {A}, as in Mk 10:38.
26. Jesus uses grammar that emphasizes the contrast between the two halves of this sentence. Some manuscripts add "and you will be baptized the baptism which I am baptized" {N}, as in Mk 10:39. James was killed with a sword in Act 12:2. John was banished to Patmos, Rev 1:9.

29. Or, "aroused, angry, displeased". Elsewhere only in 21:15; 26:8; Mk 10:14, 41; 14:4; Lk 13:14. GK 24.
30. Or, "domineering over, ruling over". The rulers reign as masters over their subjects. On this word, see 1 Pet 5:3.
31. They rule by directive, by vested authority. Elsewhere only in Mk 10:42. GK 2980. Related to the word in Lk 22:25.

16. Some manuscripts say "the second" {N}.
17. This son represents the chief priests and elders, v 23.
18. Some manuscripts have the two sons in reverse order, and then say here, "the last" or "the second". Other manuscripts say "the last" here {C}, referring to the son who said yes and did nothing—which is either a copyist's blunder, or it means that the Pharisees deliberately gave the wrong answer to spoil the point.
19. Or, "going before, preceding". On this word, see 2 Jn 9.
20. Or, "in connection with". GK 1877.
21. That is, the chief priests and elders did not regret their initial refusal to believe John. Some manuscripts say "did not regret" {N}.

- 2E. "Again he sent-forth^E other slaves— more than the first. And they did similarly to them 36
- 3E. "But finally he sent forth his son to them, saying, 'They will have-regard-for^F my son' 37
- 1F. "But the farmers, having seen the son, said among themselves, 'This is the heir^G. Come, let us kill him and let us have^I his inheritance^H' 38

- 6E. Jesus says to them, "Did you never read in the Scriptures, 'The stone which the ones building rejected^L, this became³ the head of the corner⁴. This came about from the Lord, and it is marvelous^M in our eyes'? [in Ps 118:22-23] 42

- i. Or, "hold". If we kill him, we can hold on to his inheritance— this vineyard. We can keep it for ourselves. Some manuscripts say "seize" {N}.
- l. There is a play on words here. The owner will put the wretches themselves to a wretched death. He will bring the bad ones themselves to a bad end. It would normally be translated, "He will severely destroy the evil ones themselves". On this word, see "evil" in 3 Jn 11.
- l. This is an idiom based on a Hebrew way of speaking. Literally, it "came-to-be for the head...". GK 1181.
- l. On this word and phrase, see Mk 12:10.
- i. That is, because you rejected Me (v 42), and killed Me (v 39).
- i. Or, "people". It will be taken from the nation of Israel and given to a spiritual "nation" (1 Pet 2:9), made up of Jews and Gentiles (Eph 2:11-22). On this word, see "Gentile" in Act 15:23.
- l. Some manuscripts omit this verse {C}, which is found in Lk 20:18.
- l. Or, "crushed, shattered". Elsewhere only in this statement in Lk 20:18. GK 5314.
- l. Or, "But". GK 1254.
- l. Or, "winnow" him, "scatter" him like chaff. Some take these statements to mean that whether they fall over Christ, or whether He falls on them in their ignorance of Him, the result is the same. Others, that if they fall over Him, they will be broken, but can be healed. But if He falls on them, they will be crushed. Elsewhere only in Lk 20:18. GK 3347.
- l. More literally, "is speaking", as the Greek typically phrases it.
- l. Because the crowd held Jesus (v 11) as a prophet (and John, v 26), and understood that Jesus was speaking of the Pharisees, the Pharisees feared the crowd. Compare Mk 12:12; Lk 20:19.
- l. Compare Lk 14:15-24.
- l. Or, "was like". Same word and grammar as in 13:24.
- l. The king is the Father; Jesus is the Son.
- l. Or, "called". Same word as just used, so it could be rendered "to call the... called", that is, the Jews. Same word as in v 4, 8, 9, and related to "called" in 14. On this word, see "called" in Rom 8:30.
- l. Or, "meal". That is, the main morning meal, usually eaten before noon. With this meal, the celebrations began. They often lasted a week. On this word, see "morning meal" in Lk 14:12.
- l. Or, "neglected, disregarded". On this word, see "having neglected" salvation in Heb 2:3.
- l. Or, "wrathful". On this word, see Rev 11:18.
- l. Some think this city represents Jerusalem, the city of the chief priests and Pharisees. Some then think in addition that the first slaves in v 3 are the OT prophets; the second group in v 4 are the NT prophets; and that this is the destruction of Jerusalem in A.D. 70; and that the others gathered are the Gentiles, the other nation in 21:43. Others think the city is not intended to represent Jerusalem, and do not give a specific meaning to each detail (the gathering of the others in v 9 does not await the fall of Jerusalem nearly 40 years later). In either case, the main point of the parable is clear.
- l. Jesus uses grammar that emphasizes the contrast between the two halves of this sentence.
- l. That is, the points where the city streets join the country roads. All those coming in from the country (the world) could be approached there, since those in the city (Jerusalem) refused to come. Used only here. GK 1447.
- l. Like the tax collectors and prostitutes, 21:31.
- l. Like Nicodemus and Joseph of Arimathea, etc.

- 4D. "And the king, having come in to see¹ the ones reclining-back [to eat], saw there a person not having dressed-in² the clothing of a wedding³" 11

Is it lawful^L to give a poll-tax^M to Caesar^N, or not?" 17
- 1C. But having known their evilness¹⁶, Jesus said, "Why are you testing^O Me, hypocrites^P? *Show Me the coin for the poll-tax". And the ones brought to Him a denarius¹⁷ 18-19
- 2C. And He says to them, "Whose is this image¹⁸ and inscription?" *They say to Him, "Caesar's" 20-21
- 3C. Then He says to them, "Then give-back¹⁹ the things of Caesar²⁰ to Caesar, and the things of God to God" 22

- 1D. "Now there were seven brothers with us. And the first, having married^U, came-to-an-end²⁵. And not having a seed, he left his wife to his brother. *Likewise also the second, and the third, up to the seventh. *And last²⁶ of all, the woman died 25-27
- 2D. "In the resurrection, therefore, of which of the seven will she be the wife? For they all had her" 28
- 2C. But having responded, Jesus said to them, "You are mistaken²⁷, not knowing the Scriptures^V, nor the power of God 29
- 1D. "For in the resurrection, they neither marry^U nor are given-in-marriage^W, but are like angels²⁸ in heaven 30
- 2D. "And concerning the resurrection of the dead, did you not read the thing having been spoken to you by the God saying²⁹ *'I am the God of Abraham, and the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob'? [Ex 3:15] He is not the³⁰ God of dead ones, but of living ones" 31-32
- 3C. And having heard it, the crowds were astounded^X at His teaching^Y 33

1. That is, in the sense of "visit, greet, come to see", as this word is used in Rom 15:24. GK 2517. Not the same word as "saw" next.
2. Or, "not having been dressed in". On this word, see "put on" in Rom 13:14.
3. The same word is used to mean "wedding" in v 11, 12; Jn 2:1; Rev 19:7, 9; "wedding celebration" in v 2, 3, 4, 8, 9; 25:10; Lk 12:36; 14:8; Jn 2:2; and "wedding hall" in Mt 22:10. Elsewhere only as "marriage" in Heb 13:4. GK 1141. Related to "marry" in 1 Cor 7:9; and "give in marriage" in 1 Cor 7:38. Some manuscripts have the word "wedding-hall" used in Mt 9:15 {B}.
4. That is, belonging to a wedding. This scene pictures the separation at the end of the age. The clothing represents faith-righteousness, as in Rev 19:8. This man thought his own clothes (his works) were good enough. Given the nature of who was gathered in v 10, some think Jesus means that this one refused the wedding garment which the King provided for all his guests; others, that he did not prepare himself properly, like those of 25:10.
5. Same word as in v 34. This person was made speechless by the question. He knew what was proper and that he had no excuse. On this word, see Mk 4:39.
6. Some manuscripts say "take him away and throw..." {N}.
7. On this word and sentence, and on "outer darkness", see 8:12.

14. This is an idiom, more literally, "It is not a concern to You about anyone". Your teaching is not influenced by what people think. Same idiom as in Mk 12:14. On this word, see "concerned" in 1 Cor 7:21.
15. That is, You do not show partiality. Luke says "receive the face", 20:21. On this idiom, compare "respect of persons" in Jam 2:1.
16. Or, "wickedness, maliciousness". That is, their evil intentions. Same word as in Lk 11:39; Rom 1:29; 1 Cor 5:8; Eph 6:12. Elsewhere only as "evil" in Mk 7:22; Act 3:26. GK 4504. Related to "evil" in Act 25:18.
17. On this word, see 20:2. This is a Roman silver coin.
18. Or, "likeness". On this word, see Col 1:15.
19. Or, "render, pay". They ask should we "give" it (as a gift); Jesus says, "give back, pay" what is due him. On this word see "render" in 16:27.

25. That is, died. On this word, see Mk 9:48.
26. Same word as in Lk 20:32. GK 5731.
27. Or, "deceived, going astray". Or, it may mean "deceiving yourselves". On this word, see "err" in Jam 5:19.
28. Some manuscripts add "of God" {B}.
29. This word modifies "God". In saying what follows, God spoke to them about the resurrection. On this phrase, see 1:22.
30. Scripture does not say, "I was the God of Abraham", but "I am". Abraham lives! And it does not say "I am the God of Abraham's spirit", but of Abraham (who is body and spirit). His status as a spirit is temporary. He will be raised! Some manuscripts omit this word, as in Mk 12:27. Others say "God is not God of dead..." {C}. Compare Lk 20:37.

18. Some manuscripts add "to keep" {N}.
19. Same word as "do" in the previous sentence. Act in accordance with what they teach you from the Law, but not in accordance with their actions. Do not follow their example.
20. Compare Lk 11:46.
21. Some manuscripts say "For" {K}.
22. That is, they tie them up in bundles. Elsewhere only as "bind" in Lk 8:29; Act 22:4. GK 1297. Related to "bundle" in 13:30.
23. Elsewhere only in Lk 11:46. GK 1546. Some manuscripts omit "and hard to bear" {C}.
24. That is, their traditions. On this word, see "load" in Gal 6:5.
26. Same phrase as "so as to be seen" in 6:1.
27. These are small leather boxes worn on the forehead and the arm, containing Ex 13:1-10; 11-16; Deut 6:4-9; 11:13-21. Used only here. GK 5873. Related to "guard". 35. Some manuscripts omit "your" {B}. That is, elevating a person as a leader or originator. Jesus is not referring to one's actual father—physical (even as in Lk 16:24; Act 7:2) or spiritual (1 Cor 4:15-16). This kind of fatherhood is simply a fact of life. He is referring to titles elevating one brother over another. He just told the teachers not to accept such distinctions, now He tells the learners not to give them. At the same time, leaders are to be "esteemed superabundantly in love because of their work", 1 Thes 5:13.
36. Or, "teachers, masters, doctors, leaders, guides", elevating you as a leading teacher. Used only in this verse. GK 2762. This is not the normal word for "teacher" (in v 8), or the normal word for "master". Related to the verb "to lead the way, guide, to show the way in doing a thing" (not used in the NT), and to "leading" in Heb 13:7.

- Same word as in 4:23; 9:35. GK 4310.
- On this word, see “withered” in Mk 3:3. In Heb 11:29, “land” is expressed with this word.
- Or, “convert”. Our English word “proselyte” comes from this Greek word. It means “one having come to” your view. Elsewhere only in Act 2:11; 6:5; 13:43. GK 4670. The Jews used it of those who became full Jews, accepting circumcision. Jesus says, you make proselytes to Phariseeism, not to God.
- That is, ones destined to Gehenna. On this word, see 5:22.
- Or, “twofold-more”. This form of this word is used only here. On this word, see “double” in 1 Tim 5:17.
- Or, “having made holy, having consecrated”, set apart to God. Some manuscripts say “sanctifying” {N}, as in v 19. On this word, see Heb 10:29.
- Same word as in 5:23.
- Some manuscripts say “Fools and blind ones” {B}, as in v 17.
- Or, “inhabiting”. Same word and grammar as in Lk 13:4; Act 1:19; 2:9, 14; 4:16; 9:32, 35; 19:10, 17; Rev 17:2. God dwells in it in the same sense as in the rest of the universe, not in a local sense, as said in Act 7:48; 17:24. Yet He also dwells in it as the place where He chooses to be worshiped by His people Israel in accordance with the Law He gave them, a choice that ended with the death of His Son. Elsewhere of God only in Col 1:19; 2:9, of “dwelling” in Christ. GK 2997.
0. Compare Lk 11:42.
1. On this word, see “collect a tenth from” in Heb 7:5.
2. These are three spices. Jesus does not fault the scribes and Pharisees for their over-attention to micro matters (gnats), but for their lack of attention to macro matters (camels). The Law only commanded a tithe for certain crops. They went beyond what the Law required.
3. Or, “left, left behind, let go”. Same word as in Mk 7:8. On this word, see “forgive” in 6:12.
4. That is, fidelity, being trustworthy. Or, “faith”. On this word, see “faith” in Eph 2:8.
5. Some manuscripts omit this word {C}.
6. Or, “should-have”. Or, “But it was necessary to have...”. On this idiom, see “should have” in 25:27.
7. That is, the “latter” things mentioned, the justice, etc., which the Law commands.
8. Some manuscripts say “and not to leave-behind” {C}.
9. That is, the “former” things mentioned, the tithing which you chose as an expression of your devotion.
20. Or, “filtering”. The Pharisees actually strained their drinks so as not to drink an unclean gnat (Lev 11:41), but figuratively swallowed the unclean camel (Lev 11:4). Used only here. GK 1494.
21. Compare Lk 11:39-41.
22. Or, “of”. The cup is filled with the things resulting from your greedy and self-indulgent actions. GK 1666.
23. Or, “plunder, greed”. On this word, see Heb 10:34. Related to “ravenous” in 7:15, and “snatch away” in 11:12. Note Mk 12:40.
24. Or, “lack of self-control”, as in 1 Cor 7:5.
25. Instead of “cup... outside of it”, some manuscripts say “cup and the dish... outside of it”; others, “cup and the dish... outside of them”; others, “cup... inside of it” {D}.
26. Since the outside is dirtied from within (the heart), the inside must be cleansed first. On “clean”, see Tit 1:15.
27. Compare Lk 11:44.
28. Or, “are like, resemble”. Used only here. GK 4234. Related to “similar” in Mk 7:13.
29. Burial places were whitewashed to prevent Jewish pilgrims unfamiliar with the area from accidentally coming in contact with them, and becoming “unclean”. This was done a month before Passover. Elsewhere only in Act 23:3. GK 3154.
30. Both here and in v 28, Jesus uses grammar that emphasizes the contrast between the “outside” and “inside” statements.
31. On this adjective, see Rom 15:14. Not the same word as the verb in v 25, 27 (GK 1154).
32. Compare Lk 11:47-48.
33. Or, “graves, tombs”. Same word as in v 27; 27:61, 64, 66; 28:1. Elsewhere only as “grave” in Rom 3:13. GK 5439. This word puts the emphasis on “burial”. Related to “burial” and “dig a trench” (not in the NT), and to “prepare for burial” in Mt 26:12.
34. Or, “decorate, put in order”. On this word, see 1 Tim 2:9.
35. Or, “monuments, graves”. Same word as in Lk 11:47. Used 40 times, 27 referring to the tomb of Jesus. GK 3646. It means “tomb” in the sense of “memorial place”. Related to “tomb” in Lk 23:53; “memorial” in Mt 26:13; “memory” in 2 Pet 1:15; and “remember” in Jn 16:21.
36. Compare Lk 11:48.
37. This is a command, a direct challenge to them—Do what is in your hearts, do what your fathers did.
38. Or, “judgment, sentence of judgment, punishment”. That is, the sentence consisting of Gehenna. On this word, see “judgment” in Jn 3:19.

1. Compare Lk 11:49-51.
2. That is, in response to you and your evil hearts.
3. Or, "experts in the Law". Jesus is referring to the apostles and others whom He will send after His death, 10:16-18. Same word as in 13:52. GK 1208.
4. Or, "land, ground". Used of the whole earth (as in 5:18, 35; 6:10), and of the "land" of Israel, etc. (as in 2:6, 20; 4:15). On this word, see "land" in Rev 7:1. Not "the blood of all the righteous", but "all the righteous blood" shed by you and your fathers.
5. That is, that the bloodguilt of your fathers may be avenged upon you, as you repeat their crimes on those I send. Compare Lk 11:50.
6. That is, the first (Gen 4:8) and last (2 Chron 24:21) murders recorded in the OT, in the Hebrew order of books. 2 Chron 24:20-21 calls Zechariah the son of Jehoiada. Some think Jehoiada was actually his grandfather, just as Iddo was the grandfather of another Zechariah (compare Zech 1:1 with Ezra 6:14). Others think he had two names. Others think there was an early copyist's error.
7. Compare Lk 13:34-35.
8. Same word as "I wanted" earlier in the verse, on which see "will-ing" in Jn 7:17.
9. Or, "deserted, empty". On this adjective, see "wilderness" in 3:1. Related to "desolation" in Lk 21:20. Some manuscripts omit this word {B}, as in Lk 13:35.
10. That is, as Messiah, Son of God.
11. This is a participle, "having been blessed". On this word, see Lk 6:28.
12. In Matthew, these words represent the end of the public ministry of Jesus to Israel. Luke quotes them earlier, in 13:34-35.
13. Parallel account at Mk 13:1; Lk 21:5.
14. This temple was built by Herod the Great (the one who killed the babies, see 2:1), but was not yet finished.
15. Some manuscripts say "But Jesus" {K}.
16. The grammar indicates that a "yes" answer is expected.
17. Compare Mk 13:2; Lk 19:44; 21:6.
18. Or, "destroyed, demolished, thrown down, done away with". Same word used of "tearing down" this temple in 26:61; 27:40; Mk 13:2; 14:58; 15:29; Lk 21:6; Act 6:14; and in Rom 14:20; 2 Cor 5:1; Gal 2:18; "abolish" in Mt 5:17; and "overthrow" in Act 5:38, 39. Elsewhere only as "take up lodging" (see Lk 9:12). GK 2907.
19. That is, the tearing down of the temple (24:2), the things coming upon this generation (23:34-36), the house being left desolate (23:38), His coming ("until", 23:39).
20. Or, "be". Same word as in 16:22.
21. Same word as in v 24, 30. Jesus answers this in v 30. But before that, there will be false signs, v 24. On this word, see 2 Thes 2:9.
22. On this word, see 2 Thes 2:8. Same word as in v 27, 37, 39.
23. Or, "consummation, completion, finish, close, end". Related to "end" in v 6, 14. Same word as in 13:39, 40, 49 (which also refer to the event in 24:30-31), and 28:20. Elsewhere only in Heb 9:26. GK 5333. The related verb is "accomplished" in Mk 13:4.
24. As to the chronology of v 5-14, some think they refer to events prior to the destruction of Jerusalem in A.D. 70. Others, to the birth-pains that started in the apostles' day, and continue through this age. The end time begins in v 14b. This means they are not signs of the end, but things about which we are not to be deceived or alarmed. Others think that Jesus intended a double meaning, one for the apostles in the first century, and one describing what will happen when the "birth pains" of the end time begin, until the end when Christ returns (v 14b). There are other views on this and the other details of this chapter. Consult the commentaries.
25. On this phrase, "on the basis of" the name, see Act 2:38.
26. Or, "you must" hear, "you will be destined" to hear, or "you will" hear. This word is used 109 times in the NT, but is future tense only here and in 2 Pet 1:12 ("I will certainly"). The same word is in a similar idiom in Act 24:15. On this word, see "going to" in Mk 10:32.
27. Or, "battles". On this word, see Rev 12:7.
28. Or, this word may be a command (as it is in Mk 13:7), making two commands here, "Watch out! Do not be alarmed!". This is the same word Paul uses in 2 Thes 2:2, where the Thessalonians may have been "alarmed" by such things as these.
29. Or, "it must", that is, all this. On this idiom, see 16:21. Some manuscripts say "For all things must take place" {B}.
30. Or, "but the end is not yet". Same word as in v 13, 14. On this word, see Mk 13:7. Some think Jesus means "the end of Jerusalem"; others, "the beginning of the end time", meaning they are not signs; others, "the end of the end time when Jesus returns" (v 30-31), meaning they are the first signs of the beginning of the end-time period.
31. In connecting this verse to the context, Luke 21:10 has been followed. Luke separates it from the preceding statements, and makes it the beginning of what follows.
32. Or, "be raised". Same word as in v 11, 24. See "arose" in 28:6 on it.
33. Some manuscripts say "famines and plagues and" as in Lk 21:11; others "plagues and famines and" {B}.
34. Or, "according to their places, from place to place". Same idiom as in Mk 13:8; Lk 21:11. Those who see this verse as a sign of the end time take Jesus to mean these things will be "more frequent" or "more intense". Others take it as a general description of the course of this age up to A.D. 70, and/or up to the end time.
35. Or, "will be".
36. Same word as in Mk 13:8; 1 Thes 5:3. Some think this refers to the birth-pains of the Second Coming, and so to events at the beginning of the end time; others, to the birth-pains of the time of the end, and so to events during this age which precede the end time; others, to birth-pains of the events of A.D. 70.
37. Compare also Mt 10:17-23; Jn 16:1-4.
38. Or, "At that time". Matthew uses this word 90 of its 160 occurrences, both to introduce that which is next in time (as in 4:10), or next in sequence (with no specific reference to time, as in 19:13; 23:1; 26:3), and to mean "at that time" (as in 3:5; 27:16). In this chapter, one's interpretation will be influenced by which of these three meanings is adopted. It is used in 24:9, 10, 14, 16, 21, 23, 30, 40; 25:1, 7, 31, 34, 37, 41, 44, 45. Thus here Jesus could mean "At the time of the birth-pains...", or, "Next, as the birth pains continue...", or, "Then (some amount of time after v 6-8)..." GK 5538.
39. Some think Jesus is referring to the persecution experienced by the early church. Others think persecutions of the entire age are included. Others think it also refers to persecutions arising in the end time.
40. Same word as in v 21, though not necessarily the same event.
41. Same sentence as in 10:22; Mk 13:13; Lk 21:17. Same word as in Jn 15:18, 19; 1 Jn 3:13. On this word, see Rom 9:13.
42. Or, "at that time". On this word, see v 9.
43. Same sentence as in 10:22; Mk 13:13. On this word, see Jam 1:12.
44. On "to the end", see 10:22.

1. Same phrase as in 4:23; 9:35.
2. Some think this was accomplished in Paul's lifetime, Col 1:23; others, that it is accomplished in this age, before the end time begins; others, that is accomplished during the end time, but before Christ returns.
3. Some think Jesus means "the end time will suddenly begin", as in v 39; others, "Christ will return" as in v 30.
4. Parallel account at Mk 13:14; Lk 21:20.
5. Some think this is the sign of "these things coming upon this generation" (23:36) and the destruction of Jerusalem, as clearly in Lk 21:20-24. Others think it is a sign of the beginning of the end time, or of the time of wrath, as in 2 Thes 2:3-4. Others think Jesus meant both, the first-century event being a type of the end-time event.
5. The "abomination of desolation" refers to an act of sacrilege, an abomination to God consisting in or resulting in or characterized by desolation. Some think it is the end-time act of a person (2 Thes 2:3, Rev 13); others, the desolation of the temple in A.D. 70, (Lk 21:20). Others think the event in A.D. 70 is a type or picture of a similar end-time event. Elsewhere only in Mk 13:14; Lk 21:20. GK 2247. Related to "desolate" in 23:38.
7. See Dan 9:27, "an abomination that causes desolation", and Dan 8:13; 11:31; 12:11. It could be rendered "the desolating abomination", the abomination characterized by desolation.
3. Grammatically, this word refers back to "abomination".
3. Or, "in a holy place". Some think Jesus means the A.D. 70 temple; others Jerusalem; others Judea; others an end-time "temple of God", 2 Thes 2:4. Note Lk 21:20. In September of A.D. 66, Florus, the Roman procurator, raided the temple treasury, which the Jews saw as the "abomination" fulfilling Dan 9:27. They revolted against Rome, thinking God intended to fight for them and establish His kingdom on earth. The Romans destroyed Jerusalem and the temple in A.D. 70 after a five month siege.
10. In other words, this concept is capable of misunderstanding. It may imply "it is not as you usually think". For example, "it is not as the Jews understand Daniel's prophecy". Or, it may imply "it is the reader in that day who will understand exactly what this means, not the writer (Matthew) in his day". On this word, see "think" in Eph 3:20.
11. Or, "At that time". See v 9.
12. Compare Lk 17:31-32.
13. Or, "pick up, remove". That is, go down to flee, and flee without your belongings. GK 149.
14. Some manuscripts say "take anything" {N}.
15. Or, "coat, outer garment". Do not even get your jacket. Leave immediately. On this word, see "garments" in 1 Pet 3:3. Some manuscripts have this word plural, "garments" {N}. Compare Lk 21:21.
16. Or, "at that time" (see v 9). Mark says "those days will be", 13:19.
17. Or, "distress, trouble, tribulation". Same word as in v 9, 29; 13:21; Mk 13:19. Lk 21:23 uses a different word, "distress". On "the great affliction", see Rev 7:14. Some think Jesus means this occurs "in Judea" (v 16), and refers to the events of A.D. 70. Others think He means it occurs "in the world", an event still future. Some think both.
18. This is an emphatic negative, the strongest in Greek. It will "never, by no means" occur. See 5:20 on it.
19. Or, "cut off, cut short, curtailed". Elsewhere only in Mk 13:20. GK 3143.
20. Literally, "All flesh would not have been saved", a Hebrew way of speaking. Here and in Mk 13:20, some think Jesus means "all humanity"; others, the Jews in Judea where this takes place, v 16. "All flesh" is elsewhere only in Lk 3:6; Jn 17:2; Act 2:17; Rom 3:20; 1 Cor 1:29; 15:39; Gal 2:16; 1 Pet 1:24. On "flesh", see Col 2:23.
21. Same word as in v 24, 31. On this word, see Rom 8:33.
22. Compare Lk 17:23-24.
23. Or, "At that time" (see v 9). Compare Lk 17:20-21.
24. Same word as in v 7.
25. Some think this has a final fulfillment in the events described in 2 Thes 2:8-10; Rev 13. On "wonders", see 2 Thes 2:9.
26. Or, "I have foretold it to you". Same word as in Mk 13:23.
27. Or, "shines". On this word, see "shine" in Phil 2:15.
28. Some manuscripts say "so also" {K}.
29. Compare Lk 17:37.
30. Some manuscripts say "For wherever" {N}.
31. Linked as here with v 27, this refers to the vultures gathering upon the corpses of those judged and killed by Jesus at His return, 2 Thes 1:8-9; Rev 19:18, 21. Both His coming, and its catastrophic aftermath, will be unmistakable. Others link this with v 24 (making it point 3F.), meaning that the false prophets (the vultures) will gather upon the spiritually dead (the corpses). Others link this with v 15-26 (making it point 4E.), meaning that Jerusalem is the corpse attracting the Roman eagles. Others see it as a general rule—as the dead carcass attracts vultures, so the spiritually dead will attract judgment. There are other views. Consult the commentaries. GK 5251.
32. Parallel account at Mk 13:24; Lk 21:25.
33. Some think this verse is symbolic of events in A.D. 70, such as the falling of political rulers. Compare Act 2:19-20. Others think this jumps in time to the events at the end of the final tribulation. Compare Mk 13:24.
34. Same word as in v 21. The "affliction of those days" refers back to v 15-28.
35. Or, "at that time" (see v 9).
36. Some think Jesus is referring to some sign preceding His coming; others, to His coming itself, as in Mk 13:26.
37. Or, "then" (see "then" in v 9).
38. On this word and statement, see Rev 1:7. See also Zech 12:10-12.
39. Some manuscripts add "sound" {B}. Note 1 Cor 15:52; 1 Thes 4:16.
40. Or, "extremities". Same word as in Mk 13:27. Elsewhere only of the "tip" of a finger in Lk 16:24; and the "top" of a staff in Heb 11:21. GK 216. If "heaven" means "sky" here, as it sometimes does, then it means "from horizon to horizon". Otherwise, it means all on the earth (the four winds) and all in heaven. Compare Mk 13:27.
41. Parallel account at Mk 13:28; Lk 21:29.
42. This is used as an illustration in 21:19 (Mk 11:13); Lk 13:6-7; Rev 6:13. Some think Jesus is referring to Israel. Others think it simply refers to an ordinary fig tree, as in Lk 21:29, where Luke adds "and all the trees". Used 16 times. GK 5190.
43. Or, "now, presently, by this time". By the time when its branch becomes tender..., you know. Used 61 times. GK 2453.
44. Or, "generates, produces, puts forth". Elsewhere only in Mk 13:28. GK 1770. Related to "grow" in Lk 8:6. Luke 21:30 uses a different word.

1. Seeing all the things of v 5-29 or 15-29 is seeing the tree leafed out. When you see it all, the coming of Jesus is near.
2. Or, "know", a command. Same word and form as in v 32. On this word, see Lk 1:34.
3. That is, the Son of Man, v 27, 30. Or, "it", His coming.
4. Some think Jesus means the generation at the destruction of Jerusalem, foreshadowing His coming; others, the generation alive to "see all these things", v 33. Others take "generation" to mean a "kind of person" (as in Lk 16:8), and think He is referring to unbelieving Israel. This kind of Jew—ones rejecting Christ—will continue until He comes. In this view, He is predicting the continuance of the Jewish people until the end. "This generation" is also in 11:16; 12:41, 42, 45; 23:36; Mk 8:12, 38; 13:30; Lk 7:31; 11:29, 30, 31, 32, 50, 51; 17:25; 21:32; Act 2:40; Heb 3:10. This word is elsewhere only in Mt 1:17; 12:39; 16:4; 17:17; Mk 9:19; Lk 1:48, 50; 9:41; Act 8:33; 13:36; 14:16; 15:21; Eph 3:5, 21; Phil 2:15; Col 1:26; and as "kind" in Lk 16:8. GK 1155.
5. Or, "never". Same strong negative as in v 34, 21. See 5:20 on it.
6. On this, see Mk 13:32. Some manuscripts omit "nor the Son" {B}.
7. Some manuscripts say "My" {N}.
8. Compare Lk 17:26-27.
9. Some manuscripts say "so also" {N}.
10. Some manuscripts say "in the days" {C}.
11. Or, "chewing, munching, crunching". Not the same word as in v 49. That is, life was going on as normal. It was not the culmination of human events. It came upon the world from the outside. On this word, see Jn 6:54.
12. Not the same word as in v 40-41. It was an intervention into human history. GK 149.
13. Compare Lk 17:34-37.
14. Some manuscripts omit this word {C}.
15. Note the unexpectedness. It comes upon people suddenly while they are carrying on their normal lives. It comes like a thief, while they feel at peace, 1 Thes 5:2-3. Some think Jesus is referring to the beginning of the end time, the time of His coming; others, to His physical coming in v 30.
16. Or, "then" (see v 9).
17. Or, "taken along, taken with". On this word, see Lk 17:34. Some think this refers to believers, just as Noah was taken aside and protected through the affliction of those days, while the others were left behind for judgment. The chosen (v 31), the wise virgins (25:10), the two slaves (25:20, 22) and the sheep (25:34) are all "taken" first. In addition, some think this will be done on earth, in the midst of the events. Others think it will be in heaven, through what Paul calls "the rapture", 1 Thes 4:17. Now compare the view in the next note.
18. Or, "left behind, abandoned". Same word as in Lk 17:34. GK 918. Others think this action refers to believers, just as Noah was "left" on earth after the flood "took away" (v 39) the others. In 13:41, 49, the evil ones are taken. Compare Lk 17:34.
19. Or, "be staying alert". Same word as in v 43; 25:13; 26:38, 40, 41. On this word, see 1 Thes 5:6.
20. Some manuscripts say "at which hour" {B}.
21. Compare Lk 12:39-40.
22. Or, "know", "understand", a command. Same word and form as in v 33.
23. That is, which watch of the night. On the four watches of the night, see Mk 13:35. On "watch" see Lk 2:8.
24. That is, if the house-master knew that a thief was coming, and when, he would be prepared for him at that time. Since he does not, he must be prepared at all times. Literally, "dug through", broken into by digging through a wall. Elsewhere only in Mt 6:19, 20; Lk 12:39. GK 1482. Related to "to dig" in Mt 21:33; 25:18; Mk 12:1, and "dug out" in Mk 2:4.
25. Or, "prove to be, become". GK 1181.
26. Or, "ready". Used by Matthew also in 22:4, 8; 25:10. Same sentence as in Lk 12:40. On this word, see Mk 14:15.
27. Or, "think it will be, suppose, presume, imagine". We know that Jesus will come, but not when. So we must be prepared at all times. Same word as in Lk 12:40, on which see "thinking" in Lk 19:11.
28. Compare Lk 12:41-49.
29. In view of the sudden nature of the return of Jesus, who is the wise one whom He put in charge of a task when He left? The wise slave is the one doing His will while waiting for Him. He will be rewarded. Jesus puts this in the form of a question so that each person will ask, "Am I a wise and faithful slave?"
30. Same word as in 25:2.
31. Or, "appointed, set". Same word as in v 47. On this word, see Act 6:3. Compare Lk 12:42.
32. That is, the group of servants that belong to and serve the master in whatever capacity he assigns them. Used only here. GK 3859. Related to "household-servant" in Rom 14:4. The root word is "house". Lk 12:42 has an unrelated word meaning "body-of-servants", which some manuscripts have here {N}.
33. Or, "nourishment, provision, sustenance". Used 16 times. GK 5575. Lk 12:42 uses a different word.
34. Because of the leadership picture in this parable, some think Jesus is referring to the leaders—the "apostles, prophets, evangelists, pastors and teachers", Eph 4:11. Others think this is simply a picture of whatever task each person has been given. It represents all Christians doing whatever task the Master gave them to do.
35. On this adjective, see Lk 6:20.
36. Some take this narrowly of the leaders "giving out [spiritual] food". Others take it broadly as "doing as the master directed". Others link it to what precedes this parable, watching for Him and being prepared for Him in work and heart.
37. Some manuscripts add "to come" {N}, as in Lk 12:45.
38. Some manuscripts say "and to eat and drink" {K}.
39. Or, "anticipate, look for". On this word, see "wait in expectation" in Lk 3:15.
40. This word "cut in two" is elsewhere only in Lk 12:46. GK 1497.
41. Or, "put, make, appoint". On this word, see "put" in Act 19:21.
42. Or, "share, place". Same word as in Lk 12:46; Jn 13:8; Rev 20:6; 21:8; 22:19. On this word, see Rom 11:25.
43. On this sentence, see 8:12.

- 9D. "At-that-time¹, the kingdom of the heavens will be-like^A ten virgins^B, who, having taken 25:1

faithful^V over a few things. I will put you in charge³³ over many things.
Enter into the joy of your master^S' 21
- 2F. "And³⁴ also having come to him, the one having received the two talents said, 22
'Master, you handed over two talents to me. Look, I gained another two talents'
- 1G. "His master said to him, 'Well done, good and faithful slave. You were 23 faithful over a few things. I will put you in charge over many things. Enter into the joy of your master'

1. Or, "Then". On this word, see "then" in 24:9. That is, when Jesus comes unexpectedly, as described in 24:36-51.
2. Or, "torches". That is, oil lamps with wicks. Same word as in v 3, 4, 7, 8; Act 20:8. Elsewhere only as "torch" in Jn 18:3; Rev 4:5; 8:10. GK 3286. Torches were sticks with a cloth wrapped around one end which was soaked in oil. Torches were often used in processions, and some think this is meant here.
3. This is a noun, referring to a meeting event. Literally, they went out "for a coming-to-meet" the bridegroom. Elsewhere only in 8:34; Jn 12:13. GK 5637. Related to "meet" in 25:6 and Lk 14:31.
1. Some manuscripts add "and the bride" {B}. The groom and groomsmen went to the bride's house and then brought her, her attendants, family and friends in a procession to his family's house, where wedding celebrations often lasting a week took place. Some think that they are meeting him here on his way to the bride's house. Others think it is on the way to his father's house, where the celebrations are, v 10.
- i. These represent those who think of themselves as friends of Jesus, but whom He does not know, v 12. Some manuscripts have "wise" first and "foolish" second {K}.
- i. Or, "sensible". Same word as v 4, 8, 9; 24:45. On this word, see 7:24. These represent the true Christians. Note that His people are not referred to as the "bride" in this parable. The bride is not mentioned at all.
- Some manuscripts say "The ones who were foolish" {K}.
- i. That is, olive oil, as in v 4, 8. On this word, see Jam 5:14.
- Some suggest that the lamp is the outward profession of Christianity and the oil is the inner reality.
0. Or, "flasks, vessels, containers". Used only here. GK 31. Some manuscripts say "their jars" {N}.
1. This is not an issue in the parable. All ten slept. The issue is lack of oil—lack of preparedness.
2. That is, unexpectedly. Similar to the idiom in Act 26:13.
3. Or, "has come about, taken place, happened". GK 1181.
4. Some manuscripts add "is coming" {K}.
5. This is a noun, referring to a meeting event. Literally, come out "for a meeting" of him. Elsewhere only in Act 28:15; 1 Thes 4:17. GK 561. Related to the word in v 1. The related verb, "to meet", is in Mk 14:13; Lk 17:12. Some manuscripts omit "him" {C}.
16. Or, "being quenched". On this word, see "quench" in 1 Thes 5:19.
17. Or, this word "not ever" (GK 3607), which is the first word in the Greek sentence, may be taken as an exclamation, so that it says "No! There will by no means be enough...". There are three negatives here, making it quite emphatic. Some manuscripts omit one of the negatives, so that the remark may be rendered "No! There may not be enough...", or "Perhaps there may not be enough..." {N}.
18. Same word as "Lord, Lord" in 7:21, 22; Lk 6:46. These are the only places it is repeated this way. On this word, see "Master" in 8:2.
19. Some manuscripts add "in which the Son of Man is coming" {A}.
20. Compare Lk 19:11-27.
21. That is, the kingdom of the heavens, as in v 1. Others think Jesus means to imply "He is", referring to the Son of Man.
22. This is a large sum of money, representing our individual gifts and abilities, both spiritual and natural. A silver talent was 6000 denarii (see 20:2), that is, 6000 days wages for a laborer. On this word, see 18:24.
23. Or, it may be punctuated "journey immediately. Having gone". Some manuscripts say "And immediately having gone" {B}. Elsewhere in Matthew, this word is always connected with "and" ("And immediately..."), and always goes with what follows. GK 2311.
24. That is, he did business with them. On this word, see 26:10.
25. Some manuscripts say "made" {N}.
26. Some manuscripts add "talents" {N}.
27. Some manuscripts say "And similarly" {N}, or "Similarly also".
28. Some manuscripts say "He also gained" {N}.
29. Or, "money". This word is singular only here in Matthew, agreeing with the one talent. On this word, see "money" in v 27.
30. Elsewhere only in 18:23, 24. GK 5256.
31. Some manuscripts add "beside them" {N} here and in v 22.
32. Or, "It is good", or, "Excellent!". Same word as in v 23. GK 2292. Related to the word in Lk 19:17.
33. Same word as "put in charge" in v 23; 24:45.
34. Some manuscripts omit this word {C}.

- 3F. "And also having come to him, the one having received¹ the one talent said, 'Master, I knew you— that you are a hard^A man, reaping where you did not sow and gathering^B from where you did not scatter² [threshings]. *And having become afraid, having gone, I hid your talent in the ground.³ Look, you have what is yours' 24
- 1G. "But having responded, his master said to him 'Evil^C and lazy^D slave! - 2G. 'Therefore take the talent away from him, and give it to the one having the ten talents. *For to everyone having, it will be given, and he will be caused-to-abound⁹. But from the one not having, even what he has will be taken away from him 26
- 3G. 'And throw-out^F the unprofitable¹⁰ slave into the outer darkness' 27
- 4G. "In that place, there will be the weeping and the grinding of teeth¹¹ 28
- 11D. "Now when the Son of Man comes in His glory, and all the angels¹² with Him, at-that-time¹³ He will sit on *the throne of His glory*¹⁴ 29

- 2E. "And He will separate¹⁶ them¹⁷ from one another, just as the shepherd^G separates the sheep from the goats. *And He will make the sheep¹⁸ stand¹⁹ on His right side— and the goats on the left side 31
- 3E. "Then the King²⁰ will say to the ones on His right side, 'Come, the ones having been blessed^H of My Father²¹— inherit^I the kingdom having been prepared^K for you since *the foundation of the world*²² 32
- 1E. 'For I was hungry, and you gave Me something to eat²³. I thirsted, and you gave-a-drink-to Me. I was a stranger^L, and you brought Me in²⁴; *naked^M, and you clothed Me. I was sick, and you looked-after^N Me. I was in prison, and you came to Me' 33
- 2E. "Then the righteous^O ones will respond to Him, saying, 'Lord, when did we see You hungering and we fed You, or thirsting and we gave-a-drink? *And when did we see You a stranger and we brought You in, or naked and we clothed You? And when did we see You being sick or in prison and we came to You?' 34
- 3E. "And having responded, the King will say to them, 'Truly I say to you, in-as-much-as²⁵ you did it to one of the least of these My brothers²⁶, you did it to Me' 35
- 4E. "Then He will also say to the ones on the left side, 'Depart from Me— the²⁷ ones having been cursed^P— into the eternal fire having been prepared²⁸ for the devil and his angels 36
- 1E. 'For I was hungry, and you did not give Me something to eat. I thirsted, and you did not give-a-drink-to Me. *I was a stranger, and you did not bring Me in; naked, and you did not clothe Me; sick, and in prison, and you did not look after Me' 37
- 2E. "Then they also will respond, saying, 'Lord, when did we see You hungering, or thirsting, or a stranger, or naked, or sick, or in prison, and we did not serve^Q You?' 38
- 3E. "Then He will respond to them, saying, 'Truly I say to you, in as much as you did not do it to one of the least of these, neither did you do it to Me' 39
- 5E.²⁹ "And these will go to eternal³⁰ punishment^R, but the righteous ones to eternal life" 40

1. This is the same word as in v 20, but a different tense, implying "having received and still having".
2. That is, "winnow" threshings, so as to gather the grain from the threshing floor. Or, "scatter [seed]", repeating the previous statement. Same word as in v 26. Elsewhere only of "scattering" sheep in Mt 26:31; Mk 14:27, and people in Lk 1:51; Jn 11:52; Act 5:37; and of "squandering" property in Lk 15:13; 16:1. GK 1399.
3. This one did nothing with what he was given, and here seeks to excuse his inaction by blaming the master—because you are the way you are, I did not invest or work with what you gave me. He bore no fruit. The others worked with what the master gave them as with a trust to be invested.
4. Others take this as a question, "You knew... scatter? Then you should have..."
5. Or, "ought to have". More literally, "it was necessary for you to have" put. This idiom refers to what should or ought to have happened by necessity (but didn't), the compulsion being based on what was fitting or proper or required by the circumstances. "It was necessary to have" done so, it was "binding" (the root word), but it was not done. Here, the necessity was created by the knowledge the man just revealed that he had at the time. Same idiom as in 18:33; 23:23; Lk 13:16; Act 24:19; 27:21; 2 Cor 2:3; Heb 9:26. GK 1256. Same word as in the idiom "must" in Mt 16:21, and "ought to" in Act 25:10.
6. Same word as in Mt 28:12, 15; Mk 14:11; Lk 9:3; 19:15, 23; 22:5. Elsewhere only as "silver coins" in Mt 26:15; 27:3, 5, 6, 9; Act 19:19; and "silver" in Mt 25:18; Act 3:6; 7:16; 8:20; 20:33; 1 Pet 1:18. GK 736.
7. Or, the "table-men", referring to the money table. Used only here. GK 5545. Related to "table" in Lk 19:23.
8. That is, compound interest, the "produce, offspring" of the money. Elsewhere only in Lk 19:23. GK 5527.

16. Same word as in 13:49.
17. Grammatically, this word does not refer to "nations" or to "sheep", but to the people in the nations.
18. Jesus uses grammar that emphasizes the contrast between the two halves of this sentence.
19. Or, "He will put, set" instead of "make stand". On this word, see Mk 13:14.
20. That is, the Son of Man, v 31, 40.
21. That is, blessed by My Father, "My Father's blessed ones".

1. Parallel account at Mk 14:1; Lk 22:1.
2. This is the fifth use of this phrase (see 13:53), but the only place where Matthew adds "all". He may be referring strictly to chapters 24-25; or to "all" His words that day (21:23-25:46); or to "all" the words of His ministry (4:17-25:46).
3. Or, "comes about, takes place, happens". GK 1181.

7. Same word as in 27:24, where an uproar did occur— against Jesus! On this word, see "commotion" in Mk 5:38.
8. Parallel account at Mk 14:3; Jn 12:3. Compare Lk 7:37-50.
9. Chronologically, this took place six days before Passover, Jn 12:1, which would place it at the end of Matthew 20. Matthew's arrangement is topical, so he places it here, where it fits smoothly.
10. That is, Mary, Jn 11:2; 12:3.
11. Used only here. GK 988. Related to "very valuable" in Jn 12:3.
12. Or, "ointment" (but pourable), "fragrant oil". Made from plants. Elsewhere only in 26:12; Mk 14:3, 4, 5; Lk 7:37, 38, 46; 23:56; Jn 11:2; 12:3, 5; Rev 18:13. GK 3693. The related verb is in Mk 14:8.
13. Some manuscripts say "His" {N}.
14. Some manuscripts add "perfume" {N}, the word in v 7.

16. This word, "to work, do, carry out, accomplish, perform", is used 41 times. GK 2237.
17. Or, "fitting, useful, praiseworthy, beautiful". On this word, see 1 Tim 5:10a.
18. Or, "did a good deed". The verb and noun of the same root word are used, as in Jn 3:21; 6:28; 9:4; Act 13:41; 1 Cor 16:10. This noun, "work, deed, act", is used 169 times. GK 2240. Related to "worker" in 1 Tim 5:18. On "good work", see Rom 2:7 and Tit 2:14.
19. Or, "to, with reference to". That is, for Me in My present situation. GK 1650. Compare Mk 14:6.
20. This word, "to prepare for burial" is elsewhere only in Jn 19:40. GK 1946. Related to the "preparation for burial" in Mk 14:8. Some think Mary knowingly did it for this purpose. Same grammar as in 5:28. She understood what was going to happen better than the apostles. She believed what He said in v 2. Others think she did it without realizing that this was its ultimate purpose.
21. Elsewhere only in Mk 14:9; Act 10:4. GK 3649. Related to the word "tomb", and the verb "to remember", and the word "remembrance" in 1 Cor 11:24. Her memorial is not a tombstone, but the telling of this story. Same word as in Ex 17:14; 28:29.
22. Parallel account at Mk 14:10; Lk 22:3.
23. The opportunity brought by Judas leads the Jewish leaders to move up their timetable, v 5, to God's timetable, Act 2:23.
24. This common word can mean "set on a scale", and thus "weigh out" as in Zech 11:12, where this same word is used. It may imply the Jewish leaders paid Judas at this time. But it could also mean they "set" the price here and paid him later. Note Lk 22:5. On this word, see "standing" in Mk 13:14.
25. This word was used of the "shekel" (a Jewish silver coin worth four denarii, see 20:2), and some think this is the coin in view here. In this case, the price was 120 days pay for a laborer. It was the price that must be paid the owner of a slave gored by an ox, Ex 21:32. Same word as 27:3, 5, 6, 9; and as "money" in Mk 14:11; Lk 22:5. On this word, see "money" in Mt 25:27.
26. On this phrase, see 4:17.
27. Elsewhere only in Lk 22:6. GK 2321. Related to "conveniently" in Mk 14:11, and to "find an opportunity" in Act 17:21.
28. Parallel account at Mk 14:12; Lk 22:7.
29. More literally, "Where do You want that we should prepare".
30. Passover could only be celebrated within the city of Jerusalem, Deut 16:5-7.
31. Some think Jesus did not want to name His host so that Judas would not know the location in advance. Others think Matthew omitted the name to protect this person from the Jews. Used only here. GK 1265. Compare Mk 14:13-14.
32. Or, "observing". On this word, see Rev 13:13.
33. That is, at your house.
34. Parallel account at Mk 14:17; Lk 22:14; Jn 13:2.
35. Some manuscripts add "disciples" {C}.
36. The word "hand over" is the same word Judas used in v 15, 16, and Jesus used in v 2. It means "to hand over, deliver, give over". When the context implies the unjust nature of it, it can be rendered "betray". Elsewhere by Matthew only in 4:12; 5:25; 10:4, 17, 19, 21; 11:27; 17:22; 18:34; 20:18, 19; 24:9, 10; 25:14, 20, 22; 26:2, 15, 16, 23, 24, 25, 45, 46, 48; 27:2, 3, 4, 18, 26. It is also used in a positive sense, as in Act 14:26; 15:40; and of "handing down, delivering" teachings, as in Lk 1:2; Act 6:14; 1 Cor 11:2, 23; 15:3; Jude 3. Used 119 times. GK 4140. Related to "tradition" in 1 Cor 11:2.
37. Or, "each individual". This phrase "each one" is elsewhere only in Lk 4:40; 16:5; Act 2:3, 6; 17:27; 20:31; 21:26; 1 Cor 12:18; Eph 4:7, 16 ("each individual"); Col 4:6; 1 Thes 2:11; 2 Thes 1:3; Rev 21:21. Some manuscripts say "each of them" {N}. GK 1667, 1651.
38. The grammar indicates a "no" response is expected. The disciples each expect Jesus to say "no, you are not the one".
39. That is, what is held in his hand. "Dip" is the same word as in Mk 14:20.
40. This is another way of saying "One of you", one of the ones eating with Me.
41. Jesus uses grammar that emphasizes the contrast between the two halves of this sentence.
42. Non-existence would have been better for Judas than to have lived and committed this deed. On "born", see 1 Jn 2:29.
43. The grammar indicates that Judas expects a "no" answer, just like the others. This is the same exact question as in v 22, except Judas calls Jesus "Rabbi" instead of "Lord".
44. Some think this means "Yes". Others think it is an intentionally ambiguous answer, since Jesus does not specify whether He means "you said it [rightly]" (No, you are not the one, the answer Judas's question expects), or, "you said it [falsely]" (Yes, you are the one). Note that the adverb is included in Lk 20:39; Jn 4:17, "You spoke well", or "You said rightly". Which He means must be determined from the context. Here, we know and Judas knew that Jesus meant the latter. But the other disciples assumed He meant the former. They did not suspect Judas, as seen in Jn 13:28. See the same phrase in v 64. See Lk 22:21 on when Judas left.

1. Compare also 1 Cor 11:23-25.
2. Some manuscripts say "the bread" {N}.
3. On this word, see Lk 6:28. Some manuscripts say "given thanks" {N}.
4. Or, "having blessed God". See 14:19.
5. This is the common verb "to be", used 2462 times in the NT. GK 1639. Some take this as a literal correspondence, so that the bread "becomes" or "contains" His body. Others take it as a figurative correspondence, so that the bread "means" or represents or symbolizes His body, as with the symbolic elements of the Passover meal. Likewise with "blood". Compare Jn 6:48-58. This word is rendered "means" in 9:13; 12:7; Mk 3:17; 7:11; Lk 8:9, 11; Act 2:12; 10:17; 17:20; Eph 4:9, etc. It also means "be" in the sense of "happen" (see Mt 16:22) and "exist" (see Rev 22:14).
6. Some manuscripts say "the cup" {B}.
7. Same word as in 15:36; Mk 8:6, 14:23; Lk 22:17, 19; Jn 6:11, 23; Act 27:35; Rom 14:6; 1 Cor 11:24. Used 38 times. GK 2373. Related to "thanksgiving" in 1 Tim 4:3.
8. Some manuscripts say "new covenant" {B}, as in Lk 22:20. It is the blood inaugurating the new covenant, Heb 9:14-15. On this word, see Heb 8:6.
9. Or, "shed". Same word as in Mk 14:24; Lk 22:20. Elsewhere only as "shed" in Mt 23:35; Act 22:20. GK 1773. Related to the word in Act 2:17. Jesus is pouring it out; others are shedding it.
10. Or, "never". This is an emphatic negative. Same idiom as in v 35. See 5:20 on it.
11. Or, "product, produce". Used of the "produce" of the earth as opposed to "offspring" animals. Elsewhere only in Mk 14:25; Lk 22:18; 2 Cor 9:10. GK 1163.
12. That is, until I drink new wine with you. Compare Mk 14:25. On this word, see Heb 8:13.
13. Parallel account at Mk 14:26. Compare at Lk 22:31; Jn 13:38; and Lk 22:39.
14. On this word, see "sing praise" in Act 16:25. Some think Matthew is referring to the second part of the Hallel, Ps 115-118, sung at the end of the Passover meal.
15. Or, "At that time" (see 24:9).
16. Same word as in v 33. On this word, see 1 Cor 8:13.
17. That is, in connection with what is going to happen to Me tonight. GK 1877.
18. This (GK 1254) is not the same word as in Mk 14:28 (GK 247).
19. The grammar of this phrase means "assuming that all will be caused to fall...". Compare Mk 14:29.
20. Same word as in v 35, 75. On this word, see 16:24.
21. On this idiom, see "must" in 16:21.
22. Some manuscripts say "And all" or "But all" {N}.
23. Parallel account at Mk 14:32; Lk 22:39; Jn 18:1.
24. This is a transliterated Hebrew word meaning "olive press". It is the name of an olive orchard on the Mount of Olives, east of Jerusalem. Elsewhere only in Mk 14:32. GK 1149.
25. On this word, see Lk 9:27. Not the same word as in Mk 14:32 (GK 6045).
26. More literally, "as long as which". Or, "until", "until which time I pray" and return. GK 2401.
27. That is, James and John, Mt 4:21; Mk 14:33.

30. Or, "wish, will". Compare Jn 12:27. On this word, see "willing" in Jn 7:17.
31. Though Jesus speaks to Peter, the verb "were you strong" is plural, referring to all three of them.
32. Or, "did you not have strength, were you not able". On this word, see "can do" in Gal 5:6.
33. Or, "Keep watching and praying, in order that...", depending on whether this is the content or the purpose of the prayer.
34. Some think Jesus is referring to the temptation to deny Him because of what is about to happen, as He said they would, v 30-35. Others think He means the temptation to sleep. Compare 6:13.
35. Jesus uses grammar that emphasizes the contrast between the two halves of this sentence.
36. Or, "eager, ready", as seen in their promise in v 35. The disciples' heart is right. But their weak flesh needs strength if they are to stand firm. They must pray for strength so that the upcoming trial does not become a cause of falling for them (v 30), a temptation to deny Jesus. Instead, they slept. Their fear turned the "trial" of His arrest into a "temptation" to put self above Him. They fled to protect themselves. Others think Jesus is referring to sleep and bodily weakness—they want to stay awake, but their body is tired. Same word as in Mk 14:38. Elsewhere only as "eager" in Rom 1:15. GK 4609. Related to "eagerness" in 2 Cor 8:19.
37. Some manuscripts add "cup" {N}.
38. Some manuscripts add "from Me" {N}, as in v 39.
39. A similar idiom is in Lk 9:32. This is a participle, their eyes "were having been weighed down" with sleep. They became so heavy that they could not hold them open any longer.
40. Or, "having left them, again having gone away". This is the Greek word order, "again" standing between the two participles. Some take it with the first; others, with the second.
41. Or, "statement, word [of prayer]", singular. Not the same "words", but the same request. On this word, see "word" in 1 Cor 12:8.
42. Others take these as commands, "Sleep and rest from now on", either as a reproach, or as fatherly sympathy; others, assuming some time elapsed before the next statement, as a concession, "Go ahead and sleep".
43. Or, "henceforth, for the remaining time, in the future". That is, "Are you going to continue sleeping?" Some take it to mean "still", "are you still sleeping", which makes it refer to the past up to the present, rather than from the present out into the future. This word means "the rest, the remaining, the other". Same word as "henceforth" in 1 Cor 7:29; Gal 6:17; 2 Tim 4:8; Heb 10:13. On this word, see "other" in 2 Pet 3:16. Not the same word as "still" in v 47 (which is the normal word for "still", GK 2285).

1. This word means "to love" and then "to show outward signs of affection", and thus, "to kiss". On this word, see "affectionately-love" in Jn 21:15. Related to the noun "kiss" in Rom 16:16.
2. That is, as a greeting. This word means specifically, "to kiss". Elsewhere only in Mk 14:45; Lk 7:38, 45; 15:20; Act 20:37. GK 2968. Related to "kiss" in v 48
3. Or, "comrade, companion, associate". On this word, see 20:13.
4. The precise meaning of this reply by Jesus is uncertain because the key word that gives it meaning must be supplied. Compare Lk 22:48, which was spoken before the kiss. This was spoken after the kiss. Some take it as a question, "Is this for what are you here?". Others take it as a command, "Do that for which you are here". Others take it as a statement, "This is for what you are here", just as it has been written, v 24, 56.
5. Or, "are present, are come". On this word, see "be present" in Rev 17:8.
6. On this word, see Act 21:1. Related to "drawn" in Mk 14:47.
7. That is, Peter struck Malchus, Jn 18:10. On this word, see Rom 6:17.
8. Elsewhere only in Lk 22:51; Jn 18:26. GK 6065. Related to the word in Mk 14:47.
9. Or, "Turn away". On this word, see "turn away from" in Heb 12:25.
10. Or, "presume, imagine, suppose". On this word, see Lk 19:11.
11. Or, "put at My disposal", "place beside" Me. Having the power to prevent this is not the issue. On this word, see "present" in Rom 12:1.
12. At the time of Augustus, a Roman legion had about 6000 soldiers, plus horsemen and auxiliaries. Perhaps Jesus simply means "a huge overwhelming force". Elsewhere only of a "legion" of demons in a man, Mk 5:9, 15; Lk 8:30. GK 3305.
13. Or, "has to". On this idiom, see 16:21.
14. Or, "this whole thing". This idiom is elsewhere only in 1:22. Some think this is Matthew's comment, not part of what Jesus said to them.
15. Or, more strongly based on the context, "abandoned, deserted". On this word, see "forgive" in 6:12.
16. Parallel account at Mk 14:53; Lk 22:54; Jn 18:12.
17. Or, "Now the ones, having seized Jesus, led Him away...".
18. That is, the temple guards. On this word, see Jn 18:12.
19. Some manuscripts add "and the elders" {N}.
20. Note that the Jewish leaders had their man, their verdict, and their sentence. All they needed was the evidence.
21. Elsewhere only in 1 Cor 15:15. GK 6020. Related to "false testimony" in v 59, and "give false testimony" in Mk 14:56.
22. Starting back at the end of v 59, some manuscripts say "to death, and they did not find it. Even many false witnesses having come forward, they did not find it" {N}.
23. Some manuscripts add "false witnesses" {N}.
24. On this word, see 24:2. Compare Mk 14:57. This statement is similar to the one in Jn 2:19.
25. Or, this could be one question, "Do You answer nothing as to what these ones...". Compare Mk 14:60.
26. Some manuscripts say "And having responded, the high priest" {N}.
27. This word, "put under oath, adjure, cause to swear" is used only here. GK 2019. Related to "make swear" in Act 19:13; "adjure" in 1 Thes 5:27; and "oath" in Jam 5:12. In other words, "Tell us under oath if You are the Christ". Anything Jesus now says in response is "under oath".
28. This word is singular here, answering the high priest. In Lk 22:70, it is plural, answering "all of them".
29. Some think this means "Yes". Others think the meaning depends on the context. See the same phrase in v 25. Here, Jesus clearly means "yes" because He follows this reply with His own direct confirmation of their statement, "Nevertheless, I say to you...". Jesus did not wish to simply answer the question. He wanted to directly state that He is exactly the Messiah coming in power and glory to carry out judgment that they were expecting. And they understood Him. Mk 14:62 says "I am", giving the intent of what Jesus says here. See Mt 27:11 on a similar phrase, "you are saying".
30. Or, "But, Yet, However". On this word, see 11:22.
31. Or, "henceforth". Same phrase as in 23:39 and 26:29. Elsewhere only in Jn 13:19; 14:7; Rev 14:13. GK 608, 785. This will be how you see Me from now on— as Messiah, executing the power of God. This will be your next view of Me after the events of this day.
32. That is, of God. Or, "of power", God's power. Same phrase as in Mk 14:62. Same word as in Lk 22:69, on which see Mk 5:30. Related to the word in Lk 1:49.
33. Jesus is referring to the Messianic prophecies (Ps 110:1; Dan 7:13), applying them to Himself— I am the One spoken of by the prophets. This is a clear and explicit sworn statement to these Jews who knew the Scripture. Note 24:30.
34. That is, spoke against God. In claiming to be God's Son, Jesus was claiming to have the same nature as God, and therefore was claiming deity, as seen in Jn 5:18; 10:33. On this word, see 1 Tim 6:1.
35. Or, "deserving of". Same word as "liable to" in 5:21-22. Jesus is liable to the penalty of death. On this word, see "guilty" in 1 Cor 11:27.
36. Members of the Sanhedrin struck Jesus with their fists. On this word, see 1 Cor 4:11.
37. This is the literal rendering. This idiom introduces a second class of individuals alongside those mentioned in the previous sentence. Who are the ones doing this thing? The idiom can mean "And others", referring to a different component of the group holding Jesus; or, "And some", referring to a sub-group of those who were spitting on and beating Jesus. Compare Mk 14:65; Lk 22:63-65. This idiom is also in 28:17, Jn 7:41.
38. On this word, see 5:39. Related to the word in Jn 18:22.
39. On this word, see 1 Cor 14:1. They expected supernatural knowledge.
40. Some manuscripts add "them" {N}, so that it says "them all", where "all" is the same plural word as "everyone".

2. That is, another servant girl.
3. Some manuscripts say "to them there" {N}.
4. Some manuscripts say "This one also" {B}.
5. Or, "Really". On this word, see 14:33.
6. That is, Peter's manner of speaking, or his Galilean accent or dialectal differences. His speaking gave him away as a Galilean. On this word, see Jn 8:43.
7. Or, "clear, plain". On this word, see Gal 3:11.
8. Used only here. It means "to put under a curse", as in "May God curse me if I know the man". GK 2874.
9. Perhaps Peter said, "By the temple, I do not know the man". Same word as in 5:34. On this word, see "swear" in Jam 5:12.
10. This word (GK 3630) is related to the word in Mk 14:72 (GK 389). Luke uses another related word.
11. Or, "the word of Jesus, who had said that". This is a participle modifying "Jesus".
12. Parallel account at Mk 15:1; Lk 22:66; 23:1; Jn 18:28.
13. On the phrase "took counsel", see 12:14. The same phrase is in v 7.
14. Having condemned Jesus for blasphemy, they now had to devise a charge that would be acceptable to Pilate.
15. Some manuscripts say "Pontius Pilate" {B}. See Lk 3:1 on him.
16. Used 20 times. GK 2450. The related verb is in Lk 2:2.
17. Compare Act 1:18-19.
18. Same word as in 20:18, where Jesus predicted it. On this word, see 1 Cor 11:32.
19. On this word, see "money" in 25:27. The same word is in v 5, 6, 9.
20. Elsewhere only of Pilate, in 27:24. GK 127.
21. This word means either somewhere "in" the temple area, or, "into" the Holy Place. GK 1650. Some manuscripts say "in" the temple {N}, using GK 1877.
22. That is, Christ's blood, v 9. The Jewish leaders had no scruples about paying it, but now that the price paid to Judas for Jesus has accomplished its purpose, they have scruples about taking it back.
23. This is an idiom, literally, "for [the value of] them".
24. Because it was bought with blood money.
25. This paraphrase comes from Jeremiah 18:2-12; 19:1-11; 32:6-9; and Zechariah 11:12-13. It is mainly from Zechariah. Some think Matthew attributes it to Jeremiah because he is the better known prophet, as also occurs in Mk 1:2.
26. This word modifies "prophet". See 1:22.
27. Same word as "taken" in v 6. GK 3284.
28. That is, the price of the One having had a price set for Him by these sons of Israel. On this word, see "honoring" in 1 Tim 5:3.
29. Or, "ordered, commanded". Elsewhere only in 21:6; 26:19. GK 5332.
30. Parallel account at Mk 15:2; Lk 23:2; Jn 18:29.
31. Or, "made to stand". On this word, see "standing" in Mk 13:14. Some manuscripts say "Now Jesus stood" {N}.
32. Same phrase as in Mk 15:2; Lk 23:3. Compare Jn 18:37. Some think it means "Yes". Others think its meaning comes from the context. Though Jesus means "You are saying it [correctly]", He leaves the adverb unexpressed, leaving Pilate to supply it, which Pilate does based on His Jewish accusers (note v 12, 37). Jesus answers this way because "King of the Jews" means something different to Pilate than to Jesus. Similar to the phrase in 26:64. The full phrase can be seen in Jn 13:13, "You speak rightly". Both "wrongly" and "rightly" occur in Jn 18:23.
33. Or, "up-to even one word". On this word, see "word" in Rom 10:17.
34. Some manuscripts omit this word {C}. See Mk 15:7 on Barabbas.

28. On the word "press into service", see 5:41. The Roman officer had this authority under Roman law.
29. This is a transliterated Hebrew word meaning "skull". Elsewhere only in Mk 15:22; Jn 19:17. GK 1201.
30. The Greek word is kranion, from which we get "cranium". Elsewhere only in Mk 15:22; Lk 23:33; Jn 19:17. GK 3191. This word in Latin is Calvariae, from which we get "Calvary".
31. Some manuscripts say "sour-wine" {N}, as in v 48.
32. Some think the soldiers added gall to make it taste bitter, another insult. Others think that this drink was provided by noble Jewish women to all victims of crucifixion in order to dull the senses. On this word, see Act 8:23.
33. That is, Jesus refused the drink. He was unwilling to drink it.
34. Used 46 times. GK 5090. Related to "cross" in 10:38.
35. The grammar of the verb "divided among" implies "themselves". Likewise in Mk 15:24; Lk 23:34. In Jn 19:24, which actually quotes from Ps 22:18, "themselves" is expressed.
36. Some manuscripts add "in order that the thing might be fulfilled having been spoken through the prophet — they divided up My garments among themselves, and they cast a lot upon my clothing" {A}, as in Jn 19:24. On "lot", see "share" in Col 1:12.

1. Or, "insurrectionists". On this word, see 21:13. Same word as in Mk 15:27. Luke uses a different word in 23:32. Used of Barabbas in Jn 18:40. Some think these were two of his men.
2. Or, "since". The grammar assumes the reality of it, as in 4:3. The context indicates it is mockingly assumed. Assuming You are what You say, prove it by saving Yourself.
3. Some manuscripts omit this word {C}, so that there are two sentences, "... save Yourself. If You are... come down".
4. Some manuscripts say "If He is..." {B}.
5. Or, "believe in". Same word as "believe" in Mk 15:32. Some manuscripts say "we will believe Him" {N}. On "put faith upon", see Rom 4:5.
6. Same word as in 6:13, "deliver us from the evil one", Matthew's only other use of this word. On this word, see Col 1:13.
7. Some manuscripts include this word {N}. Or, "Let Him deliver Him now, if He wants".
8. Or, "if He delights in Him", in conformity to Ps 22:8 (where this same word is used), a reference Matthew may intend his readers to recognize here. Both make good sense here. On this meaning of this word, see Col 2:18.
9. Or, "And the robbers also".
10. Parallel account at Mk 15:33; Lk 23:44; Jn 19:28.
11. Or, "took place, occurred". GK 1181.
12. Or, "earth". Or, "the whole land". Same word as in Rev 7:1.
13. That is, from noon to 3 P.M.
14. Or, "cried out". Used only here. GK 331. Related to "shout" in Mk 15:34.
15. The word "Eli" is transliterated from Hebrew. "Lema" and "sabachthani" are transliterated from Aramaic. Some manuscripts say "lama", which is transliterated from Hebrew {N}. Note Mk 15:34.
16. Or, "for what purpose", "to what end". It is shorthand for "in order that what might happen?". Elsewhere only in 9:4; Lk 13:7; Act 4:25; 7:26; 1 Cor 10:29. GK 2672. Jesus is quoting Ps 22:1. See Mk 15:34 on this.
17. Or, "abandon, desert". On this word, see 2 Cor 4:9.
18. Or, "wine vinegar" watered down. This was a favorite beverage of the soldiers and common people, and cheaper than wine. Elsewhere only in Mk 15:36; Lk 23:36; Jn 19:29, 30. GK 3954. Related to "sharp", not the word "wine". This bit of refreshment occurs just before Jesus makes His final shout in v 50; Jn 19:30.
19. Or, "rod, staff". Compare Jn 19:29. On this word, see Mk 15:36.
20. This command, "Leave alone", is singular, spoken by the unnamed ones in v 47, to the one giving the drink. The majority try to stop the one from giving Jesus anything. Compare Mk 15:36 on this. Same word as in Mk 14:6, 15:36. GK 918.
21. On the grammar of this word, see "to do" in Act 24:17.
22. Some manuscripts add "And another, having taken a spear, pierced His side. And water and blood came out" {B}, as in Jn 19:34. The scribes who added this failed to notice that Jesus had not died yet!
23. The words Jesus spoke are recorded in Jn 19:30 and Lk 23:46.
24. Or, "sent away His spirit". On the word "let go", see "forgive" in 6:12. Compare Mk 15:37; Jn 19:30.
25. Some think Matthew means the curtain before the Holy Place; others, the one before Holy of Holies. In the OT, the word was used of both curtains (see for example Ex 26:33 and 38:18). Either way, it is symbolic of the fact that the way into the presence of God is now opened to all, Heb 9:8. On this word, see Heb 9:3.
26. Or, "split, divided". The same word is used later in the verse of the rocks being "split". Same word as in Mk 15:38; Lk 5:36; 23:45; Jn 19:24; 21:11. Elsewhere only as "divide" in Mk 1:10; Act 14:4; 23:7. GK 5387. Related to "division" in 1 Cor 1:10.
27. Or, "arose". Clearly the tombs were opened at this time (Friday afternoon), and those raised went into the city after the resurrection of Jesus on Sunday morning. It is unclear whether Matthew means they were raised on Sunday (along with Him), or raised at this time (but did not enter the city). This is symbolic of the fact that Jesus conquered death for all believers. On this word, see "arose" in 28:6.
28. Or, "raising, awakening". Used only here. GK 1587. Related to "raised" in v 52, and "arose" in 28:6, 7.
29. That is, the Roman soldier in charge. On this word, see 8:5.
30. The verbs "seen", "afraid", and "saying" are all plural, referring to all of them, not just the centurion.
31. That is, the one from Magdala, on the Sea of Galilee. Mentioned also in v 61; 28:1. See Lk 8:2 on her.
32. This woman is mentioned also in 27:61 and 28:1 as "the other Mary"; Mk 15:40, 47; 16:1; Lk 24:10. Compare Jn 19:25.
33. Some manuscripts say "Joses" {N}, as in Mk 15:40.
34. If Mark is referring to the same person, then her name was Salome, Mk 15:40; 16:1. Compare Jn 19:25.
35. That is, James and John, 10:2.
36. Parallel account at Mk 15:42; Lk 23:50; Jn 19:38.
37. That is, first evening, between 3 and 6 P.M., as in 14:15, before sunset when the Sabbath began. Note Mk 15:42; Lk 23:54.
38. This was a town in Judea. Elsewhere only in Mk 15:43; Lk 23:51; Jn 19:38. GK 751.
39. This method of referring to a person's name, "as to the-name", or "with respect to the-name", is used only here in the NT. GK 5540.
40. Some manuscripts say "the body" {N}.
41. Same word as in Lk 23:53. Elsewhere only as "wrapped up" in Jn 20:7. GK 1962.

1. See v 56.
2. That is, Saturday. Used 17 times. GK 2069.
3. That is, Friday. On this word, see Jn 19:31.
4. Or, "I am being raised", that is, I will be raised. On this word, see "arose" in 28:6.
5. Some manuscripts add "by night" {N}.
6. The form of this word could either be a command, "Have a guard", or a statement, "You have a guard". In either case, Pilate is responding favorably to their request. GK 2400.
7. This is a transliterated Latin word referring to a detachment of Roman soldiers doing guard duty. Elsewhere only in 27:66; 28:11 (where its plurality is clear). GK 3184. Compare the terms in Jn 18:12.
8. This is the Greek word order. Matthew may mean that the chief priests and Pharisees went "along with" the Roman guard and they sealed the stone together, using a Temple seal, a Roman seal, or both. Or he may mean that the priests sealed the stone "by means of" the Roman guard, the Romans placing a Roman seal on the tomb. Or he may mean that the priests made it secure by sealing the stone "along with" posting the Roman guard. GK 3552. The seal carries the authority of the state. On "seal", see Eph 1:13.
9. Parallel account at Mk 16:1; Lk 24:1; Jn 20:1.
10. This word means "after" or "late". Some think Matthew means "after the Sabbath", that is, sometime after sunset on Saturday. Others think he means "late on the Sabbath", that is, sometime Saturday evening before sunset. In other words, these women visit the grave here before the Sabbath was over, then go and buy spices Saturday evening after the Sabbath was over (Mk 16:1), then return to the grave on Sunday morning (Mk 16:2), where Mt 28:2 resumes. Elsewhere only as "evening" in Mk 11:19; 13:35. GK 4067. These two views correspond with two views on the next word.
11. This word is used in two ways. Some think Matthew means "near sunrise on Sunday morning", the dawning of daytime, its normal Greek meaning, and so, "after the Sabbath". Others think he means "near sunset on Saturday night", the dawning of the Jewish day (as in its only other use in Lk 23:54, "the Sabbath was dawning"), and so, "late on the Sabbath". GK 2216.
12. The words "Sabbath" and "week" are the same Greek word. It means "week" 9 times and "Sabbath" 59 times. GK 4879.
13. Note that here the women come "to see the burial-place". In Lk 24:1; Mk 16:2, they come to anoint Him. This suggests two visits to some, and corresponds with the "late on the Sabbath as the Jewish day was dawning" view above. On this word, see 23:29.
14. Some manuscripts add "from the door" {N}.
15. Or, "form, outward appearance". Used only here. GK 1624. Related to "appearance" in 2 Cor 5:7.
16. That is, to the arrival of the women.
17. The emphasis may mean "you in contrast with the guards"; or, "you of all people, you who love Him".
18. The grammar implies "stop fearing, stop being afraid".
19. Or, "was raised". Same word as in v 7. This verb means "to raise, to arise" in several senses. It can mean "to wake up" from sleep, "to get up" from sitting down, "to rise, arise, raise, be raised" from the dead, etc. Used 144 times. GK 1586. Related to "resurrection" in Mt 27:53.
20. Some manuscripts say "the Lord" {A}.
21. Same word as in 26:32. On this word, see 2 Jn 9.
22. Some manuscripts say "having gone out" {B}, as in Mk 16:8.
23. The life of Jesus life began with "great joy" in 2:10 (same words); here it begins again with "great joy". This phrase is found in Matthew only in these two places. Compare Lk 24:52, where the same thing occurs!
24. Some manuscripts say "Now as they were going to report to His disciples— and behold, ..." {A}.
25. This same word is used in v 8, 11; Mk 16:10, 13; Lk 24:9. On this word, see "announce" in 1 Jn 1:3.
26. Or, "Go, report it to My brothers, so that they will go to Galilee", based on the command Jesus had previously given them. Compare Mk 16:7. The one case gives a kind of command, the other gives the purpose of the reporting.
27. That is, the Roman guard, the soldiers, v 12. On this word, see 27:65.
28. Some manuscripts say "informed" {B}.
29. On the phrase "take counsel", see 12:14.
30. Or, "considerable, enough". On this word, see 2 Cor 3:5.
31. Other than the metaphorical use in 2 Tim 2:3, this word is used 25 times in the NT— always of Roman soldiers. Matthew uses it three times, 8:9; 27:27; 28:12. GK 5132. On the temple "officers", see Jn 18:12.
32. That is, in a judicial sense. If you are put on trial before Pilate for losing the body, we will persuade him.
33. Some manuscripts say "by" {N}.
34. The chief priests probably mean "with a bribe". The Roman governors commonly accepted money for favors.
35. Or, "free from worry". On this word, see 1 Cor 7:32. The soldiers had much to worry about. If Pilate heard that they were sleeping on duty and allowed the body of Jesus to be stolen (as this lie purports), they would be executed. Without this assurance (and the money), they would not have agreed to the lie.
36. This is an idiom, literally "until the today day", on which see Rom 11:8. Some manuscripts omit "day", so that it says "until today" {C}.
37. Compare Mk 16:15-18; Lk 24:46-49; Jn 20:21-23.
38. Some think that this is the appearance to 500 people that Paul mentions in 1 Cor 15:6.
39. As in Lk 24:52. Or, "prostrated-themselves", as this word is used in Mt 20:20. On this word, see 14:33.
40. Some manuscripts include this word with grammar so that it means "gave worship to Him" or "prostrated-themselves before Him" {N}.
41. This is the literal rendering. This idiom introduces a second class of individuals alongside the eleven mentioned in the previous sentence (see 26:67 on it). Who is being referred to? The idiom can mean "But others", referring to a group of disciples other than the eleven disciples. Or it can mean "But some", referring to a sub-group of those just mentioned. In this case, Matthew is referring to some of the eleven, who perhaps were not sure it was really Jesus because He was at a distance. Then He "came to them" and spoke to them, v 18.
42. Or, "hesitated". Elsewhere only in 14:31. GK 1491.

Some manuscripts omit this word {N}.

This participle gives an attendant circumstance to the command that follows. The command is to make disciples of all nations, but this cannot be done without having gone to all nations. Therefore both are required. This word could be rendered as a subordinate command, "Go, make disciples", but this rendering makes them appear to be commands of equal weight. This word is used this way in 2:8; 9:13; 11:4; 22:15; 27:66; etc. Compare 18:15, where two commands of equal weight are given. Using different words in these same two ways, compare 28:7 and 10. This word is used as a command in 2:20; 8:9; 10:6; etc. It means "to go, proceed, walk, travel. Used 153 times. GK 45/3.

- 3C. And having sternly-commanded¹ him, He immediately^A sent him out 43
- 1D. And He says to him, “See that you tell no one anything. But go, show^B yourself to the priest,² and offer for your cleansing^C the things which Moses commanded^D, for a testimony³ to them⁴” 44
- 4C. But the one, having gone forth, began to proclaim^E greatly, and to widely-spread⁵ the word, so that He was no longer able to enter openly^F into a city, but was outside at desolate^G places. And they were coming to Him from-all-directions 45
- 4B.⁶ And having entered again into Capernaum after some days, it was heard that He was⁷ at home⁸ 2
- 1C. And⁹ many were gathered together, so that the house was no longer having-room^H, not even the places at the door¹⁰. And He was speaking the word to them
- 2C. And they come bringing to Him a paralytic^I being picked-up by four men 3
- 1D. And not being able to bring him to Him¹¹ because of the crowd, they unroofed¹² the roof where He was 4
- 2D. And having dug out an opening, they lower^K the cot on-which¹³ the paralytic was lying-down 5
- 3C. And Jesus, having seen their faith, says to the paralytic^J, “Child^L, your sins are forgiven¹⁴” 6
- 4C. Now some of the scribes were sitting there and reasoning^M in their hearts, “Why is this One speaking in this manner? He is blaspheming¹⁵. Who is able to forgive sins except One— God?” 6-7
- 5C. And immediately Jesus— having known¹⁶ in His spirit that they were¹⁷ reasoning^M in this manner within themselves— says to them, “Why are you reasoning^M these things in your hearts?”
- 1D. “Which is easier— “To say to the paralytic, ‘Your sins are forgiven¹⁸’, or to say, ‘Arise^N, and pick-up your cot, and walk’?” 9
- 2D. “But in order that you may know that the Son of Man has authority^O to forgive sins on earth”— He says to the paralytic, “I say to you, arise, pick up your cot, and go to your house” 10
- 6C. And he arose^N, and immediately having picked-up¹⁹ the cot, went out in front of everyone, so that everyone was astonished²⁰ and glorifying^P God, saying that “We never saw anything like this” 12
- 5B.²¹ And He went out again beside the sea.²² And all the multitude²³ was coming to Him. And He was teaching them. *And while passing on, He saw Levi²⁴, the son of Alphaeus²⁵, sitting at the tax-office²⁶. And He says to him, “Be following Me!” And having stood-up^Q, he followed Him 13
- 1C. And it comes about that He was reclining [to eat] in his²⁷ house. And many tax-collectors^R and sinners^S were reclining-back-with Jesus and His disciples. For there were many²⁸, and they were following Him 15
- 2C. And the scribes of the Pharisees²⁹, having seen that He was³⁰ eating with the sinners and tax collectors, were saying to His disciples, “Why is it that³¹ He is eating³² with the tax collectors and sinners?” 16
- 3C. And having heard, Jesus says to them that³³ “The ones being strong^T have no need of a physician, but the ones being ill^U. I did not come to call righteous^V ones, but sinners³⁴” 17
- 6B.³⁵ And the disciples of John and the Pharisees³⁶ were fasting^W. And they come and say to Him, “For what reason are the disciples^X of John and the disciples of the Pharisees fasting,³⁷ but Your disciples are not fasting?” *And Jesus said to them— 18

1. Or, "sternly warned". Same word as in Mt 9:30. The command is in v 44. On this word, see "deeply moved" in Jn 11:33.
2. That is, in Jerusalem, at the temple.
3. Or, "evidence". Some think Jesus means a testimony as to the healing; others, a testimony that a prophet has arisen; others, a testimony that He adheres to the Law. "For a testimony" is also in Mt 8:4; 10:18; 24:14; Mk 6:11; 13:9; Lk 5:14; 9:5; 21:13; Heb 3:5; Jam 5:3. On this word, see Act 4:33.
1. Some think Jesus means to the priests; others, to the ones he was not to be telling at this time.
5. On this word, see Mt 9:31. Not related to the word in Lk 5:15.
5. Parallel account at Mt 9:1; Lk 5:17.
7. More literally, "is", as the Greek typically phrases it.
1. Or, "in the house".
1. Some manuscripts say "And immediately" {N}.
0. In other words, no one could even get in the door. It was jammed inside and outside. The phrase "at the door" is also in 1:33; Jn 18:16, and in Mk 11:4 ("at a door"), and elsewhere only in Act 3:2 ("at the gate").
1. Some manuscripts instead say "able to come near Him" {B}.
2. Used only here. GK 689. Related to "roof" next.
3. Or, "where". Same word as "where" earlier in the verse. GK 3963.
4. As in Mt 9:2. Some manuscripts say "have been forgiven" {B}, as in Lk 5:20. On this word, see Mt 6:12.
5. On this word, see 1 Tim 6:1. Some manuscripts say "... speaking blasphemies in this manner?" {N}.
6. Or, "understood, recognized, perceived". Same word as in Lk 5:22. Mt 9:4 says "seen". On this word, see "understood" in Col 1:6.
7. More literally, "are", as the Greek typically phrases it.
8. As in Mt 9:5. Some manuscripts say "have been forgiven" {B}, as in Lk 5:23.
9. Same word as in v 3.
10. Or, "amazed, beside themselves". It literally means "to stand outside of oneself". Same word as in Mt 12:23; Mk 5:42; 6:51; Lk 2:47; 8:56; 24:22; Act 2:7, 12; 8:9, 11, 13; 9:21; 10:45; 12:16. Elsewhere only as "lost one's senses" in Mk 3:21 and 2 Cor 5:13. GK 2014.
21. Parallel account at Mt 9:9; Lk 5:27.
22. Capernaum (2:1) is on the northern shore of the Sea of Galilee.
23. Or, "the whole crowd" which was following Jesus at the time. This phrase is elsewhere only as "the whole crowd" in Mt 13:2; Mk 11:18; Lk 13:17; Act 21:27; and with a plural verb following as "all the multitude" in Mk 4:1; 9:15; Lk 6:19. The plural "all the crowds" is in Mt 12:23; Lk 23:48. This word, "crowd, multitude", is used 175 times. GK 4063.
24. This name for Matthew is also used in Lk 5:27, 29. GK 3322. On Matthew, see Lk 6:15.
25. This is the same name as the father of James. See Lk 6:15. Some think Levi and James were brothers, although this is never stated in the NT. Others think both of their fathers had the same name.
26. Or, "tax booth". Levi was on the job, collecting for Herod Antipas. Elsewhere only in Mt 9:9; Lk 5:27. GK 5468.
27. That is, Levi's house, Lk 5:29.
28. Some think Mark means "many tax collectors and sinners"; others, "many disciples".
29. Some manuscripts say "And the scribes and the Pharisees" {C}.
30. More literally, "is", as the Greek typically phrases it.
31. Mark uses this grammar for asking a question also in 9:11, 28. Or, it may be rendered as an exclamation implying a question, "were saying to His disciples that 'He is eating with... sinners!'".
32. Some manuscripts add "and drinking" {B}.
33. Some manuscripts omit this word, which serves to introduce the quotation {C}.
34. Some manuscripts add "to repentance" {K}, as in Lk 5:32.
35. Parallel account at Mt 9:14; Lk 5:33.
36. That is, the disciples... and the Pharisees, these two groups. Some manuscripts say "of the Pharisees" {N}, as in the next sentence.
37. On why each group might have been fasting, see Mt 9:14.

- 1C. "The sons of the wedding-hall¹ cannot be fasting^A while the bridegroom is with them, *can they?*² As long a time as they have the bridegroom with them, they cannot be fasting
- 1D. "But days will come when the bridegroom is taken-away³ from them, and then they will fast in that day⁴ 20
- 2C. "No one sews a patch of unshrunk cloth on an old garment^B. Otherwise the fullness^C [of the patch] takes from it⁵— the new⁶ from the old⁷— and a worse tear^D takes place⁸ 21
- 3C. "And no one puts new⁹ wine into old wineskins. Otherwise the wine will burst¹⁰ the wineskins, and the wine is lost¹¹, and the wineskins¹². But one puts new¹³ wine into fresh¹⁴ wineskins" 22
- 7B.¹⁵ And it came about that He was passing through the grainfields on the Sabbath. And His disciples began to make their way while plucking^E the heads^F [of grain] 23
- 1C. And the Pharisees were saying to Him, "Look! Why are they doing on the Sabbath what is not lawful?"¹⁶ 24
- 2C. And He says to them, "Did you never read [in 1 Sam 21:1-6] what David did when he had a need^G and was hungry, he and the ones with him— *how¹⁷ 25
- 1D. "He entered into the house^H of God in the time of Abiathar¹⁸ the high-priest¹⁹
- 2D. "And he ate the Bread of Presentation²⁰, which is not lawful^I for anyone to eat but the priests
- 3D. "And he gave it also to the ones being with him?"
- 3C. And He was saying to them, "The Sabbath was made²¹ for the sake of mankind^K, and not mankind for the sake of the Sabbath. *So then,²² the Son of Man is Lord²³ even²⁴ of the Sabbath" 25
- 8B.²⁵ And He entered again into the synagogue. And there was a man there having his hand having become-withered²⁶ 26
- 1C. And they were closely-watching^L Him to see if He would cure^M him on the Sabbath, in order that they might accuse^N Him 27
- 2C. And He says to the man having the withered²⁷ hand, "Arise^O into the middle" 28
- 3C. And He says to them, "Is it lawful^I on the Sabbath to do^P good^Q, or to do-harm²⁸, to save a life, or to kill?" But the ones were being silent^R 29
- 4C. And having looked-around-*at*²⁹ them with anger, while being deeply-grieved³⁰ at the hardness^S of their heart, He says to the man, "Stretch out³¹ hand". And he stretched it out, and his hand was restored³² 30
- 5C. And having gone out, the Pharisees immediately were giving counsel^T against Him with the Herodians³³ so that they might destroy³⁴ Him 31
- 9B. And Jesus withdrew³⁵ to the sea with His disciples, and a great multitude from Galilee followed³⁶. And from Judea,³⁷ and from Jerusalem, and from Idumea and beyond the Jordan and around Tyre and Sidon— a great multitude hearing all that He was doing came to Him 32
- 1C. And He said to His disciples that a small-boat³⁷ should be standing-ready-for³⁸ Him because of the crowd— in order that they might not be pressing³⁹ Him 33
- 1D. For He cured^M many, so that they were falling-upon^U Him in order that all who were having scourges⁴⁰ might touch Him 34

1. That is, the groomsmen, the groom's attendants, referring to the disciples. See Mt 9:15.
2. The grammar indicates that a "no" answer is expected.
3. Elsewhere only in this statement, Mt 9:15; Lk 5:35. GK 554. This is the first allusion Jesus makes to His death.
4. Some manuscripts say "in those days" {K}.
5. That is, when the garment shrinks during washing, the patch "takes" from the old, tearing the old cloth.
6. This word means new in the sense of "fresh, recently made, unused". Same word as in "fresh" wineskins, v 22. On this word, see Heb 8:13.
7. This word means old in the sense of "worn-out, obsolete". Same word as in "old" wineskins, v 22. So the intent of these words is "the recently made patch from the worn out garment". Used 19 times. GK 4094. Related to "made old" in Heb 8:13.
8. Jesus is not a patch on the Jewish system of that day, sewn on to the old ways to make repairs. He is a new garment. So His disciples act in a new way, not as would be expected under the old way. That is why they are not fasting.
9. This word means "new" in the sense of "young". Jesus is referring to undeveloped wine, not yet fermented. So the intent is that no one puts unfermented wine into "worn out" wineskins. Such skins are hard and inflexible. Same word as "new" later in this verse; Col 3:10; Heb 12:24; "young" in Tit 2:4; and "younger" in Lk 15:12; Act 5:6; 1 Tim 5:1; Tit 2:6. Used 23 times. GK 3742.
10. Some manuscripts say "Otherwise, the new wine bursts..." {N}.
 1. Or, "perishes". Same word as "ruined" in Mt 9:17; Lk 5:37. On this word, see "perish" in 1 Cor 1:18.
 2. Some manuscripts say "and the wine spills out and the wineskins are ruined" {C}, as in Mt 9:17.
 3. Some manuscripts say "new wine must be put into" {C}, as in Lk 5:38.
14. Jesus, the new and fresh, cannot be contained within the old and worn out Jewish system of that day. The "new" (Heb 12:24; 2 Cor 3:6) covenant makes the "old" (2 Cor 3:14) covenant obsolete (Heb 8:13). On this word, see "new" in v 21.
15. Parallel account at Mt 12:1; Lk 6:1.
16. According to the Pharisees' traditions, the disciples were working, in that they were "reaping". See Mt 12:1.
17. Some manuscripts omit this word {N}.
18. This took place when Ahimelech was serving as high priest, in the time of Abiathar whom we know as the pivotal high priest associated with David at this period of David's life. Ahimelech, the father of Abiathar, was the high priest David spoke to 1 Sam 21:1-6, but he was killed in 22:16. Abiathar became high priest after Saul killed all the other priests, 1 Sam 22:16-20. On the phrase "in the time of...", see Lk 3:2.
19. Or, "chief priest", as this word is used in Act 19:14. GK 797.
20. Or, "of the setting before". That is, the bread set before God, the consecrated bread; the twelve loaves of "show-bread", Lev 24:6-9; Ex 25:30. The loaves were changed each Sabbath, and eaten by the priests. Same word as in Mt 12:4; Lk 6:4; Heb 9:2. On this word, see "purpose" in Rom 8:28.
21. Or, "came into being, came about". Mankind was not created for the purpose of keeping Sabbath laws. In the creation order, mankind was created on the sixth day, and the seventh day was blessed and sanctified by God (Gen 2:3) for the benefit of all mankind. Later, in the Law given to Moses, God used this creation order as the basis of the fourth commandment, Ex 20:9-11, Deut 5:12-15. Jesus may be referring to the creation order in general, or to the Jewish Sabbath law in particular. In either case, the Sabbath was for their benefit, not their enslavement. Normally, the benefit God intended was gained by Sabbath observance, but in some cases, like David's, at the expense of the Sabbath rules. GK 1181.
22. That is, because Jesus is Lord of mankind, He is also Lord of mankind's Sabbath.
23. Or, "master". On this word, see "master" in Mt 8:2.
24. Or, "also", "is also Lord of the Sabbath".
25. Parallel account at Mt 12:9; Lk 6:6.
26. Or, "become stiff, become rigid" (as in 9:18). Elsewhere only as "dried up", as in Mt 13:6; 21:19; Mk 5:29; 11:20; Jn 15:6; 1 Pet 1:24; Rev 14:15, 16:12, etc. Used 15 times. GK 3830. Mark uses the related adjective in v 3. Some think the use of the participle here indicates it was not congenital. Others do not think this is necessarily implied.
27. Same word as in Mt 12:10; Lk 6:6, 8; Jn 5:3. Elsewhere only as "dry" in Mt 23:15; Lk 23:31; Heb 11:29. GK 3831. Related to the word in v 1.
28. Or, "do evil, do wrong" against another person. The answer is that the day of the week makes no difference. It is wrong to do harm on all seven days. It is right to do good on all seven days. These reach far beyond one's daily work, from which one is to rest. God made the Sabbath as a day of rest from work, not from doing good. The Pharisees' tradition is wrong. Mt 12:11 gives an example. Same word as in Lk 6:9. Elsewhere only as "do evil" in 1 Pet 3:17; 3 Jn 11. GK 2803. Related to "evil" in 3 Jn 11.
29. Elsewhere only in Mk 3:34; 5:32; 9:8; 10:23; 11:11; Lk 6:10. GK 4315.
30. Used only here. GK 5200. The root word is "grieve" in 2 Cor 7:9.
31. Some manuscripts say "your" {N}.
32. Same word as in Mt 12:13; Lk 6:10, on which, see Mk 8:25. Some manuscripts add "healthy like the other" {K}, as in Mt 12:13.
33. On this group, see Mt 22:16.
34. These men want to destroy Jesus because He is obviously a false prophet, being a Sabbath-breaker. As a false prophet, He is a religious and political problem which they must work together to eliminate. On this word, see "perish" in 1 Cor 1:18.
35. Or, "went back". Jesus continues to teach all around Galilee (as in 1:39), but only once more is it said to be in a synagogue (6:2). He is always on the move, teaching in the villages (6:6) and desolate areas, with crowds coming to Him, encountering various responses. Some start a new "A." point here. This is Mark's only use of this word. On this word, see "went back" in Mt 4:12.
36. Some manuscripts add "Him" {C}.
37. Elsewhere only in Jn 6:22, 23, 24; 21:8. GK 4449.
38. Or, "remaining with, staying by". On this word, see "devoting themselves to" in Act 2:42.
39. Or, "crowding, squeezing" Him. On this word, see "afflict" in 2 Cor 4:8. Related to "press upon" in Mk 5:24.
40. Same word as in 5:29, 34, Lk 7:21. Used of ailments perceived as a "scourge" from God. Elsewhere only as "whips" in Act 22:24; and "whippings" in Heb 11:36. GK 3465. Related to the verb "whip" in Heb 12:6, and in Act 22:25.

- 2D. And the unclean spirits, whenever they were seeing Him, were falling-before Him, and crying-out^A, saying that “You are the Son of God”. *And He was sternly^B rebuking^C them, in order that they might not make Him known^D 11 12

- 2D. And in order that He might send them out⁴ to proclaim^H, *and to have authority^J to cast⁵ out the demons 15
- 2C.⁶ And He appointed the twelve,⁷ even 16
- 1D. Peter— He put the name on Simon
- 2D. And James, the son of Zebedee, and John, the brother of James. And He put on them the name Boanerges⁸, which means “sons of thunder” 17

- 4D. And Philip
- 5D. And Bartholomew
- 6D. And Matthew
- 7D. And Thomas
- 8D. And James, the son of Alphaeus

- 2C.¹⁸ And the scribes having come down from Jerusalem were saying that “He has Beelzebul¹⁹”, and that “He is casting-out^L the demons by the ruler^M of the demons”. *And having summoned them, He was speaking to them in parables— 22 23
- 1D. “How is Satan able to be casting-out^L Satan?
- 1E. “And if a kingdom is divided^N against itself, that kingdom is not able to stand²⁰ 24
- 2E. “And if a house²¹ is divided against itself, that house will not be able to stand 25
- 3E. “And if Satan stood-up^O against himself and was divided, he is not able to stand, but he has an end²² 26
- 2D. “But no one, having entered into the house of the strong^P man, can plunder²³ his things^Q unless he first binds^R the strong man. And then he will plunder his house 27
- 3D.²⁴ “Truly^S I say to you that all sins and blasphemies^T will be forgiven^U to the sons of humans²⁵— whatever they may blaspheme^V. *But whoever blasphemes against the Holy Spirit does not have forgiveness^W forever^X, but is²⁶ guilty^Y of an eternal^Z sin²⁷”— 28 29

1. Parallel account at Lk 6:12. Compare Mt 10:1-4.
2. Same word as in v 16; Heb 3:2. On this word, see "does" in Rev 13:13.
3. Some manuscripts omit "whom He also named apostles" {C}, which appears in Lk 6:13. On "apostles", see 1 Cor 12:28.
4. This verb "to send out, send forth" is the verb related to "apostles", which means "sent ones". Used 132 times. GK 690.
5. Some manuscripts say "authority to cure diseases and to cast" {N}.
6. Compare at Mt 10:2; Lk 6:14; Act 1:13.
7. Some manuscripts omit "And He appointed the twelve" {C}. On these men, see Lk 6:14.
3. This is an Aramaic word transliterated into Greek. Used only here. GK 1065. Its meaning is given by Mark.
9. This is an Aramaic word transliterated into Greek, but not explained by Mark. It means "zealot". Elsewhere only in Mt 10:4. GK 2831. In Lk 6:15; Act 1:13, the Greek word "Zealot" is used of this man.
10. Or, "comes". Some manuscripts say "they go" {B}. On this word, see "come" in 16:2.
11. Some think it is Jesus' house, connecting this with the coming of His family in v 31. Others think it is some unidentified house, as Mark uses "into a house" elsewhere, 7:17; 9:28. Elsewhere, Mark always identifies the house as "their house", 8:3; "his house", 8:26; "your house", 2:11; 5:19; "her house", 7:30. Verses 20-21 are found only in Mark. This word is used 114 times of a single family "house, home, household", and of those terms in the broadest sense (for example, of the nation Israel). GK 3875. Related word in v 25.
12. Mark may mean "that Jesus was unable even to eat a meal"; or, "that Jesus was at the house".
13. This idiom, "the ones from Him", could refer to some of the disciples or friends of Jesus, or to His relatives. These people outside the house "heard" the problem and "went forth" to solve it. Some think Mark means that the family of Jesus heard it, and came to rescue Him, arriving outside in v 31.
14. Or, "went out, came out". GK 2002.
15. Or, "to take charge of, seize, take custody of". On this word, see "hold on to" in Heb 4:14.
16. This could be the statement of a well-intentioned mother or disciple who felt the need to "rescue" Jesus—"You're crazy to keep speaking this way. You must come and eat. Have some sense!" Or, it could be the misinformed statement of brothers who did not understand His mission or believe in Him (Jn 7:5). Others think it is impersonal, "people were saying" this to the ones from Him.
17. Or, "is beside Himself, out of His mind". Same word as in 2 Cor 5:13, of Paul. On this word, see "astonished" in 2:12. The same thing was said about Paul, using a different word, in Act 26:24.
18. Compare Mt 9:32-34; 12:22-37; Lk 11:14-26.
19. That is, the devil, the "ruler of demons", Mt 12:24; Lk 11:15. "Beelzebub" was the name of a Philistine deity, meaning "lord of flies" or "lord of the house". Some think the Jews deliberately mispronounced it "Beelzebul", meaning, "lord of dung". Others think this is just an alternate spelling. Elsewhere only in Mt 10:25; 12:24, 27; Lk 11:15, 18, 19, always "Beelzebul". GK 1015. Some manuscripts always spell it "Beelzebub" {N}.
20. Or, "to be made to stand, to be established". GK 2705.
21. This word is used of the physical building, and the family or "household" living there, including servants (as in Jn 4:53; 1 Cor 16:15; Phil 4:22). Used 93 times. GK 3864.
22. That is, he is finished. Same words as in Heb 7:3, "having... an end of life". On this word, see Rom 10:4.
23. Jesus has bound Satan and is plundering his house by casting out demons. Elsewhere only in Mt 12:29. GK 1395.
24. Compare Mt 12:31-32; Lk 12:10.
25. That is, the human race. Same phrase as in Eph 3:5. On "sons", see Gal 3:7. On "humans", see "mankind" in Mt 4:4.
26. Some manuscripts say "will be" {N}.
27. Some manuscripts say "condemnation" {B}, so that it says "But he is subject to eternal condemnation".

- 1E. Because¹ they were saying, “He has an unclean spirit” 30
- 3C.² And His mother and His brothers³ come. And while standing outside⁴, they sent-forth^A a message to Him, calling Him 31

Then, affliction^Y or persecution^Z having come about because of the word, immediately they are caused-to-fall^{AA} 50

1. This phrase explains why Jesus said this. If He does a miracle in your presence which you fully acknowledge, but attribute to Satan, what more can be done? You have seen the Spirit of God work, and called Him Satan. You have taken your stand against Him in the face of evidence that is clear and convincing even to you. You have cut yourself off from the source of forgiveness. Some think this is the "sin leading to death" in 1 Jn 5:16.
2. Parallel account at Mt 12:46. Compare Lk 8:19-21.
3. On the brothers and sisters of Jesus, see Mt 13:55-56.
4. Some think Mark means "outside the house", v 20. Others think he means "outside the crowd". Compare Mt 12:46; Lk 8:19.
5. Some manuscripts omit "and Your sisters" {C}.
5. Some manuscripts say "or" {N}.
7. Some manuscripts omit this word {C}.
3. Some manuscripts omit this word {C}.
2. Some manuscripts say "My sister" {N}.
10. Parallel account at Mt 13:1; Lk 8:4.
11. Some manuscripts say "was gathered" {K}.
12. Same word as "crowd" earlier in the verse. Same words as "the whole crowd" in Mt 13:2, but followed by a plural verb here. On this word, see 2:13.
13. Or, "[facing] toward, before, at". GK 4639.
14. Some manuscripts add "of the heaven" {K}.
15. That is, another portion of seed, viewed as a group.
16. Not soil with stones in it, but rock covered with not much soil. Compare Lk 8:6.
17. Compare Lk 8:7. Same word as in v 19, and as in Mt 13:22; Lk 8:14. Elsewhere only as "throng" in Lk 8:42. GK 5231.
18. That is, other seeds, viewed as individuals. Jesus changes to the plural here.
19. Both "coming up" and "growing" are plural, agreeing with "others". Some manuscripts have a different grammar that would mean these words go with "fruit" {C}, "they were giving fruit [that was] coming up and growing. And they were bearing..."
20. Or, "times thirty". This word "times, fold" may represent the Aramaic sign of multiplication. It is the numeral "one" (see Eph 4:7), and some prefer to translate it "one, thirty; and one, sixty; and one, a hundred". Likewise in v 20. Matthew and Luke say it differently in Mt 13:8, 23; Lk 8:8.
21. This idiom is elsewhere only in Lk 9:18. Literally, "in only them places". That is, away from the crowds.
22. Some manuscripts have this singular {N}.
23. On this word, see Rom 11:25. That is, truth about Jesus and His kingdom known only by His revelation.
24. Some manuscripts add "to know" {K}.
25. Or, "take place, are". GK 1181.
26. Here Jesus says the purpose of His speaking in parables is "in order that" they may remain spiritually blind. Mt 13:13-15 says He did so "because" they were blind with a blindness of their own choosing. So He speaks in parables both "because" they are spiritually blind, and "in order that" they might remain so.
27. Jesus is quoting from Isa 6:9-10, as does Mt 13:14-15; Lk 8:10; Jn 12:40; Act 28:26-27. A key prophecy.
28. Some manuscripts say "in their hearts" {C}, similar to Mt 13:19.
29. Some manuscripts say "and likewise these" {N}. The grammar of this word refers to people, not "seed".
30. Note that Jesus mixes the illustration and the application in order to abbreviate the statement. The full statement would be "These people are the ones having the word sown into them like the seed was sown into the rocky places". Likewise with verse 18 and 20.

- 41). "And other¹ people are the ones being sown the seed into the thorns. 1. Some manuscripts say "these" {N}, as in v 16.
2. Worries come into the person's life alongside the word and choke it.
3. Or, "worries, cares, concerns". On this word, see 1 Pet 5:7. Related to "be anxious" in Mt 6:25.
4. Or, "world". GK 172. Some manuscripts say "of this age" {K}. Instead of "age", some manuscripts say "life" {N}.
5. Same word as in Mt 13:22.
6. Some manuscripts say "these" {K}.
7. Note the change in tense. The second two soils are in the process of "being sown", in hope that a fruitful crop can be grown. The last soil is the ones "having been sown". The sowing is accomplished, and the bearing is in progress. Only Mark conveys this distinction in the words of Jesus, as with the distinction in "hearing" next.
8. Or, "listening to" in the sense of "obeying", as in v 24. Note the change in tense. There is continuous action here, but not in the word "hear" in the first three soils.
9. Or, "welcoming". Same word as in Act 16:21; 22:18; 1 Tim 5:19, Heb 12:6. Elsewhere only as "welcome" in Act 15:4. GK 4138.
10. On this word, see v 8.
11. Parallel account at Lk 8:16. Compare Mt 5:15.
12. Jesus spoke the parables to the crowd, and explained them to the disciples, v 33-34.
13. Some think the lamp is Jesus, or the message He brought. He came to be the light, Jn 12:46. No one brings a light into the house to hide it. Yet Jesus is "hiding" the truth in parables. Jesus, His kingdom, and His message are hidden or concealed at this point of His ministry in a certain sense. But this is for a purpose. Others think the lamp is the word in a believer's life. It was not given to you to be hidden, but to shine forth. See Lk 8:16.
14. Literally, a "modius measure", the basket or container used to measure one modius of grain. The basket is named for the amount it holds. A modius was a Roman dry measure equal to about two gallons, 8.5 liters, one peck. Elsewhere only in Mt 5:15; Lk 11:33. GK 3654.
15. The grammar indicates a "no" answer is expected here, and a "yes" answer for the next question.
16. That is, the lamp. One would only hide a lamp for the purpose of shining it at the proper time. Jesus came that He might be put on the lampstand and light the world. But His light is hidden from Israel now, so that it may be revealed after His resurrection. He did not come to remain hidden. In the other view, the light is in you for the purpose of shining forth from your life. Let it shine. Most translations paraphrase this verse.
17. Or, "revealed". On this word, see "made evident" in 1 Jn 2:19.
18. Or, "hidden-from view, secret, concealed". Related to "hidden" earlier in the verse, with the prefix "from, away" added. Same two words as in Lk 8:17. Elsewhere only in Col 2:3. GK 649.
19. On this idiom, "come into visibility", see Lk 8:17. Related to "made visible" earlier.
20. Parallel account at Lk 8:18.
21. Or, "hear", and follow. Lk 8:18 says "how" you listen. Compare Lk 6:40.
22. The measure you use reflects your spiritual capacity. What you listen to and follow will be the measure of what you can receive. For example, if you listen to and follow the traditions of the Pharisees, it will limit your ability to receive spiritual truth. The "system" you follow will impact your ability to hear and receive truth and blessing.
23. Some manuscripts say "to you, the ones hearing" {A}.
24. Those receiving and obeying truth will receive more truth.
25. Same word as in Mt 13:12; 21:43; 25:29; Lk 8:18; 19:26, in statements similar to this. GK 149.
26. Used only here. GK 3602. Related to "length" in Eph 3:18; Rev 21:16.
27. The seed has life in it, and it grows without the assistance or knowledge of the sower. The person sows. God causes the growth, 1 Cor 3:6, in ways beyond his knowledge. Then the person harvests what God has grown, v 29.
28. Some manuscripts say "For the" {N}.
29. Or, "on its own". Our word "automatic" comes from this word, automatos. Elsewhere only in Act 12:10. GK 897.
30. Same word as later in the verse. Elsewhere only as "heads [of grain]" in 2:23; Mt 12:1; Lk 6:1. Here, the grain has not yet appeared. GK 5092.
31. Or, "grain-of-wheat". This word means "wheat", or "grain" in general. Used 14 times. GK 4992.
32. Or, "allows". That is, when it has ripened itself. Literally, when it "hands itself over" for harvesting. On this word, see "hand over" in Mt 26:21.
33. That is, the person who sowed the seed.
34. Elsewhere only in Rev 14:14, 15, 16, 17, 18, 19. GK 1535.
35. Same word as in Mt 13:30, 39; Rev 14:15, where it refers to the end of the age. Note Mt 24:14. Elsewhere only in Mt 9:37, 38; Lk 10:2; Jn 4:35, where it refers to the harvest of people ripe for the gospel. GK 2546.
36. Or, "is here, is present". On this word, see "present" in Rom 12:1.
37. Parallel account at Mt 13:31. Compare Lk 13:18-19.
38. Or, "put". Same word as "put" in v 21. On this word, see "put" in Act 19:21. GK 5502. Related to "put before" in Mt 13:24, 31.
39. On this phrase, see Mt 13:31.
40. That is, than all the seeds people in that day sowed.
41. It has a small and insignificant beginning, but grows larger than all. This is not how the Jews conceived of the kingdom. It was to arrive from God, conquer their enemies, and immediately establish itself in the world.
42. Parallel account at Mt 13:34.
43. That is, "to the degree that" they were able to hear it. GK 2777.
44. Or, "interpreting". GK 2147. Related to "interpretation" in 2 Pet 1:20.
45. Parallel account at Mt 8:23; Lk 8:23.
46. Or, "along, as He was [still] in the boat". This is the Greek word order. This may be describing the condition of Jesus. The disciples took Him straight from His speaking without any rest, explaining why He slept. Or it may be describing His location. The disciples left the crowd and joined Him in the boat after He called to them "Let us go...". They left the crowd and took Him, since He was still in the boat.
47. Same word as Lk 8:23. On this word, see 2 Pet 2:17.
48. Elsewhere only in 15:36; Lk 14:23; Jn 2:7; 6:13; Rev 8:5; 15:8. GK 1153. Not related to the word in Lk 8:23 (GK 5230). Related to "are full" in Rev 4:6.
49. This is an idiom, more literally, "Is it not a concern to You?". On this word, see "concerned" in 1 Cor 7:21.

7. Or, "being caused to fall" by Him. On this word, see "caused to fall" in 1 Cor 8:13.
8. The reason is not stated. If Lk 4:16-30 is referring to this incident, it was because they drove Jesus out. If not, it may have been because He refused to do "signs" for those who knowingly rejected Him, as these people did. Note 8:12.
9. It is a marvel. They acknowledged His wisdom and miracles (v 2), yet rejected Him! On this word, see 1 Tim 1:13.
10. Parallel account at Mt 10:1; Lk 9:1.
11. This is an idiom, literally "two, two".

Some manuscripts make this part of what precedes, instead of a direct quote {N}, "sandals—and not to put on two tunics".
17. That is, remain in that house until you depart from that city. Do not move around.
18. Some manuscripts instead say "And whoever..." {N}.
19. On this word, see Act 13:51. Same word as in Mt 10:14. Lk 9:5 uses a related word.
20. Mark uses a different word than Mt 10:14 or Lk 9:5. Elsewhere only in Rev 18:19. GK 5967.

22. Same word as in 1:15, Mark's only other use of it. On this word, see Act 26:20.
23. Or, "putting on, rubbing on". The "anointing with oil" associated with healing occurs only here and Jam 5:14. Oil was medicinal, as seen in Lk 10:34. Here its purpose is unclear. 1. More literally, Herodias was "having it in" for John, "holding in" anger and retaliation against him. She was internally setting herself against him, plotting how to destroy him without angering Herod. Same word as in Lk 11:53. Elsewhere only as "held in" in Gal 5:1. GK 1923.

Josephus calls her Salome, but she may have also been known as Herodias, her mother's name. Herod's children took on the name Herod almost like a title. See Mt 14:6 on her.
10. Three participles set the stage for the main sentence. A day having come about, and Herodias having come in and danced, "she pleased Herod".
11. Or, "maiden, young woman". Same word as in v 28; Mt 14:11. This word was used of "little girls" and girls of marriageable age. Used of Esther in Est 2:7, and Ruth in Ruth 2:22. Some think Salome was about 13 to 15 years old at this time. Elsewhere only as "little girl" in Mt 9:24, 25; Mk 5:41, 42 (where she is said to be twelve). GK 3166.
12. Some manuscripts omit this word {C}.

16. This word is used 51 times, 41 by Mark. GK 2317. It is a key word for Mark. There is a related word in Mt 13:5. The KJV renders them both "straightway", the root word being "straight" in Act 8:21.

29. Or, "recognized, learned". Or, "knew, recognized them". Same word as "recognized" in v 54. On this word, see "understood" in Col 1:6.
30. Some think this means these people arrived first; others, that this group who knew them "went before, preceded, went ahead of" or led the other people to them. Whether this "many" arrived ahead of the boat or led the crowd from all the cities there sometime after the boat had arrived is related to the meaning of "gone out" in v 34. Elsewhere only as "go ahead" in Mt 26:39; 14:35; Lk 1:17; Act 12:10; 20:5, 13; 2 Cor 9:5; and "precede" in Lk 22:47. GK 4601.

Perhaps Jesus sent them back toward there, and beyond it to the other side (to Capernaum, Jn 6:17), and they were blown off course to the south, to Gennesaret (Mk 6:53). There are other views.
12. That is, to the crowd.
13. Some manuscripts say "And He saw..." {N}.
14. Or, "harassed, tortured". Or, "tormenting themselves at the rowing". That is, because of the wind and waves, Mt 14:24. On this word, see Rev 14:10.
15. Some manuscripts say "them. And He comes..." {N}.
16. The fourth watch was from 3-6 A.M. On the four watches, see 13:35. On "watch", see Lk 2:8.
17. Or, "wishing, wanting". On this word, see "willing" in Jn 7:17.

34. Mark breaks off the sentence here and explains this concept to his readers, and then begins again in v 5. Elsewhere only in Mt 15:20. GK 481. Some manuscripts add "they found fault" {N}, completing the sentence, using the same word as in Rom 9:19.
35. Related to "unwashed" in v 2. Also used of the face in Mt 6:17, the eyes in Jn 9:7, the feet in Jn 13:5; 1 Tim 5:10. Used 17 times. GK 3782. Related to "wash-basin" in Jn 13:5. It is differentiated from "bathe" (the whole body) in Jn 13:10.

Others think it is a fist washed in the hollow of the other hand. Others think it means "with a handful of water". Water for this custom is seen in Jn 2:6. The NKJV paraphrases "in a special way"; the NIV, a "ceremonial washing", both of which give the correct idea without reference to the exact procedure. Used only here. GK 4778. Instead of "with a fist", some manuscripts have a word that means "often" or "thoroughly" {A}.
37. Or, "[food]".
38. Or, "dip, immerse, wash, baptize". Same word as in Lk 11:38. Except for these two places, it is always translated "baptize". On this word, see "baptize" in Mk 1:8. This word is not related to "wash" in v 3. It refers to a ritual "washing" or "cleansing" of the body and of vessels (as in Lev 11:31, 32; 15:11, etc.), in case anything "unclean" was touched.
39. Or, "[it]", the food.
40. This word is supplied from v 3.
41. Related to "cleanse" earlier in the verse. On this word, see Heb 6:2.
42. That is, the dining couches on which people of that day reclined to eat. GK 3109. Some manuscripts omit "and couches" {C}.
43. Some manuscripts say "Then" {N}, making the connection with v 2 clearer.

1. Some manuscripts omit this word {C}, which serves to introduce the quotation.

20. This word "making clean" can also be rendered "cleansing, declaring clean, treating clean". Some think this is Mark's comment (similar to what he did in 3:30; 7:3-4), agreeing grammatically with the subject ("He" in "He says", v 18). Mark is making explicit what Jesus implied. Peter learned this in Act 10:15, where this same word is used. Foods are not inherently clean or unclean. Apart from God's Law, they have no moral effect. It is not the food going in that defiles, but the disobedience to God going out. See Mt 15:11. Others think these are Jesus' words, "into the latrine, cleansing all foods", meaning that the latrine proves they are clean because they pass through the body without affecting the heart. Others render it, "latrine, purging all foods", simply completing the physical description. On this word, see "cleansed" in Heb 9:22.
21. This is GK 2805. The word in Mt 15:19 is the word Mark uses in v 22, 23 (GK 4505).

1. This idiom "beware of" is elsewhere only in 12:38. "Beware" is GK 1063. It is not the same word as in Mt 16:6. Some manuscripts say "Watch out and beware"; others omit one or the other verb {N}.
2. On this word, see Mt 13:33. On the leaven of the Pharisees, see Mt 16:12.
3. On Herod, see Mt 14:1. Some manuscripts say "of the Herodians" {A}.
4. Or, "because". Some manuscripts say "saying that" {N}, as in Mt 16:7.
5. Some manuscripts say "we" {N}, as in Mt 16:7.
5. In English, we usually change this to "did". Compare Mt 16:7.
7. The disciples' focus is on their belly instead of on what Jesus is telling them. Something far more important than where their next meal is coming from is happening in their presence, and they are missing the point of it. They are responding to Him just like the crowd.
3. Some manuscripts say "Jesus" {N}.
9. This is a participle, "having been hardened". Some manuscripts say "still hardened" {N}. Sometimes a failure to understand is really a refusal to understand, proceeding from a hard heart. Same word as in 6:52.
10. Some manuscripts say "And when" {N}.
11. Same word as in 6:43.
12. Same word as in 8:8.
13. Some manuscripts omit "to Him" {C}.
14. Some manuscripts say "How do you..." {N}.
15. Some manuscripts say "And He comes" {K}.
16. This city was on the north side of the Sea of Galilee.
17. The reason is not given. Perhaps Jesus did not want to draw a crowd (note v 26), so He led him out of the village and healed him on His way to the next village.
18. On this word, see Mt 20:34. Not related to the word in v 25 (GK 4057).
19. Some manuscripts say "was asking him if he saw anything" {N}.
20. Some manuscripts say, "I am seeing people like trees, walking" {K}.
21. Some think this indicates the man was not born blind. He knew what trees looked like.
22. It is unclear why Jesus healed him in two steps. The details are not given. This is the only example of a two-step healing.
23. Elsewhere only as "see clearly" in Mt 7:5; Lk 6:42. GK 1332.
24. Same word and grammar as in Mt 17:11; Mk 9:12; Act 1:6. Elsewhere only as a passive, "was restored", in Mt 12:13; Mk 3:5; Lk 6:10; Heb 13:19. It is not passive here. But since "them" is not expressed, some take this to mean "he restored, he changed back, he recovered", and render it "he was restored". In this case, the man is the subject of the last two verbs, "And he looked intently, and recovered, and was seeing everything clearly". GK 635. Related to "restoration" in Act 3:21. Not related to "restore" in Jam 5:15.
25. Same word as in Act 22:11, where Paul was not seeing. Or, "looking at", as in Mk 10:21, 27; 14:67. Used 12 times. GK 1838. Some manuscripts say "saw" {K}.
26. Or, "brightly, beaming, plainly". Used only here. GK 5495.
27. Some manuscripts add "Nor speak to anyone in the village" {B}.
28. Parallel account at Mt 16:13; Lk 9:18.
29. On this city, see Mt 16:13. On Philip, see Lk 3:1.
30. The idiom "speak... saying" is also in Mt 22:1; Mk 12:26; Lk 7:39; 12:16; 13:27; 14:3; 20:2. Some manuscripts say "And the ones responded, 'That...' {N}.
31. Some manuscripts omit this word {C}. This same word is in the third answer, "that" you are one of the prophets.
32. Some manuscripts say "And He says to them" {K}.
33. Parallel account at Mt 16:21; Lk 9:22.
34. This is the first time the suffering of Jesus is directly stated. It is a new stage in His relationship with the disciples.
35. Or, "seen". Same word as in 12:34; Jn 21:21. GK 3972. Some think this means Jesus turned His back on Peter, and looked at the disciples. Others think He turned around to face Peter, looking at the disciples behind him.
36. Parallel account at Mt 16:24; Lk 9:23.
37. Some manuscripts say "Whoever wants" {N}.
38. Some manuscripts say "to come" {N}, as in Mt 16:24. Compare Lk 9:23.
39. On "take up his cross", see Mt 10:38; 16:24. Note that the cross as the means of the death of Jesus has not yet been mentioned in Mark.

1. Compare Mk 10:39; Lk 17:33; Jn 12:25.
2. Or, "gospel". Elsewhere by Mark only in 1:1, 14, 15; 10:29; 13:10; 14:9; 16:15. On this word, see 1 Cor 15:1.
3. Same word as in Mt 16:26; Lk 9:25, and as Mt 18:15; 25:16, 17, 20, 22; Act 27:21; 1 Cor 9:19, 20, 21, 22; Phil 3:8; 1 Pet 3:1. Elsewhere only as "make a gain" in Jam 4:13. GK 3045. Related to "gains" in Phil 3:7.
4. Or, "suffer loss of". On this word, see "suffer loss" in 1 Cor 3:15.
5. Or, "soul". The same word is used four times in v 35-37. On this word, see "soul" in Jam 5:20.
6. Some manuscripts say "Or" {K}.
7. That is, spiritually unfaithful to God. On this word, see Jam 4:4.
8. In contrast to the shame of His death in v 31, which led to the words in v 33-38, Jesus now speaks of His power.
9. Some will see the kingdom, but not all. There is another sense in which none of them saw the "kingdom of God" in their lifetimes, Act 1:6-7. Some think Jesus is referring to the three with Him at the transfiguration (v 2), where they saw the King in His glory, 2 Pet 1:16; Jn 1:14. Others think He is referring to the eleven (and any of the "crowd", 8:34) who saw Him after His resurrection (Act 1:3), or who experienced the coming of the Spirit on Pentecost (Acts 2). Others think He is referring to those present to see the destruction of Jerusalem in A.D. 70, the judgment of the King on Israel. There are other views.
10. On this idiom, see 13:2.
11. On "taste death", see Heb 2:9.
12. Parallel account at Mt 17:1; Lk 9:28. Compare 2 Pet 1:17-18.
13. Or, "transformed, changed". On this word, see "transformed" in Rom 12:2.
14. Or, "radiant, gleaming, glistening". Used of bright polished surfaces, of stars, of the "flash" of lightning. Used only here. GK 5118.
15. Some manuscripts add "like snow" {K}.
16. Or, "fuller, launderer, cloth refiner". That is, one who bleaches cloth white. Used only here. GK 1187.
17. This word, "to make white, to whiten", is elsewhere only in Rev 7:14. GK 3326.
18. Or, "tents". On this word, see Lk 9:33.
19. Peter did not know what his response should be. This just came out without thinking. Some manuscripts say "what he is saying"; others, "what he was saying"; others, "what he will say" {N}. Luke says "not knowing what he is saying", 9:33. Same words and grammar as "They did not know what they should answer Him" in Mk 14:40, except there is no "Him" here.
20. On this adjective, see Heb 12:21, where Moses reacted the same way. Related to "afraid" in Lk 9:34.
21. Perhaps Mark means Jesus, Moses, and Elijah. See Mt 17:5 on this.
22. Or, "all of a sudden". Used only here. GK 1988.
23. Some manuscripts say "except" {N}, as in Mt 17:8.

27. More literally, "means", as the Greek typically phrases it. On this word, see "is" in Mt 26:26.
28. On why the disciples ask this question, see Mt 17:10. Same grammar as the question in v 28. Or, this may be a statement implying a question, "questioning Him, saying that the scribes say... first".
29. Compare Mt 11:4; Lk 1:17; Jn 1:21.
30. Some manuscripts say "And the One, having responded, said" {N}, like v 19.
31. Jesus uses grammar that emphasizes the contrast between the two "Elijah" statements (1D. and 2D.).
32. Same word as in Act 1:6. On this word, see Mk 8:25. Related to "restoration" in Act 3:21. In other words, the scribes are right.
33. On this idiom in v 12, 13, "written for" Him, see Jn 12:16.
34. Or, "despised". Used only here. If Elijah simply comes first and restores all things and Messiah comes in glory, then how can this be true also? It is because there are two comings, one in suffering (which they did not expect) and one in glory. Some think Jesus means Elijah also has two comings, a future one (perhaps Rev 11:3), and a past one in John the Baptist, v 13; Mt 11:14; 17:13. Others think He means that just as His own coming was in an unexpected way, so was Elijah's. He is John, who did not do what they expected Elijah to do any more than Jesus did what they expected Messiah to do. Note that Jesus does not refer to Elijah's recent appearance at the transfiguration as a fulfillment of Mal 4:5-6. GK 2022. Related to the word in 1 Thes 5:20.
35. Or, "Yet, However, Nevertheless". GK 247. A stronger word, not related to the one in Mt 17:12 (GK 1254).
36. Or, "also". GK 2779.
37. Parallel account at Mt 17:14; Lk 9:37.
38. That is, Jesus, Peter, James, and John. Some manuscripts say "He" {B}.
39. Some think the scribes were gathering evidence against Jesus from this failure by His disciples.
40. Or, "arguing, discussing". Same word as in v 16. On this word, see 8:11.
41. This word refers to emotions ranging from astonishment to wonder to fear upon seeing some sight. Here, some think the very presence of Jesus sparked wonder in them. Others think they were filled with wonder and fear and excitement and awe about the situation He was now coming into— could Jesus do anything for this one the disciples could not heal? Would He prove the scribes wrong? Elsewhere only as "alarmed" (the "fear and alertness" end of the emotions) in 14:33; 16:5, 6. GK 1701. Related to "astonished" in 1:27; "wonder" in Act 3:10; and "struck with wonder" in Act 3:11.

5. Used only here. GK 5563.
6. Or, "And I told Your disciples to cast". Compare Lk 9:40.
7. Or, "they were not able, did not have the power". On this word, see "can do" in Gal 5:6.
8. Some manuscripts say "him" {K}.
9. See Mt 17:17 on the meaning of this.
10. On this idiom, "how long", see Mt 17:17.
11. Or, "convulsed-greatly". Elsewhere only in Lk 9:42. GK 5360. Related to the word in v 26.
12. More literally, "How much time", an idiom used only here.
13. Since His disciples could do nothing, this father is unsure whether Jesus can help. The grammar does not indicate strong doubt (if, and You probably cannot), but implies "Assuming You are able to do something".
14. Or, "come to our aid". Same word as in v 24. On this word, see Rev 12:16.
15. On this word, see Mt 9:36. The father thought he must suggest this motive in light of the words of rebuke in v 19. "Jesus, turn from Your frustration with this generation to pity on our case. Help us out of pity for us".
16. Jesus repeats the father's words from v 22 back to him, "If you are able". There is both faith and doubt in his statement in v 22. Jesus focuses first on the doubt. Some manuscripts say instead, "If you [the father] are able to believe, all things are possible for..." {B}.
17. Some manuscripts add "with tears" {A}.
18. Some manuscripts say "Master, I believe..." {K}.
19. That is, "Help me where I am wavering and starting to doubt". On this word, see 1 Tim 1:13.
20. This is another of Mark's vivid words, used only here. GK 2192. Related to "ran together" in 6:33.

25. That is, "is going to be handed over", the future sense coming from the context. Matthew and Luke include the word "going to". On this word, see Mt 26:21.
26. Some manuscripts say "on the third day" {N}. Both mean the same thing.
27. Compare Lk 9:45.
28. Parallel account at Mt 18:1; Lk 9:46.
29. Some manuscripts say "He came" {N}.
30. On this word, see "reasoning" in Lk 5:21. Some manuscripts add "with yourselves" {K}.
31. Though the form of this word means "greater", some think that here it has the sense of "greatest". GK 3503.
32. Or, "will". Some think Jesus means "he will be last", this is what he will do, this is the choice he will make. Others take this as a type of command, "he shall be last", he must be last, let him be last. Both are true of course.
33. Or, "her". The Greek is not specific here.
34. Jesus generalizes from the child before them to "these children". That is, one of these most needy, most dependent, most needing to be served ones; one of these who are least associated with greatness in this world. Serving them is serving Christ. Welcoming them is welcoming the King, and is the opposite of striving to be reckoned as the greatest. He does not value worldly status. This is true of physical children "believing in Me" (v 42); and of spiritual children of any age. This is the same word (GK 5525) as "such" in Mt 18:5, but is plural here to match "children".
35. On this phrase, "on the basis of My name", see Act 2:38.

2. Some manuscripts say "And John responded to Him, saying...{N}.
3. Some manuscripts add "who is not following us" {N}.
4. Or, "hindering, preventing, trying to stop". On this word, see 1 Cor 14:39.
5. Or, "a work of power". Whether Jesus in fact "knows" this person is not stated (even ones He does not "know" will do such things "in His name", Mt 7:22). The focus is not on his case, but on the disciples' response. On this word, see 1 Cor 12:10.
5. Some manuscripts say "... against you, is for you" {N}, as in Lk 9:50. That is, whoever has not decided against us, and so is not actively opposing us, is for us. Compare Mt 12:30.
7. That is, because you belong to Christ, because you are followers of Christ. This is the same idea as "in the name of a disciple" in Mt 10:41-42. Some manuscripts say "in My name, because you are Christ's" {A}.
3. Now Jesus turns to the other case, as in Mt 18:6, to any who would harm His children.
3. Some manuscripts omit "in Me" {C}.
10. On the verb "cause to fall", see 1 Cor 8:13. The same word follows in v 43, 45, 47.
11. Not the same word as in the similar statements in Mt 18:6 or Lk 17:2. On this word, see "good" in 1 Tim 5:10a.
12. Literally, a millstone "pertaining-to-a-donkey", that is, a large one that a donkey would turn. Some paraphrase it as "large". Elsewhere only in Mt 18:6. GK 3948. Some manuscripts omit this word {K}.
13. Same word as in Mt 18:6. Elsewhere only as the smaller "mill" that would be turned manually by two women, in Mt 24:41; Rev 18:22. GK 3685. Related to the word in Lk 17:2, and in Rev 18:21.
14. Same word as in Lk 17:2. The grammar is unusually vivid. Such a person would be better off to already be dead at the bottom of the sea with a millstone lying around his neck than to commit this sin. He would be better to have been violently killed before he did this than to face the consequences of it. In Matthew 18:6, the word and grammar is different.
15. Compare Mt 5:29-30; 18:9.
16. These verses amplify the seriousness with which Christ views sin, the sin in v 42, and all other sin. They are spoken with reference all humans, as is v 42. Compare Mt 18:7. It is better not to allow anything in your life to cause you or a fellow-believer to fall. The consequences are frightening.
17. On the word "cut off", which is also in v 45, see Gal 5:12. Related to the word in Mt 18:8. In other words, take whatever measures necessary to eliminate causes of falling in your life.
18. Or, "unquenchable". Elsewhere only in Mt 3:12; Lk 3:17. GK 812. Not related to the word in v 48.
19. Some manuscripts add as v 44 "where their worm does not come to an end, and the fire is not quenched" {A}, as in v 48.
20. Some manuscripts add "into the inextinguishable fire" {A}, as in v 43.
21. Some manuscripts add as v 46 "where their worm does not come to an end, and the fire is not quenched" {A}, as in v 48.
22. Note that entering "life" (v 43, 45) is now entering "the kingdom of God".
23. Some manuscripts say "the Gehenna of fire" {N}, as in Mt 18:9.
24. Or, "larva, maggot". Used only here. GK 5038. Related to "eaten by worms" in Act 12:23. Jesus is quoting Isa 66:24.
25. That is, "die". This is a euphemism for death. In other words, the maggots eating their flesh never come to an end, a striking picture. Elsewhere only in Mt 2:19; 9:18; 15:4; 22:25; Mk 7:10; Lk 7:2; Jn 11:39; Act 2:29; 7:15; Heb 11:22. GK 5462. Related to "end" in Mt 2:15.
26. Or, "extinguished, put out". On this word, see 1 Thes 5:19.
27. Some think this refers to future judgment. The imagery comes from Lev 2:13, where salt was added to a sacrifice. Thus, Jesus will make an offering of humans to God, to which He will add a purifying fire. Everyone will be tested by fire. Some will be purified and saved through the fire. Others will remain in the fire, Gehenna. This concept is similar to 1 Cor 3:13-15. Others think it refers to a separation in this life. Through the seasoning of fiery trials, all will move toward life or Gehenna. Others think it refers to the purification of believers in this life. The fire is His purifying work in us, the discipline of our Father, Heb 12:6. Others add this on to point 2F., further emphasizing the ongoing nature of that fire. Such ones are preserved (as salt preserves) by fire, for fire. There are other views. Consult the commentaries. On this word, see Mt 5:13. Compare "baptized with fire" in Mt 3:11.
28. Some manuscripts add "and every sacrifice will be salted with salt" {B}, a reference to Lev 2:13.
29. Compare Mt 5:13; Lk 14:34-35.
30. Jesus returns to His main point and concludes it in this verse, keying off the word "salt". He turns from fire being applied like salt, to salt itself, functioning as it was created to function, as a picture of believer's lives. GK 229.
31. Or, "saltless". Used only here. GK 383.
32. Same word as in Lk 14:34. Elsewhere only in Col 4:6. GK 789.
33. God created you to season those around you. If your life loses its seasoning power, as it surely will if you are squabbling over who is greater, how can it be regained? Jesus does not answer this, but instead says, Do not lose it. Have salt in yourselves. Be what God made you to be, servants of all, at peace.
34. Parallel account at Mt 19:1.
35. Or, "boundaries". This word means the "borders, boundaries", or the "districts, regions" marked or enclosed by them. Same word as 5:17; 7:24, 31. Elsewhere only in Mt 2:16; 4:13; 8:34; 15:22, 39; 19:1; Act 13:50. GK 3990. Our word "horizon" comes from this word. Some think Jesus was in Judea near the Jordan; others, out of Judea, beyond the Jordan.
36. Some manuscripts omit this word, as in Mt 19:1; others say "through the other side of the Jordan" {C}.
37. On this word, see "become a custom" in Lk 4:16.
38. Some manuscripts say "the Pharisees" {B}.
39. That is, divorce her. Same word as in v 4, 11, 12. Not related to "divorce" in v 4. On this word, see Mt 5:31. Compare Mt 19:1-12 to this passage.
40. Same word as in Mt 19:7; and in Mt 4:6; 17:9; 28:20; Mk 13:34; Lk 4:10; Jn 8:5; 14:31; 15:14, 17; Act 13:47; Heb 9:20. Elsewhere only as "give commands" in Act 1:2; Heb 11:22. GK 1948. Related to "commandment" in Col 2:22 and in Mk 12:28.

- 2C. And the ones said, "Moses permitted¹ us to write a certificate^A of divorce² and send her away" 4

- 2D. "So then, they are no longer two, but one flesh" 7
- 3D. "Therefore what God paired-together^G, let a person¹⁰ not separate¹¹" 8
- 4C. And the disciples were questioning Him again about this in the house 10
- 1D.¹² And He says to them, "Whoever sends-away^H his wife and marries another is committing-adultery against her.¹³ *And if she¹⁴, having sent-away^H her husband, marries another,¹⁵ she is committing-adultery¹⁶" 11
- 2B.¹⁷ And they¹⁸ were bringing children¹⁹ to Him in order that He might touch^I them. But the disciples rebuked^K them²⁰ 13

- 1D. And the one said to Him, "Teacher, I kept³³ these all from my youth"³⁴ 20

1. Writing to Gentiles, Mark does not include the distinction between "command" and "permit" in Mt 19:7-8, nor the issue of proper grounds. He gives a more general summary of the words of Jesus. He also includes the application to wives in v 12, bringing out this aspect which Matthew omitted (because Matthew was writing to Jews, whose wives were not permitted to divorce their husbands, although they could ask to be divorced by their husbands). On this word, see 1 Tim 2:12.
2. On this word, see Mt 5:31. Moses "permitted" divorce with a certificate of divorce, which was to protect the woman and allow her to remarry. Moses implied this permission when he referred to the certificate of divorce while commanding something else. He "commanded" that the first husband could not remarry his former wife if she married and was divorced by a second husband. See Deut 24:1-4.
3. Or, "with regard to, with reference to". GK 4639.
4. On this word, see 16:14. Same word as Mt 19:8.
5. Some manuscripts say "God" {B}. God made "man" as "male and female", a pair, Gen 1:26-27.
5. That is, because God made them to be a complimentary pair.
7. Or, "united, adhered, glued". Elsewhere only in Eph 5:31. GK 4681. Related to the word in Mt 19:5; 1 Cor 6:16.
3. Some manuscripts omit "and will be joined to his wife" {C}.
2. This is an idiom, literally, "the two will be for one flesh". It reflects a Hebrew way of speaking.
10. Or, "a human". This is not the word for "husband". It means "man" (any person, male or female), or, "a man" (a male, as in v 7). The command applies to both the man and the woman in v 11-12. So Jesus means "a person", though the Pharisees would have taken Him to mean "a man". On this word, see "mankind" in Mt 4:4.
11. On this word, see Mt 19:6. Jesus is not fully addressing the question of divorce here, but is giving the meaning of marriage from God's point of view. God made them to be joined in pairs, and it is not His will that the husband send away his wife. This is His plan and intention. God made marriage, not divorce. In specific cases, other factors must be considered, and other principles of God, as Paul does in the case in 1 Cor 7:12-15.
12. Compare also Lk 16:18; Mt 5:32.
13. Mt 5:32 adds that this husband makes his wife commit adultery also, and the man marrying her.
14. Some think Jesus had Herodias (see Mt 14:3 on her) in mind here.
15. Some manuscripts say, "And if a wife sends away her husband, and is married to another"; others, "And if a wife goes out from her husband and marries another" {N}.
16. On this word in v 11, 12, see Mt 5:32b. Related to the word in v 19.
17. Parallel account at Mt 19:13; Lk 18:15.
18. That is, "people", a general reference.
19. This is the same word used of the twelve-year-old in 5:41. It has as broad a meaning as the English word "child". On this word, see 1 Jn 2:14. Luke uses the word "babies" in Lk 18:15, and this word in 18:16. Since this was not an organized event, perhaps there was a range of ages.
20. That is, the ones bringing them. Some manuscripts say "were rebuking the ones bringing them" {A}.
21. Used only here of Jesus. See Mt 20:24 on this word, and compare what provoked this in others.
22. Some manuscripts say "And do not..." {K}.
23. That is, it belongs to such ones as these, childlike ones, whether physically children or adults. Children and their faith are the model of the kind of faith all believers—children and adults—must have to enter. See Mt 19:14.
24. Some think Jesus means "like one would receive a child", with open arms, joyfully; others, "like a child would receive it", humbly, dependently, trustingly, as in Mt 18:3-4. Children readily accept gifts.
25. Or, "by no means". On this idiom, see 13:2.
26. Or, "calling down blessings on" them, "blessing them one after another". Used only here, and a rare word. GK 2986. Some manuscripts have the normal word {N}, the related word in Lk 6:28.
27. Some manuscripts say "He was laying His hands on them and blessing them" {N}.
28. Parallel account at Mt 19:16; Lk 18:18.
29. Or, "to, into". GK 1650.
30. Or, "journey, way". Mark may mean it in a more specific sense, "to the road" from wherever Jesus was staying; or in a more general sense, "on the journey". GK 3847. Using a different word, he says "on the road" in v 32.
31. On this answer, see Lk 18:19.
32. On this word, see 1 Cor 6:7. Some manuscripts omit "do not defraud" {A}.
33. Same word, but different grammar than Mt 19:20 and Lk 18:21. On this word, see 12:25. This word is in the OT with this grammar in Num 9:23; Josh 22:3; and with the grammar used in Matthew and Luke in Gen 26:5; 2 Sam 22:22; 2 King 18:6; Job 23:11; Ps 119:55, 168.
34. This is an honest and truthful statement from this man's point of view, defining the commands as the Jews did (as external requirements). Yet it is not enough. He still felt he had a lack, a need. Note what Paul says in Phil 3:6.
35. Some think this means Jesus embraced the man, or "kissed" him (as this word is used in Mt 26:48); others, that He was fond of him. In any case, He expressed His love to him by speaking the following words to him in an attempt to draw him closer.
36. On this word, see "be in need" in Lk 15:14. Same word as in Mt 19:20.
37. Based on what is said, this one thing appears to be a single-minded devotion to God.
38. Some manuscripts omit this word {C}, so that it says "to poor ones". An example of this is in Act 4:34-35.
39. Some manuscripts add "having taken up the cross" {A}.
40. Or, "gloomy, sad". On this word, see "lowering" in Mt 16:3. The man's appearance took on a gloomy, lowering look.
41. On this word, see Mt 19:22. Compare Lk 18:23.
42. On this word, see "with difficulty" in Mt 19:23.
43. Or, "money, means". Same word as in Lk 18:24. Elsewhere only as "money" in Act 4:37; 8:18, 20; 24:26. GK 5975.
44. Wealth was considered to be a sign of blessing from God. Jesus says it is a hindrance to entering the kingdom, a shocking statement to the disciples. On this word, see 1:27.

1. Used only here. GK 1551. Related to "difficultly" in v 23.
2. Some manuscripts say "it is that the ones having trusted on wealth should enter into..." {B}.
3. Or, "perforation". Used only here. GK 5584. Matthew (19:24), Mark and Luke (18:25) each use a different word, none of which are related to our English idiom "eye".

1. Parallel account at Mt 20:29; Lk 18:35. Compare Mt 9:27-31.
2. Outside of Jesus and the apostles, only Simon (15:21) is so explicitly named in Mark. This man is only named in Mark. He may have been or become known to Mark. Some think this may be why Mark mentions only one of the blind men. Mt 20:30 mentions two; Lk 18:35, one. The fact that only one is detailed in Mark and Luke does not mean only one was healed. GK 5505.
3. Some manuscripts say "a blind one, was sitting beside the road, begging" {N}.
4. More literally, "is", as the Greek typically phrases it.
5. On this word, see 1:24. Some manuscripts say "the Nazarene" {N}, on which see Mt 2:23.
6. This is a name for Messiah. See Mt 9:27 on it.
7. On this word, see "be still" in 4:39. Same word as in Mt 20:31.
8. Or, "stood [still]". GK 2705.
9. Some manuscripts say "Jesus said that he should be called" {N}.
10. Used only here. GK 403. Some manuscripts say "having arisen" {K}, using the common word in 10:1.
11. More literally, "what do you want that I should do".
12. Or, "My rabbi, My master". This is a transliterated Hebrew word elsewhere only in Jn 20:16, where John translates it, "teacher". GK 4808. Related to "Rabbi" in Mt 23:7.
13. Some manuscripts say "Jesus" {N}.
14. Parallel account at Mt 21:1; Lk 19:29; Jn 12:12.
15. Or, "no one from mankind, none of humanity". That is, no human. This idiom is elsewhere only in Lk 19:30; 1 Tim 6:16; Jam 3:8. Related to "any of mankind" in Act 4:17. In all cases, "mankind" is plural, on which see Mt 4:4.
16. Instead of this referring to Jesus Himself, some think Jesus means "the lord", that is, the owner of the animal.
17. Or, "will send, is going to send". The present tense verb is given a future sense by the context. Some manuscripts say "will send it here" {B}.
18. Or, "again". Some take this phrase "and... here" as part of what they are to say, assuring the owner that the animal will be returned. Others take it as the comment of Jesus, as in Mt 21:3 (which does not have this word), "say 'The Lord has need of it'. And immediately...". The one questioning you "immediately sends it back here" with you. Some manuscripts omit this word {B}, so that it says "sends it here".
19. Some manuscripts say "the" colt, and "the" door {N}.
20. Some manuscripts say "brought" {N}.
21. Or, "leaves, straw". Used of the kind of material stuffed into a mattress. Used only here. GK 5115.
22. Some manuscripts instead say "And others were cutting leafy-branches from the trees, and spreading them in the road" {N}, similar to Mt 21:8.
23. On this word, see Mt 8:29. Some manuscripts add, "saying" {N}.
24. This is a participle, "having been blessed", as also in v 10. On this word, see Lk 6:28.
25. These people viewed Jesus as the prophesied King (as in Lk 19:38) who would establish His kingdom on earth.
26. Some manuscripts say "the kingdom of our father David coming in the name of the Lord" {K}.
27. On this phrase, see Mt 21:9.
28. Parallel account at Mt 21:10.
29. Some manuscripts say "Jesus" {K}.
30. Or, "evening", that is, either before or after sundown. Used only here. GK 4070.
31. In the time scheme noted in Jn 12:1, this would be Sunday night (as we call it).
32. Parallel account at Mt 21:18.
33. This would then be Monday morning.
34. More literally, "will", as the Greek typically phrases it.
35. This is symbolic of Israel in that day. Jesus finds no figs because it was not the season for figs. The King comes to His people Israel and finds them not ready, not ripe, not in season. They have the appearance of life, but they have no fruit, which is seen in their rejection of Him. To Israel, this was not the "season" for Messiah. But if now was not the season for Messiah, with their King standing in their presence, when would it be? Jesus faults the tree—that is, Israel—and curses it.
36. Some manuscripts say "Jesus" {K}.
37. Compare Mt 21:19. This cursing is symbolic of what was coming. The kingdom was taken from them and given to others, Mk 12:9; Mt 21:43. Their nation was destroyed. Thus the last miracle of Jesus in Mark before His death is one of destruction, a kind of parable of what was coming upon those about to kill Him. This is an idiom, "into the age", on which see Rev 20:10.

12. In place of this sentence, some manuscripts say "If you have faith in God, truly..." {B}.
13. Some manuscripts say "For truly" {N}. On "truly", see Mt 5:18.

17. Or, "wisely". Used only here. GK 3807. Related to "mind".
18. Parallel account at Mt 22:41; Lk 20:41.
19. As in Mt 22:44. Some manuscripts say "as a footstool of your feet" {C}, as in Lk 20:43; Act 2:35; Heb 1:13.
20. Some manuscripts say "Therefore, David..." {N}.
21. Jesus wants His listeners to reconsider their understanding of this matter, because there is something contained in this paradox about David that they have not fully understood. If the Messiah is David's Lord, how can He be his distant physical descendant? If He is David's superior, how can He be his son? Jesus is God's Son (David's Lord); and Mary's Son (David's descendant).
22. Parallel account at Mt 23:1; Lk 20:45.
23. Same phrase as 6:20, where Herod listened to John with pleasure, before he killed him.
24. On this word, see Col 2:18. Same word as in Lk 20:46. Mt 3:6 uses the word "love".
25. The grammar is unusual. Instead of two parallel descriptions of these scribes, Jesus may intend these to be two independent statements. In this case, point 1C. would be "Beware of the scribes—the ones delighting... banquets". Point 2C. would be rendered "The ones devouring the houses of the widows and praying long for a pretense—these ones will receive greater condemnation".
26. Or, "consuming, eating up". Same word as in Lk 15:30; 20:47; 2 Cor 11:20; Gal 5:15; Rev 11:5; 12:4; 20:9. Elsewhere only as "eat up" in Mt 13:4; Mk 4:4; Lk 8:5; Rev 10:9, 10; and "consume" in Jn 2:17. GK 2983.
27. That is, taking financial advantage of widows based on "spiritual" pretexts. Same phrase as in Lk 20:47.
28. That is, for a falsely alleged motive. On this word, see Phil 1:18. These scribes use prayer to gain favor with people.
29. Parallel account at Lk 21:1.
30. Same word as later in the verse and in v 43. It can refer generally to the temple treasury, or more specifically to the receptacles into which offerings were thrown. There were thirteen such receptacles in the temple, shaped like trumpets. Elsewhere only in Lk 21:1; Jn 8:20. GK 1126. Related to the word in Act 8:27.
31. Some manuscripts say "Jesus" {B}.
32. That is, Jesus was observing this category of behavior, the manner in which the crowd gives offerings when they throw their money into the treasury. His focus is on how they give, not how they physically threw the money. Note the three different tenses of "throw" in v 41-42.
33. That is, two thin copper Jewish coins. This is the smallest denomination of Jewish coinage. Elsewhere only in Lk 12:59; 21:2. GK 3321. Two leptos made a quadrans, four quadrans made an assarion (see Mt 10:29). Sixteen assarion made a denarius (see Mt 20:2). So a leptos is 128th of a denarius, of one day's wages for a laborer.
34. This is the smallest denomination of Roman coin. Elsewhere only in Mt 5:26. GK 3119.
35. Some manuscripts say "has thrown" {N}, making this the fourth tense used with this word in v 41-43.
36. Some think Jesus means more than any one of them; others, more than all of them together.
37. Or, "overflowing, being left over". These people gave from their excess. On this word, see 2 Cor 8:2.
38. Or, "lack, want". The widow gave out of what was already not enough for her. Elsewhere only in Phil 4:11. GK 5730. Related to "be in need" in Lk 15:14.
39. Same word as in Lk 21:4.
40. Parallel account at Mt 24:1; Lk 21:5.
41. On this word, see "what kind of" in 1 Jn 3:1. Based on the context, it means here "how great" or "how wonderful". Compare Lk 21:5.
42. Some manuscripts say "And having responded, Jesus..." {N}.
43. Some manuscripts omit this word {B}.
44. This phrase "by no means, by any means, never" is an emphatic negative, the strongest in Greek. Jesus uses it twice in this verse. Used by Mark in 9:1, 41; 10:15; 13:2, 19, 30, 31; 14:25, 31; 16:18. See "never" in Gal 5:16.

1. Or, "be". On this word, see Mt 16:22.
2. Or, "carried out, fulfilled, completed, consummated, brought to an end, concluded". Related to "conclusion" in Mt 24:3. Some think "these things" refers to the prophecy in v 2, and "all these things" is a physical reference to "all these buildings". In this case, this is rendered "about to be brought to an end". Others think "these things" refers to v 2, and "all these things" refers to the totality of events surrounding the one mentioned in v 2. In this case, it is rendered "accomplished, fulfilled, carried out", and refers to the same thing as "conclusion of the age" in Mt 24:3. Elsewhere only as "complete" in Lk 4:2, 13; Act 21:27; Rom 9:28; and "consummate" in Heb 8:8. GK 5334.
3. On this phrase, "on the basis of My name", see Act 2:38.

8. In connecting this verse with the context, Lk 21:10 has been followed. Luke separates it from the preceding statements, and makes it the beginning of what follows.
9. Or, "be raised". Same word as in v 22 and Mt 24:7.
10. Same phrase as in Mt 24:7.
11. Some manuscripts add "and disturbances" {B}, using the word in Act 12:18.

27. This is the common word for "stand", used 155 times. It also means stand there; stand [firm]; stand [still]; stop; make stand, establish. GK 2705.
28. Or, "it". The grammar of "standing" implies "he" here, and does not agree with "abomination" (as it does in Mt 24:15). Some think this implies this is referring to a person. Others think the grammar is according to sense, and implies nothing about whether the abomination is a person. On the meaning of this, see Mt 24:15.
29. Or, "ought not to". On this idiom, see "ought to" in Act 25:10.

12. This Feast is mentioned elsewhere only in Mt 26:17; Mk 14:1; Lk 22:1, 7; Act 12:3; 20:6. It was established by God at the time of the Exodus. This eight-day Feast was sometimes simply called "Passover", as in Lk 22:1; Act 12:2, 4. The Law says God's people were to eat unleavened bread from the evening of the 14th of Nisan to the evening of the 21st (Ex 12:18; Lev 23:5); that the Passover lamb was to be sacrificed between 3 P.M. and dark on the 14th of Nisan (Ex 12:6); and that the meal was to be eaten that evening (Ex 12:8, on the 15th of Nisan, which began at sunset). Here in this verse, it is now Thursday. Mark says Jesus was removed from the cross before the Sabbath began (15:42) at sundown on Friday night (as we call it). He was crucified on Friday, the Preparation day (Mk 15:42; Lk 23:54, Jn 19:31) at the third hour (15:25), and died at the ninth hour (15:34). He had been delivered to Pilate "early in the morning" (15:1) on Friday, having been betrayed the night before, Thursday night (as we call it). He "ate the Passover with His disciples" (14:14) that Thursday "evening" (14:17, as we call it), just before His betrayal. Thus here, Thursday afternoon, "they were sacrificing the Passover [lamb]" in preparation for the evening meal. Compare Jn 18:28; 19:31. On the chronological issues regarding this week, consult the commentaries. Elsewhere only as "unleavened" in 1 Cor 5:7, 8. GK 109.

15. This idiom "for what purpose" is elsewhere only in 14:4; Mt 14:31; 26:8. Not the same word as in Mt 27:46, but the same idea. Jesus is quoting Ps 22:1. In some unfathomable way, the One receiving judgment for our sin experiences a previously unknown kind of separation from the Father, and cries out to Him.
16. Some manuscripts omit this word {C}.
17. On this word, see 4:37. Not the same word as in Mt 27:48 (GK 4398).

In both places, others render this as an exclamation, "Hold off", or, "Wait". Others combine this and "Let us see" into one expression, "Let us see". Here, some think a bystander giving Jesus a drink is telling the other mocking bystanders to leave Him alone and see what happens. Others think it is spoken to the soldiers by a bystander, "Permit [me to give Him a drink]. Let us see...". There are other views.

13. Some think that this ending was written by Mark, based on the fact that most manuscripts have this ending and on other evidence. Others think the two oldest manuscripts, which omit verses 9-20, along with other evidence, indicate that this ending is not original. This is the view taken by UBS4, which marks this ending as not an original part of Mark's text, but as very ancient. This view suggests that either Mark intended to end at v 8, or he never finished his Gospel, or the last page was lost. Then this ending was composed by someone else and added to Mark's work.
14. That is, before 6 A.M. Same word as in v 2.
15. Used only here with "week". Not the same word as in v 2. Same word as in "first" day of Unleavened Bread, 14:12. GK 4754. The word "first" in verse 2 (GK 1651) is the one used in the other six occurrences of "first day of the week" in the NT.

27. Or, "called out". Used only here. GK 430.
28. This is a participle, "having been blessed, having received a blessing", both times in this verse. The root word means "spoken well of", but here it means blessed by God. On this word, see 6:28.
29. Or, "from where, how". GK 4470.
30. Elizabeth is explaining how she knew that Mary was "the mother of my Lord". The Spirit caused the baby to leap, and revealed to her the reason why the baby leaped. Note that she called Mary's unborn baby her Lord.
31. Same word as in v 14. On this word, see Jude 24.
32. Or, "happy, fortunate". Not related to the word in v 42. On this word, see 6:20.
33. Or, "because". Some think Elizabeth blesses Mary, who "believed that" it will happen (in contrast with Zechariah in v 18); whose response was belief. Others, think Elizabeth is prophesying that these things will come to pass, "... having believed, because there will be a fulfillment...", giving further assurance from God to Mary. GK 4022.
34. Or, "completion". On this word, see "perfection" in Heb 7:11.
35. Or, "makes great". On this word, see "enlarge" in 2 Cor 10:15. In Latin, this word is Magnificat, which has become a name for this "magnification" of God by Mary.
36. This word is related to "gladness" in v 44. On this word, see 10:21. Some think the change to a past tense in this verb means Mary is referring specifically here to the angel's visit and announcement. Others think this verb has a timeless sense, and means "rejoices greatly", parallel with "magnifies".

1. God looked with favor upon Mary in her humble status as a carpenter's bride. On this word, see Jam 1:10.
2. This verb, "to consider blessed, fortunate", is elsewhere only in Jam 5:11. GK 3420. Related to "blessed" in v 45. People will no longer consider Mary as a lowly one, but as a most fortunate recipient of God's favor.
3. Others make this "because" phrase point 2D., parallel with the first "because" phrase.
4. Or, "Strong, Mighty". On this word, see 24:19. Related to the word Jesus used of God in Mt 26:64, "Power".
5. Or, "toward, for, in". GK 1650. Same words as in "mercy to" thousands, Ex 20:6; 34:7; Deut 5:10; Jer 32:18.
6. Some manuscripts say "to generations of generations"; others, "to generation and generation" {N}. On this word, see Mt 24:34.
7. Not related to "Powerful" in v 49. This noun is singular. Rendered as here, this refers to this mighty deed God did in Mary and through Mary, moving from a self view in 1D., to a God view in 2D., to a deed view here. Others render it in more general terms, "He exercised strength", "He showed strength", "He performed mighty deeds", detailed in the phrases following. This phrase "to do a mighty deed, to show strength", does not occur elsewhere in the Greek Bible, but is similar to "show mercy" in v 72. On this word, see "might" in Eph 6:10.
8. Some think that in what follows Mary is speaking of what God has accomplished in the past, detailing His mercy to the generations, v 50 (making this point 1E.); others, of what He did in choosing her, speaking in generalized terms; others, of what He will do through the Messiah, of the far reaching future meaning of what He did to her, of the mighty thing which has only begun in her. In this view, she is speaking of what she knows will happen through Him as if it has already happened (some view this as speaking prophetically, like v 68; others, in this case, as speaking out and claiming the Messianic hope she cherished with others based on Scripture).
9. Or, "proud, haughty". On this word, see Jam 4:6.
10. Or, "understanding, mind, way of thinking, disposition". Same word as in Eph 2:3. Elsewhere only as "mind" in Mt 22:37; Mk 12:30; Lk 10:27; Col 1:21; Heb 8:10; 10:16; 1 Pet 1:13; 2 Pet 3:1; and "understanding" in Eph 4:18; 1 Jn 5:20. GK 1379. Related to "mind" in Rom 7:23.
11. On this word, see "court official" in Act 8:27.
12. Or, "humble". On this word, see Jam 1:9. Related to "lowliness" in v 48.
13. Others would make this point 4D.
14. That is, "keep in mind" (not forget) mercy, in keeping with His promise to bless Abraham and his descendants forever. This God has done by now sending the Messiah. This word is used elsewhere of the Father only in v 72; Act 10:31; Heb 2:6; 8:12; 10:17; Rev 16:19. Same word as in Lk 23:42; 1 Cor 11:2; Heb 13:3; 2 Pet 3:2; Jude 17. Elsewhere this word has the sense of "recall to mind", as in Lk 16:25; 24:6, 8. Used 23 times. GK 3630. A related word is used of God in Rev 18:5.
15. This is the Greek word order of v 54-55. It could also be punctuated "remember mercy for Abraham and his seed forever, just as He spoke to our fathers". In either case, "spoke" has the sense of "promised". This word is an idiom, "into the age". See Rev 20:10.
16. One would naturally presume Luke means that she remained until the birth of the baby (six months in v 36 plus three here), but he holds the announcement of the birth until his next unit of thought in v 57.
17. Or, "ones living around" her. Used only here. GK 4341. The related verb "live around" is in v 65.
18. Same word as in v 46.
19. Or, "were going to call him". Either the people at the ceremony were referring to the baby by this name (that is, prior to or during the ceremony), or they expressed their intention to call him by this name as part of the ceremony. In any case, Elizabeth stopped them. On this word, which is also in v 60, 61, and 62, see Rom 8:30.
20. That is, with their hands. Used only here. GK 1935. Related to the word in v 22.
21. Or, "speaking well of, praising". On this word, see 6:28.
22. Or, "fear". On this word, see "fear" in Eph 5:21.
23. Or, "came-about, came-to-be". GK 1181.
24. Or, "talked through, talked about, discussed". Elsewhere only in 6:11. GK 1362.
25. Some think this sentence is part of the quotation of what people were saying, and refers to the circumstances of John's birth (1:8-25). What will this baby become, for God's hand was certainly with him in his birth. Others think this is Luke's comment. Some manuscripts say "And the hand of the Lord..." {N}.
26. On this word, see 1 Cor 14:1. Zechariah spoke revelation from God.
27. This is an adjective, related to the verb in v 64. On this word, see Rom 9:5.
28. Or, "the Lord, the God of Israel".
29. Same word as in v 78; 7:16. On this word, see "look after" in Heb 2:6.
30. Or, "made, brought about". Zechariah is speaking prophetically, as if the future were already past. On this word, see "does" in Rev 13:13.
31. Same word as in 2:38. On this noun, see Heb 9:12.
32. Zechariah is referring to Jesus as a horn of salvation, a strong one bringing salvation. "Horn" represents strength or power in an OT metaphor, Ps 132:17, 2 Sam 22:3; Ps 18:2. Used 11 times. GK 3043.
33. Or, "from long ago, from of old". There had not been a prophet in centuries. Same phrase as in Act 3:21; 15:18. Some take "age" in an absolute sense, and paraphrase this "since the world began". Elsewhere only plural, "from the past ages", in Eph 3:9; Col 1:26. GK 172.
34. Or, "deal mercifully with, show kindness to". This phrase "show mercy to" is an idiom, literally "do mercy with", and is found in Lk 10:37; Jam 2:13; and in Gen 24:12; Jdg 1:24; Ruth 1:8; 1 Sam 15:6; 20:8; 2 Sam 3:8; 9:1; 10:2; 1 King 3:6; Jer 32:18, etc. This implies the fathers are living. God raised up a horn of salvation so as to show mercy to the fathers by at last carrying out His promises to them, and so as to be mindful of the covenant He swore to them.
35. That is, in Gen 22:16-18. God swore that all the nations of the earth will be blessed in Abraham. On this word, see Jam 5:12.
36. Or, "rescued". On this word, see Col 1:13.

1. Or, "worshipping". On this word, see "worship" in Heb 12:28.
2. Some think v 71-75 mean Zechariah was expecting the earthy Messianic kingdom promised to Israel in which the Messiah comes with salvation and conquers the enemies of Israel, thus bringing spiritual and national salvation. Others think it refers only to spiritual salvation. Some manuscripts say "all the days of our life" {N}.
3. Some manuscripts omit this word {K}.
4. Some think Zechariah means the Most High, v 76; others, the Messiah, the rising Sun, v 78. Compare v 17.
5. Or, "paths". Same words as in 3:4, "Prepare the way of the Lord".
6. John will go before the Lord for the purpose of giving the knowledge of salvation to His people, a salvation which the Lord will bring (the One for whom he was preparing), a salvation by forgiveness based on the mercy of God.

21. Or, "enrolled, listed" on a census roll. Same word as in v 3, 5. Elsewhere only in Heb 12:23. GK 616.
22. Or, "This registration, a first, took place", the Greek word order. Or, "This was the first registration while...". This seems to have been around 4-5 B.C., and administered by King Herod at the insistence of Rome. Its purpose was to determine how much tribute Judea would pay to Rome. Luke mentions a census again in Act 5:37. That one was in A.D. 6 after Archelaus (see Mt 2:22) had been deposed and Judea was put directly under Roman rule. Some think that was a second census; others, Rome taking over what Herod had begun. Consult the commentaries.
23. Or, "enrollment, listing, census". Elsewhere only in Act 5:37. GK 615. Related to "register" in v 1.

29. On this word, see Eph 3:15. It emphasizes Joseph's link to David, his ancestor.
30. It is uncertain whether Mary was required to go in Herod's arrangement. Some think she went because she and Joseph knew the prophecy, and saw the census as God's hand directing her to go. Others think she went without respect to the prophecy, in the providence of God.
31. Some manuscripts say "wife" {N}.
32. Luke refers to Mary this way because although Joseph had taken her as his wife, they had not consummated the marriage, Mt 1:24-25. He is alluding to the fact that her child was not Joseph's child. On this word, see Mt 1:18.

3. Some manuscripts add "Philip" {N}, as in Mt 14:3; Mk 6:17.
3. Some manuscripts omit this word, {C}.
10. Parallel account at Mt 3:13; Mk 1:9. Compare Jn 1:29-34.
11. More literally, "at the being baptized as to all the people". That is, at the time when John baptized all the people. It is a general reference to that period of time. Some think Luke means that Jesus came last on this day, "after all the people were baptized". On this word, see Mk 1:8.
12. That is, having a body with an outward appearance similar to a dove. Elsewhere only in 1 Tim 4:8. GK 5394. Related to "body" in Eph 1:23.
13. Or, "outward appearance". On this word, see "appearance" in 2 Cor 5:7.
14. Some manuscripts add "saying" {K}.
15. On "I was well pleased", see Mt 17:5.
16. Compare the genealogy at Mt 1:1.
17. But actually the son of Mary. This is the Greek word order. Some think this is Mary's genealogy, Heli being her father. Others think this is Joseph's personal genealogy, as opposed to his legal, royal genealogy in Mt 1. See Mt 1:16. There are other views. On this word, see "think" in Act 14:19.
18. Some manuscripts say "Salmon" {B}.
19. Some manuscripts have the last three names as "Adam, Admin, Armi"; others, as "Aminadab, Admin, Aram"; others, as "Aminadab, Aram, Joram"; others as two names, "Aminadab, Aram" (as in Mt 1:3-4) {C}.
20. Parallel account at Mt 4:1; Mk 1:12.
21. This word means "to lead, bring", and "to go" (see Mk 1:38). Used 69 times. GK 72.
22. Or, "by, in union with". GK 1877. Same word as in v 14. Not the same word as "by" the devil in v 2, or as "by" the Spirit in Mt 4:1.
23. GK 1877. Some manuscripts say "into" {N}, as in Mt 4:1 (GK 1650).
24. Or, "tested". On this word, see Heb 2:18. Some think this means Jesus endured temptations throughout the forty days, in addition to the ones mentioned next, which Luke and Matthew say were afterward.
25. That is, the forty days.
26. Or, "concluded, finished, ended". On this word, see "accomplished" in Mk 13:4. Some manuscripts add "afterward" {K}, as in Mt 4:2.
27. Or, "Since". The grammar assumes the truth of this premise. Same in v 9. Assuming that You are what God said You are (3:22), prove it with Your power (v 3), or His power (v 9). See Mt 4:3 on this.
28. Or, "The man, The person". On this word, see Mt 4:4.
29. Some manuscripts add "but on every word of God" {B}, similar to Mt 4:4.

1. Matthew and Luke reverse the order of the second and third temptations. Luke progresses geographically up to a climax in Jerusalem. Matthew may progress chronologically. Some manuscripts say "And the devil, having led Him up to a high mountain, showed..." {N}, similar to Mt 4:8.
2. On this word, see Heb 2:5. Mt 4:8 uses GK 3180.
3. Or, "instant". Used only here. GK 5117.
4. Or, "pay homage". Same word as in v 8. On this word, see Mt 14:33.
5. Some manuscripts say "Get behind Me Satan. It..." {N}.
6. Or, "guard carefully". Used only here. GK 1428.
7. In Luke, Satan quotes Ps 91:11 and 12 separately. Mt 4:6 combines them into a single quote
8. On the verb "put to the test", and the meaning of this, see Mt 4:7.
9. Same word as in v 2.
10. The three temptations mentioned are just samples. On this word, see "trials" in Jam 1:2.
11. Parallel account at Mt 4:12; Mk 1:14. Compare Jn 4:1-3.
12. Same word as in Mt 9:26.
13. Same word as in Lk 2:20; 5:25, 26; 7:16; 13:13; 17:15; 18:43; 23:47. On this word, see Rom 8:30.
14. Compare Mt 13:53-58; Mk 6:1-6; Jn 4:43-44.
15. Some think this is the same visit described at Mt 13:53; Mk 6:1, typically placed first by Luke to highlight the key issue of the ministry of Jesus (faith in Him and His message) and His rejection. Note that the second main section of the book also begins with a rejection, 9:52-56. Others think there were two separate visits to Nazareth, and that this one occurred before Jesus left Nazareth in Mt 4:13.
16. Or, "had grown up". This is a participle, "He was having been brought up". On this word, see "feed" in 23:29.
17. Same phrase as in Act 17:2. Elsewhere only as "be accustomed" in Mt 27:15; Mk 10:1. GK 1665. Related to "custom" in Lk 1:9. Some think Luke is referring to the lifelong custom of Jesus attending on the Sabbath; others, to His custom at this time in His ministry of standing to read and speak out to the people in their synagogues, v 15, 31.
18. Some manuscripts say "opened" {B}. Used only here, as is "roll up" in v 20. Scrolls were "unrolled". Books in leaf form like our books (they are called a "codex") were "opened". The synagogue would have had a scroll. GK 408.
19. This is a participle, where "it was having been written".
20. This is the verb related to "Christ", "the anointed One". Elsewhere only in Act 4:27; 10:38; 2 Cor 1:21; Heb 1:9. GK 5987. Related to "smear on" in Jn 9:6; and "rub in" in Rev 3:18. Compare "Messiah" in Jn 1:41.
21. This is the Greek word order. Some punctuate this "anointed Me. He has sent me out to announce good news to poor ones", making "to announce good news to poor ones" point 1E., parallel with the three that follow.
22. Some manuscripts add "to heal the ones having been broken as to the heart" {A}, as in Isa 61:1.
23. On this word, see "forgiveness" in Col 1:14.
24. Or, "prisoners". Used only here. GK 171. Related to the two words in Eph 4:8.
25. Same word as earlier in the verse. Jesus was sent out to send out others. On this word, see Mk 3:14.
26. Or, "shattered", whether in spirit or body. Used only here. GK 2575. Used of "breaking" pottery. Compare Mt 5:3-4.
27. Or, "favorable, welcome". It is the Lord's favored year for them at last. Same word as in v 24. Elsewhere only in Act 10:35; 2 Cor 6:2; Phil 4:18. GK 1283.
28. That is, sat down to teach, facing them all from the front. In that day, teachers stood to read, sat to teach.
29. Elsewhere only in Lk 22:56; Act 1:10; 3:4, 12; 6:15; 7:55; 10:4; 11:6; 13:9; 14:9; 23:1; 2 Cor 3:7, 13. GK 867.
30. This may indicate that Jesus spoke at length, this verse giving only a summary of what He said.
31. That is, Jesus is here, sent by God to proclaim and do these things. He is the answer to this prophecy.
32. That is, bearing witness to the good things Jesus had said and done, particularly to the miracles.
33. Or, "gracious words", words characterized by grace. Some think Luke is referring to the winsome and attractive words of Jesus in general; others, more specifically, to the words of healing and forgiveness referred to in v 18. In any case, they were words not expected from one such as Joseph's son, and are in contrast to the words of rejection Jesus speaks next in v 24-27.
34. The first response of the people in Nazareth to Jesus is positive. They initially praise Him, and marvel at His speaking and at what He has become, but they do not believe Him.
35. Some take this as another statement of the initial positive response. Luke gives no indication it is negative. This question indicates a hometown pride that Jesus was one of them. The famous prophet from Capernaum was their local boy. The grammar indicates that a "yes" answer is expected. In this case, the fuller negative response quoted in Matthew and Mark comes a little later. Others take this as Luke's summary of the negative response quoted more fully in Matthew and Mark. This is their justification for rejecting Him.
36. Or, "by all means, certainly, doubtless". On this word, see 1 Cor 9:10.
37. On this word, see "parable" in Mt 13:3. Here it means "figurative saying, proverb".
38. Since this is related to "heal" (in Mt 8:8), it could be rendered "Healer, cure Yourself". GK 2620.
39. Some think Jesus means "Repair your own status with us" by doing these things here. Prove You are what You just claimed to be in v 18-19. Others think it is explained by what follows, "Give Your medicine to Your own people". You will surely ask Me to heal you as I did them.
40. Same word as in v 24. On this word, see "homeland" in Heb 11:14.
41. On this word, see Mt 5:18. Not related to "truth". It is usually translated "amen". Elsewhere by Luke only in 12:37; 18:17, 29; 21:32; 23:43. Compare "truly" in 9:27.
42. Or, "welcome". On this word, see v 19. Therefore, even if Jesus did the same miracles He did in Capernaum, He would still not be acceptable to them, due to their unbelief.
43. This phrase, "in accordance with truth" (either God's truth, or true reality) is elsewhere only in Mk 12:14, 32; Lk 20:21; 22:59; Act 4:27; 10:34. As the OT shows, a prophet is not a miracle worker sent to heal everyone having a need. The miracle is not the message, but a sign pointing to the source of the message, God. Jesus was not sent to do miracles for them simply because they are His hometown folk, but to announce the good news, v 43. His miracles are intended to produce the reaction seen next in v 36, but this was not possible here, due to their unbelief.

1. See 2 King 5:1-14.
2. The two OT examples are both cases of doing a miracle for a Gentile, rather than for unbelieving Israel. Jesus is classing these Jews of His hometown with unbelieving Israel in the days of Elijah and Elisha.
3. Jesus rebuffs His hometown people, and their heart is exposed in their actions, proving that He was right about them.
4. This verb, "to throw down the cliff" is used only here. GK 2889.
5. Luke gives no indication of how this happened. Perhaps Jesus rebuked them. Perhaps the Spirit restrained them. Jesus walked through the crowd and went on His way. GK 1451.
6. Parallel account at Mk 1:21.
7. Or, "word". Same word as in v 36. On this word, see "word" in 1 Cor 12:8.
8. Mark calls it an "unclean spirit" (Mk 1:23), a phrase used 23 times in the NT. "Demon" occurs 62 times in the NT (see 1 Cor 10:20). The phrases "spirit of an unclean demon" and "unclean demon" are used only here. "Spirit" and "demon" are used together in a phrase elsewhere only in Rev 16:14, "spirits of demons". Since pagans used this word to refer to gods and deities (as in Act 17:18), "unclean" is added to make the meaning clear.
9. Some manuscripts add "saying" {K}.
10. Some think this is the word "Ah", a scream, a word used only here (GK 1568). Others think it is the command "let us alone", from the word "permit" in 1 Cor 10:13.
11. This is an idiom, literally, "What [is there] for us and for You". On this idiom, see Jn 2:4.
12. On the verb "to throw down", see "throw forth" in Mt 9:36.
13. Or, "word". Same word as in v 32. It could be referring broadly to the message Jesus was proclaiming, or narrowly to the word spoken to cast out this demon.
14. Or, "report". This word refers to the "sound" coming from whatever is in the context; here, from the people reacting to Jesus. Elsewhere only as "noise" in Act 2:2; and "blast" in Heb 12:19. GK 2491. Our word "echo" comes from this word. Related to "roar" in 21:25.
15. Parallel account at Mt 8:14, 16; Mk 1:29.
16. Or, "held under the control of, ruled", in a negative sense, "afflicted". Same word as in Mt 4:24.
17. That is, after the sun went down, ending the Sabbath, but before dark. Elsewhere only in Mk 1:32. GK 1544.
18. On this word, see Act 22:23. Some manuscripts say "crying-out" {C}.
19. Some manuscripts say "... are the Christ, the Son..." {N}.
20. More literally, "is", as the Greek typically phrases it.
21. Parallel account at Mk 1:35.
22. On this word, see Phil 4:17. Related to "seeking" in Mk 1:37.
23. Or, "detaining Him". On this word, see "hold down" in Rom 1:18.

1. Or, "have to". On this idiom, see Mt 16:21.
2. The phrase "announcing the kingdom of God as good news" is similar to that in 8:1; 16:16; and Act 8:12. On the verb "announce as good news", see Act 5:42.
3. This idiom is used only here. GK 2093. Not the same word as Mk 1:38 (GK 1650).
4. This sentence is parallel to Mt 4:23; Mk 1:39. Some manuscripts say "Galilee" {B}.
5. Some manuscripts say "Him that they might listen to the word of God" {N}.
6. This word is the usual word "and", GK 2779. This construction, "and it came about... that", with this word meaning "that" in imitation of a Hebrew way of speaking, occurs only in Luke (Lk 5:1, 12, 17; 8:1, 22; 9:28, 51; 14:1; 17:11; 19:15; 24:4, 15; Act 11:26). Mt 9:10 is similar.
7. Luke always calls it a lake, never a "sea". Used 11 times. GK 3349.
8. That is, the Sea of Galilee. It is called such only here, the only place Luke names it. On this word, see Mk 6:53. See also "Tiberias" in Jn 6:1.
9. Some think v 2-11 is the same incident as in Mt 4:18-22; Mk 1:16-20; others, a different incident.
10. Same word as in v 1. Jesus stood "beside the lake" (on shore), the boats stood "beside the lake" (in the water).
11. This command is plural, for Simon's crew must help do this.
12. The root word means "to be set over, to stand over", and this word means "master, superintendent, captain, chief, commander, boss, supervisor, president, chairman, governor, etc". Elsewhere only in Luke 8:24, 45; 9:33, 49; 17:13, all addressing Jesus as here. GK 2181. Related to "know about" in Act 18:25. In parallel passages, Matthew says "Lord", and Mark says "Teacher" or "Rabbi". Not related to "master, lord" in v 8, or to "master, ruler" in 2:29.
13. Or, "upon, on the basis of". GK 2093.
14. The other boat was still on the shore. Used only here. GK 2916. "Waved down" is the idea here.
15. Some think Luke is referring to James and John, as in v 10; others, to hired hands. On this word, see "partakers" in Heb 3:1.
16. The grammar indicates that this refers to the boats.
17. On this word, which Luke uses over 200 times, see Mt 8:2. Same word as in v 12.
18. Same word as in 4:36.
19. Or, "caught, seized". On this word, see "conceived" in 2:21. Related to "took" in v 5.
20. Or, "sharers". Not the same word as in v 7. On this word, see "sharers" in 2 Pet 1:4.
21. Or, "catching alive, capturing". Related to "catch" in v 4, 9, with "alive" added. On this word, see 2 Tim 2:26.
22. This is the same word as "put in" in Act 27:3 and 28:12, but with different grammar. GK 2864.
23. Parallel account at Mt 8:2; Mk 1:40.
24. Same word as in v 1.

It may be translated "second after the first", or, "next to the first"—the "first" being some significant "first" Sabbath. Some suggest the "first" Sabbath is the Sabbath during Passover week, so that this means "the second Sabbath after Passover". Others conjecture that Luke originally wrote two words, the "second First" Sabbath, meaning the second Passover Sabbath of the ministry of Jesus, but that later scribes combined them into one word. Others think this word was not written by Luke, but is a blunder made by scribes copying the manuscript of Luke. There are other views.

This verb means "to speak well of, praise; to call down God's blessings on; to give a blessing or benefit to" (as when God "blesses" us). On blessing food, see Mt 14:19. Elsewhere only in Mt 14:19; 21:9; 23:39; 25:34; 26:26; Mk 6:41; 8:7; 11:9, 10; 14:22; Lk 1:42, 64; 2:28, 34; 9:16; 13:35; 19:38; 24:30, 50, 51, 53; Jn 12:13; Act 3:26; Rom 12:14; 1 Cor 4:12; 10:16; 14:16; Gal 3:9; Eph 1:3; Heb 6:14; 7:1, 6, 7; 11:20, 21; Jam 3:9; 1 Pet 3:9. GK 2328. Related to the adjective "blessed" in Rom 9:5, and the noun "blessing" in 2 Cor 9:5. All three words are used in Eph 1:3. Not related to "blessed" in v 20.
28. Same word as in Rom 12:14, where Paul repeats this saying.
29. Some manuscripts say "And be praying..." {K}.
30. Or, "abusing". On this word, see "maligning" in 1 Pet 3:16.
31. Same word as used of Christ in Mt 27:30, and Sosthenes in Act 18:17, and Paul in Act 23:2, 3. Elsewhere only in Mt 24:49; Mk 15:19; Lk 12:45; 18:13; 23:48; Act 18:17; 21:32; 1 Cor 8:12. GK 5597.

33. Or, "forbid [him], try to stop [him from taking]". On this word, see "forbidding" in 1 Cor 14:39.
34. That is, the inner garment worn next to the skin. In Mt 5:40, in a Jewish court setting, the order is reversed. The Jews sued for the tunic because they could not take the coat. Here, the setting is of a physical taking. If someone takes the more valuable outer coat, do not refuse to give them the inner tunic.
35. Compare Mt 7:12.
36. This command refers especially to enemies, as the context before and after shows, but generalizes to include all people.
37. More literally, "just as you want that people should be doing". GK 2671. For example, to love you, v 32; to do good to you, v 33; to lend to you, v 34; to be compassionate toward you, v 36.
38. Some manuscripts say "you also be doing" {B}.
39. Compare Mt 5:44-47.
40. The grammar of this statement assumes its reality—"assuming it is true that...". Jesus is explaining "love your enemies", v 27. Loving your friends is good, and human. But it does not make you like God, v 35.
41. Some manuscripts omit this word {C}, so that it says "And if you...". Jesus is explaining v 27b. There is human-like good doing, and there is God-like good doing.
42. Elsewhere only in Lk 6:9; 35; 1 Pet 2:15, 20; 3:6, 17; 3 Jn 11. GK 16. Related to "good-doing" in 1 Pet 4:19.
43. The grammar of this statement indicates that this is something you probably would do. Likewise with v 34.

1. Jesus is explaining "to everyone asking you— give", v 30. If you lend expecting repayment— with or without interest— do not expect a reward from God. It is simply a human business transaction. Same word as in v 35. Elsewhere only with different grammar as "borrow" in Mt 5:42. GK 1247. Related to "lender" in 7:41; and "loan" in Mt 18:27.
2. Or, "hoping". This word is normally translated "hope". On this word, see "put hope" in Jn 5:45. Related to the word in v 35.
3. Some manuscripts say "For even sinners..." {N}.
4. More literally, "to sinners [with the expectation] that they should receive-back...". GK 2671.
5. That is, receive back payment in full. This word is plural. On this word, see Phil 2:6.
6. Or, "hoping for nothing back", in contrast to the related word in v 34. The loving, doing good, and lending of v 32-34 all represent normal human behavior. Jesus is not condemning these things. He wants us as individuals to go beyond them, to do these things for His kingdom without thought of human reciprocation, looking only to Him for a reward. Note Lk 14:12-14. This can also be rendered "despairing nothing", not despairing about getting it back. Used only here. GK 594.
7. Some manuscripts have this word in a form that can mean "no one" {B}, "despairing as to no one".
8. That is, you will be like your heavenly Father because you will be doing what He does. You will bear a family resemblance to Him, as a son to a father. On this word, see Gal 3:7.
9. Or, "kind". On this word, see 1 Pet 2:3.
10. Or, "unthankful". Elsewhere only in 2 Tim 3:2. GK 940.
11. Compare Mt 5:48.
12. Or, "Become, Prove to be". GK 1181.
13. This is the general principle, and like v 31, it applies especially to enemies. It is assumed that one would do this for friends. On this adjective, see Jam 5:11. Some manuscripts say "Therefore become compassionate..." {K}.
14. That is, in the same manner as your Father in heaven.
15. Some manuscripts omit this word {C}.
16. Compare Mt 7:1-5.
17. Some manuscripts omit this word {K}.
18. Though these are general principles, the emphasis of the context is still on enemies. Do not judge or condemn them, but pardon and give to them. Same word as in Mt 7:1. Do not pass judgment on, criticize, find fault with.
19. Or, "pronouncing guilty". Same word as in Mt 12:7, where the Pharisees did it, and as Jam 5:6, where the rich did it. Elsewhere only in Mt 12:37, where "by your words you will be condemned". GK 2868. Related to "sentence of condemnation" in Act 25:15.
20. Or, "releasing, setting free, letting go". Pardon your debtors. On this word, see "send away" in Mt 5:31.
21. That is, God's agents— whether human or angelic— for disbursing His rewards, v 35.
22. That is, an overflowing measure of what you gave out will be returned to you. Your own measuring cup will be filled to overflowing with what you gave, and dumped back in your lap. The "good measure" is defined next.
23. Or, "bosom, lap". That is, into your garment pulled up at the waist to form a pocket. On this word, see "bosom" in Jn 1:18.
24. On this word, see Jn 3:34. Some manuscripts say "For with the same measure which" {N}.
25. Luke seems to begin here a second part or aspect of the sermon, not directly connected with what precedes. He seems to intend that v 39-49 be grouped together, as were v 20-38. However, some group v 37-42 together.
26. Some think Luke now gives the words Jesus spoke to those "not hearing", in contrast to v 27. Jesus speaks to the self-delusion of ones like the Pharisees, who do not follow Him. Others think what follows is addressed to the disciples as future leaders, correcting them. There are other views. Consult the commentaries on the flow of v 39-49.
27. Same word as in Mt 15:14. Elsewhere only in Jn 16:13; Act 8:31; Rev 7:17. GK 3842.
28. The grammar indicates a "no" answer is expected to this question, and a "yes" answer to the next one.
29. Some think Jesus means that the disciples are blind without Him, and cannot lead others unless they know the truth; others, that He is referring to spiritually blind teachers, like the Pharisees. Not seeing the truth themselves, they can only lead their unseeing disciples to the errors into which they themselves have blindly fallen. Compare Mt 23:16 for examples.
30. Or, "learner, pupil, student, follower". Some think this explains v 39. Both will fall because the disciple is like the teacher. Others think this moves on from v 39 to a new point. Compare Mt 10:24. This word is used 261 times, all in the Gospels and Acts. GK 3412. The related verb is in Mt 13:52.
31. Some manuscripts say "his" {N}.
32. Or, "And".
33. Or, "made complete, put into proper condition". On this word, see "prepared" in Rom 9:22.
34. This true whether one's teacher is Jesus, or a spiritually blind one. On this word, see "as" in Mt 19:19. Compare Mk 4:24.
35. Some think Jesus means the disciples can and must become like Him, submitting to His teaching; others, that if people continue following blind guides (like the Pharisees), they will remain blind.
36. Some think Jesus means that the disciples must not judge others, but themselves. You can only correct in others what you have corrected in yourself. Others think He means that ones like the Pharisees cannot attempt to judge others like Jesus or His disciples, because they are blinded by the falsehoods in their own eyes. They must clear their eyes of what is blocking the truth before they can correct the perception of another.
37. Or, "notice". Both "consider" and "log" are also in Mt 7:3.
38. Some manuscripts say "Or how..."; others, "And how..." {N}.
39. More literally, "permit that I may take out".

1. Compare Mt 7:16-20.
2. Some think Jesus means the disciples must have a change of heart, because their effect on others will match their heart; others, that ones like the Pharisees are incapable of producing good fruit and need a change of heart.
3. Both occurrences of "good" here are the same word as in "good fruit" in Mt 7:17 (see 1 Tim 5:10a on it). Both occurrences of "bad" here are the same word as in "bad tree" in Mt 7:17. Thus, Jesus could mean no "fit, pleasing, desirable" type of tree (like a fruit tree) produces "unusable" fruit; no "unusable" type of tree produces "fit" fruit to eat. Or, He could mean no "healthy" tree produces "rotten" fruit; no "rotten" tree produces "fit" fruit to eat. If the next verse is intended to explain this one, then the contrast of types of trees is in view here. See Mt 7:17-18 on this.
4. Or, "on the other hand". GK 4099. Some manuscripts omit this word {N}.
5. Or, "recognized". On this word, see 1:34.

11. Or, "treasure-house, treasury". On this word, see Mt 12:35.
12. Used three times here, this is the same word as in "bad fruit" in Mt 7:17. On this word, see Act 25:18.
13. The grammar implies "treasure", not "heart". Some manuscripts add here "treasure of his heart" {N}.
14. Compare Mt 7:21.
15. Or, "Master, Master". See Mt 7:21 on "Lord, Lord".
16. Treating Jesus respectfully but not doing what He says is fruitless.

17. Jesus could mean "one who is more than", or "something more than", as in Mt 11:9. John is more because he is also the one sent to prepare for Messiah, as Jesus says next.
18. Compare also Mk 1:2; Lk 1:17.
19. Or, "face". On this phrase, see 9:52.

22. Or, "lesser". See Mt 11:11 on this.
23. Some think Jesus means John, making v 29-30 the comment of Jesus about the reception of John's message of preparation by these two groups. Compare Mt 21:31-32. Others think Luke means Jesus, making v 29-30 a comment by Luke about their response to the words of Jesus in v 27-28. See also note 29.
24. Or, "justified, declared right". On this word, see "declared righteous" in Rom 3:24. That is, the hearers declared and acknowledged the justice and rightness of what God required of them through John, as seen in their acceptance of his baptism for themselves. If it is Luke's comment, then they acknowledged the justice of God in the words of Jesus about John, because they had been baptized by John. Reflecting the latter interpretation, some render the following participle ("having been baptized") as "because they had been baptized".
25. That is, the experts in Jewish law, who both interpreted and taught it. Also known as scribes, this word emphasizes their knowledge of the Law. Same word as in Mt 22:35; Lk 10:25; 11:45, 46, 52; 14:3. Elsewhere only as "pertaining to the Law" in Tit 3:9; and "lawyer" in Tit 3:13. GK 3788. Related to "law-teacher" in 5:17.
26. Or, "set aside". Same word as in 10:16.
27. That is, the leaders rejected John's work of preparation, as seen in their refusal of his baptism. If this is Luke's comment, then they rejected the words of Jesus about John, because they had refused John's baptism. On this word, see "counsel" in Eph 1:11.
28. Parallel account at Mt 11:16.
29. Some manuscripts say "And the Lord said, 'To what...' {K}. Because it is so unnatural to switch from quoting Jesus to Luke's comment and back to quoting Jesus without any indication of it, some who considered verses 29-30 to be Luke's comment added "and the Lord said" here to make it clearer, and the KJV included it. Other translations following this view put v 29-30 in a parenthesis, or use their quotation marks to indicate that they think these are Luke's words.
30. That is, in view of the fact that you rejected John and are rejecting Me.
31. Some manuscripts add "for you" {B}. On this word, see Mt 11:17.
32. In other words, John and Jesus did not respond to them as they expected. On "weep", see Jn 11:33.

1. John came as an ascetic, living alone in the desert, not socializing with them. Compare 1:15.
2. Jesus socialized with them. And He must be guilty of this because He eats and drinks with sinners. This is no more true of Him than that John had a demon, v 33. On this word, see Mt 11:19.
3. Same word as in v 29. On this statement, see Mt 11:19. Matthew refers to wisdom's "works"; Luke, to the "children" following wisdom and producing the works, that is, to believers like those in v 29. Some take this in a timeless sense, "is vindicated"; others, as referring to those who have responded to John and to Jesus.
4. More literally, "in order that He might eat". GK 2671.
5. Compare the anointing at Mt 26:6; Mk 14:3; Jn 12:3.
6. Some have identified this woman as Mary the Magdalene (8:2), but Luke does not do so. Some think this is the same incident as in Mt 26:6; Mk 14:3; Jn 12:2; others, a different incident occurring much earlier.
7. This is the woman's public reputation. Many assume Luke means she was a prostitute or adulteress, but Luke does not say this. She could have simply been one living her life in rebellion to God, apart from the religious community, as "sinner" means in v 34.
8. People in that day reclined to eat by laying on their left side with their head at the table and their feet away from it. So the woman was both "behind" Jesus and "at, beside" His feet.
9. Same word as twice in v 46. On this word, see Jam 5:14.
10. The grammar indicates that the Pharisee is assuming this is not true, that Jesus is not a prophet. Compare the case in Jn 4:18-19.
11. Elsewhere only in 16:5. GK 5971.
12. Used only here. GK 1250. Related to the verb "lend" in 6:34.
13. One denarius was one day's wages for a laborer. On this word, see Mt 20:2.
14. Some manuscripts say "And they..." {N}.
15. Or, "granted it to, freely gave it to, gave it as a gift to". Both debtors had their debts canceled by grace. Related to "grace", this word refers to forgiveness as an act of grace by the giver. Same word as in v 43; 2 Cor 2:7, 10; 12:13; Eph 4:32; Col 2:13; 3:13. Same word as "freely gave" (see 1 Cor 2:12). GK 5919.
16. The love is expressed in gratitude for the forgiveness.
17. Or, "suppose". Same word as in Act 2:15. It is used of a thought or opinion "taken up". Same word as "taken up" in Lk 10:30. Elsewhere only as "received" in Act 1:9; and "support" in 3 Jn 8. GK 5696.
18. Jesus applies the parable of v 41-42 directly to Simon and the woman. She loved more, he less.
19. Some manuscripts say "the hair of her head" {K}, as in v 38.
20. This is an idiom, "from which hour". See Rev 16:18 on it.
21. That is, olive oil. On this word, see Jam 5:14.
22. The woman's love is a manifestation of her faith, v 50. It reflects her perception of the depth of her sin (her debt) and the greatness of her forgiveness (like the man owing the 500 denarii). She still deeply felt the reality of both. Like the man in the parable, she loves much because she experienced the forgiveness of much (prior to this event). Her love is the evidence of her feeling of forgiveness, not the cause of it.
23. Jesus leaves it to Simon to apply this to himself. Has he been forgiven little, or nothing at all? What is the evidence of his actions and thoughts? On this word, used four times in v 47-49, see Mt 6:12.
24. Or, "afterward". That is, the ones following in order. Elsewhere only as "in order" in Lk 1:3; Act 11:4; "successively" in Act 18:23; and "successors" in Act 3:24. GK 2759.
25. Elsewhere only in Act 17:1. GK 1476.
26. That is, city by city and village by village, from one city or village to the next. Similar to the phrase in 13:22.
27. On "announcing the kingdom of God as good news", see 4:43.
28. This is a participle, they "were having been cured". On this word, see Mt 8:7.
29. That is, "from Magdala", a city on the west side of the Sea of Galilee. Elsewhere only in Mt 27:56, 61; 28:1; Mk 15:40, 47; 16:1, 9; Lk 24:10; Jn 19:25; 20:1, 18; all of which say "Mary the Magdalene" except Lk 24:10. GK 3402.
30. This does not mean Mary was immoral (as some suggest), as a review of the others from whom demons were cast out shows. For example, she may have been very sick, paralyzed, or driven to madness like the man in v 27. The NT does not say how this manifested itself in her. But she clearly did become one who "loved much", like the woman in 7:47. She should be remembered for this, not for conjectures about her former life.
31. She is mentioned again only in 24:10.
32. That is, Herod Antipas, Mt 14:1; Lk 3:1.
33. Or, "manager, foreman, administrator, trustee, guardian, governor". This term was also used of a procurator. It is not known what Chuza did, so the exact meaning intended here is not known. Elsewhere only as "manager" in Mt 20:8; and "guardian" in Gal 4:2. GK 2208. Related to "commission" in Act 26:12.

4. This is an idiom, literally "according to city", as in v 1. The people came in groups by city.
5. Or, "through, by means of". GK 1328.
6. Or, "different". Luke uses a different word here and in v 7, 8 (GK 2283) than Matthew and Mark (GK 257), with the same meaning. He is referring to another portion of seed, viewed as a group. That Luke does not mean four "different" seeds is clear from v 11, where he identifies the seed as "the" word of God.
7. Or, "rock". That is, bed-rock thinly covered with soil, not soil with rocks in it. Same word as in v 13 and in 6:48. On this word, see Mt 7:24. Related to "rocky places" in Mt 13:5.
8. Same word as in v 8. Elsewhere only in Heb 12:15. GK 5886. Related to "grow with" in v 7, which is used only there (GK 5243).
9. Elsewhere only as "drowned" in v 33. GK 678. Matthew (13:7), Mark (4:7) and Luke (8:7) use the same root word with different prefixes, but the same basic meaning. The thorns killed it, choked it off.
10. That is, "good" in the sense of "generous, useful, beneficial". On this word, see 1 Tim 5:10b. Mt 13:8 and Mk 4:8 have a different word, the same word Luke uses in v 15. Luke uses both words to describe the heart in v 15.
11. Parallel account at Mt 13:10; Mk 4:10.
12. Some manuscripts add "saying" {N}, so that it says "saying, 'What might this parable mean?'".
13. This is the purpose of speaking in parables, in fulfillment of Isa 6:9-10. On this word, see Mt 13:13. Compare Mk 4:12; Mt 13:14-15.

15. The soil pictures the response to the word of God by the person.
16. The grammar of this word here and in v 13 agrees with "people". The grammar changes in v 14.
17. That is, the people represented by the road, on whom the seed of the word of God fell. Same idea in v 13.
18. That is, by believing. The seed is immediately taken away, gaining no significant reception. On this word, which is also in v 13, see Jn 3:36.
19. Or, "receiving, accepting", but not the same word as in Mt 13:20; Mk 4:16. On this word, see Mt 10:40.
20. Or, "withdrawing", one after the other. Same word as in 2:37; 4:13; 13:27. On this word, see 1 Tim 4:1. These people show some signs of life and grow for a while, but depart at the first stress.

22. The grammar of this word here and in v 15 agrees with "seed", as in v 5-8.

24. Or, "worries, concerns, cares". On this word, see 1 Pet 5:7. Related to "be anxious" in Mt 6:25.
25. Elsewhere only in Tit 3:3; Jam 4:1, 3; 2 Pet 2:13. GK 2454. Our word "hedonist" comes from this word. Related to "with pleasure" in Mk 6:20.

35. Some think Jesus means that His light will not remain hidden. What He now conceals in parables will become visible and known to all. Nothing will remain hidden or secret. Others think He means that God's light will make everything visible to all. All hearts will be exposed. Let the light in you shine, for it will expose the secrets of people's hearts. See Mk 4:22.
36. Or, "evident, known, clear, plain, open". On this word, see "evident" in Rom 1:19.
37. Or, "secret, concealed". Related to "hidden" earlier in the verse, and having the same basic meaning. On this word, see Mk 4:22.
38. Same word as "visible" earlier. "Come into visibility" is an idiom meaning "become widely known, come to light". The same phrase occurs in a similar verse in Mk 4:22.

30. The demons wish to remain in an active role in the area. They immediately do so by killing the pigs. Whether or not this was the intention of Jesus is not stated. In any case, this great sign becomes a test of the people. They could be drawn to Jesus by it, or push Him away. They choose the latter response to His unquestioned work of power. Thus Jesus helps the man by casting out the demons. Perhaps then the demons force an immediate test, and turn the people against Jesus through fear (this is one conjecture). Jesus leaves, but sends the man to proclaim to his people.
31. Or, "tending". Same word as in v 32. On this word, see Jn 21:15.

9. Welcoming this child is welcoming the King. Earthly status is not relevant in His kingdom.
10. Or, "lesser". On this word, see Mt 11:11.
11. The child is great in the kingdom, and the one who becomes as a child. Some manuscripts say "shall be" {N}.

24. Some take this literally; others, figuratively, of the fraud, deception, treachery and falsehood of the enemy. Compare Mk 16:18; Ps 91:13-14. Jesus has given these lambs (v 3) power over the enemy, and protection from the enemy. Nothing can stop them from carrying out this mission He gave them. The message of v 9 will by all means be proclaimed to Israel. Nothing can stop the coming of the Messiah to His people from building to the crescendo He intends. Some think this refers specifically to the seventy-two and this mission, like the command in v 4 (compare the command to the twelve in 9:3 and 22:35-36); others take it in a broader sense.

45. Truly the disciples enjoyed a unique privilege, not repeated before or since, until Jesus comes. Jesus also said this to the twelve in Mt 13:16-17. They got to see it all fulfilled, right before their eyes! We enjoy the fruit of that fulfillment.
46. Compare Mt 22:34-40; Mk 12:28-34.
47. On this word, "put to the test", see Mt 4:7.

1. Or, "like". On this command, see Mt 19:19. The man quotes from Deut 6:5; Lev 19:18.
2. Or, "justify". Some think Luke means "to justify his question" which the man himself answered in v 27; to vindicate his asking a question to which he already knew the answer. The man now asks what he considers to be the hard question. The Jews believed only fellow Jews were their neighbors for purposes of this law. Others think the man is asserting his own righteousness. On this word, see "declare righteous" in Rom 3:24.
3. Or, "encountered". On this word, see Jam 1:2.
4. This word means "to put on, lay on". It is used of "laying on" hands for various purposes (see Heb 6:2), and as "put on" in Mt 21:7; 27:29, 37; Lk 15:15; Jn 9:15. Used 39 times. GK 2202.
5. Luke uses this idiom "to lay on blows" again in Act 16:23, a beating which resulted in "wounds" (16:33, same word). On this word, see "wound" in Rev 13:3. Same word as "beatings" in 2 Cor 6:5; 11:23.
6. Or, "chance". Used only here. GK 5175. The related verb (not in the NT) means "come together by chance, meet by accident".
7. Elsewhere only in v 32. GK 524.
8. Or, "along, opposite, before, in relation to". GK 2848. Same word as in v 33.
9. That is, having come by. Some manuscripts omit "having come-to-be", so that it says "Levite having come to the place and having seen". Others omit "having come", so that it says "Levite having come-to-be upon the place and having seen" {C}.
10. The Jews would not have considered this person a "neighbor".
11. The Greek word is trauma, from which we get our word. Used only here. GK 5546. Related to the word in 20:12.
12. That it, olive oil. On this word, see Jam 5:14.
13. That is, the Samaritan's mount, referring to whatever kind of animal he was riding. On this word, see "livestock" in 1 Cor 15:39.
14. Same word as in v 35. On this word, see 1 Tim 3:5.
15. Some manuscripts say "day, having gone out, having taken out two..." {N}.
16. That is, two day's wages. This was enough to pay for several days of food and lodging, perhaps as much as a month. On this word, see Mt 20:2.
17. Related to "inn" in v 34. Both words are used only here. GK 4106, 4107.
18. On this idiom, see Col 3:17.
19. Or, "while I am returning". That is, his returning to his destination, on the way to which this inn was a stopping point. Elsewhere only in 19:15, with different grammar. GK 2059.
20. Or, "proved to be". The important question is not "who is my neighbor whom I am responsible to love", but rather, "to whom have I become a neighbor by loving them". The law commands love, and the love is due to everyone who crosses my path. GK 1181.
21. On this phrase "show mercy to", see 1:72.
22. Some manuscripts say "Then" {N}.
23. Mary and Martha live in Bethany in Jn 11:1.
24. Or, "received as a guest, welcomed into her house, entertained as a guest". Elsewhere only in Lk 19:6; Act 17:7; Jam 2:25. GK 5685. Some manuscripts add "into her house" {B}.
25. Some manuscripts omit this word, so that it says "Mary. And she was listening..." {C}.
26. Luke could mean "also" along with Martha; or, "also" along with the others who were listening.
27. Some manuscripts instead say "of Jesus" {N}.
28. Or, "pulled away, drawn off, diverted". Used only here. GK 4352. Related to "undistracted" in 1 Cor 7:35.
29. That is, the preparations for the meal. On this word, see "ministry" in 1 Cor 12:5.
30. More literally, "is it not a concern to You". The grammar indicates a "yes" answer is expected, "yes, I care". On this word, see "concerned" in 1 Cor 7:21.
31. Instead of what precedes, some manuscripts say "Jesus said to her" {N}.
32. On this verb, see Mt 6:25, where Jesus says not to be anxious about what to eat because life is more than food.
33. Or, "upset". Used only here. GK 2571. The related words mean "disorder, turmoil, confusion". Related to "throw into a commotion" in Mt 9:23. Martha was troubled by the confusion of things to do and the disorder of her situation.
34. Or, "necessity". On this word, see Tit 3:14.
35. Some think this refers to the meal— you are worried about many dishes, many things to eat. Only one dish is really necessary for the meal. In other words, Martha is overreacting. Some manuscripts say "a few things or one thing" {C}, taking this view. Others think it refers to a spiritual truth. In the light of eternity, there is only one real need—to know God. Mary chose to listen to Jesus while He was there speaking, rather than to prepare and serve food. Listening to God is the "good part" of life. The eating can be arranged later. In other words, Mary is focusing on higher priorities.
36. Though the form of this word is "good", some think the sense of it here is "better" or "best".
37. Or, "share, portion". Mary is the one who responds with such great love for Jesus in Jn 12:3. On this word, see Col 1:12.
38. Compare Mt 6:9-15.
39. Each of the following is in the form of a command, with a change in grammar at point 3D. Some manuscripts say "Our Father in the heavens" {A}, as in Mt 6:9.
40. On this phrase, see Mt 6:9.
41. Some manuscripts add "Let Your will be done—as in heaven, also on earth" {A}, as in Mt 6:10.
42. Or, "day by day, every day, according to the day". Same idiom as "daily" in 9:23; 19:47, etc.
43. Or, "owing us". On this word, see "ought" in 1 Jn 4:11. This verb related to "debts" and "debtors" in Mt 6:12.
44. On this word, see Mt 6:13. Some manuscripts add "but deliver us from the evil one" {A}, as in Mt 6:13.

1. This word is used of informal lending between friends, expecting a payback in kind. Used only here. GK 3079. Related to "use".
2. The grammar implies "Stop causing me troubles". On this phrase, see Lk 18:5.
3. The family all slept in one room. The friend is imposing on the whole family.
4. More literally, "If he even will not... give to him...". This idiom means "accepting that he will even not give to him because he is a friend, yet...". On this idiom, see 1 Cor 7:21. Compare 18:4, where this same point is made.
5. Or, "impudence". That is, because of the shameless persistence of the one asking. From the point of view of the friend in bed, the one asking is shameless, refusing to bow to propriety. From the point of view of the one asking, he is persistent and insistent until he gets his answer. Persistent asking is the point. Keep asking as long as you continue to have a need. Jesus is not implying that God is like the man in bed, as also in 18:2-5. Used only here. GK 357.
6. That is, the friend in bed.
7. This word (see v 31) is not the same word as "arisen" in v 7, 8 (see 18:33). The man will not voluntarily raise himself and give it to his friend. But when he has been raised— forced to get up— by the continued asking of his friend, he will do so.
8. Compare Mt 7:7-8.
9. Some manuscripts say "it is opened" {C}.
10. Compare Mt 7:9-11.
11. Some manuscripts add a third example, and phrase the three questions like Mt 7:9-10. They say "father from among you will his son ask for a loaf— he will not give him a stone, will he? Or indeed a fish— he will not give him a snake instead of a fish, will he? Or indeed he will ask for an egg— he will not give him a scorpion, will he?" {C}.
12. GK 5639. Not the same word as Mt 7:11.
13. Some manuscripts say "will your Father give from heaven the Holy Spirit" {C}.
14. Compare Mt 9:32-34; 12:22-37; Mk 3:22-30.
15. Some manuscripts omit "and it was" {C}, so that it says "casting out a mute demon". The demon made the man mute.
16. Or, "in connection with, in union with, by means of". GK 1877. The same word is in v 18, 19, 20.
17. Jesus takes up this second issue in v 29.
18. Not the same word as Mt 12:25. Used only here. GK 1378. Related to "thought" in 1:51.
19. On this word, see Act 2:3. Related to "divide" in Mt 12:25 and Mk 3:24, (on which see "apportioned" in 1 Cor 7:17).
20. Or, "is desolated, and house falls upon house", the latter phrase expanding upon the desolation, or meaning "and house attacks house".
21. Or, "If Satan also...". This idiom (see 1 Cor 7:21) means "Assuming that Satan indeed was..., how".
22. Or, "be made to stand, be established". How will Satan be able to make it stand if he is divided against himself? GK 2705.
23. On this statement, see Mt 12:27.
24. Some manuscripts do not emphasize this word, in which case it would not be bold {C}.
25. Or, "arrived". On this word, see 1 Thes 2:16.
26. Or, "being fully armed", "in full armor", putting the emphasis on the man's armed state. Used only here. GK 2774. Related to "arm" in 1 Pet 4:1.
27. That is, the courtyard of his house. On this word, see Mt 26:3.
28. Or, "belongings". This is a participle, on which see Heb 10:34.
29. Or, "conquers". On this word see Rev 2:7. It is because Jesus is stronger and has overcome Satan that He is casting out demons. This is the lesson they should be drawing from it.
30. Elsewhere only in Eph 6:11, 13, where the individual pieces are mentioned. GK 4110. Related to "fully armed", v 21.
31. That is, gathering the flock of sheep. The shepherd gathers; the wolf scatters.
32. Neutrality is impossible. Those not siding with the Victor are aiding the enemy. On this word, see Jn 16:32.

1. Compare Mt 12:43-45.
2. Some manuscripts omit this word {C}.
3. This word (GK 5715) is related to the word in Mt 12:44 (GK 2188).
4. Some manuscripts say "finds it being unoccupied, having been swept and put in order" {B}, as in Mt 12:44.
5. Same word as in Mt 12:44.
6. And so it happened in Israel, Mt 12:45. Israel's state after Jesus became worse than before. Note Lk 23:31.
7. Or, "Fortunate", Same word as in 6:20.
8. Or, "Rather". Jesus confirms and corrects, "Yes, but rather...". Used only here. GK 3528. Related to "on the contrary" in Rom 9:20; 10:18; and "more than that" in Phil 3:8. Mary truly is blessed and favored, 1:28, 42, 45. This woman is saying what Mary said all generations would say, 1:48.
9. Compare Mt 12:38-42; 16:1-4; Mk 8:10-12.
10. Or, "increasing". Used only here. GK 2044. Related to the word in 24:33.
11. On "this generation", see Mt 24:34. Some manuscripts omit this word {N}.
12. Jesus now answers the question of v 16. On this word, see 2 Thes 2:9.
13. Some manuscripts add "the prophet" {N}, as in Mt 12:39. Compare Mt 16:4.
14. Or, "will arise". On this word, see "arose" in Mt 28:6.
15. Or, "extremities, limits". On this word, see Heb 6:16. On this queen, see 1 Kings 10:1-13.
16. That is, men from Nineveh where Jonah went to preach.
17. Or, "stand up". On this word, see 18:33.
18. Or, "vault, hidden place", like a cellar. Our word "crypt" comes from this word. Used only here. GK 3219. Related to "hidden" in 1 Cor 4:5. On this saying, compare 8:16.
19. On this word, see Mk 4:21. Some manuscripts omit "nor under the basket" {C}. The purpose of a lamp is to illuminate. Jesus is the light, providing illumination for all who are entering the kingdom. He is shining for all to see. To see, one only needs the light, assuming one can see.
20. Verses 34-36 expand on this generation's ability to see the light on the lampstand.
21. Compare Mt 6:22-24.
22. That is, the source of light. Used 14 times. GK 3394.
23. Some manuscripts say "the" {K}, as in Mt 6:22.
24. The bodily source of physical light for the body, the light giver to the body, is the eye. So also in the spiritual realm. Whether or not you are illuminated by the light of Jesus depends on the state of your spiritual eye (that is, your heart).
25. Or, "Whenever". GK 4020. Some manuscripts say "Therefore when..." {N}.
26. On this word, see Mt 6:22. Some think Jesus means "healthy"; others, "single-focused". When your eye has a single focus on God's truth, your whole life will be full of the light of Christ.
27. Same word as twice in v 36. On this word, see Mt 6:22.
28. Or, "as soon as". Elsewhere only in Mt 2:8; Lk 11:22. GK 2054.
29. Some think Jesus means "double-focused"; others, "damaged, sick". Same word as in Mt 6:23. On this word, see "evil" in Act 25:18.
30. It will not allow the light to come into the body. Elsewhere only in v 36; Mt 6:23. GK 5027.
31. On this word, see "looking for" in 2 Cor 4:18. Watch out that the "illumination" in your life is not actually darkness. A striking paradox. Jesus moves from a bad eye to the distorted light it admits. An eye focused on signs and traditions will not allow God's lamp—Christ—to shine into your life. This generation is evil because its eye is darkened by the falsehoods it considers light. Compare Mt 6:23.
32. Jesus applies the lamp illustrations to His hearers. If you and your spiritual eye-lamp are such that your whole life is full of light without restriction (as described in v 34), then your whole life will be full of light from God's lamp as from the physical lamp on a lampstand (v 33). If your spiritual sight allows God's light into your whole life, then your whole life will be full of light from His lamp. You will clearly see the light from God's Lamp (Jesus) and come to it, and have no need for signs. Rephrased in negative terms, if you are only partially receptive to God's light, your life will only be partially lit up by His Lamp, resulting in a continual asking for more light, more signs. This generation seeks signs because of its bad spiritual sight, not because God's Lamp (Jesus) is insufficiently bright. There are other views of this verse. Consult the commentaries.
33. Elsewhere this word means "lightning" (see Rev 4:5 on it).
34. This idiom means "At the event of His speaking". This phrase itself says nothing about the timing of the request. It could have been before, during (in v 29), or after. Note the different grammar of the phrase in v 27.
35. Or, "eat lunch". Elsewhere only as "eat breakfast" in Jn 21:12, 15. GK 753.
36. That is, Jesus did not ceremonially wash His hands according to their custom. On this word, see Mk 7:4.
37. On this word, see 14:12. Related to the word in v 37.
38. Compare Mt 23:25-26.
39. This word is used in a temporal and in a logical sense. Thus, some think Jesus means "at the present time", "right now" in your washing; others, "As it is, as a matter of fact". GK 3814.
40. Elsewhere only of the platter for John's head, Mt 14:8, 11; Mk 6:25, 28. GK 4402.
41. Some think Jesus means "Give what is in your cup and on your platter (that is, your possessions) as alms". Since the cup represents their lives, others think He means the Pharisees must give what should be found inside their hearts; that is, love of God and justice (v 42), mercy and faithfulness (Mt 23:23), etc.. It is the love of God and of neighbor proceeding from the heart that will make you "clean" inside and out, not ceremonial washings alone apart from a work in the heart. Used only here. GK 1913.
42. That is, as charitable giving to the poor. On this word, see "alms-giving" in Mt 6:2

5. Or, "should have". On this idiom, see "should have" in Mt 25:27.
6. That is, the latter things, the justice and love, as in Mt 23:23.
7. Or, "relaxing, disregarding". Compare Mt 23:23. On this word, see Heb 12:12.
8. Jesus does not fault the Pharisees for personally going beyond the Law in the matter of tithing (though He does fault them for imposing this on others in v 46). He faults them for attending to the externals like tithing with a heart that is far from God, Mk 7:6. This is worthless and pointless religion, Mt 15:9.
9. Compare Mt 23:6-7.
10. Compare Mt 23:27-28.
11. Some manuscripts add "scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites" {N}.
12. More literally, "not plain, unclear, not evident; unseen". Elsewhere only as "uncertain" in 1 Cor 14:8. GK 83. Related to "evident" in Gal 3:11 (same word without the negative prefix).
13. You are containers of death, defiling all who come in contact with you. People become "unclean" by contact with you without even knowing it. Compare Mt 23:27.
14. Compare Mt 23:4.
15. On this word, see "load" in Gal 6:5. Related to the verb earlier in the verse.
16. Some think this means "touch in order to help the people with this burden". Others think Jesus means "touch so as to obey yourself". You yourselves do not do what you require others to do. The scribes could avoid things bringing defilement, something the common working people could not do. Thus they did not have to carry the burden that the people could not avoid, and could not bear, Act 15:10. Compare Mt 23:4. Used only here. GK 4718.
17. Compare Mt 23:29-36.
18. Same word as in Mt 23:29.
19. Or, "giving-consent". On this word, see Rom 1:32.
20. Jesus uses grammar that emphasizes the linkage between the two groups.
21. Some manuscripts include these words {C}. You are building the prophet's tombs while failing to obey them! You are really just like your fathers. God will send more prophets to you so you can even repeat their murders.
22. That is, because of your spiritual union in spirit with your prophet-killing fathers. Compare Mt 23:34.
23. That is, God in His wisdom. This phrase is used in this way only here.
24. Or, "messengers". That is, the NT prophets and apostles who went forth after the resurrection. Compare Mt 23:34-35. On this word, see 1 Cor 12:28.
25. It is a debt to justice that this generation will pay. Israel paid with the total destruction of A.D. 70. On this word, see "seek out" in Heb 11:6.
26. That is, the first (Gen 4:8) and last (2 Chron 24:21) murders of the OT, in the Hebrew order of the OT books.
27. Compare Mt 23:13.
28. Some think Jesus means the key "consisting of knowledge"; others, "opening the door to knowledge". In either case, the knowledge leading to salvation is in view. The scribes did not use this key to enter into the kingdom of God for themselves, and they hindered those trying to use it to enter. They locked up the Scriptures with their traditions.
29. Or, "forbade, tried to stop". Compare Mt 23:13. On this word, see "forbidding" in 1 Cor 14:39.
30. Instead of "He having gone out from there", some manuscripts say "while He was saying these things to them" {N}.
31. Or, "fearfully, fiercely". Elsewhere only in Mt 8:6. GK 1267.
32. That is, internally hostile. More literally, to terribly "have it in" for Jesus, or "hold in" retaliation against Him. It is the calculating hostility of one prevented from outwardly retaliating by others—here, by the crowds. It is an internal "setting oneself against" someone, planning their demise in a way that does not harm one's relationship with those preventing an immediate outward attack. Same word as in Mk 6:19, of Herodias toward John.
33. The exact nuance of this word is uncertain. It was used of teaching orally, where the teacher dictates a question and the student answers from memory—"to catechize". Some put the emphasis on the questioning, "question closely, interrogate, quiz". Others put it on checking the answer, "watch His words closely". Including both ideas, they began to "question and test" Him on theological issues. Used only here. GK 694.
34. Or, "lying in ambush for". Elsewhere only in Act 23:21. GK 1910. Related to "ambush" in Act 23:16.
35. This is a hunting term also meaning "to hunt after, chase". Used only here. GK 2561. Related to "trap" in Rom 11:9; and "wild-animal". Some manuscripts say "seeking to catch" {N}.
36. Some manuscripts add "in order that they might accuse Him" {N}.
37. This idiom can mean here "during which", as in 21:6; 23:29; Act 24:18; 26:12; Heb 10:32; or, "in which circumstances", as in Phil 4:11; or, "among whom", as in Act 17:34; 20:25; Rom 1:6; Eph 2:3; Phil 2:15. In any case, it closely links chapter 12 to chapter 11. Jesus is vividly portrayed as speaking in the midst of myriads of people thronging to hear Him, and opponents burning with hostility lying in wait to ambush Him.
38. A large but unspecified number. On this word, see Act 21:20.
39. Or, "treading on". On this word, see "trample-underfoot" in Heb 10:29.
40. Luke seems to mean that 12:1-13:9 was spoken on one occasion, though this is not certain (a similar question arises in 15:1-17:10). He gives no change of scene, only of the hearers. Jesus speaks to the disciples in v 1-12, the crowds in v 13-21, the disciples in v 22-53, and the crowds in 12:54-13:9.
41. Some think Jesus spoke "first" to them, not the Pharisees or the crowds just mentioned. Others think He spoke what follows "first of all"; that it was the first thing He spoke to them after the confrontation with the Pharisees. Others think it means first in sequence, in a discourse that alternates back and forth from the disciples to the crowd.

1. Compare Mt 10:26-32.
2. Or, "Be on your guard". This phrase "take heed to yourselves" is used only by Luke, in Lk 17:3; 21:34; Act 5:35; 20:28. Same word as "beware of" in Mt 10:17. On the word "take heed to", see "pay attention to" in 1 Tim 3:8. GK 4668. Not the same word as in v 15.
3. On this word, see Mt 13:33. Note Mt 16:12, where the leaven is their teaching.
4. Certainly 11:53-54 ranks as a classic example of hypocrisy, prompting this warning. On this word, see Gal 2:13.
5. These hypocrites will be exposed. Some manuscripts say "For" {N}.
6. Or, "concealed". This is a participle, "nothing is having been covered up". Used only here. GK 5158. Related to "covered" in Mt 10:26.
7. Or, "In return for everything that you said... it will be heard". On this idiom, see 2 Thes 2:10.
8. The grammar implies "start to fear, become fearful".
9. Or, "do not be afraid of the ones...". Jesus has in mind the coming persecutions mentioned in v 11. This idiom "to fear from" is also in Mt 10:28. "Fear" is the same word as in v 5, on which see "respecting" in Eph 5:33.
10. On this coin, see Mt 10:29. It is one sixteenth of a denarius.
11. This is a participle, one of them "is not having been forgotten".
12. The grammar implies "Stop fearing" or "do not be in the habit of fearing".
13. More literally, "confesses in Me", on which see Mt 10:32. Likewise later in the verse, "confess in him".
14. That is, permanently. Peter denied (same word, 22:57) Jesus, but repented and confessed Him. On this word, see 2 Tim 2:12.
15. On this word, see Mt 16:24. Related to the previous word.
16. Compare Mt 12:31-32; Mk 3:28-30.
17. Same word as later in the verse, and in Mk 3:29. GK 1650. Mt 12:32 uses a different word (GK 2848).
18. This is another way of saying "speak against". On this word, see 1 Tim 6:1.
19. Compare Mt 10:19-20; Mk 13:11; Lk 21:14-15.
20. Same word as in Mt 10:19, in a similar statement. On this word, see Mt 6:25.
21. Or, "should". Or, "which it is necessary" to say. On this idiom, see Act 25:10.
22. This is used as a form of address also in 5:20; 22:58, 60. On this word, see "mankind" in Mt 4:4.
23. Or, "divider". Used only here. GK 3537. Related to "divide" in v 13. Some manuscripts reverse these two words {B}.
24. That is, to the crowd, in response to the question of the man in v 13.
25. That is, every kind of. Some manuscripts omit this word {K}.
26. More literally, "because not in the abounding to someone out of the things belonging to him is his life".
27. Or, "in connection with, located in". GK 1877.
28. Or, "belongings". This is a participle, on which see Heb 10:34.
29. Or, "bore well, yielded well". Used only here. GK 2369.
30. This rich man has so much, such abundance, he has nowhere to put it.
31. Only here in the NT is the "soul" addressed in this way. On this word, see Jam 5:20.
32. On this word, see "celebrate" in Rev 12:12. Note the different tense of the first and fourth term.
33. That is, they are going to demand it, they will demand it. The verb is not passive, but some prefer to render impersonal verbs like this as a passive, "it will be required". "They" are apparently the angels God sends for this purpose. Note 16:22. Elsewhere only as "demand back" in 6:30. GK 555. Some manuscripts say "ask" {N}.
34. Or, "soul". Same word as in v 22, 23, and as "soul" in v 19. In this context, it means life in an earthly sense.
35. Your earthly abundance will not be for you, proving that this is not what life is, v 15. Note Ps 17:13-15.
36. Or, "treasuring up". Same word as "treasure up" in Mt 6:19, 20. On this word, see 1 Cor 16:2.
37. Or, "in relation to, regarding, with reference to", as in 16:8. GK 1650.
38. Some manuscripts omit this word {C}, so that it says "to the disciples". Jesus returns to speaking to them as He was in v 1-12. He first applies to them what He just said to the crowd in v 15-21.
39. That is, because of the true nature of life and possessions, as just discussed.

1. Compare Mt 6:25-34.
2. Same word as in Mt 6:25.
3. That is, about 18 inches, or one half meter. On this word, see Rev 21:17. Some manuscripts say "one cubit" {N}, as in Mt 6:27.
4. On this word, and the meaning of this statement, see Mt 6:27.
5. Used only here. GK 313. Related to the word in Mt 6:30.
6. Same word as in v 31. Compare Mt 6:31. Or, "And you, do not be seeking". Jesus expresses "you" separately from the command, for emphasis and in contrast to the nations. On this word, see Phil 2:21.
7. Some manuscripts say "or" {N}.
8. Or, "up in the air, suspended, worrying, doubting, anxious". Our word "meteor" comes from this word, which means "in mid air, high in the air". Some think Jesus means do not be "anxious, in an unsettled mental state, worrying, up in the air, in suspense" about things. Others think He means do not be "lifted up, buoyed up, presumptuous, exalted" by your possessions, as this word is used in the OT. Used only here. GK 3577.
9. Same word as "Gentiles" in Mt 6:32. On this word, see "Gentiles" in Act 15:23.
10. The word order, which is different than Mt 6:32, also permits this to be rendered "For all the nations of the world are seeking after these things".
11. This word (GK 4440) is not the same as in Mt 6:33 (GK 1254).
12. Some manuscripts say "the kingdom of God" {B}.
13. Compare Mt 6:19-21.
14. Placed here, v 32 is assuring the disciples in view of the following command. Do not be anxious, v 22. Rather, be fearless about investing your possessions in the kingdom He gave you. Others take v 32 with what precedes, making it point 4E., and making v 33 point 3D. In this case, Jesus is assuring them in their seeking of His kingdom.
15. On this word, see Mt 17:5. Some give this a timeless sense here, "is well pleased".
16. Note the progression. Do not be anxious about your possessions, do not be seeking them, sell them. Jesus does not mean we should impoverish ourselves so that we become ones needing alms, but that we should transfer our earthly treasures to our unfulfilling heavenly account. The tense here does not mean "be selling them" as a habit of life (compare 14:33), but to "sell them" in an act of faith, like the man in 19:8, and those in Act 4:34. Same tense as Lk 18:22. GK 4797.
17. Or, "belongings, property, the things being present, the things being at hand". This is a participle, on which see Heb 10:34. Compare 8:43, where that woman spent all her "living" on an illness.
18. That is, as charitable giving to the poor. Give it to ones who can give you no return (14:13-14), and your Father will reward you. On this word, see "almsgiving" in Mt 6:2.
19. Or, "inexhaustible". That is, unable to run out. Used only here. GK 444. Related to "fails" in 16:9.
20. Or, "tied around". This is a participle, "be having been girded". The grammar means "having been and continuing to be girded", "in a state of being girded". That is, remain prepared for action, be ready for work. On this word and metaphor, see Eph 6:14. Same word as in v 37.
21. Elsewhere only in Phil 1:23. GK 386. Literally, "to unloose, undo", as a boat from its moorings. The servants are anticipating their master's "departing" from the celebrations, his "coming", and his "knocking" at home. Some render this "return", which combines all three ideas. The point here is "watching" in preparedness, v 37. Related to "departure" in 2 Tim 4:6.
22. Or, "Happy, Fortunate". Same word as in v 38, 43. On this word, see 6:20.
23. Or, "staying alert". On this word, see 1 Thes 5:6.
24. This verb is used in this sense elsewhere only in 17:7. GK 4216.
25. An unusual thing for a master to do! The servants are to wait expectantly, prepared to serve the master as soon as he knocks. But when he returns, behold—he serves them! On this word, see "ministering" in 1 Pet 4:10.
26. The wedding celebrations in v 36 are envisioned as continuing through the first watch, 6 to 9 P.M.
27. The second watch was from 9 P.M. to midnight, the third from midnight to 3 A.M. See Mk 13:35.
28. Some manuscripts add "slaves" {N}, as in v 37.
29. Compare Mt 24:43-44.
30. Or, "know this", a command. Jesus is stating this as a saying or proverb, as in Mt 24:43. On this word, see 1:34.
31. Some manuscripts say "he would have kept watch and would not..." {B}, as in Mt 24:43.
32. Or, "prove to be, become". GK 1181. Same sentence as Mt 24:44.
33. Some manuscripts add "to Him" {N}.
34. Some think Peter means, "Are all Your disciples to 'watch' and be 'prepared' for a sudden coming, when they will be 'served' by You, or is this message just for the twelve?" Compare Mk 13:37. Others think Peter is referring to v 37 in particular, "Is this future honor and reward You mentioned for all, or only for the twelve?" The content sounds like it is for the disciples, yet it is spoken in a parable as if to the crowds.
35. Compare Mt 24:45-51.
36. In view of the sudden return of Jesus (v 37, 40), who is the wise one who will be entrusted a task when his master goes away? Jesus does not answer this directly, leaving each person to fill in his or her own name. Thus He answers Peter's question indirectly by giving a parable that applies to all. All are to watch for Him, serving faithfully.
37. Or, "sensible". On this word, see Mt 7:24. Some manuscripts say "faithful and wise" {K}.
38. On this word, see 1 Pet 4:10. Based on the description that follows, some think Jesus is referring to the leaders in the church being faithful to their calling. Others think this parable pictures whatever is entrusted to each individual believer. Thus He is referring to all believers being faithful to whatever He has given them.
39. Used only here in this sense, which is similar to "body-of-household-servants" in Mt 24:45. Related to "servant" in Heb 3:5. On this word, see "service" in Rev 22:2. Related to "cure" in Mt 8:7. It was used of "service, care, attendance upon" parents, children, masters, the sick, the gods, animals, plants, buildings, graves, etc. In this verse, it means the "group of servants" who do these various things.
40. Or, "food ration", the measure of grain. Used only here. GK 4991. This is the task of the one in the parable.

1. That is, faithfully doing what the master gave him to do when he departed.
2. Or, "Truthfully". On this word, see Mt 14:33.
3. Same word as in v 33. Such ones will be rewarded with a greater stewardship when the master returns.
4. Now Jesus gives the opposite case, the unfaithful servant, like the one in 19:20 or Mt 25:24.
5. This slave turns away in his heart, and then it shows in his behavior. He lives in disobedience to his master's will, doing things he has forbidden. On this word, see Jn 2:10. Related to the word in Mt 24:49.
6. On "assign his part", see Mt 24:51. That is, he will share the lot of unbelievers.
7. Or, "unfaithful ones, faithless ones". Mt 24:51 calls them "hypocrites", and refers to hell. This person suffers a violent death, and an inheritance with the unbelievers.
8. Some think v 47-48 further explains the case of v 46. When that person receives his lot with the unbelievers (hell), his suffering will be in proportion to his knowledge. In this case, this should be point 1G. Others think Jesus is giving two additional cases, willful, and unintentional neglect of the master's will by believers. Their punishment will be proportional to their knowledge. In this case, Jesus is speaking of what Paul later describes in 1 Cor 3:12-15, etc.
9. Or, "lashes, strokes". Same word as in 10:30.
10. For every gift given, an appropriate response is expected.
11. Or, "deposited". For every deposit made, a greater return is expected—the deposit plus interest, as in 19:22-23. On this word, see "put before" in Act 17:3.
12. Having answered Peter's question, Jesus now continues.
13. Compare Mt 3:12.
14. Or, "want, desire". On this word, see "willing" in Jn 7:17.
15. Or, "if", "and how I wish [to cast it] if it were...!". Or, "and what I wish [to do] if it were...!". In other words, Jesus wishes He could do it right then and there, but He cannot do so. GK 1623.
16. Or, "set on fire, lit". Some think Jesus means the fire of judgment, which will burn up the chaff, the unbelievers; the judgment following the winnowing of His people, 3:9, 17; 13:7. Others think He is referring to the spiritual fire that sets His people ablaze for Him; the fire of the Holy Spirit; the fire which results in the divisions mentioned in v 51 because of the offense of the Cross. He will set the world on fire with His gospel. Elsewhere only in Jam 3:5. GK 409.
17. That is, a baptism of blood. Jesus is referring to His violent death on the cross, as also in Mk 10:38.
18. Or, "occupied, gripped, distressed". Some think Jesus means this in a positive sense, "how I am under the control of this mission, how My life is gripped by it, how occupied I am with it", as Paul "was occupied with the word" in Act 18:5. Others think He means it in a negative sense, "how distressed I am by it". On this word, see "control" in 2 Cor 5:14.
19. More literally, "up to which time". On this idiom, see Mt 5:25.

24. Or, "in, in the sphere of". GK 1877.

26. Or, "For from now on, five in one house will have been divided" ("will be having been divided").
27. Some manuscripts have this verb singular {K}, so that it says "Father will be divided against son...".
28. Compare Mt 16:2-3.
29. Some manuscripts omit this word, so that it says "a cloud" {C}.
30. That is, coming in off the Mediterranean Sea. Elsewhere only in Mt 8:11; 24:27; Lk 13:29; Rev 21:13. GK 1553. Related to "setting" in 4:40, and "west" in Mark's short ending.

If you go before the judge, you will pay the full penalty of the law. In this parable, Jesus is exhorting the crowd to make their own decision about Him, for if they postpone the issue until they stand before God, they will pay His full penalty. Same phrase as 21:30.
38. Or, "ruler, official", referring to a member of the local court or Sanhedrin. On this word, see "ruler" in Rev 1:5.
39. This phrase "make an effort" is an idiom of Latin origin. Literally, "give a working, give a pursuit".

41. Used only in this verse. GK 4551.
42. On this word, see Mk 12:42. It is the smallest Jewish coin, 1/128 of a denarius.
43. Perhaps when Jesus spoke of settling disputes on the way, some gave this case of some Galileans who did not do so and paid with their lives while making their sacrifices. The nature of their dispute with Pilate is not known.

- 2E. "But the one, having responded, says to him, 'Master, leave it also this year, until¹¹ I dig around it and throw manure. *And if it produces fruit¹² in the future¹³— otherwise indeed,¹⁴ cut it down' " 9
- 10B. Now He was teaching in one of the synagogues on the Sabbath 10

- 2D. And at-once^L she was made-straight^M. And she was glorifying^N God
- 2C. But having responded, the synagogue official— being indignant^O because Jesus cured^P on the Sabbath— was saying to the crowd that "There are six days on which one ought-to^Q work. So be cured while coming on them, and not on the day of the Sabbath" 14
- 1D. But the Lord responded to him and said, "Hypocrites!¹⁹ Does not each of you on the Sabbath release²⁰ his ox or donkey from the manger²¹, and having led it away, water it? *But this one, being a daughter²² of Abraham whom Satan bound^R for behold, ten and eight²³ years— ought she not to have²⁴ been released from this bond^S on the day of the Sabbath?"²⁵ 15

- 1D.²⁸ Therefore,²⁹ He was saying, "To what is the kingdom of God like, and to what shall I liken³⁰ it? 18
- 1E. "It is like a seed of a mustard-plant^V which, having taken, a man threw into his own garden. And it grew and became³¹ a tree³². And the birds of the heaven nested^W in its branches" 19

2. That is, sinners, as in v 2. Jesus describes sin as a debt to God, as in Mt 6:12, "forgive us our debts".
3. Some think the fig tree represents Israel and the vineyard represents the world. Others think the vineyard is Israel and the fig tree is Jerusalem. In any case, Jesus came seeking fruit on this tree, but found none.
4. Or, "vineworker". Used only here. Related to "vineyard" in v 6. GK 307.
5. Some think this implies that Christ's ministry to Israel had been going on for three years by now, and that v 8-9 implies it will now extend to a fourth year. Others think it refers to the combined ministries of John the Baptist and Jesus. Others think the numbers are merely a part of the parable. The length of His ministry is nowhere given, but can only be inferred from a sequential harmonization of the four Gospel accounts.
6. Literally, "from which time". On this idiom, see Rev 16:18.
7. Note that the owner has been seeking fruit for three years, implying nothing as to how long the tree has been there.

1. Elsewhere only in Rom 9:20. GK 503. Some manuscripts add "to Him" {N}.
2. This is not a lesson on manners, but a parable. Jesus is referring to their attitude toward the kingdom of God. The Pharisees are assuming they have the place of privilege, but are truly heading toward an unexpected humiliation. These ones who think they are first, will end up last. They need to humble themselves before God.

10. In such a case, "you have your reward in full". No reward from God is due. Do not confuse being "friendly" or "neighborly" in this way (which is appropriate in its place) with serving God. God serves those who cannot repay.
11. Or, "banquet, a meal for guests", like the one Jesus was attending here. On this word, see 5:29.
12. On this word, see 2 Thes 1:6. Related to "repayment" in v 12.

7. Or, "take counsel, decide". On this word, see "plan" in Jn 11:53.
8. That is, successfully meet in battle. Elsewhere only in Mt 8:28; 28:9; Mk 5:2; Lk 8:27; Jn 4:51; 11:20, 30; 12:18; Act 16:16. GK 5636. Related to the word in Mt 25:1.
9. On this idiom, "otherwise indeed", see 2 Cor 11:16.
10. The grammar indicates that the king with 10,000 sends to the king coming with 20,000 to ask for peace.
11. So applying this to you then, here is the cost you must count and bear—a restatement of "hating his own life" in v 26.
12. Or, "taking leave of, bidding farewell". This has a figurative sense here, "renouncing". Your habit of life must be one of separating yourself from possessions to "taking hold of real life", 1 Tim 6:19. Compare the different tense of "sell" in 12:33. On this word, see 2 Cor 2:13.
13. Same word as in 12:33.
14. Compare Mt 5:13; Mk 9:50.
15. Jesus concludes with an illustration. Some manuscripts omit this word [N].
16. Or, "But if even salt becomes-tasteless...".
17. Or, "become insipid, lose its savor". Same word as in Mt 5:13. That is, if it is not usable for its purpose, like a "disciple" who does not carry his cross and follow after Him as just discussed. GK 3701.

19. Some think Luke means it was the habit of all this class of sinners to draw near wherever Jesus might be; others, that all this group (in the sense of "everyone" in 16:16) in this particular place where He has arrived came out on this occasion. What follows is spoken in this mixed group of outcast sinners and Pharisees, of hearers and disciples.
20. This is a more emphatic form of the word in 5:30. Elsewhere only in 19:7. GK 1339.
21. Note that these words apply to both groups in v 1-2, in different ways. Jesus primarily rebukes the Pharisees, while at the same time also expressing God's joy at the repentance of the tax collectors and sinners He is seeking.
22. Compare Mt 18:12-14.
23. Or, "to the lost one". Note the two perspectives here using the same word. The man "lost" a sheep. The sheep "got lost" or "became lost". Same word as in v 6, 8, 9, 17 ("perish"), 24, 32. This word is a link between the three parables in this chapter. On this word, see "lost" in Mt 10:6.
24. Or, Jesus may mean "men friends and neighbors" in particular, since He follows this with a case of a woman and her friends.
25. This is a participle, my sheep "having become-lost", as in v 4. Matthew says "gone astray", 18:12, 13.
26. Or, "rather-than". See the example in v 32. Some think there is joy over the ninety-nine who never got lost, but more joy over the one who repented. It is also a different kind of joy, the brief joy of celebration over finding what was lost versus the abiding joy of always having. Both are seen in the father in v 31-32. Others think the ninety-nine represents the Pharisees who need no repentance in their own eyes (like in 5:31-32), and that there is no joy over them until they also repent. There are none having no need of repentance, only ones who repented and ones who did not.
27. Note the change from one lost of a hundred, to one of ten, to one of two in v 11.
28. A drachma was a Greek silver coin, equivalent to the Roman "denarius" (see Mt 20:2). One drachma would be one day's wages for a laborer. Used only here and v 9. GK 1534. This woman would be living in a one room house with a dirt floor.
29. Or, "arises, takes place, occurs, happens". GK 1181.
30. Note that in this parable, Jesus again speaks to both the sinners in 15:1 (the younger brother), and the Pharisees in 15:2 (the older brother). Both wanted to spend the father's resources on themselves. The older brother did not share the father's view of the younger brother, or of himself. Both needed to repent. The father loves both and goes out to them. The younger son repented and was joyfully accepted back by the father. Whether the older son repented is left unstated.

- 1D. "And the younger of them said to his father, 'Father, give me the part^A of your substance'¹ falling² to me'. And the one distributed³ his property⁴ to them 12

- 1E. 'But when this son of yours came— the one having devoured^{AA} your property³⁰ with prostitutes— you slaughtered the fatted calf for him!' 30

1. More literally, "all that is mine, is yours". The totality of what is mine is yours. The younger brother had received his share, so everything remaining belonged to the older brother as his inheritance.
2. Or, "we had to". On this idiom, see "must" in Mt 16:21.
3. Or, "he lived, he came to life". On this word, see "came to life" in Rev 20:4. Related to the word in v 24, but without the prefix meaning "again". Some manuscripts have the same word as v 24 {N}.
4. This is a participle, "he was having become lost". Same word as in v 4.
5. Some think Luke means that 15:1-17:10 occurred on the same occasion (a similar question arises in 12:1). There is no change of scene, only of the hearers. Jesus continues to speak words that apply to all present, in different ways. The previous parable transitions between concern for the lost one and the proper use of money. The wrong view of money (that it is for our earthly benefit) seen in both brothers in 15:11-32 is now addressed. The present parable speaks primarily to the disciples (ones who have repented), while at the same time rebuking the Pharisees (the reverse of 15:3). Others think this introduces a new occasion not linked to chapter 15, making this point 16B. In either case, this is also spoken in the hearing of the Pharisees, v 14.
6. Some manuscripts say "His" {N}.
7. Or, "manager, household administrator". Same word as in v 3, 8. On this word, see 1 Pet 4:10.

13. That is, my position of management responsibility, as in v 4. Same word as in v 2.
14. The grammar indicates this is a sudden inspiration. "I've got it! I know what I will do".
15. Or, "in order that they might". Likewise in v 9. GK 2671.
16. While producing the accounts for the master (v 2), the steward quickly forgave part of their debt so that they would be indebted to him after he was removed. The point is that he used his master's resources to create a new life for himself. We are to use our money, the things entrusted to us (God's resources), for the same purpose, v 9.
17. Or, "measures". This is a transliterated Hebrew word. It is a liquid measure. There were different measuring systems in different times and places. Some estimate one bath at about 5-7 gallons (21-26 liters); others, at 8-10 gallons (32-39 liters). It depends on which ancient source one follows. Used only here. GK 1004.
18. That is, your written records, receipts, bills, accounts. On this word, see Jn 7:15.

20. Some manuscripts say "And the one says..." {N}.
21. Or, "And the Lord". Some think this is referring to the master in the parable; others, to the Lord Jesus, making this Luke's comment.
22. More literally, "the steward of unrighteousness", the steward characterized by unrighteousness. This is a Hebrew way of speaking.
23. Or, "wisely, prudently". Used only here. GK 5862. Related to "shrewd" next, on which see "wise" in Mt 7:24.
24. Jesus adds this to make clear the point He wishes us to draw from the parable. He is not praising the steward for his unrighteousness, but for his shrewd use of another's resources for his own future good.
25. That is, "belonging to this age", or "characterized by this age", versus the sons of the light. GK 172.
26. Or, "with reference to, regarding, toward". GK 1650.
27. Or, "generation, clan". On this word, see "generation" in Mt 24:34.
28. That is, than believers in relation to their own kind. Unbelievers act more shrewdly in this world with regard to their future welfare in earthly "houses" (v 4), than believers do with regard to their future welfare in heavenly "dwellings" (v 9).
29. Same word as in v 11, 13. On this word, see Mt 6:24. Literally, "the wealth of unrighteousness", the wealth characterized by unrighteousness. It is the wealth of this age, the wealth you are not to serve as slave, v 13. In other words, use your money (your Master's resources) in this age so that in the next, it will return a dividend to you. 14:13 is an example. Be as adept and creative at using your resources from God righteously for eternal rewards as this one was unrighteously for earthly ones. This is the point Jesus makes from the parable. Beyond this, there are many views about what other points might be made from the details of the parable. Consult the commentaries.
30. Or, "leaves off, ceases, gives out, comes to an end". That is, when the money comes to an end, when you die. Same word as in 22:32; 23:45. Elsewhere only as "end" in Heb 1:12. GK 1722. Related to "unfailing" in 12:33. Some manuscripts say "you fail" {K}.
31. Some think this refers to God's agents, and God Himself; others, to the friends, assuming they also died.
32. Or, "the least thing". However, the contrast is between very-little and much, not least and most. GK 1788.
33. Or, "in a great thing, in a large thing".
34. The same character is seen in one's handling of the small things and the big things. Inner character is not created by the task, but demonstrated by it. So if a small thing like money has shown one to be untrustworthy, who is going to entrust a larger thing to that person?
35. Or, "did not become, were not". Same word as in v 12. GK 1181.
36. Or, "faithful". This word is related to "entrust" next, and is rendered this way to reflect this. Same word as in v 12 and twice in v 10. On this word, see "faithful" in Col 1:2.
37. Or, "genuine, real". That is, the truly valuable thing, true spiritual, eternal wealth. Jesus contrasts what in eternal reality is not important or valuable with what in eternal reality is important and valuable. On this word, see Jn 7:28.
38. Earthly wealth belongs to God. We are merely stewards of it.
39. We often think of money as our "own", and the future blessing as God's. Jesus views our present things as God's resources entrusted to us, and His future blessings as what will be our "own".
40. Compare Mt 6:24.
41. That is, "serving as a slave to, being a slave to". On this word, see "are slaves" in Rom 6:6.
42. On "devoted to" and "disregard", see Mt 6:24.

- 5C. And³⁸ He said to His³⁹ disciples— 17:1

1. The Pharisees equated wealth with the blessing of God, and proof of His favor. On this word, see 2 Tim 3:2.
2. Some think "all" means 15:1-16:13. Jesus responds to their reaction, v 15-18 being addressed to the heart issue seen in 15:2, and v 19-31 to the heart issue of 16:1-13. Others think "all" refers only to 16:1-13, v 15-18 going to their hearts, v 19-31 to the consequences.
3. Or, "turning up the nose at, ridiculing, mocking". The idea of spending now to build up treasures then always seems foolish to people outside God's family. Elsewhere only in 23:35. GK 1727. Related to "mock" in Gal 6:7.
4. On "declare righteous", see Rom 3:24. And by contrast, the Pharisees are also passing judgment on the ones in 15:1.
5. Or, "highly-esteemed, high, exalted". God knows you Pharisees are not righteous, because the things you value and base your opinion on, He hates. And the things He values, you do not value, as seen in your attitude toward these tax collectors and sinners, and your views on money, and on divorce (v 18). This word means "high" in various senses. Same word as "lofty" in Rom 11:20; 12:16. Used 11 times. GK 5734. Related to "lifted up" in Jn 8:28.
6. Or, "detestable". On this word, see Rev 17:4.
7. Or, "as far as", GK 3588. Some manuscripts have the same word as in Mt 11:13 {N} (GK 2401).
8. On this phrase "from that time on", see Mt 4:17. Compare Mt 11:12.
9. This is like saying "all Jerusalem" in Mt 2:3, or "all Israel" in Act 13:24. This is why tax collectors and sinners also are drawing near to hear (Lk 15:1), and repenting. Failing to understand this, you Pharisees continue condemning and excluding them.
10. Same word as "treated-violently" in Mt 11:12. Some think Jesus means everyone is "trying to force his way, press" into it. The crowds press to see Jesus, and experience the blessings of the kingdom, and enter it. But the Pharisees are rejecting it and trying to force their views on Jesus. Others think He means "everyone is forced into it", "is strongly urged into it", similar to Lk 14:23, as this word is used in Judg 19:7 where a guest is "urged" to stay. Everyone is being urged to enter it, including tax collectors. Others think He means "everyone forces against it", exerts force or violence against it. Compare Mt 11:12.
11. Though the Pharisees try to force themselves in on their own terms, God's Law will not be set aside. Not one Law will be set aside when granting entrance to His kingdom, Mt 5:17-19; not for tax collectors, and not for Pharisees. No one will enter it without repenting of their version of Law-breaking.
12. Or, "fall, fall down". Same word as in 1 Cor 13:8.
13. That is, divorcing. Jesus is giving another example of their Law-breaking. The Pharisees condemn the tax collectors and sinners, but they themselves are violating God's Law in this area, and teaching others to do so. Jesus is charging them with adultery, an adultery which they legalized with their traditions. The self-justifying sinners like them are the ones rejected by God, not the repentant sinners. On this word, see Mt 5:31.
14. Some manuscripts say "And everyone marrying..." {N}.
15. This parable is spoken to all "money lovers", whether sinners or Pharisees.
16. That is, a fine-linen undergarment and a purple outer garment. Used only here. GK 1116. Related to the word in Rev 19:8.
17. Or, "brilliantly, brightly". That is, in their bright clothing and shining things. Used only here. GK 3289. Related to "shining" in Rev 18:14; 22:1; and "shine" in 2 Cor 4:6.
18. Same word as "celebrate" in 15:23.
19. Not at festivals or weddings like others, but every day.
20. This is the only place Jesus gives a name to a person in a parable.
21. Same phrase as in 15:16, "desiring to be filled to satisfaction".
22. Some manuscripts say "the crumbs falling" {B}, as in Mt 15:27. Lazarus wished he could be filled, but he was not. Some think he was given such table scraps, but that they were not enough to fill him. Others think he was not given anything, but lived off begging from passers-by, visitors to the rich man.
23. Or, "But even". Some think Jesus means Lazarus received help only from those passing by, "even indeed" from dogs who cleaned his sores. Others think He means Lazarus desired to be filled, "but even" the dogs tormented him.
24. That is, to be with Abraham in paradise.
25. Same word as in v 28. Elsewhere only in Mt 4:24. GK 992. Related to "torment" in Rev 14:10.
26. Or, "from far-away". GK 3427.
27. Or, "at his bosoms, at his side". It is plural only here, and may have the same meaning as the singular. Same word as in v 22, on which see Jn 1:18. Some think Jesus means Lazarus is under Abraham's arm with his head against his chest, hugged and loved like the son come home at last. Others think he is at the side of Abraham at a great banquet, reclining in the place of honor, as in Jn 13:23.
28. Same word as in v 25. On this word, see 2:48.
29. Same word as in Gal 4:5; Col 3:24; 2 Jn 8; and as "receive-back" in Lk 6:34; 15:27; 18:30; 23:41; Rom 1:27. Elsewhere only as "take away" in Mk 7:33. GK 655.
30. Some manuscripts omit this word {K}.
31. Or, "in connection with all these things". Some manuscripts say "And in addition to all these things" {N}.
32. Or, "wide opening, yawning, gulf, gaping expanse". Used only here. GK 5926. We get "chasm" from this word chasma.
33. Or, "set, established". On this word, see "establish" in 1 Thes 3:2.
34. This word is plural, referring to all those on the other side.
35. On this word, see "solemnly-charge" in 1 Tim 5:21.
36. After all, I did not take them seriously, and neither do my brothers.
37. In fact, another Lazarus did rise from the dead, and the chief priests wanted to kill him! (Jn 11:43; 12:10).
38. Some think this introduces a new occasion, a new "B" level point after 16:1; others, a further response to the issues raised in chapters 15-16. As in 16:1, Jesus speaks to the disciples with words that also rebuke the Pharisees. In addition, some think v 1-2; 3-4; 5-6; and 7-10 are unconnected sayings; others think there is a flow of thought.
39. Some manuscripts say "the" {K}.

1. Used only here. GK 450. Related to "cannot be" in 13:33.
2. On this word, see Rom 11:9. In this context, Jesus is referring to things such as the Pharisees were just described as doing in chapters 15-16—rejecting the repentant, teaching traditions that set aside God's laws, loving and living for money, etc. But any behavior or teaching that causes others to fall is included.
3. This is stated positively in Mt 18:7, negatively here. Causes of falling are bound to come.
4. Used only here. GK 3387. Luke, Mt 18:6, and Mk 9:42 each use a different word to express this.
5. Or, a stone "belonging-to-a-mill". Used only here. GK 3683. Related to "millstone" in Mk 9:42.
6. Or, "cast, hurled, tossed". On this word, see "thrown forth" in Mt 9:36. Mk 9:42 uses an unrelated word (GK 963).
7. Same vivid grammar as in Mk 9:42. A person would be better off to already be dead at the bottom of the sea with a mill's stone lying around his neck than to do this. Compare Mt 18:6.
8. Some think Jesus is referring to the tax collectors and sinners in 15:1, as well as to the insignificant believers like Lazarus, these little disciples the Pharisees or rich ones disdain. Others think this is not connected with chapters 15-16, and that it refers to these beloved little disciples against whom such ones in v 1 bring a cause of falling.
9. On this verb, "cause to fall", see 1 Cor 8:13. Related to the word in v 1.
10. Compare Mt 18:15-21.
11. On this phrase, see 12:1. That is, be on guard to treat one another properly as follows, not as described in v 1-2. Some take "Take heed to yourselves" only with what precedes, making it point 2E.
12. Some manuscripts add "against you" {A}. Apply God's laws to your brothers and sisters to help them where needed.
13. This is in direct contrast to what the Pharisees did regarding the tax collectors, 15:2; 17:1.
14. Some manuscripts add "in the day" {N}.
15. Some think this introduces a different occasion, unrelated to v 4, a new "B" level point. Others think this is the apostles' response 15:1-17:4, or to 17:1-4 in particular.
16. Or, "Add faith to us, Grant us faith". That is, "Increase our faith for us". Perhaps the apostles think that if they are going to forgive seven times a day, they need more faith. Perhaps after all the Lord's words about properly handling money, not causing others to fall, rebuking and forgiving others, etc., they were overwhelmed and felt they needed more faith to obey. But this is not so. The smallest amount is enough. Elsewhere only as "add" in Mt 6:27, 33; Mk 4:24; Lk 3:20; 12:25, 31; Act 2:41, 47; 5:14; 11:24; Gal 3:19; Heb 12:19; "put with" in Act 13:36; and "proceed" (see 19:11). GK 4707.
17. Compare Mt 17:20; 21:21; Mk 11:22-23.
18. The grammar means "Assuming you have faith" of even this tiny amount.
19. Some manuscripts omit this word {C}.
20. It is not the quantity of our faith that accomplishes great things, but God. With a tiny bit of faith in Him, God can do great things through us. Jesus is telling the apostles that they already have enough to do far more than they realize. They just need to utilize it.
21. Some think this parable is not related to the request of v 5, but to the preceding context. Jesus is warning them against taking an attitude like the Pharisees, who thought they merited God's favor, and that God was obligated to reward them because of their obedience. Others think He is warning the disciples against a prideful attitude that could result from the future great deeds of faith they will do, to which He alluded in v 6.
22. That is, shepherding sheep. On this word, see Rev 19:15.
23. Same verb as in 12:37.
24. Or, "thankfulness, gratefulness", an attitude of favor. This phrase is elsewhere only in 1 Tim 1:12; 2 Tim 1:3; Heb 12:28; "have favor" in Act 2:47; and as "have a benefit" in 2 Cor 1:15. GK 5921. "Gratitude" is the word "grace" (see Eph 2:8 on it).
25. Some manuscripts say "that" {K}.
26. Some manuscripts add "to him" {B}.
27. The grammar indicates a "no" answer is expected. Some manuscripts add "I think not" {B}.
28. This is what Jesus means by this parable. It is intended to teach us what we should think about ourselves. When we finish everything commanded, we have only fulfilled our obligation, our duty, what we owe our Master. However far our faith extends in action, we can never earn or merit anything from Him. Whatever rewards come to us will be by God's grace, not any obligation on His part.
29. Or, "accomplish, perform". Had Jesus said "only do", the parable would have a very different meaning.
30. On this word, see Mt 25:30. We are unable to bring the Master any gain exceeding His investment in us, for which He would be obligated to reward us.
31. Or, "between". Luke could mean "through the middle of them", or, "between them", on their borders. This use of "through" (GK 1328) in this idiom is found only here in the Greek Bible.
32. This word is singular. The ten shouted together as one voice. This phrase is elsewhere only in Act 4:24.
33. That is, go obtain a ritual cleansing in accordance with the Law, implying that they would be healed.
34. Thanksgiving to the Healer for the healing should come first, then the obtaining of the ritual cleansing.
35. Or, "a close-watching, a looking-closely". That is, in such a way that it can be physically observed. Jesus will later say, "My kingdom is not of this world", Jn 18:36. Used only here. GK 4191. Related to "closely watch" in 6:7. Medical writers used this word of closely watching for symptoms of a disease. Compare v 24 and 21:31.
36. Or, "inside". Elsewhere only in Mt 23:26, "inside" of the cup. GK 1955. This preposition is the opposite of "outside". Some take this in an individual sense, meaning "in the hearts of people"; others, in a national sense, "in your midst, among you" (it is all around you in Me and in those who believe in Me). In either case, it is spiritual in nature.
37. Compare Mt 24:23-27.
38. This phrase "one of the days" is elsewhere only in 5:17; 8:22; 20:1. Some think Jesus means one of the days after He returns in glory. There are other views.
39. Some manuscripts omit this word {C}. Some manuscripts reverse it, so that it says "Behold—here He is", or, "Behold—there He is" {C}, as in Mk 13:21.

1. Some manuscripts add "also" {K}. All will see it, as unmistakably as a light turned on in a dark room.
2. Some manuscripts omit "in His day" {C}.
3. Compare Mt 24:37-39.
4. That is, life will be going on as normal. It will be unexpected, like a thief at night. On this word, see 1 Cor 7:38.
5. Or, "happen", as in Mt 16:22. Same word as "be" in v 24, 26 (GK 1639), not as "happened" in v 26, 28 (GK 1181).
6. Or, "in accordance with the same things, in the same manner". On this phrase, see 6:23.
7. Compare Mt 24:17-18; Mk 13:15-16.
8. Or, "likewise not return back". On "to the things behind", see "back" in Jn 6:66.
9. That is, be keeping in mind what happened in her case.
10. Compare Mt 16:25.
11. Or, "secure, keep safe, gain for himself". On this word, see "obtain" in 1 Tim 3:13. Some manuscripts say "to save" {B}.
12. Same word as in 9:24.
13. Or, "preserve it". On this word, "keep alive", see "give life to" in 1 Tim 6:13.
14. Compare Mt 24:40-41.
15. The sense is most general. Or, "men", since Jesus refers to women in the next verse. Note v 36, and Mt 24:40-41.
16. This word means "take (with)", as in Mt 1:20; "take along", as in Lk 9:10; 11:26; "take aside", as in Lk 18:31. It implies nothing as to whether the taking is for blessing, as in Lk 9:28; Jn 14:3; Act 16:33; or for judgment, as in Jn 19:16. It also means "receive" in a positive sense, as in Col 2:6; Heb 12:28; and "accept" in Jn 1:11. Compare Mt 24:40. Used 49 times. GK 4161.
17. Or, "left behind, abandoned". Some think Jesus means that as Noah and Lot were "taken" for their protection and the others "left" for judgment, so some will be "taken into the kingdom, away from destruction", or, "taken in the rapture" (1 Thes 4:17). Others think that as the others were "taken" in judgment, and Noah and Lot were "left" living on earth after the judgment, so some are "left" to enter His kingdom on earth, as in Mt 13:41-43.
18. This is a daytime activity. On this idiom, "at the same place", see Act 2:47.
19. Some manuscripts add as v 36, "Two men will be in a field— one will be taken and the other will be left" {A}, as in Mt 24:40.
20. Compare Mt 24:28.
21. Some think this question applies to v 34-35, taking it to mean "Where will they be taken or left?"; or, "Where will this separation, this taking and leaving, take place?" Others think it applies to v 22-35 (making it point 3C.), and means "Where will You come back?" There are other views.
22. Matthew says "corpse", Mt 24:28. Some think Jesus means "where the body of those judged is taken or left, there the vultures will have them", similar to Rev 19:18, 21. Others think Jesus answers their question of locality with a universal principle. Wherever the spiritually dead are, there judgment will fall. Others taking this as point 3C. think He means that His coming will be as clearly accompanied by obvious signs as dead bodies are by vultures. Consult the commentaries on these and other views.
23. Or, "indeed". Some manuscripts omit this word {N}.
24. This word (GK 2190) is related to the word in Mt 24:28.
25. That is, to the disciples in 17:22. This is what they must do while waiting and desiring to see the days of the Son of Man.
26. Or, "so as" (see Mt 5:28 on this). The literal grammar may be conveyed in two ways. Some think Luke is giving the purpose of the parable— Jesus spoke "to them so as [to show them] that they must always pray and...". Others think he is pointing to the subject to be addressed with the parable, as when we speak "to" an issue— Jesus spoke "with regard to" (same word as in 19:9) the necessity of praying always. The end result is virtually the same. GK 4639.
27. On this idiom, see "must" in Mt 16:21.
28. Or, "growing weary, growing tired". On this word, see 2 Cor 4:1. We must keep praying, for God will answer.
29. Or, "respecting", literally, "turning himself to". Same word as in Mt 21:37; Mk 12:6; Lk 18:4; 20:13; and as "respect" in Heb 12:9. That is, this man's judgments were not influenced by God's justice or the person before him, but solely by his own reasoning. Elsewhere only as "to shame" (literally, turn one on himself) in 1 Cor 4:14; and "to be ashamed" (literally, turned on oneself) in 2 Thes 3:14; Tit 2:8. GK 1956. Related to "shame" in 1 Cor 6:5.
30. Or, "grant me justice". That is, "Give me a just return from my adversary". Since the offense is not stated, the widow could mean "Punish him for his crime", or "Make him fulfill his legal obligation to me", or "Protect me from his attacks", all bringing an end to the situation. Same word as in v 5. On this word, see "punish" in 2 Cor 10:6. Related to "vengeance" in v 7-8, and to "avenger" in Rom 13:4.
31. That is, after the widow repeatedly came to him, v 3.
32. More literally, "If I even do not fear...". This idiom (see 1 Cor 7:21) means "accepting that I even do not fear God..., yet I will answer her request because of her persistent asking". This is the same point made in 11:8.
33. This phrase "causing trouble" is also in Mt 26:10; Mk 14:6; Lk 11:7; Gal 6:17. On "trouble", see "labor" in 1 Cor 3:8. On "cause", see "grant" in Act 17:31.
34. Or, "to the end, perpetually". On this phrase, see 1 Thes 2:16, "to the uttermost". Some put this with "wear out", so that it says "that she, while coming" may not "completely, fully" or "finally, at last" wear me out.
35. This word "wear out" has a physical sense "to give a black eye, bruise"; a moral sense, "to give a black eye, disgrace"; and a figurative sense, "to browbeat, wear out, annoy greatly". Here, the judge fears repeated harassment, not a one time physical attack or anything people might think. Elsewhere only as "bruise" in 1 Cor 9:27. GK 5724.
36. More literally, "the judge of unrighteousness"; that is, the judge characterized by unrighteousness.
37. The judge is saying that he will answer her request because of her continual coming and persistent asking.

- 1D. "Many-times-as-much⁴² in this time⁴³
- 2D. "And in the coming age— eternal life"

1. Or, "do, bring about, accomplish". The grammar expects a "yes" answer, "Yes he will do it". On this word, see "does" in Rev 13:13.
2. Or "punishment". On this word, see "punishment" in 2 Thes 1:8. Same word as in Rom 12:19, "Vengeance is Mine". The phrase "execute vengeance" is elsewhere only in v 8; Act 7:24; and in Ex 12:12; Num 33:4; Judg 11:36; Ps 149:7; Ezek 16:41; 25:11, 17; 30:14; Mic 5:15. Compare "execute judgment" in Jn 5:27.
3. On this word, see "shout" in Mt 3:3. Related to "outcry" in Jam 5:4.
4. On this word, see 1 Cor 13:4. This phrase "be patient with" is elsewhere only in Mt 18:26, 29; Jam 5:7. Unlike the unrighteous judge, who refused to help the widow and who only answered because of his impatience with her, God will answer the ones crying out to Him, and He is patient with them, never tiring of hearing from them. Both His action and attitude are the opposite of this judge. Our part is to "always pray and not lose heart". Others take this word as meaning "delay". Thus some suggest Jesus means, "And He is delaying [to act] for them" from their point of view. Others make it a separate question, "night? And is He delaying over them?" Others link it to the previous question and force the tenses to agree, "will not God execute vengeance..., and [will] He delay long over them?" In these last two views, some take "them" as the chosen ones; others, as the enemies. Consult the commentaries on these and other views.
5. Or, "with haste", by God's clock. On this idiom, see Rev 1:1. That is, when the Son of Man comes, to which He next refers. Note 2 Thes 1:7-10.
6. Jesus will come and answer, but will He find those faithfully asking, like the widow? The grammar is deliberately chosen so as not to imply an answer (same grammar as in Act 8:30). Some think He asks the question to encourage us to have faith, leaving each to answer for himself. Note how this question points to the necessity of v 1. Others think He means that this will not be the case.
7. Or, "faithfulness". Literally, "the faith". Some think this means "the faith being spoken of in this parable", the faith that prays always and does not lose heart. Others think it means "faith in God", believing people. On this word, see "faith" in Eph 2:8.
8. More literally, "are", as the Greek typically phrases it.
9. Or, "the others". Same word as in v 11. On this word, see "other" in 2 Pet 3:16.
10. On this word, "treat with contempt", see 1 Thes 5:20.
11. Or, "with reference to himself". On the phrase "to himself", see 24:12. Some punctuate it, "having stood to himself, was praying...", that is, having stood apart from others.
12. This Pharisee puts himself in a class by himself.
13. Some Pharisees fasted on Thursday (the day Moses ascended the mountain) and Monday (the day he came down). They went beyond the Law, which only commanded a fast on the Day of Atonement.
14. On this word, see "collect a tenth from" in Heb 7:5.
15. Pharisees went beyond the Law, which only commanded a tithe on certain crops. They tithed even spices, Mt 23:23.
16. Or, "acquire, procure, gain". Some think this Pharisee means "all my income". Others think he means "all I buy", again going beyond the Law. On this word, see "acquire" in 1 Thes 4:4.
17. Or, "forgive, pardon". Grammatically, this word is passive, and means "be satisfied, be propitiated to me [as to Your wrath]". But from the human point of view, what this man is asking God to do is "be merciful, forgive me, accept me" as a result of being satisfied, and so the word is used in the OT. Same word as "relent" in Ex 32:14; "be atoned for" in Deut 21:8; "pardon" in 2 King 5:18; 24:4; Ps 25:11; Lam 3:42; "forgive" in 2 Chron 6:30; Ps 65:3; 78:38; 79:9. On this word, see "make-an-offering-for-satisfaction" in Heb 2:17. GK 2661. Related to "merciful" in Heb 8:12.
18. This man thinks of himself as "the" sinner. The Pharisee thinks of others as sinners.
19. The temple was "up", v 10.
20. Parallel account at Mt 19:13; Mk 10:13.
21. Or, "even". That is, in addition to their sick ones.
22. Or, "infants". On this word, see 1:41. Luke uses "children" in v 16, the same word Mt 19:13 and Mk 10:13 have here also.
23. That is, the ones bringing them.
24. The grammar indicates Luke is referring to the babies. Jesus summoned the babies and spoke to the disciples.
25. That is, it belongs to childlike ones such as these, whether children or adults. See Mt 19:14.
26. See Mk 10:15 on this.
27. Parallel account at Mt 19:16; Mk 10:17.
28. Same exact question as in 10:25.
29. Only God is good in an absolute sense, and Jesus is good in this sense. But unless this ruler is intending to address Jesus as God, he should not be calling Him good. If Jesus is not God, He is certainly not good. He is a deceiver, just as the Pharisees said. This man's superficial use of the word "good" mirrors his superficial concept of what God required of him. He is looking at both from his own human perspective, not God's perspective. Jesus points him to God.
30. On this word, see Jam 1:5. Not the same word as in Mk 10:21.
31. As the ones in Act 4:35 did, where this same word is used.
32. Same word as in v 24. On this word, see Mt 26:38.
33. That is, Jesus saw the man become grieved. Some manuscripts omit "having become deeply grieved" {C}.
34. Or, "money". On this word, see Mk 10:23.
35. Or, "aperture, orifice". Used only here. GK 5557. Matthew and Mark and Luke each use a different word. Jesus means that it is impossible, as is clear from v 26 and 27. Compare Mt 19:24; Mk 10:25.
36. Used only here. GK 1017. Used of a missile, dart, arrow, the "point" of a spear. Related to "arrows" in Eph 6:16. Matthew and Mark use a different word.
37. On "our own things", see Jn 19:27.
38. Some manuscripts say instead "we have left everything and followed..." {N}.
39. This word is plural, addressing them all.
40. The phrase "by any means not" is the strongest negative in Greek. See 9:27.
41. Some manuscripts omit this word {C}.
42. Or, "Many times more". That is, more houses, wives, brothers, parents, children, etc., as in Mk 10:30. This person is now part of a much larger family, the family of God. Used only here. GK 4491.
43. Or, "season". That is, during this life on earth. Same word as in Mk 10:30.

1. Parallel account at Mt 20:17; Mk 10:32.
2. Or, "stand up, get up", as in 17:19; 22:45. This word is used 108 times, usually as "stand up, arise". It is used of resurrection less than one third of the time, of which only 18 are of Christ. Will Jesus rise up in the sense of 16:31, or Jn 6:39, or Act 3:22, or Act 20:30? All of these use this same word. Note the same confusion in Jn 11:23-24; Act 13:33. This word both reveals and conceals, like "lift up" in Jn 8:28. The disciples wondered (Mk 9:10), but did not understand (Lk 18:34). GK 482. Related to "resurrection" in Act 24:15.
3. This is a participle. It "was having been hidden". Compare 9:45. Same word as in 19:42.
4. Or, "understanding". On this word, see "know" in 1:34.
5. Parallel account at Mt 20:29; Mk 10:46. Compare Mt 9:27-31.
6. Mt 20:29 and Mk 10:46 say "going out". Some think this man was sitting on the way in, began following Jesus, was joined by a second blind man, began shouting, and both were healed on the way out. Others think Luke is referring to the new Roman Jericho (which Antony gave to Cleopatra, and Herod the Great and Archelaus enlarged) which they were entering; Matthew and Mark to the old OT Jericho which they were leaving. There are other views. On this word, see Lk 21:28. "Jericho" is GK 2637.
7. Mt 20:30 mentions two blind men. Mark and Luke tell the story of one of them, perhaps the prominent speaker, or the one that became known to the church (Mark names him in detail).
8. Used only here in Luke. On this word, see Mt 2:23.
9. That is, Messiah. On this phrase, see Mt 9:27.
10. On this word, see 1 Cor 14:34. Not the same word as in Mk 10:48.
11. Same word as "stopped" in Mt 20:32 and Mk 10:49, but different grammar. GK 2705.
12. Some manuscripts add "saying" {N}.
13. More literally, "want that I should do for you?"
14. This man was one to whom someone like Matthew (Mt 10:3) would have reported. Used only here. GK 803.
15. More literally, "is", as the Greek typically phrases it.
16. Or, "fig-mulberry tree, sycamore-fig tree". Used only here. GK 5191.
17. Some manuscripts say "Jesus saw him and said..." {N}.
18. Or, "remain, abide". On this word, see "abide" in Jn 15:4.
19. That is, "received Him as a guest, received Him into his house". On this word, see 10:38.
20. Same word as in 9:12.
21. Or, "stopped". The setting for this statement and the response of Jesus in v 9 and v 11 could be inside the house of Zacchaeus, perhaps at a meal, in which case he "stood [up]" to say this. Or, the setting could be on the road, after leaving his house, in which case Zacchaeus "stopped" or "stood [still]" to say this. GK 2705.
22. Same word as "Lord" earlier. See Mt 8:2 on it.
23. On this word, see "extort with false charges" in 3:14. The grammar indicates that Zacchaeus is assuming that he had done so. Note the contrast with the man in 18:23.
24. Or, "to", as in v 5, 8, 13. GK 4639.
25. This word means "deliverance" (Act 7:25; Phil 1:19), and "preservation" (Act 27:34), from danger or death. Elsewhere only as "salvation" (43 times), mostly in a spiritual sense (being saved from eternal death, and all that this means positively). GK 5401. Related to "save" in v 10.
26. Or, "came about in, took place in". GK 1181. Not the same word as in v 10.
27. Or, "because he also".
28. This verb means "to save, deliver, rescue". It is often used of saving from death, and from eternal death, but also of saving from disease (see "restore" in Jam 5:15), and of "saving" the people out of Egypt (Jude 5). Used 106 times. GK 5392. Related to "salvation" in v 9, and 2:30, and Tit 2:11; and to "savior" in Lk 1:47.
29. This is a participle addressing this group as a collective whole, "that which is lost", "the [group] having become lost". On this word, see Mt 10:6.
30. Compare Mt 25:14-30.
31. That is, to the statements about salvation coming today, v 9-10. Jesus adds this parable to clarify that the salvation He was referring to was not the immediate establishment of the kingdom for Israel which the Jews expected. He will be going away to receive His kingdom, and they must do business while He is gone.
32. Or, "having added [to them]". Paraphrasing, "He went on to speak a parable". Same word as in 20:11, 12; Act 12:3. This reflects a Hebrew way of speaking. On this word, see "increase" in 17:5.

36. Or, "noble, socially important". On this word, see 1 Cor 1:26.
37. Jesus is referring to Himself. This is a well-understood concept, since all rulers received their kingdom (the territory and people over which they reigned) from Rome, and some went there to secure it (as Archelaus did, Mt 2:22).
38. This is a Greek unit of money worth 100 denarii (Mt 20:2). 60 minas equals one talent (see Mt 25:15). Note that each receives the same amount, one mina each. Elsewhere only in v 16, 18, 20, 24, 25. GK 3641.
39. Or, "going". More literally, "during which time I am coming". Both the going away and the coming back are included. But from the viewpoint of importance to the slaves, he is "coming". On this word, see Mk 16:2.

7. Some manuscripts say "the chief priests and the scribes" {N}.
8. This is the Greek word order. This may be separate and additional from what precedes. Or, "And-yet they feared...", giving the reason they failed to seize Him.
9. Luke may be giving the reason for the seeking and the fear. Or it may be punctuated, "people, for they knew...", giving the reason for their fear; or, "hour, and-yet they feared the people. For they knew...", giving the reason they sought Him.
10. Luke could mean "the people" knew this. In this case, Luke moves from "the people" (singular) to "they knew" (plural), reflecting common grammar found also in Lk 1:21; 9:12; 13: 14; 20:6; etc. Or, "they" may continue to refer to the scribes and priests, so that the subject stays the same throughout the verse. The scribes and priests "sought... and feared... for they knew...". In any case, they fear the effect Jesus might have on the people. Everyone understood Him—people (v 16), and priests—and the priests feared how the people would respond, and sought to get rid of Jesus. Mk 12:12 is a parallel verse with the same issues. Compare also Lk 22:2; Mt 21:46.

- 2C. And the One said to them, "Behold— you having entered into the city, a man will meet^P you carrying^Q a jar^R of water. Follow him to the house into which he proceeds. *And you will say to the master³⁶ of the house, 'The Teacher says to you, "Where is the guest-room³⁷ where I may eat the Passover [meal] with My disciples?"' *And that one will show you a large upstairs-room having been spread^S [with furnishings]. Prepare it there" 10

- 1D. And He said to them, "I greatly desired⁴⁰ to eat this Passover [meal] with you before I suffer^T" 15
- 1E. "For I say to you that I will by no means eat⁴¹ it⁴² until⁴³ it is fulfilled^U in the kingdom^V of God" 16
- 2D. And having taken⁴⁴ a cup⁴⁵, having given-thanks^W, He said, "Take this and distribute⁴⁶ it to yourselves⁴⁷" 17

1. Same phrase as in 12:1, "take heed to yourselves".
2. Or, "reveling, dissipation, excessive drinking". This word means "intoxication", and its result, "hangover, drunken nausea, drunken headache, dizziness". Used only here. GK 3190.
3. Or, "worries, cares". Same word as in 8:14.
4. Elsewhere only in 1 Cor 6:3, 4. GK 1053. Related to the word "life" in 1 Jn 2:16.
5. Or, "unforeseen, sudden". This adjective modifies "day". It is a "day which may be described as unexpected". It is unexpected in its very nature, and by such people in particular (since they are distracted). Part of the very nature of this day is that it comes on the world with sudden unexpectedness, although Christians know it is coming. But Christians whose hearts are weighed down as described here say "I know it is coming some day, but I do not expect it soon. My master delays (Mt 24:48)". For these, that day will in fact be a "sudden, unexpected" day that "comes upon" them. Christians "taking heed" to their spiritual lives live in expectation of it at all times, keeping watch, Mt 24:42, 44. Many render this as an adverb, "suddenly", "and that day come upon you suddenly". Elsewhere only in 1 Thes 5:3. GK 167. Related to "suddenly" in 2:13.
6. Used here and in 1 Thes 5:3 in the sense of "come upon suddenly or by surprise, spring upon", as also in Act 4:1; 6:12; 17:5; 23:27. Elsewhere only as "come upon" in Lk 2:38; "stand near" in Lk 2:9; 10:40; 20:1; 24:4; Act 12:7; 22:13, 20; 23:11; 2 Tim 4:6; "stand over" in Lk 4:39; "stand at" in Act 10:17; 11:11; 2 Tim 4:2; and "set upon" in Act 28:2. GK 2392.
7. Or, "trap". The point of comparison is the sudden unexpectedness with which the snare comes upon its victim. On this word, see Rom 11:9. Some manuscripts place "like a snare" with what follows and drop the "in" from the verb in v 35 {B}, so that it says "For like a snare it will come-upon...".
8. That is, "that day" (v 34), the day when these things begin to happen (v 31, 28), when the kingdom of God is near (v 31). The events of "that day" will be worldwide in scope. Compare Mt 24:21-22; Mk 13:19-20.
9. This verb "come in on" is used only here. GK 2082. It not related to the word in v 34. It is the verb "to come" with prefixes added meaning "in" and "upon". That day comes in on them from outside their world. Used in 1 Macc 16:16.
10. That is, on all humanity. "Sitting on the earth" also occurs in Rev 14:6.
11. Some manuscripts say "Therefore" {N}.
12. Same word as in Mk 13:33.
13. That is, all the time, always, at all times (although it is singular here). This phrase is elsewhere only in Eph 6:18. Some take this with what follows, "Keep alert, praying in every season that...". On "season", see "time" in Mt 8:29.
14. Or, "may prevail". On this word, see "prevail-against" in Mt 16:18. Instead of "may have strength", some manuscripts say "may be considered worthy" {N}, using the word in 20:35.
15. Or, "flee from". On this word see Rom 2:3.
16. That is, for the duration of the daytime.
17. On this word, see Mt 21:17. Some think this means Jesus camped outside there; others, that He stayed with friends there.
18. That is, before dawn, in the early dawn. Luke seems to imply that it was earlier than normal. Used only here. GK 3983. Related to "very early" in 24:22.
19. Parallel account at Mt 26:1; Mk 14:1.
20. On this feast, see Mk 14:12.
21. Note that "Passover" is used to refer to entire eight-day Feast. On "Passover", see Jn 18:28.
22. Or, "do away with, execute". Same word as "execute" in 23:32. On this word, see Mt 2:16.
23. This may be explaining why the leaders were "seeking how" to do this. Since they feared the people, they had to find a way to covertly or justifiably kill Him. Or, it may be explaining why they wanted to "kill" Him. Since they feared the people would accept Jesus and therefore reject them, they had to eliminate Him.
24. Parallel account at Mt 26:14; Mk 14:10.
25. Compare Jn 6:70-71; 13:2, 27.
26. That is, the captains of the temple police or officers. On this word, see Act 5:26.
27. Or, "they were delighted". On this word see 2 Cor 13:11.
28. Elsewhere only in Jn 9:22; Act 23:20. GK 5338.
29. Same word as "silver-coins" in Mt 26:15. On this word see Mt 25:27.
30. That is, with Jesus and the disciples. Or, "hand Him over to them without a crowd".
31. Parallel account at Mt 26:17; Mk 14:12.
32. This year, it was Thursday, the day before the Preparation day (Friday). See Mk 14:12. This day began at sundown on what we call Wednesday evening, and was followed by daytime on Thursday.
33. On this idiom, see "must" in Mt 16:21.
34. This word (GK 4513) is not the same word as in Mk 14:12 (GK 599) or 14:13 (GK 5632).
35. This idiom is more literally, "Where do you want that we should prepare it?".
36. More literally, the "house-master of the house". Same word as in Mk 14:14, but here "of the house" is also expressed separately.
37. Same word as in Mk 14:14. On this word, see "inn" in 2:7.
38. Parallel account at Mt 26:20; Mk 14:17; Jn 13:2.
39. Some manuscripts say "the twelve apostles" {N}.
40. More literally, "I desired with desire", a Hebrew way of speaking. On "desire", see Gal 5:16, 17.
41. Some manuscripts add "no longer" {B}, so that it says "that no longer by any means will I eat...".
42. That is, the Passover meal. Some think this means Jesus did not eat this meal, though He desired to do so; others, that He will not eat it after this meal. Some manuscripts say "of it" {N}.
43. More literally, "up to which time". On this idiom, see Mt 5:25.
44. Or, "received, accepted". Not the same word as "take" later in the verse and in v 19. On this word, see "welcome" in Mt 10:40.
45. Some manuscripts say "the cup" {N}.
46. Or, "divide". Some think this means the disciples poured some wine from this cup into their cups; others, that they drank from the single cup passed around. Some think this is in preparation for v 20; others, that this is the initial cup of the Passover meal, and is not related to the cup in v 20. In this case, this verse is equivalent to "while they were eating" in Mt 26:26. There are other views. On this word, see "dividing" in Act 2:3.
47. Some think this implies Jesus did not drink it at this meal; others, that He had just drank from it, having drunk first in accordance with the custom at the Passover.

1. Some manuscripts omit this word {C}.
2. Or, "product". On this word, see Mt 26:29.
3. Some think this means Jesus did not drink it at this meal; others, that He would not drink it after this meal. Some manuscripts omit "from now on" {N}. On this phrase, see Jn 8:11.
4. Compare 21:31; 17:20-21.
5. Compare also 1 Cor 11:23-25.
6. On this word, see Mt 26:26.
7. Some manuscripts omit from here through v 20 {B}, so that it says "body. Yet behold...". There are other variations. These variants regard the first cup in v 17 as part of the Lord's Supper, and eliminate the cup in v 20.
8. That is, the eating of supper. On this word, see 1 Cor 11:25.
9. That is, it is one of the ones eating with Me. This could mean Judas is still there, and was revealed after the supper. Judas's statement in Mt 26:25 takes place after Lk 22:22, but Matthew and Mark reverse the order of these two events at the Passover meal. While the Gospels say that both events occurred "while they were eating" (Mt 26:21, 26; Mk 14:18, 22; Lk 22:14, 20), none claim to give the exact order of the two events. In other words, the Gospels do not clearly indicate when Judas left in relation to bread and cup. Jn 13:30 says he left after eating a morsel of bread, but John does not mention the bread and cup at all.
10. Some manuscripts instead have a word that can be rendered "And" or "Indeed" {N}.
11. Jesus uses grammar that emphasizes the contrast between the two halves of this sentence.
12. Or, "in accordance with, in keeping with, based on". GK 2848.

14. Compare Mt 20:24-28; Mk 10:41-45.
15. In the actual sequence of events, some think this happened at the beginning of the meal, prior to Jn 13:4. Used only here. GK 5808. Related to "contentious" in 1 Cor 11:16.
16. Or, "has the reputation of" being greater, as this word is used in Mk 10:42. "Seems" could indicate the disciples are arguing about their potential rank or reputation in the eyes of others in the coming kingdom. "Have the reputation" would mean they are debating their present actual rank or reputation in the eyes of others. In any case, they disputed over their reputations, over how others would rank them.
17. Though the form of this word means "greater", many think the sense of it is "greatest" here and in v 26. Same word as in v 27. GK 3505.
18. Or, "are lords, are masters" of them. Same word as "be lord" in Rom 14:9. On this word, see Rom 7:1. Related to the word in Mt 20:25; Mk 10:42.

29. Or, "ordaining, decreeing, assigning, appointing, covenanting". On this verb, see "covenant" in Heb 8:10.
30. That is, administering justice. On this word, see Mt 19:28.
31. Compare Jn 13:38; Mt 26:30; Mk 14:26.
32. From future honor and glory for the eleven, Jesus turns back to the major failure to occur that night on the part of one of them. Some manuscripts say "And the Lord said, 'Simon...' {B}, making this point 7D.
33. Or, "demanded". Used only here. GK 1977. Compare Job 1:6-12.
34. The word "you" is plural, referring to all of them, and this is added to reflect this.
35. Or, "winnow". Satan wants to shake you all through a sieve and see if he can keep and toss aside or destroy any of you. He wants to throw you all up in the air and see if he can blow any of you away like chaff. They all prove to be wheat. Used only here. GK 4985.

38. This is a participle, "are having turned back" On this word see Jam 5:19.
39. Or, "stabilize, support". On this word, see 1 Thes 3:2.
40. Or, "both". GK 2779.
41. This and Mt 16:18 are the only places in the Gospels where Jesus calls him "Peter".
42. Some manuscripts say "before" {N}, as in Mt 26:34; Mk 14:30; and Lk 22:61.
43. These are the same three items are mentioned in 10:4. Compare 9:3.
44. The grammar indicates that a "no" answer is expected.
45. Now the situation is changing. The disciples must plan and make provisions for themselves as one normally would.
46. Some take this literally; others, figuratively. Prudently provide for your protection. Perhaps Jesus says this in contrast to Himself, for He now proceeds to the place where He knows He will be found and arrested.
47. On this idiom, see Mt 16:21. Some manuscripts add "still" {N}.
48. Same word as "accomplished" in 12:50.
49. That is, classed, considered to be one of. On this word, see "consider" in Rom 3:28.

1. Some think the disciples mean here in this room. Some think this is where Peter got the sword in v 50.
2. Some think Jesus is closing this conversation, "That's enough!", with a tone of rebuke or irony; others, that He means these two swords will be enough for tonight.
3. Parallel account at Mt 26:36; Mk 14:32; Jn 18:1.
4. Compare Mt 26:30; Mk 14:26; Jn 14:31; 18:1
5. Or, "habit". On this word, see 1:9. Judas was aware of this custom, and led the authorities there.
6. Some manuscripts say "His" {K}.
7. In the Greek, the "also" goes with "disciples" rather than "followed" ("also followed" in English gives the impression that others were following, which is not Luke's intent). Luke is abbreviating "And the disciples went also, following Him".
8. Same word as in v 46. On this word, see "trials" in Jam 1:2. Compare Mt 26:41; 6:13.

1. Some manuscripts omit "of the Lord Jesus" {B}.
2. On this word, see 2 Cor 4:8. Some manuscripts instead have a related word "greatly perplexed" {N}, on which see Lk 9:7.
3. That is, angels, v 23. Angels in the form of men.
4. Or, "brightly shining". Elsewhere only in 17:24, of lightning "flashing". GK 848. Related to "gleaming out" in 9:29.
5. That is, the women.
6. On this word, see v 37.
7. That is, the two men. The grammar is clear that "them" next refers to the women.
8. Some manuscripts omit this sentence {B}.
9. This is a command. On this word, see Lk 1:54.
10. On this idiom, see Mt 16:21. Some manuscripts say "saying that the Son of Man must..." {N}.
11. Some manuscripts omit this word, so that it says "Now the Magdalene... James and the other women with them were saying these things...". Others say "Now it was... saying these things" {B}.
12. She is referred to this way only here. See Lk 8:2 on her.
13. See Mt 27:56 on her.
14. Some manuscripts say, "who were saying..." {N}.
15. Note the disciples' summary of the women's words in v 23. Some manuscripts say "their" {N}.
16. Or, "idle talk, trumpery (showy but useless talk), delirious talk, raving". Used only here. GK 3333.
17. Or, "refusing to believe". Same word as in v 41; Mk 16:11. On this word, see "are faithless" in 2 Tim 2:13.
18. That is, the women, as the grammar of this word indicates. The apostles did not believe the women.
19. Some manuscripts omit v 12 {B}.
20. This word is used of this action also in Jn 20:5, 11. Luke may mean Peter "bent over to look into it". Or, he may simply mean "having looked" into it, as this word is elsewhere only used in Jam 1:25; 1 Pet 1:12. GK 4160. The root word is "stoop" in Jn 8:6.
21. That is, those used to wrap the body. On this word, see Jn 19:40.
22. Or, "alone". That is, without the body. Some manuscripts say "lying alone" {N}.
23. Or, "wondering", as in Mk 15:44. Peter either marveled that Jesus had returned to heaven in this way, or wondered what had happened to the body. On this word, see "caused to marvel" in Rev 17:8.
24. Same phrase as in 18:11, of the Pharisee praying "to himself". This phrase is elsewhere only plural, discussing "with themselves" in Mk 1:27; 11:31; Lk 20:5; 22:23; saying "to themselves" in Mk 10:26; 12:7; 14:4; 16:3; Jn 7:35; 12:19 (and in Mk 9:10). Some manuscripts say "he went away to his [house], marveling..." {N}.
25. That is, two of "the rest" in v 9. One is named Cleopas, v 18.
26. That is, Sunday, the same day begun in v 1.
27. That is, 6.9 miles or 11.1 kilometers. On "stade", see Rev 14:20.
28. Same word as in v 15. On this word, see Act 24:26.
29. Or, "held fast", held in God's power. On this word, see "hold on to" in Heb 4:14.
30. Or, "so that they did not recognize".
31. Literally, "throwing back and forth". Used only here. GK 506.
32. On this word, see Mt 6:16. Some manuscripts say "you are" instead of "they stood [still]", so that this becomes part of the words of Jesus, "... while walking? And you are sad-faced" {B}.
33. Some manuscripts add "of them" {N}.
34. Or, "living as a pilgrim or stranger, sojourning". On this word, see Heb 11:9. This is the Greek word order. It means "Are You the only one who does not know about this?" Or, "Are You living-as-a-stranger alone in Jerusalem...", meaning, "Have You been so isolated that you do not know about this?"
35. On this word, see Mk 1:24. Some manuscripts say "the Nazarene" {B}, the word in Lk 18:37.
36. Or, "proved to be, was". GK 1181.
37. This idiom "a man who was a prophet" is like "a man who is a glutton", Mt 11:19; "a man who is a merchant", Mt 13:45; "a man who is a house-master", Mt 20:1; "a man who was a king", Mt 18:23; "a man who was a murderer", Act 3:14; "a certain man who was a magician", Act 13:6. These examples use two different words for "man". This idiom links "man" with another noun in a way that is redundant in English. In each of these cases, English translations usually omit "man", so that it just says "a prophet, a glutton, a merchant", etc.
38. Same word as in 1:49; Act 7:22; 18:24; 25:5; 1 Cor 1:26, 2 Cor 12:10. It mainly means "powerful, capable, able", and "possible". Used 32 times. GK 1543. Related to "be able" in 1 Jn 3:9.
39. Or, "for a sentence of death". Same word as in 23:40.
40. More literally, "is", as the Greek typically phrases it.
41. On this word, see 1 Pet 1:18. Note 2:38, where people were waiting for the "redemption of Jerusalem"; and 1:68.
42. Or, "besides, together with". GK 5250.
43. That is, the things about Jesus, His life and death, and their hopes for Him, v 19-20. Yet on top of everything, Jesus has been dead three days now, so we must get on with our lives.
44. This is a difficult idiom. No subject is expressed. Some think Jesus is the subject, so that it is literally, "He is spending this third day [dead] since...". Others take it as an impersonal reference to time, literally "one is spending this third day since...", which is simplified to "it is the third day since...". Some manuscripts supply "today" {N}, so that it says "today is spending this third day since...", which is simplified to "today is the third day since...". The word "spending" in this idiom (or it may be rendered "leading", GK 72), is related to "spend" in 1 Tim 2:2.
45. Used only here. GK 3984. Related to "dawn" in v 1; and to "arising very early" in 21:38.
46. Same word as in 1:22. On this word, see 2 Cor 12:1.

1. Or, "believing in". On "putting faith upon", see Rom 4:5.
2. Many Jews believed the things about the Messiah entering His glory, but ignored the things about His suffering.
3. Or, "Was it not necessary that the Christ suffer". On this idiom, "have to", see "must" in Mt 16:21.
4. On "beginning from", see Mt 20:8.
5. Or, "explained, gave the meaning of". On this word, see 1 Cor 12:30.
6. Or, "made as though, acted as if". Used only here. GK 4701. Jesus prepared to, or actually began to leave.
7. Some manuscripts omit this word {N}.
8. Or, "God". See Mt 14:19 on this.
9. Not because Jesus broke bread with them, but because He who held back their eyes in v 16 opened them now. The breaking of bread was the occasion, not the cause. These men would not have been in the upper room on Passover.
10. That is, Jesus vanished. This adjective is used only here. GK 908. Related to "disfigure" in Mt 6:16.
11. Some manuscripts omit "within us" {C}.
12. Some manuscripts say "and as..." {N}.
13. Parallel account at Mk 16:14; Jn 20:19.
14. One can be sure that this trip took far less time than the earlier one! Did these two run the whole way?
15. This is used here as a title, not a count. Only ten were actually present, because Thomas was not there, Jn 20:19, 24. Compare "the twelve" in 1 Cor 15:5.
16. Or, "collected, gathered". Used only here. GK 125. Related to the words in 11:29 and Act 12:12.
17. The grammar indicates that the eleven and the ones with them were saying this.
18. Or, "was raised". On this word, see Mt 28:6.
19. Or, "expounding". On this word, see "expound" in Jn 1:18.
20. That is, "in connection with, at". GK 1877.
21. Some manuscripts say "Jesus" {N}.
22. Some manuscripts omit this sentence {B}.
23. Or, "afraid". Same word as in v 5; Act 10:4; Rev 11:13. Elsewhere only as "afraid" in Act 24:25. GK 1873.
24. This is a participle, "why are you having been troubled". On this word, see "disturbed" in Gal 1:7.
25. Or, "disputes, arguments, reasonings". The disciples' minds were tossing up arguments as to why this could not really be Jesus. On this word, see "thoughts" in Jam 2:4.
26. Or, "arising". Same phrase as in Act 7:23; 1 Cor 2:9. GK 326.
27. Some manuscripts have this word plural {N}.
28. Some think this implies that both were nailed to the cross. Compare Jn 20:25.
29. Or, "Handle". Same word as in 1 Jn 1:1; Heb 12:18. Elsewhere only as "grobe for" in Act 17:27. GK 6027.

32. Some manuscripts add "and a honeycomb from a beehive" {B}.
33. Others start point 6B. here, grouping these words with what follows instead of with resurrection Sunday.
34. Some manuscripts omit this word {K}, so that it says "the words".
35. Same word as in v 31, 32. On this word, see Act 17:3.
36. Some think this was in conjunction with their reception of the Spirit in Jn 20:22.
37. Compare Mt 28:16-20; Mk 16:15-18; Jn 20:21-23.
38. Some think v 46-49 were also spoken on that first Sunday, making this point 6C. Compare Jn 20:21-23. Others think Luke jumps to the day of the final ascension. Note that Luke does not include the appearances of Jesus in Galilee at all. The command to sit in Jerusalem (v 49; compare Act 1:4) may imply the Galilee appearances were past. Others think v 44-49 summarize the things Jesus said to them during the days prior to His ascension.
39. Some manuscripts add "and thus it was necessary" {N}.

1. Some manuscripts say "and" {B}. The phrase "repentance for forgiveness of sins" is also in Mk 1:4 and Lk 3:3, where it is the message of John the Baptist. Repentance "and" forgiveness is in Act 5:31.
2. On the phrase "on the basis of His name", see Act 2:38.
3. The grammar refers back to the unexpressed subject of "is proclaimed". That is, "The proclaimers beginning from Jerusalem". Or, this phrase may go with what follows, "Beginning from Jerusalem, you are witnesses...". On the idiom "beginning from", see Mt 20:8.
4. Some manuscripts say "And you are witnesses..." {N}.
5. Note that the two points of v 46-47 are the very two points that Paul debated and proclaimed in his ministry, according to his testimony in Act 26:23.

7. That is, the Spirit.
8. Some manuscripts add "of Jerusalem" {N}.
9. Or, "clothe yourselves with". On this word, see Rom 13:14. This is expanded in Act 1:4-8.
10. Same word as in Act 1:8.
11. Or, "from the high [heaven]". On this word, see 1:78.
12. Parallel account at Mk 16:19; Act 1:9.
13. That is, outside of Jerusalem. Note Mt 21:17. Some manuscripts omit this word {C}, so that it says "And He led them out as far as near Bethany".
14. The phrase "until near, as far as near" is used only here, but is similar to "as far as outside" in Act 21:5. "Near" is the same word used in 19:29, where Luke says Bethany is "near" the Mount of Olives. GK 4639. So anywhere on the Mount of Olives (see Act 1:12) qualifies as "near" Bethany.
15. Or, "parted, stood apart". It means "to set an interval of space or time from a former position". Elsewhere only as "passed" in 22:59; and "set an interval" in Act 27:28. GK 1460. Here, the "days of His ascension" (9:51) are fulfilled. In Act 1:2, Luke refers to the ascension as part of his Gospel.
16. Or, "taken up". That is, by a cloud, Act 1:9. On this word, see "bear" in Heb 9:28. Some manuscripts omit "and was being carried up into heaven" {B}.
17. On this word, see Mt 14:33. Some manuscripts omit "having worshiped Him" {B}.
18. The life of Jesus began in "great joy" in Lk 2:10; and begins again in "great joy" here. As in Matthew (see 28:8), these are the only two places "great joy" occurs in Luke. It is elsewhere only in Act 15:3; 3 Jn 4. The word "joy" is used 59 times. GK 5915. The related verb is "rejoice" in 2 Cor 13:11.
19. Some manuscripts say "praising and blessing"; others have one or the other word {B}. Same word as in v 50, 51.
20. Some manuscripts add "Amen" {A}.

1. That is, at the first moment of creation, as in Gen 1:1. The Word preexists all creation, Col 1:17; Jn 17:5.
2. This word is used of Jesus also in v 14. Compare 1 Jn 1:1, "the Word of Life"; and Rev 19:13, "the Word of God". GK 3364.
3. John directly states what Jesus Himself claimed and His enemies understood, 5:18; 10:33; and for which they killed Him, 19:7.
4. Or, "came-to-be, became existent, originated, were made". This word is used three times in this verse, and in v 6, 10. On this word, see "comes" in 2 Pet 1:20. GK 1181.
5. Instead of "not even one", some manuscripts say "nothing" {N}.
6. Some punctuate this "came into being. What has come into being in Him was life..." (for His creation).
7. That is, the life just spoken of, the life of God, spiritual life. Life "was" in the Word from eternity. The light proceeding from this life "was" lighting mankind since creation, and "is shining" even now. God's life shines forth in God's light, lighting the way to Him. Compare 5:26. There are other views. Consult the commentaries.
8. In John, this word is used in 1:4, 5, 7, 8, 9; 3:19, 20, 21; 5:35; 8:12; 9:5; 11:9, 10; 12:35, 36, 46. Used 73 times. GK 5890.
9. Darkness is something one "walks in" (8:12), or "remains in" (12:46), and something which "blinds" (1 Jn 2:11). Elsewhere only in Mt 10:27; Lk 12:3; Jn 6:17; 8:12; 12:35, 46; 20:1; 1 Jn 1:5; 2:8, 9, 11. GK 5028. Related word in 3:19.
10. Or, "overtake, master, overpower, suppress; grasp, comprehend". Some think John means darkness (all the forces of darkness in the broadest sense) did not overcome the light—not in the Garden, and not at the cross. Others think he means darkness (unbelieving people) did not understand the Light, making this thought parallel with v 10b and 11b. Same word as in Mk 9:18. Elsewhere only as "overtake" in Jn 12:35; 1 Thes 5:4; "caught" (seized, overtaken) in Jn 8:3, 4; "take hold of" in Rom 9:30; 1 Cor 9:24; Phil 3:12, 13; "understand" in Act 4:13; 10:34; "find out" in Act 25:25; and "grasp" in Eph 3:18. GK 2898.
11. Or, "arose". The appearance on the scene of John the Baptist initiated the coming of the Light. GK 1181.
12. John's purpose in God's plan is now stated. This is the common word for coming and going. On this word, see Mk 16:2.
13. The Baptist came as a witness, to give "testimony" about the Light. His testimony is in v 15, 19-34; 3:27-36. Used 37 times, all as "testimony", 30 being by John. GK 3456. Related to the noun "witness" (not used in this book; see Act 1:8), and to the verb next.
14. Or, "bear witness". Used 76 times, 47 being by John. GK 3455.
15. Or, "illuminates". On this word, see "enlighten" in Heb 6:4.
16. The Light was in the act of coming, or was about to come, on the scene. Compare 3:19; 12:46. Others render this phrase "He [the Light, v 8] was the true Light which gives light to every person, coming into the world"; others, "There was the true Light which, coming into the world, gives light to every person". Some punctuate the last phrase as "every person coming into the world", so that "coming" refers to "person" instead of "the true Light".
17. The mixed result of this true Light coming into the world to give light is given next in v 10-13, and is explained in 3:19-21.
18. Some think this is referring to the preincarnate Word as the light of mankind, expanding on v 4-5; others, to the incarnate Light before He began His ministry, or as a summary of His whole life.
19. Or, "recognize, acknowledge". On this word, see Lk 1:34.
20. On "His own things", see 19:27.
21. Or, "receive, take-to" themselves. Same word as "receive" in 1 Cor 15:1; Phil 4:9; Col 2:6; Heb 12:28. On this word, see "taken" in Lk 17:34. The Messiah was not accepted by His own people.
22. This is the common word for "take, receive", used 258 times. On this word, see "taken" in Rom 7:8. Related to "accept" in v 11.
23. This phrase defines "receive Him" earlier. "Believe in His name" also occurs in 2:23; 3:18; 1 Jn 5:13.
24. Or, "authority, capability". On this word, see 1 Cor 8:9.
25. The phrase "children of God" is also in 11:52; Rom 8:16, 21; 9:8; Phil 2:15; 1 Jn 3:1, 2, 10; 5:2. The emphasis of being called "children" is on the birth from above, and on sharing the nature of our Father, 2 Pet 1:4. The emphasis of being called "sons" is on being heirs (see Rom 8:14).
26. Or, "fathered, begotten". In the Greek, this is the last word in the sentence, for emphasis. On this word, see 1 Jn 2:29.
27. Though used 97 times in the NT, this word is plural only here. That is, not from a blending of human bloodlines, not descended from the genealogical lines of a human father and mother, not born from human blood relatives. On this word, see 1 Jn 1:7.
28. That is, not born out of the body's sexual drives.
29. This word means "man, husband", a male specifically. Not born out of a man's desire to procreate. On this word, see "man" in 1 Tim 2:12.
30. Such people were born directly of God in a second birth.

34. On this word, see v 18.

36. Jesus was full of the grace He brought (v 16, 17), and the truth about God He expounded (v 17, 18). On this word, see 4:23.
37. John now gives the Baptist's testimony regarding Jesus, since this was the purpose for which the Baptist came (v 7).
38. Jesus "came after" the Baptist historically—both in His physical birth, and in beginning His ministry.
39. That is, in worthiness (see 1:27), in spiritual strength and power (see Mt 3:11), in His rank and authority.
40. That is, Jesus preexisted me. Same word as in v 30; 15:18. GK 4755.
41. Some think John is adding his testimony to the Baptist's. We apostles know the Word became flesh and was full of grace and truth because we all received from His fullness. We directly experienced it. We received the truth He expounded about God, v 18. Others think John is adding the testimony of all Christians to his own witness in v 14. Jesus truly was full of grace and truth because all we Christians received it from Him. Some manuscripts say "And we all..." {N}.
42. Same word as in Col 1:19; 2:9, the fullness of Deity. On this word, see Col 1:19.
43. Or, "for, after, in place of". Some think John means "grace after grace", repeated gifts of grace, a continual flow of grace; others, the grace of Christ "in place of" the grace contained in the Law of Moses, as explained in v 17; others, grace "corresponding to" His grace. This preposition is used only here by John. GK 505.

1. Or, "at any time". Same word as in 1 Jn 4:12. On this word, see 6:35.
2. Or, "unique, one and only". This word means "only-born, only-child, one-and-only, only begotten, unique (the only example of its kind)". Some think John is referring to Jesus as incarnate. The "only born God" is the Word who "was God" (v 1) who "became" flesh (v 14), capturing all this in one phrase. Others think he is speaking of His eternal relationship to the Father as His unique, one and only Son. This word is used of Jesus also in 1:14; 3:16, 18; 1 Jn 4:9. Elsewhere only of an only child in Lk 7:12; 8:42; 9:38; Heb 11:17. GK 3666. Compare "fathered" in 1 Jn 5:18, and "firstborn" in Col 1:15.
3. Some manuscripts say "Son" {B}, as in 3:16, 18; 1 Jn 4:9. The meaning is the same in either case, "God the Son".
4. Some think John is referring to the present exaltation of Jesus. He "was" with God (v 1), and after the cross, He is again in His bosom. Others think he is referring to His eternal place in His bosom as the Son, the Word "with God".
5. Or, "chest, breast, side". That is, in close communion, in the place of honor. Same word as in Jn 13:23; Lk 16:22, 23. Elsewhere only as "fold" in Lk 6:38; and as "bay" in Act 27:39. GK 3146.
6. Or, "described, explained". In one sense, the word means to "lead out" the details of a thing, whether as dictating, expounding, interpreting, explaining, telling at length, relating, etc. Jesus expounded God to us; He showed us who God is. He did this in Himself, because when we see Him, we see the Father, 14:7, 9. In another sense, it means "to lead the way, to show the way". Jesus "led the way [to Him]", as He says in 14:6. The Word, who was in the beginning with God, who is God, who is the only-born God, who is in the bosom of the Father— That One expounded Him and led the way to Him. What He expounded in word and deed, we "received" (v 16), and we proclaim to the world in this book. Elsewhere only as "describe" in Lk 24:35; Act 10:8; 15:12, 14; 21:19. GK 2007. Related to "lead" in Heb 13:7 (the root word); "relate" in Lk 8:39; and "tell in detail" in Act 13:41.
7. Parallel account at Mt 3:1; Mk 1:2; Lk 3:1.
8. That is, the Jewish leaders. Where the other Gospels would say "the Pharisees" or "the scribes and the Pharisees", John simply says "the Jews". Matthew, Mark and Luke do not use this word in this sense. Those three Gospels combined use this word 17 times, 12 of those in the phrase "King of the Jews". Used 195 times in the NT, John uses this word 71 times, Acts 79 times. Note 2:18; 5:10, 16, 18; 7:13; 9:22; 18:36; 19:7, 38. GK 2681.
9. Priests were descendants of the family of Aaron within the tribe of Levi, Ex 28:1.
10. Or, "when the Jews sent priests and Levites from Jerusalem...". Levites were descendants of other families in the tribe of Levi. They performed various roles supporting the priests, Num 3:6-9. The temple police, and its musicians, were Levites. Here, they may have come as the "police escort" of the priests. Elsewhere only in Lk 10:32; Act 4:36. GK 3324.
11. Some manuscripts omit "to him" {C}.
12. Or, "acknowledged, publicly declared". On this word, see 1 Tim 6:12.

16. This is a participle, they "were having been sent out". Some think John is defining "the ones having sent us" in v 22, and further defining the "Jews" of v 19. Others think he is referring to a sub-group of the ones sent in v 19, or to an additional group, which now asks the next question, making this sentence part of point 3C. It would be rendered "And [some] having been sent out were from the Pharisees. And they asked...", or, "And [some] had been sent out from the Pharisees. And they asked...". Some manuscripts say "And the ones having been sent out were from..." {N}, making this a group of Pharisees (a religious party in Israel). Same word as in v 19. On this word, see Mk 3:14. Not related to "sent" in v 22.
17. Or, "in". On this word, see Mk 1:8. Same word as in v 31, 33.
18. Or, "In your midst, among you". On this word, see 2 Thes 2:7. Some manuscripts say "But amidst you" {N}.
19. Or, "is standing". The Baptist has apparently already baptized Jesus. Some manuscripts say "was standing" {B}.
20. Some manuscripts say instead "... know. He is the One coming after me Who has become ahead of me, of Whom..." {N}, like v 30, 15.
21. Some manuscripts do not emphasize "I" {C}, meaning it would not be bolded here.
22. Not the same grammar as in Mk 1:7; Lk 3:16. Compare Mt 3:11.
23. Not Bethany near Jerusalem. Some manuscripts say "Bethabara" {C}.
24. Some manuscripts say "John" {K}.
25. This may have been when Jesus was returning from His forty days of temptation in the wilderness.
26. Elsewhere only in v 36; Act 8:32 (referring to Isa 53), and 1 Pet 1:19. GK 303. This word refers to a sacrificial lamb, 1 year old. There is another word for lamb used in Jn 21:15; Rev 13:11; and 28 times of Christ in Revelation 5-22. (GK 768)
27. Or, "God's Lamb", the Lamb from God, belonging to Him, provided by Him; His sacrificial Lamb.
28. Or, "manifested, made evident, made known". On this word, see "made evident" in 1 Jn 2:19.
29. Compare Mt 3:16; Mk 1:10; Lk 3:22.
30. That is, the Baptist did not officially know directly from God that Jesus was the Coming One, as seen in what follows. That he knew Him privately, and knew what God had told Elizabeth and Mary, seems reasonable to assume. Compare Mt 3:14.
31. Or, "in". Same word as in v 31, 26. On baptize "in" or "with" water or the Spirit, see Mk 1:8.
32. Some manuscripts say "chosen One" {B}.
33. Compare Mt 4:18-22; Mk 1:16-20; Lk 5:1-11.

- 1C. And the ones said to Him, “Rabbi^A (which being translated^B means “Teacher”), where are You staying^C?”
- 2C. He says to them, “Come, and you will see”¹ 39
- 3C. So² they went, and saw where He was³ staying, and stayed with Him that day.⁴ *The hour*⁵ was about *the tenth*⁶
- 4C. Andrew^D, the brother of Simon Peter, was one of the two⁷ having heard it from John, and having followed Him. *This one first⁸ finds his own brother Simon, and says to him, “We have found the Messiah” (which being translated^B is “Christ”) 40 41
- 1D. He brought him to Jesus 42
- 2D. Having looked-at^E him, Jesus said, “You are Simon, the son of John¹⁰. You will be called^F Cephas¹¹” (which is translated¹² “Peter”) 42
- 2B. *On the next day*¹³ He¹⁴ wanted¹⁵ to go forth to Galilee. And He finds Philip¹⁶. And Jesus says to him, “Be following Me” 43
- 1C. Now Philip was from Bethsaida, of the city of Andrew and Peter¹⁷. *Philip finds Nathanael¹⁸ 44-45 and says to him, “We have found the One of whom Moses wrote in the Law, and the Prophets wrote— Jesus, son of Joseph, from Nazareth”¹⁹
- 1D. And Nathanael said to him, “Is anything good^G able²⁰ to be out of Nazareth?” 46
- 2D. Philip says to him, “Come and see”
- 2C. Jesus saw Nathanael coming to Him, and says about him, “Look— truly^H an Israelite in whom there is no deceit” 47
- 1D. Nathanael says to Him, “From where do You know me?” 48
- 2D. Jesus responded and said to him, “Before Philip called you, while being²¹ under the fig tree, I saw you”
- 3D. Nathanael responded to Him, “Rabbi, You are the Son of God. You are the King of Israel” 49
- 4D. Jesus responded and said to him, “Do you²² believe because I said to you that I saw you under the fig tree? You will see greater things than these!” 50
- 5D. And He says to him, “Truly, truly²³, I say to you *all*²⁴, you²⁵ will see heaven opened²⁶ and the angels of God ascending and descending upon the Son of Man”²⁷ 51
- 3B. And *on the third*²⁸ day a wedding took place in Cana of Galilee. And the mother of Jesus was there. 2:1
And both Jesus and His disciples were invited²⁹ to the wedding-celebration³⁰ 2
- 1C. And *it*³¹ having come-short-of^K wine, the mother of Jesus says to Him, “They do not have wine”³² 3
- 2C. And³³ Jesus says to her, “What do I have to do with you³⁴, woman³⁵? My hour has not yet come³⁶” 4
- 3C. His mother says to the servants, “Do whatever thing³⁷ He says to you”³⁸

1. Some manuscripts say "Come and see" {N}.
2. Some manuscripts omit this word {N}.
3. More literally, "is", as the Greek typically phrases it.
4. This is the first encounter with Jesus for these two. Later, Jesus calls them to be His disciples (Mt 4:18; Mk 1:16); and later, His apostles (Mt 10:1; Mk 3:14; Lk 6:13). Here, they choose to follow Him; later He chooses them, 6:70.
5. Some manuscripts say "Now the hour..." {K}.
6. Some think John means 4 P.M., counted from sunrise, 6 A.M. Others think he means 10 A.M., Roman time. Had he said "and stayed with Him that evening", 4 P.M. would be certain. See 19:14 on why the issue arises.
7. Some think the other was John himself, the apostle and writer of this book (not the Baptist, mentioned next).
8. This may mean that this was the "first" thing Andrew did after Jesus accepted their company; or, that Simon was the "first" one that Andrew found and told about Jesus. Some manuscripts say "This first one finds..." {B}, meaning that Andrew was the first one to find and tell another about Jesus. In this case, John may be implying that Philip was second, v 44; or, that the unnamed second disciple of v 40 was the second (that is, that John found James).
9. This is a transliterated Hebrew word meaning "Anointed One". Elsewhere only in 4:25. GK 3549. "Christ" is the Greek translation of this Hebrew word, and is related to the verb "to anoint" in Lk 4:18.
10. Same name as in 21:15, 16, 17. GK 2722. In Mt 16:17, this man is called "Jonah", and some manuscripts say that here {B}. "Jonah" and "John" may be alternate Greek spellings of the same Hebrew name, like "Simon" and "Simeon" (see Lk 6:14).
11. Cephas (see Gal 1:18) is Aramaic, Peter (see Lk 6:14) is Greek. Both mean "rock".
12. Elsewhere only in 9:7; Heb 7:2. GK 2257. Related to the word in v 38 and 41, and to the word in 1 Cor 12:10.
13. This is the fourth day mentioned, 19-28; 29-34; 35-42. Some find a fourth day in v 41.
14. Some manuscripts say "Jesus" {K}.
15. Or, "intended, desired". Jesus resolved to do so, and went to Cana of Galilee in 2:1. On this word, see "willing" in 7:17.
16. Where Jesus found Philip between Judea and Galilee is not stated. See Lk 6:14 on him.
17. These two lived in Capernaum, Mk 1:21, 29, but apparently were reared in Bethsaida. In the same way, Jesus was reared in Nazareth, but lived in Capernaum, Mt 4:13.
18. Nathanael is mentioned elsewhere only in v 46-49, and in 21:2 as "Nathanael of Cana". GK 3720. He was Philip's relative or friend. Some think Nathanael is the Bartholomew in Lk 6:14.
19. Philip speaks what he heard from Jesus directly or through one of the other disciples. Jesus was Joseph's legal son, and was from Nazareth, even though He was not Joseph's physical son, and was born in Bethlehem.
20. This is an honest question. Is it able, based on the prophecies? Compare the confident statement in 7:52.
21. The grammar means while Nathanael was under the fig tree.
22. Or, this may be an exclamation, "You believe because... tree!"
23. On this word, see Mt 5:18. It is doubled like this always, and only, in this Gospel, 25 times.
24. This and the next "you" are plural, and this word is added to reflect this. Jesus is speaking to Nathanael, yet to all of them.
25. Some manuscripts say "from now on, you will..." {N}, using the same idiom as in Mt 26:64.
26. This is a participle, "having opened".
27. Some think Jesus means the disciples would see angels doing His bidding, responding to His directives, in confirmation of what Nathanael said in v 49. In His deeds, they will see Jesus as a conduit to God. Compare Gen 28:12.
28. That is, on the third day after the departure for Galilee in v 43. Cana was near Nazareth, about 70 miles or 112 kilometers from Jerusalem.
29. John does not indicate whether this invitation occurred upon the arrival of Jesus, or is the reason Jesus left for Galilee in 1:43.
30. Same word as "wedding" in v 1. On this word, see "wedding" in Mt 22:11.
31. That is, the wedding celebration. It is an impersonal reference to the hosts, the parents.
32. Some think Mary is asking Jesus to help, perhaps to go and get some, but she is not asking for His first miracle. She seems to feel it is her responsibility to do something, and she gives orders to the servants in v 5, so perhaps she was in charge. Perhaps the bridegroom was a relative. Others think she is asking Jesus to reveal Himself with a miracle.
33. Some manuscripts omit this word {C}.
34. This is an idiom, literally, "What [is there] for me and for you". That is, what business do we share as to this matter? What common interest do we have with one another as to this matter? What claim do you have on Me in this matter? Jesus separates Himself from Mary as her son. His ministry has begun. This same idiom is found in Mt 8:29; Mk 1:24; 5:7; Lk 4:34; 8:28. It can also be seen in another form in the comment of Pilate's wife in Mt 27:19, and in 1 Cor 5:12. Some take it here to mean "what [is it] to Me and to you", that is, what business is it of ours?
35. Jesus does not address Mary as "mother", but as any other woman. This is the same word He addresses her with in 19:26, and other women in Mt 15:28; Lk 13:12; Jn 4:21; 8:10; 20:15. It is a respectful term of address. On this word, see 1 Tim 2:11.
36. Or, "is not yet present". This "hour" is referred to in 7:30; 8:20; and it comes in 12:23, 27; 13:1; 17:1, where it is clear that it refers to the time of Jesus' sacrificial death. See also 7:6, 8. During His period of ministry, He no longer relates to Mary in a family, son-mother way, fulfilling her requests. And the time for "asking in His name" has not yet come, 16:23-24. He is doing His Father's work, not her family business. Others think Jesus means "the time for Me to publicly reveal Myself has not yet arrived". He does a private miracle for His disciples. Same word as "am here" in 8:42.
37. On this idiom, see Col 3:17.
38. Mary's response reveals that she thinks Jesus is going to do something, though she does not know what. She takes His response in v 4 to mean "I will not answer you on your terms, but on My own". He chooses to do a miracle as the Son of God, not an errand as the son of Mary. He acts for His own purposes (v 11), not for hers.

- 4C. Now six stone waterpots^A were setting there for^I the purification² [rite] of the Jews, each having-room-for^B two or three measures³. *Jesus says to them, "Fill^C the waterpots with water". And they filled them up to the top 6 7
- 5C. And He says to them, "Draw some now, and carry^D it to the headwaiter⁴". And the ones carried it 8
- 6C. And when the headwaiter tasted^E the water having become wine— and he did not know where it was⁵ from, but the servants having drawn the water⁶ knew— the headwaiter calls the bridegroom, *and says to him 9 10
- 1D. "Every person^F first puts^G out the fine^H wine, and when they get-drunk⁷, the⁸ lesser⁹. You have kept^I the fine wine until now" 10
- 7C. Jesus did this beginning^K of signs¹⁰ in Cana of Galilee, and revealed¹¹ His glory. And His disciples believed in Him 11
- 4B. After this He went down to Capernaum¹²— He and His mother and His¹³ brothers¹⁴ and His disciples. And they stayed there not many days 12
- 4A. And the Passover^L [Feast] of the Jews was near, and Jesus went up to Jerusalem 13
- 1B.¹⁵ And in the temple,¹⁶ He found the ones selling oxen and sheep and doves, and the changers-of-money¹⁷ sitting [at their tables] 14
- 1C. And having made a lash¹⁸ from ropes¹⁹, He drove them all out^M of the temple, and²⁰ the sheep and the oxen 15
- 2C. And He poured-out^N the coins²¹ of the money-changers^O 16
- 3C. And He overturned the tables 17
- 4C. And He said to the ones selling the doves, "Take these things from here.²² Do not be making²³ the house^P of My Father²⁴ a house of a market²⁵" 16
- 5C. His disciples remembered^Q that it has been written²⁶ [in Ps 69:9], "Zeal^R for Your house will consume²⁷ Me" 17
- 6C. Then the Jews²⁸ responded and said to Him, "What sign do You show us, that you are doing²⁹ these things?" 18
- 1D. Jesus responded and said to them, "Destroy^S this temple^T, and in three days I will raise³⁰ it" 19
- 2D. Then the Jews said, "This temple was built for forty and six years,³¹ and You will raise it in three days?" *But that One was speaking about the temple^T of His body 20 21
- 3D. So when He was raised³² from the dead, His disciples remembered³³ that He was saying this³⁴, and believed the Scripture, and the word which Jesus spoke 22
- 2B. Now while He was in Jerusalem at the Passover^L during the Feast^U, many believed in His name³⁵— seeing His signs³⁶ which He was doing 23
- 1C. But Jesus Himself was not entrusting³⁷ Himself to them 24
- 1D. Because of His knowing³⁸ all people 25
- 2D. And because He was having no need^V that someone should testify about the person^F, for He Himself was knowing what was in the person³⁹ 26
- 3B. Now there was a man from the Pharisees— the name for him was Nicodemus⁴⁰— a ruler^W of the Jews. *This one came to Him⁴¹ by night⁴² and said to Him, "Rabbi^X, we know that You have come from God as a teacher. For no one is able to be doing these signs which You are doing unless God is with him" 3:1 2

1. Or, "in accordance with". GK 2848.
2. On this, see Mk 7:3. On this word, see 2 Pet 1:9.
3. One measure was 39 liters, or 10 gallons. So this was 80-120 liters or 20 to 30 gallons. The large quantity is surprising, assuming John means it was all turned to wine (some do not think so, suggesting other scenarios). Jesus did much more than supply the current need. Used only here. GK 3583.
4. Some think Jesus means the slave responsible for the banquet; others, based on the context here, the guest who was in charge of the banquet, "the president, governor, ruler, master" of it. Elsewhere only in v 9. GK 804.
5. More literally, "is", as the Greek typically phrases it.
6. This may imply that when the servants drew it, it was still water. It became wine on the way. Or, this may simply be an abbreviation of "the water having become wine".
7. In making this proverbial statement, the man is not saying the guests are now drunk, or that they will become drunk; only that he would have expected this fine wine first. It is a comment about the quality of the wine, not the state of the guests. Elsewhere only in Lk 12:45; Eph 5:18; 1 Thes 5:7; Rev 17:2. GK 3499. Related to "be drunk" in 1 Cor 11:21; "drunkard" in 1 Cor 5:11; and "drunkenness" in Rom 13:13.
8. Some manuscripts say "then the lesser" {N}.
9. That is, the inferior, lower quality, and therefore cheaper wine. On this word, see "younger" in Rom 9:12.
10. Or, "Jesus did this as a beginning of signs". Compare 4:54.
11. Or, "manifested". Same word as in 1:31. This is primarily why Jesus did this miracle, and all miracles. They are signs or revelations, revealing His glory, "attesting" or "proving" who He is, Act 2:22. See Jn 6:2. Thus, He did His first miracle for His disciples, to reveal Himself to them. They are the primary beneficiaries of this miracle.
12. Some think Jesus moved to Capernaum at this time, Mt 4:13; others, either before or after this occasion.
13. Some manuscripts omit this word; others omit "and His disciples" {C}.
14. On the "brothers" of Jesus, see Mt 13:55-56.
15. Compare Mt 21:12-13; Mk 11:15-17; Lk 19:45-46.
16. That is, in the outer court, the court of the Gentiles. Jesus did not object to what these merchants were doing, but where. Their service was needed by the worshipers, because Jewish foreign visitors needed to buy animals for the sacrifices and change their currency into shekels.
17. Used only here. GK 3048. From a root word meaning "to cut into pieces", this word is used of one who "changes into smaller coins". Related to the word "coin" in v 15. Not related to "money changers" in v 15.
18. Or, "whip". Used only here. GK 5848. Related to "flog" in Mt 27:26. Some manuscripts say "made [something] like a lash..." {B}.
19. Or, "cords". Elsewhere only in Act 27:32. GK 5389.
20. Or, "both". Jesus expelled the people and the animals.
21. More literally, "coin", referring to all their money. Used only here. GK 3047. Some manuscripts say "coins" {N}.
22. The doves in their cages had to be carried out. Jesus did not destroy the merchants' property, or free the birds.
23. The grammar implies, "Stop making...".
24. At the beginning of the ministry of Jesus, it is "My Father's house"; at the end, it is "your house", Mt 23:38.
25. Or, "market-center, commerce center, trading place". Used only here. GK 1866. Related to "business" in Mt 22:5, and "merchant" in Mt 13:45, and "do business" in Jam 4:13. Our word "emporium" comes from this word, emporion.
26. This is a participle, "it is having been written", it stands written. Same phrase as in 6:31, 45; 10:34; 12:14; 20:30. GK 1211.
27. Or, "devour, eat up". On this word, see "devour" in Mk 12:40. Some manuscripts say "consumed" {K}.
28. That is, the Jewish leaders. See 1:19.
29. That is, to prove Your authority to be doing these things.
30. The Jews remembered this statement in part, as seen in Mt 26:61; Mk 14:58. The sign Jesus offers them is the same sign He later calls the sign of Jonah, Mt 12:39-40; 16:4. On this word, see Mt 28:6.
31. That is, this temple as they now see it, for it was not finished yet. The grammar refers merely to the fact that 46 years had been expended thus far, not to the process ("has been being built for 46 years") or to the completion ("was built in 46 years"). Herod the Great began to rebuild it in 20-19 B.C. It was finished by Herod Agrippa II (see Act 25:13) in A.D. 64. It was destroyed by the Romans in A.D. 70.
32. Or, "arose". On this word, see "arose" in Mt 28:6.
33. The disciples did not understand this saying of Jesus at this time, but they recalled it to mind when Jesus was actually raised.
34. Some manuscripts add "to them" {K}.
35. On "believe in His name", see 1:12.
36. See Jn 6:2.
37. This is the same word as "believe" in v 23 and 3:36. Many believed in Jesus, but He did not believe in them; they trusted in His name, but He did not trust in them.
38. That is, because Jesus knew all people. John uses this grammar only here. "Because of His knowing" has the same grammar as Lk 2:4; 19:11; Act 4:2; 12:20; 27:4; Phil 1:7; Heb 10:2; Jam 4:2, etc.
39. This is clearly seen next in the case of Nicodemus, and in 4:18.
40. Other than in v 1-9, Nicodemus is mentioned elsewhere only in 7:50; 19:39. GK 3773.
41. Some manuscripts say "Jesus" {K}.
42. This is repeated in 19:39. Some think it is mentioned because it symbolizes coming out of darkness into the light; others, that Nicodemus feared what others would think; others, that this was the only time Jesus would be alone.

1. Before Nicodemus can ask his question, which may have been something like "But are You the Messiah bringing God's kingdom?", Jesus responds. On this idiom, see 1:51.
2. Same word as in 1:13; 3:4-8; 1 Jn 2:29; 3:9; 4:7; 5:1, 4, 18. On this word, see 1 Jn 2:29.
3. Or, "from above". Same word as in v 7. Note "born of God" in 1:13. Here, Jesus means "from the Spirit", as explained in v 5, 8, which is both "from above" and "again". But Nicodemus clearly understands Him—wrongly—to mean born physically "again", a second time, v 4. Elsewhere only as "anew" in Gal 4:9; from the "top" in Mt 27:51; Mk 15:38; Jn 19:23; "from the beginning" in Lk 1:3; Act 26:5; and "from above" in Jn 3:31; 19:11; Jam 1:17; 3:15, 17. GK 540.
4. Nicodemus combines a broadly stated principle with his own case in particular. Used only here. GK 1173.
5. The grammar indicates that a "no" answer is expected. It implies "Surely this cannot be what You mean".
6. Jesus is responding to Nicodemus's taking His statement as relating to physical birth.
7. Some think Jesus explains both in the next verse. "Of water" is "of the flesh", referring to physical birth, the birth Nicodemus mentioned in v 4. "Water" refers to semen, or amniotic fluid. "Of the Spirit" refers to spiritual birth, the birth mentioned in v 3. A second birth is indeed needed to enter, but not a physical one. Others think "of water" refers to water baptism. In this case, "of water and the Spirit" is equivalent to "of the Spirit" in v 6, and to "born again" in v 3, the water referring the outward act, the Spirit's birth to the inner reality. Some think "water" refers to John's baptism in Nicodemus's case, but is also prophetic of Christian baptism. It symbolizes repentance and cleansing from the old life. There are other views. Consult the commentaries.
8. In v 6 and 8, Jesus uses a physical illustration to explain the spiritual truths in v 5 and 7.
9. Flesh fathers flesh, Spirit fathers spirit. They reproduce "after their kind". The child shares the parent's nature, physically, and spiritually.
10. This word is plural, and "all" is added to reflect this. It is equivalent to "one" in v 3, 5; and "everyone" in v 8. It is a general truth.
11. This is the same word as "Spirit". GK 4460. Related to "blows" next.
12. Some manuscripts say "or" {K}.
13. We do not know the source or destination of the wind. We only see its effects—the sound and movement it causes. So in the spiritual realm. We do not understand physically "how" (the question in v 4). We only see the effect in the person's life after the person has been born of the Spirit. The spiritual wind blows, one is drawn to Him (6:44), and born from above. The seed is sown, and it grows—how, we do not know, Mk 4:27.
14. That is, being born again and entering the kingdom.
15. Or, how can these things "come about, take place, be"? GK 1181. The first question by Nicodemus was "How can one be physically born a second time?", v 4. Now he asks "How can one be spiritually born from above?" Jesus chides his ability to understand such spiritual realities (v 10), and then tells him in v 14-15—believe in Me. This answer is then explained in v 16-21.
16. Or, "know". On this word, see "know" in Lk 1:34.
17. Some think Jesus is including the Baptist; others, the prophets; others, the disciples; others, the Father; others, that He is referring to Himself, as in 9:4.
18. Jesus asserts His authority, then chastises Israel for not accepting it.
19. This word is plural here and in all four places in v 12. "People" is added to reflect this. Some think Jesus is referring to the Pharisees, v 1; or more broadly, to the Jewish leaders in general; others, even more broadly, to "people like you". These are general statements reaching beyond Nicodemus.
20. That is, things relating to physical reality, to this human existence; things proceeding from an earthly point of view versus a heavenly one; things reaching from earth to heaven versus from heaven to earth. Even things like 2:16, relating to the earthly temple. If the Jews do not accept that kind of statement, and the authority of Jesus to speak it, why would they believe Him if He spoke of spiritual, unseen realities?
21. Now Jesus gives the source of His authority, of what "we know" and "we have seen" (v 11); and of the Pharisees' lack of authority for passing judgment on what He says. He has "come from God" (v 2) in a much deeper sense than Nicodemus realizes, in a unique sense.
22. Some take this to mean "has personal communion with God".
23. Some manuscripts add "the One being in heaven" {B}, which some think refers to Jesus as God. He has descended, and yet His eternal being is also in heaven. He is everywhere, yet in this body.
24. Jesus now gives the answer to the question in v 9.
25. On this, see Num 21:8-9. Jesus too will be lifted up, and all putting faith in Him will live. Same word as in 8:28. While Jesus was referring to the cross, this would not be clear to Nicodemus at this time.
26. Or, "believing in". This grammar for "believe in, put faith in" is elsewhere only in Mk 1:15 ("in the gospel") and Eph 1:13 ("in which gospel", or, "in Whom"). On this word, see "believe" in 3:36. Compare 2 Thes 2:12. It is not the preposition "in" normally used to say "believe in Him" (as in v 16). Compare Rom 4:5, "put faith upon". Some manuscripts do have the normal preposition here, and say "believing in Him may not perish but may have eternal life" {B}.
27. Or, "it", the Son of Man lifted up.
28. This is the Greek word order. It may also be punctuated "everyone believing may have eternal life in Him".
29. Some think v 16-21 are John's words of explanation for us; others, Jesus' explanation for Nicodemus.
30. This word means "so, thus, in this manner, like this, as follows, so much", and is used 208 times. GK 4048. Here, some think John means "in this manner", as it is used in 7:46; 11:48; 18:22; others, "so much, to such an extent, so very", as it is used in Gal 1:6, "so quickly"; Gal 3:3, "so foolish"; Heb 12:21, "so fearful"; and Rev 16:18, "so great".
31. Or, "so that everyone believing in Him shall not perish, but shall have...", depending on whether this is expressing God's purpose, or the result. GK 2671.
32. Or, "pass judgment on, execute judgment against, condemn". Yet Jesus has the authority to judge, and will exercise it later, 5:27. Compare 9:39; 12:47. Same word as in v 18; 5:22, 30; 7:24; 8:15, 16, 26; 12:47, 48; 16:11; 18:31. On this word, see Mt 7:1.
33. Jesus came to save, but this salvation results in judgment for those who reject it.
34. This one does not come into judgment, but has passed from death to life, 5:24. On this word, see Mt 7:1.

- 2F. "But the one not believing has been judged^A already, because he has not believed in the name of the only-born^B Son of God

1. Or, "verdict, decision". This is how God presently judges the ones not believing—they loved the darkness because their deeds are evil. This is His present verdict. Terrifying consequences await those who end their life with this judgment still true of them. Same word as in 5:22, 24, 27, 29, 30; 7:24; 8:16; 12:31; 16:8, 11; Heb 9:27; 10:27; 2 Pet 3:7; Rev 16:7; and as "justice" in Mt 12:18, 20; 23:23. Used 47 times. GK 3213. Related to "judge" in Mt 7:1.
2. Same word as in Mt 4:16; Lk 1:79; Act 26:18; Rom 13:12; Eph 5:8, 11; Col 1:13; 1 Pet 2:9. Used 31 times. GK 5030. Related to the word in Jn 1:5, and "darkened" in Rom 1:21 and Eph 4:18.
3. Thus the reason such people reject the Light lies with them. On this word, see Eph 5:11.
4. On "doing the truth", compare "doing sin" in 8:34.
5. Or, "be revealed". On this word, see "made evident" in 1 Jn 2:19.
6. Or, "because". GK 4022.
7. Or, "done, wrought, performed". This is a participle, they "are having been worked". On this word, see Mt 26:10. Related to "works" in v 20.
8. Or, "in union with, in connection with, by means of". Or, "under" God, in His sphere of influence, as this word is used in Rom 2:12. GK 1877.
9. That is, Jesus left Jerusalem and went into Judea. This idiom, "the Judean land", is used only here. Compare Mk 1:5.
10. Note John's clarification of this in 4:2. On this word, see Mk 1:8.
11. That is, many sources of water. Or, "much water", large quantities of water. On "many waters", see Rev 14:2. "Water" (used 76 times. GK 5623) is plural elsewhere only in Mt 8:32; 14:28, 29; Mk 9:22; and Rev 7:17; 8:10, 11; 11:6; 14:7; 16:4, 5; 17:15.
12. This is a participle, he "was not yet having been thrown" into prison. In Mt 4:12 and Mk 1:14, this future imprisonment is where their description of the ministry of Jesus begins. In John, this imprisonment occurs before 5:1, and may have occurred in conjunction with the departure from Judea in 4:1-3.
13. Or, "controversy". On this word, see "controversy" in 1 Tim 6:4.
14. Or, "took place, came about". GK 1181.
15. The debate was between these disciples and this Jew, but this preposition indicates it originated with these disciples.
16. Some manuscripts have this plural, "with the Jews" {B}.
17. On this word, see 2 Pet 1:9. Perhaps John's disciples debated the place or effect of his baptism in view of that of Jesus.
18. This hyperbole betrays the hearts of these men.
19. This is a participle, unless it "is having been given" to him.
20. Some manuscripts omit this word {C}.
21. That is, John can only receive what God gives him. And God gave him the task of preparing the Lord's way, as these disciples very well know.
22. Christ is the bridegroom, John is the friend of the bridegroom.
23. The phrase "rejoices with joy" is a Hebrew way of saying "rejoices greatly".
24. As the groomsman standing and listening to the bridegroom with his bride rejoices to hear him, so John rejoices to hear of Jesus' words and actions. Jesus is the center of attention, and John is His friend.
25. That is, this rejoicing with 'friend of the bridegroom joy', which is my joy, has been made full (or, fulfilled) in my case.
26. Same word as in 15:11; 17:13. Compare 16:24.
27. Or, "increase". That is, grow in brightness as the Light in the darkness, grow in His effect on Israel, grow in His following, spread in His influence. Same word as the gospel "growing" in Col 1:6 (see also Act 6:7; 12:24; 19:20), and Israel "increasing" in Act 7:17. Used of plants, children, the church, faith, and Christians "growing". Used 23 times. GK 889.
28. Or, "reduce, decrease, be made lower". Elsewhere only as "made lower" in Heb 2:7, 9. GK 1783. Related to "lesser" in Jn 2:10.
29. Some think that v 31-36 are the apostle John's comments; others, a continuation of the Baptist's words.
30. Or, "over". Not related to "from-above". Same word as later in the verse. GK 2062. Jesus is preeminent. Paul says Jesus is "over all" in Rom 9:5, using a different word.
31. This contrast is true of the Baptist, but is stated in a form that is true of all. Jesus comes from above, and is above all in rank and authority. The Baptist is from the earth, like all humans, and speaks the things of God from an earthly perspective. As a prophet, he speaks what God reveals to him, but knows nothing more, as in 1 Pet 1:10-12. All humans speak of heaven from an earthly source of knowledge, not from firsthand knowledge (like Jesus).
32. Jesus speaks from personal knowledge—not what was revealed to Him, but what He has personally seen and heard in heaven. Compare 1 Jn 1:1. Some manuscripts say "And what...". Others combine this with v 31, omitting "is above all" and "this", so that it says "The One coming from heaven is testifying what He has seen and did hear" {C}.
33. The Baptist may be referring primarily to the Jewish leadership in Jerusalem—the same ones rejecting him or giving him no more than lip service. Compare v 11, 26. Or, the apostle John may be referring to people in general.
34. This is true of the Baptist and the special certification he gave (1:32-34), but is stated in a form that is true of all who have received Jesus. The contrast here between 1E. and 2E. is like that in 1:11-12.
35. Or, "set his seal, sealed, attested". Same word as in 6:27. On this word, see "sealed" in Eph 1:13.
36. To accept what Jesus says is to set your personal seal of approval on the truthfulness of God's words, for His words are God's words. The reverse is in 1 Jn 5:10—to reject Jesus is to make God a liar.
37. Note that this is a negative statement, the Greek word order being, "Not from a measure does He give Him the Spirit". Some rephrase this as a positive statement, "He gives Him the Spirit without measure". Some manuscripts say "God" {B}.
38. Or, "by means of a measure, out of a measure". This idiom is used only here. Jesus is not like the Baptist, or any other prophet to whom God gives a measured gift of His Spirit. God "is not giving" Him a measured-out portion, as with the other prophets. All the fullness dwells in Jesus, Col 1:19; 2:9. There are other views. Consult the commentaries. Same word as in Eph 4:7, where we all have a "measure" of grace. Same noun as in Mt 7:2; 23:32; Mk 4:24; Lk 6:38; Rom 12:3; 2 Cor 10:13; Eph 4:13, 16; Rev 21:17. Elsewhere only as "measuring" rod in Rev 21:15. GK 3586.
39. Having stated the negative, the positive is now given.
40. The Baptist called Jesus "the Son of God" in 1:34.
41. Compare Jn 13:3.
42. This word means "believe, put faith in, trust". It is also rendered "put faith" (see Rom 4:5 and Jn 3:15); and "entrust" in Lk 16:11; Jn 2:24; Rom 3:2; 1 Cor 9:17; Gal 2:4; 1 Tim 1:11; Tit 1:3. Used 241 times. GK 4409. Related to "faith" in Eph 2:8; and "faithful" in Col 1:2.
43. Or, "refusing to believe". On this word, see Rom 11:30.

- 3D. Jesus responded and said to her, “If you knew^C the gift^D of God¹⁴, and Who the One saying to you ‘Give Me water to drink’ is— you would have asked Him, and He would have given you living^E water” 10
- 4D. The woman¹⁵ says to Him, “Sir^F, You have no bucket¹⁶, and the well¹⁷ is deep. From where then do You have the living water? ^{*}You are not greater than our father Jacob, are You¹⁸, who gave us the well, and himself drank from it, and his sons, and his animals¹⁹?” 11
- 5D. Jesus responded and said to her, “Everyone drinking from this water will thirst again. But whoever should drink²⁰ from the water which I will give him— he will never²¹ thirst, ever²². On the contrary, the water which I will give him will become a spring of water in him, bubbling-up²³ to eternal life” 13

- 7D. He²⁵ says to her, “Go, call your husband, and come here” 16
- 8D. The woman responded and said to Him, “I do not have a husband” 17

- 10D. The woman says to Him, “Sir, I perceive^I that You are a prophet.²⁷ ^{*}Our fathers worshiped on this mountain,²⁸ and you²⁹ Jews say that the place where one must³⁰ worship is in Jerusalem” 19-20
- 11D. Jesus says to her, “Believe Me, woman,³¹ that an hour is coming when you³² Samaritans will give-worship to the Father neither on this mountain nor in Jerusalem 21
- 1E. “You Samaritans worship what you do not know^C. We Jews worship what we know, because salvation^K is from the Jews 22
- 2E. “But an hour is coming, and now is, when the true^L worshipers will give-worship to the Father in spirit and truth³³ 23
- 1E. “For indeed the Father is seeking^M such ones to be the ones worshipping Him 24
- 2E. “God is spirit, and the ones worshipping Him must^N worship³⁴ in spirit and truth” 24

1. Some manuscripts say "the Lord" {C}.
2. Or, "came to know, learned". On this word, see Lk 1:34.
3. More literally, "is", as the Greek typically phrases it.
4. Or, "and yet". Used only here. GK 2793. John is correcting the information that the Pharisees heard.
5. Perhaps Jesus left so the Pharisees could not try to play Him against the Baptist. John could correct his own disciples (3:25-26), but the Pharisees might attempt to exploit such questions among the people. This may also have been when John was imprisoned. See 3:24. Compare Mt 4:12; Mk 1:14; Lk 3:20; 4:14.
6. Or, "back". Jesus was there in 1:43-2:12. On this word, see Mk 15:13. Some manuscripts omit this word {A}.
7. Or, "it was necessary that He go". On this idiom, see "must" in Mt 16:21.
8. Same word as in v 14; Jam 3:11; 2 Pet 2:17; Rev 7:17; 8:10; 14:7; 16:4; 21:6. Elsewhere only as "fountain" in Mk 5:29. GK 4380. Not related to "well" in v 11, which is the "shaft" in which the "spring" of water is located, but used to refer to both. "Spring" puts emphasis on the water; "well" on the shaft dug down to the water.
9. Some think John means "wearied, tired"; others, "as He was", without any preparation. On this word, see "so" in 3:16. Compare 13:25, where this same word is used.
10. Some think John means noon, counting from sunrise, 6 A.M. Others think he means 6 P.M., counting from noon, Roman time. See 19:14 on this.
11. Or, "provisions". It is plural here. On this word, see Mt 24:45.
12. Or, "make use of vessels with", or more broadly, "associate with" as friends and equals. A Jew would not share water from the same bucket or cup as this Samaritan woman. Jews had business dealings with Samaritans, as seen even in v 8, but avoided becoming "unclean" by contact with them. Used only here. GK 5178. Related to "make use of" in 1 Cor 7:21.
13. Some include this in the woman's statement. Some manuscripts omit "For Jews... Samaritans" {A}.
14. The gift is the living water, eternal life, v 14.
15. Some manuscripts omit "the woman" {C}, so that it says "She says...".
16. Or, "drawing thing". Used only here. GK 534. Related to the verb "draw" in v 7, 15.
17. Same word as in v 12. See "spring" in v 6. On this word, see "shaft" in Rev 9:1.
18. The grammar indicates a "no" answer is expected.
19. This word was used of animals fed by humans, especially sheep and goats. Used only here. GK 2576.
20. Jesus contrasts the continual drinking of physical water, and the one-time drink of His spiritual water.
21. This is an emphatic negative (see 8:51), further strengthened by adding "ever".
22. Or, "forever, into the age". GK 172. This combination of "never" and "ever" is elsewhere only in Jn 8:51, 52; 10:28; 11:26; 13:8; 1 Cor 8:13.
23. Or, "springing up, welling up", but not related to "spring" or "well". Elsewhere only as "leap" in Act 3:8; 14:10. GK 256. Related to "leap on" in Act 19:16.
24. Or, "so that I will not". GK 2671.
25. Some manuscripts say "Jesus" {N}.
26. Jesus changes the word order of the woman's claim, giving it His own emphasis.
27. That is, because Jesus had supernatural knowledge about this woman's past. Compare the case in Lk 7:39. On "prophet", see 1 Cor 12:28. Since He was clearly a prophet, she asks Him an appropriate question.
28. Mount Gerizim is where the Samaritans worshiped, and this well was at the foot of it.
29. The "you" here is plural, to reflect which, "Jews" is added.
30. Or, where "it is necessary to". On this idiom, see Mt 16:21. Or, where "one ought to". On this idiom, see Act 25:10.
31. Some manuscripts say "Woman, believe Me" {K}.
32. The "you" here and in v 22 is also plural.
33. Truth is that which corresponds to reality, from God's point of view. Same word as in Lk 4:25; Jn 1:17; 8:32; 17:17; Rom 1:18, 25; Eph 1:13; 4:25; Phil 1:18; 2 Thes 2:10; 1 Tim 2:4, 7; 1 Jn 2:4; 3:18. Used 109 times. GK 237. Related to "true" in Jn 6:55 and 7:28, and "truly" in Mt 14:33.
34. On "give worship" and "worship" (same word, different grammar) in v 20, 21, 22, 23, 24, see Mt 14:33.

- 2D. So he inquired^X from them the hour at which he got better³⁵ 52

1. On the phrase "I am He", see 8:58.
2. Some think John means "What are you seeking [from Him]?" ; others, "What are You seeking [from her]?" . On "seeking", see Phil 2:21.
3. With the "bucket" (v 11), the woman drew from the well; with the "waterpot", she carried it home. Elsewhere only in 2:6, 7. GK 5620.
4. The grammar indicates that the woman expects the people to say "no" at this point. But the question calls upon them to examine the possibility. The same type of question occurs in v 33; Mt 12:23. "You don't think this might be the Messiah, do you?" She clearly believes Jesus is the Messiah, v 39.
5. Some manuscripts say "So they..." {N}, using the same word as in v 28.
6. The grammar indicates a "no" answer is expected.
7. Or, "to do". GK 2671.
8. Jesus hungers to do God's will, and doing it satisfies His soul as food does the body.
9. Or, "complete, finish". Same word as in 5:36; 17:4, on which see "perfect" in Heb 2:10.
10. The grammar indicates a "yes" answer is expected. Do you not expect a delay between sowing and harvesting? Some think Jesus is appealing to the common experience of people. Others think that in addition, it implies there were actually four months remaining at that moment until harvest that year.
11. Or, "because". GK 4022.
12. Some think Jesus is referring to the people coming to Him from the city (v 30) in their white garments, not to any agricultural crop. In any case, He is referring to the spiritual harvest. Used 25 times. GK 3328.
13. The spiritual harvest is here, as seen with this woman. Jesus just reaped the woman, and she is now reaping others, without any delay. Others have already sown, as seen in her statement in v 25, so the fields are ready.
14. Or, this word may be joined to what precedes, "are already white for harvest". Some manuscripts add "and", so that it says, "are already white for harvest. And the one reaping..." {B}.
15. In other words, the reapers are already working the harvest. Both Jesus and the woman, as seen in v 39, are reaping. The "wages" are the "food" He has now (v 32), enjoyed while bringing in the harvest. The fruit gathered will be enjoyed in eternal life. There, all who had a part in sowing and reaping will rejoice over it forever.
16. Someone else is the sower. Jesus and the woman are the reapers. They entered into a harvest already prepared by others.
17. Now Jesus applies this to the disciples with Him. The past tense may refer to the work they entered in 4:2.
18. Israel was already prepared, anticipating the Messiah. The world was prepared for reaping. The disciples will reap the harvest for which many others have labored (extending from Jesus back to Moses).
19. This shows the powerful effect of the woman's testimony in v 29. Some Samaritans believe before they see Jesus.
20. More literally, "more by much". That is, more than believed because of the woman's word, v 39.
21. That is, what this woman said. Some believed because of her testimony, v 39. Many more were tentatively convinced by her, but fully believed when they heard Jesus for themselves. On this noun, see 8:43.
22. The Samaritans must have heard this from Jesus, who would have explained why He, the Jewish Messiah, did not treat them as the Jews did. Some manuscripts say "...world, the Christ" {N}. John calls Him "Savior of the world" also in 1 Jn 4:14.
23. Some manuscripts say "there, and went to Galilee" {N}.
24. Some think the homeland in view is Judea. Jesus went to Galilee because He would have been dishonored in Judea by the Pharisees, as began to happen in 4:1-3. Others think the homeland is Galilee. Jesus went to Galilee because He knew He would not be honored there in a way that would bring Him into premature conflict with the Pharisees, as began to happen in 4:1-3. Others think the homeland is Israel. Jesus deliberately went from where He was being honored (Samaria), back to Israel where He knew this would not be the case, where they would seek Him for His miracles, not His message. In Samaria, they were convinced by His word (v 42), without signs (none are recorded). In Israel they sought Him for His signs, but did not believe His word. His popularity in Judea (v 1) and Galilee (v 44) was for the wrong reasons, and He was returning to Israel to bring this to its inevitable conclusion. There are other views. Consult the commentaries. Same word as "hometown" in Mt 13:57; Mk 6:4; Lk 4:24; where Jesus says this after He is dishonored in Nazareth. On this word, see Heb 11:14.
25. That is, when Jesus came to where He was going in v 2 when He passed through Samaria.
26. That is, unlike the Samaritans, who for this reason did not know Jesus.
27. Some manuscripts say "Jesus" {N}.
28. John probably means a royal official in the service of Herod Antipas (see Mt 14:1 on him), though he could mean a member of Herod's family. On this word, see Act 12:20.
29. More literally, "has", as the Greek typically phrases it.
30. This word is plural, as is the next "you" in this sentence. "People" is added to reflect this.
31. This is in contrast to the Samaritans, who believed "because of His word", v 41. The Jews come to Jesus as a miracle worker, not as "the Savior of the world", v 42. Jesus is expressing His disappointment that this is the case.
32. Note that Jesus heals with a word, over a distance of some 20 miles or 32 kilometers (from Cana to Capernaum).
33. Some manuscripts add "and reported" {N}.
34. Some manuscripts say "saying that 'your boy lives'" ; others, "saying that 'your son lives'" {B}.
35. This is an idiom, literally "he had it better", that is, recovered. On this idiom, compare "being ill" in Mk 1:32.

- 3D. So¹ they said to him that “The fever^A left him yesterday *at the seventh*² hour”
- 4D. Then the father knew that it was at that hour at which Jesus said to him, “Your son lives” 53
- 5D. And he believed³, he and his whole household^B
- 6C. Now⁴ this again⁵ *was a second*⁶ sign Jesus did, having come from Judea to Galilee 54
- 7A. After these things there was a Feast⁷ of the Jews, and Jesus went up to Jerusalem 5:1
- 1B. Now in Jerusalem near the Sheep⁸ gate, there is a pool—the one being called Bethzatha⁹ in Hebrew, 2 having five porticos¹⁰. *In these porticos, a multitude¹¹ of the ones being sick^C were lying-down— 3 blind ones, lame^D ones, withered¹² ones. *And there was a certain man there having¹⁴ thirty and¹⁵ 4:13-5 eight years in his sickness¹⁶
- 2B. Jesus— having seen this one lying down, and having known¹⁷ that he already had¹⁸ a long time [in 6 his sickness]— says to him, “Do you want to become healthy¹⁹?”
- 1C. The one being sick^C answered Him, “Sir^E, I do not have a man *to*²⁰ put^F me into the pool when 7 the water is stirred-up^G. But while I am going, another goes down before me”
- 2C. Jesus says to him, “Arise, pick up your cot, and walk!” 8
- 3C. And immediately the man became healthy, and picked up his cot, and was walking 9
- 3B. Now it was a Sabbath on that day. *So the Jews were saying to the one having been cured^H, “It is 10 the Sabbath, and it is not lawful^I for you to pick up your cot”
- 1C. But the one answered them, “The One having made me healthy, that One said to me, ‘Pick up 11 your cot and walk’ ”
- 2C. They²¹ asked him, “Who is the man having said to you, ‘Pick up²² and walk’?” 12
- 3C. But the one having been healed^K did not know who He was²³. For Jesus withdrew²⁴, a crowd²⁵ 13 being in the place
- 4C. After these things, Jesus finds him in the temple. And He said to him, “See— you have become 14 healthy! Do not be sinning²⁶ any longer, in order that something worse may not happen to you”
- 5C. The man went away, and reported²⁷ to the Jews that Jesus was²⁸ the One having made him healthy 15
- 4B. And for this reason, the Jews²⁹ were persecuting^L Jesus³⁰— because He was doing³¹ these things on 16
a Sabbath
- 1C. But Jesus³² answered them, “My Father is working^M until now, and I am working”³³ 17
- 2C. Therefore, for this reason the Jews were seeking^N more to kill^O Him— because 18
- 1D. He was not only breaking³⁴ the Sabbath
- 2D. But He was also calling^P God His own³⁵ Father, making Himself equal³⁶ to God!
- 5B. Therefore Jesus responded and was saying to them— 19
- 1C. “Truly^Q, truly, I say to you— the Son can do³⁷ nothing from³⁸ Himself except something He 20
sees the Father doing³⁹
- 1D. “For⁴⁰ whatever things that One is doing, these things the Son is also likewise doing
- 1E. “For⁴¹ the Father loves^R the Son, and shows^S Him all things that He Himself is doing

1. Some manuscripts say "And" {N}.
2. Some think the slaves mean 1 P.M., counted from sunrise. In this case, "yesterday" is from the Jewish point of view. They met that evening, which to them was the next day (it began at sundown). Others think they mean 7 P.M., counted from noon. See 19:14. In this case, the late hour explains why the official was returning the next day.
3. In v 50, the man believed in the word of healing. Now he believes in Jesus. Though wonderful for him, it proves what Jesus said in v 48, and stands in contrast to v 41-42.
4. Some manuscripts omit this word {C}.
5. That is, continuing from what John said in 2:11.
6. Jesus had done other signs in Judea, 2:23. This is the second (see 2:11) sign John mentions that was done in Cana, Galilee, after He had returned from Judea. John could mean the second in Galilee, the second in Cana, or the second manifesting His glory (due to the special nature of both). John may also mean the second of the seven He records (see 11:1), although he does not number the rest.
7. Some manuscripts say "the Feast" {A}. There are several views on which Feast this was.
8. Or, "sheep place, sheep pool". "Gate" is supplied based on Neh 3:1, 32; 12:39. The KJV supplies "market". This can also be rendered "Now in Jerusalem near the sheep pool is the pool being called...". Used only here. GK 4583.
9. Used only here. GK 1032. Some manuscripts say "Bethsaida" (as in 1:44, etc.); others, "Bethesda" (only here in the NT) {C}.
10. That is, covered colonnades or cloisters where people gathered. Elsewhere only in 10:23; Act 3:11; 5:12. GK 5119.
11. Some manuscripts say "a great multitude" {N}.
12. Same word as in Mk 3:3. Some manuscripts add "awaiting the moving of the water" {A}. Note v 7.
13. Some manuscripts (with several variations) add as verse 4, "For an angel in due season was going down in the pool and stirring up the water. Then the one first having stepped in after the stirring up of the water was becoming healthy for whatever disease he was indeed being afflicted" {A}. Whether this explanation is based in fact, or correctly represents the beliefs of this sick man, is uncertain. But it is clear that John did not write it.
14. The idiom of "having" time is also in v 6; 8:57; 9:21, 23; 11:17.
15. Some manuscripts omit this word {C}.
16. That is, the man had been lame or withered for 38 years. On this word, see "weakness" in Mt 8:17.
17. Or, "having come to know, having learned". John could mean Jesus knew it supernaturally, or that someone told Him. Perhaps Jesus inquired as to who had been sick the longest, and chose this one for healing. On this word, see Lk 1:34.
18. More literally, "has", as the Greek typically phrases it.
19. On this word, see Mt 12:13. Same word as in v 9, 11, 14, 15.
20. More literally, "in order that he might" put. GK 2671.
21. Some manuscripts say "So they asked..." {N}.
22. To the Jews, any significance the healing might have had is canceled by the violation of their Sabbath traditions. Compare the man's viewpoint in v 15. Some manuscripts add "your cot" {N}.
23. More literally, "is", as the Greek typically phrases it.
24. Or, "turned aside". Used only here. GK 1728. Jesus turned His head in another direction and went away.
25. John could mean Jesus turned aside because there was a crowd; or, that He turned aside into the crowd, the crowd giving Him the means to withdraw unnoticed. Both are true.
26. That is, do not go on sinning any longer. Repent. Same command as in 8:11. Some think Jesus is implying that the man's 38 year sickness was the result of sin; others do not. Jesus is speaking of the future, of what might happen if he continues in sin. "Something worse" could be a more severe ailment, death, or hell.
27. The man's motive is not stated. Jesus may have told him to do so. Some manuscripts say "said" {N}.
28. More literally, "is", as the Greek typically phrases it.
29. That is, the Jewish leaders, as in v 10, 18. See 1:19 on this.
30. Some manuscripts add "and seeking to kill Him" {N}.
31. The grammar implies the Jews were responding to Jesus' pattern of behavior, not just this one incident.
32. Some manuscripts omit this word {C}, so that it says "But the One answered..."
33. Jesus claims a unique relationship to the Father ("My", not "our" Father), and a divine justification to work on the Sabbath. He places His work on the Sabbath on an equal plane with God's working on the Sabbath.
34. Or, "loosing". That is, annulling its authority. Same word as in Mt 5:19, and as in Jn 7:23.
35. Jesus was claiming a special relationship, a direct relationship, as seen in Lk 1:35.
36. On this word, see Phil 2:6, where Paul says Jesus was equal with God. Compare 10:33. If God is the father of Jesus, then Jesus has the same essence and nature as God, as do all fathers and sons. Claiming to be God's Son in this sense is claiming to be God, or as John says, equal to God. This "equality" is seen clearly in what He says to them beginning in v 19.
37. The focus of this part of Jesus' answer is on His authority for His actions, for His working on the Sabbath, v 17, 18. In summary, He always acts in submission to His Father, and He does all things the Father does. Thus, He has the Father's authority.
38. Or, "of". That is, of His own initiative, originating in Himself. Same phrase as in 7:18; 11:51 (the high priest); 15:4; 16:13. Related to "from yourself" in 18:34, and "from Myself" in 5:30; 7:17; 8:28; 14:10; and "of Myself" in 7:28; 8:42; 10:18. A different word is used in "out of Myself" in 12:49.
39. That is, the Son's self-initiated acts are always in harmony with what He sees the Father doing.
40. Not only can the Son not do something out of harmony with the Father, He does do what the Father is doing. Thus there is no transgression, and no falling short. Negatively, He cannot do something unless the Father is doing it. Positively, He is doing everything the Father is doing. He is in perfect harmony with the Father.
41. How does the Son see what the Father is doing? The Father shows Him, because He loves Him. How much of what the Father is doing does He see? All things. Here Jesus makes explicit the infinite extent of what He is claiming. Only One "making Himself equal to God" could claim such a thing.

- 2E. “And He will show Him greater works than these¹, in order that² you may marvel^A
- 2D. “For³ just as the Father raises^B the dead and gives-life-to⁴ them, so also the Son gives-life-to⁵ the ones whom He wishes⁶ 21
- 1E. “For the Father does not even judge⁷ anyone, but He has given all judgment^C to the Son, ^{*}in order that⁸ all⁹ may honor^D the Son just-as¹⁰ they are honoring the Father 22 23
- 1F. “The one not honoring the Son is not honoring the Father having sent Him
- 2E. “Truly^E, truly, I say to you¹¹ that the one hearing My word and believing the One having sent Me, has eternal life. And he does not come into judgment^C, but has passed¹² from death to life 24
- 3D. “Truly, truly, I say to you that an hour is coming, and now is,¹³ when the dead¹⁴ will hear the voice of the Son of God, and the ones having heard¹⁵ will live^F 25
- 1E. “For just as the Father has life^G in Himself, so also He gave¹⁶ to the Son to have life in Himself¹⁷ 26
- 2E. “And He gave Him authority to execute¹⁸ judgment¹⁹, because He is a son of man²⁰
- 4D. “Do not be marveling-at^A this,²¹ because an hour is coming in which all the ones in the graves^H will hear His voice, ^{*}and will come out— 28 29
- 1E.²² “The ones having done^J the good^K things— to a resurrection^L of life
- 2E. “The ones having practiced^M the bad²³ things— to a resurrection of judgment^C
- 5D. “I can do nothing from Myself.²⁴ Just as I am hearing, I am judging.²⁵ And My judgment^C is righteous²⁶, because I am not seeking^N My will, but the will of the *One*²⁷ having sent Me 30
- 2C. “If²⁸ am I testifying^O about Myself, My testimony^P is not true.²⁹ ^{*}There is Another— the One 31-32 testifying about Me— and I know that the testimony which He is testifying about Me is true^Q
- 1D. “You have sent out messengers to John, and he has testified to the truth³⁰ 33
- 1E. “But I do not receive³¹ testimony from a human.³² Nevertheless, I am saying these things in order that you may be saved³³ 34
- 2E. “That one was³⁴ the burning^R and shining^S lamp, and you were willing to be overjoyed^T in his light for an hour³⁵ 35

1. That is, than works like healing this man. First of all, Jesus means greater works on earth, in His lifetime. The greater miracles of chapters 9 and 11 are included, but the greatest of all was the cross and resurrection! At these the Jews will marvel. In the future, He will also carry out the resurrection and the judgment mentioned in what follows, but their response to that will not be "marveling". Believers will marvel when Jesus returns (2 Thes 1:10), but the rest will suffer affliction.
2. Or, "so that you will marvel". GK 2671. The marveling by these Jews will be in fulfillment of prophecy, Act 13:41. They will marvel and perish, unless they repent.
3. Jesus now gives the ultimate examples of the "whatever things" God is doing—the granting of eternal life, the resurrection, and the judgment. Note how He answers the specific issue by putting it in the context of much larger issues, with which the Jews would disagree even more! "My authority for healing on the Sabbath is that of God Himself, and it extends far beyond this. I have the ultimate authority over life and judgment, over your eternal destiny".
4. Or, "makes alive". Same word as in 6:63; Rom 4:17; 8:11; 1 Cor 15:22, 36; 2 Cor 3:6; Gal 3:21. Elsewhere only as "made alive" in 1 Pet 3:18; and "life-giving" in 1 Cor 15:45. GK 2443. It is used of giving physical life, spiritual life, and resurrection life.
5. Note the tense. This is something Jesus "is doing", continuing the main argument. "Raising the dead and giving life" includes both the eternal life He "is giving" now (as in v 25), and the resurrection He "will give" later (as in v 28). The present tense informs us He is thinking of both aspects, not the latter only. Had Jesus said "will give life", this would become point 1F., developing what the Father "will show Him", v 20.
6. Or, "wills, wants, desires". On this word, see "willing" in 7:17. Same word as "want" in Rom 9:18.
7. Giving life and judging are two sides of the coin, and are seen together again in v 24, 26-27, 29.
8. Or, "so that everyone will honor", depending on whether Jesus is expressing God's purpose or the future result. GK 2671.
9. Those to whom Jesus gives life honor Him by believing; the rest will bow the knee at His judgment.
10. That is, in the same manner, to the same degree; that the Father and the Son might be treated equally (v 18) as to honor. Only one "making Himself equal to God" would say such a thing. GK 2777.
11. Jesus now makes clear who the ones are to whom He "wishes" to give life, v 21.
12. Same word as in 1 Jn 3:14; Jn 13:1; and as "pass on" in Mt 8:34; 11:1; Jn 7:3. Used 12 times. GK 3553.
13. This hour is present now, in the Son Himself. It is not the same as the hour yet to come in v 28.
14. That is, the spiritually dead, Eph 2:1. Those who hear this voice will have eternal life.
15. This is a subgroup of "the dead". The spiritually dead will hear, the ones who hear and believe will live.
16. Some think Jesus is referring to what the Father gave to be in the incarnate Son; others, to an eternal giving within their eternal relationship as Father and Son, 1:4. Same word and tense as in v 27. Compare the tense "has given" in v 22, 36. On this word, see Eph 1:22.
17. Jesus is the source of life for the dead who hear and believe, 1 Jn 5:11. He gives them life out of Himself.
18. Or, "do, accomplish, perform". This phrase "execute judgment" is also in Jude 15. Same word as in Lk 18:7, 8. On this word, see "does" in Rev 13:13.
19. Some manuscripts add "also" {N}.
20. That is, because He is a human. Or, "the Son of Man". In either case, as the incarnate Son, He has this authority. Compare Act 10:42; 17:31. This phrase "son of man" (without "the") is elsewhere only in Heb 2:6; Rev 1:13; 14:14 (and in Num 23:19; Job 16:21; 25:6; 35:8; Ps 8:5; 80:17; 144:3; Isa 51:12; Jer 49:18, 33; 50:40; 51:43; Dan 7:13); the plural "sons of men" is only in Mk 3:28; Eph 3:5 (and over a dozen times in the OT). The phrase "the Son of Man" (with "the") is used 82 times in the NT. Some think no difference in meaning between the two phrases is intended, both identifying Christ as the one in Dan 7:13. Others think the former refers to a quality of existence Christ shares with all humans; the latter to Christ alone, as His self-chosen title while on earth, pointing to Dan 7:13 (where as part of a larger description, this phrase in itself means "like a human"). Compare Rev 1:13. On "man", see "mankind" in Mt 4:4.
21. Do not marvel that Jesus is granting eternal life to those who hear His voice, for His voice will also raise the physically dead on that day, and direct them to their destinies.
22. Compare Mt 25:46.
23. On this word, see Jam 3:16. On this subject, note Rom 2:6-10.
24. Some think this point is the conclusion of what precedes; others, the beginning of what follows, making this point 2C. On "from Myself", see "from Himself" in v 19.
25. That is, as I hear the Father judging, so I am judging. This complements v 19. As Jesus sees the Father doing as to actions, and as He hears Him judging as to thoughts, He does the same. This includes His present judgments regarding Himself being God's Son, regarding His own actions, regarding others, and regarding them (as seen in what follows); and His future judgment on that day. His judgments are a just reflection of the Father's will.
26. Or, "right, just". On this word, see Rom 1:17. Same word as in 7:24.
27. Some manuscripts say "Father" {N}.
28. The focus of this part of Jesus' answer is on His being God's Son, v 17, 18, and their response to it.
29. That is, if I alone were to testify that I am His Son, it would not be true. What Jesus is claiming can only be accepted as true if the Father Himself also testifies in agreement. And He has done so, as explained next. Compare 8:13-14.
30. Jesus is referring to 1:19, and John's testimony in 1:19-34.
31. Or, "take, accept". On this word, see "taken" in Rom 7:8.
32. The testimony Jesus receives and offers as to who He is does not come from a human source, but from the sources mentioned next. Jesus is not rejecting John's testimony, as He says next. After all, John "came for a testimony", 1:7. Jesus is pointing to greater testimony than John's, under which John's is subsumed.
33. Jesus is reminding the Jews of John's testimony in order that they might believe it. It was spoken for their benefit.
34. The tense may indicate that John's testimony was finished; that he had been imprisoned.
35. The Jewish leaders rejoiced that perhaps Messiah was coming as John said. But this joy was short-lived, because they rejected his testimony and refused his baptism, Lk 7:30.

- 2D. "But I have testimony greater than John's¹ 36
- 1E. "For the works^A which the Father has given to Me that I should accomplish² them³— the works themselves which I am doing are testifying⁴ about Me, that the Father has sent Me forth
- 2E. "And the Father having sent^B Me— that One has⁵ testified⁶ about Me 37
- 1E. "Neither His voice have you ever heard, nor His form⁷ have you seen
- 2E. "And you do not have His word abiding^C in you, because the One Whom that One sent-forth^D— this One you are not believing! 38
- 3E. "You search⁸ the Scriptures^E because you think^F that in them you have eternal life— and those Scriptures are the ones testifying about Me! *And you are not willing^G to come to Me in order that you may have life 39-40
- 3D. "I do not receive glory from people^H, *but I know⁹ you— that you do not have the love^I 41-42 of God in yourselves¹⁰
- 1E. "I have come in the name of My Father, and you are not receiving^K Me. If another comes in his own name, you will receive that *one*¹¹ 43
- 2E. "How are you able to believe while receiving glory from one another, and you are not seeking^L the glory from the only God? 44
- 4D. "Do not be thinking^F that I will accuse¹² you before the Father. The one accusing you is Moses, in whom you have put-hope¹³ 45
- 1E. "For if you were believing Moses, you would be believing Me, for that one wrote about Me 46
- 2E. "But if you do not believe the writings of that one, how will you believe My words?" 47
- 8A.¹⁴ After these things, Jesus went away to the other side of the Sea of Galilee— of Tiberias¹⁵ 6:1
- 11B. And a large crowd was following Him, because they were seeing the¹⁶ signs¹⁷ which He was doing on the ones being sick^M. *And Jesus went up on the mountain, and was sitting there with His disciples. *And the Passover¹⁸, the Feast^N of the Jews, was near 6:2-4
- 1C. Then Jesus— having lifted-up^O His eyes and seen that a large crowd was¹⁹ coming to Him— says to Philip, "From where may we buy bread, in order that these ones may eat?" 5
- 1D. Now He was saying this testing^P him. For He Himself knew what He was going to do 6
- 2C. Philip answered Him, "Loaves worth two-hundred denarii²⁰ are not enough for them, in order that each *one*²¹ may receive a little bit²²"
- 3C. One of His disciples— Andrew, the brother of Simon Peter— says to Him, "There is a boy²³ here who has five barley loaves and two fish²⁴, but what are these for so many?" 8-9
- 4C. Jesus²⁵ said, "Make the people fall-back [to eat]". And there was much grass in the place 10
- 5C. So the men²⁶— about five-thousand as to the number— fell back [to eat]
- 6C. Then Jesus took the loaves. And having given-thanks^Q, He distributed^R them to the *ones*²⁷ reclining-back [to eat]— likewise also from the fish— as much as they were wanting^S 11
- 7C. And when they were filled²⁸, He says to His disciples, "Gather the left-over²⁹ fragments^T so that nothing may be lost" 12

1. Jesus mentions three witnesses: His works, the Father, and the Scriptures.
2. This is the same word as in 4:34.
3. Compare 17:4; 4:34. Others omit this word, and render it "given to Me to accomplish", simplifying it.
4. The miracles of Jesus are signs pointing to who He is, 2:11. They are God's testimony, confirming what Jesus says.
5. Some manuscripts say "And the Father Himself having sent Me has..." {N}.
6. Note the change in tense. The works "are testifying"; the Father "has testified". He has done so "in many portions and in many ways", Heb 1:1. Some think Jesus is referring to all that the Father has spoken regarding the Messiah, including at His baptism and transfiguration (which Peter also points to in 2 Pet 1:17-18). He refers to it here as something spoken by the Father. Then He refers to the Scriptures as a separate witness in v 39, the place where the Father's words are recorded. Others think Jesus is referring to the Scriptures here, making v 37-40 one witness, and making v 39-40 point 3F.
7. Or, "outward appearance". This is the same word used of the dove in Lk 3:22. On this word, see "appearance" in 2 Cor 5:7.
8. Or, this may be a command "Search...". Same word as in 7:52. On this word, see 1 Cor 2:10.
9. Or, "have known, have come to know". The grammar implies "I have known and continue to know". Same word as in 2:24. On this word, see Lk 1:34.
10. Jesus is not looking for glory from humans (outside of God's will), revealing that His motive is to please God. But He knows the motive of these Jews is not love for God. They love the praise of people, not God, and thus not the One He sent. Compare 12:43.
11. The Jewish leaders will receive a human teacher or rabbi who does not claim to be sent by God. With a human teacher, they are in a reciprocal relationship of peers, exchanging glory on an equal basis. With a prophet sent from God, they must be in a subordinate position, hearing and obeying. This has always been at the root of why God's prophets were rejected.
12. Or, "bring charges against". Same word as in Mt 12:10; Lk 23:14; Act 24:2; 28:19; Rom 2:15; Rev 12:10. Used 23 times. GK 2989. Related to "accusation" in Tit 1:6.
13. Same word as in Mt 12:21; Rom 15:12; 2 Cor 1:10; 1 Tim 4:10; 5:5; 6:17; 1 Pet 1:13; 3:5. This verb means "hope, hope for, put hope, expect". Used 31 times. GK 1827. Related to the noun in Col 1:5.
14. Parallel account at Mt 14:13; Mk 6:32; Lk 9:10.
15. This Roman name for this sea is also used in 21:1. The city of Tiberias (v 23) was the capital city of Herod Antipas (see Mt 14:1), which he built on the western shore of this sea. GK 5500. It was also known as the lake of Gennesaret, Lk 5:1.
16. Some manuscripts say "His" {K}.
17. The healings were signs pointing to who Jesus is, 5:36; 2:11, 23; 7:31; 12:37. This was their primary purpose.
18. This is the second Passover explicitly named. Some think this is two years after the one in 2:13; others, one year. Jesus did not attend this Passover for the reason stated in 7:1. On this word, see 18:28.
19. More literally, "is", as the Greek typically phrases it.
20. A denarius was one day's wages for a laborer. On this word, see Mt 20:2.
21. Some manuscripts add "of them" {K}.
22. Or, "something". Some manuscripts omit this word {C}. GK 5516.
23. Or, "youth, lad, little boy". Used only here. GK 4081.
24. This word was used of pieces of cooked fish, but also of fish just caught, as in 21:10. Elsewhere only in 6:11; 21:9, 13. GK 4066. It is not the same word as in Mt 14:17; Mk 6:38; Lk 9:13; Jn 21:6; which is the word for fish as an animal.
25. Some manuscripts say "And Jesus..." {N}.
26. This word refers to the males. Note Mt 14:21.
27. Some manuscripts say "distributed to the disciples, and the disciples to the ones" {N}, like Mt 14:19.
28. Or, "filled full". On this word, see Rom 15:24. Not the same word as in Mt 14:20; Mk 6:42; Lk 9:17; which John uses in v 26.
29. This is a participle, the fragments having left over, having abounded, having surpassed the need.

- 8C. So they gathered, and filled^A twelve baskets¹ of fragments from the five barley loaves, which² were left over by the ones having eaten 13
- 9C. Therefore the people, having seen the sign³ which He⁴ did, were saying that “This One is truly^B the Prophet⁵ coming into the world” 14
- 10C. Then Jesus— having known that they were⁶ about to come and take Him away-by-force⁷ in order that they might make Him king— withdrew⁸ again to the mountain, Himself alone^C 15
- 213.⁹ Now when it became evening, His disciples went down to the sea. *And having gotten into a boat, 16-1 they were going to the other side of the sea, to Capernaum
- 1C. And darkness already had come, and Jesus had not-yet¹⁰ come to them 18
- 2C. And the sea was becoming aroused¹¹ from a great wind blowing 19
- 3C. So having rowed¹² about twenty five or thirty stades¹³, they see¹⁴ Jesus walking on the sea and becoming near the boat. And they became afraid 20
- 4C. But the One says to them, “I am the One”¹⁵. Do not be afraid”¹⁶. *So they were willing^D to take Him into the boat 20-21
- 5C. And immediately^E the boat came-to-be at the land to which they were going¹⁷ 21
- 313.¹⁸ On the next day the crowd standing on the other side of the sea saw that there had not been¹⁹ another small boat there except [the] one²⁰, and that Jesus had not entered²¹ into the boat with His disciples, but His disciples had gone²² away alone^C. *Other²³ small-boats²⁴ came from Tiberias near the place where they ate the bread, the Lord having given-thanks^F. *So when the crowd saw that Jesus was²⁵ not there, nor His disciples, they²⁶ got into the small boats, and went to Capernaum seeking^G Jesus 22
- 1C. And having found Him on the other side of the sea, they said to Him, “Rabbi^H, when²⁷ have You come here?” 23
- 1D. Jesus responded to them and said, “Truly^I, truly, I say to you— 26
- 1E. “You are seeking^G Me
- 1E. “Not because you saw signs²⁸
- 2E. “But because you ate of the loaves-of-bread and were filled-to-satisfaction²⁹
- 2E. “Do not be working^K for the food^L which is perishing^M, but for the food which is remaining^N to³⁰ eternal life— which the Son of Man will give to you 27
- 1E. “For God the Father certified³¹ this One”
- 2D. So they said to Him, “What may we be doing in order that we may be working^K the works^O of God³²?” 28
- 3D. Jesus responded and said to them, “This is the work of God— that you be believing^P in the One Whom that One sent-forth^Q” 29
- 4D. So they said to Him, “What then do You do as a sign,³³ in order that we may see it and believe You? What thing do you work? 30
- 1E. “Our³⁴ fathers³⁵ ate the manna³⁶ in the wilderness^R, just as it has been written³⁷ [in Ps 78:24], ‘He gave them bread from heaven to eat’” 31
- 5D. So Jesus said to them, “Truly, truly, I say to you, Moses has not given you the bread from heaven, but My Father is giving you the true^S Bread from heaven³⁸ 32

1. Elsewhere only in Mt 14:20; 16:9; Mk 6:43; 8:19; Lk 9:17; all with reference to this incident. GK 3186.
2. This word refers to "fragments".
3. Some manuscripts say "signs" {B}.
4. Some manuscripts say "Jesus" {B}.
5. That is, the one Moses spoke of, referred to also in 1:21.
6. More literally, "are", as the Greek typically phrases it.
7. On this word, "take away by force, snatch away, seize", see "snatch away" in 2 Cor 12:2. The people were going to take Jesus against His will to make Him king.
8. Or, "went back". This is John's only use of this word. On this word, see "went back" in Mt 4:12.
9. Parallel account at Mt 14:22; Mk 6:45.
10. Some manuscripts say "not" {N}.
11. Same word as in 2 Pet 1:13; 3:1. Elsewhere only as "woke up" in Lk 8:24; and "awakened" in Mk 4:39; Lk 8:24. GK 1444.
12. Or, "having driven forward [by rowing]". Same word as in Mk 6:48. On this word, see "driven" in Lk 8:29.
13. On this measure of distance, see Rev 14:20. Here it amounts to 2.9 to 3.5 miles, or 4.6 to 5.6 kilometers, about halfway across. The Sea of Galilee is about six miles or ten kilometers wide.
14. Or, "observe". GK 2555. Not related to the word in Mt 14:26; Mk 6:49 (GK 3972).
15. That is, it is I. On this phrase, see Jn 8:58.
16. The grammar implies "Stop being afraid".
17. This is not mentioned in Mt 14:32; Mk 6:51, which only say the wind stopped. John may intend this in a miraculous sense. Or, he may mean it in a relative sense, in comparison to the 8 to 10 hours (note Mt 14:25) it took to get halfway. The boat arrived at once, right away, without any further hindrance.
18. Compare at Mt 14:34; Mk 6:53.
19. More literally, "was not", as the Greek typically phrases it.
20. Some manuscripts say, "except that one into which His disciples entered" {A}. The crowd looked back on the previous day and realized that there had only been one boat there, and that Jesus had not entered it with His disciples. He must still be there! When they could not find Him, they followed after the disciples.
21. More literally, "did not enter", as the Greek typically phrases it.
22. More literally, "went away", as the Greek typically phrases it.
23. Or, "However, small boats". The form of this word could be either the word "but, however" (GK 247), or the word "other" (GK 257), and both fit here. Boats arrived, which they used to follow.
24. Some manuscripts say "boats" {C}.
25. More literally, "is", as the Greek typically phrases it.
26. Some manuscripts add "also" {N}.
27. Or, "at what time". The crowd followed the disciples to find out where Jesus went, and are surprised to find Him with them. John's point is that they recognized that they last saw Jesus on the other side, and that they did not know when or how He got across the sea. GK 4536.
28. Jesus passes by the crowd's superficial question and speaks to their hearts and motives. They were not seeking the meaning of His signs, only a personal earthly benefit from them. They were not seeking Him for spiritual motives.
29. Same word as in Mt 14:20. On this word, see Phil 4:12.
30. Or, "into, for". Work for food that satisfies an eternal hunger, not a temporary physical hunger. GK 1650.
31. Or, "attested, set His seal on". Same word as in 3:33. The Father attested to Jesus in the miracle itself, as Jesus said in 5:36. And Jesus is the One with authority over eternal life, 5:21-23. This is the question the crowd should have been asking (v 26), "Who is God certifying You to be with this sign?"
32. That is, works pleasing to God, the works God desires. The crowd takes up the command to work in v 27.
33. Here the crowd's unbelief becomes clear. God had just attested to Jesus with a sign, the very miracle because of which they were now seeking Him, v 26, 14, and 2. Jesus responds in parabolic language.
34. The crowd gives this as an example of the type of sign they want to see.
35. This word means "father" in the sense of "parent", and in the sense of "forefather, ancestor", as here. Used 413 times. GK 4252.
36. Same word as in v 49. On this word, see Rev 2:17.
37. This is a participle, as "it is having been written", it stands written, as in 2:17.
38. The manna was earthly, perishing bread, given to sustain the earthly lives of the Israelites, Ex 16. Through Moses God gave them earthly bread that came from heaven, not "the true bread from heaven". The Father is now giving these Jews the real Bread of eternal life—Jesus Himself.

- 1E. "For the bread of God¹ is the One coming² down from heaven and giving life to the world" 33
- 6D. So they said to Him, "Master³, give us this bread always⁴" 34
- 7D. Jesus⁵ said to them, "I am the bread of life 35
- 1E. "The one coming to Me will never hunger, and the one believing^A in Me will never ever⁶ thirst. *But I said to you⁷ that you have indeed⁸ seen Me⁹, and you are not believing 36
- 2E. "All that the Father gives to Me will come to Me, and I will never¹⁰ throw¹¹ outside the one coming to Me 37
- 1E. "Because I have come down from heaven not in order that I may be doing My will^B, but the will of the One having sent^C Me 38
- 2E. "And this is the will of the *One*¹² having sent Me— that as to all that He has given to Me, I will not lose^D anything from it¹³, but I will raise it up^E on the last day 39
- 1G. "For¹⁴ this is the will of My Father¹⁵— that everyone seeing the Son and believing in Him may have eternal^F life, and I will raise him up on the last day" 40
- 2C. Then the Jews were grumbling^G about Him because He said, "I am the bread having come down from heaven". *And they were saying, "Is this One not Jesus, the son of Joseph, whose father and mother we know?¹⁶ How does He now¹⁷ say that 'I have come down from heaven'?" 41-42
- 1D. Jesus responded and said to them, "Do not be grumbling with one another. *No one is able to come¹⁸ to Me unless the Father having sent Me draws¹⁹ him. And I will raise him up on the last day 43-44
- 1E. "It has been written²⁰ in the prophets [in Isa 54:13]— 'and they shall all be taught²¹ ones of God' 45
- 2E. "Everyone²² having heard from the Father, and having learned^H, comes to Me—
- 1E. "Not that anyone has seen the Father²³, except the One being from God— this One has seen the Father 46
- 3E. "Truly^I, truly, I say to you— the one believing²⁴ has eternal life 47
- 1E. "I am the bread of life 48
- 1G. "Your fathers ate the manna in the wilderness and died²⁵ 49
- 2G. "This is the bread coming down from heaven in order that anyone may eat of it and not die 50
- 2E. "I am the living bread having come down from heaven. If anyone eats of this bread, he will live forever^K 51
- 3E. "And²⁶ indeed the bread which I will give²⁷ for the life of the world is My flesh²⁸" 52
- 3C. Then the Jews were fighting²⁹ with one another, saying, "How can this One give us His³⁰ flesh³¹ to eat?" 52

1. That is, the bread God is giving.
2. Grammatically, this refers to "bread", and could be rendered "the bread coming", which is how the crowd took it, as seen in their response next, v 34. But Jesus was referring to Himself, as seen in v 35.
3. On this word, see Mt 8:2. Based on v 14, it is rendered "Master" here.
4. Or, "at all times". The crowd may be thinking of physical bread, as the woman was thinking of physical water in 4:15. Moses gave them manna for forty years. So You give us this true bread from heaven from now on, all the time. Or, they may even be asking for true spiritual bread. But they fail to understand that Jesus said He Himself is the bread. On this word, see 1 Thes 5:16.
5. Some manuscripts say "And Jesus"; others, "Then Jesus" {N}.
6. Or, "at any time". Elsewhere only in Lk 19:30; Jn 1:18; 5:37; 8:33; 1 Jn 4:12. GK 4799. Not the same word as in 4:14.
7. Jesus "said" it, using different words, in v 26-27.
8. Or, "even, also, both". The ones believing will receive the bread of life that you ask for, v 34. But I have already said that your problem is unbelief. You have seen Me do a sign in which God certified Me, but you do not believe, v 26-27. You have indeed seen what you ask for in v 30. You are refusing the very bread you ask for in v 34.
9. Some manuscripts omit this word {C}.
10. Or, "by no means". On this phrase, see 8:51.
11. Or, "put, send, cast". Said in reverse, I will always keep inside, hold on to, the one coming. "Throw outside" is also in 9:34; Lk 13:28. On this word, see "cast out" in Jn 12:31.
12. Some manuscripts say "Father" {N}.
13. That is, from the total quantity the Father has given to Jesus. Jesus is not speaking of individuals here, but of the total number of individuals; the "all that" of v 37, 39; 17:2; the whole mass. Next, in v 40, He speaks individually.
14. Some manuscripts say "And" {K}.
15. The Father's will for people (v 40) is that everyone believing in the Son will have eternal life. Therefore, the Father's will for the Son (v 39) is that He will lose none from the group of believers the Father gives Him. Some manuscripts say "of the One having sent Me" {K}.
16. The grammar indicates a "yes" answer is expected. Note that the Jews correctly understood the implication of His "coming down from heaven", but rejected it.
17. Some manuscripts say "then" {N}, so that it says "How then does He say...".
18. This verse is the flip-side of v 37. All that the Father gives will come to Me; none can come to Me unless drawn by the Father. Compare v 65; 8:43; 12:39.
19. The unbelief of these Jews makes further explanation of His Sonship pointless. Jesus instead declares why they do not believe Him, and points them again to the truth in v 47-50. Same word as in 12:32, and as in 18:10; 21:6, 11. Elsewhere only as "dragged" in Act 16:19; 21:30; Jam 2:6. GK 1816.
20. This is a participle, it "is having been written", as in 2:17.
21. This adjective is elsewhere only in 1 Cor 2:13. That is, ones whom God Himself has taught will be the ones who come to Jesus. GK 1435. Paul combines this into one word, "God-taught", in 1 Thes 4:9.
22. Some manuscripts say "Therefore everyone..." {N}.
23. Jesus clarifies that the hearing He has in mind with regard to such ones is of a different kind than His own.
24. Some manuscripts add "in Me" {A}.
25. The manna only sustained their physical lives temporarily. The Israelites all eventually died.
26. Jesus now explains how the life He will give is connected to Himself. His words explain for those with an ear to hear (mainly after the cross), and are a stumbling stone for the rest. He adds these words to deepen the mystery for the Jews, not to simplify it. Like parables, this statement was intended to both explain and hide the truth. Hearing this, they will not hear, Mt 13:14-15. Some manuscripts say "... which I will give is My flesh, which I will give for the life of the world" {N}.
27. That is, on the cross. Those hearing this would not have understood the sense in which Jesus "will give" it. Nevertheless, Jesus intimately links life with Himself personally, and it is this personal link He now makes even more explicit.
28. The Word became flesh, 1:14, and He "will give" His flesh for the world, as the Lamb of God. On this word, see Col 2:23.
29. Obviously Jesus was speaking symbolically, not of literal cannibalism. But the Jews fought over what this meaning might be. This is an escalation from "grumbling" in v 41. On this word, see "battle" in 2 Tim 2:24.
30. Some manuscripts omit this word {C}, either leaving it implied "His flesh", or meaning "give us flesh to eat".
31. The Jews properly make the connection between "flesh" and "eat this bread". But they have no concept of the spiritual meaning of these words, and are stumbling on the physical meaning of them.

- 1D. So Jesus said to them, “Truly, truly, I say to you, unless you eat the flesh of the Son of Man and drink¹ His blood^A, you do not have life in yourselves²” 53
- 1E. “The one eating³ My flesh and drinking My blood has eternal life, and I will raise him up on the last day⁴” 54
- 1E. “For My flesh is true⁵ food⁶, and My blood is true drink⁷” 55
- 2E. “The one eating My flesh and drinking My blood abides^B in Me, and I in him. *Just as the living Father sent Me forth^C, and I live because of the Father, indeed the one eating Me— that one also will live because of Me⁸” 56-57
- 3E. “This is the bread having come down from heaven— not as the manna the fathers ate⁹ and died. The one eating this bread will live forever^D” 58
- 2D. He said these things in a synagogue while teaching in Capernaum¹⁰ 59
- 4C. Then many of His disciples,¹¹ having heard, said, “This statement¹² is hard¹³. Who can hear¹⁴ it?” 60
- 1D. But Jesus, knowing in Himself that His disciples are grumbling^E about this, said to them, “Does this offend¹⁵ you? *Then what if you see the Son of Man going up where He was formerly¹⁶?” 61-62
- 1E. “The Spirit is the One giving-life^F. The flesh profits¹⁷ nothing. The words which I have spoken to you are spirit, and are life¹⁸” 63
- 2E. “But there are some of you who do not believe” 64
- 1E. For Jesus knew from the beginning who the ones not¹⁹ believing were²⁰, and who the one who will hand Him over^G was 65
- 2E. And He was saying, “For this reason²¹ I have said to you that no one is able to come to Me unless it has been granted²² to him from the Father” 65
- 5C. From this *time*²³, many of His disciples went back²⁴, and were no longer walking^H with Him. So Jesus said to the twelve,²⁵ “You also are not wanting^I to go-away^K, are you?”²⁶ 66-67
- 1D. Simon²⁷ Peter answered Him, “Lord, to whom shall we go? You have the words of eternal life. *And we have believed, and have come-to-know^L that You are the Holy^M One of God²⁸” 68-69
- 2D. Jesus answered them, “Did I not choose^N you, the twelve, and one of you is *the devil*²⁹?” 70
- 1E. Now He was speaking-of Judas³⁰, son of Simon³¹ Iscariot³². For this one, one³³ of the twelve, was going to hand Him over^G 71
- 4B. And³⁴ after these things Jesus was walking³⁵ in Galilee. For He was not willing^J to be walking^H in Judea, because the Jews were seeking^O to kill^P Him 71
- 9A. Now the Tent-pitching³⁶ Feast of the Jews was near³⁷ 72

1. As food must be taken into the body in order to be transformed into life-giving energy, so Jesus must be taken into the heart, so that He becomes the source and cause of spiritual life, from the inside out. This is the converse of faith. Faith is the heart reaching out to Him; this eating and drinking is the heart bringing Him inside, incorporating Him within. Note how Jesus characterizes these words in v 63. Beyond this, some think Jesus has the future bread and wine of the Lord's Supper in mind (as similarly in 7:39).
2. A more shocking, repugnant, and Law-violating phrase can hardly be imagined for a Jew than drinking human blood. Rather than soften or explain v 51b, Jesus enlarges and emboldens the stumbling stone for these Jews. He makes no attempt to resolve their fighting, but inflames it even more, pushing it to a crescendo. In response to their desire to make Him king (v 15), He is deliberately forcing them to a decision over Him. He is forcing a division among His "disciples", which occurs in v 66. With a shocking presentation of the truth, He quashes the uprising to make Him king.
3. Or, "chewing, munching, crunching, gnawing". Not the same word as v 53. This word is in v 54, 56, 57, 58. It was used of audibly eating fruits and vegetables, and then simply of "eating". This is eating with pleasure! It is an even more graphic word, pushing the bread of life metaphor to its limit. Instead of giving the "spiritual" explanation of this eating, Jesus gives an even more physical one! Elsewhere only in Jn 13:18; Mt 24:38. GK 5592.
4. This sentence parallels v 40, making "believing" parallel to this eating and drinking.
5. Or, "genuine, real". Same word as in 5:31; 8:17; Phil 4:8; 1 Jn 2:8; and as "real" in Act 12:9. Used 26 times. GK 239. Related to "truth" in Jn 4:23. Some manuscripts say "truly" both times in this verse {N}.
6. Same word as v 27. On this word, see "eating" in Mt 6:19.
7. This is because it produces true life, eternal life, not just temporary physical life.
8. How such a person will live "because of Me" will not be clear until after the cross, but an intimate abiding is needed.
9. Some manuscripts say "not as your fathers ate the manna and died" {A}.
10. When the synagogue was entered is not clear. Perhaps it was in v 52-53, or in v 41-43.
11. Now the response is from Jesus' disciples, His learners, not from "the Jews" as in v 41, 52.
12. Or, "saying, word, message". On this word, see "word" in 1 Cor 12:8.
13. Or, "harsh". It does not mean hard to understand, but offensive, objectionable, hard to accept. How can Jesus claim to be the bread of life descended from heaven, whose flesh we must eat and blood drink for eternal life? Elsewhere only as "hard" in Mt 25:24; Act 26:14; Jam 3:4; and "harsh" in Jude 15. GK 5017.
14. Or, "listen to it". Who can hear it with acceptance, or listen to and obey it? On this word, see Act 22:9.
15. Or, "cause you to fall". On this word, see "cause to fall" in 1 Cor 8:13.
16. Or, "earlier, before". In other words, if these words offend these disciples, what will happen when they see Jesus returning to heaven, His mission completed? Would this cause them to believe (because they see the spiritual nature of the kingdom and His words), or to fall (because He again does not turn out to be what they expected, an earthly king reigning from Jerusalem)? On this word, see "first" in 2 Cor 1:15.
17. Or, "helps, aids, benefits" nothing. On this word, see Rom 2:25. This phrase "profit nothing" is also in Mt 27:24; Jn 12:19.
18. Jesus is explaining the intent of His words in v 53-58. The Spirit gives life. Eating His physical flesh and drinking His physical blood would profit nothing. His words have a spiritual, life-giving meaning. They are aimed at the spirit, in order to produce life.
19. Some manuscripts omit this word; others omit "who the ones not believing were, and" {B}.
20. More literally "are", as the Greek typically phrases it. Likewise with "was" at the end of the verse.
21. That is, because Jesus knew that some among His disciples did not believe in Him.
22. Or, "given". Compare v 44. This is a participle, it "is having been granted". On this word, see Eph 1:22.
23. Or, "teaching, event". Same phrase as in 19:12; 1 Jn 4:6.
24. The idiom rendered "back" is also in 18:6; 20:14. It is a phrase meaning "to the things behind", and is found as such in Mk 13:16; Lk 9:62; 17:31. More literally here, they "went away to the things behind".
25. Note how the flow of this event has moved from the crowd, v 24; to the Jews, v 41, 52; to the disciples, v 60, 66; and now to the twelve.
26. The grammar indicates Jesus expected a "no" answer.
27. Some manuscripts say "So Simon..." {N}.
28. Some manuscripts say "the Christ, the Holy One of God"; others, "the Christ, the Son of God"; others, "the Christ, the Son of the living God" {A}.
29. This is similar to when Jesus called Peter "Satan" in Mt 16:23. "The devil" has the same grammar as in 1 Pet 5:8, Rev 20:2. The grammar of the question indicates that a "yes" answer is expected.
30. Judas is mentioned by name elsewhere only in Mt 10:4; 26:14, 25, 47; 27:3; Mk 3:19; 14:10, 43; Lk 6:16; 22:3, 47, 48; Jn 12:4; 13:2, 26, 29; 18:2, 3, 5; Act 1:16, 25. GK 2683. Some manuscripts say "Judas Iscariot, [son] of Simon" {N}.
31. This Simon is also mentioned in Jn 13:2, 26.
32. Elsewhere only in Mt 10:4; 26:14; Mk 3:19; 14:10; Lk 6:16; 22:3; Jn 12:4; 13:2, 26; 14:22 ("not Iscariot"). Judas is called "Judas the Iscariot" only in Mt 10:4; Jn 12:4. GK 2697. Some manuscripts say "from Kerioth", a town in southern Judea, or in Moab, thus interpreting "Iscariot" {N}.
33. Some manuscripts say "being one..." {N}.
34. Some manuscripts omit this word {N}.
35. This walking in Galilee extended from near Passover (6:4) to near Tabernacles (7:2); April to October.
36. Or, "Booth-building, Tabernacle-building". This is made from the word "tent, tabernacle" and the word "pitch" in Heb 8:2. This was an eight-day feast in Jerusalem in October, celebrating that "I had the sons of Israel live in tents when I brought them out from the land of Egypt", Lev 23:43. See Lev 23:34-43; Deut 16:13-17. Used only here. GK 5009.
37. The events of this section (7:2-10:22) begin before this Feast of Tents in October, and extend to the Feast of Dedication in December. The next Passover (in April) mentioned by John (11:55, 13:1) was when Jesus was crucified. So almost 70% of John (chapters 7-21), focuses on the last seven months of His life, and His resurrection.

- 1B. So His brothers¹ said to Him, “Pass-on^A from here and go to Judea, so that Your disciples [there] also will see Your works which You are doing. *For no one does something in secret^B and himself seeks to be in public². If³ You are doing these things, make Yourself known⁴ to the world”. * (For not even His brothers were believing⁵ in Him) 3 4 5
- 1C. So Jesus says to them, “My time⁶ is not yet here,⁷ but your time is always ready⁸ 6
- 1D. “The world cannot hate^C you,⁹ but it is hating Me because I am testifying^D about it that its works are evil 7
- 2D. “You go up to the¹⁰ Feast 8
- 3D. “I am not¹¹ going up to this Feast, because My time has not yet been fulfilled^E” 8
- 2C. And having said these things, He¹² remained^F in Galilee 9
- 3C. But when His brothers went up to the Feast¹³, then He also went up— not openly¹⁴, but as¹⁵ in secret^B 10
- 4C. Then¹⁶ the Jews¹⁷ were seeking-for^G Him at the Feast, and saying, “Where is that One?” 11
- 5C. And there was much grumbling^H about Him among the crowds 12
- 1D. Some were saying that “He is good”
- 2D. But¹⁸ others were saying, “No, but He is deceiving^K the crowd”
- 3D. Yet no one was speaking with openness¹⁹ about Him because of fear^L of the Jews²⁰ 13
- 2B. Now the Feast already being-at-the-middle²¹, Jesus went up to the temple, and was teaching 14
- 1C. Then²² the Jews²³ were marveling^M, saying, “How does this One know writings²⁴, not having learned²⁵?” 15
- 1D. So²⁶ Jesus responded to them²⁷ and said— 16
- 1E. “My teaching^N is not Mine, but the One’s having sent Me²⁸
- 1E. “If anyone is willing²⁹ to be doing His will³⁰, he will know³¹ about the teaching— whether it is from God, or I am speaking from Myself³² 17
- 2E. “The one speaking from himself is seeking his own glory 18
- 1E. “But the One seeking^G the glory of the One having sent Him— this One is true^O, and there is no unrighteousness³³ in Him
- 3E. “Has not Moses given you the Law? And none of you is doing the Law! Why are you seeking^G to kill³⁴ Me?” 19
- 2D. The crowd answered,³⁵ “You have a demon!³⁶ Who is seeking to kill You?” 20
- 3D. Jesus responded and said to them³⁷, “I did one work,³⁸ and you all marvel^M! 21
- 1E. “For this reason³⁹ Moses has given you circumcision (not that it is from Moses, but it is from the fathers⁴⁰), and you circumcise a man on a Sabbath 22

1. On the brothers of Jesus, see Mt 13:55-56.
2. If You wish to be known to Israel, go to Judea! Do not stay in the obscurity of Galilee. The brothers of Jesus do not understand His mission. Same word as in v 26; and as "openness" in v 13. On this word, see "confidence" in Heb 4:16.
3. Or, "Since". The grammar means "Assuming that You are doing these things..." Same grammar as in Mt 4:3. Jesus' brothers are not doubting His miracles; they want Him to do them at the Feast in Judea for maximum public exposure.
4. Or, "reveal Yourself". Same word as "reveal" in 1:31; 2:11.
5. His brothers related to Jesus like the ones in 6:26. They were impressed by the signs, but did not grasp their meaning.
6. Or, "favorable-time, opportunity, right-time". Some think Jesus means it is not the right time for Him to be revealed to the world; others, to go up to the Feast. Used twice in v 6, once in v 8, the only uses in John. On this word, see Mt 8:29.
7. The suggestions and reasoning in v 3-4 are not wrong, just premature. The timing is critical for Jesus because the response when He reveals Himself will not be what His brothers think.
8. There is nothing to stop these brothers from going, and from believing. On this word, see "prepared" in Mk 14:15.
9. Because these men are part of the world.
10. Some manuscripts say "this" {K}.
11. Some think that Jesus is not going up in the way His brothers are suggesting—to make Himself known to the world, v 4; others, that it will not be until the time is right, which occurs in the middle of the Feast, v 14. Some manuscripts say "not yet" {C}.
12. Some manuscripts say "... said these things to them, He remained..." {B}.
13. Some manuscripts say "... went up, then He also went up to the Feast" {N}. On this word, see 13:29.
14. Related to "make known" in v 4. On this word, see "clearly" in Act 10:3.
15. Jesus went up privately, not in a public caravan of pilgrims, staying out of public view. He did not go up to the temple, and may not have entered Jerusalem, until the middle of the Feast. Some manuscripts omit this word {C}.
16. That is, when the Feast began.
17. That is, the Jewish leaders, as opposed to the "crowds" in v 12, who feared them, v 13. See 1:19.
18. Some manuscripts omit this word {C}.
19. Or, "in public". Same word as "public" in v 4.
20. That is, the Jewish leaders. See 1:19.
21. That is, about halfway through the feast. Used only here. GK 3548.
22. Some manuscripts say "And" {K}.
23. That is, the Jewish leaders, as in v 11. They seek to discredit Jesus, and lower Him beneath themselves by implying He is merely speaking His own opinions as a self-taught layman.
24. Or, "learning". This word is used of alphabetic "letters", 2 Cor 3:7; Gal 6:11; "letters" of correspondence, Act 28:21; "writings" (books of Scripture), Jn 5:47; 2 Tim 3:15; and of the "learning" that comes from these things, Act 26:24. Elsewhere only of "writings" (written records) in Lk 16:6, 7; and the "letter" (written code of the Law), Rom 2:27, 29; 7:6; 2 Cor 3:6. GK 1207. Not related to the word "learned" that follows. Related to "uneducated" in Act 4:13; to the verb "to write"; and to "scribe".
25. That is, how can Jesus be educated in these matters, not having learned in the schools of these leaders? On this word, see Phil 4:11.
26. Some manuscripts omit this word {K}.
27. Jesus responds publicly to their public comment.
28. In other words, Jesus' teaching is not based on His learning or their schools. It is the Father's teaching.
29. Or, "wishing, wanting, resolving, intending". If your purpose is to do God's will, you will know. He will show you. This common word is used 208 times. GK 2527. The related noun is next.
30. Same word as in Mt 6:10; 7:21; 12:50; Jn 5:30, 6:38; Eph 1:9; 1 Thes 4:3; 5:18; Heb 13:21; 1 Pet 4:19. Used 62 times. GK 2525.
31. Or, "come to know". On this word, see Lk 1:34.
32. On "from Myself" and "from himself" v 18, see 5:19.
33. Jesus moves from His teaching being true, to His character being righteous, to these Jews being unrighteous, v 19.
34. As stated in 5:18; 7:1. Jesus goes beyond answering them, and aggressively confronts the Law-violating intentions of these leaders. They are not willing or intending to do God's will, but are intending to violate His Law by killing Jesus.
35. The crowd of pilgrim worshipers responds ignorantly, not knowing of the intentions of the Jewish leaders. Compare v 25.
36. On having a demon, see 10:20.
37. By responding to the crowd, and referring to their response as "marveling", Jesus seems to imply that the crowd was aware of the healing incident that took place a year or more earlier to which He now refers, and shared in the marveling that it had been done on a Sabbath (though not in the anger of the leaders). If so, Jesus is correcting the reasoning of both the leaders and the crowd. If not, He is still speaking to the leaders in v 15. In any case, He does not answer the crowds "who" question, but answers the leaders' reasoning as to "why" they wanted to kill Him.
38. That is, one healing on the Sabbath, as seen in v 23. Note that Jesus calls it a "work", not a "healing" or "sign". The Jews wanted to kill Him because of the "work" on the Sabbath aspect of it. Their marveling was not at the healing, but at the fact that it was done on the Sabbath, as seen in 5:10, 12.
39. The relation of this phrase to the context is uncertain. Some think Jesus means "For healing". Moses gave circumcision to Israel for the "healing" or making "sound" of one member. This sets the stage for the comparison in v 23. Others think He means "This is why Moses commanded that you circumcise on the Sabbath—to establish a precedent for working on the Sabbath as I have just done". Others render this "For this reason [I say]". That is, because you marvel at this healing on the Sabbath, I respond as follows. Others place this phrase at the end of what precedes, "marvel because of this? Moses...". This would be the only time it comes at the end of a sentence (it is used 64 times), making it emphatic. There are other views. Consult the commentaries.
40. Circumcision was given by God to Abraham as a sign of the covenant (Gen 17:10-14), and later incorporated into the Law of Moses (Lev 12:3).

- 2E. "If a man receives circumcision on a Sabbath in order that the Law of Moses may not be broken^A, are you angry^I at Me because I made *an entire man*² sound^I on a Sabbath?^I" 23
- 3E. "Do not be judging^B according to appearance⁵, but be judging⁶ the righteous judgment^C" 24
- 2C. Then some of the people-of-Jerusalem⁷ were saying, "Is not this the One Whom they are seeking to kill?⁸ *And look— He is speaking *in public*⁹, and they are saying nothing to Him. The rulers^D did not perhaps really¹⁰ know¹¹ that this One is¹² the Christ, *did they?*¹³ *However,¹⁴ we know where this One is from. But when the Christ is coming,¹⁵ no one knows where He is from" 25 26
27
- 1D. So Jesus cried-out¹⁶ while teaching in the temple and saying, "You both know Me and You know where I am from.¹⁷ And¹⁸ I have not come of Myself¹⁹" 28
- 1E. "However,²⁰ the One having sent Me is true²¹— Whom you do not know. *I know²² Him, because I am from Him. And that One sent Me forth" 29
- 2D. Therefore they were seeking to seize^E Him 30
- 3D. And no one put^F his hand on Him, because His hour had not yet come
- 3C. But many from the crowd²³ believed in Him. And they were saying, "When the Christ comes, He will not do more²⁴ signs^G than the ones which this One did, will He?"²⁵ *The Pharisees heard the crowd murmuring^H these things about Him. And the chief priests and the Pharisees²⁶ sent out officers²⁷ in order that they might seize^E Him 31
32
- 1D. So Jesus said,²⁸ "I am with you a short time longer, and [then] I am going to the One having sent Me. *You will seek Me, and will not find Me. And where I am, you are not able to come" 33
34
- 2D. Then the Jews said to themselves²⁹, "Where is this One going to go that we will not find Him?" 35
- 1E. "He is not going to go to the Dispersion³⁰ of the Greeks and teach the Greeks³¹, *is He?*³²" 36
- 2E. "What is this statement³³ that He said— 'You will seek Me and will not find Me. And where I am, you are not able to come'?" 36
- 3B. Now on the last day,³⁴ the great day of the Feast^I, Jesus was standing³⁵ there 37
- 1C. And He cried-out, saying, "If anyone is thirsting, let him come to Me³⁶ and drink. *The one believing in Me,³⁷ just as the Scripture³⁸ said— Rivers of living water will flow from his³⁹ belly⁴⁰ " 38
- 1D. Now He said this concerning the Spirit, Whom the ones having believed⁴¹ in Him were going to receive. For *the Spirit*⁴² was not yet *given*⁴³, because Jesus was not yet glorified⁴⁴ 39
- 2C. Then some from the crowd,⁴⁵ having heard these words⁴⁶, were saying, "This One is truly^K the Prophet⁴⁷" 40
- 1D. Others were saying, "This One is the Christ" 41
- 2D. But the *ones*⁴⁸ were saying, "The Christ is not indeed⁴⁹ coming from Galilee, *is He?*⁵⁰ Did not the Scripture say that the Christ comes from the seed of David, and from Bethlehem, the village where David was?"⁵¹ 42

1. This word implies a bitter, venomous anger. Used only here. GK 5957. Related to "gall" in Act 8:23. Perhaps it should be "galled".
2. That is, as opposed to one member of his body, as with circumcision.
3. Or, "healthy". Jesus is referring to the man in 5:8, the recipient of the "one work" in v 21. Same word as "healthy" in 5:6. It is rendered "sound" here because this is the sense it would have with circumcision, the other half of His comparison.
4. If you confer a bodily blessing on a man on the Sabbath as Moses commanded, why are you angry if I confer a greater bodily blessing? If the Law requires the making sound of this one member on the Sabbath, surely making sound a whole body is permitted. The Jews used similar logic in the case of one whose life was in danger on a Sabbath— If one overrides the Sabbath for one of his members, should he not override it if his whole body is in danger? Compare Mt 12:11-12; Lk 13:15-16; Mt 12:5.
5. On this word, see "face" in Rev 1:16.
6. Some manuscripts have a different tense here {N}, so that Jesus means "Do not be judging according to appearance, but make-the-judgment [which is] the righteous judgment".
7. Or, "the Jerusalemites". The locals knew of the leaders' plans. Elsewhere only in Mk 1:5. GK 2643.
8. The grammar indicates a "yes" answer is expected.
9. Or, "openly, boldly". Same word as in v 4.
10. Or, "truly". On this word, see "truly" in Mt 14:33.
11. Or, "come to know, learn, recognize". On this word, see Lk 1:34.
12. Some manuscripts add "really" {K}, repeating it from earlier.
13. The grammar indicates a "no" answer is expected.
14. As quickly as the people raise the possibility, they dismiss it.
15. That is, at the time of the Christ's coming on the scene. The grammar in v 31 is different. The people do not mean this as to the Messiah's place of birth, which they knew was Bethlehem, v 42. They expected the Messiah to arrive suddenly and unexpectedly and decisively in power, anointed by Elijah, not as one whose ministry grew gradually over time. After the Messiah comes on the scene, then his origins would become known.
16. Same word as in 7:37; 12:44. On this word, see Mt 8:29.
17. Some think this is a statement; others, an ironic exclamation or question.
18. Or, "And-yet", as it means in v 30. What the people know in this regard is not wrong, just incomplete. Jesus does not correct them on this point, but adds the main point that they need to know. In addition to what you know about Me, know this— I have not come of Myself. The Word (1:14) did come suddenly on the scene from above, and they do not know where He is from. This is true right along side of the fact that they knew where Jesus was from. GK 2779.
19. On "of Myself", see "from Himself" in 5:19.
20. In spite of the fact that you do not know this latter fact, or reject it, My sender is real.
21. That is, real, genuine, objectively true, corresponding to reality from God's point of view, as in 1:9; 4:23; 6:32; 15:1; 17:3; 1 Thes 1:9; 1 Jn 2:8. Used 28 times. GK 240. Related to "truth" in Jn 4:23, and "true" in 6:55.
22. Some manuscripts say "But I know..." {N}.
23. That is, in contrast with the leaders of the Jews, v 30.
24. Or, "greater". It may mean more in quantity, or more in quality. On this word, see "many" in Mt 13:52.
25. The grammar indicates a "no" answer is expected.
26. Some manuscripts reverse these two {N}, so that it says "the Pharisees and chief priests".
27. That is, the temple guards, who were Levites. On this word, see 18:12.
28. As in v 16, and v 28, Jesus responds to what is going on around Him. In each of these instances, He is not responding to a direct question put to Him, but to what people were saying to one another about Him. Here He speaks to the crowd of pilgrims, the Jewish leaders, and the officers.
29. Or, "to each other".
30. That is, the Dispersion of the Jews among the Gentile nations. On this word, see 1 Pet 1:1.
31. The Jews may mean the Gentiles; or, the Jewish proselytes; or, the Greek-speaking foreign Jews. See 12:20.
32. The grammar indicates a "no" answer is expected.
33. Or, "thing, saying, word". On this word, see "word" in 1 Cor 12:8.
34. Some think John means the seventh day, Friday; others, the eighth day, the Sabbath. The choice may have a bearing on which aspect of the symbolism of the Feast Jesus might be alluding to. Consult the commentaries.
35. Or, "stood". GK 2705.
36. Some manuscripts omit "to Me" {B}.
37. Or, this may be punctuated "... let him come to Me. And let the one believing in Me drink. Just as...".
38. Perhaps Jesus is referring in general terms to verses like Joel 3:18; Zech 13:1; 14:8; Ezek 47:1; Isa 58:11.
39. Or, "His". Some think this refers to believers, so that the rivers represent the life-giving Spirit flowing out to eternal life (note 4:14), and flowing through believers to others. Others think it refers to Christ, so that the rivers represent the Spirit flowing from Christ to believers. In this case, the punctuation in the note above (which allows either view) is followed.
40. That is, his heart, his innermost being. On this word, see "womb" in Lk 1:15.
41. Some manuscripts say "the ones believing" {B}.
42. Some manuscripts say "Holy Spirit" {A}.
43. Or, "For there was not yet a Spirit". Compare Act 19:2. Some manuscripts include this word. Others say "upon them" {A}.
44. Same word as in 12:16, 23; 17:1, 5. It refers to Jesus' death, resurrection, and return to the Father. On this word, see Rom 8:30.
45. Some manuscripts say "Then many from the crowd" {N}, as in v 31.
46. Some manuscripts say "these words of His" {N}; others, "this saying" {K}.
47. On "the prophet", see 1:21.
48. This is the literal rendering of this idiom, which introduces another class of individuals alongside those already mentioned. Who is being referred to? This idiom can mean "But others" or "But some" from the crowd, referring to a third group not sympathetic with the two groups mentioned. Or it can mean "But the ones", referring to the first group in v 40 correcting the second. In any case, they respond to the previous suggestion. Instead of "But the ones", some manuscripts say "Others" were saying {N}, as in the previous sentence. On this idiom, see Mt 26:67.
49. This is the same word as in the same tone of question in Mt 27:23.
50. The grammar indicates a "no" answer is expected.
51. The grammar indicates a "yes" answer is expected.

- 3D. So a division^A took place in the crowd because of Him 43
- 4D. And some of them were wanting to seize^B Him, but no one put his hands on Him 44

- And He was left-behind^P alone^Q, and the woman being in the middle^I
- 6C. And Jesus, having straightened up²⁹, said to her, “Woman, where are they³⁰? Did no one condemn^R you?” 10
- 1D. And the one said, “No one, Sir” 11
- 2D. And Jesus said, “Neither do I condemn^R you.³¹ Go. And³² from now *on*³³, do not be sinning any longer³⁴”
- 5B. Then Jesus again³⁵ spoke to them, saying, “I am the light of the world. The one following Me will never walk^S in the darkness^T, but will have the light of life³⁶” 12
- 1C. So the Pharisees said to Him, “You are testifying about Yourself— Your testimony is not true” 13
- 2C. Jesus responded and said to them 14
- 1D. “Even if I am testifying about Myself, My testimony is true,³⁷ because I know from where I came, and where I am going³⁸”

1. That is, the ones sent in v 32, who were waiting for a favorable opportunity to seize Jesus. As Levites themselves, they would have combined a personal interest in Jesus with their official duty.
2. Some manuscripts add to this "like this man"; others, "like this man speaks" {B}.
3. The grammar indicates a "no" answer is expected, as with the next question.
4. That is, the crowd has a curse upon them. Used only here. GK 2063.
5. Or, "earlier, before". On this word, see "first" in 2 Cor 1:15. Instead of this word, some manuscripts say "by night" {N}.
6. That is, being a Pharisee and a ruler. Nicodemus responds to the taunt in v 48, but does not declare his position.
7. The grammar indicates a "no" answer is expected, as with the next question.
8. Some manuscripts say "has not arisen" {K}.
9. Some think that this story, from 7:53 to 8:11, is an original part of John's Gospel, based on the fact that many manuscripts have it, and on other evidence. Others think that because the oldest manuscripts omit these verses, and because of other evidence, they are not original. This is the view taken by UBS4, which marks these verses as not an original part of John's Gospel, but as very ancient. This view suggests that this is a genuine incident from the life of Christ added at a later date to the Gospel of John. In some manuscripts, this story is found after 7:36; in others, after 7:44; in others, after 21:25; in others, after Lk 21:38. In most that have it, it is here.
10. This is the only time this mountain is mentioned by name in John.
11. If this section is genuine, then this is the day after the Feast ended, 7:37. See 8:12. On "dawn", see Lk 24:1.
12. This is the only place the scribes are mentioned by name in John.
13. Or, "overtaken, seized, taken down". On this word, see "overcome" in 1:5.
14. Used only here. GK 900.
15. Some manuscripts say "commanded us that such women should be stoned" {N}. See Deut 22:22-24; Lev 20:10. These verses say the man and the woman are to die, but the Pharisees do not bring the man forth. Their interest was not in upholding Moses.
16. If Jesus said that the Jewish leaders should stone her, it would violate the Roman law under which they were forbidden to execute anyone, 18:31. They could then charge Him before the Romans with sedition. If He said they should not stone her, they could discredit Him among the people of Israel. They think they have Jesus boxed in.
17. Elsewhere only in Mk 1:7. GK 3252.
18. Or, "drawing, writing down". Some think Jesus was writing specific words. Several suggestions have been made as to what they were. Others think He was simply ignoring them, waiting for them to leave. When they did not (v 7), He responded. Used only here. GK 2863. "Writing" in v 8 is the same word without the prefix "down".
19. Some manuscripts add "not taking notice" {N}.
20. Or, "persisting". Same word and grammar as in Act 12:16, where Peter "was continuing-on knocking".
21. On this word, see Lk 21:28. Same word as in v 10.
22. That is, the one who has not sinned, who has done no wrong. Used only here. GK 387. Related to "sin".
23. The real question was not what the Law of Moses said, but who had the authority to carry it out. As a nation, Israel had lost that authority to the Romans. The Jews all knew it. Jesus confronts them with another issue about which they all knew the answer! He is not saying proper authorities must be sinless to enforce the Law, or that proper governments cannot execute punishment. But this was not an official court action. He is forcing the would-be executioners to affirm that they are sinless, and in particular, sinless in this execution they would carry out on God's behalf. If they are going to appoint themselves as God's private executioners, outside of the governmental system, they had better be sinless! The Pharisees all knew that justice was not their real motive.
24. Related to "stooped" in v 6. Used only here. GK 2893.
25. Some manuscripts add "and being convicted by their conscience" {A}.
26. On this idiom "one by one", see Mk 14:19.
27. On the idiom "beginning from", see Mt 20:8.
28. Or, "the elders". On this word, see 1 Tim 5:1. Some manuscripts add "until the last ones" {A}.
29. Some manuscripts add "and having seen no one except the woman" {A}.
30. Some manuscripts say "Where are those accusers of yours"; others, "Where are your accusers" {A}.
31. That is, neither am I executing sentence against you at this time. Jesus did not come to judge, but to save, 3:17. Jesus will judge on that still future day, 5:22, 29. These are not words of forgiveness, but of an earthly reprieve. Whether the woman later found forgiveness is not stated. As with all humans in this age, Jesus shows mercy and calls for repentance.
32. Some manuscripts omit this word {C}.
33. Some manuscripts omit "from now on" {N}. "From now on" is elsewhere only in Lk 1:48; 5:10; 12:52; 22:18, 69; Act 18:6; 2 Cor 5:16.
34. That is, do not continue sinning any longer. Repent. This is the same command as in 5:14.
35. If 7:53-8:11 is not genuine but was added later (see 7:53), then John may mean that 8:12-10:21 also took place on the last day of the Feast, 7:37. Otherwise, the next note of time is in 10:22, two months later, and the events from 8:12 to 10:21 occur sometime between the two feasts, between October and December.
36. This may mean the light which proceeds from life (1:4); or, leads the way to life and gives life; or, belongs to life.
37. Compare 5:31. There, if Jesus were to testify apart from His Father's co-witness, it would not be true. Here, what He is testifying is true because it is spoken in agreement with His Father.
38. Jesus knows Himself and His mission, and that His testimony is true. Other witnesses do not make it true, they only confirm that it is true. He has already given the Pharisees other witnesses, but mentions one again in v 18.

- 1E. "But you do not know from where I come, or¹ where I am going
- 2D. "You are judging^A according to the flesh.² I am not judging^A anyone³ 15
- 1E. "But even if I am judging^A, My judgment^B is true^C, because I am not alone^D— but *it is I and the Father having sent Me*⁴ 16
- 3D. "But even in your Law, it has been written that the testimony of two people is true 17
- 1E. "I am the One testifying about Myself 18
- 2E. "And the Father having sent Me is testifying about Me"
- 3C. So they were saying to Him, "Where is Your Father?" 19
- 1D. Jesus answered, "You know neither Me nor My Father. If you knew Me, you would also know My Father"
- 4C. These words He⁵ spoke in the treasury^E, while teaching in the temple 20
- 5C. And no one seized^F Him, because His hour had not yet come
- 6B. Then He said again⁶ to them, "I am going away. And you will seek Me⁷. And in your sin, you will die.⁸ Where I am going, you are not able to come"
- 1C. So the Jews were saying, "He will not kill Himself, *will He*⁹— because He says, 'Where I am going, you are not able to come'?" 22
- 2C. And¹⁰ He was saying to them— "You are from below, I am from above¹¹. You are from this world^G, I am not from this world¹². *Therefore I said to you that you will die^H in your sins. For unless you believe that I am *the One*¹³, you will die in your sins" 23
- 3C. So they were saying to Him, "Who are You?"¹⁴ 24
- 4C. Jesus said to them, "What thing^I from the beginning¹⁶ I am indeed telling¹⁷ you!" 25
- 1D. "I¹⁸ have many things to speak and to judge^A concerning you¹⁹ 26
- 2D. "However,²⁰ the One having sent Me is true^I. And what things I heard from Him— these things I am speaking to the world"
- 1E. They did not know that He was speaking to them about the Father²¹ 27
- 5C. Then²² Jesus said *to them*²³, "When you lift-up²⁴ the Son of Man, then you²⁵ will know that 28
- 1D. "I am *the One*²⁶
- 2D. "And²⁷ I am doing nothing from Myself²⁸, but I am speaking these²⁹ things just as the³⁰ Father taught^K Me
- 3D. "And³¹ the One having sent Me is with Me. He³² did not leave Me alone³³, because I am always doing the things pleasing³⁴ to Him" 29
- 6C. While He was speaking these things, many believed in Him 30
- 7B. Then Jesus was saying to the Jews having believed Him³⁵, "If you remain³⁶ in My word^L, you are truly^M My disciples^N, and you will know the truth^O, and the truth will set you free³⁷" 31
- 32

1. Jesus possesses, and these leaders lack, the crucial facts in the matter. Some manuscripts say "and" {N}.
2. That is, the Pharisees are passing judgment on Jesus and condemning Him by wrong criteria.
3. Some think Jesus means "the way you are", according to appearances. Others think He means that He is not engaged in judging anyone. It is not His mission or habit to do so. His mission is to save, 3:17.
4. Even though it is not His mission, if Jesus does judge while carrying out His mission, His judgment is true (unlike theirs). This is because it is in concert with the Father's judgment. It is a wholly different kind of judgment than that of the Pharisees. And Jesus does have many things to judge concerning them, v 26.
5. Some manuscripts say "Jesus" {K}.
6. This may mean "at a later time or occasion", as in v 12. But it may also refer to 7:34, which Jesus expands here.
7. That is, the Messiah.
8. This is the Greek word order here, and in the two places in v 24, reflecting a difference of emphasis.
9. The grammar indicates a "no" answer is expected.
10. Note how the Jews respond with sarcastic mockery in v 22, but Jesus responds solemnly here, as if He must say these words whether or not they want to hear them.
11. More literally, from "the places below", "the places above". That is, from earth, from heaven.
12. Jesus is asserting His authority for what He says next.
13. Or, "I am He, I am Who I say I am". Or simply "I am". On this idiom, see 8:58.
14. The Jews are trying to get Jesus to explicitly say "I am the Christ, the Son of God", so they can charge Him with blasphemy. He does not allow them to hear such a direct statement until His hour is come, Mt 26:63-64.
15. The phrase "what thing" is elsewhere only in Act 9:6, "what thing you must do". It is similar to "whatever thing" in Jn 2:5; 14:13; 15:16; on which see Col 3:17. These are usually simplified to "what" and "whatever", respectively. Instead of "what thing", some manuscripts say "that" {B}. See the next note.
16. Or, "Exactly what thing I am indeed telling you!" Jesus clearly does not want to give them a direct answer. It is not yet His hour. The exact meaning of this word is unclear here. He is using an idiom for which there are not enough examples in Greek literature for scholars to reach a consensus as to its meaning. This word means "beginning", and is used 55 times in the NT (see Col 1:18 on it). But it is used only here in this grammatical relationship to the sentence (more literally, "as to the beginning, with reference to the beginning"). Others render it as a question, "What thing am I indeed telling you from the beginning?" Others, using the reading "that" mentioned in the previous note, render it "How is it that I am even speaking to you at all?" There are several other views. In any case, the main point of His answer is crystal clear—You ought to know by now who I am!
17. Jesus is the Son of God, 5:18; the life-giver and judge, 5:21-22; the One sent by the Father, 5:37; the bread from heaven, 6:51; the light of the world, 8:12; the One in whom you must believe to have eternal life, 8:24, etc.
18. Probably after a pause and a look, Jesus now continues with what He was saying in v 24.
19. That is, negative things, condemnations, like v 23-24. These things must be spoken. Some come in v 31-58.
20. Some think Jesus means that in spite of the fact that these leaders do not accept Him or the words He has to speak concerning them, His source is real and what He says comes straight from the Father. Others think Jesus means He has words of judgment to speak to them, but He is not speaking them. Rather, He is speaking what the Father gave Him to speak in accordance with His mission. Compare 7:28; 8:16.
21. John seems to mean the Jews did not know that Jesus meant that the One who sent Him was the Father sending His Son. They did not understand He was claiming equality with the Father as the Son, only that He was claiming God sent Him. Had they understood this, they would have reacted as in 5:18; 8:59; and 10:33; where this claim is clear.
22. Jesus says this with reference to the failure to know Him in v 25.
23. Some manuscripts omit "to them" {C}.
24. Or, "raise high, exalt". Same word as in 3:14; 12:32, 34; and as "exalt" in Act 2:33; 5:31. Used 20 times. GK 5738. Like "rise up" (Lk 18:33), it is a word that reveals, yet conceals the truth. Jesus means these leaders will lift Him up on the cross. They probably took Him to mean "exalt". This is not a word normally associated with death on a cross. Related to "highest" in Mt 21:9.
25. Those among these leaders who will believe (like Nicodemus and Joseph) will not do so until after the cross. Only then will they be sure. Perhaps after the cross, the Spirit opened their eyes to Isa 53, and what is now so confusing became clear to them. The others will also come to know this after the cross, when they stand before God. Some think Jesus is only referring to the latter, much larger group. Others think the words are broad enough to include both groups.
26. Or, "I am Who I say I am". Or, simply "I am". On this idiom, see 8:58. Others make this the sole conclusion of the previous sentence, and make what follows separate points (1D. and 2D.), not additional things these leaders "will know".
27. Secondly, you will know that everything I am doing and speaking originated with the Father.
28. On "from Myself", see "from Himself" in 5:19.
29. That is, all of the things Jesus is speaking and teaching.
30. Some manuscripts say "My" {N}.
31. Thirdly, you will know that the Father is with Me, and never left Me alone, because I am doing His will.
32. Some manuscripts say "The Father" {N}.
33. This is especially true of the Cross. The Jews will think God has abandoned Jesus. But afterward, they will know that God did not at all do so, but that this too was His will. Same word as 16:32, on which see Jam 2:24.
34. Same word as in 1 Jn 3:22. Elsewhere only in Act 6:2; 12:3. GK 744. Related to the verb "pleasing" in 1 Thes 2:4.
35. Some think that whatever the sense may be in which these Jews "believed" Jesus, His word did not "advance" in their hearts (v 37), and it quickly becomes clear that they did not "remain in My word". These are like the ones in 2:23; 6:66. Others think that those responding in v 33 are a different group, responding to this statement Jesus makes to those who truly believe in Him. Consult the commentaries.
36. Or, "continue, abide, stay". On this word, see "abide" in 15:4.
37. On this verb "to set free", see Rom 8:2. Same word as in v 36.

- 1C. They responded to Him, "We are *the seed*¹ of Abraham, and to no one have we ever been slaves². How is it You say that 'You will become free^A'?" 33
- 2C. Jesus answered them, "Truly^B, truly, I say to you that everyone doing sin³ is *a slave*⁴ of sin. 34
Now the slave^C does not remain^D in the house forever⁵. The son remains forever. *Therefore 35-36
if the Son sets you free, you will really⁶ be free^A
- 1D. "I know that you are the seed of Abraham.⁷ But you are seeking^E to kill^F Me, because 37
My word is not advancing⁸ in you
- 2D. "I am speaking the things which I have seen with My Father 38
- 3D. "And you therefore⁹ are doing¹⁰ the things which you heard¹¹ from your father"
- 3C. They responded and said to Him, "Our father¹² is Abraham" 39
- 4C. Jesus says to them, "If you are¹³ children of Abraham, you would be doing¹⁴ the works of Abraham
- 1D. "But now¹⁵ you are seeking to kill Me— a man Who has told you the truth^G, which I 40 heard from God
- 2D. "Abraham did not do this
- 3D. "You are doing the works^H of your father¹⁶" 41
- 5C. So they said to Him, "We have not been born^I out of sexuality-immorality¹⁷. We have one 42 Father— God"
- 6C. Jesus said to them, "If God were your Father, you would be loving^K Me, for I came-forth and 42 am-here¹⁸ from God. For I have not even come^L of Myself¹⁹, but that One sent Me forth^M
- 1D. "For what reason are you not understanding^N My speaking²⁰? 43
- 1E. "It is because you are not able to hear My word
- 2E. "You are of your father the devil. And you are wanting²¹ to do the desires^O of your 44 father²²
- 1E. "That one was a murderer^P from the beginning, and was not standing²³ in the 45
truth^G, because there is no truth in him
- 2E. "Whenever he speaks the lie²⁴, he speaks from his own things, because he is a 46 liar, and the father of it
- 3E. "And because I am speaking the truth^G, you are not believing Me 47
- 2D. "Which of you convicts²⁵ Me concerning sin²⁶? If²⁷ I am speaking truth, for what reason 48 are you not believing Me?
- 3D. "The one being of²⁸ God hears the words of God. For this reason you are not hearing— 49 because you are not of God"
- 7C. The Jews responded and said to Him, "Do we not rightly^Q say²⁹ that You are *a Samaritan*³⁰ and 48 have a demon?"³¹
- 8C. Jesus answered, "I do not have a demon, but I am honoring^R My Father, and you are 49
dishonoring³² Me. *But I am not seeking^E My glory 50
- 1D. "There is the One seeking it, and judging³³
- 2D. "Truly, truly, I say to you— if anyone keeps^S My word, he will never³⁴ see^T death, ever³⁵" 51

1. That is, descendants. On this word, see Heb 11:11.
2. That is, in a religious sense (not a political sense). We have always worshiped the true God as Abraham's offspring, so how can You set us free? On this verb, see "are slaves" in Rom 6:6.
3. Or, "committing sin". On "doing sin", compare 1 Jn 3:4, 8, 9. Compare also "doing the truth" in Jn 3:21; 1 Jn 1:6; and "doing righteousness" in 1 Jn 2:29; 3:7, 10.
4. The freedom Jesus has in mind is a personal, spiritual freedom from sin so as to be full and free family members in God's family, not just Abraham's.
5. Slaves do not permanently live in the house. They go out to their own place. On "forever", see Rev 20:10.
6. Or, "in truth, in reality, certainly". The Son will set you free to live and remain in the Master's house, not as a slave, but as a family member. You will no longer be slaves to sin. Same word as in Mk 11:32; Lk 23:47; 24:34; 1 Cor 14:25; Gal 3:21. Elsewhere only as "real" in 1 Tim 5:3, 5, 16; 6:19. GK 3953.
7. That is, physically. The conduct of these Jews proves it is not true spiritually.
8. Or, "going forward, making progress". Same word as in Mt 15:17. Or, "making room, making a place, having a place". On this word, see "make room" in 2 Pet 3:9. Said in reverse, "because you are refusing the advance of My word in you".
9. Some manuscripts omit this word {K}, so that it says "And you are doing...".
10. Or, this may be a command, "You also therefore be doing the things which you heard from your father" (meaning, "Carry out your plans against Me", as in Mt 23:32); or, "... from the Father" (meaning, "Obey God and stop seeking to kill Me"). The Greek says "the father" in both places in this verse. The contrast between fathers, which is stated explicitly in v 40 and 44, may be implied in this verse. Some manuscripts add the words "My" and "your" {B}, making it explicit here.
11. Some manuscripts say "have seen" {B}.
12. That is, our physical and spiritual father. What we heard has been passed down to us since Abraham.
13. Some manuscripts say "If you were" {N}.
14. Some manuscripts have this as a command {B}, so that it says "if you are children of Abraham, be doing the works...".
15. Jesus may mean "But at the present time", or, "But as it is", as things stand. GK 3814.
16. Jesus is implying that their father is someone other than Abraham.
17. Jesus has called into question their spiritual relationship to Abraham, so the Jews respond by asserting they have an even higher relationship. They are not illegitimate spiritual children, born of spiritual adultery. They have no other spiritual Father but God. They are God's people. Whatever they are doing is borne out of their relationship to Him. Some also find here a mocking of the circumstances of the birth of Jesus. On this word, see 1 Cor 5:1.
18. Or, "am present, have come". Some think "came forth" refers to the incarnation of Jesus; "am here" to His public ministry in Israel. Same word as "have come" in 2:4; 4:47; Mk 8:3; Lk 15:27; Heb 10:7, 9; 1 Jn 5:20. Used 26 times. GK 2457.
19. On "of Myself", see "from Himself" in 5:19.
20. That is, what Jesus is saying, the content of His speaking. This noun is elsewhere only in Mt 26:73; Jn 4:42. GK 3282.
21. Or, "intending, wishing, desiring". Your desire to do his will makes you unable to hear My words. On this word, see "willing" in 7:17.
22. That is, to kill Jesus (v 37), and to promote lies based on self-interest. These are the devil's desires.
23. On this word, see "standing-firm" in 1 Cor 16:13. GK 5112. Some manuscripts say "does not stand" {C}, using GK 2705. The difference is a kind of accent mark.
24. Or, speaks "falsehood". On this word, see "falsehood" in Rev 14:5.
25. Or, "exposes, rebukes". Same word as in 16:8. On this word, see "expose" in Eph 5:11.
26. This word refers to an offense against human or divine requirements, a failing to hit the mark, a wrong. Used 173 times. GK 281. Related to the verb in Act 25:8, and "sinner" in Mt 9:10.
27. Some manuscripts say "And if" {K}.
28. That is, belonging to, originating in.
29. This is what these leaders were in the habit of saying about Jesus.
30. This is a racial and religious slur. You are a religious half-breed, proclaiming Your own religion in contradiction to the Scriptures and the traditions handed down from our forefathers.
31. On having a demon, see 10:20. The grammar indicates that a "yes" answer is expected.
32. Same word as in Rom 2:23.
33. The Father is in fact seeking the glory of the Son. He is the One discerning your hearts. Jesus will pass judgment based on what He hears from Him, 5:30. These understated words of terror are followed by the gospel of hope.
34. Or, "by no means". This is an emphatic negative, the strongest in Greek. John uses it in 4:14, 48; 6:35, 37; 8:12, 51, 52; 10:5, 28; 11:26, 56; 13:8, 38; 20:25. On this idiom, see Gal 5:16.
35. On "ever", which is also in the next verse, see 4:14.

- 9C. So¹ the Jews said to Him, “Now we have come-to-know^A that You have a demon^B. Abraham died, and the prophets! And You say, ‘If anyone keeps My word, he will never taste death², ever!’” 52
- 1D. “You are not greater than our father Abraham who died, are you?³” 53
- 2D. “The prophets died also”
- 3D. “Whom do You make Yourself?”
- 10C. Jesus answered, “If I glorify^C Myself, My glory is nothing” 54
- 1D. “The One glorifying Me is My Father— Whom you say that ‘He is our⁴ God’”
- 2D. “And you have not come-to-know^A Him,⁵ but I know^D Him” 55
- 3D. “And if I say that I do not know Him, I will be a liar like you. But I know Him, and I am keeping^E His word”
- 4D. “Abraham your father rejoiced-greatly^F to⁶ see My day.⁷ And he saw *it*⁸, and was glad^G” 56
- 11C. So the Jews said to Him, “You do not yet have fifty years⁹, and You have seen¹⁰ Abraham?” 57
- 12C. Jesus said to them, “Truly^H, truly, I say to you— before Abraham came-into-being¹¹, I am¹²” 58
- 13C. Therefore¹³ they picked up stones in order that they might throw them at Him. But Jesus was hidden¹⁴, and went out of the temple¹⁵ 59
- 8B. And while passing on,¹⁶ He saw a man blind from birth 9:1
- 1C. And His disciples asked Him, saying, “Rabbi^I, who sinned^K— this one or his parents, that he should be born^L blind?” *Jesus answered, “Neither this one sinned nor his parents, but it was in order that the works of God might be made-visible¹⁷ in him” 2
- 1D. “We¹⁸ must^M be working^N the works^O of the One having sent Me while it is day. Night is coming, when no one can work” 4
- 2D. “When¹⁹ I am in the world, I am the light of the world” 5
- 2C. Having said these things, He spat^P on the ground, and made mud from the saliva,²⁰ and smeared²¹ its²² mud on the eyes²³, *and said to him, “Go, wash^Q in the pool of Siloam” (which is translated^R, “Sent²⁴”) 6
- 1D. So he went away and washed, and came [back] seeing²⁵

1. Some manuscripts omit this word {C}.
2. Jesus is referring to eternal death, but the Jews take it as physical death. This does not seem to be serious and sincere argumentation. They appear to be deliberately misinterpreting what He says in order to try to prove Him to be a self-deceived exaggerator. On "taste death", see Heb 2:9.
3. The grammar indicates a "no" answer is expected.
4. Some manuscripts say "Whom you say that He is your God" {B}.
5. Some place this phrase with the previous sentence ("...God", and you have..."), and join the next phrase with what follows ("But I know Him. And if I say...").
6. Or, "that he might see". GK 2671.
7. Abraham looked forward to this day with eyes of faith, seeing and greeting the promises from afar, Heb 11:13. He rejoiced to see the day when the whole world would be blessed through his descendant, as God promised.
8. Abraham saw this day by faith, and rejoiced in it. These Jews, seeing it with their eyes, refuse to believe.
9. Perhaps the Jews mean "you are not even as old as we are". Jesus was about thirty when He began His ministry, Lk 3:23. On "having" years, see 5:5.
10. Again the Jews seem to be deliberately misinterpreting Jesus, pressing the literal physical meaning of "saw", trying to make Him appear to be claiming something all out of proportion to the obvious truth. If Abraham physically saw Your day, then You must have seen Abraham! They think they have Him trapped and will force Him to back down, but He surprises them by claiming much more! Some manuscripts say, "and Abraham has seen You?" {B}.
11. Or, "came-to-be", and in this sense, "was" or "was born". Same word as in 1:2.
12. Used over 70 times, the phrase "I am" is usually followed by a defining word or phrase, as in "I am a man, I am good, I am a Jew, I am from above, I am with you, etc. Jesus says "I am" the bread, the light, the door, the way, the vine, etc. This phrase stands alone like this only in the 17 places noted below, and means "I am the one", or "I am he", the defining word being implied, but not stated. In Mt 26:22, 25, it means "I am not the one", the betrayer; in Mk 13:6 and Lk 21:8 some falsely say "I am the One", the Christ; in Act 13:25 the Baptist says "I am not the One", the Christ (this is fully stated in Jn 1:20, 3:28); and in Jn 9:9 the blind man says "I am he". This phrase is used by Jesus in Mt 14:27; Mk 6:50; Jn 6:20, where He says "I am the One", meaning "It is Me", not a phantom (this idea is fully stated in Lk 24:39, "I am myself". Note also Mt 14:28. In Jn 18:5, 6, 8, Jesus says "I am He", meaning "Jesus"; and in Jn 4:26 He says "I am He", meaning the Messiah. In Jn 8:24, 28; 13:19, He says "I am the One", meaning the One from God in the fullest sense. Here in Jn 8:58, notice that "I am the One" does not fit the context. No defining word is implied. It is used in an absolute sense. Abraham had a beginning point when he came into existence; Jesus has none. Jesus is not merely claiming to preexist Abraham, so He does not say "I was" or "I have been". He says "Before Abraham came into existence, I exist". Since only God simply "exists", or would use such language to describe Himself, Jesus is claiming to be God, as John said in 1:1. Some think Jesus is referring to what God said in Ex 3:14 (LXX), "I am the One being" (or, "existing", or, "who is"), or to the same phrase "I am He" in Isa 41:4; 43:10, 13; 48:12, etc. Some think this is also the meaning of this phrase in 8:24, 28; 13:19.
13. Understanding this claim, as in 5:18 and 10:33, the Jews try to kill Jesus for blasphemy.
14. Same word and grammar as in Lk 19:42; Jn 12:36; Heb 11:23. This word means "to hide, conceal, keep secret". Elsewhere only in Mt 5:14; 11:25; 13:35, 44; 25:18, 25; Lk 18:34; Jn 19:38; Col 3:3; 1 Tim 5:25; Rev 2:17; 6:15, 16. GK 3221. Related to "hidden" in 1 Cor 4:5, and in 1 Cor 2:7. Since the word does not necessarily imply that someone else hid Jesus, some render it "hid Himself"; others leave it as normal, "was hidden", and leave it unexplained. It could simply mean that Jesus "was hidden" amidst the crowds as He went out of the temple. Compare 5:13.
15. Some manuscripts add "having gone through the midst of them. And thus He was going along" {A}.
16. John may mean this took place immediately after 8:59, outside of the temple. If so, Jesus immediately diverts the Jews' anger in v 59 by doing a great public miracle with which they must now contend. Or, it may have been later during this period (see 8:12). Some take "then" in 10:22 to mean that 9:1-10:21 took place nearer that event than to 8:59. This event was on a Sabbath (v 14), and near the pool of Siloam (v 7), which was near the temple area.
17. On this word, see "made evident" in 1 Jn 2:19. This man was blind that others might see—see that Jesus is the light of the world, v 5. This is a most striking depiction of the Jews' lack of sight on the backdrop of this man's reception of sight.
18. Some think Jesus is including the disciples; others, that He is referring to Himself. Compare 3:11. Some manuscripts say "I"; others, "We must work... having sent us" {C}.
19. Or, "Whenever, At the time that". Some think Jesus means "when" in the sense of "while, as long as", referring to His present incarnation. "During the time that" I am physically present in the world, I am personally the light of the world. In this view, "when I am in the world" is equivalent to "while it is day" in v 4. Others think Jesus means "whenever, as often as, every time that", and is referring to all His visitations in OT times, in this present incarnation, and in the appearances and revelations coming after His death. In this view, He is stating the significance of His presence, whenever it occurs. GK 4020.
20. To make mud was work ("kneading") in the eyes of these Pharisees, a violation of their Sabbath rules. Jesus deliberately chooses a method of healing that also offends them. He confronts their unbelief head-on. Note that both "offenses" are specified in v 14. In addition, several symbolic meanings are suggested for this. Consult the commentaries.
21. Or, "spread, anointed". Elsewhere only in v 11. GK 2222. Related to "to anoint" in Lk 4:18.
22. Or, "His". That is, the saliva's mud, "the mud of it".
23. Some manuscripts add "of the blind one" {N}.
24. This is a participle, "Having been sent forth". The water was "sent forth" through an underground tunnel built by King Hezekiah to bring water from a source outside the wall to this pool inside the wall.
25. Or, "went [home] seeing". Perhaps the man came back seeking somehow to find Jesus, then went home. On the other hand, perhaps he was sitting outside his home when Jesus came along.

- 3C. Then the neighbors¹, and the ones seeing him formerly^A— because² he was a beggar³— were saying, “Is not this the one sitting and begging?”⁴ 8
- 1D. Others were saying that “This is he” 9
- 2D. Others were saying, “No, but he is like him”⁵
- 3D. That one was saying that “I am he”
- 4D. So they were saying to him, “How then⁶ were your eyes opened?” 10
- 5D. That one answered, “The man being called Jesus made mud, and smeared it on my eyes, and said to me ‘Go to Siloam⁷ and wash’. So having gone away and washed, I received-sight^B” 11
- 6D. And they said to him, “Where is that One?” 12
- 7D. He says, “I do not know”
- 4C. They⁸ bring him to the Pharisees— the formerly^C blind one 13
- 1D. Now it was a Sabbath on the day⁹ Jesus made the mud and opened his eyes 14
- 2D. Therefore the Pharisees also were asking him again¹⁰ how he received-sight^B 15
- 1E. And the one said to them, “He put mud on my eyes, and I washed, and I see”
- 3D. Then some of the Pharisees were saying, “This man is not from God, because He does not keep^D the Sabbath”¹¹. But¹² others were saying, “How is a sinful^E man able to do such signs^F?” And there was a division¹³ among them. *So¹⁴ they say to the blind one again, “What do you say about Him, *seeing-that*¹⁵ He opened your eyes?” 16
- 1E. And the one said that “He is a prophet^G” 17
- 4D. Then the Jews did not believe concerning him that he was blind and received-sight^B— until¹⁶ they called the parents of him having received-sight 18
- 1E. And they asked them, saying, “Is this your son whom you are saying¹⁷ that he was born^H blind? How then does he see now?” 19
- 2E. So¹⁸ his parents responded and said, “We know that this is our son, and that he was born blind. *But how he now sees— we do not know. Or who opened his eyes— we do not know.¹⁹ Ask^I him.²⁰ He has a mature-age²¹. He will speak about himself” 20
- 1E. His parents said these things because they were fearing the Jews²² 21
- 1G. For the Jews already had agreed^K that if anyone confessed²³ Him as the Christ, he should become put-out-of-the-synagogue²⁴ 22
- 2G. For this reason his parents said that “He has a mature-age, question^L him” 23
- 5D. Then they called for a second²⁵ time the man who was blind, and said to him, “Give glory to God.²⁶ We know that this man is a sinner”²⁷ 24
- 1E. So²⁸ that one responded²⁹, “Whether He is a sinner^E, I do not know. I know one thing— that being a blind one, now I see” 25
- 2E. So they said to him³⁰, “What did He do to you? How did He open your eyes?” 26
- 3E. He answered them, “I told you already and you did not listen. Why do you want to hear it again? You also³¹ do not want to become His disciples, do you?”³² 27

1. That is, the ones who lived near this man. Elsewhere only in Lk 14:12; 15:6, 9. GK 1150.
2. Or, "that". GK 4022.
3. Some manuscripts say "blind" {N}, so that it says "that he was blind".
4. The grammar indicates a "yes" answer is expected.
5. Some manuscripts say instead "And others [were saying] that 'he is like him'" {N}.
6. Some manuscripts omit this word {C}.
7. Some manuscripts say "the pool of Siloam" {N}.
8. Some think John means the neighbors, v 8; others, an impersonal "they", certain ones hearing him speak. The man may have been brought as one needing correction; or, as a prime example proving who Jesus is.
9. This may imply that one or more days had passed since the healing; or, it may simply be adding this piece of information which we need to know. Instead of "on the day", some manuscripts say "when" {N}.
10. That is, in addition to all the people who had already asked this question.
11. The Pharisees are correct that no matter what Jesus says or does, He cannot be from God if He breaks God's laws. But their key premise is in error—their Sabbath regulations are not in fact God's laws.
12. Some manuscripts omit this word {C}.
13. The Pharisees are divided over how to interpret this sign in light of their previous conclusions about Jesus. On this word, see 1 Cor 1:10.
14. Some manuscripts omit this word {K}.
15. Or, "because, that". GK 4022.
16. More literally, "up to which time". On this idiom, see Mt 5:25.
17. The parents were speaking publicly of this, as one would expect.
18. Some manuscripts say "And his parents responded to them and said" {N}.
19. That is, we have no firsthand knowledge on these two questions.
20. Some manuscripts say "He has a mature age, ask him. He will speak..." {N}.
21. On "having" time, see 5:5. On this word, see "life-span" in Mt 6:27.
22. That is, the Jewish leaders. See 1:19.
23. Or, "declared, acknowledged". On this word, see 1 Tim 6:12.
24. Or, "excluded from the synagogue". This adjective is elsewhere only in 12:42 and 16:2. GK 697. Related to "synagogue". Such a person would become ex-synagogued, an outcast. Some leaders "believed" but did not "confess" Him for this very reason, 12:42.
25. This may imply that the Pharisees questioned the parents outside of the man's presence; or, that some time elapsed between v 21 and v 24, during which the man and his parents went away. Since the Pharisees could not escape the fact of it, perhaps by their authority they could induce this man to join their view of the One who did it.
26. Some think the Pharisees mean to give God glory by now telling the truth, as in Josh 7:19. Others think they mean to glorify the God who healed you, not this sinner!
27. The Pharisees know this because Jesus does not keep the Sabbath, v 16.
28. Some manuscripts omit this word {K}.
29. Some manuscripts add "and said" {K}.
30. Some manuscripts add "again" {N}.
31. That is, in addition to me. The formerly blind man wanted to become one as soon as possible.
32. The grammar indicates that a "no" answer is expected.

- 4E. And¹ they reviled² him and said, “You are a disciple^A of that One, but we are disciples of Moses. We know that God has spoken to Moses. But we do not know where this One is from” 28
29
- 5E. The man responded and said to them, “Why³, in this is the marvel⁴— that you do not know where He is from, and He opened my eyes!” 30
- 1E. “We know that God does not hear⁵ sinners. But if anyone is a God-fearing⁶ one, and is doing His will^B— He hears this one 31

- 7E. And they threw him outside⁹
- 5C. Jesus heard that they threw him outside, and having found him, said, “Do you believe in the Son of Man¹⁰?” 35
- 1D. That one responded and said, “Who indeed is He, Sir, in order that I may believe in Him?” 36

1. Some manuscripts omit this word; others say "Then"; others say "But the ones..." {N}.
2. Or, "insulted, spoke abusively to". The content of it follows. On this word, see 1 Cor 4:12.
3. This same word introduces an incredulous question in 7:41 ("indeed"); here, an incredulous statement. GK 1142.
4. Or, "the amazing thing". Elsewhere only as "marvelous" in Mt 21:42; Mk 12:11; 1 Pet 2:9; Rev 15:1, 3. GK 2515.
5. Or, "listen to". God does not answer the requests of sinners. On this word, see Act 22:9.
6. Or, "devout, God-worshiper". Used only here. GK 2538. The root word is "God". Related to "godliness" in 1 Tim 2:10.
7. This is an idiom, literally, "from the age". It is similar to the idiom for "forever, into the age" (see Rev 20:10), but pointed into the past. Used only here. GK 172. Never in the past experience of the world has anything like this been reported.
8. Like the disciples (v 2), the Pharisees simply assume this since the man was born blind.
9. Some think John means physically, out of their presence; others, that the Pharisees put the man out of the synagogue, v 22. Same phrase as in v 35; 6:37.
10. Some manuscripts say "of God" {A}.
11. On this word, which is the same word as "sir" in v 36, see Mt 8:2.
12. Or, "gave-worship to Him". On this word, see "worship" in Mt 14:33.
13. Some think this is said later, some time elapsing since v 38; others, that Jesus says it right then, reflecting upon the two responses just seen. Some manuscripts omit v 38 and "And Jesus said" {B}, continuing with the words of Jesus directly from v 37.
14. That is, Jesus came to make a separation, to divide— not to condemn, pronounce judgment, 3:17. His mission is not to execute judgment, but judgment results from His mission. The world separates itself into two groups based on how it responds to Him, 3:18-19. He came to save, which forces this division. Compare Mt 13:13. This noun is used of the judging action of a judge; the "judgment, decision, verdict" given; a judgment against, "condemnation"; and a "lawsuit" (1 Cor 6:7). Used 27 times. GK 3210. Related to the verb "judge" in Jn 3:17; to "judgment" in 3:19; to the noun "judge"; and to "condemned" in 1 Cor 11:32.
15. That is, that the ones without spiritual sight may receive it in believing in Jesus— like the blind man, who received both physical and spiritual sight, v 38.
16. That is, that the ones claiming to possess spiritual sight may be blinded in rejecting Jesus, like the Pharisees.
17. Some manuscripts say "And [some] of the" {N}.
18. That is, spiritually blind.
19. The grammar indicates a "no" answer is expected.
20. If these Pharisees were blind— lost, and not claiming to possess spiritual sight— they would not be guilty of sin in their response to Jesus (because they would not be treating Him as they are). Since they are even now continuing to claim to see while rejecting Him, their sin remains. On "have sin", see 1 Jn 1:8.
21. Some manuscripts say "therefore your..." {N}.
22. John links the story of the blind man to these words in chapter 10, concluding it with the comment about the blind man in v 21. Since the Jewish leaders/shepherds threw out the blind man (9:34), and Jesus responded with the voice of the Shepherd (9:35-37), to which the man immediately responded (9:38), Jesus now speaks an allegory giving the meaning of this incident for all. The Pharisees claim to "see" and know the way as shepherds of Israel, but they are false shepherds, thieves and robbers in His fold.
23. That is, the fenced or walled enclosure, open to the sky; the corral; the nighttime dwelling place of the sheep. On this word, see "courtyard" in Mt 26:3.
24. That is, climbing over the wall from another location, entering the sheepfold some way other than the gate provided by the owner of the sheep. Used only here. GK 249.
25. Such a person is not entering to care for the sheep, but to profit from them. On this word, see Mt 21:13.
26. That is, listen to and obey. Same word as in v 16, 27, and as "listen-to" in v 8, 20. On this word, see Act 22:9.
27. This picture is a common one. A large sheep pen or fold holding the flocks of several shepherds for the night is watched over by a gatekeeper. In the morning, the shepherd calls out to his flock, and his sheep respond to his voice and come out to him. He leads them to pasture.
28. So by application, Jesus is calling His people out of the fold of Israel. His people hear the call to repent and come to their Shepherd and follow Him. The blind man is an example.
29. Some manuscripts say "And when..." {K}.
30. Instead of "all His own", some manuscripts say "His own sheep" {N}.
31. Or, "allegory". Same word as in 16:25, 29. Elsewhere only as "proverb" in 2 Pet 2:22. GK 4231.
32. The Pharisees claim to "see" (9:41), but they do not see at all. The words of Jesus are just madness to them (10:20). They do not understand the application of these words to themselves, to Him, or to Israel.
33. Or, "Therefore, So". John may mean this was spoken on a later occasion; or, that is was spoken because the Pharisees did not understand, v 6.
34. Some manuscripts add "to them" {N}.
35. Jesus expands key aspects of the sheep-shepherd metaphor. He sharpens some truths from v 1-5, and brings out other truths. Some manuscripts omit this word {N}.
36. That is, the point of access, of entry and exit to the fold and the pasture. Jesus is making a new point here. In v 2 He was the shepherd entering the door, and was known to the doorkeeper. Here, He is the door, the entryway.
37. Some think Jesus means the door "to the sheep", through which all true shepherds pass to get to the sheep. He protects His sheep from the robbers. They gain entry another way (v 1), but the sheep do not follow them out. Others think He means the door "for the sheep", through which they enter into the fold, as is more fully brought out in v 9.

- 1E. "All¹ who came before Me² are thieves^A and robbers^B, but the sheep did not listen-to them 8

- 1E. "The thief does not come except that he may steal and kill^D and destroy^E 10
- 2E. "I came that they may have life^F, and have abundance³ 10

- 1E. "No one takes²³ it away from Me, but I lay it down of Myself²⁴ 18
- 1F. "I have authority^O to lay it down, and I have authority to take it up again 18
- 2E. "I received this commandment²⁵ from My Father" 18
- 10C. A²⁶ division^P again²⁷ took place among the Jews because of these words 19
- 1D. And many of them were saying, "He has a demon²⁸, and He is mad²⁹. Why are you listening-to Him?" 20
- 2D. Others were saying, "These words are not from one being demon-possessed^Q. A demon is not able to open the eyes of blind ones, is he?"³⁰ 21

- 2C. "However, you do not believe, because you are not of My sheep³⁸ 26

1. That is, all you self-appointed, self-serving leaders of the flock who tried to get the sheep to follow you to a false sheepfold, or out of the true one.
2. That is, in time. Some manuscripts omit "before Me" {C}.
3. Or, "overflow, excess, surplus". That is, have life exceeding their own needs, a surplus abounding and flowing from them as in 7:38, bubbling up as in 4:14. Jesus did not come to give existence, but life, an overflowing life. He is referring to eternal life (v 9, 28), and the spiritual dimension of life. He brings an abundance of "real" life (1 Tim 6:19). GK 4356.
4. Instead of "lays down", some manuscripts say "gives" {B} both here and in v 15.
5. The good shepherd devotes himself to the sheep, even risking his own life to protect them. He might unintentionally even be killed defending them. Jesus, of course, means more than this with regard to Himself. He voluntarily gives up His life for the sheep. But those listening to Jesus would not have understood this deeper meaning.
6. That is, the one working with the sheep for wages. This one puts his own personal interests, his own life, ahead of the flock. Same word as in v 13. On this word, see Mk 1:20.
7. More literally, "The hired one and not being a shepherd", two descriptions of this one person. Compare the phrase in 1 Tim 4:3.
8. Or, more strongly, based on the context, "abandons". On this word, see "forgive" in Mt 6:12.
9. Same word as in v 28.
10. Some manuscripts say "the sheep" {N}.
11. Some manuscripts say "Now the hired one flees because he is a hired one, ..." {N}, starting a new sentence here.
12. This is an idiom, more literally, "it is not a concern to him". On this word, see 1 Cor 7:21.
13. Some manuscripts say "and I am known by My sheep" {N}.
14. Some manuscripts say "give" {B}.
15. Same word as in v 1. Jesus may mean the Jewish fold (out of which He is calling the believers, v 3), making the other sheep the Gentiles. He came only to the lost sheep of the house of Israel, Mt 15:24. Or He may mean the nation-of-Israel fold, making the other sheep all the "children of God scattered" outside Israel (Jews and Gentiles), as in 11:52. In either case, believing Jews and Gentiles will be united into one flock, 11:52; Eph 2:15.
16. That is, all His sheep.
17. Same word as in v 3.
18. Or, "be". Some manuscripts say, "And there will be" {C}, using the same word with different grammar. GK 1181.
19. Not the same word as "fold" earlier in the verse. Elsewhere only in Mt 26:31; Lk 2:8; 1 Cor 9:7. GK 4479. Related word in 1 Pet 5:2.
20. These are related words in the Greek, somewhat like "one shepherd, [with] one Sheep-herder".
21. This word, meaning "take up" in this context opposite of "lay down", occurs again in v 18 (as "take up" and as "received"). On this word, see "taken" in Rom 7:8. It is not the same word as "take-away" in v 18.
22. Jesus lays it down in death for the purpose of raising Himself to the life and glory also commanded by the Father.
23. Some manuscripts say "took it away" {B}.
24. This action is completely voluntary and unforced. On "of Myself", see "from Himself" in 5:19.
25. That is, the commandment to lay down and take up His earthly life. This is the Father's will for the Son, which the Son is carrying out by His own choice. The Father loves Him because He does His will. On this word, see Mk 12:28.
26. Some manuscripts say "Then a division..." {B}.
27. As in 9:16.
28. Note that this is defined in v 21 as "being demon possessed". See Mt 8:16 on this.
29. Or, "out of His mind, raving". On this word, see 1 Cor 14:23.
30. The grammar indicates that a "no" answer is expected. So the case of the healing of the man born blind, 9:1-10:21, comes down to this—Is Jesus empowered by Satan or God?
31. Or, "At that time". It can mean next in time, or next in sequence. On this word, see Mt 24:9. Some manuscripts say "And" {B}.
32. That is, Hanukkah, the Feast of Lights, an eight-day celebration commemorating the rededication of the temple by Judas Macabaeus in 165 B.C., after it had been desecrated by Antiochus Epiphanes. It could be observed anywhere, so John specifies Jerusalem. Used only here. GK 1589. This is the first note of time since 8:2 (see 8:12).
33. Or, "encircled". Same word as in Lk 21:20; Act 14:20. Elsewhere only as "encircled" in Heb 11:30. GK 3240.
34. On this idiom, see Mt 17:17.
35. This idiom is literally, how long "are you lifting up our soul?", in suspense, anticipation (or, in annoyance, anger, giving it a negative sense).
36. Or, "openness". Same word as in 11:14. On this word, see "confidence" in Heb 4:16.
37. Some manuscripts say "did not believe" {N}.
38. Some manuscripts add "just as I said to you" {B}. These Jews are not part of God's flock.

- 3C. "My sheep hear¹ My voice² 27
- 1D. "And I know them, and they follow Me
- 2D. "And I give them eternal life, and they will never perish^A, ever^B 28
- 1E. "And someone will not snatch³ them out of My hand. *What⁴ My Father has given to Me is greater than all 29
- 2E. "And no one is able to snatch them out of the hand of the⁵ Father⁶
- 3E. "I and the Father are one"⁷ 30
- 3B. The Jews again⁸ carried⁹ stones in order that they might stone Him 31
- 4B. Jesus responded to them, "I showed¹⁰ you many good¹¹ works from the¹² Father. For which work of them¹³ do you stone Me?" 32
- 5B. The Jews answered Him¹⁴, "We do not stone You for a good work, but for blasphemy^C— even because You, being a human^D, are making^E Yourself God"¹⁵ 33
- 6B. Jesus responded to them, "Has it not been written¹⁶ in your Law that 'I said, you are gods'¹⁷ 34
- 1C. "If He¹⁸ called^F those ones to whom the word of God came gods— and the Scripture cannot be broken¹⁹— *do you say as to the One Whom the Father set-apart²⁰ and sent-forth^G into the world that 'You are blaspheming^H' because I said, 'I am God's Son'²¹ 35
- 2C. "If I am not doing the works of My Father, do not be believing Me 36
- 3C. "But if I am doing them— even if you do not believe Me, be believing the works, in order that you may come-to-know and be understanding²² that the Father is in Me, and I in the Father²³" 37
- 7B. Then²⁴ they were seeking again to seize^J Him, and He went out of their hand 38
- 8B. And He went away again beyond the Jordan, to the place where John was first baptizing^K. And He was staying^L there 39
- 1C. And many came to Him, and were saying that "John²⁵ did no sign^M— but all that John said about this One was true^N". *And many believed in Him there²⁶ 40
- 11A. Now²⁷ there was a certain one being sick^O— Lazarus²⁸, from Bethany, of the village of Mary and Martha²⁹, her sister. *And it was Mary— the one having anointed^P the Lord with perfume^Q and having wiped His feet with her hair³⁰— whose brother Lazarus was sick 41
- 1B. So the sisters sent out a message to Him, saying, "Lord, look— the one whom You love³¹ is sick" 42
- 2B. And having heard, Jesus said "This sickness^R is not leading to death³², but for the glory of God— in order that the Son of God may be glorified^S through it" 43
- 1C. Now Jesus was loving³³ Martha, and her sister, and Lazarus. *So³⁴ when He heard that he was³⁵ sick, at that time He remained³⁶ for two days in which place He was— *then³⁷ after this, says to the disciples, "Let us be going³⁸ to Judea again" 44
- 1D. The disciples say to Him, "Rabbi^T, the Jews were just-now seeking^U to stone³⁹ You, and You are going there again?" 45
- 2D. Jesus answered, "Are there not twelve hours of the day?⁴⁰ If one walks during the day, he does not stumble^V, because he sees the light of this world.⁴¹ *But⁴² if one walks during the night, he stumbles, because the light is not in him" 46
- 2C. He said these things, and after this⁴³ He says to them, "Our friend Lazarus has fallen-asleep^W, but I am going in order that I may awaken⁴⁴ him" 47

1. Same word as in v 3.
2. Or, this may be punctuated "My sheep hear My voice, and I know them". 1D. "And they follow Me, and I give them eternal life". 2D. "And they will never perish, ever, and someone will not snatch them out of My hand".
3. Or, "take away by force, seize". No thief, robber, or wolf will get these sheep, because none is able to do so, v 29. Same word as in v 12. On this word, see 2 Cor 12:2.
4. Or, "That which". Jesus may be abstractly referring to His "authority over all flesh to give eternal life" (17:2), with grammar similar to "it had been given" in 19:11. Others think "what My Father has given to Me" is the same concept as in 17:24, and as "all that" He gave Him in 6:37, 39; 17:2; that is, the flock viewed as an abstract whole. In this case, this sentence is the beginning of point 2E., and the next sentence would say "able to snatch it". The gift that the Father gave Christ (the flock) is of greater importance than any and all who would oppose. The Father will not permit this gift to be diminished in any way. Some manuscripts say "My Father who has given them to Me is greater than all. And no one is able to snatch them..." {D}.
5. Some manuscripts say "My" {N}.
6. In all the views noted above, the point Jesus is making is that both the Father who gives the flock, and the Son who holds them and gives them eternal life, ensure the eternal safety of the entire flock.
7. That is, one in will and action, thus making Jesus God, v 33, 36. His previous claims (5:17-18, 8:58) leave no doubt about what He is claiming here—a oneness of will and action which He shares with the Father because He is God's Son (v 36), and therefore shares the essence or substance of His Father. The Jews react accordingly, v 33.
8. The last time was in 8:59.
9. The Jews had to bring the stones from a distance to Solomon's portico (v 23) for this purpose. On this word, see Mt 8:17. Not the same word as in 8:59.
10. That is, as signs to be studied to determine their significance.
11. Or, "commendable, praiseworthy". On this word, see 1 Tim 5:10a.
12. Some manuscripts say "My" {N}.
13. That is, which of the works from My Father. Jesus is emphasizing the source.
14. Some manuscripts add "saying" {N}.
15. Compare 5:18. In claiming to be "one" with God (v 30), Jesus is claiming to be God's Son (v 36), to be one in essence and will.
16. This is a participle, "Is it not having been written", does it not stand written? On this, see 2:17.
17. Jesus is quoting Ps 82:6, where the psalmist calls the judges of Israel gods (in authority over the people), because they carried out divine justice.
18. That is, God, the ultimate author of Scripture. Or, "it", Scripture. Or, "he", the psalmist.
19. That is, its authority cannot be annulled. Same word as in Mt 5:19
20. Or, "consecrated". On this word, see "sanctify" in Heb 10:29. The Father set Jesus apart for His own purposes.
21. Jesus is doing something greater than those in the psalm did, so may He not use the term of Himself? It is an argument from the lesser to the greater. He is not limiting the meaning of "Son of God" to what "gods" meant in their case. He is saying that everything that "gods" meant in their case—and more—is true in His case. Therefore may He not properly use the term of Himself? He is establishing the minimum justification for using this term in a way that even these unbelievers cannot get around without "breaking" the force of the Scripture they claimed to follow.
22. Or, "acknowledging". The words "come-to-know" and "be understanding" are the same word, repeated with a change in tense. On this word, see "know" in Lk 1:34. Instead of "be understanding", some manuscripts say "believe" {B}.
23. Some manuscripts say "and I in Him" {N}.
24. Or, "Therefore". Some manuscripts omit this word {C}.
25. The grammar closely links the two halves of this sentence.
26. As in the allegory, God's sheep were going out of the fold (Judea) to their Shepherd.
27. This occurs at some point between Jesus leaving the Festival of Dedication in December (10:22, 40) and Passover being near in April (11:55), probably closer to the latter.
28. This is the seventh miracle John records: the water to wine, 2:1-11; healing the royal one's son, 4:46-54; healing the lame man, 5:1-9; feeding the 5000, 6:5-13; walking on water, 6:16-21; healing the blind man, 9:1-7.
29. Another incident with these two is recorded in Lk 10:38-42.
30. This well-known incident is described in 12:3-8. John mentions it here to clarify which Mary he means.
31. That is, have affection for, or a family or friend kind of love. Same word as in v 36. On this word, see "affectionately-love" in 21:15.
32. That is, death will not be the final result. Same idiom as "leading to death" in 1 Jn 5:16.
33. That is, Jesus was committing Himself to this family in love. On this word, see "devotedly-love" in 21:15. No distinction may be intended in using these two words.
34. Or, "Therefore". Because Jesus loved them, therefore He remained two days.
35. More literally, "is", as the Greek typically phrases it.
36. John uses grammar that closely links the two halves of this sentence.
37. Or, "next, later". Used only here by John. On this word, see "after that" in 1 Cor 15:23.
38. Or, "be leading forth, be on our way". Same word as in v 15, 16; 14:31; Mk 1:38.
39. The disciples are referring back to 10:31.
40. The grammar indicates a "yes" answer is expected.
41. In other words, Jesus is not going to stumble in going back to Judea, because He is walking in the light of the day God has given Him.
42. The physical reference of this is clear. "The light is not in him" may mean "the sun does not provide illumination into his eyes", but may also have a metaphorical meaning. Jesus may be referring here to the Jews. They are the ones stumbling, because they have no spiritual light in them. Compare 12:35. Others think He is referring to death, after which we no longer have the light of this world in us.
43. This may imply that some time passed, during which the disciples failed to respond. Jesus changes from "Let us go" in v 7 to "I am going" (see Mt 28:19 on this word) here.
44. Or, "rouse out of sleep". Used only here. GK 2030. Related to "awaken" in Act 16:27. There are two different words groups used for "sleep" in v 11-13. Both are used of physical sleep and as a euphemism for death.

A. 1 Cor 1:18 B. Jn 4:14 C. 1 Tim 6:4 D. Mt 4:4, mankind E. Rev 13:13, does F. Jn 12:49, say G. Mk 3:14, send out H. 1 Tim 6:1 J. Jn 11:57 K. Mk 1:8 L. Jn 15:4, abide M. 2 Thes 2:9 N. Jn 6:55 O. 2 Tim 4:20 P. Jam 5:14 Q. Mt 26:7 R. Mt 8:17, weakness S. Rom 8:30 T. Mt 23:7 U. Phil 2:21 V. Rom 14:21 W. 1 Thes 4:13

- 1D. So the disciples said to Him,¹ “Lord, if he has fallen asleep, he will be restored²” 12
- 2D. Now Jesus had spoken concerning his death, but those ones thought that He was³ speaking concerning the sleep⁴ of slumber⁵. *So at-that-time⁶ Jesus said to them with plainness^A, “Lazarus died. *And I am glad^B for your sakes that I was not there⁷, so that you may believe. But let us be going to him” 13 14 15
- 3D. Then Thomas, the one being called Didymus⁸, said to his fellow-disciples, “Let us indeed be going, so that we may die with Him⁹” 16
- 3B. So having come, Jesus found him already having¹⁰ four days in the tomb 17
- 1C. Now Bethany was near Jerusalem, about fifteen stades¹¹ away. *And many of the Jews¹² had come to Martha and Mary,¹³ in order that they might console^C them concerning their brother. *So Martha, when she heard that Jesus was¹⁴ coming, met Him. But Mary was sitting in the house 18-19 20
- 1D. Then Martha said to Jesus, “Lord, if You had been here, my brother would not have died. But¹⁵ even now I know that whatever You ask God, God will give You” 21 22
- 2D. Jesus says to her, “Your brother will rise-up” 23
- 3D. Martha says to Him, “I know that he will rise-up¹⁶ in the resurrection^D at the last day” 24
- 4D. Jesus said to her, “I am the resurrection and the life^E. The one believing^F in Me— even though he dies,¹⁷ he will live. *And everyone living and believing in Me will never die,¹⁸ ever. Do you believe this?” 25 26
- 5D. She says to Him, “Yes, Lord. I have believed¹⁹ that You are the Christ, the Son of God, the One coming into the world” 27
- 2C. And having said this, she went away²⁰ and called Mary her sister secretly²¹, having said, “The Teacher is here and is calling you” 28
- 1D. And that one, when she heard, arose²² quickly^G and was going to Him 29
- 1E. Now Jesus had not yet come into the village, but was still²³ in the place where Martha met Him. *So the Jews— the ones being with her in the house and consoling^C her— having seen that Mary stood up quickly and went out, followed her, having supposed²⁴ that she was²⁵ going to the tomb^H in order that she might weep^I there 30 31
- 2D. Then Mary— when she came where Jesus was, having seen Him— fell at His feet, saying to Him, “Lord, if You had been here, my brother would not have died” 32
- 3C. Then Jesus— when He saw her weeping²⁶, and the Jews having come with her weeping— was deeply-moved²⁷ in His spirit, and troubled²⁸ Himself²⁹ 33
- 1D. And He said, “Where have you laid him?” 34
- 2D. They say to Him, “Lord, come and see” 35
- 3D. Jesus wept³⁰ 35
- 4D. So the Jews were saying, “Look— how He was loving^K him!” 36
- 5D. And³¹ some of them said, “Was not this One— the One having opened the eyes of the blind one— able³² to cause^L that this one also³³ should not die?” 37
- 4B. Then Jesus, again being deeply-moved³⁴ in Himself, comes to the tomb. Now it was a cave^M, and a stone was lying upon³⁵ it 38
- 1C. Jesus says, “Take away the stone” 39

1. Some manuscripts say "So His disciples said, 'Lord...' {N}.
2. That is, Lazarus will heal from his sickness. Let him sleep, he will get better. On this word, see Jam 5:15.
3. More literally, "is", as the Greek typically phrases it.
4. Used only here. GK 3122. Related to "fallen asleep" in v 11 and 12. The disciples thought Jesus meant "asleep", not "dead".
5. This could be rendered "the rest of sleep", or "the sleeping of sleep" (but the words are not related). Elsewhere only as "sleep" in Mt 1:24; Lk 9:32; Act 20:9; Rom 13:11. GK 5678. Related to "awaken" in v 11, and to "fell-asleep" in Lk 8:23.
6. Or, "then", meaning "next". Same word as in v 6 (its only other use in this chapter) and as "then" in 10:22.
7. Had Jesus been there, He would have healed Lazarus. Now, He will raise him, that the disciples might believe.
8. The name "Thomas" is a Greek rendering of the Aramaic word for "twin". "Didymus" is the Greek word meaning "twin". On Thomas, see Lk 6:15. He is called Didymus also in 20:24; 21:2. GK 1441.
9. Some think Thomas means "him", Lazarus.
10. On the idiom of "having" time, see 5:5.
11. On this measure, see Rev 14:20. Here, it amounts to 1.7 miles or 2.8 kilometers.
12. That is, many of the Jews in Jerusalem and Bethany. Same phrase as in v 45.
13. Some manuscripts say "had come to the women around Martha and Mary, in order..." {N}.
14. More literally, "is", as the Greek typically phrases it.
15. Some think these are words of hope. Martha's faith is based on the statement in v 4, sent back to her. She struggles to hold on to this hope in what follows. Others think they are words of confidence in Jesus, in spite of the fact that He was too late. Some manuscripts omit this word {C}, so that it says "And now" or "Even now".
16. The word "will rise up" could be taken in two ways. Some think Martha is expressing the least assuming view of what Jesus said, taking His statement as the normal words of comfort believers receive in such circumstances. If Jesus means more, He will say more. Others think she in no way understood or expected His statement to mean that He would raise Lazarus immediately. On this word, see Lk 18:33.
17. That is, physically.
18. That is, spiritually, eternally. Our real life, which is in Jesus, will never end.
19. Some manuscripts say "I believe" {K}.
20. Apparently, Jesus sent her to get Mary.
21. Or, "called Mary her sister, having said secretly". On this word, see Mt 1:19.
22. Some manuscripts say "arises" {N}.
23. Some manuscripts omit this word {N}.
24. On this word, see "thinking" in Lk 19:11. Instead of "having supposed", some manuscripts say "saying" {B}.
25. More literally, "is", as the Greek typically phrases it.
26. Same word as v 31; 16:20; Mk 5:38; 14:72; Lk 6:21; Act 9:39; Rom 12:15; Phil 3:18. Used of Jesus in Lk 19:41. Used 40 times. GK 3081. Related word in Mt 8:12.
27. Same word as in v 38. This word is used of expressing something with intense emotion, whether indignation (as in "sternly scold", Mk 14:5), or serious purpose (as in "sternly command", Mt 9:30; Mk 1:43), its only other uses. GK 1839. It was used of horses "snorting" in anger. As seen in its usage, the word itself does not define the emotion, or the form of expression. These come from the context. Here, some think John means the emotion was not expressed. It was "in His spirit", "in Himself" (v 38), but seen on His face. Others think it was audibly expressed, and render this "He groaned". As to the emotion itself, anger and indignation are often associated with this word, and some see anger against the triumph of death over His friends here. Others think the context here points to genuine sorrow and sympathy flowing from His love for them and leading to tears in v 35. There are other views. Consult the commentaries on v 33-35.
28. Or, "stirred up, unsettled". Same word as in Jn 12:27 and 13:21, but it is not passive here. Used only here with reference to what someone does to himself. John does not say that Jesus "was troubled" by the outward circumstances, but that His response came from within Himself. In other words, it was a chosen response, not a reaction. Some think Jesus "stirred Himself" in sympathy for them out of His love for this family, culminating in tears, v 35. John says it this way because knowing what He was about to do, He would not "react" to the circumstances, He would "choose" His expression of love and sympathy for them. Others think John means Jesus agitated Himself over His anger and indignation at death and their misplaced grief over it. On this word, see "disturbed" in Gal 1:7. There are other views.
29. Note that this comes in response to the weeping. This occurs again when Jesus arrives at the tomb in v 38.
30. Or, "shed tears, cried". Not the same word as in v 33. Used only here. GK 1233. Related to "tears" in Heb 5:7, where Jesus prayed with tears regarding His own death (see Act 20:19 on "tears"). John seems to mean Jesus wept on the way to the tomb, arriving there in v 38. Some think that even though Jesus knew what He was going to do (v 11), and was glad for the disciples (v 15), He genuinely shared in the human emotions associated with the death of a loved one. He shared this moment and the bereaved perspective with Martha and Mary, knowing what the next moment would bring. Take note that Jesus continues to share both perspectives every time one of His children dies—the grief of those left behind, the joy of the one with Him. Others think the tears were from sorrow over their misconception of death. There are other views.
31. Or, "But". GK 1254.
32. The grammar indicates a "yes" answer is expected. Yes, Jesus was able—if He had only been here, Lazarus would not have died, v 21. Thus, this may be friends making a sincere comment like that of Martha and Mary. Or, this may be spoken in mockery by ones not His friends, perhaps the ones in v 46.
33. That is, that this one also, like the blind man, should have been healed, and therefore not die.
34. On this word, see v 33.
35. Or, "against, over". That is, upon the entrance. GK 2093.

- 1D. Martha, the sister of the one having come-to-an-end¹, says to Him, “Lord, he already stinks, for it is the fourth-day”

- 5B. Therefore many of the Jews— the ones having come to Mary,⁸ and having seen the things which⁹ He did— believed^G in Him 45
- 6B. But some of them¹⁰ went to the Pharisees and told them the things which Jesus did. *So the chief 46-47 priests and the Pharisees gathered together *a council*¹¹
- 1C. And they were saying, “What are we doing? Because this man is doing many signs^H. *If we tolerate¹² Him in this manner, everyone will believe in Him, and the Romans will come and take away both our place¹³ and nation^I” 48
- 2C. But a certain one of them, Caiaphas^K, being the high priest of that year, said to them, “You do not know anything— *nor do you consider¹⁴ that it is better for you¹⁵ that one Man die for the people, and the whole nation not perish^L” 49
- 1D. Now he did not say this from himself¹⁶, but being the high priest of that year, he prophesied¹⁷ that Jesus was going to die for the nation 50
- 1E. And not for the nation only,¹⁸ but in order that He might also gather together into one the children^M of God having been scattered^N [in the world] 51
- 3C. Therefore from that day, they planned¹⁹ to²⁰ kill^O Him 52
- 4C. Therefore Jesus was no longer walking in public²¹ among the Jews, but went away from there to the region^P near the wilderness^Q, to a city being called Ephraim. And He stayed²² there with the disciples 53
- 12A. Now the Passover²³ [Feast] of the Jews was near 54
- 1B. And many went up to Jerusalem from the country²⁴ before the Passover [Feast], in order that they might purify²⁵ themselves
- 1C. So they were seeking^R Jesus, and saying, standing with one another in the temple, “What seems^S right to you— that He will by no means come to the Feast?”²⁶ 55
- 2C. And²⁷ the chief priests and the Pharisees had given commands²⁸ that if anyone came-to-know where He was²⁹, he should disclose^T it— so that they might seize³⁰ Him 56

1. That is, having died. This is a euphemism for death. On this word, see Mk 9:48.
2. Martha's faith wavers, and Jesus reminds her of His promise. The grammar indicates a "yes" answer is expected.
3. Some manuscripts add "where the one having died was lying" {N}.
4. Note the tense. This may mean that Jesus raised Lazarus already, without a spoken word. Lazarus only awaits the command to come out. Note 12:17. There is no command to rise, as in Mk 5:41 or Lk 7:14. For the benefit of the crowd, He now gives thanks for what has already happened, in order to explicitly link this to the Father who sent Him. Or, Jesus may raise him with the command to come out. In any case, Jesus is now thanking the Father for giving Him this work, 5:20.
5. Some manuscripts say "And the" {N}.
6. Or, "swathings, wrappings, strips of cloth". Used only here. GK 3024.
7. Same word as in 20:7, of Jesus. Elsewhere only as "handkerchief" in Lk 19:20; Act 19:12. GK 5051.

9. Some manuscripts have this singular, "having seen what He did" {N}.
10. Some think John means "some" in distinction from the "many" just mentioned (v 45). If so, their motive may be a personal rejection and hostility toward Jesus, or, an uncertainty about what this might mean. Others think he means some of the ones having believed (v 45), who may have gone to present this evidence on behalf of Jesus.
11. Or, "the Sanhedrin". Some think John means a meeting of the entire seventy-member Jewish governing body, presided over by the high priest; others, an informal meeting of part of this council. This is the only place John uses this word. On this word, see "council [chamber]" in Act 5:27.
12. Or, "if we let Him go on". Same word as in Rev 2:20.
13. Some think these leaders mean this in the sense of "our position as leaders", as in Act 1:25; others, "our holy place", Jerusalem and its temple, as in Act 21:28. Note that they are assuming that Jesus is not the Messiah, for the Messiah would not allow the Romans to take away anything. Jesus is simply a zealous teacher doing many signs, and leading the ignorant masses into a confrontation with Rome. It is up to these leaders to protect the nation from Him! On this word, see Eph 4:27.
14. Or, "calculate, take into account". On this word, see Rom 3:28.
15. Some manuscripts say "us" {B}.
16. On "from himself", see 5:19.
17. That is, the high priest spoke a revelation from God, without knowing it. On this word, see 1 Cor 14:1.
18. As Caiaphas prophesied. Next John gives another reason why Jesus was going to die, extending the remark of Caiaphas to those outside of the nation of Israel—to the "other sheep" Jesus mentioned in 10:16.
19. Or, "took counsel, deliberated". Or, both here and in 12:10, "they resolved to kill Him". Same word as in 12:10; 2 Cor 1:17. Elsewhere only as "deliberate" in Lk 14:31; Act 27:39. GK 1086. Related to "counsel" in Eph 1:11.

- 1C. So they⁵ made a dinner⁶ for Him there. And Martha was serving⁷. And Lazarus was one of the ones reclining-back [to eat] with Him 2
- 2C.⁸ Then Mary, having taken a pound⁹ of very-valuable^B genuine^C nard^D perfume^E, anointed^F the feet of Jesus, and wiped His feet with her hair.¹⁰ And the house was filled^G from the aroma^H of the perfume 3
- 1D. But Judas the Iscariot¹¹— one of His disciples, the one going to hand Him over— says, “For what reason was this perfume not sold for three-hundred denari¹² and given to poor^I ones?”* 4-5
- 1E. Now he said this, not because he was concerned¹³ about the poor, but because he was a thief^K. And having the money-box¹⁴, he was carrying¹⁵ the things being put there 6
- 2D. So Jesus said, “Leave¹⁶ her alone” 7
- 1E. “It was in order that¹⁷ she might keep^L it for the day of My preparation-for-burial^M 2E. “For you¹⁸ always have the poor with you,¹⁹ but you do not always have Me” 8

- 1C. And they were shouting^R, “Hosanna^S! Blessed³¹ is the One coming in the name of the Lord, even³² the King of Israel”. And Jesus, having found a young-donkey³³, sat on it, just as it has been written³⁴ [in Zech 9:9], “Do not be fearing, daughter of Zion³⁵. Behold— your King is coming, sitting on a colt of a donkey” 14 15
- 1D. His disciples did not understand^N these things at first. But when Jesus was glorified³⁶, then they remembered that these things had been written³⁷ for³⁸ Him, and that they did these things to Him 16
- 2C. Then the crowd³⁹ was testifying^T— the one being with Him when⁴⁰ He called Lazarus out of the tomb and raised^A him from the dead 17
- 1D. For this reason also⁴¹ the crowd⁴² met⁴³ Him— because they heard that He had⁴⁴ done this sign 18
- 3C. Then the Pharisees said to themselves, “You see⁴⁵ that you are profiting nothing⁴⁶! Look— the world⁴⁷ went after Him!” 19
- 4B. Now some of the ones going up in order that they might worship^U at the Feast were Greeks⁴⁸. *So these ones came to Philip— the one from Bethsaida of Galilee— and were asking him, saying, “Sir, we wish to see Jesus” 20-21
- 1C. Philip comes and tells Andrew. Andrew⁴⁹ and Philip come, and they tell Jesus 22

1. That is, because the Passover was near (11:55), and Jesus' hour was at hand. Or, "Then".
2. If John means six days before the slaughter of the Passover lambs (see Mk 14:12), then this may mean Friday. Some think Jesus arrived Friday from Jericho (Lk 19:5), enjoyed this dinner with Lazarus Friday or Saturday night (as we call it), and entered Jerusalem Sunday morning. There are other views.
3. Some manuscripts say "the one having died, whom Jesus raised..." {A}.
4. Some manuscripts say "He" {N}.
5. This is undefined. Some think it means "people in Bethany".

14. Elsewhere only in 13:29. GK 1186.
15. Or, "pilfering". This word means "carry away, remove" (as in 20:15), and with the dishonest sense of it coming from the context, "steal, pilfer". Judas was a thief, he carried the money box for the group, and he pilfered from it. On this word, see Mt 8:17.
16. This command is singular here, aimed at Judas. It is plural in Mk 14:6.
17. Or, "[She had it] in order that...", meaning that this is the purpose for which Mary kept it up to now. In this rendering, it is assumed she poured it all out, and that she had kept it for this moment. The grammar is like 13:18; 14:31; etc. Others render it "Leave her alone in order that...". In this view, it is assumed that Mary did not pour it all out after she broke the neck of the alabaster jar (Mk 14:3), and that she is to keep the remainder of it until after the death of Jesus. Some manuscripts say "She has kept it for the day..." {N}, which fits either view.
18. This "you" is plural, addressed to them all.
19. That opportunity will always exist, but this one will never occur again.

23. Same word as in 11:53.

26. This is a different "large crowd", defined next by John as the people of 11:55-56. The "Feast crowd".
27. How did the crowd hear? Probably from the Lazarus crowd of v 9, who heard it the night before.
28. More literally, "is", as the Greek typically phrases it.

35. This is a transliterated Hebrew word referring to Jerusalem, its inhabitants, or the people of Israel whose capital is Jerusalem. Elsewhere only in Mt 21:5; Rom 9:33; 11:26; Heb 12:22; 1 Pet 2:6; Rev 14:1. GK 4994.

40. Some manuscripts say "that" {B}, so that it says "Then the crowd being with Him was testifying that...".
41. Some manuscripts omit this word {C}. John explains that the Feast crowd also came out because they had heard about the sign. The Lazarus crowd had spread the word and the Feast crowd wanted to see both Jesus and Lazarus. The Lazarus crowd is now testifying to them as they proceed—Yes, we saw it. This is what He did.
42. That is, the Feast crowd of v 12.

this hour'? But for this reason¹⁴ I came to this hour! *Father, glorify^A Your name!" 21
- 4D. Then a voice came from heaven— "I both glorified it, and will again glorify it"
- 5D. Then the crowd— the one standing there and having heard— was saying that thunder^K 21

this Son of Man?"²³

- 1C. In order that the word of Isaiah the prophet might be fulfilled^V which he spoke [in Isa 53:1], 31
"Lord, who believed^U our report^W? And to whom was the arm of the Lord revealed^X?"
- 1D. For this reason³² they were not able to believe^U— because again Isaiah said [in Isa 6:10], 31
"He has blinded their eyes, and He hardened³³ their heart³⁴" 40
- 1E. "In order that they might not³⁵ see^Y with their eyes, and comprehend³⁶ in their heart, 40

14. Because of the very aspect of this hour now troubling Jesus— His impending death— He came to earth.
15. More literally, "has", as the Greek typically phrases it.

3. Or, "rather". This word means "more, rather, instead". Used 81 times. GK 3437.
4. John does not state when or where Jesus said this. He chooses to close the public ministry of Jesus with this clearly stated message, rather than with his own summary of His reception in v 37-43.
5. Some manuscripts say "believe" {N}. On this word, see 12:25.
6. This was also said in 3:17. When He comes back, He will judge.
7. Or, "refusing, setting aside". On this word, see "set aside" in Gal 2:21.
8. Note that this is the reason for both points above, the positive in v 44 and the negative in v 48.
9. On "out of Myself", see "from Himself" in 5:19. Jesus uses a different preposition here than in all the others listed there, but the idea is the same. His words did not originate out of His own heart or mind.
10. Used 2353 times as "to say, call, mean, claim, tell". GK 3306.
11. Used 296 times as "to speak, state, tell". GK 3281.
12. That is, because Jesus knows they are the words of eternal life, He has accurately delivered them, 17:8.
13. There are chronological issues associated with this verse, on which compare 13:29; 18:28; 19:14, 31. Some think these verses indicate that the meal here in chapters 13-16 was not the Passover meal, but a meal "before the Feast of Passover". Others think that the meal here was the Passover. Compare Mk 14:12. This is the Greek order of phrases in v 1. Consult the commentaries.
14. When before the Passover? Some think John means "the evening before" it; others, that it is an indefinite reference to the past time Jesus spent with the disciples; others, that he means "immediately before" the Passover meal taking place in v 2.
15. What occurred before the Passover? Some think John means "Jesus knowing before the Feast that His hour came"; others, "Jesus having loved them before the Feast"; others, that Jesus "loved them to the uttermost at this meal before the Passover meal".
16. Some think John means "although He knew... He loved them", Jesus nevertheless focused on the disciples, not on Himself. Others think he means "because He knew... He loved them", He gave them His final gift of love in what follows. Greek grammar permits either view.
17. More literally, "came in order that He might pass". See 16:32.
18. Some think John means "although He loved them" all along, Jesus loved them now to the uttermost. Others, "because He loved them" so deeply, He now gave them His final gift of love. Greek grammar permits either view.
19. How did He love them? Some think John is referring to the foot-washing that follows, linking v 1-2. Not linking v 1 to v 2, others think he is referring to all of chapters 13-17; others, chapters 13-19, including His death.
20. Or, "to the uttermost". Some think John means "to the end of His life"; others, "to the uttermost, to the extreme of His love, fully, decisively", in a final and perfect display of love. On the phrase "to the end", see "to the uttermost" in 1 Thes 2:16.
21. Parallel account at Mt 26:20; Mk 14:17; Lk 22:14.
22. Or, "supper". On this word, see Lk 14:12. It is used of the Lord's "Supper" in 1 Cor 11:20. John does not mention the Lord's Supper at all. Where it best fits in between verse 1 and 31 is debated. See Lk 22:1.
23. Or, "coming about". John may mean that "during the eating of the dinner", Jesus rose; or, that "while dinner was coming", He rose. The dinner appears to still be in progress in v 26. If after reclining to eat, while the dinner was coming about, but before the eating actually began in v 12, Jesus rises from the dinner and washes the disciples' feet, then one view linking v 1 to v 2 (see the notes on v 1) could mean "before the Passover meal began, He loved them to the uttermost by humbling Himself to wash their feet". Some manuscripts have this word in a different tense, meaning "having come about" or "having taken place" {B}, the latter of which is rendered "being ended" in the KJV. GK 1181.
24. Some think John means the devil had put it into his own heart that Judas will betray Jesus. Others, that the devil put it into the heart of Judas to betray Him. Note v 27. Some manuscripts say, "having already put into the heart of Judas, son of Simon Iscariot, that he should..." {C}.
25. See 6:71 on him. Compare Lk 22:3.
26. Some manuscripts include this word {N}.
27. Some think John means "although He knew" this is who He was, Jesus rose and washed their feet; others, "because He knew". Greek grammar permits either view.
28. In spite of knowing all about Judas, and having all power to stop him, Jesus rises and washes his feet!
29. Jesus dressed as a slave would, then served the disciples as a slave would. He took the place of a nameless slave.
30. Related to "wash" next. Used only here. GK 3781.
31. This is a participle, which "was having been tied around". Elsewhere only in v 4; 21:7. GK 1346. The root word is "gird" in Act 12:8.
32. The foot-washing symbolizes Christ's humble service to believers, cleansing them from sin (see v 10). The voluntary self-humiliation of this act symbolizes His greater voluntary humiliation on the cross. Jesus makes the humble service aspect of this an example for His disciples to follow in v 12-17, but the pinnacle of His humble service comes later. Thus this act becomes partially understood when He explains it in v 12, but not fully understood until after His death.
33. Or, "share". This is because Jesus has in mind the spiritual meaning of His act. If He does not perform His humble service for Peter, cleansing him from sin, Peter does not belong to Christ. On this word, see Rom 11:25.
34. On this word, see "washed" in 2 Pet 2:22. Not related to "wash" next.
35. Same word as in v 5, 6, 8, 12, 14. On this word, see Mk 7:3.
36. In v 7 and 8b, this act symbolizes something about Jesus, the giver. In v 10 Jesus brings out its symbolism for believers, the recipients. When He washes them in v 5-8, He symbolizes His own humiliation on the cross in order to cleanse us from sin. Here, washing only the feet communicates that they are clean, but still need His cleansing as they walk through life, symbolizing the cleansing of believers' sins as they grow in holiness, as John speaks of in 1 Jn 1:9. Some manuscripts say "has no need except to wash the feet only"; others, "has no need other-than to wash the feet"; others, "has no need to wash-himself" {B}. Some, accepting the last variant, think the foot-washing symbolizes the bath referred to here, salvation. No further washing is needed.
37. Or, "completely, wholly". Same word as in 9:34. Because such a person had bathed, he is clean, except his feet. It is the difference between the washing (bath) of salvation (Tit 3:5), and the daily cleansing from sin (1 Jn 1:9). Since Jesus is washing believers here (except the one), they have "no need" for the former. GK 3910.
38. This word is plural, referring to the eleven, not just Peter.

A. Rev 1:5 B. Jn 21:15, devotedly love C. Mt 8:29 D. Mt 7:1 E. Lk 19:10 F. Jn 1:12 G. Mk 12:28 H. Jn 5:24 J. Rev 2:22, throw K. Mk 7:3 L. Jn 4:14 M. Tit 3:14 N. Tit 1:15 O. Mt 26:21, hand over

1. Some manuscripts omit this word {C}.
2. Or, "know". Same word as in v 7, on which see "know" in Lk 1:34.
3. What Jesus has done is this—the Master has served His slaves, giving them an example to follow, v 15.
4. Or, "the Teacher", "the Lord". On "Lord", see "master" in Mt 8:2.
5. Some manuscripts say "have given" {N}.
6. Same word as in Heb 4:11; Jam 5:10; 2 Pet 2:6. Elsewhere only as "copy" in Heb 8:5; 9:23. GK 5682.
7. Some think Jesus is referring to the thing He asks the disciples if they understand in v 12—His example of humility and service. Others think that He is referring to actual foot washing, instituting a church ordinance to be followed. "Wash" in this section is the same word as in 1 Tim 5:10, where it is a good work attesting widows. See Mk 7:3 on it.
8. If it is not below the Master's dignity, it is not below His slaves' dignity. On this word, see Mt 5:18.
9. Or, "apostle, sent one", but not related to the verb that follows. Used only here in John. On this word, see "apostle" in 1 Cor 12:28.
10. That is, that you ought to serve others as I served you, because a slave is not greater than the master.
11. Or, "happy, fortunate", from God's point of view. On this word, see Lk 6:20.
12. Or, "about, concerning". As in v 10, Jesus refers to Judas. Those who are not "clean" (saved) will not be blessed by doing these things. The blessing is only for believers who conduct themselves this way. GK 4309.
13. Jesus chose all twelve to be apostles, and knows them all. On this word, see 1 Cor 1:27.
14. The fact that there is one among them to whom these words do not apply (a false one among His chosen twelve, 6:70) is not an accident, but is in order that the Scripture regarding the betrayer might be fulfilled.
15. Some manuscripts say "eating bread with Me" {C}.
16. Some manuscripts say "has lifted up" {N}.
17. Or, "Henceforth". Same phrase as in 14:7, on which see Mt 26:64.
18. Literally, "ahead of the taking place", before it happens. Jesus is explaining why He is now speaking repeatedly about this matter. He tells them in v 10 and 18, and explicitly in v 21, 26. He continues to speak explicitly about future matters in chapters 13-16. Note 14:29 and 16:4, where He makes a similar statement. GK 1181.
19. On "I am the One", see 8:58. Only God knows the future.
20. This is the converse of v 16. The disciples are not greater than Jesus, and must humble themselves like He has, v 16-17. But as His representatives, sent by Him, receiving them will be equivalent to receiving Jesus and the Father. Thus they have a certain greatness because they are sent by Jesus, but they must conduct themselves as servants, like Him.
21. Parallel account at Mt 26:21; Mk 14:18; Lk 22:21.
22. Same word as in 11:33.
23. This word is added because Jesus is testifying in advance (v 19) to His future betrayal. On this word, see 1:7.
24. Some manuscripts say "Then the..." {N}.
25. Or, "being uncertain, being at a loss". On this word, see 2 Cor 4:8.
26. More literally, "is", as the Greek typically phrases it.
27. Some manuscripts say "Now one..." {N}.
28. John is thought by most to be referring to himself, as he does again in 19:26; 21:7, 20, and, using a different word for "love", 20:2. This is the writer of the book, 21:20, 24.
29. Or, "gestures". Elsewhere only in Act 24:10. GK 3748.
30. Some manuscripts instead say "nods to this one, and says to him, "Tell me who it is about whom He is speaking" {N}. In this case, Peter either assumes John knows, or he means "find out who Jesus means and tell me".
31. Some manuscripts omit this word {N}. One can imagine John's ear being right below Jesus' mouth. Perhaps they all sat up in v 22, and now John leans back again. Same word as in 4:6.
32. Or, "breast". Elsewhere only in Lk 18:13; 23:48; Jn 21:20; Rev 15:6. GK 5111.
33. Elsewhere only in v 27, 30. GK 6040.
34. Some manuscripts say "It is that one to whom I will give the piece of bread, having dipped it" {C}.
35. Some manuscripts omit "takes and" {C}.
36. Some manuscripts say "to Judas Iscariot, son of Simon" {N}. See 6:71 on him.
37. Compare 13:2; 6:70-71; Lk 22:3.
38. Or, "sooner, faster". That is, sooner than Judas had intended. This command enables Judas to leave immediately and carry out his plot. The comparative form of the word found here is elsewhere only as "faster" in Jn 20:4; "sooner" in Heb 13:19; and "quicker" in Heb 13:23. It may be rendered "quickly", dropping the comparative aspect. On this word, see "quickly" in Gal 1:6.
39. Some manuscripts omit this word {C}.
40. Some think the disciples understood that Jesus had now identified Judas as the one, but did not understand that Jesus was sending him out to betray Him at that moment. Had they understood this, perhaps they would have tried to prevent it. Thus "none" includes John. Others think they still did not understand that Judas was the one (except for John), and so did not understand the meaning of this command (including John).
41. More literally, "is", as the Greek typically phrases it.
42. Or, "Festival". Elsewhere only of the eight-day Passover/Unleavened Bread Feast, Mt 26:5; 27:15; Mk 14:2; 15:6; Lk 2:41, 42; 22:1; Jn 2:23; 4:45; 6:4; 11:56; 12:12, 20; 13:1; the eight-day Feast of Tabernacles, Jn 7:2, 8, 10, 11, 14, 37; an unnamed Feast in Jn 5:1; and in Col 2:16. GK 2038. Some think the disciples mean the Passover meal on the next day, taking this to mean that the meal they were now eating was not Passover, but a meal "before" it, 13:1. Others think they mean things for the events or meals on the next day of the Feast, after the Passover meal which they were then eating. Others think they mean additional things for the Passover meal they were then eating. See 13:1; 18:28. Consult the commentaries.
43. It was customary to give to the poor on Passover night. The temple opened at midnight.
44. On when Judas left in relation to the Lord's Supper, see Lk 22:21.

- 1C. "Now the Son of Man was glorified,¹ and God was glorified in Him. *If God was glorified in Him,² God will also glorify³ Him in Himself— and will glorify Him immediately^A 32
- 2C. "Little-children⁴, I am with you a little longer. You will seek^B Me, and just as I told the Jews that where I am going, you are not able to come, I also tell you now⁵ 33
- 1D. "I am giving you a new⁶ commandment⁷— that you be loving^C one another; just as I loved you, that you also be loving one another. *By this everyone will know that you are disciples to Me⁸— if you are having love in-the-case-of⁹ one another" 34-35
- 3C. Simon Peter says to Him, "Lord, where are You going?"¹⁰ 36
- 1D. Jesus answered him¹¹, "Where I am going, you are not able to follow Me now. But you will follow¹² later" 37
- 2D. Peter says to Him, "Lord, for what reason am I not able to follow You right-now¹³? I will lay-down my life^D for You" 37
- 3D.¹⁴ Jesus responds¹⁵, "Will you lay-down your life for Me? Truly^E, truly, I say to you, a rooster will by no means crow until which time you deny^F Me three-times! 38
- 4C. "Do not let your¹⁶ heart be troubled¹⁷. Be believing¹⁸ in God. Be believing also¹⁹ in Me 14:1
- 1D. "There are many places-to-stay²⁰ in the house^G of My Father— otherwise²¹, I would have told you 2

- 5D. "And you know^K the way where I²⁵ am going"²⁶ 4
- 6D. Thomas says to Him, "Lord, we do not know^K where You are going. How²⁷ are we able to know^K the way?" 5
- 7D. Jesus says to him, "I am the way,²⁸ and the truth, and the life.²⁹ No one comes to the Father except through Me.³⁰ *If you³¹ have known^L Me, you will know³² My Father also. And³³ from now on,³⁴ you know^L Him, and you have seen^M Him" 6
- 8D. Philip says to Him, "Lord, show^N us the Father, and it is enough³⁵ for us" 8
- 1E. Jesus says to him, "Am I with you³⁶ all for so long a time, and you have not known³⁷ Me, Philip?— 9
- 1F. "The one having seen^M Me has seen^M the Father. How³⁸ is it you say, 'Show us the Father'? 9
- 2F. "Do you not believe that I am in the Father, and the Father is in Me?"³⁹ 10
- 2E. "I am not speaking the words which I am saying to you⁴⁰ from Myself,⁴¹ but⁴² the Father abiding^O in Me is doing His works⁴³ 10
- 1F. "Be believing Me⁴⁴— that I am in the Father and the Father is in Me 11
- 2F. "Otherwise, be believing⁴⁵ because of the works themselves 11

1. Some think Jesus means that now, in sending out Judas as He did, He was glorified by not holding on to His life, but setting in motion His own death. In one sense, His life has come to an end now that Judas has left to betray Him. He has entered His "hour". His death is contained in this seed. Others think He is referring to His coming death as if it were past.
2. Some manuscripts omit "If God was glorified in Him" {C}.
3. Some think Jesus means that since God was glorified in this act of Jesus, God will also glorify Jesus in His death, which is coming immediately, the next day. Others think that since God was glorified in His death (looking at the future event as if it were past), He will glorify Him in His resurrection.
4. This word is used only by John, and only here in John. On this word, see 1 Jn 2:1.
5. Or, "at this moment". He said it to the Jews in 7:33-34; 8:21. On this word, see Rev 12:10.
6. The commandment was old (Lev 19:18), but the example and motive was new, "as I loved you". In addition, it was never given as that which defined the community of believers. It is family love, proceeding from the family love believers have received from God. On this word, see Heb 8:13.
7. This is the first thing Jesus says to the disciples in view of His leaving, because this will be of first importance for them while they remain on earth. He returns to this later.
8. On this phrase, see 15:8.
9. Or, "among", as in Rom 15:5. Or, "in the sphere of, in connection with". GK 1877.
10. Peter is not prepared to hear v 34 until he understands v 33.
11. Some manuscripts omit this word {C}. Each "you" in this verse is singular. Jesus is answering Peter himself.
12. Some manuscripts add "Me" {N}.
13. Or, "at this moment". Jesus used this word in v 33 ("now"), not in v 36 (which is GK 3814).
14. Compare Lk 22:31; Mt 26:30; Mk 14:26.
15. Some manuscripts add "to him" {N}.
16. Both "your" and "be believing" are plural. Jesus turns from Peter, and speaks to the whole group, answering the question in v 36.
17. That is, about Jesus going away. The grammar implies, "stop letting" or "do not be letting your heart be troubled". Jesus now begins to comfort the disciples regarding His leaving them. His comfort may be summarized as "You will be with Me some day where I am going", v 1-11; "It will be good for you that I go", v 12-17; "I will come to you where you are and reveal Myself to you", v 18-26; "I leave you my peace now", v 27-31. There are other views of the flow of thought of this chapter. Consult the commentaries. On this word, see "disturb" in Gal 1:7.
18. Or, "You are believing in God. Be believing also in Me". In both places, "believe" may be a command or a statement.
19. Or, "And be believing in Me". Next, Jesus explains where He is going.
20. Or, "dwellings, abodes, rooms, homes". Related to the verb "to stay, abide". Elsewhere only in v 23. GK 3665.
21. Literally, "But if [this were] not [the case]". This idiom is elsewhere only in Mk 2:21, 22; Jn 14:11; Rev 2:5, 16, and in the related "otherwise indeed" in 2 Cor 11:16.
22. Or, "Because". Be believing in Me... because I am going to My Father's house to prepare for you. Or, this may be answering the unexpressed question "Why are You leaving?". Or, "that", with this as a question, "otherwise would I have told you that I am going to prepare a place for you?" Some manuscripts omit this word {B}. GK 4022.
23. Or, "again". Some think Jesus is referring to the Second Coming, the counterpart of His going. On this word, see "again" in Mk 15:13.
24. Or, "receive". Same word as in Mt 1:20.
25. In some manuscripts, the word emphasizing this word is omitted, meaning it would not be bolded {C}.
26. Some manuscripts say "And you know where I am going, and you know the way" {B}.
27. Some manuscripts add a word meaning "and, indeed" {N}, so that it says "How indeed...", or, "And how...".
28. From this, Christianity came to be called "the Way" (see Act 9:2). Jesus does not merely show the way, He is the way.
29. Jesus is the way, the path, the means to our heavenly abodes in the Father's house where He is, and to the Father Himself. He is the embodiment of absolute truth, straight from the Father, regarding all these matters. He is the source and fountain of the true eternal life which we will fully experience when we are with Him there.
30. Or, "by means of Me". Thus, Jesus says He is the way, and that there is no other way.
31. Each "you" in this verse is plural. Jesus continues addressing all the disciples.
32. This is a promise. The grammar means "Assuming that [or, since] you have known Me, you will also know My Father". The disciples will know the Father when Jesus takes them where He is going. Yet in another sense, they now know the Father and have seen Him—in Jesus. Some manuscripts have this as a rebuke, "If you had known Me, you would have known My Father also" {C}.
33. Some manuscripts omit this word {N}.
34. Same phrase as in 13:19. From the "expounding" (1:18) that Jesus has done, which enters its most significant phase on this night, the disciples do truly know the Father through Jesus, and have seen Him in Jesus. And they will know Him when Jesus receives them to Himself.
35. John's other use of this word is also by Philip, 6:7. On this word, see "sufficient" in 2 Cor 12:9.
36. This "you" is plural, to reflect which, "all" is added. The next three are singular, answering Philip himself.
37. Or, "come to know". Same word as three times in v 7. On this word, see Lk 1:34.
38. Some manuscripts add the word "And, indeed", as in v 5 {N}.
39. The grammar expects a "yes" answer. Yes, Philip believes.
40. This is plural. Both verbs "believe" are plural. Jesus turns from Philip to address His answer to all the disciples.
41. The Father is speaking through Jesus, so these words have His authority. Jesus says this again in v 24. On "from Myself", see "from Himself" in 5:19. Compare 8:28; 12:49.
42. Or, "... Myself. And the Father...".
43. The words of Jesus are among the works the Father is doing in Him. Some manuscripts say "in Me, He is doing the works" {N}.
44. That is, His words which are not from Himself. Or, believe His works, which the Father is doing in Him.
45. Some manuscripts add "Me" {B}.

- 5C. "Truly¹, truly, I say to you— the one believing in Me, that one also will do the works^A which I am doing.² And he will do greater³ works than these, because I am going to the⁴ Father 12
- 1D. "And⁵ whatever thing⁶ you ask^B in My name, this I will⁷ do, in order that the Father may be glorified^C in the Son. *If you ask Me⁸ anything in My name, I will do it 13
- 2D. "If you love⁹ Me, you will keep⁹ My commandments¹⁰. *And¹¹ I will request¹² the Father, 15-16

1. Continuing to comfort the disciples, Jesus turns from what His going means with regard to them being with Him again where He is going, to what His going to the Father will mean to them while they remain behind.
2. That is, works granted by the Father.
3. That is, works producing greater (more extensive) results than the works Jesus did. The conversion of 3000 on Pentecost (Act 2:41) is an example. The disciples also did great miracles in Acts, but these were not in themselves greater than His miracles. But they were greater in the spiritual results produced.
4. Some manuscripts say "My" {K}.
5. Some think the connection is "And toward the doing of these greater works, whatever you ask..."; others, that believers will do greater works "because I am going to the Father, and whatever you ask, I will do..."; others see this as a separate promise alongside that of v 12.
6. On "whatever thing", see Col 3:17.
7. The works "I am doing" on earth (v 12) will be replaced by the works "I will do" after I go to the Father. Jesus will be working through His people, producing greater works.
8. Some manuscripts omit this word {B}.
9. Or, "shall keep", a command. Some manuscripts say "... Me, keep My commandments" {C}. Note 15:10.
10. That is, love one another, 13:34; believe God, believe Me, 14:1, 11.
11. This is another thing Jesus will do to help believers when He goes to the Father, as part of a reciprocal relationship with them. He will ask the Father to give them the Spirit of truth to help them. Since it is a reciprocal relationship, He states both sides of it, as also in v 21, 23—both how we will express our love to Him (v 15), and He to us (v 16).
12. Or, "ask", but not the same word as "ask" in v 13, 14. On this word, see "pray" in 17:9.
13. Or, "Comforter, Counselor, Advocate", one called alongside to help. Some transliterate this Greek word as "Paraclete". Same word as in 14:26; 15:26; 16:7. "Another" implies that Jesus is also a Helper. John uses this word of Him in 1 Jn 2:1 ("Advocate"), its only other use, GK 4156. Jesus advocates for us to God; the Spirit gives us help from the Father and the Son. The Spirit will help us to do, v 12; to ask, v 13; and to know the truth, v 17. Related to "exhort" in Rom 12:8; and "encouragement" in Act 4:36.
14. More literally, "in order that He may be". GK 2671.
15. Some manuscripts say "abide" {N}, as in v 17.
16. Or, "in your midst". Not the same word as in v 17. GK 3552.
17. That is, the Spirit who communicates truth from Jesus, 16:13-14; 15:26.
18. Some manuscripts say "But you..." {N}.
19. Or, "will abide". On this word, see 15:4.
20. Or, "beside, among". GK 4123.
21. Some manuscripts say "and is" {C}.
22. Or, "within". GK 1877. Thus three different prepositions are used of the Spirit in v 16-17.
23. Now Jesus turns from what the disciples will do and the help He will give them when He goes to the Father, to what He personally will do for them where they are. He is going to come and reveal Himself to them only, not to the world.
24. Jesus will not abandon the disciples, leave them permanently alone, or go away never to return.
25. Or, "I will come". Literally, "I am coming", the future sense coming from the preceding sentence.
26. Some think Jesus means He will visibly come to the disciples after His resurrection, the word "see" being used in the same sense in both halves of v 19; others, that He Himself will spiritually come to them; others, that He will come to them in and through the Spirit, this being a further explanation of v 16-17. Compare v 21, 23; and 16:16-23.
27. That is, tomorrow (Friday) for the world, and Sunday or Pentecost for the disciples (see the views noted above).
28. The world will not see Jesus physically. The disciples will see Him physically or spiritually (see the views noted above).
29. Or, "the world will no longer see Me, but You will see Me". Literally, the world "is no longer seeing", the disciples "are seeing". The present tense verbs are given a future sense by "a little while longer". Note that "going to" is in v 22.
30. That is, the disciples will share in the life of Jesus. His life results in theirs.
31. Some think Jesus means Sunday, when the disciples physically see Him alive again, they will know. Others think they will know on the day of seeing Him spiritually in the coming of the Spirit promised in v 16-17, Pentecost.
32. Jesus broadens His promise from "you", to all who love Him, as seen in their obedience to Him; that is, to all who are in a reciprocal relationship of love with Him. As in v 15-16, the promise is only for those in this reciprocal relationship, both sides of which Jesus again links together.
33. Or, "make known, make clear, make visible". In this broader promise, Jesus is certainly referring to a spiritual presence, not a physical one. Historically, both were true of the apostles. Some think Jesus means He personally will reveal Himself and dwell in His followers (Eph 3:17); others, that this occurs through the coming Spirit (15:26). Same word as in v 22, John's only other use. GK 1872.
34. On this word, see 6:71. On this Judas, see Lk 6:16.
35. Or, "Lord, and what has happened...". Some manuscripts omit this word {C}. Others say "Lord, why is it that You are going..." {N}.
36. Judas asks this question because the disciples expected the Messiah-King to reveal Himself publicly to the world, and establish His kingdom on earth. What has caused You to change and reveal Yourself only to us who love You?
37. As the plural pronouns ("you") in v 24-26 indicate, the answer is addressed to all the disciples, through Judas.
38. What has happened is that in God's plan, "the world did not know Him", 1:10. Jesus will reveal Himself only to those who do, who love and obey Him. He and the Father will come and dwell with them, revealing themselves to them.
39. That is, the Father and the Son will come to live with such disciples, lodge with them. This is similar to "come in and have dinner with him", Rev 3:20. Some think this means the Father (1 Jn 4:12, 16), the Son (Eph 3:17), and the Spirit (v 17), will dwell in them; others, that this dwelling takes place in and through the Spirit. Same word as v 1. Note the reciprocal relationship again.
40. And for this reason, I will not reveal Myself to such a one. Jesus is explaining the opposite case.

2E. "And the word which you¹ are hearing is not Mine, but the Father's having sent Me

5D. "I have spoken these² things to you while staying³ with you. *But the Helper⁴— the Holy Spirit, Whom the Father will send in My name— that One will teach you all things, and remind⁵ you of everything which I⁶ said to you⁷ 25-26

7C. "I leave^A you peace.⁸ I give you My peace. I do not give to you as the world gives.⁹ Do not let your heart be troubled¹⁰, nor let it be afraid¹¹ 27

1D. "You heard that I said to you, 'I am going, and I am coming to you'.¹² If you were loving Me,¹³ you would have rejoiced⁸ that¹⁴ I am going to the Father, because the¹⁵ Father is greater than Me¹⁶ 28

2D. "And now I have told you before it takes place,¹⁷ in order that when it takes place, you may believe 29

3D. "I will no longer speak many things with you, for the ruler^C of the¹⁸ world is coming. And he does not have anything in Me¹⁹, *but *it is taking place*²⁰ in order that the world may know²¹ that I love²² the Father, and that just as the Father commanded^D Me, so I am doing²³ 30-31

4B. "Arise, let us be going from here²⁴

1C. "I am the true²⁵ grapevine, and My Father is the farmer²⁶. *Every branch in Me not bearing^E fruit²⁷— He takes it away. And every branch bearing^E fruit— He cleans²⁸ it in order that it may bear^E more fruit 15:1-2

1D. "You are already clean²⁹, because of the word^F which I have spoken to you 3

2D. "Abide³⁰ in Me, and I in you³¹ 4

1E. "Just as the branch is not able to bear^E fruit from itself unless it is abiding³² in the grapevine, so neither are you able unless you are abiding in Me

3D. "I am the grapevine, you are the branches 5

1E. "The one abiding³³ in Me and I in him— this one bears^E much fruit.³⁴ Because apart from Me, you can do nothing

1. If the "you" is taken as referring to the apostles Jesus is speaking to, then this means that what He is saying to them now comes straight from the Father and has His authority, as in v 10-11. What you apostles are hearing about Our revealing Ourselves (v 23) is the Father's plan. If the "you" is taken as an impersonal reference to "people", then this completes the previous thought. The one not loving Me does not keep My words, and the word which "people" hear from Me is My Father's, so such a one is rejecting both Me and My Father. For this reason, We will not reveal Ourselves to him.
2. As with the previous point (v 12-17), Jesus ends by linking the disciples to the Spirit whom the Father will give to them to help them. Others make this point 7C., beginning His conclusion.
3. Or, "remaining, abiding". On this word, see "abiding" in 15:4. Related to the "place to stay" in v 23, which by contrast the Father and the Son "will make".
4. On this word, see v 16.
5. The disciples cannot absorb more now. The Spirit will guide them later. The grammar of "remind you of everything" is like 2 Tim 2:14, where this same word is used. Same word as in Lk 22:61; Tit 3:1; 2 Pet 1:12; Jude 5. Elsewhere only as "call to mind" in 3 Jn 10. GK 5703. Related to "reminder" in 2 Tim 1:5.
6. In some manuscripts, the word emphasizing this word is omitted, meaning it would not be bolded [C].
7. This is primarily true for the apostles. It is secondarily true for the following generations who did not directly hear Jesus speak, but hear Him spiritually and through the apostles' written word. We too have the Anointing, 1 Jn 2:27.
8. Now Jesus turns from viewing the future in light of His going away (14:1-26), back to the present, and gives His personal farewell and comfort to them.
9. That is, a false, transient peace; peace promised but never realized; peace dependent on circumstances.
10. Same word as in v 1.
11. Or, "fearful, cowardly, timid". It refers to being afraid to act, rather than to being afraid of the circumstances. Used only here. GK 1262. Related to "afraid" in Mk 4:40; and "fearlessness" in 2 Tim 1:7.
12. Jesus said He was going in 13:33; 14:2; and coming in 14:3, 18.
13. That is, if you were able to express your love to Me right now, instead of worrying about yourselves and being distracted by a multitude of questions, you would be glad for Me.
14. Or, "because". Some manuscripts say "because I said" {N}.
15. Some manuscripts say "My" {N}.
16. If the disciples had fully known this One who emptied Himself and took on the form of a slave and became obedient to the point of death on a cross (Phil 2:7-8), they would have rejoiced that He was going to the Father—because Jesus was returning to the greatness of glory He shares with the Father (17:4-5), having accomplished all that He came to do. The Father is greater than the Incarnate Son, the humbled One. In addition, He is functionally greater than the Son, who always obeys His Father's will. As persons, as to Their essence, They are equal.
17. That is, Jesus has told the disciples of His coming departure, and some of its meaning for Him and them. Literally, "before the taking place". Similar grammar to 13:19, with a different preposition used here.
18. Some manuscripts say "this" {K}.
19. Or, "in My case". GK 1877. Satan has no claim on Jesus, no point under his authority or rule. What Jesus does, He does voluntarily.
20. Note the similar grammar in 13:18; 15:25. "Taking place" is supplied from 13:19.
21. Or, "come to know". On this word, see Lk 1:34.
22. Since Jesus loves the Father perfectly, He obeys Him completely. He perfectly exemplifies what will also be true in our relationship with Him, v 15. Note 15:10. Submission and obedience are at the heart of our relationship.
23. This is the Greek word order. Others think Jesus means "but in order that the world may know that I love the Father— even as the Father commanded Me, thus I am doing", which may be more smoothly rendered "but even as the Father commanded Me, thus I am doing, in order that the world may know that I love the Father". Others connect this with what follows, "But that the world may know that I love the Father, and that just as the Father commanded Me, so I am doing— arise, let us go from here [to meet this ruler and his forces]".
24. Some think this means Jesus and the disciples left the upper room (making this parallel to Mt 26:30; Mk 14:26), and that what follows was spoken along the way, after which they crossed to the garden, Jn 18:1. Others think these words were spoken in the same room, before they actually left in 18:1. In any case, this indicates a breaking point in His words.
25. Jesus is the real, genuine vine which the earthly vine pictures or illustrates. On this word, see 7:28.
26. Or, "vine-grower", but not related to "vine" (GK 306), "vineyard" (GK 308), or "grape" (GK 5091). It is the one who works the earth; here, tends the vines. Related to "farm", the root words mean "earth-worker". Elsewhere only in Mt 21:33-41; Mk 12:1-9; Lk 20:9-16; 2 Tim 2:6; Jam 5:7. GK 1177. The word "vine-keeper" (related to "grapevine") is used only in Lk 13:7.
27. Judas is an example of this from this very night.
28. Instead of using an agricultural word, Jesus uses the word from the human application of this picture. See the next note. This word means "to clean, make clean, to purify". The picture is of moral and spiritual cleaning, purifying, training, pruning. The Father purifies behavior and heart, and renews the mind (Rom 12:2). Used only here. GK 2748.
29. Related to the word in v 2. They could be rendered "prunes" and "pruned", respectively. Same word as in 13:10, "You are clean, but not all". Neither English nor Greek normally speaks of "cleaning" a branch, or "pruning" a person. So most translations render the first "prunes" (with reference to the branch), and the second "clean" (with reference to the apostles). This is correct, but then the intentional play on words is obscured. On this word, see Tit 1:15.
30. Or, "Remain, Stay, Continue". Same word as in 14:10, 17; 15:4, 5, 6, 7, 9, 10; and as "stay" in 14:25, and "remain" in 15:16. Used 118 times, 68 being by John. GK 3531.
31. Some take this to mean "and [I will abide] in you"; others, "[as] I also [abide] in you"; others, "and [let] Me [abide] in you". Compare v 5, 7, where both sides are again mentioned.
32. Some manuscripts say "abides" here and "abide" next {N}, the different grammar emphasizing the fact of it rather than the continuing nature of it.
33. That is, the one having a continual living connection to Jesus, a living reciprocal relationship with Jesus.
34. Fruit includes all the products of a living relationship with the Vine.

- 2E. "If anyone is not abiding¹ in Me— he was thrown² outside³ like the branch⁴, and was dried-up⁵. And they gather them⁵ together, and throw them into the fire. And they are burned^B 6
- 3E. "If you abide⁶ in Me, and My words^C abide in you, ask⁷ whatever you want^D, and it will be done^E for you 7

- 2E. "If I had not done among them the works^X which no other one did, they would not be having sin 24

1. That is, is not in a continuing living connection with Christ, the vine.
2. The grammar ("was thrown") views the branch as thrown out and dried up outside the vineyard, summing up all that this means into a single fact, without reference to the process that led to this state. It emphasizes the fact (his "thrown-out-ness"), not the process (his "being taken and thrown"). Compare "takes away" in v 2, where the emphasis is that the Father is engaged in this process. Here, some think Jesus is speaking vividly from the perspective of the final judgment, "There he is—thrown out and dried up. And the process of gathering and burning is being carried out". Others think He is stating a timeless principle, "he is found to be thrown out and dried up", as is always true with such branches, picturing the future judgment. In any case, He only refers to the final end, skipping all the intermediate details, because this person is not His subject here. His focus is on abiding.
3. That is, outside the vineyard.
4. That is, like the fruitless branch, v 2.
5. That is, all such thrown-out branches.
6. That is, are connected to Me, summing up all that this means into a single fact.
7. Some manuscripts say "you will ask" {N}.
8. Literally, "was glorified". The grammar is stating this as a timeless principle. The Father "is glorified" when disciples are bearing fruit, that is, when such ones are truly His disciples (unlike the branches He takes away, v 2). On this word, see Rom 8:30.
9. Or, "become, prove to be". In these two phrases, Jesus links together the vine metaphor (bearing fruit) and the human reality (being genuine disciples). GK 1181. Some manuscripts have this as a separate phrase in the future tense, "fruit. And you will be disciples to Me" {C}.
10. Jesus uses grammar here and in 13:35 that puts more emphasis on their being "disciples to Me" than "My disciples".
11. Or, "and", so that it says "As the Father loved Me and I loved you, abide in My love".
12. Jesus plainly states the key concept of the vine allegory. Abide in My love by doing as I command.
13. Keeping His commands does not make Jesus love us. His love came first. Keeping them is our loving response (14:15) to His love.
14. Some manuscripts say "abide" {N}.
15. Joy comes in the doing, the keeping the Father's commands, the bearing fruit, the glorifying the Father, the abiding in His love. His joy comes from this. Jesus has spoken all this that we may fully share in this joy by doing the same.
16. In v 12-17, Jesus states in more specific terms the key aspects of what He has said in v 1-11. First, He names the key command referred to in v 10a.
17. This is the height of love Jesus commands us (1 Jn 3:16), and reflects what He was about to do.
18. Next Jesus restates what He said in v 10a in an even more simple and direct way. Doing what He says does not make Him your friend, but is your response as His friends. He chose His disciples as friends first. "If you keep My command to love one another, you are being My friends and abiding in My love".
19. Some manuscripts say "what" (singular), "do what I command"; others, "whatever" I command {N}.
20. Jesus commands us as friends, not slaves. As friends, He has included us in all that He has heard from His Father. Our obedience flows from relationship, from the knowledge of God, not from command alone.
21. Next Jesus makes explicit what He implied in v 9-10, that He first loved them. He initiated the friendship, the love relationship, the fruit-bearing relationship. He initiated the assignment of work and the fruit to come from it. On this word, see 1 Cor 1:27.
22. Just as between Jesus and the Father, our relationship with Jesus involves a fruit-bearing mission.
23. This glorifies the Father, v 8.
24. On this idiom, see Col 3:17.
25. This glorifies the Son (14:13), and is part of an abiding reciprocal relationship (15:7). I chose you to go and bear fruit in a living reciprocal relationship with God, where He answers your prayers.
26. Others make v 17-18 point 2C., v 17 being the contrast leading into v 18.
27. That is, abide in Me, v 4; abide in My love, v 9.
28. Or, "in order that you may". GK 2671.
29. This is the heart of the abiding, fruit-bearing, reciprocal relationship with God. Jesus commands us to abide in Him because loving one another flows from this living relationship, bringing glory to the Father and the Son.
30. The grammar assumes that this will be the case.
31. Or, this may be a command, "Know, be aware, recognize, understand". On this word, see Lk 1:34.
32. Some manuscripts omit this word {N}, so that it says "hated Me first". On "before", see 1:15.
33. Compare Mt 10:24-25.
34. Instead of a command, this may be a question "Do you remember... master?".
35. That is, in 13:16. Here Jesus makes a different application of this proverbial statement.
36. Some think Jesus means "If they persecuted Me (and they did)... If they kept My word (and they did not)". They will respond negatively to you as they did to Me. Others think He means "If they persecuted Me (and some did)... If they kept My word (and some did)". They will respond to you as they did to Me, both negatively and positively.
37. The world will persecute you because of their sin, their ignorance of God, their rejection of Me, not any failure in you. Jesus details the world's sin next. They rejected His words (v 22) and His works (v 24), making them rejecters of the Father, guilty before Him. This rejection will continue in the same ways against the disciples, based on their testimony about Jesus, v 27.
38. That is, the world would not be guilty of this sin of rejecting Jesus, of failing to repent in light of the revelation He brought from the Father. On "have sin", see 1 Jn 1:8.
39. Or, "plea". Now, in light of the revelation Jesus brought in words and works, the world has no valid excuse for their failure to repent from the sin they had before He came. On this word, see "pretense" in Phil 1:18.

- 4D. "I have spoken these things to you in order that you may not be caused-to-fall^D 16:1
- 1E. "They will make you put-out-of-the-synagogue ones^E 2
- 2E. "Indeed⁸, an hour is coming for⁹ everyone having killed^F you to think^G that he is offering^H service¹⁰ to God
- 3E. "And they will do these *things*¹¹ because they did not know the Father nor Me 3
- 4E. "But I have spoken these things to you so that when their¹² hour comes, you may remember^I that I told you of them 4
- 3C. "Now I did not say these¹³ things to you from the beginning, because I was with you. •But now I am going to the One having sent Me 5
- 1D. "And none of you is asking Me, 'Where¹⁴ are You going?', •but grief¹⁵ has filled^A your heart because I have spoken these things to you 6
- 2D. "But I tell you the truth^K— it is better¹⁶ for you that I go away 7
- 1E. "For if I do not go away, the Helper¹⁷ will not come to you
- 2E. "But if I go, I will send Him to you
- 3E. "And having come,¹⁸ that One will convict¹⁹ the world concerning sin, and concerning righteousness, and concerning judgment 8
- 1E. "Concerning sin^L— because²⁰ they are not believing in Me²¹ 9
- 2E. "And concerning righteousness^M— because I am going to the Father and you are no longer *going to see*²² Me²³ 10
- 3E. "And concerning judgment^N— because the ruler^O of this world has been judged²⁴ 11
- 4E. "I²⁵ still have many things to say to you, but you are not able to bear^P them now. But when that One, the Spirit of truth, comes— 12
- 1E. "He will guide^Q you in²⁶ all the truth. For He will not speak from Himself,²⁷ but He will speak whatever He will hear²⁸
- 2E. "And He will declare²⁹ to you the things coming
- 3E. "That One will glorify^R Me,³⁰ because He will take from what is Mine and declare it to you 14
- 1G. "All that the Father has is Mine.³¹ For this reason I said that He takes from what is Mine and will declare it to you³² 15
- 4C. "A little while and you are no-longer³³ *going to see*³⁴ Me. And again a little while, and you will see³⁵ Me³⁶ 16

1. And thus the world does now "have sin" in this matter as a consequence.
2. This hatred was not caused by Jesus, but came from within. On this word, see Gal 2:21.
3. Some manuscripts begin this sentence with a word meaning either "Now", "And", or "But" {N}.
4. On this word, see 14:16. Compare 14:26.
5. Or, "comes out, goes out". Some think Jesus means "goes out eternally", describing the eternal relationship of the Father and the Spirit; others, "is going to go out", the present tense verb getting a future sense from "I will send", referring to Pentecost. On this word, see "coming out" in Rev 1:16.
6. Or, "will testify". Or, this may be a command, "also be testifying". In either case, the present tense verb gets a future sense from the preceding sentence, since it is when the Spirit "will testify" that the disciples' testifying also takes place.
7. That is, the disciples have been with Jesus since the beginning of His ministry. They are His witnesses.
8. Or, "But". A Jewish disciple might think that being put out of the synagogue is the pinnacle of rejection to be faced, but it is not. GK 247.
9. More literally, "in order that everyone having killed you may think...". That is, an hour is coming having as its purpose that this will happen. On this idiom, see 16:32. In the purpose of God, an hour is coming for the disciples of Jesus, just as the hour has come for Jesus, 12:23.
10. Or, "worship", divine service. On this word, see "worship" in Rom 12:1.
11. Some manuscripts add "to you" {N}.
12. Some manuscripts omit this word {B}, so that it says "when the hour comes".
13. That is, 15:18-16:4, about the fact that after Jesus is gone, the disciples will be hated and persecuted in His place by their own people, who will think they are doing a service to God by killing them.
14. In other words, the disciples' grief has overwhelmed their desire to know more about what this going means and will mean. They are not pursuing such questions. Nevertheless, Jesus now goes on to explain some of it, v 8-15. Note that in 13:36 and 14:5, they asked regarding what He told them they could not do— follow Him where He is going.
15. Same word as in Lk 22:45, where Luke says this is what caused the disciples to sleep in the Garden.
16. Or, "profitable, advantageous". On this word, see Mt 18:6.
17. On this word, see 14:16.
18. What follows is what the Helper will do with regard to the world, v 8-11.
19. Or, "expose". The Helper will do this through the testimony of the disciples and the followers of Jesus. He will expose the world's guilt and their need, and call them to respond. Some will respond, others will reject. Compare the same words in 8:46, "convict concerning". On this word, see "expose" in Eph 5:11.
20. Or "that, in that". Same word as in v 10, 11. GK 4022.
21. Some think Jesus means the Helper will convict the world of their sin "because they are not believing in Me", which is the ultimate sin, or which is the classic manifestation of their sinfulness; others, "that they are not believing in Me", defining the sin He has in view. There are other views. Consult the commentaries.
22. Same idiom as in v 16, 14:19. Literally, "are seeing", the future sense coming from the previous phrase.
23. Some think Jesus means the Helper will convict the world that Jesus is personally righteous, not unrighteous as His killers supposed; others, that Jesus is the only source of the righteousness God requires, the answer to their need in v 9; others, of their lack of (or, false) righteousness (which is like filthy rags, Isa 64:6). In any case, the Helper does this "because" Jesus is returning to God, approved and vindicated, by virtue of His resurrection. One who understands why Jesus returned to the Father will also understand what true righteousness is.
24. Some think Jesus means the Helper will convict the world of God's coming judgment upon them "because" Satan has now been judged in His victory; others, of their bad judgment, their spiritual blindness (since they thought they were properly judging Him), "because" Satan has been defeated at the cross, not Jesus.
25. Now Jesus turns to what the Spirit will do with regard to the disciples, v 12-15. He will do then what cannot be done now.
26. Or, "with, in connection with, by means of". GK 1877. Some manuscripts say "into" {B}.
27. Like Jesus, the Spirit will not originate the truth. The truth comes from the Father, through Jesus. On "from Himself", see 5:19.
28. Some manuscripts say "He hears"; others, "He may hear" {N}. Jesus did the same, 12:49; 14:24.
29. Or, "disclose, report, announce, tell, inform". Same word as in v 14, 15; 4:25; Act 19:18; 20:20, 27; Rom 15:21; 1 Pet 1:12; 1 Jn 1:5. Elsewhere only as "report" in Jn 5:15; Act 14:27; 15:4; 2 Cor 7:7. GK 334.
30. The Spirit will do for Jesus what Jesus did for the Father. He will place Him before the world, resulting in conviction (v 8-11), and before believers.
31. Only One equal to God (5:18) could make such a statement. Compare 17:10.
32. In other words, Jesus does not mean "Mine" in v 14 in an exclusive sense. The Father and the Son are one in this matter, and the Spirit will declare the one truth of God to us. Some manuscripts say "will take" {K}.
33. Some manuscripts say "not" {N}, as in v 17.
34. Same word and idiom as in 14:19. Literally, "are no longer seeing Me". Same word as in v 17a, 19a. On this word, see Lk 10:18.
35. This is a different word for "see" than in the first phrase, and occurs also in v 17, 19, 22. On this word, see Lk 2:26. Both words are used in the same senses, so it is difficult to discern a distinction from the words themselves. But the change may be intended to convey two different senses in which the disciples will see Jesus. They will no longer "observe" Him as Jesus, but they will "see" Him after His resurrection as their risen Lord, or spiritually "see" Him after Pentecost. Compare 14:19, where there is no change of word (both being the same as the word in the first phrase here), and the same views of the meaning.
36. Some manuscripts add "because I am going to the Father" {A}, as in v 17.

- 1D. Then some of His disciples said to one another 17
- 1E. “What is this which He is saying to us— ‘A little while, and you are not going to see Me. And again a little while, and you will see Me’
- 2E. “And— ‘Because’ I am going to the Father?”
- 2D. Then they were saying, “What is this which He is saying²— ‘A little while’? We do not know what He is speaking about 18
- 3D. Jesus³ knew that they were wanting^A to question^B Him, and He said to them, “Are you seeking⁴ with one another concerning this, that I said, ‘A little while, and you are not going to see Me. And again a little while, and you will see Me’? 19
- 1E. “Truly^C, truly, I say to you that you will weep^D and lament^E, but the world will rejoice^F. You⁶ will be grieved^F, but your grief^G will become joy⁷ 20
- 1E. “The woman has grief^G when she gives-birth^H, because her hour came. But when she bears^I the child^K, she no longer remembers⁸ the affliction^L because of the joy that a person^M was born^J into the world 21
- 2E. “You then also now⁹ have¹⁰ grief— but I will see you again,¹¹ and your heart will rejoice^E. And no one is going to take away¹² your joy from you 22
- 2E. “And in that day¹³ you will not question¹⁴ Me as to anything¹⁵ 23
- 1E. “Truly, truly, I say to you, if you ask¹⁶ the Father anything¹⁷ in My name, He will give it to you¹⁸
- 2E. “Until now you did not ask anything in My name. Be asking and you will receive, in order that your joy may be full¹⁹ 24
- 3E. “I have spoken these²⁰ things to you in figures-of-speech²¹ 25
- 1E. “An hour²² is coming when I will no longer speak to you in figures-of-speech, but I will tell²³ you about the Father with plainness^N
- 2E. “In that day you will ask in My name. And I am not saying to you that I will request²⁴ the Father on your behalf²⁵ 26
- 1G. “For the Father Himself loves^O you, because you have loved^O Me, and have believed that I came forth from God²⁶ 27
- 4E. “I came forth from the Father,²⁷ and I have come into the world. Again²⁸, I am leaving^P the world and going to the Father” 28
- 4D. His disciples say²⁹, “Look— 29
- 1E. “Now You are speaking with plainness^N, and You are speaking no figure-of-speech
- 2E. “Now we know^Q that You know^Q all things, and You have no need^R that anyone question³⁰ You. By this we believe that You came forth from God” 30
- 5D. Jesus responded to them, “Now³¹ you³² believe! ^{*}Behold, an hour is coming, and has come,³³ for³⁴ you to be scattered³⁵— each to his own *things*³⁶— and leave^P Me alone 31-32
- 1E. “And-yet I am not alone³⁷, because the Father is with Me

1. The disciples are referring to v 10, where these same words are used. Similar words are in 14:12, 28; 16:5.
2. Some manuscripts omit "which He is saying" {C}, so that it says "What is this 'little while'".
3. Some manuscripts say "Then Jesus" {N}.
4. That is, "seeking [to understand], looking-for [My meaning]". On this word, see Phil 2:21.
5. These two words were used of the mourning at funerals. On this word, see Mt 11:17.
6. Some manuscripts say "And you..." {N}.
7. This is an idiom based on a Hebrew way of speaking. Literally, it "will come-to-be for joy".
8. That is, "keeps in mind, thinks of". Used 21 times. GK 3648. Related word in Lk 1:54.
9. Jesus uses grammar that emphasizes the contrast between the two halves of this sentence.
10. Some manuscripts say "will have" {B}.
11. Some think Jesus is referring to His resurrection day; others, to Pentecost.
12. Or, "will take away". Literally, "is taking away". The present tense verb gets its future sense from the previous phrase. "Joy" is related to "rejoice" in the previous sentence. Some manuscripts say "will take away" {B}.
13. That is, in the days of their joy, v 20, 22; after the resurrection of Jesus, and continuing after He ascends and the Spirit comes on Pentecost.
14. That is, ask for information. You will have no need to question Me in order to understand what I have told you. Or, "ask Me anything" in prayer. Same word as in v 19, and as "request" in v 26. On this word, see "praying" in 17:9.
15. The disciples do not ask now from grief, v 6. They will not ask then from joy! Everything will be clear then.
16. Same word as in v 24, 26a. On this word, see "request" in 1 Jn 5:14.
17. Instead of "if you ask the Father anything", some manuscripts say "that whatever you ask the Father" {B}.
18. Some manuscripts say "... anything, He will give it to you in My name" {C}.
19. This is a participle, "having been made full". Same phrase as in 1 Jn 1:4, 2 Jn 12. Same word with different grammar in 3:29; 15:11; 17:13. On this word, see "filled" in Eph 5:18.
20. That is, the things Jesus has told the disciples this night, including v 16.
21. Or, in an enigmatic, indirect, somewhat obscure manner. Same word as in v 29. On this word, see 10:6.
22. Some manuscripts say "But an hour" {N}. It is the same period as "that day" in v 23, 26.
23. Or, "declare, report, announce". Same word as "announce" in 1 Jn 1:2, 3, John's only other uses.
24. Same word as in 14:16, where Jesus does ask the Father for us, and as "question" in v 23.
25. Or, "for you, with regard to you, in relation to you". GK 4309. That is, Jesus will not ask in their place, as an intermediary. He does not mean the disciples will ask Him and He will ask the Father for them. They will have direct access. Jesus does intercede on our behalf (Rom 8:34; Heb 7:25; 1 Jn 2:1), as does the Spirit (Rom 8:26), but our prayers are heard directly by the Father. The Father loves His children, and needs no convincing, no higher authority to intervene, before He will hear them. In other words, "His name" gains us direct access to the Father who loves us.
26. Some manuscripts say "the Father" {C}.
27. Some manuscripts omit this phrase {C}, so that what follows continues on directly from v 27.
28. This is the first word in the Greek sentence. Some think Jesus means "Again [I say], I am...", introducing the second saying. Others think it is placed first for emphasis, "I am leaving... and going again...". On this word, see Mk 15:13.
29. Some manuscripts add "to Him" {N}.
30. Or, "ask You a question". The disciples say this because Jesus has just answered their question of v 17-18 without them asking it. Same word as in v 19, 23.
31. Or, "Right now, at this moment". On this word, see Rev 12:10.
32. Or, "Do you now believe?" The disciples did believe, v 27; 17:8; but did not understand as much as they thought.
33. Similar to "is coming and now is", 4:23, 5:25. Note 17:1. Some manuscripts say "has now come" {N}.
34. More literally, "has come, in order that you may be scattered". The hour having this as its purpose has come. It is in fulfillment of prophecy, Mt 26:31. Same idiom as in 12:23; 13:1; 16:2. GK 2671. Each is referring to a still future part of God's purpose and plan. It is not the same as "an hour is coming when" in 4:21, 23; 5:25; 16:25.
35. Or, "dispersed". Elsewhere only in Mt 12:30; Lk 11:23; Jn 10:12; 2 Cor 9:9. GK 5025.
36. That is, his own pursuits, or, "his own [home]". On this phrase, see 19:27.
37. Same word earlier, and as in 8:29. On this word, see Jam 2:24.

- 5C. "I have spoken these¹ things to you in order that you may have peace^A in Me. You have² affliction^B in the world, but take-courage^C— I have overcome³ the world" 33
- 5B. Jesus spoke these things, and having lifted-up^D His eyes to heaven, said⁴ 17:1
- 1C. "Father, the hour has come⁵—
- 1D. "Glorify^E Your Son, so that the Son may⁶ glorify You—^{*}just as You gave Him authority⁷ over all flesh⁸ in order that as to all that⁹ You have given Him, He may give eternal life to them 2

- 2D. "I glorified You on the earth, having accomplished¹¹ the work which You have given to Me that¹² I should do. ^{*}And now Father, You glorify¹³ Me¹⁴ with Yourself with the glory which I was having with You before the world was¹⁵ 4

- 2D. "And they have kept¹⁸ Your word¹. ^{*}They have now come-to-know that all things that You have given to Me are from You¹⁸— 7
- 1E. "Because I have given them the words¹⁹ which You gave to Me 8
- 2E. "And they received^K them, and truly^L understood²⁰ that I came forth from You, and believed that You sent Me forth
- 3D. "I am praying²¹ for them. I am not praying for the world, but for the ones whom You have given to Me— 9
- 1E. "Because they are Yours—^{*}indeed all My things are Yours;²² and Yours, Mine²³ 10
- 2E. "And I have been glorified^E in them

- 1E. "When I was with them³², I was keeping them in Your name which You have given to Me.³³ And I guarded³⁴ them, and none of them perished^M— 12
- 1E. "Except the son of destruction³⁵, in order that the Scripture^N might be fulfilled³⁶
- 2E. "But now I am coming³⁷ to You³⁸ 13
- 3E. "And I am speaking these³⁹ things in the world⁴⁰ so that they may have My joy⁴¹ made-full⁴² in themselves
- 3C. "I have given them Your word¹, and the world hated^O them— because they are not of the world, just as I am not of the world 14

1. That is, the things on this night.
2. Some manuscripts say "you will have" {N}.
3. Or, "conquered". On this word, see Rev 2:7. 24 of its 28 uses are in John's books. Used only here in the Gospel.
4. Some manuscripts say "and lifted up His eyes to heaven, and said" {N}.
5. On this hour, see 2:4.
6. When the Father glorifies the Son through His death and resurrection, when the Son goes to His Father, the Son will bring further glory to the Father as He continues His works through believers, 14:12-14. Glorify the Son in view of what He still must do. Some manuscripts say "Your Son also may" {B}.
7. Just as the Father gave Jesus authority to give eternal life to His people (His mission in coming to earth), now give Jesus glory that He may glorify the Father. Both sides of this are emphasized again in v 4-5, in reverse order.
8. On "all flesh", see "no flesh" in Mt 24:22.
9. The idiom "all that" is the same as in 6:37, 39. It views all believers as an abstract whole. Compare v 24.
10. Some think this is John's comment. Others think Jesus refers to Himself in the third person. On this word, see "send out" in Mk 3:14.
11. Or, "completed, finished". Jesus views His entire earthly mission, from incarnation to ascension, as complete. Same word as in 4:34; 5:36. Some manuscripts say "earth. I accomplished" {N}.
12. Or, "given Me to do". GK 2671.
13. This is a command.
14. Glorify the Son in view of what He has done, the opposite viewpoint of v 1.
15. That is, the glory of which Jesus emptied Himself to take on the form of a slave, Phil 2:6-7. Literally, "before the being [or, existing] as to the world".
16. Or, "manifested, made known". On this word, see "made evident" in 1 Jn 2:19.
17. That is, the eleven. The twelfth is mentioned in v 12. Compare v 18, 20.
18. That is, that all the words and works of Jesus are from the Father.
19. Or "utterances" (see Rom 10:17 on it). All the "words" of Jesus make up the Father's "word, message" which the disciples have kept.
20. Or, "knew". Same word as "have come to know" in v 7, but different grammar. On this word, see "know" in Lk 1:34.
21. Or, "asking" on behalf of, with reference to; "making a request" concerning, with respect to. The same word is used again in this verse, and in v 15, 20, and as "request" in 14:16; 16:26. These are the only places it is used of Jesus asking the Father. It is used elsewhere of prayer only in 1 Jn 5:16, and perhaps Jn 16:23 ("question"). Elsewhere, this word is used 55 times of asking a question or requesting something from another person. GK 2263.
22. Or, "All that is Mine is Yours". The grammar is emphasizing the totality. In other words, the emphasis is not "Every individual thing that is Mine is Yours" (though this is true), but, "The totality of everything that is Mine is Yours".
23. A human could say the first part in relation to God or another human (as this same idiom is used in Lk 15:31); but only one "equal to God" (5:18) could say the second part in relation to God. Compare 16:15. Only an equal or a superior can say "All that is yours is mine". An inferior can at best say "Most of what is yours is mine".
24. Some manuscripts say "and these are..." {N}.
25. Some think Jesus means "My public ministry is over, and the disciples' work in the world is now upon them, and I am now coming back to You"; others, "I am coming back to You, and their public work is now upon them, and I am now coming to You in prayer with this request".
26. Or, "preserve, protect, keep intact, keep safe, guard". This is the content of Jesus' prayer. His request for the disciples, v 9. Note that He says "I revealed Your name to them (v 6)... keep them in Your name". Same word as in v 12, 15. Note that they "kept" Your word (v 6), so You "keep" them (the same word is used in both places, in different senses). On this word, see 1 Jn 5:18.
27. That is, "in the sphere of". Or, "by, by means of". GK 1877.
28. Some think Jesus means "Keep the disciples in all that Your name means, includes and stands for. Protect and preserve them in their living relationship with You"; others, "Protect them from evil and the evil one by means of Your name, by the power of Your name".
29. This refers to "name". Some manuscripts link it to "them" {B}, "keep in Your name them that You have given to Me".
30. This expresses the purpose of it. Keep them in Your name so that they may be continuing in oneness.
31. On the meaning of this, see v 21, where Jesus more fully states it.
32. Some manuscripts add "in the world" {N}.
33. Same phrase as in v 11. Omitting the following "and", and reading "whom" instead of "which", some manuscripts say "I was keeping in Your name they whom You have given to Me. I guarded them...", which could also be arranged "I was keeping them in Your name. I guarded whom You have given to Me" {B}.
34. Or, "protected", as in 2 Thes 3:3. This is a synonym of "keeping" in v 11, 12, with the similar meanings. On this word, see "keep" in 12:25. Perhaps Jesus means "I was preserving them... and I protected them".
35. On this word, see 2 Pet 2:1. Related to "perish". None perished (or, was lost) except the son of perishing, the one characterized by or belonging to this destiny. His character and actions belong to this destiny. The Antichrist is also called this in 2 Thes 2:3. The eleven were sons of light, sons of righteousness, sons of the kingdom, sons of God, etc.
36. Note 13:18.
37. As in v 11, some think Jesus means "ascending back to You"; others, "coming to You now in prayer".
38. Therefore, Father, do now for them what I was doing for them. Keep them.
39. Some think Jesus means "I am speaking this prayer out loud", as in 11:42; others, "I am speaking all the things I have spoken tonight, including this prayer".
40. This is the Greek word order, and means "I am speaking while still on earth, before I leave". Others render it "I am speaking these things so that in the world they may have", meaning "that they may have My joy in the world where they will remain when I leave". In this case the Greek word order is used to emphasize "in the world".
41. That is, the joy of a holy, fruit-bearing, obedient-to-the-end, relationship with the Father, as in 15:11. It is this joy that the disciples are hearing tonight and in this prayer, and that Jesus desires for them in its fullness.
42. This is a participle, "having been made full" or complete. Same word as in 16:24.

- 1D. "I am not praying^A that You take them out of the world, but that You keep^B them from the evil *one*¹ 15
- 2D. "They are not of the world, just as I am not of the world—^{*}set them apart² in³ the⁴ truth. 16-17
Your word⁵ is truth^C
- 1E. "Just as You sent Me forth^D into the world,⁶ I also sent them forth into the world 18 in truth⁹

- 4C. "And I am not praying^A for these ones only, but also for the ones believing¹⁰ in Me through their word¹¹ 20
- 1D. "That¹² they¹³ may all be¹⁴ one¹⁵— just as¹⁶ You, Father, are in Me and I am in You, that¹⁷ 21

them²⁶ just as You loved Me

1. Or, "from evil". This is the negative statement of what is positively asked in v 11.
2. Or, "sanctify, consecrate". Set the disciples apart from the world to You in the sphere of the truth, or by means of the truth, which is Your word. Some think Jesus means "make them morally holy", in which case this word has a different sense in v 19; others, "set them apart for Your service", for the mission on which I sent them, v 18. On this word, see "sanctify" in Heb 10:29.
3. That is, "in the sphere of". Or, "by, with, by means of". GK 1877.
4. Some manuscripts say "Your" {N}.
5. Note that Jesus says "I have given them Your word (v 14)... set them apart in the truth (Your word)".
6. Compare 10:36, where the Father "set Jesus apart" to His mission and "sent Him forth" into the world, using the same two words as here in v 16-19. On "sent forth", see "send out" in Mk 3:14.
7. That is, Jesus is setting Himself apart to God in His own mission, His work and death for the disciples' sake.
8. This is a participle, be "having been set apart". Jesus sets Himself apart to God in the completing of His mission for the purpose that the disciples may be set apart to God in their mission. Their mission proceeds from His, and from Him.
9. Some think Jesus means "in Your truth"; others, "truly". On this word, see 4:23.
10. Some manuscripts say "the ones who will believe" {N}.
11. That is, through the mission on which Jesus sent them (v 18), the mission centered in His truth and word (v 17). The entire church is viewed as proceeding from the word of these eleven; as built on their foundation, Eph 2:20.
12. Some think Jesus is stating the content of His request, as this word is used in v 15. Others think He is stating the purpose of His prayer for them all, and render this "in order that", as it is used in v 11. In this case, Jesus means that He is not praying "Keep them" and "Set them apart" for the eleven alone, but for all believers, "in order that they may all be one". GK 2671. Consult the commentaries on v 21-23.
13. Some think "they all" means all believers including the eleven (that all believers may be one); others, that Jesus is praying separately for the future believers (that such ones all may be one).
14. Same grammar as in "be one" in v 11, 22; "be in us" in v 21, and "be with Me" in v 24. The grammar implies "be continuously being, be being, be in a state of being" with reference to a state entered in the future (as in v 24), or a state continuing in existence from the present ("keep on being"). If the oneness is dependent on the coming Spirit, then the former is in view here. The word and grammar does not mean "become, get to be". GK 1639.
15. Jesus could mean "one with Us" or "one with each other". Some think He defines this with the following phrase, "that they may be in Us". In this case, He is praying for a spiritual oneness with the Father and Son; a living, fruit-bearing relationship with God; an "abiding in Me and I in You" (15:4), which is the fountainhead of behaviors that result in the world believing. From this oneness, the love of God in us (v 26) flows outward in word and deed. Others think Jesus is praying for a oneness or unity with each other, which is based on our faith in Christ, and results in the world believing. Some holding this view think He is praying for an ethical oneness or likeness shared by His people, a oneness of love (13:34), character, purpose, and action; others, for a living unity of believers, a mystical body or unit of believers standing versus the world, which expresses itself in this ethical behavior.
16. Jesus compares this oneness to Their oneness. It is like Their oneness in some respects, but not equivalent to it. Ours is a oneness based on adoption and grace; Theirs, on essence, on likeness of nature and character.
17. Some think Jesus means "in order that they may be one with Us in a similar way to how we are one with each other". The Father does His works in the Son (14:10), and the Son is in the Father. They are one (10:30), yet distinct. In a similar but not identical way, the Father and Son work in believers (14:12, 15:7), and we are in Them, and one with Them. Others think Jesus means "in order that they may be one with each another in a mystical spiritual oneness that is similar to how we are one with each other". Others view this as a second request, parallel to the first, making it point 2D.
18. Some manuscripts add "one" {B}, so that it says "be one in us".
19. That is, in union with Us, abiding in Us (15:4), having Our life in them. GK 1877.
20. Some think Jesus means this will occur by means of our oneness with God, as we share His Name, His word, and His love; others, by means of our oneness with one another, our compelling unity.
21. Some think Jesus means the glory He made known as the Incarnate Son (v 6, 8, 14, 26); the glory of Your Name, Your word; the glory the disciples saw and heard in Him (1:14; 2:11); the glory revealed in His life and death, the glory of His person, full of grace and truth. We are still being transformed by this glory, 2 Cor 3:18. Others think Jesus is referring ahead to His exalted glory after His ascension, the glory of His exalted Person working through them, 14:13-14. Others think He means the glory of humble service to God, of taking up your cross and serving God; others, the glory of the divine nature indwelling them (2 Pet 1:4), of "I in them", v 23.
22. Thus the oneness is based on the glory Jesus has given to His followers. He gave the glory to bring about the oneness.
23. This is an abbreviated statement of "I in them and them in Me, Me in You and You in Me", defining the oneness.
24. Jesus gave the glory in order that His disciples might be made perfect or complete in the oneness, brought completely into the oneness, a purpose that will be fully reached after this life. Thus He gave the glory both that they "may be being one" (may be in a state of oneness), and that they "may be perfected into one" (may grow to completeness in that state). This means the oneness is a growing thing, growing with faith. Some think Jesus is referring to a growing experience of the Father and Son, a growing relationship to them with all its results; others, to a growing unity among believers. This is a participle, be "having been perfected". On this word, see Heb 2:10.
25. The growing oneness as possessors and proclaimers of the glory Jesus gave will bring about this result. Some manuscripts say "And in order that the world..." {N}.
26. That is, believers, the "them" in v 22.

- 5C. "Father, as to what¹ You have given² to Me, I desire³ that those ones also may be with Me where I am,⁴ in order that they may be seeing My glory⁵ which You have given to Me because You loved Me before the foundation of the world⁶ 24
- 6C. "Righteous Father, indeed the world did not know You— but I knew You 25
- 1D. "And these⁷ ones knew that You sent Me forth
- 2D. "And I made Your name known to them, and will make it known, in order that the love^A with which You loved Me may be in⁸ them, and I may be in them" 26
- 14A.⁹ Having said these things, Jesus went-out¹⁰ with His disciples to the other side of the ravine¹¹ of Kidron where there was a garden^B, into which He entered, He and His disciples 18:1
- 1B.¹² Now Judas, the one handing Him over^C, also knew the place— because Jesus often was gathered there with His disciples. *So Judas— having received¹³ the [Roman] cohort¹⁴, and officers¹⁵ from the chief priests and from the Pharisees— comes there with lanterns¹⁶ and torches^D and weapons^E 2
- 2B. Then Jesus, knowing all the things coming upon Him, went forth 3
- 1C. And He says to them, "Whom are you seeking^F?" 4
- 1D. They answered Him, "Jesus the Nazarene^G" 5
- 2D. He¹⁷ says to them, "I am¹⁸ He"
- 3D. Now Judas,¹⁹ the one handing Him over, was also standing there with them
- 2C. So when He said to them, "I am He", they went back,²⁰ and fell on the ground. *Then He again asked them, "Whom are you seeking?" 6-7
- 1D. And the ones said, "Jesus the Nazarene"
- 2D. Jesus responded, "I told you that I am He. If then you are seeking Me, permit^H these ones to go" 8
- 1E. In order that the word which He spoke²¹ might be fulfilled^I, that "The ones whom You have given Me— I did not lose any of them" 9
- 3C. Then Simon Peter, having a sword^K, drew²² it and hit the slave^L of the high priest, and cut-off^M his right ear^N. And the name for the slave was Malchus 10
- 4C. Then Jesus said to Peter, "Put^O the²³ sword into the sheath. The cup which the²⁴ Father has given Me— shall not I drink it?"²⁵ 11
- 3B.²⁶ Then the [Roman] cohort^P and its commander²⁷, and the officers²⁸ of the Jews, arrested²⁹ Jesus, and bound^Q Him. *And they led³⁰ Him to Annas^R first 12
- 1C. For he was the father-in-law of Caiaphas^S, who was the high priest of that year. *And Caiaphas was the one having counseled³¹ the Jews that it was³² better that one Man die for the people³³ 13
- 2C. Now Simon Peter and another disciple³⁴ were following Jesus 15
- 1D. And that disciple was known^T to the high priest, and he entered with Jesus into the courtyard^U of the high priest.³⁵ *But Peter was standing at the door outside 16
- 2D. So the other disciple— the one known^T by the high priest— went out and spoke to the doorkeeper, and brought in Peter
- 3D. Then the doorkeeper³⁶ servant-girl³⁷ says to Peter, "You are not also one of the disciples of this man, are you?"³⁸ That one says, "I am not" 17

1. That is, the totality of believers, viewed as an abstract whole, as in "all that" in v 2. Compare 10:29. It is made personal and individual by "those ones" in the next phrase. Some manuscripts say, "whom" {B}, which may be arranged as "Father, I desire that those also whom You have given to Me may be...".
2. Jesus refers to the disciples with this word also in v 2, 6, 9, 11.
3. Or, "want, will, wish". On this word, see "willing" in 7:17.
4. Thus Jesus refers back to the point He first made with them, 13:33. Note that all of v 6-23 concerns the disciples while they remain in the world; this concerns them after they leave this world.
5. This is the glory to which Jesus is returning (v 5), His unveiled glory as Jesus the Son of God. Thus there are three kinds or aspects of glory: His glory as the eternal Word with God (1:1; 17:5), His glory on earth as the Incarnate Son (1:14), and His glory as the exalted Son, crowned with glory and honor, sitting at the right hand of God, King of kings, Lord of lords (17:24). The latter two were "given" to Jesus, the Son of God; the first is His eternally, by nature. On the phrase "before the foundation of the world", see 1 Pet 1:20.
6. On the phrase "before the foundation of the world", see 1 Pet 1:20.
7. That is, the eleven.
8. Both here and next, Jesus may mean "within" (as in 14:20), or "among", or both, since one implies the other. GK 1877.
9. Parallel account at Mt 26:36; Mk 14:32; Lk 22:39.
10. In conjunction with one's view of 14:31, this either means "from the upper room" (making this leaving parallel to Mt 26:30; Mk 14:26); or, "from the city".
11. Or, "brook". This word was used of a ravine, and of the stream that flowed through it in the winter. Used only here. GK 5929.
12. Parallel account at Mt 26:47; Mk 14:43; Lk 22:47.
13. Or, "taken". On this word, see "taken" in Rom 7:8.
14. On this word, see Mt 27:27. Same word as in v 12. How many were in this detachment is not stated.
15. Same word as in v 12.
16. Used only here. GK 5749.
17. Some manuscripts say "Jesus" {C}.
18. On this phrase, which is repeated in v 6 and 8, see "I am" in 8:58.
19. Some think Judas kissed Jesus before the question in v 4; others, after v 6 or 9.
20. On the phrase "went back", see 6:66. John does not say how many fell, or what was in their hearts. Some think it was because Judas and the religious leaders in front were stepping back to allow the officers to come forward and seize Him. Others think they were fearful, perhaps fearful Jesus would do some work of power. Others think this was a work of power and glory, emphasizing again that He was voluntarily surrendering.
21. That is, in 17:12. "Lose" here is the same word as "perish" there, the grammar being different. On this word, see "perish" in 1 Cor 1:18.
22. On this word, see 6:44. Mt 26:51, Mk 14:47, and Jn 18:10 each use a different word.
23. Some manuscripts say "your" {K}.
24. Some manuscripts say "My" {N}.
25. The grammar indicates a "yes" answer is expected. Yes, He will drink it.
26. Parallel account at Mt 26:57; Mk 14:53; Lk 22:54.
27. Or, "tribune", the Roman commander of the cohort. On this word, see Act 21:31, where another such commander rescues Paul.
28. That is, the temple police, as also in Mt 26:28; Mk 14:54, 65; Jn 7:32, 45, 46; 18:3, 18, 22; 19:6; Act 5:22, 26. They were Levites. On this word, see "attendants" in 1 Cor 4:1. GK 5677. Their leader is called a "captain", Act 5:26.
29. Or, "seized". Same word as in Lk 22:54.
30. Some manuscripts say "led Him away..." {N}.
31. Same word as in Rev 3:18. Elsewhere only as "plotted" in Mt 26:4; Act 9:23. GK 5205. Related to "consultation" in Mk 15:1; and "counselor" in Rom 11:34.
32. More literally, "is", as the Greek typically phrases it.
33. This advice is recorded in 11:50.
34. Some think this is John himself; others, perhaps a non-apostle. John is the "other disciple" in 20:2-8.
35. Some think this is the courtyard of the palace of Annas, at which Caiaphas also lived. In any case, the scene does not change, for Peter is still standing there warming himself from v 18 to v 25.
36. Elsewhere only in v 16; Mk 13:34; Jn 10:3. GK 2601. Related to "door" in Col 4:3.
37. That is, the person the disciple spoke to in v 16. The doorkeeper was a servant girl. Same word as in Mt 26:69; Mk 14:66, 69; Lk 22:56, and as "female servants" in Lk 12:45; and "slave woman" in Gal 4:22. Used 13 times. GK 4087.
38. The grammar indicates that a "no" answer is expected.

- 4D. And the slaves^A and the officers,¹ having made a charcoal-fire^B because it was cold, were standing there and warming themselves. And Peter was also with them, standing there and warming himself 18
- 3C. So the high priest² questioned^C Jesus about His disciples, and about His teaching^D 19
- 1D. Jesus answered him, “I have spoken³ *in public*⁴ to the world. I always taught at synagogue, and in the temple, where all⁵ the Jews come together. And I spoke nothing in secret^E. *Why are you questioning Me? Question the ones having heard what I spoke to them. Look, these ones know the things which I said” 20
- 2D. And He having said these things, one of the officers standing near gave Jesus a slap⁶, having said, “In this manner do you answer the high priest?” 21
- 1E. Jesus answered him, “If I spoke wrongly, testify about the thing wrong. But if I spoke rightly, why do you beat⁷ Me?” 22
- 4C. Then Annas^F sent Him forth, having been bound^G, to Caiaphas^H the high priest 24
- 5C. And Simon Peter is standing there and warming himself 25
- 1D. So they said to him, “You are not also one of His disciples, are you?”⁸ That one denied^I it and said, “I am not”
- 2D. One of the slaves^A of the high priest— being a relative^K of the one of whom Peter cut-off^L the ear— says, “Did I not see you in the garden^M with Him?”⁹ *Then again Peter denied^J it 26
- 3D. And immediately^N a rooster crowed 27
- 4B.¹⁰ Then they lead Jesus from Caiaphas to the Praetorium¹¹. And it was early-morning¹². And they themselves did not enter into the Praetorium, in order that they might not be defiled¹³, but might eat¹⁴ the Passover¹⁵ [Feast¹⁶] 28
- 1C. So Pilate^O went outside to them 29
- 1D. And he says, “What accusation^P do you bring against this man?”
- 2D. They responded and said to him, “If this One were not doing wrong¹⁷, we would not have handed Him over to you” 30
- 3D. So Pilate said to them, “You take Him, and judge^Q Him according to¹⁸ your Law” 31
- 4D. The¹⁹ Jews said to him, “It is not lawful²⁰ for us to execute^R anyone” 32
- 1E. In order that the word of Jesus might be fulfilled, which He spoke signifying²¹ by what kind of death He was going to die 32
- 2C. So Pilate entered again into the Praetorium, and called Jesus 33
- 1D. And he said to Him, “Are You the King of the Jews?”
- 2D. Jesus answered²², “Are you saying this from yourself,²³ or did others tell you about Me?” 34
- 3D. Pilate answered, “I am not a Jew, am I?”²⁴ Your nation^S and the chief priests handed You over to me. What did You do?” 35
- 4D. Jesus answered, “My kingdom²⁵ is not of this world. If My kingdom were of this world, My servants²⁶ would be fighting^T in order that I might not be handed-over^U to the Jews²⁷. But as-it-is²⁸, My kingdom is not from here” 36
- 5D. Therefore Pilate said to Him, “So-then You are a king?”²⁹ 37

1. That is, the slaves of the high priest, and the officers of the temple (the Levites). The Romans are gone.
2. Some think John means Annas, who is also called high priest in Lk 3:2; Act 4:6 (just as we continue to call ex-officials by their former titles); others, Caiaphas, in an informal meeting in Annas's quarters before the official one in v 24.
3. Some manuscripts say "I spoke" {N}.
4. Or, "with openness". Same word as in 7:4.
5. Some manuscripts say "where the Jews always" {N}.
6. Or, "blow". This word means a blow with a club or rod, or a slap with an open hand. Jesus calls it a "beating" in v 23. Elsewhere only as "slap" in 19:3; Mk 14:65. GK 4825. The related verb is in Mt 5:39.
7. Elsewhere only in Mt 21:35; Mk 12:3, 5; 13:9; Lk 12:47, 48; 20:10, 11; 22:63; Act 5:40; 16:37; 22:19; 1 Cor 9:26; 2 Cor 11:20. GK 1296.
8. The grammar indicates a "no" answer is expected.
9. The grammar indicates a "yes" answer is expected.
10. Parallel account at Mt 27:1, 11; Mk 15:1; Lk 23:1.
11. That is, the Roman palace or fortress, Pilate's residence while in Jerusalem. On this word, see Phil 1:13.
12. Same word as "early in the morning" in Mk 15:1, and related to the word in Mt 27:1. Same word as "early in the morning" in Jn 20:1 where "while still being dark" is added. On this word, see Mk 13:35. John may mean in the hour before or after 6 A.M.
13. On this word, see Tit 1:15. Here it means "made ceremonially unclean". Some think John is referring to a seven-day defilement; others, to a one-day defilement.
14. All the other uses of the phrase "eat the Passover" refer to the final meal Jesus ate with His disciples on the previous night, Mt 26:17; Mk 14:12, 14; Lk 22:8, 11, 15. Note 2 Chron 30:22.
15. Elsewhere only with reference to the Passover [lamb] in Mk 14:12; Lk 22:7; 1 Cor 5:7; the Passover [meal] in Mt 26:17, 18, 19; Mk 14:12, 14, 16; Lk 22:8, 11, 13, 15; Heb 11:28; and the Passover [Feast] in Mt 26:2; Mk 14:1; Lk 2:41; 22:1; Jn 2:13, 23; 6:4; 11:55; 12:1; 13:1; 18:39; 19:14; Act 12:4. The Feast of Unleavened Bread (see Mk 14:12) was also called Passover, Lk 22:1; Act 12:4; Jn 2:23. Three Passovers are explicitly named in John (2:13; 6:4; 11:55), and some think 5:1 refers to a fourth. GK 4247.
16. Or, "[meal]". Some think John means "celebrate the Feast", and is referring to these leaders' continuing participation in the meals of the Passover Feast. Others think he means "eat the Passover meal", indicating they had not yet eaten it. Of those holding this view, some think it implies that the meal in Jn 13:1 was not the Passover meal, but a meal "before" it. Others think the Passover meal may have been eaten by the Jews on two different evenings based on two different calendars, so that both meals were Passover meals. See 13:1, 29; 19:14, 31. Consult the commentaries on these and other views.
17. Or, "causing harm", specifically implying "committing a crime". That is, doing a civil wrong, a criminal wrong. Same word as in Mt 27:23. On this word, see "evil" in 3 Jn 11. Some manuscripts say "was not an evildoer" {B}, using the related word found in 1 Pet 2:12, which also means "criminal".
18. That is, as your Law requires. I give you permission to judge Jesus as you see fit.
19. Some manuscripts say "So the..." {N}, which can also be rendered "Therefore the..."
20. That is, under Roman law. Execution is what Jewish Law would require, but Rome did not permit the Sanhedrin to execute.
21. Same word as in 12:33, where this statement is also found. Since the Romans executed using the cross, when the Jews handed Jesus over to them it sealed the fulfillment of the words of Jesus that He would be lifted up (not stoned).
22. Some manuscripts add "him" {N}.
23. The Jews were charging Jesus with a crime against Rome, with claiming to be a king in a political sense of interest to Pilate. Jesus asks if this is Pilate's meaning, or some other. On "from yourself", see "from Himself" in 5:19.
24. The grammar indicates a "no" answer is expected.
25. Pilate indicates that he is repeating the Jews' accusation, so Jesus affirms that His kingdom is not earthly and political.
26. More literally, "the servants to Me". Same grammar as in "disciples to Me" in 15:8. On this word, see "attendants" in 1 Cor 4:1.
27. That is, the Jewish leaders. See 1:19.
28. Or, "But now". Jesus may mean this in a logical sense, "as it is"; or, in a temporal sense, "at the present time". GK 3814.
29. The grammar indicates that a "yes" answer is expected. Some render this as an exclamation.

- 6D. Jesus answered, “You are saying that¹ I am a king. I have been born^A for this². And I have come into the world for this— that I might testify^B to the truth^C. Everyone being of the truth hears³ My voice”
- 7D. Pilate says to Him, “What is truth?” 38
- 3C. And having said this, he again went out to the Jews
- 1D. And he says to them, “I find no charge⁴ in⁵ Him. ^{*}But it is a custom^D for you that I release^E one prisoner for you at the Passover [Feast]. So do you wish me to release⁶ the King of the Jews for you?” 39
- 2D. Then they⁷ shouted^F back⁸, saying, “Not this One, but Barabbas^G!” 40
- 1E. Now Barabbas was a robber⁹
- 4C. So at that time¹⁰ Pilate¹¹ took Jesus and whipped¹² Him 19-1
- 1D.¹³ And the soldiers^H, having woven a crown^I out of thorns^K, put it on His head. And they clothed Him with a purple garment. ^{*}And they were coming to Him and saying^L, “Hail^L, King of the Jews!” And they were giving Him slaps^M 2-3
- 5C. And¹⁵ Pilate again went outside 4
- 1D. And he says to them, “Look— I am bringing Him outside to you in order that you may know that I find no charge in Him”
- 2D. Then Jesus came outside, wearing the crown made-of-thorns^N and the purple garment 5
- 3D. And he says to them, “Behold, the man!”
- 4D. Then when they saw Him, the chief priests and the officers^O shouted^F, saying, “Crucify^P, crucify¹⁶!” 6
- 5D. Pilate says to them, “You take Him and crucify Him, for I do not find a charge in Him”
- 6D. The Jews¹⁷ responded to him, “We have a law.¹⁸ And according to the¹⁹ law He ought to die, because He made Himself to be God’s Son” 7
- 6C. Then when Pilate heard this statement^Q, he became more afraid. ^{*}And he entered into the Praetorium again 8-9
- 1D. And he says to Jesus, “Where are You from?”
- 2D. But Jesus did not give him an answer
- 3D. So Pilate says to Him, “You do not speak to me? Do You not know that I have authority^R to release^E You, and I have authority to crucify You?”²⁰ 10
- 4D. Jesus answered him²¹, “You would not have any authority against²² Me unless it²³ had been given²⁴ to you from above. For this reason the *one*²⁵ having handed Me over to you has a greater²⁶ sin” 11
- 7C. From this *time*²⁷, Pilate was seeking²⁸ to release^E Him 12
- 1D. But the Jews shouted²⁹ saying, “If you release^E this One, you are not a friend^S of Caesar^T. Everyone making himself the king is speaking-against^U Caesar”
- 8C. Therefore Pilate, having heard these words³⁰, brought Jesus outside, and sat on a judgment-seat^V in a place being called ‘*The Pavement*³¹’ (but in Hebrew, ‘Gabbatha’) 13

1. Some think this idiom means "Yes". Others think that the meaning comes from the context. Here, Jesus means "you are saying [correctly] that I am a king", as He states directly next. Some render this word "because", that is, "you are saying it [correctly], because I am a king". GK 4022. On this phrase, see Mt 27:11.
2. That is, to be a king.
3. That is, listens to and obeys. On this word, see Act 22:9.
4. Or, "guilt, blame, fault, cause, reason, ground of accusation, case". It is used of a "charge, accusation" and the "guilt, blame, reason" underlying it. Same word as in 19:4, 6; as the "charge" posted above Jesus' head in Mt 27:37; Mk 15:26; as the "charge" worthy of death in Act 13:28; and as "reason" in Mt 19:3. Used 20 times. GK 162. Related to "guilt" in Lk 23:4, 14, 22.
5. That is, in His case, in connection with Him. GK 1877. I am finding no guilt or basis of a charge; no case or charge (from the Roman law point of view) in connection with Jesus. From the answer Jesus gave, Pilate clearly sees that He is not a political revolutionary, or a threat to Rome. The case is religious, not political or criminal.
6. This is an idiom, literally, "do you wish that I should release...".
7. Some manuscripts add "all"; others add "all" and omit "back" {N}.
8. Or, "again". This is the first shout. On this word, see "again" in Mk 15:13.
9. Or, "insurrectionist". Compare Mk 15:7; Lk 23:19. On this word, see Mt 21:13.
10. This phrase "So at-that-time" is elsewhere only in 11:14; 19:16; 20:8.
11. Implied in this is a trip back inside the Praetorium.
12. This is not the same word as in Mt 27:26; Mk 15:15. Lk 23:16 uses a third word. Some think all these verses refer to the same beating, making this parallel to Mt 27:27. Others think the one in John and Luke was a milder whipping, and the one in Matthew and Mark was the much more serious flogging or scourging that preceded Roman crucifixions. On this word, see Heb 12:6.
13. Compare Mt 27:27-31; Mk 15:16-20.
14. Some manuscripts omit "And they were coming to Him" {N}, so that it says "And they were saying".
15. Some manuscripts say "Then" {N}.
16. Some manuscripts add "Him" {N}.
17. That is, the Jewish leaders. See 1:19.
18. That is, a law regarding this case in the Law of Moses.
19. Some manuscripts say "our" {N}.
20. The grammar indicates a "yes" answer is expected. Some manuscripts reverse the two questions {N}.
21. Some manuscripts omit this word {C}.
22. Or, "in relation to". Same word as in 18:29. GK 2848.
23. Grammatically, this does not refer to "authority" itself, but to a more abstract concept. Some think Jesus means "unless this situation, this handing over of Me to you"; others, "unless your exercising of authority over Me".
24. This is a participle, unless it "was having been given".
25. That is, Caiaphas, the high priest, the head of the nation.
26. Pilate was acting legally (within his judicial authority), though not morally (from God's viewpoint), in his treatment of Jesus. The high priest and the Sanhedrin who handed Jesus over to Pilate were acting immorally, unfairly, illegally, and in violation of their responsibility as God's priests.
27. Or, "statement". That is, from this point on; or, as a result of this statement. Same phrase as in 6:66.
28. Up to this point, Pilate has been trying to get the Jews to drop their demand for execution. Now he seeks a way to release Jesus unilaterally. But the Jews effectively prevent it. Another trip outside is implied here.
29. On this word, see Act 22:23. Some manuscripts say "were shouting"; others, "were crying out" {N}.
30. Some manuscripts have this singular {K}, so that it says "this statement" as in v 8.
31. Or, "the Mosaic", a place paved with stones. Used only here. GK 3346.

- 1D. Now it was Preparation¹ day of the Passover [Feast²]. The hour was about³ the sixth⁴ 14
- 2D. And he says to the Jews, “Look— your King!”
- 3D. Then those ones shouted^A, “Take Him away, take Him away, crucify Him!” 15
- 4D. Pilate says to them, “Shall I crucify your King?”
- 5D. The chief priests answered, “We do not have a king except Caesar”
- 9C. So at that time he handed Him over to them⁵ in order that He might be crucified 16
- 5B.⁶ “So they took Jesus⁷. * And bearing^B the cross for Himself⁸, He went out to the place being called “The Place of a Skull”^C (which is called in Hebrew, “Golgotha”),* where they crucified^D Him and two others with Him— on this side and on this *side*⁹, and Jesus in the middle^E 17 18
- 1C. And Pilate also wrote a title¹⁰ and put it on the cross^F. And it had been written¹¹, “Jesus the Nazarene^G, the King of the Jews” 19
- 1D. Therefore many of the Jews read this title, because the place where Jesus was crucified was near the city.¹² And it had been written in Hebrew¹³, Latin, Greek¹⁴ 20
- 2D. So the chief priests of the Jews were saying to Pilate, “Do not write, ‘The King of the Jews’, but that that One said, ‘I am King of the Jews’ ” 21
- 3D. Pilate responded, “What I have written, I have written” 22
- 2C. Then the soldiers^H, when they crucified Jesus, took His garments^I and made four parts— a part for each soldier— and the tunic^K. Now the tunic was seamless, woven from the top through the whole. *So they said to one another, “Let us not tear¹⁵ it, but let us cast-lots^L for it to decide whose it will be” 23 24
- 1D. In order that the Scripture [in Ps 22:18] might be fulfilled^M, the one saying,¹⁶ “They divided^N My garments^I among themselves, and they cast^O a lot^P for My clothing”
- 2D. So indeed, the soldiers did these things
- 3C. Now His mother, and the sister¹⁷ of His mother, Mary¹⁸ the wife¹⁹ of Clopas, and Mary the Magdalene^Q, were standing beside the cross of Jesus 25
- 1D. So Jesus, having seen His mother and the disciple whom He was loving²⁰ standing near, says to His mother, “Woman, look— your son!” *Then He says to the disciple, “Look— your mother!” And from that hour the disciple took her into his own *things*²¹ 26 27
- 4C.²² After this, Jesus— knowing that all things have already²³ been finished²⁴, in²⁵ order that the Scripture [in Ps 69:21] might be accomplished²⁶— says, “I am thirsty” 28
- 1D. A jar²⁷ full of sour-wine^R was setting^S there. So having put a sponge full of the sour wine on a hyssop branch,²⁸ they brought it to His mouth
- 2D. Then when He received^T the sour wine, Jesus said, “It has been finished²⁹!” 30
- 3D. And having bowed His head, He gave-over³⁰ His spirit
- 6B. Then the Jews— because it was Preparation³¹ day, in order that the bodies might not remain^U on the cross during the Sabbath (for the day of that Sabbath³² was a great³³ day)— asked Pilate that their legs be broken^V, and they be taken away
- 1C. So the soldiers came and broke the legs of the first one, and of the other one having been crucified-with^W Him 31 32

1. On this word, see v 31.
2. Or, "[meal]". Some think John means "the Friday of the Passover Feast", the preparation day for the Sabbath, as the word is normally used. This would allow the meal of the previous night in 13:1 to have been Passover. Others think he means "the day of preparation for the Passover [meal]" coming that night, a Passover which coincided with the Sabbath that year, v 31, 42. This would mean that the meal in 13:1 was a meal "before" the Passover, and that Jesus died while the Passover lambs were being sacrificed. See 13:1; 19:31; 18:28.
3. Some manuscripts say "[Feast], and about the sixth hour" {N}.
4. Mark 15:25 says Jesus was crucified at the third hour, counted from sunrise, 9 A.M. Mt 27:45, Mk 15:33, and Lk 23:44 say that darkness fell at the sixth hour, noon. Some think John means noon. Others think he uses Roman time, counted from noon, as also in 1:39; 4:6, 52; making this 6 A.M. In other words, around 6 A.M., shortly after the beginning of the day, Jesus was about to be sentenced by Pilate. Others think the times are both correct, being approximate only since people in that day had no precise means of timekeeping. In our terms, the end of the third hour is 9 A.M. The beginning of the sixth hour is 11 A.M. If "about" is allowed to mean "within an hour or two of", then both Mark and John could mean about 10 A.M. Some manuscripts say "third", agreeing with Mk 15:25 {N}.
5. Some think John means to the chief priests last mentioned, that is, to their will; others, to the soldiers who would carry this out.
6. Parallel account at Mt 27:31; Mk 15:20; Lk 23:26.
7. Some manuscripts add "and led Him"; others say "and the ones having taken Jesus led Him away" {B}.
8. Or, "by Himself". Same word as "His own" in Lk 14:27, but different grammar. It was Roman custom to make the condemned carry it to the place of execution. Some manuscripts say "bearing His cross, He went..." {N}.
9. This is an idiom, literally, "from here and from here", John pointing out with the right hand and the left as he stood facing Jesus on the cross. Compare Rev 22:2.
10. Or, "notice, inscription". Elsewhere only in v 20. GK 5518.
11. This is a participle, it "was having been written". Same word as in v 20.
12. Or, "because the place of the city where Jesus was crucified was near", which means the same thing.
13. That is, the language of the Hebrews at that time, which modern linguists call Aramaic. Elsewhere only in 5:2; 19:13, 17; 20:16; Rev 9:11; 16:16. GK 1580. Related to the word in Act 6:1, and in Act 21:40.
14. Some manuscripts say "Hebrew, Greek, Latin" {N}.
15. Or, "split, divide". Same word as in 21:11. On this word, see Mt 27:51.
16. Some manuscripts omit "the one saying" {C}.
17. Some think that the three women mentioned in Mt 27:56 and Mk 15:40 are also mentioned here, with the addition of Mary His mother, making four women here. Under this suggestion, this sister would be the Salome mentioned in Mk 15:40, and the mother of the sons of Zebedee in Mt 27:56, making the apostles James and John (Mt 10:2) the cousins of Jesus. Mary of Clopas here would be the mother of James and Joseph mentioned in Mt 27:56; Mk 15:40. Others do not attempt to link the names, since "many other" women were there also, Mt 27:55; Mk 15:41.
18. Some think there are four women here, punctuating it "His mother and the sister of His mother, Mary the wife of Clopas and Mary the Magdalene", grouping family and friends. Others think three are named, "His mother, and the sister of His mother (Mary the wife of Clopas), and Mary Magdalene", meaning the sisters had the same name.
19. Or, "daughter, sister".
20. See 13:23 on this disciple. It is John himself.
21. That is, into his own interests and pursuits, into his own household, under his care. Same phrase in 1:11; 16:32; Act 21:6. "Own things" is also in Lk 18:28; Jn 8:44; 1 Thes 4:11.
22. Parallel account at Mt 27:45; Mk 15:33; Lk 23:44.
23. Or, "now, by this time". On this word, see Mt 24:32.
24. Same word as in v 30.
25. This may refer to what precedes, "finished in order that... fulfilled, says", instead of what follows.
26. Or, "fulfilled". This word is related to "finished", and is used only here with regard to the Scripture being fulfilled. Same word as in 4:34; 17:4.
27. Some manuscripts say "Therefore a jar..." {N}, which can also be rendered "Now a jar..."
28. Some manuscripts say instead "And the ones, having filled a sponge with sour wine and having put it on a hyssop branch, brought..." {N}.
29. Or, "fulfilled, completed". Same word as in v 28. On this word, see Rev 10:7.
30. Or, "delivered, handed over". It is the same word used of Judas and the priests "handing over" Jesus (see Mt 26:21 on it).
31. That is, Friday, the day before the Sabbath, as seen here and in Mk 15:42; Lk 23:54. Elsewhere only in Mt 27:62; Jn 19:14, 42. GK 4187. It was called such because all preparations for the Sabbath had to be made by sunset, when the Sabbath began and no work was permitted. Some think this Friday afternoon was the afternoon after the Passover meal. Others think it was the afternoon before it. See 13:1; 19:14; Mk 14:12. Consult the commentaries.
32. A similar phrase, "the day of the Sabbath", is in Lk 4:16; 13:14, 16; 14:5; Act 13:14; 16:13.
33. Same word as in 7:37. That is, this Sabbath was a special Sabbath. Some think it coincided with the Passover meal and the first day of the Feast of Unleavened Bread, which was a great day of that Feast (a "holy convocation", Ex 12:16; Lev 23:7). This would mean the Passover lambs were beginning to be sacrificed at the time when Jesus died, and that the Passover meal would be eaten that night, on the Sabbath. Others think it was special because of a sheaf offering made on it (Lev 23:11), or simply because it was the Sabbath that came during this holy Feast week. This would mean the meal of the previous night in 13:1 was the normal Passover meal. See also 18:28; 19:14; Mk 14:12. On this word, see Heb 11:24.

- 2C. But having come to Jesus, when they saw Him already dead¹, they did not break² His legs. *But 33-34
one of the soldiers stabbed³ His side with a spear, and immediately⁴ blood and water came out⁴
- 1D. And the one having seen⁵ it has testified⁶, and his testimony⁷ is true⁸. And that *one*⁶ 35 knows that he is speaking true⁷ things, so that you also may believe⁸
- 1E. For these things took place in order that the Scripture [in Ex 12:46] might be 36 fulfilled, “A bone of His will not be broken”⁹. *And again another Scripture [Zech 37
12:10] says, “They will look at the One Whom they pierced¹⁰”
- 7B.¹¹ Now after these things Joseph from Arimathea^E— being a disciple^F of Jesus, but having been hidden¹² 38
because of the fear^G of the Jews— asked Pilate in order that he might take away the body of Jesus
- 1C. And Pilate permitted^H it come to Him by night— bringing a mixture of myrrh^I and aloes^{I4}, about *a hundred pounds*¹⁵

- 1D. So they took the body of Jesus and bound^K *it in linen-cloths*¹⁶ with the spices^L, as is the 40

- 2D. Now there was *a garden*¹⁷ in the place where He was crucified. And in the garden was a 41

- 2C. And those ones say to her, “Woman, why are you weeping?” 13
- 3C. She says to them, “Because³¹ they took my Lord^{AA}, and I do not know^W where they put Him”
- 4C. Having³² said these things, she turned back³³, and sees Jesus³⁴ standing there. And she did not 14

- 1D. Jesus says to her, “Woman^{BB}, why are you weeping? Whom are you seeking^{CC}?” 15

4. Thus verifying the reality of the physical death of Jesus. On the various symbolic meanings given to this, consult the commentaries. John mentions "blood and water" again in 1 Jn 5:6, 8.
5. John seems to be referring to himself. He was an eyewitness of the fact that no bone was broken, and that the soldiers pierced the side of Jesus. He states this because both these things are fulfillments of prophecies, as he says next. Others think John is referring to some other disciple.
6. Or, "that One". Some think John is referring to himself; others, to God; others, to Jesus.

26. Some think John believed in the resurrection, even though he did not yet understand that all along the Scripture had said it must be this way; others, that he believed Jesus, in reference to His going to the Father (13:33; 14:2), but did not yet understand that He was raised back to life on earth.
27. Among others, John is referring to Ps 16, which Peter quotes on Pentecost, Act 2:25-32. Here, John says that Jesus "must" rise; there, Peter says that it was "not possible" that He be held by death.

- 1C. So that you may believe³⁹ that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God 31
- 2C. And so that believing, you may have life^N in His name^O 31

1. Used only here. GK 3058. Related to "garden" in 19:41.
2. Mary has walked by Jesus, or turned back to the tomb, for now she must turn back (v 14) to Him again.
3. Some manuscripts omit this word {K}.
4. This word means "to touch", with the nuance coming from the context. Here, it means "take hold of, hang on to, cling to". The grammar implies, "Stop clinging". There is a similar case in Greek literature of people "taking hold" (same word), in astonishment and delight, of the hands, knees and clothing of a friend who had been presumed dead. Here, Mary needs to "stop clinging" and "be going". GK 721. Same word as "touch" in 1 Cor 7:1. In Mt 28:9, they "take hold of" His feet (different word).
5. Or, "ascended". Same word as in 3:13; 6:62; Act 2:34; Rom 10:6; and as "ascended" in Eph 4:8, 9, 10. GK 326.
6. Some think Jesus means that He will not be staying with Mary now, but must depart and ascend to the Father (for reasons of which we are ignorant); others, that there is no need for Mary to cling to Him, because He is not yet ascending to the Father (which He does not do for 40 days), and He has an urgent mission for her. There are other views. Some manuscripts say "My Father" {N}.
7. That is, I am alive, and in the process of ascending to My Father (meaning either an immediate, or a forty-day process).
8. Compare Eph 1:17.
9. Or, "goes". On this word, see Mk 16:2.
10. Some manuscripts say "that she has seen the Lord, and" {N}.
11. Parallel account at Mk 16:14; Lk 24:36.
12. That is, Sunday evening. This is a Roman way of speaking. In Jewish terms, this is the evening of the second day of the week. Saturday night is the evening of the first day.
13. Or, "shut". Same word as in v 26; Lk 11:7; Act 5:23. Elsewhere only as "shut" 12 times. GK 3091. Related to "key".
14. There were others present in addition to the apostles, Lk 24:33. Some think John is referring to them all; others, to the apostles.
15. Some manuscripts say "had gathered together" {A}, a participle, "were having been gathered together".
16. Some manuscripts add "both" {N}.
17. This fulfills 16:22, where Jesus used this same word.
18. Some manuscripts say "Then He said..." {C}.
19. Not the same word as "send forth" earlier. Jesus has used both words of Himself (Jn 20:21; 5:37), and of them (Jn 17:18; 20:21). He mentioned this sending in His prayer for them in 17:18. This word is used 79 times. GK 4287. On the unrelated word "send forth", see "send out" in Mk 3:14. Some think no difference in meaning is intended.
20. Some think Jesus is referring to the apostles, His witnesses from the beginning (15:27). In this case, He is specifically commissioning them (17:18), and by application, all who believe through their word (17:20). Others think He is referring to all present there (compare Lk 24:33-36) as representatives of all the church, which is composed of witnesses in a broader sense.
21. Or, "blew on". This is done to indicate that the Spirit comes from Jesus to these disciples. Used only here. GK 1874. Same word as when God "breathed" life into Adam, Gen 2:7; and in Ezek 21:31 (wrath), 37:9 (life). It was also used of "blowing in" a musical instrument, and of "inflating" something.
22. Some think this is symbolic of the coming that actually occurs on Pentecost; others, of Jesus giving the Spirit here not to individuals, but to the church as a whole. Others think this is a partial reception by the disciples of the Spirit or a gift of the Spirit, the fullness coming on Pentecost. For example, some think they receive spiritual life here, and gifts of power in Acts 2. Others think this is in regard to their commission for the mission just mentioned, while Acts 2 brings the power for it (Lk 24:49). Others link this specifically with the authority given next. Others think the Spirit was given here to lead them into the truth, and that this complements Lk 24:45. There are other views.
23. Some think this authority is given to the apostles and those who carried on their office, ministers; others, to all individual Christians; others, to the church as a whole, represented by all the disciples present on this night.
24. On this word, see Mt 6:12. Some manuscripts say "they are forgiven" {B}.
25. Or, "hold firm, hold on to, hold fast, hold back". On forgiving and retaining sins, compare Mt 16:19; 18:18. Some think Jesus is giving authority to His ministers to absolve sins. Others think this refers to the authority of believers to speak for Jesus, based on His word; to say with His authority based on a person's confession that God forgives them or God does not forgive them, as in 8:24, 47; 9:41 (your sin remains); Act 2:38; etc. On this word, see "hold on to" in Heb 4:14.
26. Or, "imprint". On this word, see "pattern" in 1 Pet 5:3.
27. Used only in this verse. GK 2464. Related to the verb in Col 2:14.
28. Some manuscripts say "place" {N}.
29. Jesus commands Thomas to do what he said he must do. Some think he did so, as did the others the week before, Lk 24:39. Others think Thomas no longer felt the need to do so.
30. This is a command. The grammar implies, "Stop being..."
31. Or, "faithless, but faithful". Both are adjectives. On this word see "faithful" in Col 1:2.
32. Some manuscripts say "And Thomas..." {N}.
33. Note that this is spoken to Jesus, not as an exclamation. Now believing, Thomas addresses Jesus as God. He "honors the Son just as he honors the Father", 5:23. If Jesus is not God, Thomas is blaspheming.
34. Jesus characterizes Thomas's comment as "believing". After seeing what the ten others saw, he also believes. Some manuscripts say "Thomas, you have..." {K}. Some punctuate this as a question, "Have you... Me?"
35. Or, "So indeed, Now indeed". Same idiom as "so indeed" in 19:24, John's only other use of it.
36. Some take this narrowly in this context as referring to signs of the resurrection of Jesus, authenticating His resurrection, such as eating broiled fish with them (Lk 24:43). In this case, it is the conclusion of the resurrection event. Others take it broadly as referring to the signs (miracles) done throughout His ministry. In this case, it is the conclusion to chapters 1-20. In either case, John's point is the same.
37. Some manuscripts say "the" {C}.
38. This is a participle, "are not having been written". On this expression, see 2:17. John has written of seven, 11:1.
39. Some manuscripts have this word in a different tense, "may be believing" {C}; that is, "may continue believing". Same word and variant as in 19:35. Some narrow John's purpose for writing this book to evangelism ("believe") or edification ("continue believing") based on the tense of this word. Consult the commentaries.

- 16A. After¹ these things Jesus manifested² Himself again to the disciples at the Sea of Tiberias³. And He manifested Himself as follows— 21:1
- 1B. Simon Peter, and Thomas (the one being called Didymus^A), and Nathanael^B (the one from Cana of Galilee), and the sons of Zebedee,⁴ and two other of His disciples were together 2
- 1C. Simon Peter says to them, “I am going⁵ to fish”. They say to him, “We are also coming with you”. They went out and got into the boat⁶ 3
- 2C. And during that night they caught^C nothing 3
- 2B. Now having already become⁷ early-morning, Jesus stood at the shore. But the disciples did not know that it was⁸ Jesus 4.
- 1C. So Jesus says to them, “Children⁹, you do not have any fish-to-eat¹⁰, do you?”¹¹ 5
- 2C. They answered Him, “No” 5
- 3C. And the One said to them, “Cast^D the net^E to the right side of the boat and you will find them” 6
- 4C. So they cast it, and they were no longer strong-enough^F to draw^G it [into the boat] because of the multitude^H of the fish¹² 6
- 5C. Then that disciple whom Jesus was loving¹³ says to Peter, “It is the Lord” 7
- 1D. So Simon Peter— having heard that it was¹⁴ the Lord— tied his outer-garment¹⁵ around himself (for he was naked¹⁶), and threw^D himself into the sea 7
- 2D. But the other disciples came in the small-boat¹⁷ (for they were not far from the land, but about two-hundred cubits¹⁸ away)— dragging^K the net of fish 8
- 6C. Then when they got out to the land, they see a charcoal-fire¹⁹ lying there, and fish²⁰ lying upon it, and bread 9
- 1D. Jesus says to them, “Bring from the fish which you now caught^C” 10
- 1E. So²¹ Simon Peter went up and drew^G the net to²² land, full^L of large fish— a hundred fifty three 11
- 2E. And though being so many, the net was not torn^M 11
- 2D. Jesus says to them, “Come, eat-breakfast²³” 12
- 1E. And²⁴ none of the disciples was daring^N to question²⁵ Him, “Who are You?”, knowing that it was²⁶ the Lord 12
- 2E. Jesus²⁷ comes and takes the bread and gives it to them, and the fish likewise 13
- 7C. This is now²⁸ the third time Jesus was manifested²⁹ to the disciples³⁰ after having arisen³¹ from the dead 14
- 3B. Then when they ate-breakfast, Jesus says to Simon Peter 15
- 1C. “Simon, son of John³², do you devotedly-love³³ Me more than these³⁴?” 15
- 1D. He says to Him, “Yes, Lord. You know that I affectionately-love³⁵ You” 15
- 2D. He says to him, “Be feeding³⁶ My lambs” 15
- 2C. He says to him again a second time, “Simon, son of John, do you devotedly-love Me³⁷?” 16

1. Chapter 21 relates the next appearance of Jesus, the third (v 14), and the lessons taught in it. John may simply be continuing on with what actually happened in historical sequence. Others think the book culminates in 20:30-31, and that chapter 21 is an appendix added by John to explain what happened to Peter and to clear up a misunderstanding (v 23). Others think it was not written by John (see 21:24), but was added at a later date. There is no manuscript evidence lacking chapter 21.
2. Or, "revealed, showed". On this word, see "made evident" in 1 Jn 2:19.
3. This is the Roman name for the Sea of Galilee. See 6:1.
4. That is, James and John (the one writing this Gospel), Mt 10:2. This is the closest John comes to naming himself in this book.
5. Some think this implies a turning away from Christ; others, a nervous waiting for Him—"Let's stop sitting around waiting for His next appearance. Let's do something. I'm going fishing!"
6. Some manuscripts add "immediately" {N}.
7. Some manuscripts say "already becoming morning", meaning it was still dark {N}.
8. More literally, "is", as the Greek typically phrases it.
9. Or, "Boys, Lads". On this word, see 1 Jn 2:14.
10. Or, "fish". This word refers to fish as something to eat, rather than as an animal (the word in v 6). John uses a synonym in v 9. Thus he uses three different words for "fish" in v 5-13. Used only here. GK 4709. Related to "eat".
11. The grammar indicates a "no" answer is expected.
12. This is the word for fish as an animal, also in v 8, 11. Used 20 times. GK 2716.
13. This is John's self-designation, 13:23.
14. More literally, "is", as the Greek typically phrases it.
15. Used only here. GK 2087. Related to "put on over" in 2 Cor 5:2.
16. That is, wearing only his underclothes, stripped for work. On this word, see Jam 2:15.
17. This may be another word for the fishing boat, or it may refer to a small boat tied to it.
18. On this measure, see Rev 21:17. Here it amounts to about 100 yards or 92 meters.
19. Elsewhere only in 18:18. GK 471. Related to "coal" in Rom 12:20.
20. On this word, which is also in v 10, 13, see 6:9.
21. Some manuscripts omit this word {N}.
22. Some manuscripts say "on" {N}.
23. Same word as in v 15. On this word, see "eat the morning meal" in Lk 11:37.
24. Some manuscripts omit this word {N}.
25. Or, "examine, inquire of". On this word, see "search out" in Mt 10:11.
26. More literally, "is", as the Greek typically phrases it.
27. Some manuscripts say "Then Jesus" {N}. Jesus serves them.
28. Or, "already, by this time". On this word, see "already" in Mt 24:32.
29. Or, "appeared". Same word as in v 1, but different grammar.
30. That is, to a group of the disciples, the other two being in 20:19 and 26.
31. Or, "having been raised". On this word, see "arose" in Mt 28:6.
32. Some manuscripts say "Jonah" {B} here and in v 16, 17. See Jn 1:42.
33. Or, "love". Compare the synonym below. This is the verb related to "agape". It can refer to a volitional love, a love rooted in the one loving rather than elicited by the one loved. Same word as in Mt 5:43; 22:37; Mk 10:21; Lk 6:32; Jn 3:16; 11:5; 14:15; Rom 9:13; 13:8; Gal 2:20; Eph 5:25; 1 Jn 2:15; 4:7, 19; Rev 1:5; 12:11. Used 143 times, all except here in v 15-16 being rendered "love". GK 26. Related to the noun "love" in 1 Jn 4:16, and "beloved" in Mt 3:17.
34. Some think Jesus means "these other disciples", since Peter had said "Though all fall, I will not", Mt 26:33; Mk 14:29. Other think He means "these fish", your former life. The grammar permits either.
35. Or, "love". Peter uses a different word for "love". Some do not think any distinction between these words is intended (as in 13:23, 20:2), but that it is a stylistic variation (as with lambs/sheep, feed/shepherd, know/recognize here. See also "fish-to-eat" in v 5; send forth/send in 20:21). The use of synonyms in this way is a mark of John's writing style. Others think that while there is not always a distinction between them, a distinction is intended here. Jesus says agapao in v 15, 16, a volitional love given based on decision and choice. It is a love based on the commitment of the one loving. Peter may be reluctant to use this word because he had made a different choice—he denied Jesus three times. So Peter says phileo in v 15, 16, 17, a love coming in response to something favorable in the other person. It is a friendship kind of love; a love based on the affectionate feelings one has for the other. This word is used 25 times, three times as "kiss" (see Mt 26:48), the rest (outside of v 15-17 here) as "love". GK 5797. Related to "friend" in Lk 14:10; "kiss" in Rom 16:16; and words such as "love of money" (1 Tim 6:10), "love for mankind" (Tit 3:4), and "brotherly love" (Heb 13:1).
36. Or, "tending, grazing, leading to pasture". Same word as in v 17. Elsewhere only in Mt 8:30, 33; Mk 5:11, 14; Lk 8:32, 34, 15:15. GK 1081.
37. Note that this time Jesus drops the idea of comparison, "more than these".

- 1D. He says to Him, “Yes, Lord. You know that I affectionately-love You”
- 2D. He says to him, “Be shepherding¹ My sheep²”
- 3C. He says to him the third³ time, “Simon, son of John, do you affectionately-love Me?” 17
- 1D. Peter was grieved^A because⁴ He said to him the third time, “Do you affectionately-love Me?”. And he says to Him, “Lord, You know all things. You recognize⁵ that I affectionately-love You”
- 2D. Jesus⁶ says to him, “Be feeding^B My sheep
- 1E. “Truly^C, truly, I say to you, when you were younger, you were girding⁷ yourself, 18 and walking where you were wanting to go. But when you become-old⁸, you will stretch-out^D your hands, and another will gird you, and bring⁹ you where you are not wanting^E to go”
- 2E. Now this He said, signifying¹⁰ by what kind¹¹ of death he will glorify^F God 19
- 4C. And having said this, He says to him, “Be following Me!”
- 5C. Peter,¹² having turned around, sees the disciple following them whom Jesus was loving¹³— 20 the one who also leaned back on His chest¹⁴ during dinner and said, “Lord, who is the one handing You over?”
- 1D. So¹⁵ Peter, having looked-at this one, says to Jesus, “Lord, and what *of*¹⁶ this one? 21
- 1E. Jesus says to him, “If I want^E him to remain^G until I come, what is it to you? You 22 be following Me!”
- 2E. Therefore this statement^H went out to the brothers^I, that “that disciple does not die”¹⁷ 23
- 3E. But Jesus did not say to him that he does not die, but “If I want him to remain until 24
I come, what is it to you¹⁸?”

This¹⁹ one is the disciple^K testifying^L about these things, and²⁰ the one having written these²¹ things, and we²² 24 know that his testimony^M is true^N. •And there are also many other things which Jesus did, which if they should 25 be written individually^O, I suppose^P that not even the world itself would have-room-for^Q the books being written²³.

1. Same word as in Act 20:28; 1 Pet 5:2. On this verb, see Rev 19:15.
2. Both here and in v 17, some manuscripts say "little-sheep" {N}, using a related word.
3. Some think Jesus asks Peter three times because Peter denied Him three times.
4. Or, "that". Some think John means Peter was grieved because Jesus asked him a third time. The fact that Jesus now substitutes the other word for "love" only proves there is no distinction between them. Others think that it was because on this third time, His question refers to the exact same kind of love Peter had just claimed twice. Whether Peter thought he was claiming a different (lower, less volitional and God-like; or higher, more personal and tender) kind of love or not, it would surely grieve him that the Lord questioned precisely what he was claiming. GK 4022.
5. Or, "know, understand". On this word, see "know" in Lk 1:34. This is a different word than previously in v 15, 16, and 17 (on which see 1 Jn 2:29). No distinction may be intended. These two words occur together also in Mt 24:43; Mk 4:13; Lk 12:39; Jn 7:27; 8:55; 13:7; Rom 7:7; 1 Cor 2:11; 2 Cor 5:16; Eph 5:5; Heb 8:11; 1 Jn 2:29; 5:20.
6. Some manuscripts say "He says..." {C}.
7. That is, tying on your belt. On this word, see Act 12:8.
8. Elsewhere only as "grow aged" in Heb 8:13. GK 1180. Related to "old age" in Lk 1:36.
9. Or, "carry, lead". On this word, see "carried" in 2 Pet 1:17.
10. On this word, see Rev 1:1. "Signifying by what kind of death" is also in 12:33; 18:32. That is, others will have control over Peter and lead him away to his death.
11. Some think John means "a martyr's death"; others, crucifixion. Peter was crucified by Nero in about A.D. 64-65.
12. Some manuscripts say "Now Peter..." {N}.
13. On this self-designation, see 13:23.
14. Same word as in 13:25.
15. Some manuscripts omit this word {N}.
16. Or, "as to, with reference to". Same grammar as in Act 12:18, "what became of Peter".
17. That is, prior to the second coming of Jesus.
18. Some manuscripts omit "what is it to you" {C}.
19. That is, the one defined by the two descriptions in v 20, the subject of v 20-23. With the reference to himself still in his mind, John now transitions to the conclusion the book, putting the emphasis back on Jesus.
20. Or, "even".
21. Note the comparison between "these things written" and "other things not written" next. John is giving his attestation to the whole book.
22. Some think John is referring to himself, as in 3 Jn 12. Others think this was added by others (perhaps the elders at Ephesus), adding their testimony to John's. Some holding this view think this indicates that all of chapter 21 was added by these other witnesses.
23. Some manuscripts add "amen" {N}.

1. Luke's grammar implies a second, this book of Acts.
2. Or, "treatise". Luke and Acts are two parts of one work. Each filled one papyrus scroll. On this word, see "word" in 1 Cor 12:8.
3. Some think this was an actual person of prominence. It was a name used by both Jews and Gentiles. Since the name means "lover of God" or "loved by God", others think it might be a symbolic name for all such people. Elsewhere only in Lk 1:1. GK 2541.
4. What Jesus began Himself to do in Luke, He continues to do in Acts through His apostles.
5. Same word as in v 11, 22; 10:16; Mk 16:19; 1 Tim 3:16. Used 13 times. GK 377. Related to "ascension" in Lk 9:51.
6. Or, "commanded". Same word as "command" in 13:47. One of these commands is in v 4. On this word, see Mk 10:3.
7. Or, "living". This is a participle. On this word, see "came to life" in Rev 20:4.
8. Or, "in, with, by means of". GK 1877.
9. Or, "positive proofs, sure signs". Used only here. GK 5447.
10. Or, "being seen by them". Used only here. GK 3964. Related to "vision" in 2 Cor 12:1.
11. Not continuously, but periodically during this period. This verse summarizes Lk 24:13-45.
12. Or, And "coming together". Verses 4-8 expand the "having given orders" of v 2, and "speaking" of v 3, and coincide with the meetings in Lk 24:46-49 and 24:50. The meaning of this word is not certain. Others think it means "while eating with"; others, that it is an alternate spelling of a word meaning "while staying with". Used only here. GK 5259.
13. That is, the promise given by the Father, consisting of the Helper, the Holy Spirit, Jn 14:16, 26. Compare Act 2:33.
14. Jesus uses grammar that emphasizes the contrast between the two halves of this sentence.
15. Or, "in". See Mk 1:8 on this, and Mk 1:4, 8, 9 on baptism.
16. That is, after these few days. Jesus ascended 40 days after Passover, v 3. The apostles waited 10 more days until Pentecost, Act 2:1. On this idiom, see "no small" in 12:18.
17. Same word used of what Elijah would do, Mt 17:11; Mk 9:12. On this word, see Mk 8:25. Related to "restoration" in Act 3:21. God took away the kingdom, Mt 21:43; 23:38.
18. Some think this question is inappropriate—a reflection of the apostles' faulty understanding of the spiritual kingdom Jesus was establishing, and a yearning for the political kingdom on earth centered in Israel which they had expected the Messiah to bring. Others think the question is appropriate, and that His answer implies that the restoration of such a kingdom to Israel will take place in the future, in the Father's own time. Note Lk 21:31.
19. That is, to the eleven apostles, v 2, 13; and by application, to all.
20. The phrase "times and seasons" also occurs in 1 Thes 5:1. Seasons are divisions of times.

23. Same word as in Lk 24:48; Act 1:22; 2:32; 3:15; 5:32; 10:39, 41; 13:31; 1 Pet 5:1. Used 35 times. GK 3459. Related to "testimony" in Jn 1:7 and Act 4:33; "testify" in Jn 1:7 and 1 Thes 2:12. Some manuscripts say "be witnesses to Me" {K}.
24. This phrase "as far as the last place of the earth" is also in 13:47. That is, from the nearest city and country to the farthest.
25. Verses 9-11 expand the "taken up" in v 2, and coincide with Lk 24:51.
26. Or, "took Him up". This word could mean the cloud lifted Jesus up from underneath, as when a dolphin takes up a performer; or, that the cloud enveloped Him from below, removing Him from their sight. Luke uses four different words to describe this, "carried up" in Lk 24:51; "taken up" in Act 1:2, 11; "lifted up" earlier in 1:9; and "received" here. GK 5696.
27. Verses 12-13 expand on Lk 24:52.
28. That is, the mountain was within a distance allowable for a journey on a Sabbath, which the rabbis determined to be 2000 cubits or 5 stades, that is, about 1000 yards (.57 miles) or 914 meters. Luke does not say here where the apostles were on the mountain, but Lk 24:50 says "near Bethany", which probably means the Bethany side of the mountain. Bethany was about 15 stades from Jerusalem, Jn 11:18.
29. Or, "upstairs room". Elsewhere only in 9:37, 39; 20:8. GK 5673.

33. This verse expands upon Lk 24:53, bringing the reader up to where Luke left off in that book, and completing the introduction to this book. Some manuscripts add "and supplication" {N}.
34. Some manuscripts add "with", "and with His brothers" {N}. On the brothers and sisters of Jesus, see Mt 13:55-56.
35. This implies some number of days elapsed since the preceding event, though the number not given.
36. Some manuscripts say "disciples" {N}.
37. People are referred to as "names" also in Rev 3:4; 11:13.

40. Or, "foretold". On this word, see Jude 17.

42. Or, "counted". Or, "had been numbered". This is a participle, Judas was "having been numbered". Used only here. GK 2935. Related to the word in Lk 22:3, and the word in Lk 12:7.
43. Some manuscripts say "with" {K}.
44. On this word, see 2 Pet 1:1. Judas obtained his apostleship by divine will. The divine lot, so to speak, fell to him.
45. Or, "the lot". Same word as "lot" in v 26. On this word, see Col 1:12.
46. That is, his share of the ministry of the apostles (which was to be witnesses of Christ's resurrection, v 22, and ministry), from which he turned aside (v 25). Judas filled a spot that God created, and that must now be re-filled.

1. This may mean "the unrighteous wage", the wage characterized by unrighteousness; or, "the wage [he received] for his unrighteousness". The priests bought this parcel in Judas's name, Mt 27:6-8.
2. Or, "prone". That is, flat on his face, head down. Used only here. GK 4368. Some think this word means "swollen, distended". Whether Judas fell down after he hung himself (Mt 27:5), or was cut down, is not stated. The Greek only says "having become". A "fall" is implied, not stated.
3. Luke may mean the bursting was caused by the fall. Or he may mean that it was caused by swelling due to exposure—the body abandoned, unburied, and unwanted by anyone. Both ideas are supported by early translations.
4. Some manuscripts omit this word {N}.
5. The field was called this either because it was acquired with blood money, as in Mt 27:8, or because Judas spilled his blood there, or both.
6. Or, "deserted, abandoned". On this word, see "wilderness" in Mt 3:1.
7. This is nicely rephrased "let there not be one to dwell in it". This was fulfilled when Judas died, as described in v 18-19.
8. That is, Judas's position of oversight, his responsibility. Same word as "office of overseer" in 1 Tim 3:1. The fulfillment of this is addressed next by Peter, v 21-22.
9. On the idiom "beginning from", see Mt 20:8.
10. In the Greek word order, "must" is the first word of v 21, and "one of these" are the last words of v 22. This is done for emphasis. Peter's point is, it must be so in order to fulfill the verse he quoted. Some think Peter was correct. Others think he was acting impulsively, God having chosen Paul for this purpose. On "must", see Mt 16:21.
11. More literally, "they stood" two. GK 2705.
12. Or, "show forth, reveal". Elsewhere only in Lk 10:1, where Jesus appointed the seventy-two. GK 344. The root word is "show".

Also known as the Feast of Harvest (Ex 23:16), and the Feast of Weeks (Ex 34:22, it is the day after seven weeks after Passover). See Lev 23:15-22; Num 28:26-31; Deut 16:9-12.
18. Or, "filled up". Some think Luke means "while the day was in progress"; others, "while the fifty day interval was being brought to completion on this last day of it". Same word and idiom as in Lk 9:51. This word is elsewhere only in Lk 8:23, of the boat being "filled-with" water. GK 5230. Similar to the idiom in Lk 1:23, 57; 2:6, 21, 22; Act 7:23, 30; 9:23; 24:27. There is no indication of how many days passed after the incident in 1:15-26.
19. Luke does not define this further, except that they were all Galileans, v 7. It may refer to the apostles only, 1:13; to all those in 1:14; or to the 120 in the previous incident (1:15). Being in a house, a smaller number may be indicated.
20. Some manuscripts say "with one accord" {N}.
21. The location is not identified, except as a house, v 2. Some link it to the room entered 10 days ago in 1:13.
22. Or, "sound", but not the same word as in v 6. A wind-like noise filled the whole house. On this word, see "news" in Lk 4:37.

Others think he means "tongues dividing-up" to the people—either "distributing themselves", or, "being distributed". Same word as in Lk 11:17, 18; 12:52, 53. Elsewhere only as "divide among" in Mt 27:35; Mk 15:24; Lk 23:34; Jn 19:24; and "distribute" in Lk 22:17; Act 2:45. GK 1374.
24. Or, "like" fire. On this word, see Rom 6:13.
25. That is, a tongue.
26. The phrase "filled with the Spirit" using this word is elsewhere only in Lk 1:15, 41, 67; Act 4:8, 31; 9:17; 13:9. It leads to a divine empowerment to speak. Same word as in Lk 4:28; 5:26; 6:11; Act 3:10; 5:17; 13:45; 19:29. Used 24 times. GK 4398.
27. Or, "different". That is, other than Hebrew (Aramaic)—in the languages of other nations.
28. That is, languages, as seen in v 8. Same word as in v 10. On this word, see 1 Cor 12:10. On "in" tongues, see 1 Cor 14:2.
29. Or, "speaking out, declaring". Or, "as the Spirit was giving it to them to be uttering". These disciples spoke in foreign languages understood by the unbelievers described in v 8-11. The content of the utterances is described by the hearers in v 11. The twofold result of this miracle is seen in v 12-13. Elsewhere only as "declare" in Act 2:14; 26:25. GK 710. Related to "utter" in 2 Pet 2:18. Compare 1 Cor 14:21-22.
30. That is, non-Judean Jews, non-native speaking Jews from every nation under heaven, as seen in v 9-11. Some manuscripts omit "Jews" {B}, so that it says "there were reverent men dwelling...".
31. Or, "bewildered, confused". On this word, see 9:22.
32. The details are not given. Did each speak one time in one other language, or one time after another to different people as the Spirit gave the uttering of their language? Did it occur only at this event prior to Peter's speech in v 14, or did it continue throughout the day or beyond that day? What is the relationship of this to what is discussed in 1 Cor 14? Opinions vary about these questions, and about what inferences may be drawn from this event.
33. Elsewhere only in 1:19; 2:8; 21:40; 22:2; 26:14. GK 1365. Our word "dialect" comes from this word, dialekto.

2. Cyrene is a city on the North African coast, west of Libya. Used only here. GK 3255. "Cyrenian" is in 6:9.
3. Or, "visiting". Used of foreigners temporarily staying in a place. Elsewhere only of Athens, 17:21. GK 2111. Related to "go on a journey" in Mt 21:33.
4. That is, Gentile converts to Judaism. On this word, see Mt 23:15.
5. From the island of Crete. Elsewhere only in Tit 1:12. GK 3205.
6. From Arabia, east and south of Israel. Used only here. GK 732. Related to "Arabia" in Gal 1:17.
7. Or, "magnificent, mighty, splendid, grand". Used only here. GK 3483. Related to "majesty" in Lk 9:43.
8. Literally, "what does this intend to be?", an idiom elsewhere only in 17:20. These people are looking for the answer. The next group has already decided, v 13. This is the "sign from heaven" the Jews had sought from Jesus.
9. Or, "sneering, mocking, jeering". Used only here. GK 1430. Related to the word in 17:32.
10. This is a participle, "they are having been filled". That is, they are full. Used only here. GK 3551. Related to "full" in Rom 15:14.
11. Causing drunkenness, v 15. Some think this means these mockers did not understand the words. Others think they understood the words, but considered the people to be excessively exuberant, as with David in 2 Sam 6:16. The twofold result in v 12-13 is a reflection of the hearts of the hearers, not the utterance of the speaker. Used only here. GK 1183.
12. Same word as "uttering" in v 4. This utterance also was from the Spirit.
13. On the location of this speech, and the size of this crowd, see v 41.
14. Same word as in v 11. On this word, see Jn 1:19. Not the same word as "Judea" in v 9.
15. That is, v 16—that the explanation for what is being seen and heard is found in the prophecy of Joel 2:28. It is a gift poured out from God's Spirit.
16. Or, "give ear to". Used only here. GK 1969. Related to "ear".
17. Or, "supposing". Same word as in Lk 7:43.

19. Same word as in v 18, 33; and in 10:45, where "the gift of the Holy Spirit" is poured out, referring again to the tongues, v 46. This word is used of pouring out the Spirit in Tit 3:6; the love of God in Rom 5:5; coins in Jn 2:15; and bowls in Rev 16:1, 2, 3, 4, 8, 10, 12, 17. Elsewhere only as "spill out" in Mt 9:17; Lk 5:37; Act 1:18; "shed" blood in Lk 11:50; Rom 3:15; Rev 16:6; and "poured forth" in Jude 11. GK 1772. Related word in Mt 26:28.
20. Or, "of". That is, God will pour out gifts "from, of" His Spirit—prophecies, dreams, visions, but here specifically, "what you both see and hear" (v 33), the tongues. Only here and in v 18 is the word "pour out" followed by the preposition "from, of". When the Spirit was given (Jn 7:39) to be "in" them (Jn 14:17), He was seen in the gifts of power (Act 1:8) given "from" Him, seen here in the tongues.
21. On "all flesh", see "no flesh" in Mt 24:22.
22. Or, "Yes, and", or, "Even upon My... I will pour out". The promise is repeated from a different viewpoint. The previous statement is from the human viewpoint, "your sons and daughters, etc"; this one is from God's viewpoint, "My slaves".
23. Or, "remarkable, notable, conspicuous, famous, renowned, prominent, visible". Used only here. GK 2212. Related to "appearance" in 2 Thes 2:8, and "appeared" in Tit 2:11. The root word is "to shine".
24. Some think Peter means that this was all symbolically fulfilled here, indicating that such prophecies are not to be taken literally. Others think Joel's prophecy, including the pouring out from His Spirit, was only partially fulfilled here, and that it awaits a full and literal fulfillment upon all flesh and all the cosmos when Christ returns. In this view, Joel speaks with reference to both the first and second comings, without distinguishing them.
25. Or, "proved, shown". Same word as "prove" in 25:7. On this word, see "display" in 2 Thes 2:4.
26. Some manuscripts add "also" {K}.

33. On this word, see "birth-pains" in 1 Thes 5:3. The intent of Peter's metaphor may be that when Jesus died, death was thrown into birth-pains until He was delivered, raised from the dead. God raised Him, releasing death from its role. Or, it may be used figuratively here, without specific reference to "birth" pains.
34. Or, "held fast, held back". That is, held under its control, prevented from leaving. On this word, see Heb 4:14.

9. Or, "stabbed, pricked, stunned". Used only here. GK 2920. Related to "stabbed" in Jn 19:34.
10. Some manuscripts omit this word, leaving it implied {C}; others say "said" {N}.
11. Or, "in reference to, by use of, in, for". This is the only place where this preposition is used with "baptize". GK 2093. Some manuscripts have the more normal "in" {N}. Luke uses the phrase "on the basis of the name" ten of its fourteen occurrences, Mt 18:5; 24:5; Mk 9:37, 39; 13:6; Lk 1:59; 9:48; 21:8; 24:47; Act 2:38; 4:17, 18; 5:28, 40. See also Act 3:16.
12. Some manuscripts omit this word {N}.
13. Peter may mean physically distant—the Jews in the dispersion. He may mean spiritually distant—the Gentiles, as this word is used in 22:21; Eph 2:13, 17. He may mean distant in time—future generations. Or, he may have all of this in mind, intending it in the broadest sense. GK 3426 and 3431.
14. Or, "will summon". Same word as in 13:2, and "call" in 16:10. Elsewhere 26 times as "summon". GK 4673.
15. On this word, see 1 Pet 2:18. This generation is no longer straight with the truth.
16. Or, "received, accepted". Elsewhere only in Lk 8:40; 9:11; Act 18:27; 21:17; 24:3; 28:30. GK 622. Some manuscripts add "gladly" {N}, as in 21:17.
17. This may mean Peter spoke to over 3000 at one time, the transition from the house in v 2 to the place this occurred (perhaps the temple) not being given. Or, it may mean that at the end of the day, from those who heard this speech at the house and all those who subsequently heard of this event and spoke with the apostles and disciples, 3000 were added.

21. Some manuscripts say "and to the..." {N}.
22. Some think Luke is referring to eating together, as in the only other use of this word, Lk 24:35. Others think that he is referring to the Lord's Supper, perhaps eaten in conjunction with a meal. GK 3082. The related verb is in v 46. Related to "fragments" in Mt 15:37.
23. Or, "fear". On this word, see "fear" in Eph 5:21.
24. Some manuscripts add "in Jerusalem. And a great awe was upon all" {C}.
25. Or, were "together". See v 47.
26. This is explained in 4:32, where this same word is used. The believers were sharing everything with their new "family" having God as Father. They were sharing their things which God provided and owns, regarding everything as being for God's use.
27. On this word, see Mt 19:22. Same word as in Act 5:1, where Ananias sold a property. Related to "owner" in 4:34.
28. Elsewhere only in Heb 10:34. GK 5638.

GK 3089. Some think "sharing in food" which follows explains this phrase. Others think it is in addition to this phrase. It was the Jewish custom for the father to break the bread at the start of a meal. So this term can simply mean "eating their meals". Or, it could refer to the special Christian celebration, the Lord's Supper. Related to the word in v 42.
31. On this idiom, see 5:42.
32. Used only here. GK 911.
33. Or, added "together". This idiom is elsewhere only in Mt 22:34; Lk 17:35; Act 1:15; 2:1, 44; 4:26; 1 Cor 7:5 ("together"); 11:20; 14:23. Some take it here to mean "on the same number", that is, adding to their total, or to their number. Others take it as a technical phrase meaning "into church fellowship". Some manuscripts add "to the church" and take this phrase with 3:1 {B}, so that it says "daily to the church. Now together, Peter and John..."
34. That is, 3 P.M. How many days passed since Pentecost is not stated. 2:42-47 describes events in the interim.
35. That is, charitable giving to the poor. On this word, see "almsgiving" in Mt 6:2. Same word as in v 3, 10.

1. Some manuscripts omit this word, so that it says "was asking for alms" {N}.
2. Or, in a more specific sense, silver and gold "is not possessed by me; is not present with me; is not at my disposal; is not in my possession; does not belong to me". Luke uses this word to mean "is" in 23 of its 25 occurrences in Acts. On this word, see "being" in Phil 2:6. Many simplify this by rephrasing it as "I do not have silver...".
3. Some manuscripts omit "arise and", so that it simply says "walk" {C}. Same word as "raised" in v 7.
4. Or, "made firm". Same word as in v 16. On this word, see "became firm" in 16:5.

16. Or, "to, toward". GK 4639. Not the same word as in 4:35 and 5:2 ("at, beside, near", GK 4123), though some manuscripts have that word here {N}.
17. Same word as in 2:45.
18. Or, "removed for himself, embezzled, stole". Same word as in v 3. Elsewhere only as "pilfer" in Tit 2:10. GK 3802.
19. Or, "price", the price received. Same word as in v 3; 4:34. On this word, see "honor" in 1 Tim 5:17.
20. Or, "having co-knowledge". Elsewhere only as "conscious of" in 1 Cor 4:4. GK 5323. This verb is related to "conscience" in 23:1.
21. Some think this is a Hebrew way of speaking meaning "For what reason did Satan cause you to dare to lie...", Esther 7:5; Eccl 8:11. Some manuscripts say instead "tempt" {B}. On this word, see Eph 5:18.
22. Same word as "lie" in v 4. Used 12 times. GK 6017. Related to "falsehood" in Rev 14:5, and "liar" in Rom 3:4.
23. Ananias did not have to sell at all. The grammar indicates a "yes" answer is expected to this and the next question.
24. Ananias was under no obligation to give. After selling, the money was still his, to do with as he pleased. On this word, see Rev 6:8.
25. Same word as in Lk 21:14.
26. Ananias lied about the selling price, claiming his gift represented all of it. He could have given any part of it. But he wanted his gift to seem like a greater sacrifice than it actually was. He wanted to be seen as one who gave it all. He attempted to deceive his fellow believers. Luke does not say whether Peter had heard the price from someone else, or the Spirit revealed it to him.
27. That is, died. Elsewhere only in 5:10; 12:23. GK 1775. This word is based on the word "life, soul". Ananias breathed out his life. A similar word based on the word "breath" is used of Jesus in Mk 15:37.
28. Some manuscripts say "these things" {K}, as in v 11.
29. That is, in a burial shroud. Or, "packed him up, removed him". On this word, see "shortened" in 1 Cor 7:29.
30. This word is plural, referring to both of them. To reflect this, "two" is added. Likewise in v 9.
31. Or, "gave up, gave away". Same word as in 7:9; Heb 12:16. This is the third different word Luke uses for "sell" in 4:34-5:8 (see the note on 4:34). This one may put the emphasis on what this couple gave up when they sold the land, or gave away from their possessions. Or, perhaps no difference in meaning is intended. On this word, see "render" in Mt 16:27.
32. Or, "that an-agreement-was-made by you two". On this word, see Mt 18:19.
33. Or, "tempt". Of course, this is not what these two thought they were doing. Like them, people often prefer to view their actions as if they were independent of God's scrutiny and judgment. On this word, see "tempt" in Heb 2:18.
34. This is Luke's third external view of the church. As in chapters 3-4, the proclaiming and miracle working of the apostles, v 12-16, leads to a confrontation with the Sanhedrin, v 17.
35. That is, the apostles.
36. The apostles were publicly violating the command of the Jewish leadership, 4:18. On this word, see Jn 5:2.
37. Or, "the others". Some think Luke is referring to the Jewish leaders and priests, in contrast with "the people" next; others, to the other believers, who did not dare to publicly defy the Jewish leaders in this way; others, to the non-believers, who (unless they became believers, as in v 14; or were seeking a miracle, as in v 15-17) did not dare to associate with the Christians because of the Ananias and Sapphira event and the Sanhedrin's command, making "the rest" equivalent to "the people" next (they did not join them, but they honored them). On this word, see "other" in 2 Pet 3:16.
38. Or, "unite with, associate with". That is, in the portico. Same word as in 8:29; 9:26; 10:28; 17:34. On this word, see 1 Cor 6:16.
39. Same word as in 10:46; 19:17. On this word, see "enlarge" in 2 Cor 10:15.
40. Or, "... believing were being added to the Lord". Compare 11:24, which has different grammar.

1. Some consider v 14 a parenthesis, so that this follows directly from v 13.
2. Or, "at least". This word expresses these people's hope of healing. It is the same word used by the woman in Mk 5:28, and as "even" in Mk 6:56. GK 2829. Compare Act 19:12.

6. Or, "faction, party". The same group as in 4:1. This "sect" (as opposed to the Pharisee "sect", 15:5) was closely associated with the high priest and his family. On this word, see "faction" in 1 Cor 11:19. Or, "the existing sect", meaning "the local sect". It is the same idiom as in 13:1.
8. Same word as in 4:3. Luke uses three different words here for this place. Based on the root words, it is the place they were "kept" (v 18, jail, GK 5499); "bound" (v 21, jailhouse); and "guarded" (v 22, prison).
9. Some manuscripts say "... Lord opened the doors... night. And having led them out, he said" {N}.

This word most often means "Sanhedrin" (the Jewish ruling council), but is also used of "councils" in a broader sense (as in Mt 10:17; Mk 13:9). Used 22 times. GK 5284.
27. The grammar indicates a "yes" answer is expected. Some manuscripts omit this word, making it a statement, "we commanded you..." {C}. The command is in 4:18.
28. This idiom reflects a Hebrew way of speaking.
29. Or, "you are determined, you wish, want, desire". Same word as in v 33. On this word, see "willed" in Jam 1:18.

6. Or, "census". On this word, see Lk 2:2. Some think this refers to a census in A.D. 6 after Archelaus (see Mt 2:22) was deposed and Judea was put under Roman rule. It caused a rebellion, and the rise of the Zealots.
7. Or, "caused to depart". That is, in a rebellion. On this word, see "depart" in 1 Tim 4:1.
8. Same word as in Lk 9:13. On this word, see "peoples" in Rev 21:3. Some manuscripts say "many people" {A}.

3C. And they stirred-up⁹ the people and the elders and the scribes

21B. And having suddenly-come-upon^H him, they seized¹⁰ him, and brought him to the Sanhedrin

1C. And they put-forward¹¹ false witnesses, saying, “This man does not cease^I speaking words¹² against this¹³ holy place and the Law. *For we have heard him saying that this Jesus the Nazarene^K will tear-down¹⁴ this place, and change^L the customs^M which Moses handed-down^N to us”¹⁵

3D. “But Jacob, having heard-of grain being in Egypt, sent-forth^{GG} our fathers first

1. This grace refers to the divine gifts given to Stephen, gifts of speaking and power, as seen in what follows. Some manuscripts say "faith" {N}, as in v 5.
2. That is, Hellenistic Jewish slaves who were freed, and returned to Israel. Some think Luke names one synagogue made up of the four nationalities. Others think he names two synagogues, "of Freedmen and Cyrenians and Alexandrians, and, the ones from Cilicia and Asia". Others think he names five separate synagogues.
3. That is, from the city of Cyrene on the African coast. Elsewhere only of Simon who carried the cross (Mt 27:32; Mk 15:21; Lk 23:26), and in Act 11:20; 13:1. GK 3254. "Cyrene" is in Act 2:10.
4. From the city of Alexandria in Egypt.
5. Cilicia (used 8 times. GK 3070) and Asia (used 18 times. GK 823) are Roman provinces in what is now known as Turkey.
6. Or, "arguing, disputing". On this word, see Mk 8:11.
7. Same word as in Lk 21:15.
8. Or, "suborned". That is, the debaters secretly instigated false testimony. Used only here. GK 5680.
9. Or, "set in motion, aroused". Used only here. GK 5167. Related to "move" in Rev 2:5.
10. That is, seized with violence and took Stephen with them. On this word, see Lk 8:29.
11. Or, "they stood". These debaters controlled it all from behind the scenes. Same word as in 1:23. GK 2705.
12. Some manuscripts say "blasphemous words" {N}, as in v 11.
13. Some manuscripts say "the" holy place {C}.
14. Same word as in Mt 24:2.
15. Jesus did say these things would happen, and they did happen in A.D. 70. But that this was against this place or the Law is false. It was a fulfillment of God's word. The false witnesses left out Stephen's explanation of this event.
16. Or, "Sanhedrin", as in v 12. On this word, see 5:27.
17. Or, "as if". On this word, see "as if" in Rom 6:13.
18. In other words, are these things true? On this idiom, see 12:15.
19. That is, the God characterized by glory; the glorious God.
20. Some manuscripts omit this word {C}.
21. More literally, "whichever". The land— whichever it may be— I will show you. There is an indefiniteness about it which is difficult to reproduce in English. Heb 11:8 states it clearly.
22. Stephen is saying that the call of Gen 12:1-3 was first given in Chaldea (as implied in Gen 15:7), and provides the explanation for Abraham leaving for Canaan and settling in Haran (Gen 11:31). Gen 12:1-3 then records the repetition of this call in Haran. In other words, Stephen is giving his interpretation of the full Genesis record.
23. Some think Genesis indicates Abraham's father was still living when he left. Gen 11:32 says that his father died at age 205. Abraham left at age 75 (Gen 12:4). Gen 11:26 may indicate Terah was 70 when Abraham was born (assuming they are named in order of birth, and that Abraham is not named first because of his prominence in what follows), making Terah 145 (75 plus 70) when Abraham left Haran. This would mean Terah lived 60 more years after Abraham left Haran. Perhaps Stephen simply means "after he died in the progression of Genesis", since his death is recorded in 11:32, prior to Abraham leaving Haran in Gen 12:4. Some ancient OT manuscripts say in Gen 11:32 that Terah died at age 145, and this was a commonly held view among the Jews in that day.
24. Or, "resettled, changed his dwelling over to". Same word as in v 43. God caused Abraham to resettle through the call of Gen 12:1-3.
25. Or, "resident alien". On this word, see 1 Pet 2:11.
26. Or, "a foreign land", but not related to "foreigner" earlier. On this word, see "foreigners" in Heb 11:34.
27. That is, Abraham's seed, viewed as a collective whole. Stephen changes to the plural "they" in v 7.
28. Same word as in v 19. On this word, see "do evil" in 1 Pet 3:13.
29. Or, "serve". Same word as in Ex 3:12, to which this alludes. On this word, see Heb 12:28.
30. On this word, see "born" in 1 Jn 2:29. Same word as in v 29; Mt 1:2.
31. Or, "put him in charge". Same word as in v 27.
32. Some manuscripts omit this word {C}.
33. Some manuscripts say "the land of Egypt" {N}.
34. Used only here. GK 5964. Used of "forage, fodder" for cattle, "food" for people. Related to "grass, hay".

1. Or, "reacquainted to, recognized by". Used only here. GK 341. Same word as in Gen 45:1, which has different grammar, "made himself known".
2. Or, "visible". On this word, see "evident" in Rom 1:19. Not related to "make known" earlier.
3. Or, "consisting in". GK 1877.
4. Gen 46:27 (and Ex 1:5; Deut 10:22) says 70 persons, and that Joseph had "two sons". Stephen is quoting the Septuagint of Gen 46:27, which (along with Ex 1:5) says 75 persons, including 66 plus Joseph's "nine sons". On who might be included in the two counts, consult the commentaries.
5. That is, died. On this word, see Mk 9:48.
6. Jacob purchased this land in Shechem (Gen 33:19), and Joseph and his sons were buried there (Josh 24:32). Abraham purchased land in Machpelah (Gen 23:14-20), and Jacob was buried there (Gen 49:29-32; 50:13). Stephen has abbreviated all this. In substituting Abraham for Jacob as the purchaser here, some think Stephen confused the two and Luke recorded what he actually said. Others think an early error was made copying the manuscript of Acts (for which there is no evidence at present). For other views, consult the commentaries.

16. Or, "made, forced". Rendered this way, it gives the culmination of Pharaoh's mistreatment, as described in Ex 1:11-22. Or, "that he might cause...", giving the purpose of his mistreatment, which was to control the size of the Hebrew population, Ex 1:9-10. On this word, see "does" in Rev 13:13.

1. Now Stephen finishes the foundation for his answer to the first charge against him. Stephen is not speaking against Moses, 6:11, and the Law, 6:13. But the fathers of these Jews rejected this Moses sent to them, this one who did signs and wonders, just as they are rejecting Jesus now. Moses gave them the Law, the word of God, which they also rejected, just as they were rejecting His words now. Stephen makes the point with Moses here, and applies it to his hearers in v 51-52.
2. Instead of "has sent forth", some manuscripts say "sent forth" {K}.
3. Some manuscripts omit this word {C}.
4. Or, "redeemer". Used only here. GK 3392. Related to "redemption" in Rom 3:24.

6. Some manuscripts say "in the land of Egypt"; others, "in Egypt" {N}.
7. Some manuscripts say "the Lord your God" {K}.
8. God did so, and these Jews are rejecting Him, as their fathers did Moses. Some manuscripts add "You shall listen-to Him" {N}, as in 3:22.

10. Some manuscripts say "you" {B}.

21. Stephen is quoting the Septuagint of Amos 5:25-27, which gives the names Moloch and Rephan. The manuscripts have several spellings of the name of this god, including Rephan, Rompha, and Remphan {N}. GK 4818.
22. Or, "deport, resettle". Elsewhere only in v 4, where it is a positive removal for blessing. Here, it is a negative removal for judgment. GK 3579. Related to "deportation" in Mt 1:17.
23. This phrase "tabernacle of testimony" is also in Rev 15:5.
24. Stephen now lays the foundation to answer the second charge, that he spoke against this holy place, 6:13. God does not dwell in any man-made place. This place is only holy to the degree it is set apart to Him. If the Jews killed the Messiah, and God chose to destroy this place as Jesus said, Stephen does no wrong in saying so.
25. This refers to "tabernacle".
26. Or, "received in turn". Used only here. GK 1342. It is used of something received from a former holder. Related to "successor" in 24:27.

1. Or, "proved to be, came to be". GK 1181. Some manuscripts say "have become" {K}.
2. Or, "traitors". Elsewhere only as "traitor" in Lk 6:16; 2 Tim 3:4. GK 4595. Your fathers killed the announcers; you killed the announced One!
3. Same word as in 3:14; 28:4. Elsewhere only in Mt 22:7; 1 Pet 4:15; Rev 21:8; 22:15. GK 5839. Related word in Act 9:1.
4. Or, "in, at". GK 1650.
5. Or, "decrees, ordinances, commanded things". It is plural here. Stephen could mean the directions given to angels by God, or the directions given by angels to Moses. On this word, see "ordinance" in Rom 13:2.
6. Same word as in 5:33.
7. Some think Jesus is standing to welcome Stephen to heaven; others, to call him home to Him; others, as an advocate in Stephen's defense; others, as a witness against his murderers. There are other views. Note that it is this vision Jesus granted to Stephen (which these Jews considered blasphemy) which pushed them over the edge and resulted in Stephen's death.
8. This is a participle, "having been opened", that is, "standing open".
9. These Jews did not want to hear any more "blasphemy" from Stephen. On this word, see "control" in 2 Cor 5:14.
10. Same word as used of the pigs "rushing" down the hill, Mt 8:32; Mk 5:13; Lk 8:33. These leaders stampeded upon Stephen in a violent attack. Elsewhere only in Act 19:29. GK 3994. Related to "attempt" in 14:5, and "violence" in Rev 18:21.
11. This word is used of someone about 24-40 years old, in the prime of life. Prior to that is one's "youth". Elsewhere only in 20:9; 23:17. GK 3733.

20. Or, "harming, damaging, ruining, spoiling; inflicting outrages, indignities, and personal injuries upon". Used only here. GK 3381. Related words not in the NT mean "spoiler, destroyer"; "injurious, destructive"; "outrage, maltreatment".
21. Same word as "drag" in 14:19; 17:6. On this word, see "sweep away" in Rev 12:4.
22. That is, the one in 6:5. Philip is distinguished from the apostles in v 14.
23. Some think Luke means its main city, known as Samaria in the OT, and as Sebaste in NT times, but called Samaria here to link this to Act 1:8; others, "the" main religious city of Samaria, a city named Neapolis (Shechem in the OT). Some manuscripts omit this word, so that it reads "a city of Samaria" {C}.
24. Or, "giving heed to". Same word as in v 10, 11. On this word, see 1 Tim 3:8.
25. Luke changes subjects from "many" people, to "they", the spirits. Some manuscripts smooth it out, "For unclean spirits shouting with a loud voice were coming out of many having them" {N}.
26. This is a participle, "having been paralyzed". On this word, see "made feeble" in Heb 12:12.
27. Used only here. GK 3405. Related to "magic-arts" in v 11, and to "magician" in 13:6. This man is known as Simon Magus, "Magus" being the Greek word for "magician" found in 13:6.
28. Same word as in v 11, 13. On this word, see Mk 2:12.
29. Or, "people", in the sense of the people as a whole. GK 1620. This word is usually rendered "Gentile, nation" (see 15:23 on it).
30. More literally, "is", as the Greek typically phrases it.
31. That is, the supernatural spirit, angel or demon, the divine being. Simon is one of God's "Powers", the one being called "Great". He is the Power named "Great". "Power" may be used in this sense also in Mt 14:2; 24:29; Mk 6:14; 13:25; Lk 21:26; Rom 8:38; 1 Pet 3:22. On this word, see Mk 5:30. Some manuscripts omit "being called", so that it says "This one is the Great Power of God" {A}.
32. Some manuscripts add "the things" {K}, so that it says "announcing-as-good-news the things about...".
33. The phrase "announcing the good news about the kingdom of God" is similar to Lk 4:43; 8:1; 16:16.
34. On this word, see 1 Cor 12:10. Some manuscripts say "miracles and signs" {K}.

- 3B. And the apostles in Jerusalem, having heard that “Samaria has accepted^A the word of God”¹, sent-forth^B Peter and John to them—*who, having come down, prayed for them so that they might receive the Holy Spirit² 14 15
- 1C. For He had not yet fallen³ upon any of them, but they had only been baptized⁴ in the name of the Lord Jesus⁵ 16
- 2C. Then they were laying^C their hands⁶ on them, and they were receiving the Holy Spirit 17
- 3C. Now Simon— having seen that the Spirit⁷ was⁸ given⁹ through the laying-on^D of the hands of the apostles— offered^E them money^F, *saying, “Give this authority^G to me also, so-that¹⁰ on whomever I lay on my hands, he may receive the Holy Spirit” 18 19

the intention of your heart will be forgiven^O you. *For¹⁷ I see you being in the gall¹⁸

- 2D. And having responded, Simon said, “You²¹ pray to the Lord for me, so that nothing of the things which you have spoken may come upon me” 24
- 4C. So indeed the ones— having solemnly-testified²², and having spoken the word of the Lord— were returning²³ to Jerusalem and announcing-the-good-news-to^P many villages of the Samaritans 25
- 4B. Now an angel of the Lord spoke to Philip saying, “Arise and go toward the south²⁴ on the road going down from Jerusalem to Gaza²⁵”. This is a wilderness^Q [road].²⁶ *And having arisen, he proceeded 26 27

- 3D. Who³² had come to Jerusalem to worship³³, *and was returning, and sitting on his chariot³⁴ 28
- 4D. And he was reading the prophet Isaiah
- 2C. And the Spirit said to Philip, “Approach^R and join³⁵ this chariot” 29
- 1D. And having run up, Philip heard him reading Isaiah the prophet³⁶, and said, “Do you indeed understand^S the things which you are reading?”³⁷ 30
- 2D. And the one said, “How indeed^T might I be able, unless someone will guide^U me?” 31
- 3D. And he invited^V Philip to sit with him, having come up
- 3C. Now the passage of Scripture which he was reading was this— “He was led like a sheep to slaughter³⁸. And as a lamb before the one having sheared^W it is silent^X, so He does not open His mouth. *In His³⁹ humiliation^Y, His justice⁴⁰ was taken-away⁴¹. Who will describe⁴² His generation⁴³? Because His life^Z is taken-away from the earth” [Isa 53:7-8] 32 33
- 1D. And having responded, the eunuch said to Philip, “I ask you, about whom is the prophet saying this— about himself or about some other?” 34

1. Same phrase as in 11:1, where the apostles heard the Gentiles accepted the Word of God.
2. That is, the visible manifestation of the Spirit, proving that God accepted the Samaritans just as He had the Jews in chapter 2. Compare the case of the Gentiles in 10:44, and the disciples of John in 19:2. Though the gift of tongues is not specified as the manifestation, it is reasonable to assume this is intended. On "receive the Spirit", see Jn 7:39; 14:17; 20:22; Act 1:8; 2:33, 38; 8:17, 19; 10:47; 19:2; Rom 8:15; 1 Cor 2:12; 2 Cor 11:4; Gal 3:2, 14.
3. This is a participle, "he was not yet having fallen". This word "fall upon" is used of the Spirit also in 10:44; 11:15. Used 11 times. GK 2158.
4. This is a participle, "they were having been baptized". Here, the Spirit comes after water baptism (as in 2:38; 19:5); in 10:47, before it. In both cases, the Spirit only comes to the new category of believers in the presence of Peter. On this word, see Mk 1:8.
5. These Samaritans had believed and been baptized for forgiveness of sins, but they had not visibly received the gift of the Spirit. Peter and John came to bring it about. The rift between Jews and Samaritans was not allowed to continue in the church. These believers are visibly subordinated to the apostles in the one body of Christ.
6. On "laying on hands", see the related word in Heb 6:2. Used of the Spirit only in v 17, 19; 9:17; 19:6.
7. Some manuscripts say "Holy Spirit" {B}.
8. More literally, "is", as the Greek typically phrases it.
9. It is unclear whether this means that Simon had received the Spirit, or that he only saw others receiving Him.
10. Or, "so that... he will receive". GK 2671.
11. That is, may your silver come to destruction while in your possession. On this word, see 2 Pet 2:1.
12. Peter may be referring to what Simon asked for, the ability to cause others to visibly receive the Spirit, a task only the apostles were able to perform in this case. Even Philip could not do so. Or, he may mean Simon cannot even receive the Spirit, because of his unbelief.
13. Elsewhere only in Mt 3:3; Mk 1:3; Lk 3:4, 5; Act 9:11; 13:10; 2 Pet 2:15. GK 2318.
14. Some think Peter means that Simon is not yet a true believer, but continues to be a slave of sin needing to repent, v 22-23. Others think Simon is a true believer (v 13), but is in need of instruction and discipline.
15. Some manuscripts say "pray to God" {K}.
16. The idiom "if perhaps" is elsewhere only in Mk 11:13; Act 17:27. It means "in the hope that", but expresses some uncertainty about whether it will in fact happen.
17. Peter explains why he is uncertain about whether Simon will do so.
18. Or, "poison, venom", as this word is used in Job 20:14. In Deut 29:18-19, God warns against "a root springing up with gall and bitterness" (same two words as here), referring to an Israelite who turns to other gods while saying "I will have peace even though I follow the stubbornness of my heart". God says He will not spare such a person, but will blot out his name from under heaven. If Peter has this verse in mind, then he means "I see you having the bitter poison of self deception, thinking you can still serve your old gods and claim to believe in the true God". Elsewhere only in Mt 27:34, where it was mixed with wine. GK 5958.
19. That is, in a bitter gall or poison, a gall characterized by bitterness. Elsewhere only in Rom 3:14; Eph 4:31; Heb 12:15. GK 4394. Related word in Col 3:19.
20. Or, "an unrighteous bond", a bond characterized by unrighteousness. This word refers to the thing that binds together, fastens, unites. Elsewhere only in Eph 4:3, "bond" of peace; in Col 3:14, "bond" of perfection; and in Col 2:19, "ligaments". GK 5278. Here, Simon is bound by his unrighteousness. He is shackled or tied to it, and it is restraining him from genuine repentance. He is in bondage to unrighteousness.
21. That is, Peter and John. The word is plural. Simon's fear is clear; his repentance is not stated.
22. Same word as in 2:40. On this word, see "solemnly charge" in 1 Tim 5:21.
23. Some manuscripts say "returned... and announced..." {K}.
24. Or, "Go at mid-day", noon, as this word is used in 22:6. Used only in these two places. GK 3540.
25. This coastal town is on the road to Egypt. Used only here. GK 1124.
26. Instead of being Luke's explanation to his readers, this may be part of the angel's words, explaining which road to take.
27. Ethiopia was the kingdom south of Egypt, along the Red Sea, including parts of modern Sudan. Its capital was Meroe (in the south of modern Sudan). Used only in this verse. GK 134.
28. That is, a castrated male. Such ones were used as keepers of the harem, and served the government in other positions. Our English word is from this Greek word eunouchos, which literally means "to have charge of the bed". Elsewhere only in v 34, 36, 38, 39, and Mt 19:12. GK 2336.
29. Or, "ruler". Elsewhere only as "ruler" in Lk 1:52; 1 Tim 6:15. GK 1541.
30. This is a title, like "Pharaoh", not a name. Luke defines it in what follows. Used only here. GK 2833.
31. Used only here. GK 1125. Related to the word in Mk 12:41.
32. Some manuscripts omit this word {N}, making it "an Ethiopian man... had come".
33. On this word, see Mt 14:33. On the grammar of this word, see "to do" in 24:17. This man was at least a God-fearer, and some think he was a Jew.
34. Used of a traveling chariot or carriage, as here, v 29, 38. Elsewhere only of a war chariot in Rev 9:9. Also used outside the NT of a racing chariot. GK 761.
35. Or, "stick to". On this word, see 1 Cor 6:16.
36. This man may have just purchased the Septuagint (the Greek translation of the OT, also referred to as the LXX), or the scroll from it containing Isaiah. The quote in v 32-33 is from the Septuagint.
37. The grammar of this question implies neither a "yes" nor a "no" answer. It occurs also in Lk 18:8.
38. Elsewhere only in Rom 8:36; Jam 5:5. GK 5375. Related to "victim" in Act 7:42.

- 2C. And he said, “Who are You, sir¹⁸?” 5
- 3C. And the One said,¹⁹ “I am Jesus Whom you are persecuting.²⁰ *But arise and enter into the city, and it will be told you what thing you must^M do” 6
- 4C. And the men traveling-with him were standing speechless²¹, hearing²² the voice²³— but seeing no one 7
- 5C. And Saul was raised²⁴ from the ground. And his eyes having been opened, he was seeing nothing²⁵. And hand-leading²⁶ him, they brought him into Damascus 8
- 6C. And he was not seeing for three days. And he did not eat, nor drink 9
- 21B. Now a certain disciple was in Damascus— Ananias by name 10
- 1C. And the Lord said to him in a vision^N, “Ananias”. And the one said, “Behold, I am here, Lord”
- 1D. And the Lord said to him, “Having arisen^O, go on the lane^P being called ‘Straight’, and seek one-from-Tarsus²⁷, Saul by name, in the house of Judas. For behold— he is praying. And he saw²⁸ a man in a vision²⁹, Ananias by name, having come in and laid^Q hands³⁰ on him so that he might see-again^R” 11 12
- 2D. And Ananias responded, “Lord, I heard³¹ about this man from many— how many bad^S things he did to Your saints^T in Jerusalem. *And here he has authority^U from the chief priests to bind all the ones calling-upon^V Your name” 13
14
- 3D. And the Lord said to him, “Go, because this one is a chosen³² instrument³³ for Me— that he might carry^W My name before both Gentiles and kings, and sons of Israel. *For I will show him how-many³⁴ things he must^M suffer³⁵ for My name” 15 16
- 2C. And Ananias departed, and entered into the house. And having laid^Q his hands on him, he said, “Brother Saul, the Lord has sent me forth^X— Jesus³⁶, the One having appeared^Y to you on the road on which you were coming— so that you may see-again and be filled^Z with the Holy Spirit”³⁷ 17

1. On the idiom "beginning from", see Mt 20:8.
2. Some manuscripts add as v 37, "And Philip said to him, 'If you believe from your whole heart, it is permitted'. And having responded, he said, 'I believe that Jesus Christ is the Son of God' {A}.
3. Or, "stand [still]". GK 2705.
4. Or, "to". On "baptize", see Mk 1:8.
5. Or, "from". Note that this word is referring to both of them, like "into" in v 38. Same word as in Mk 1:10. GK 1666.
6. On the word "snatched away", see 2 Cor 12:2. Luke leaves us to imagine how this occurred. Some manuscripts say "water, the Holy Spirit fell upon the eunuch. And an angel of the Lord snatched" {A}.
7. That is, for he was going on, and Philip was no longer with him.
8. The next time we meet Philip is in 21:8, on an occasion when Luke was with Paul (note that "we came"). So perhaps Luke learned of these events directly from Philip.
9. This is a coastal town north of Gaza. Used only here. GK 111. Known as Ashdod in the OT. Caesarea is still further north.

4. Or, "translated", from Aramaic to Greek in this case. On this word, see 1 Cor 12:30.
5. Dorcas means "gazelle". She was known by both names, "Dorcas" in v 39, and "Tabitha" in v 40, as Peter was known by both Cephas and Peter. Note the similar statement in Jn 1:42.
6. On this word, see "almsgiving" in Mt 6:2. Acts of charity for the poor.
7. More literally, "is", as the Greek typically phrases it.
8. That is, Lydda.
9. That is, hurry to us. Some manuscripts say "urging that he not delay to come to them" {K}.

18. In the Greek, v 1-3 is all one sentence, "Now a certain man in Caesarea, Cornelius... saw in a vision...".
19. Or, "sight". Same word as in 9:10, 12; 10:17, 19; 11:5; 12:9; 16:9, 10; 18:9. Elsewhere only as "sight" in Mt 17:9; Act 7:31. GK 3969. It refers to the thing seen, not the state of the one seeing. Related to the verb "appeared" in Lk 1:11; 22:43; 24:34; Act 7:2, 30; 13:31, etc; and to "vision" in Rev 9:17, and in 2 Cor 12:1. The root word is "to see". In Act 7:30, the angel "appeared" in the bush, and in the next verse Moses marvels at the "vision, sight". In 16:9, both words are used, "a vision appeared". In Act 10:10, 17 and 11:5, it occurs in a trance. "Vision" is the Greek word orama, from which we get "pan-orama", a full view or vision.
20. Or, "plainly, openly, distinctly". Elsewhere only as "openly" in Mk 1:45; Jn 7:10. GK 5747. Related to "evident" in Rom 1:19.

(broad daylight) inside the house (11:13). Others note that in v 30, Cornelius says the vision was at 3 P.M., and suggest that this is the meaning here, "about around 3 P.M.". Luke says "about the sixth hour" in Lk 23:44, and "around the sixth hour" in Act 10:9, but "about around" is found only here. Some manuscripts omit "around", making it "about the ninth hour" {N}.
22. On the idiom, "come-in to", see 16:40.
23. Or, "afraid". On this word, see Lk 24:37.
24. Or, "lord", as in Rev 7:14. Or, in the presence of this angel sent from God, Cornelius could be answering God directly, not the angel, in which case he is saying "What is it, Lord". On this word, see "Master" in Mt 8:2.
25. On this word, see Mt 26:13, where what the woman did was a memorial for her. Here, what Cornelius did was a memorial for him before God, a thing for him to be remembered-by before God. And God "remembered" (v 31) him and brought Peter to him for his salvation, 11:14.
26. Some manuscripts omit this word {B}.
27. Or, "staying as a guest". Same word as in 10:18, 32; 21:16. Elsewhere only as "give lodging" in Act 10:23; "entertained" (as guests, or showed hospitality to guests) in Act 28:7; Heb 13:2; "be strange" in Act 17:20; and "think strange" in 1 Pet 4:4, 16. GK 3826. Related to "lodging" in Act 28:23; "host" in Rom 16:23; "received strangers" in 1 Tim 5:10; and "hospitality" in Heb 13:2. Thus, using this word group, to "strangers" the "host" "shows hospitality" and "provides lodging".
28. Some manuscripts add "This one will tell you what you must do" {N}.
29. Some manuscripts say "Cornelius" {K}.
30. Same word as in v 2.

1. That is, profane, ritually unholy. On this word, see Heb 10:29. The related verb is in v 15.
2. Some manuscripts say "or" {K}.
3. Or, "declared-clean, treated-as-clean". If God told Peter to eat it, then it is clean. Peter is not to correct God on this matter. The OT laws on clean and unclean animals pass away with the old covenant, Heb 8:13. Peter gets the message, at least in part, as seen in v 28. Same word as 11:9 and Mk 7:19. On this word, see "cleansed" in Heb 9:22.
4. Or, "declaring-defiled, treating-as-defiled". Note the tenses. God has already made these things clean. Do not be making them defiled again. The grammar implies "Stop making them defiled". On this word, see Mk 7:15.

10. Or, "inquiring whether Simon... is lodging here."
11. Elsewhere only in Lk 24:41; Jn 4:15, 16; Act 16:28; 17:6; 25:17, 24. GK 1924.
12. Or, "reflecting, thinking". Used only here. GK 1445. Related to the word in Mt 1:20.
13. Some manuscripts omit "to him" {C}.
14. Some manuscripts omit this word {B}.
15. That is, in contrast to what your conscience will tell you, to what you think is proper.
16. Or, "hesitating, wavering, disputing with yourself". Note 11:2-3, where others do this very thing. On this word, see Jam 1:6. The reason Peter would doubt that it was wise or proper to go with them is stated in v 28.
17. Some manuscripts add "having been sent from Cornelius to him" {N}.
18. Or, "given a divine message". On this word, see "revealed" in Lk 2:26.
19. Some manuscripts say "Peter" {K}.
20. That is, six of them, 11:12.
21. Some manuscripts say "they" {C}.
22. Or, And when it came about "that Peter entered" or "that Peter should enter". The point of the unusual grammar is that Cornelius meets him immediately at his entry, whether outside or inside. He meets him at the door of the house, or the gate of the court (like 12:13), and then in v 27 they enter the room where the people are.
23. On this word, see "worship" in Mt 14:33.
24. Used only here. GK 5326. Related to "converse" in 24:26.
25. Or, "forbidden". That is, according to the rabbis, according to their customs. On this word, see 1 Pet 4:3.
26. Or, "associating with, keeping company with". This is equivalent to "ate with" in 11:3. On this word, see 1 Cor 6:16.
27. That is, coming to his home. Equivalent to "went in" in 11:3.
28. That is, a Gentile, a non-Jew, one from another tribe (than Abraham's). Used only here. GK 260. The root word is "tribe".
29. In pondering what the vision might mean (v 17), in the light of the events that followed in v 19-22, Peter made a correct application to the Gentile people the Spirit was preparing him to see. Same word as in v 14.
30. This is an idiom, literally, "From the fourth day until this hour". The Greek thinks of it from the past forward, "from the fourth day". In English, we count it from the present backward, "four days ago".
31. Some manuscripts say "From the fourth day I was fasting until this hour, and praying in my house..." {B}.
32. That is, at my 3 o'clock prayers.
33. On "shining clothing", see Lk 23:11.
34. Or, "kept in mind, not forgotten". On this word, see Lk 1:54. Related to "memorial" in v 4.
35. Elsewhere only in 7:14; 20:17; 24:25. GK 3558.
36. Some manuscripts add, "who, having arrived, will speak to you" {B}.
37. Or, "acted commendably", as in Mt 12:12; Lk 6:27. That is, you did a good thing by having come. Same idiom as in Mk 7:37; 1 Cor 7:37, 38; Phil 4:14; Jam 2:8, 19; 2 Pet 1:19; 3 Jn 6. This word is the adverb of "good", and means "well", "commendably" (in Mt 12:12; Lk 6:27; Gal 4:17), "rightly" (as in Mk 7:6; Jn 4:17), "nicely" (in Mt 7:9). Used 37 times. GK 2822. Related to "good" in 1 Tim 5:10a.
38. Some manuscripts say "by God" {C}.
39. Or, "grasp, comprehend". On this word, see "overcome" in Jn 1:5.
40. On this phrase "in accordance with truth", see Lk 4:25.
41. Used only here. GK 4720. Related to the word in Jam 2:1.
42. These are the two things said about Cornelius in v 2. In other words, even non-Jews fearing and obeying the true God are welcome to Him. They do not have to become Jews first. This is a revolutionary idea to Peter, a Jewish Christian, (note 11:3). Compare Jn 9:31. Peter upholds this principle in chapter 15.
43. Or, "welcome". On this word, see Lk 4:19.
44. Same word as in v 44. The grammar of v 36-38 is complex. Other arrangements are possible. This is the Greek word order. Some think Peter uses similar grammar as in 2:22, "As to Jesus...". Others render it "You know the message", taking the verb "you know" to govern "the message" and "the matter". Others link this with v 34-35, "acceptable to Him, [which is] the message which He sent...". There are other views. Consult the commentaries.
45. Some manuscripts omit this word {C}, making it possible to render it "He sent forth the message to the...".
46. This word modifies "He", "He sent forth... announcing", not "message". God both sent the "message", and He is announcing "peace", from which it is clear that the message concerns this peace.
47. That is, salvation, peace with God. God announced, purchased, and dispenses this peace through Jesus.
48. Some think this word goes with "announcing". He sent, "announcing through Jesus Christ" the good news of peace. Others think it goes with peace, "peace through Jesus Christ". Both are true.
49. Some see this phrase as giving the scope of the message. As to the message sent forth to Israel that Jesus is the source of peace with God—this Jesus is Lord of all, both Jews and Gentiles. He is the judge and the source of forgiveness for all, v 42-43. Others see this as a parenthesis, Peter exalting Jesus after his first mention of Him.

1. Peter gives this group the gospel by first reviewing what they already knew, the historical course of the life of Christ, v 37-39. Then he adds to this that God raised Him, made Him judge of all, and grants forgiveness through Him, v 40-43.
2. Or, "thing, message". This "matter" is summed up in v 38-39. Some render this "the message having come-to-be [proclaimed or spread] throughout all Judea". It is not the same word as "message" in v 36, though it can also mean this. On this word, see "word" in Rom 10:17.
3. In the Greek, the grammatical connection of this phrase "beginning from... proclaimed" to what precedes is unusual, and is simplified in some manuscripts {B}. On the idiom "beginning from", see Mt 20:8.
4. In this rendering, "you know" governs both the "matter" and the person, "Jesus". Others combine "Jesus from Nazareth" with what follows, "how God anointed Him— Jesus from Nazareth— with...", a Hebrew way of speaking, which is smoothed out by dropping "Him". This phrase "Jesus from Nazareth", is elsewhere only in Mt 21:11; Jn 1:45. Compare Lk 24:19-20.
5. Or, "working good". Used only here. GK 2308. Related to "good deed" in 4:9.
6. Or, "exploited, dominated". Elsewhere only in Jam 2:6. GK 2872.
7. Or, "also". Some manuscripts omit this word {K}.
8. Same word as in this phrase in 5:30 and Gal 3:13. Elsewhere only in Mt 18:6; 22:40; Lk 23:39; Act 28:4. GK 3203.
9. The phrase "become visible" is also in Rom 10:20.
10. Or, "appointed beforehand". Used only here. GK 4742. Related to "appointed" in 14:23.
11. That is, Jesus, the raised One.
12. Or, "solemnly testify". On this word, see "solemnly charge" in 1 Tim 5:21.
13. Some manuscripts say "He" instead of "this One" {N}.
14. Or, "appointed, declared, ordained". On this word, see Rom 1:4.
15. As Jesus said in Jn 5:22, 27, etc. As Paul says in 2 Tim 4:1. As Peter says in 1 Pet 4:5.
16. Or, "testify to this".
17. Same word as in 8:16. There, for the Samaritans' benefit, Peter, a Jew, had to lay his hands on them. Here, for the Jewish Christians' benefit, as seen in 11:15-18, the Spirit falls on these Gentiles without Peter's intervention. God used both methods to produce the one result, unity through equality in Christ, 1 Cor 12:13. Compare the case in 19:1.
18. Or, "word". Same word as "message" in v 36. On this word, see "word" in 1 Cor 12:8.
19. That is, the six Jewish Christians with Peter from Joppa (10:23; 11:12), as Luke specifies next.
20. On this word, see Mk 2:12. These Jewish Christians did not expect the Gentile believers to be accepted on equal terms.
21. That is, the gift given by the Spirit, a gift which they all heard, as explained in v 46.
22. More literally, "has", as the Greek typically phrases it.
23. Same word as in 2:17.
24. Peter and the Jewish Christians with him recognize this as "identical" to the Acts 2 experience, 11:15, 17. On "tongues", see 1 Cor 12:10.
25. On this word, see "enlarge" in 2 Cor 10:15. Related to "great" in Act 2:11. Because these Jewish Christians understood the languages in which these Gentile believers were saying these things, they knew it was same gift given to them on Pentecost, 11:15.
26. Or, "withhold". To do so is to forbid God, 11:17 (same word).
27. The grammar indicates that a "no" answer is expected. If these Gentiles received the Spirit like we Jews did, who is able to refuse them baptism? Note that here water baptism follows the falling of Spirit, the opposite of 8:16.
28. Same word as in v 33.
29. Some manuscripts say "the Lord" instead of "Jesus Christ" {B}.
30. Same statement as in 8:14, where the apostles heard the Samaritans accepted the Word of God. Both groups have become Christians without becoming Jews.
31. Since all these in Jerusalem were Jews, some think this refers to a party within the community of believers, the group which later demands that Gentiles be circumcised and keep the Law, 15:5. Here, they are forced to recognize that God saved these Gentiles, v 18. But later in chapter 15, they attempt to dictate how they must live their lives. Others think that Luke means "the Jewish Christians" in general, as in 10:45.
32. Same word as "doubting" in 10:20, which is disputing with oneself. These people are doing the very thing the Spirit told Peter not to do.
33. Though Cornelius was a devout worshiper (10:1), he was in a state of uncircumcision.
34. Some supply "[from the beginning]", based on "in order" later in the verse; others, "[to speak]" or "[to answer]".
35. Or, "setting out, setting forth". Same word as in 18:26; 28:23. Elsewhere only as "exposed" in 7:21. GK 1758.

1. Some manuscripts say "because anything defiled or unclean never" {K}. The added word, "anything", is the same word as in 10:14.
2. Some manuscripts add "to me" {N}.
3. Elsewhere only in Lk 14:5. GK 413.
4. Some manuscripts say "I was" {C}.
5. That is, between you and those Gentiles. "Made a distinction" is the same word as "doubt" in 10:20, but with different grammar. Some manuscripts have the same grammar here, "not doubting at all". Others have a different tense of this word, meaning "making no distinction" {C}. In all these cases, "no" and "not at all" is the same Greek word, GK 3594.
6. Some manuscripts omit this word {C}, so that it says "an angel".
7. Same word as in 10:8, 17, 20; 11:11. On this word, see "sent out" in Mk 3:14. Some manuscripts add "men" {K}.
8. Same word as in 10:5, 29; 11:13, 20:1; 24:24, 26. Elsewhere only as "summon" in 10:22; 25:3. GK 3569.
9. Same word as in this phrase in 10:5, 18, 32. On this word, see "call upon" in 1 Pet 1:17.
10. Same word as 10:22, 44. On this word, see Rom 10:17.
11. Peter had not even begun to apply the message to his hearers when God intervened in 10:44. It had to be this way, because Peter did not properly understand how to apply it to Gentiles! God begins to reveal this in this incident.
12. Same word as in 10:44.
13. Because it was identical to the experience in Acts 2, God's acceptance of these Gentiles was undeniable.
14. The grammar emphasizes the contrast between the two halves of this sentence.
15. Same sentence as in 1:5. Jesus said He would baptize them with the Spirit, and He did so here, with no assistance from Peter. This can only mean that He has accepted these Gentile believers on an equal basis with the Jews at Pentecost. By "you", Jesus must have been including both.
16. Or, "equal, same". On this word, see "equal" in Phil 2:6.
17. Same word as in 2:38; 8:20; 10:45; its only other uses in Acts. On this word, see Rom 5:15.
18. This phrase applies to both groups in what precedes, "[we both] having put faith upon..."
19. On "put faith upon", see Rom 4:5.
20. Or, "prevent, hinder, try to stop". Same word as in 10:47. On this word, see 1 Cor 14:39. All of Peter's actions with regard to these Gentiles were in direct response to God Himself, objectively proven by the fact that God gave them the identical gift.
21. That is, with reference to their complaint, 11:2-3. On this word, see 1 Thes 4:11.
22. Some manuscripts say "were glorifying" {N}.
23. On this word, see 2 Cor 7:10. Compare 5:31.
24. The Jewish believers knew the message was for the world. But that salvation was to come to the Gentiles apart from Judaism, with all the implications that this has, was a new thought for them. They were assuming salvation would be proclaimed to the world as part of and through a true, spiritual Judaism; that Judaism would reign and all people would become Jews as part of finding life in Christ; that Israel's culture would gloriously become world culture.
25. On this word, see 8:1, to which event Luke is referring.
26. On this region, see 21:2.
27. On this island, see 13:4.
28. This is a city north of Israel; the capital of the Roman province of Syria, mentioned also in 11:20, 22, 26, 27; 13:1; 14:26; 15:22, 23, 30, 35; 18:22; Gal 2:11. GK 522. On another Antioch, see 13:14.
29. That is, men from the island of Cyprus (4:36, 13:4), and the city of Cyrene (2:10, 6:9).
30. Some manuscripts omit this word {K}.
31. In its only other uses in 6:1 and 9:29, this word meant foreign-born, Greek-speaking Jews, like the Cyprian and Cyrenian men speaking the gospel here. Here, it must mean "Greeks" in the sense of "Gentiles", in contrast to the "Jews only" in v 19. GK 1821. The conversion of Greek-speaking Jews would not have aroused interest in Jerusalem. Some manuscripts say "Greeks" {C}, a word related to "Hellenist" which is found in Gal 3:28.
32. Or, "being". Same word as in 13:1, but different grammar. Some manuscripts omit this word {N}.
33. Some manuscripts omit "to go" {C}.
34. Or, "exhorting". Same word as in 14:22. This is the verb related to the meaning of "Barnabas", as explained by 4:36.
35. Or, "remaining in, staying with, abiding with". Same word as in Act 13:43; 1 Tim 5:5. Elsewhere only as "remain with" in Mt 15:32; Mk 8:2; and "stay on" in Act 18:18; 1 Tim 1:3. GK 4693.
36. Or, "resolve, plan". That is, with a resolved, planned devotion and resolution of heart. Same word as in 2 Tim 3:10; Act 27:13. Used of God's "purpose" in Rom 8:28.
37. Or, "was encouraging everyone with purpose of heart to be...". In other words, the phrase "with purpose of heart" could be describing Barnabas's encouraging, or these believers' continuing in the Lord. In the Greek word order, it stands between the two.
38. Some manuscripts say "Barnabas" {K}.
39. On this city, see 9:30.
40. Elsewhere only in Lk 2:44, 45. GK 349.
41. Some manuscripts make this word the subject, "And it came about that they for a whole year were..." {K}.
42. This is the Greek word order of this sentence. On this phrase, "and it came about that", see Lk 5:1. This word is used this way only here in Acts. Others think this word is not part of the construction found in Lk 5:1, but means "And it came about for them that for indeed a whole year". Some manuscripts omit this word, so that it says "And it came about... that for a whole year" {K}.
43. That is, Barnabas and Saul were brought together for a joint ministry in the church. Others think Luke means they "were brought-in by the church", that is, received hospitably, as this word is used in Mt 25:35. Others think he means the disciples "were gathered together" in the church, and Barnabas and Saul "taught" them, thus implying a different subject for each verb. Others simplify it as "they were gathered together with the church".
44. That is, the year just mentioned. Or, it may be a more general reference to the time of growth in Antioch.

8. Some think Luke means Barnabas and Saul left Antioch before Herod's death in chapter 12, and returned after it in 12:25, placing the famine in A.D. 43-44. Others think he is summarizing here what occurs in 12:25, meaning they leave and return some time after Herod's death. In this case, the famine could have been in A.D. 47-48. It is also possible that multiple trips were made, to which Luke refers here in summary fashion.
9. Luke may mean the time of the famine, when Barnabas and Saul were in Jerusalem between 11:30 and 12:25. Or, this may be a more general reference to this period of time. This phrase "about that time", is also in 19:23; and is similar to the phrase in Rom 5:6; 9:9.
10. That is, Herod Agrippa I, the grandson of Herod the Great (see Mt 2:1), the son of Aristobulus. Claudius (see Act 11:28) gave him Judea (which had been under Roman prefects like Pilate since A.D. 6, see Mt 2:22) in A.D. 41. This gave Agrippa I a kingdom as large as Herod the Great. He was king of Israel until his death in A.D. 44, which is described in v 23. Agrippa I was the first king since Herod the Great, and the last king of Israel. Upon his death, Judea was put under the rule of Roman procurators until the revolt in A.D. 66.

Some manuscripts say "from" {C}, so that it says "returned from Jerusalem, having fulfilled..."

John-Mark departed from Barnabas and Paul once they reached Perga, 15:38. The reason for his departure is not stated. Consult the commentaries for the various suggestions.

25. This word is singular, referring to David.
26. Or, "in agreement with, in harmony with". Paul gives his explanation of this in the next phrase. GK 2848.
27. Or, "wants, wishes, purposes". Though used 62 times, it is plural only here and as "wants" in Eph 2:3. Elsewhere it is rendered "will". On this word, see Jn 7:17. It refers to the multiple expressions of God's will as David's life progressed. Paul combines Ps 89:20, 1 Sam 13:14, and his own words into a summary quotation giving God's view of David.
28. The key point of Paul's history review in v 17-22 is that God did these things. He took the initiative and acted for His people whom He chose. And so it is with the Savior. Some manuscripts say "raised up for" {B}.
29. Or, "to".
30. Or, "proclaimed-beforehand". Used only here. GK 4619. Related to "proclaim" in 2 Tim 4:2.

It is not the same word as "raise up" David in 13:22, but the same idea. Others think Paul is referring to His resurrection, as this word is used in v 34, where he adds "from the dead". On this word, see Lk 18:33.
13. That is, "And as to the fact that".

29. Or, "disappear, be destroyed". On this word, see "disfigure" in Mt 6:16.

1. Elsewhere only in 1:24. GK 2841.
2. That is, God testified that these Gentiles were truly and fully saved, just like we Jews, when He gave them the Spirit.
3. This word, "make a distinction", is the same word as in 11:12.
4. Or, "tempting, putting to the test". If God is put to the test by these former Pharisees (v 5), He will respond to them with disciplinary judgment, because they are rejecting the testimony He Himself has clearly given. On this word, see "tempt" in Heb 2:18.
5. Using the same word, Paul calls it a "yoke" of slavery in Gal 5:1. It is not Christ's easy "yoke", Mt 11:30.
6. This word "lay on" is the same word as in v 28; Mt 23:4. On this word, see Lk 10:30.
7. Or, "were strong-enough, had strength". In addition to rejecting God's own testimony, these former Pharisees are trying to impose a Law on others which they themselves could not keep (as Paul also says in Gal 6:13). On this word, see "can do" in Gal 5:6.
8. Some manuscripts add "Christ" {N}.
9. On this idiom, "in accordance with the way", see 27:25.
10. Same word as in v 14; 21:19. On this word, see "expound" in Jn 1:18. Related to "describe in detail" in v 3.
11. The signs and wonders confirm that God was with these two, and their message.
12. That is, Barnabas and Paul.
13. That is, the brother of Jesus, writer of James, and head of the Jerusalem church. See Mt 13:55 on him.
14. That is, Peter, v 7. This is the Aramaic form of "Simon", as in 2 Pet 1:1. See Lk 6:14. GK 5208.
15. Same word as in v 36. James is referring to Cornelius in Acts 10.
16. Or, "build again". Used only in this verse, twice. GK 488. Related to "build, build up, edify" (see "edify" in 1 Cor 14:4).
17. This is a participle, "having fallen", that is, "the tent of David having fallen".
18. Or, "dug down, razed to the ground, utterly destroyed". Elsewhere only in Rom 11:3, of altars. GK 2940. The root word is "to dig".
19. Or, "the remaining ones". That is, those other than the Jews. Used only here. GK 2905.
20. Or, "named upon them", as an act of ownership. That is, on whom God has placed His name. A Hebrew way of speaking. Same idiom as in Jam 2:7, "the good name having been called upon you". In both cases, "called" is the word "called upon" in 1 Pet 1:17.
21. Some manuscripts say "all these things. All His works are known to God from the past age" {B}.
22. On this adjective, see Rom 1:19.
23. On this phrase, "from the past age", see Lk 1:70.
24. Or, "annoying, causing difficulties for". Used only here. GK 4214. Related to the word in Lk 6:18.
25. Same word as in 1 Thes 4:3. The following list is repeated in v 29 and in 21:25.
26. Or, "polluted, defiled". That is, the things defiled by their association with idol worship, specified in v 29 to mean eating "foods sacrificed to idols". Used only here. GK 246. The related verb "defiled" is used in Dan 1:8; Mal 1:7, 12.
27. Some think James is specifically referring to the sexual immorality associated with idol worship; others, to all sexual immorality; others, to the spiritual adultery consisting of pagan worship of any kind. Some manuscripts omit "and sexual immorality", resulting in a threefold prohibition {A}. On this word, see 1 Cor 5:1. Some think this is the only moral issue, the other three being matters of Jewish dietary laws (falling under 1 Cor 10:23-33). Others think all four are moral issues associated with idol worship (falling under 1 Cor 10:14-22). There are other views.
28. That is, from eating the meat of strangled animals, because the blood remained in it. This command regarding eating blood goes back to Noah's time in Gen 9:4; and is repeated in the Law of Moses, Lev 17:10-14. Elsewhere only in v 29; 21:25. GK 4465.
29. Some think James means contact with or eating/drinking blood. Others think he is referring to murder.
30. Some think this gives the reason for these restrictions. It is not to be saved, v 9, 11. It is so as not to offend the Jews in every city who still preach Moses. It is so as not to unnecessarily hinder the progress of the gospel with them, as in 1 Cor 9:20. Others think it gives the reason for not troubling the Gentiles, v 19. Moses already has his advocates.
31. Same word as in v 25. On this word, see 1 Cor 1:27.
32. Some manuscripts say "named" {K}.

37. Notice that the Jewish believers do not say "Gentile brothers". They think of them as "ones from the Gentiles turning to God", v 19. They consider them brothers, and no longer part of the Gentiles (pagans), in keeping with v 14. Compare 21:25 and 1 Cor 12:2. This word means "Gentiles, nations". It sometimes refers to "non-Jews" (including Christians, as in Gal 2:12; Eph 3:1), and other times to "unbelievers, pagans", from God's point of view. Used 162 times. GK 1620.
38. Antioch (see 11:19) is the capital of Syria. Syria and Cilicia are neighboring provinces, north of Galilee.
39. These men claimed authority they did not possess, and taught a message not propounded by the apostles or the church in Jerusalem. Some manuscripts omit "having gone out" {C}.

41. Some manuscripts add "saying to be circumcised and keep the Law" {A}.
42. Some manuscripts say "that having chosen men, we should send..." {C}, as in v 22.
43. This phrase refers back specifically to Barnabas and Paul.

1. Or, "Be well, Keep well". This is a command often used to close letters, but used only here in the NT. GK 4874.
2. Or, "exhortation, comfort". On this word, see 4:36. Related to "encouraged" in v 32.
3. Some think Luke means in addition to those in Antioch, 13:1; others, in addition to Barnabas and Paul; others, in addition to being "leading men" in Jerusalem (v 22) sent to deliver the letter.
4. Or, "exhorted". Same word as in 11:23; 14:22. On this word, see "exhort" in Rom 12:8.
5. On this word, see 14:22. Same word as in v 41.
6. Or, "great", meaning "great" in quantity (long, lengthy) or in quality. This rendering assumes Luke is referring to the single occasion when the letter was delivered by these men, v 31. If he is referring to multiple occasions during their stay (v 33), then this would be rendered "much speaking", as it is in 20:2. Same word as "great" in Heb 5:11. On this word, see "many" in Mt 13:52.
7. "Peace to you" is a common greeting. This word is used 92 times, of peace from God, peace with God, and peace between people and governments. GK 1645.
8. Some manuscripts say "from the brothers to the apostles" {K}.

13. Some manuscripts have a related word meaning "determined, decided, resolved" {K}.
14. Same word as in 28:22. On this word, see "consider worthy" in 2 Thes 1:11.
15. Same word as in v 37; 12:25. Elsewhere only in Gal 2:1. GK 5221. Related to "take along" in v 39.
16. Or, "departed". Some give it a stronger sense here, "abandoned, deserted". On this word, see "depart" in 1 Tim 4:1. Not related to "departed" in 13:13. Paul thought it was not "fitting" because since Perga (13:13), Mark had not worked with them. The reason he left them is not given. Some think these words imply that Paul felt Mark deserted them, and was a quitter; that he left them for reasons that reflect poorly on his character at that time. Barnabas wanted to work with his cousin (see 12:25). Mark later served with Peter, wrote the Gospel, and served with Paul, 1 Pet 5:13; 2 Tim 4:11.
17. Or, "from". This may mean that Mark had not worked with Barnabas and Paul at all since then, even in Antioch, 15:35; or, it may refer only to the work to which he now wants to return.
18. Luke is referring to 13:13.
19. Or, "a provoking, stirring up, an irritation, exasperation, aggravation". On this word, see "provoking" in Heb 10:24. Here, it is a provoking to disagreement. In Hebrews, it is a provoking to love.
20. Or, "arose, occurred". GK 1181. The difference of opinion was not resolvable. Both men were strongly committed to their positions, and the subsequent history of the three of them proved both were right. Sometimes, as with living cells, division is multiplication, because the divided parties spread life, not a cancer of bitterness.
21. Or, "parted, split". That is, a disagreement arose, with the result that they were separated from one another by it. On this word, see "split" in Rev 6:14.
22. This was the native country of Barnabas, and the first place he went with Paul and John-Mark (13:4-5). Instead of the two of them revisiting "every city" (15:36), Barnabas and Mark take those in Cyprus which all three of them had visited (13:5-12), and Paul takes those in Pamphylia and Galatia which only he and Barnabas had visited (13:13-14:24).
23. Or, "selected", literally, "called upon". Elsewhere only as "called" in Jn 5:2. GK 2141. The root word is "to say".

36. Or, "decisions, commands". On this word, see Eph 2:15.
37. Or, "to be keeping the decrees having been...", "that they should be keeping the decrees having been...", the Greek word order. On this word, see Jn 12:25.

- 5C. And the crowd rose up together against them. And the magistrates, having torn-off their⁴⁸ garments, were giving-orders^{CC} to beat them with rods⁴⁹. *And having laid many blows on⁵⁰ them, they threw them into prison, having commanded^W the jailer to keep them securely⁵¹ 22 23

1. Some manuscripts say "Now having gone through..." {N}.
2. By "the Phrygian and Galatian region" (referring to one region), Luke would mean the region of Galatia inhabited by Phrygians, which includes the cities of Iconium and Pisidian Antioch. Others render the first as a noun (as in 18:23), so that it says "Phrygia and the Galatian region". In this case, Phrygia is the region extending from Iconium and Antioch northward toward Bithynia, and the Galatian region is the province east of Phrygia. Some think that the unnamed cities of North Galatia referred to in the latter case were the recipients of Galatians (see 14:28).
3. Or, "prevented... from speaking". On this word, see 1 Cor 14:39.
4. That is, to continue west from Antioch into the region of Asia, bounded by the regions of Mysia to the north and Phrygia on the east. Later, Paul spends two years in Asia (19:10, 26), based in Ephesus. The seven churches of Rev 2-3 are in Asia.
5. Some manuscripts omit this word {K}.
6. Or, "along, upon, toward, to, down to, over against". GK 2848.
7. This indicates Paul and Silas turned north (perhaps at Antioch, or at Lystra) instead of continuing west. They end up in northern Phrygia at the latitude of Mysia. The region of Mysia, like part of the region of Phrygia, was part of the Roman province of Asia. The city names are not given. GK 3695.
8. This is the Roman province north of Asia, and east of the region of Mysia. Instead, Paul and Silas turned west.
9. This phrase "the Spirit of Jesus" occurs only here. Some manuscripts say "the Spirit"; others, "the Spirit of the Lord" {A}.
10. That is, in terms of ministry. GK 4216.
11. Troas was a key city on the Aegean Sea (in present day Turkey, like all the cities and regions mentioned in 16:1, 6-8). This city is in the region of Mysia, in the Roman province of Asia. It was a Roman colony.
12. Macedonia is the Roman province across the Aegean Sea from Troas, part of present day Greece.
13. Some think that this man was Luke, who joins Paul in v 10.
14. That is, having crossed the Aegean Sea. On this word, see Heb 11:29.
15. This is the first "we" by which Luke includes himself in Paul's group. Some think Luke joined Paul at this point. "They" came to Troas (v 8), and "we" went to Macedonia (v 10).
16. Or, "bringing together, uniting" the vision with the call. GK 5204.
17. Some manuscripts say "the Lord" {B}.
18. More literally, "has", as the Greek typically phrases it.
19. Or, "summoned". On this word, see "call to" in 2:39.

22. This is an island in the Aegean Sea, west and north of Troas, almost halfway to Neapolis. GK 4903.
23. The city of Philippi is about 10 miles or 16 kilometers inland from its port city, Neapolis. GK 3735.
24. This is a conjectural reading accepted by the UBS committee, and is not found in any Greek manuscript {D}. It is offered because Philippi was not "the" first (chief, leading) city of Macedonia, and because the Romans divided Macedonia into four "districts". Thessalonica was "the" chief city of Macedonia. Amphipolis (17:1) was "the" leading city of the district in which Philippi was located. Others consider this conjecture unnecessary, accepting the reading of the Greek manuscripts, "which is a leading city of the district...". There are other views. On this word, see 1 Cor 15:13.
25. That is, Philippi was a Roman colony in the province of Macedonia. Used only here. GK 3149.
26. That is, the gate of the city. Some manuscripts say "city" {K}.
27. Some manuscripts say "a place where prayer was the custom" {C}, that is, where group prayer was customarily made. There were apparently not enough Jews (ten men were required) in this Roman colony to have a synagogue.
28. Perhaps Euodia and Syntyche (Phil 4:2) were among these women.
29. Or, "a seller of purple cloth". Thyatira was famous for its purple dyes. It is in the province of Asia. GK 4527.
30. Or, "faithful to, trustworthy in". On this word, see "faithful" in Col 1:2.
31. Or, "forced" us, using social force or pressure. Elsewhere only as "strongly urge" in Lk 24:29. GK 4128.

34. Or, "acting as a seer, giving oracles, divining". Used only here. GK 3446.

36. The hearers may have taken this to mean the highest of the gods they worshiped, not the one and only true God. Or, perhaps they understood it as a reference to the Jewish God. On this word, see "highest" in Mt 21:9.
37. Some manuscripts say "us" {B}.
38. The hearers probably took this to mean one among many ways to salvation, not the only way.
39. Paul was probably annoyed at the place this person was assuming for herself, as well as at her words. No kind of validation from her would be accepted by Paul. On this word, see "greatly disturbed" in 4:2.

24. That is, the fellow believers, Lydia included, as "brothers" (plural) is sometimes used in the NT. To address a mixed group, "brothers" was used ("sisters" always refers to females). This word means physical brothers (males), but is also used figuratively of fellow family members in a broader sense. The reader can discern from the context whether the reference of the plural is to physical brothers, fellow-members of Abraham's family (male, or male and female Israelites), or fellow-members of God's spiritual family (male, or male and female fellow-believers). Reflecting modern sentiments, when the plural is used figuratively with reference to both men and women, some prefer to make this explicit by rendering this word "brothers and sisters". Used 343 times. GK 81. Compare "sister" in 1 Cor 9:5.

- 6B. And the brothers immediately^O sent-away^P both Paul and Silas during the night to Berea— who, having arrived, were going into the synagogue of the Jews
- 1C. Now these ones were more-noble¹⁰ than the ones in Thessalonica— who¹¹ received^Q the word with all eagerness^R, examining^S the Scriptures daily to see if these things might hold so¹²
- 2C. So indeed many of them believed— and not a few of the prominent¹³ Greek women and men
- 3C. But when the Jews from Thessalonica came-to-know^T that the word of God was proclaimed^U by Paul in Berea also, they came there also, shaking¹⁴ and stirring-up¹⁵ the crowds
- 4C. And at that time the brothers immediately^O sent Paul away, that he might go as-far-as¹⁶ to the sea. And both Silas and Timothy remained^V there
- 7B. Now the ones conducting¹⁷ Paul brought him as far as Athens¹⁸. And having received a command^W for Silas and Timothy that they should come to him as soon as they could, they were going away [to them]. *And while Paul was waiting-for^X them¹⁹ in Athens, his spirit was being provoked²⁰ within him while observing^Y the city being full-of-idols
- 1C. So indeed he was reasoning^Z in the synagogue with the Jews and the ones worshipping²¹, and in the marketplace every day with the ones happening-to-be-there
- 2C. And some of the Epicurean²² and Stoic²³ philosophers²⁴ also²⁵ were conversing²⁶ with him
- 1D. And some were saying, “What would this scavenger²⁷ be intending^{AA} to say?”
- 2D. And others, “He seems to be a proclaimer of strange²⁸ deities²⁹”— because he was announcing-the-good-news^{BB} as to Jesus and the resurrection

1. Some manuscripts say "But the Jews not being persuaded—having..." {N}, where "not being persuaded" is related to "persuaded" in v 4, and which could also be rendered "But the disobeying Jews...", similar to 14:2.
2. That is, idle people hanging around the marketplace.
3. On the word "throw into a commotion", see Mt 9:23.
4. That is, Paul and Silas.
5. Or, "politarchs". This is the title for the five or six member city council in Thessalonica. Elsewhere only in v 8. GK 4485.
6. That is, "received as guests". On this word, see Lk 10:38.
7. This word means another of a different kind. On this word, see "different" in 1 Cor 12:9.
8. Or, "agitated, troubled, disturbed". Same word as in v 13. On this word, see "disturb" in Gal 1:7.
9. Or, "the sufficient-amount-of [money]". The city authorities got a pledge from Jason and the others that they would send Paul away, and took a large enough bond to ensure that they did so. Because of this quick and effective expulsion, whereby Paul was "orphaned" (1 Thes 2:17) from them, we have Paul's two letters to the Thessalonians. On this word, see "sufficient" in 2 Cor 3:5.
10. Or, "more-noble-minded, more-open-minded", referring to their spiritual "nobility". The Bereans were open to examining the Scripture on the matter. On this word, see "well-born" in 1 Cor 1:26.
11. This refers back to "these" Bereans.
12. That is, might be true. On this phrase "to hold so", see 12:15.

15. Same word as in v 8. Some manuscripts omit "and stirring up" {B}.
16. Some manuscripts have a word that can make this mean "as-if" to the sea or toward the sea {N}. Some think the Bereans took Paul by boat to Athens; others, that they pretended to be going by sea, but went by land, throwing off their pursuers.
17. That is, the ones "put in charge" of Paul's safe journey. On this word, see "put in charge" in 6:3.
18. The city of Athens is in the Roman province of Achaia.
19. Timothy, at least, did join Paul there, and was then sent back to Thessalonica, 1 Thes 3:1.

24. Used only here. GK 5815. Related to "philosophy" in Col 2:8.
25. Some manuscripts omit this word {K}.
26. Or, "pondering, debating, disputing". Literally, they were "throwing [words] together" with Paul in a friendly manner, in accordance with the custom of these philosophers. GK 5202.
27. Or, "babblers". This word was used of birds and people hanging around the marketplace picking up and living off of scraps falling from loads of merchandise. The word literally means "picking up seeds" (the root word is "seed", GK 5065), and some render it "seed-picker". The philosophers are ridiculing Paul as one picking up scraps of truth from others and passing them on as his own without full understanding. Note that Paul uses phrases and quotations from both philosophies in his speech in v 22-31. "Scavenger" places emphasis on the random gathering of these tidbits of truth; "babblers, chatterers", on the unsophisticated proclamation of them. Used only here. GK 5066.
28. Related to "being strange" in v 20. Same word as in Heb 13:9.
29. Or, "gods, divinities", as these Greeks used this word. In its other 62 uses in the NT, it is rendered "demons", as Jews and Christians use the word. GK 1228. Note 1 Cor 10:20. Related to "demon-possessed" in Mt 8:16.
30. Transliterated from the Greek, this word means "hill of Ares" (the Greek god of war, for whom the Roman name was "Mars"). This was used to refer to the hill itself, and to the city's governing council that met there, before whom Paul was taken. One of its members is named in v 34. Elsewhere only in v 22. GK 740. Related to the word in v 34.
31. Note the polite nuance. The philosophers do not brand Paul's teachings as "strange things", reflecting a conclusion about them. They call them things presently "being strange" to them, about which they want to know more. Same word as "think strange" in 1 Pet 4:4.
32. More literally, "what these things intend to be", an idiom elsewhere only in 2:12. Same word as "intending" in v 18. On this word, see "willing" in Jn 7:17.

 23. Since Ephesus was on the coast, most of Asia between Ephesus and Phrygia (18:23) was upper country in relation to that city. On this word, see "part" in Rom 11:25.
 24. Some manuscripts omit this word {C}.
 25. This was the capital and chief city of Asia, where Paul was forbidden to go in 16:6. He stopped here briefly in 18:19-21, planning to return. Now he spends over two years here, 19:10. Apollos had just left here, 18:24-27.
 26. Some think these are Christian disciples in a similar spiritual condition as Apollos in 18:25; others, disciples of John the Baptist.
- Some think Luke is implying they were fruit from Apollos's ministry before he met Priscilla and Aquila in 18:26. In any case, Luke's purpose in recording this event may be to demonstrate the apostolic authority of Paul, through whom these receive the Spirit just as it took place through Peter in Act 2, 8, 10, for reasons that are clear from 1 and 2 Corinthians. God gives the Spirit through Paul to ones like Apollos. There are other views of Luke's purpose. There are also differences of opinion as to why only these four occurrences of the giving of the Spirit are recorded in Acts, and the theological inferences to be drawn from this fact and from the events themselves.
27. Some manuscripts say "Ephesus. And having found some disciples, he said..." {N}.
 28. Some take this participle to mean "when you believed"; others, "after you believed".
 29. Some manuscripts include this word {K}.
 30. This word is supplied as in Jn 7:39. Or, "hear whether there is yet a Holy Spirit", "hear whether there is a Holy Spirit". These disciples were ignorant of the coming and presence of the Spirit, and of the fulfillment of John's teaching, Mt 3:11. As John's disciples, they would have been anticipating the baptism with the Spirit that he taught.
 31. Some manuscripts add "to them" {N}.
 32. Some manuscripts say "Christ Jesus" {N}.
 33. Or, "into". See Mk 1:9 on "baptize in".
 34. The Spirit "coming upon" a person occurs elsewhere only in Mt 3:16, of Jesus. A related word is used of the Spirit "coming-upon" a person only in Lk 1:35 (Mary) and Act 1:8 (the apostles). Using different words, the Spirit "fell upon" them in Act 8:16; 10:44; 11:15; and was "poured out upon" them in Act 2:17; 10:45; Tit 3:6.
 35. On this word, compare Act 2:4, 11; 10:46; 1 Cor 12:10. First Corinthians was written during Act 19:10.
 36. That is, the synagogue Paul said he would return to in 18:21.
 37. Same two words as in 18:4, "reasoning and persuading".
 38. Some manuscripts omit this word {C}, so that it says "persuading them concerning the kingdom of God".
 39. Or, "were hardening themselves". On this word, see Rom 9:18.
 40. Same word as in 14:2.
 41. Or, "reviling, insulting". Elsewhere only in Mt 15:4; Mk 7:10; 9:39. GK 2800.
 42. On this name, see 9:2. Same word as in v 23.
 43. Or, "crowd, multitude". That is, in the synagogue, v 8. On this word, see "multitude" in 6:2.
 44. Or, "withdrawn". On this word, see 1 Tim 4:1.
 45. That is, the school building. Used only here. GK 5391.
 46. Whether Tyrannus was the main teacher using the building, or the owner of the building, is not clear. The nature of the school is also not known. Consult the commentaries on the suggestions. Some manuscripts say "a certain Tyrannus"; others, "a certain Tyrannus, from the fifth hour until the tenth" {B}, that is, from 11 A.M. to 4 P.M.
 47. During this time, Paul wrote 1 Corinthians. Some think he also wrote Galatians (see 14:28).
 48. That Luke does not mean that all the Asians heard from Paul personally is clear from Col 1:7 and 2:1, for Colossae is a city in Asia. It was reached by Paul and those who went out from this base in Ephesus. The seven churches mentioned in Revelation may have been started during this time in Asia. Some manuscripts add "Jesus" {K}.

1. Literally, miracles "not having happened" before. Another understatement (see "no small" in 12:18). That is, unusual, extraordinary miracles, because they took place without Paul's personal presence. This idiom is elsewhere only in 28:2. GK 5593.
2. That is, aprons such as a worker would wear. Whether these were items belonging to Paul that were repeatedly carried back and forth, or items belonging to the sick brought to Paul, is not stated. Used only here. GK 4980.
3. Or, "carried away, brought, taken". On this word, see 1 Cor 16:3.
4. Used only here. GK 5999.
5. Or, "were being ridded, were leaving". Luke speaks from the perspective of the disease (it was removed), rather than the person (he was cured, healed). Elsewhere only in Lk 12:58; Heb 2:15. GK 557.
6. Some manuscripts add "from them" {K}.
7. Or, "also, indeed". Luke is showing how powerful and well-known Paul's ministry came to be in Ephesus.
8. That is, ones who cast out demons with magical formulas and oaths. They used the sentence given next as part of their incantation. Used only here. GK 2020. Related to "make swear" next.
9. Or, "undertook, took in hand". See "undertook" in Lk 1:1 on it.
10. Some manuscripts say "We" {N}.
11. Or, "put you under oath, adjure you". This seems to be intended to force the demon to leave rather than swear allegiance to Christ. Elsewhere only in Mk 5:7. GK 3997. Related to "exorcists" earlier in the verse; "put under oath" in Mt 26:63; "adjure" in 1 Thes 5:27; and "oath" in Jam 5:12.
12. This was the man's name.
13. The grammar emphasizes the contrast between the two halves of this sentence (represented by the bold and the dash). Some manuscripts omit this, in which case "Jesus" would not be bolded, and the dash would be replaced by a comma {C}.
14. Or, "know, am acquainted with". This is a different word for "know", but no difference in meaning may be intended. These two words are not used together elsewhere in the NT. GK 1182, 2179.
15. Or, "mastered, overpowered". On this word, see "lord over" in 1 Pet 5:3.
16. Or, "both", if only two were present or active participants in this case. Luke may mean both speakers were attacked while the other five fled. On this word, see 23:8. Some manuscripts say "them" {N}.
17. Or, "was strong, mighty, powerful, won out". Same word as in v 20; Rev 12:8. On this word, see "can do" in Gal 5:6.
18. Or, "made great". On this word, see "enlarge" in 2 Cor 10:15.
19. Or, "confessing-openly". Luke may mean "confessing-out Jesus", confessing their allegiance to Jesus, as this word is used in Rom 14:11; Phil 2:11. Or, he may mean "confessing-out... their practices", as this word is used in Mk 1:5; Jam 5:16. On this word, see Jam 5:16.
20. Or, "announcing, disclosing". On this word, see Jn 16:13.
21. Or, "magic things, inquiring things". That is, making inquiries of the spirits. GK 4319.
22. That is, their books or scrolls containing the spells and incantations. On this word, see Mt 1:1.
23. Or, "counted up". Used only here. GK 5248. Related to "calculate" in Rev 13:18.
24. Probably the Greek drachma (Lk 15:8), which is equivalent to a denarius (Mt 20:2). This is a considerable sum of money. Literally, "five ten-thousands". On this word, see "money" in Mt 25:27.
25. Or, "according to, based on" His might. Some render this phrase as an adverb, "mightily", "So the word of the Lord was growing mightily". On this word, see Eph 6:10.
26. This is the Greek word order. Or, "Thus in accordance with His might, the word of the Lord was growing...". In the former case, the grammar is unusual, but like "in accordance with the working of Satan" in 2 Thes 2:9; and like Act 22:3; Rom 16:26; Tit 1:3. In the latter case, the word order of "the word of the Lord" would be unique to this verse in the Greek Bible, placing emphasis on "of the Lord". However, some manuscripts say "the word of the Lord" (as eight times elsewhere in Acts) or, "the word of God" (as eleven times elsewhere in Acts) using the normal Greek word order {B}.
27. "The word" is used like this also in 4:4; 6:4; 8:4; 11:19; 14:25; 16:6; 17:11; 18:5. Compare 6:7; 12:24.
28. That is, Paul's ministry in Ephesus, 19:1-20— when his mission to Asia through Ephesus was finished.
29. This word means "put, place, lay" in various senses. Used 100 times. GK 5502.
30. That is, Paul resolved or established or purposed in his spirit. Or, he "resolved in the Spirit". This phrase is used only here, but it is similar to "put in the heart" in Lk 1:66; 21:14; Act 5:4; all of which all use the same word "put". Compare 20:3, 22.
31. That is, Greece (20:2), the Roman province where Corinth and Athens are located. Elsewhere only in 18:12, 27; Rom 15:26; 1 Cor 16:15; 2 Cor 1:1; 9:2; 11:10; 1 Thes 1:7, 8. GK 938. Paul will pass through here to strengthen the disciples, and to gather the collection he will take to Jerusalem.
32. Rather than proceeding directly to Rome, Paul envisions a journey to Jerusalem first with an offering by the Gentile churches (see 20:4), and then to Rome (and Spain, Rom 15:28). The rest of the book of Acts is occupied with the journey defined here, which ends where, but not how, Paul envisioned.
33. This trip is mentioned in 1 Cor 4:17; 16:10.
34. Or, "stayed, waited, paused". On this word, see "fix attention on" in 1 Tim 4:16.
35. That is, in Ephesus.
36. Or, "commotion". Same word and phrase as in 12:18. That is, a large disturbance.
37. Or, "temples", that is, miniature replicas of their world-famous temple. On this word, see "temple" in Rev 11:1.
38. This is Artemis of the Ephesians, a many-breasted goddess of fertility whose temple in Ephesus was considered one of the wonders of the world. Some distinguish this Artemis from the Greek goddess Artemis, who was also known as the Roman goddess Diana. Others link the three together. GK 783.
39. Same word as in 16:16. On this word, see "grant" in 17:31.
40. Same word as in v 25, and as "profit" in 16:16, 19. On this word, see "practice" in Eph 4:19.
41. Same word as in v 38. On this word, see "designer" in Heb 11:10. Related to "craft" in 17:29.
42. The grammar indicates that Demetrius assembled the craftsmen and workers. On this word, see 12:12.
43. Some think Luke means the ones working for the silver craftsmen; others, the workers from related trades who would be affected along with the silver workers, such as ones who made these shrines out of terra cotta.

- 1D. "Men, you know that prosperity¹ *for us*² is from this business^A

1. Used only here. GK 2345. Related to "prospering" in 11:29.
2. Some manuscripts say "our prosperity" {K}.
3. Or, "won over", as in 12:20; or more negatively, "induced". On this word, see 1 Jn 3:19.
4. Or, "removed". Paul removed them from the purview of our business. Elsewhere only as "removed" in Lk 16:4; Act 13:22; 1 Cor 13:2; and "transferred" in Col 1:13. GK 3496.
5. Or, "coming into being". GK 1181.
6. That is, the physical idols are not gods, nor are the spiritual beings they purport to represent.
7. That is, their personal interest, their job or trade of shrine-making, their line of work. To this Demetrius next adds a religious motive, the interest of their goddess. The crowd (v 28) responds (at least on the surface) to this latter threat, and the town mayor answers the latter issue in v 35-36. How many times religion is used to protect personal and commercial interests! On this word, see Rom 11:25.
8. Or, "discredit, refutation". Used only here. GK 591. Related to "expose" in Eph 5:11.
9. Except here, this word is always used of the Jewish temple in Jerusalem, 70 times. GK 2639. The root word is "holy". See also the unrelated word in Rev 11:1.
10. Or, "thrown down, brought down". On this word, see 2 Cor 10:4, words Paul wrote not long after this (in Act 20:2).
11. Some manuscripts say "the whole city" {N}.
12. Or, "tumult, uproar". Used only here. GK 5180.
13. Aristarchus was from Thessalonica, and is mentioned also in 20:4; 27:2; Col 4:10; Phm 24. Note 2 Cor 8:18-19.
14. Or, "populace, crowd". Elsewhere only in 12:22; 17:5; 19:33. GK 1322. Related word in 12:21.
15. Or, "Asiarchs", high officials of the province of Asia who were elected by the cities. Used only here. GK 825.
16. That is, something different than Demetrius, v 24-27. Perhaps it was something anti-Jewish, causing the Jews to seek to defend themselves in v 33. Christianity was considered to be a sect of Judaism at this time. This literally renders the words of this idiom, which may be more fully phrased "some were crying out one thing; others, another". There is a similar idiom in 21:34.
17. This is a participle, "having been confused". That is, the assembly was in a state of confusion. Related to "confusion" in v 29. On this word, see "confound" in 9:22.
18. Or, "advised" (as this word is used in 1 Cor 2:16, "instruct"). That is, the crowd told Alexander to speak up, or what to say. Or, "concluded, inferred" (as it is used in Act 16:10) that Alexander was the reason. GK 5204. Some manuscripts have a related word meaning that "they brought forward Alexander from the crowd" {B}. Alexander may be a Jew put forward by the Jews to defend Judaism and distinguish it from Christianity on the advice of some in the crowd. Some take the variant reading to mean he was a Jewish Christian brought forward by the Jews as the local culprit in this matter (like Jason in 17:6).
19. Or, "wanting, wishing". On this word, see "willing" in Jn 7:17.
20. More literally, "is", as the Greek typically phrases it.
21. Or, "came about, arose". GK 1181.
22. Or, "town-clerk, town-secretary". This man was the chief executive of the city. He answered to the proconsul. GK 1208.
23. Or, "temple guardian". Used only here. GK 3753.
24. Some manuscripts add "goddess" {K}, as in v 27.
25. The Ephesians taught that the statue of Artemis fell from heaven. Note how this proves Paul's point reflected in v 26. Even they felt the need to claim a heavenly origin for their idol! Used only here. GK 1479.
26. In spite of the fears of Demetrius (v 27), nothing has changed these facts, so stay calm. Used only here. GK 394. Related to "without objection" in 10:29.
27. Same word as in Mt 16:21, with different grammar.
28. Or, "restrained, quiet". More literally, "it is being necessary that you be having been calmed". That is, it continues to be necessary that you remain being calmed. Though cumbersome in English, the Greek tenses and participles are quite vivid. Elsewhere only in v 35. GK 2948.
29. Or, "sacrilegious ones", ones who commit acts of sacrilege. Used only here. GK 2645. Related word in Rom 2:22.
30. Thus, Gaius and Aristarchus (v 29) have committed no crime. On this word, see 1 Tim 6:1.
31. Some manuscripts say "your" {B}.

33. Elsewhere only as "marketplace" in 17:5. GK 61.
34. That is, they are in session. Legal recourse is available through the local courts in the marketplaces.
35. On this word, see 13:7. Recourse through the Roman governor is also available. There was only one proconsul at a time for a province. The mayor is referring to the entire category, using an abstract plural.
36. Same word as in v 40, "being charged". On this word, see Rom 8:33.
37. Or, "more, in addition". That is, anything beyond what can be settled in a private court action, anything requiring a lawful town meeting. Used only here. GK 4304. Some manuscripts say "anything concerning other matters" {B}.
38. This assembly was not lawful. On this word, see "within the law" in 1 Cor 9:21.
39. This is the real concern of the leaders in v 31, and this man. Their city-state status itself—but more realistically, the job of this very official—would be endangered if it fell into mayhem and mob violence. Rome would not tolerate it. On this word, see "dispute" in 23:7.
40. Or, "source". No guilty person or crime can be pointed to as a cause for it. On this word, see "guilt" in Lk 23:4.
41. That is, in relation to which charge of rioting we will not be able to defend ourselves. Some manuscripts omit this word {C}, so that it reads "today—there being no cause in relation to which we will be able to render an account for this gathering". In either case, the point is that their conduct was not justifiable.
42. This phrase "render an account" is elsewhere only in Mt 12:36; Lk 16:2; Heb 13:17; 1 Pet 4:5. Compare Rom 14:12. On this word, see "word" in 1 Cor 12:8.

- 1C. For Paul had determined⁵¹ to sail-by Ephesus so that it might not happen to him that he losetime⁵² in Asia. For he was hurrying to be in Jerusalem— if it might be possible for him— the day of Pentecost⁵³ 16

 2. Paul is departing according to his plan in 19:21. The uproar did not force him to leave.
 3. Along the way, Paul stopped in Troas, 2 Cor 2:12-13.
 4. On this trip, Paul met Titus (2 Cor 7:5-7) and wrote 2 Corinthians.
 5. Same phrase as "long message" in 15:32. Here Luke is referring to multiple messages and locations.
 6. Greece is the more popular term for the Roman province of Achaia (see 19:21). Specifically, Paul came to the city of Corinth. During the three months here, he wrote Romans (having set his sights on Rome in 19:21), and perhaps Galatians (see 14:28). Used only here. GK 1817.
 7. Or, "having arisen". GK 1181.
 8. Or, "purpose, intention, judgment, decision, opinion". Some paraphrase this phrase as "he decided". On this word, see "purpose" in 1 Cor 1:10.

 18. These are the delegates carrying the offering from the churches of Macedonia, Galatia and Asia to the poor believers in Jerusalem, mentioned in 1 Cor 16:1-4, 2 Cor 8-9, and Rom 15:26. This collection is not directly mentioned in Acts (see 21:18). Note that there is no Corinthian (Achaian) mentioned, but Paul refers to their gift in Rom 15:26. Perhaps they entrusted their gift to one of these men, or to Paul himself. Perhaps Luke, who also now travels with Paul to Jerusalem (see v 5), was the delegate from Philippi.
 19. The group went by sea as planned (v 3) to Troas, while Paul and Luke went by land to Philippi, and then by sea to Troas.
 20. Luke reappears. The last "us" was also in Philippi in 16:17. He may have been there since then. Some think he lived there. The accounts that follow are far more detailed, reflecting Luke's eyewitness status.
 21. Or, "sailed out". Elsewhere only in 15:39; 18:18. GK 1739. Related to "sail away" in v 15; "sail" in 21:3.
 22. Some manuscripts say "the disciples" {K}.
 23. Some think Luke means to eat a meal; others, the Lord's Supper; others both. Same word as in v 11. Some think they ate dinner early in the evening, and the Lord's Supper in v 11. See 2:46 on this.
 24. Some think Luke means midnight Saturday night (as we call it), based on the Jewish day which began at sunset; others, midnight Sunday night (as we call it), based on the Greek day which began at sunrise.
 25. Some manuscripts say "they" {N}.
 26. This is a participle, where "we were having been gathered-together".
 27. Or, "overwhelmed, overcome". Same word as later in the verse. GK 2965.
 28. Or, "to the more". On this idiom, see 2 Tim 2:16.
 29. That is, put his arms around him. Used only here. GK 5227.
 30. That is, such as was normally done for the dead. The grammar implies the people had started mourning Eutychus, and should stop doing it. On this word, see Mt 9:23, where this was happening.
 31. The subject of all this is singular, referring to Paul. Luke may mean that Paul himself now ate, having delayed it due to his speaking to these people. Same word as in 23:14.
 32. Or, "daylight, dawn". Used only here. GK 879.
 33. Luke may mean the group brought Eutychus along as they walked with Paul toward the ship. Or, he may mean they brought him "[home]" after the meeting.

 38. Used in this sense also in Lk 8:22; Act 13:13; 16:11; 18:21; 20:3; 21:1, 2; 27:2, 4, 12, 21; 28:10, 11. On this word, see "led up" in Mt 4:1.
 39. Or, "directed, commanded". See "directing" in 1 Cor 7:17 on it.
 40. Or, "go by land" (versus sea), not necessarily meaning on foot. Used only here. GK 4269.
 41. That is, in the process of meeting us. While we expect Luke to say "when he met us" (and many render it such), this is not what he says. The grammar seems to imply that Luke and the others arrived first and met Paul as he was proceeding to meet them in Assos (as opposed to Paul arriving first at Assos, and meeting them at the dock).
 42. This city is on the Aegean island of Lesbos, south of Assos. GK 3639.
 43. Elsewhere only in 13:4; 14:26; 27:1. GK 676. Related to "sail off" in v 6; "sail by" in v 16; "sail" in 21:3.

 49. On this idiom, see Lk 13:33. Luke uses three different expressions to refer to "the next day" in this verse, a fourth in v 7, and a fifth in 21:1.
 50. This city is on the coast of the province of Asia, about 30 miles or 48 kilometers south of Ephesus. The ship may have been in this port for seven days, as in Troas (v 6), and in Tyre (21:4). GK 3626.
 51. Or, "judged, decided". This decision seems to have been made in Troas in v 13, when Paul chose this ship. On this word, see "judge" in Mt 7:1.
 52. Or, "waste time, spend time". Used only here. GK 5990. Related to "spend time" in 12:19.
 53. On Pentecost, see 2:1. To do so, Paul had about forty-three days from Philippi in v 6.

1. More literally, "went on [the ground]". On this word, see 21:4.
2. Paul was in Ephesus briefly in 18:19-21, then in 19:1-41 for about three years, v 31.
3. Or, "became, proved to be". GK 1181. That is, how Paul conducted himself with the Ephesians, how he behaved with them, his manner of life with them.
4. Or, "serving-as-a-slave to". On, this word, see "are slaves" in Rom 6:6.
5. On this word, see Phil 2:3. Same phrase as in Eph 4:2.
6. Elsewhere only in v 31; Lk 7:38, 44; 2 Cor 2:4; 2 Tim 1:4; Heb 5:7; 12:17; Rev 7:17; 21:4. GK 1232. Note Phil 3:18. Some manuscripts say "many tears" {K}.
7. Or, "That". GK 6055. Not the same word as in the previous statement (GK 4802).
8. Or, "shrank, withdrew". Paul's trials did not cause him to keep silent about the truth. Same word as in v 27. Elsewhere only in Gal 2:12; Heb 10:38. GK 5713. Related to "drawing back" in Heb 10:39.
9. Or, "beneficial, advantageous, helpful". That is, the whole purpose of God, v 27. On this word, see "beneficial" in 1 Cor 6:12.
10. Paul did not draw back from teaching the Ephesians as believers, while also solemnly testifying to unbelievers.
11. On this word, see "solemnly charge" in 1 Tim 5:21. Same word as in v 24, and as "solemnly warn" in v 23.
12. Some manuscripts add "Christ" {B}.
13. Or, "tied". Same word as in 21:11, 13, 33; 24:27; Col 4:3. On this word, see 1 Cor 7:27.
14. Or, "by the Spirit". Verse 22-23 contrasts the Spirit's warnings with Paul's own spirit's determination (formed in submission to God). Paul has an inward constraint to go there, knowing nothing of the outcome except the affliction the Spirit says is coming. The Spirit is warning him, not binding him. Because of his determination to proceed with the plan of 19:21, we have Romans, Ephesians, Philippians, Colossians, Philemon, Luke and Acts.
15. Or, "encounter, befall, happen to". Elsewhere only in Lk 9:37; 22:10; Act 10:25; Heb 7:1, 10. GK 5267.
16. Some manuscripts omit this word {K}.
17. Or, "city by city, in every city, according to city".
18. That is, continuing to live is not a factor when Paul counts the things of value to him—only finishing his course. His determination is not influenced by the certainty of affliction awaiting him, which is a measure of how sure he was that he was following the course God intended for him.
19. Some manuscripts say "But I make an account of none of these things, nor do I hold my life as precious to myself" {N}, in which, "precious" is the same word as "value" (see "precious" in 2 Pet 1:4).
20. Same word as in 2 Tim 4:7, where Paul has done so. Some manuscripts add "with joy" {N}.
21. On this word, see 1 Cor 12:5. Paul defines his ministry next, as "to solemnly testify...".
22. Some manuscripts add "of God" {N}. On this word, see Mt 3:2.
23. This is because Paul plans to go from Jerusalem directly to Rome (19:21), and beyond.
24. This is an idiom, "on the today day", on which see Rom 11:8.
25. Or, "pure". Same statement as in 18:6. On this word, see Tit 1:15.
26. Same words and grammar as in "drew back so as not to declare" in v 20. On this word, see Jn 16:13.
27. Or, "plan, counsel". On this word, see "counsel" in Eph 1:11. Romans is a sample of Paul's teaching on this.
28. Some manuscripts say "Therefore take heed to..." {K}.
29. On "take heed to yourselves", see Lk 12:1.
30. Or, "put, set, appointed, established, made". On this word, see "put" in 19:21.
31. Same word as in 1 Pet 5:2. On this word, see Rev 19:15. Related to "flock".
32. Some manuscripts say "of the Lord" {C}. "Church of the Lord" is not found elsewhere in the NT. "Church of God" is in 1 Cor 1:2; 10:32; 11:16, 22; 15:9; 2 Cor 1:1; Gal 1:13; 1 Thes 2:14; 2 Thes 1:4; 1 Tim 3:5, 15. Some think an early copyist unconsciously changed it to the more familiar "church of God". Others think an early copyist may have been troubled over ascribing blood to God, and substituted the easier "Lord".
33. Or, "acquired, gained for Himself". On this word, see 1 Tim 3:13.
34. Or, "through, by, via". GK 1328.
35. This word is used 114 times. GK 2625.
36. Some render this phrase in the usual, natural fashion, "His own blood" (calling Christ "God"), as in the only other places "His own" is used with this grammar, Jn 1:41, "his own brother"; Jn 5:43, "his own name"; Jn 7:18, "his own glory"; and Act 1:25, "his own place". Others, thinking for various reasons that Paul could not intend to refer to the blood of God, render this "the blood of His own Son". The grammar can have this meaning, and the word "own" standing alone is used this way in Act 4:23, "their own people"; Act 24:23, "his own people"; and 1 Tim 5:8, "his own relatives". Some manuscripts have different grammar (which is identical to that in Heb 9:12 and 13:12) that allows only the first possibility {A}.
37. Some manuscripts say "For I know this—that..." {N}.
38. That is, keeping in mind. Same word as in v 35. On this word, see Jn 16:21.
39. That is, as to your present circumstances. On this phrase, see "as to the present things" in 17:30. Some manuscripts add "brothers" {K}.
40. Same word as in 14:23.
41. Some manuscripts say "to the Lord" {B}.
42. The phrase that follows modifies "word". Or, "to God and to the word of His grace, to the One being able...". In this case, God and His word are grouped together, and a second reference to God begins here.
43. Or, "set apart to God, made holy". On this word, see Heb 10:29.
44. Some manuscripts say "And you..." {K}, which some render, "Yes, you...".
45. Or, "assisted, helped". On this word, see 13:36.
46. Or, "You must help, one must help". On this idiom, see "must" in Mt 16:21.
47. On this word, see 1 Tim 6:2. That is, take a part corresponding to the need of the weak. Related to "helps" in 1 Cor 12:28.
48. This is not recorded in the Gospels. It is one of the things mentioned in Jn 21:25.
49. This is the Greek word order. Or, "knees, he prayed with them all".
50. More literally, "are", as the Greek typically phrases it.

11. Or, "continued". Some think Luke means that they finished the entire voyage by ship in Ptolemais, and that they next went by land to Caesarea; others, that they finished the voyage from Tyre in Ptolemais, then continued on by sea to Caesarea. Used only here. GK 1382.
12. This coastal city is between Tyre and Caesarea, about 30 miles or 48 kilometers from Caesarea. GK 4767.

- Paul's case now became one with regard to Jewish law rather than Roman law. The commander would have to decide what to do with Paul after hearing the Sanhedrin's charges against him, and would keep him in protective custody until that time. As it turns out, Paul remains in this status until the end of the book. If the Jews charged and convicted Paul of desecrating the temple by bringing in a Gentile (21:28-29), the commander would execute him in accordance with Jewish law regarding the temple, even though he was a Roman citizen (but by sword, not in a disgraceful way like crucifixion). On this word, see "break" in Mt 5:19.

28. On the suggestions as to why Paul did not know this, consult the commentaries. Some think this was an informal inquiry by the Roman commander held in the Roman fortress.
29. Or, "evil-ly", referring to the name Paul called Ananias in v 3. GK 2809. Related to "evil" in v 9.

- 2D. And Paul, having known that the one part of them was¹ of Sadducees and the other of Pharisees, was crying-out^A in the Sanhedrin, “Men, brothers, I am a Pharisee, a son of Pharisees². I³ am being judged^B concerning *the hope*⁴ and⁵ resurrection of the dead” 6
- 1E. And he having said this, a dispute⁶ between the Pharisees and Sadducees took place, and the assembly^C was divided⁷ 7
- 1F. For Sadducees⁸ say that there is not a resurrection, nor an angel, nor a spirit—but Pharisees confess^D all⁹ three 8
- 2E. And a great clamor¹⁰ took place 9
- 3E. And having stood up, some¹¹ of the scribes of the Pharisees’ part¹² were battling¹³, saying, “We are finding no evil¹⁴ in this man. And what if a spirit did speak to him, or an angel¹⁵?” 9
- 3D. And while a great dispute was taking place, the commander^E— having feared that¹⁶ Paul might be torn-to-pieces¹⁷ by them— ordered^F the troop¹⁸, having gone down, to snatch¹⁹ him out of the midst^G of them, and bring him to the barracks^H 10
- 10C. And on the following night,²⁰ the Lord, having stood near him, said, “Take-courage²¹. For as you solemnly-testified^I in Jerusalem as to the things concerning Me, so you must^K also testify^L in Rome” 11
- 11C. And having become day,²² the Jews²³, having held a gathering²⁴, bound themselves under-a-curse²⁵, saying that they would neither eat nor drink until which time they killed Paul 12
- 1D. Now there were more than forty having made this sworn-pact²⁶— ^{*}who, having gone to the chief priests and the elders, said, “With a curse²⁷, we bound ourselves under-a-curse²⁸ to eat²⁹ nothing until which time we kill Paul 13-14
- 1E. “Now therefore, you, along with the Sanhedrin, notify the commander³⁰ so that he may bring him down to you³¹, as-though you are intending^M to determine³² the things concerning him more accurately³³ 15
- 2E. “And we are prepared^N that we might kill him before he draws-near^O” 15
- 2D. But the son of the sister of Paul— having heard-of the ambush³⁴, having come and entered into the barracks— reported^P it to Paul 16
- 3D. And Paul, having summoned^Q one of the centurions, said, “Lead this young-man^R away to the commander, for he has something to report^P to him” 17
- 4D. So indeed the one, having taken him along, led him to the commander. And he says, “Paul the prisoner^S, having summoned^Q me, asked that I lead this young man to you— he having something to tell you” 18
- 5D. And the commander— having taken-hold-of^T his hand, and having withdrawn^U privately^V— was asking, “What is it that you have to report^P to me?” 19
- 1E. And he said that “The Jews agreed^W to ask you so that tomorrow you might bring Paul down to the Sanhedrin, as-though intending^M to inquire^X something more accurately concerning him 20
- 2E. “So don’t you be persuaded^Y by them. For more than forty men from-among them are lying-in-wait-for^Z him who bound themselves under-a-curse neither to eat nor drink until which time they kill him 21
- 3E. “And now they are prepared^N, waiting-for^{AA} the promise³⁵ from you” 21

1. More literally, "is", as the Greek typically phrases it.
2. Some manuscripts have this singular, "of a Pharisee" {N}.
3. In some manuscripts, the word that makes this bold is omitted {C}.
4. Compare 24:21; and 24:15; 26:6, 7; 28:20. On "hope", see Col 1:5.
5. That is, our hope for the dead and the resurrection of the dead, stating in abbreviated form the same concept from two viewpoints. It could also be rendered "our hope— even the resurrection...". It is a dual statement of a single concept, which some simplify into one phrase, "the hope of the resurrection...". Note Paul's statement of it in 24:21.
6. Or, "dissension, discord, uprising". Same word as in 15:2; 23:10; 24:5; and as "riot" in Act 19:40; and "rebellion" in Mk 15:7; Lk 23:19, 25. The root word is "to stand", the sense in these uses being "to take a stand against" to various degrees. Elsewhere only in a different sense as "standing" in Heb 9:8. GK 5087.
7. Same word as in 14:4.
8. Luke uses grammar that emphasizes the contrast between the two halves of this sentence.
9. Or, "both", if "nor an angel nor spirit" is viewed as one thing. Note v 9. This word means "both" if referring to two things, or "all" if more than two. Same word as in 19:16. Elsewhere only as "both" in Mt 9:17; 13:30; 15:14; Lk 1:6, 7; 5:7; 6:39; 7:42; Act 8:38; Eph 2:14, 16, 18. GK 317.
10. Or, "shouting, outcry". A shouting match. On this word, see "outcry" in Heb 5:7. Related to the verb "shouting" in 22:23.
11. Some manuscripts omit "some of" {N}.
12. Same word as in v 6, where the two parts are defined.
13. That is, verbally. Or, "fighting, contending, arguing vehemently". Used only here. GK 1372. Related to "battle" in 2 Tim 2:24.
14. Or, nothing "bad, wicked, wrong". The Jews found plenty to disagree with, but nothing evil. On this word, see 3 Jn 11. They support Paul with regard to the principles included in his stand which they agree with, but not with regard to the Christian details of his stand.
15. Some manuscripts say "and if a spirit did speak to him, or an angel, let us not fight against God" {N}.
16. On this idiom, see 5:26.
17. Elsewhere only of chains being "torn apart" in Mk 5:4. GK 1400.
18. Or, "squad, detachment, band of soldiers". Same word as in v 27, where it is also singular. It is plural in Mt 22:7; Lk 23:11; Rev 9:16. Elsewhere only as "armies" in Rev 19:14, 19. GK 5128. Related to "soldier" in Mt 28:12.
19. Or, "seize, take by force". On this word, see "snatch away" in 2 Cor 12:2.
20. That is, that night (as we call it), the night following the day mentioned in 22:30.
21. Elsewhere only in Mt 9:2, 22; 14:27; Mk 6:50; 10:49; Jn 16:33; all this same command. GK 2510. Related to the noun "courage" in 28:15, expressed separately with the verb "to take". Some manuscripts add "Paul" {N}.
22. Note how parallel the flow of phrases is in v 11 and 12. The Lord makes a promise or oath to Paul for the purpose of life, and the Jews make an oath to God for the purpose of death (note Jn 16:2).
23. Some manuscripts say "some of the Jews" {B}.
24. This noun means a collection, aggregate, gathering of things. It is used of a "swarm" of bees, a "flock" of birds, so that perhaps "having formed a band [of conspirators]" says it here. In both NT occurrences, it is used of a gathering of people— in Act 19:40, a "disorderly gathering"; here, a "seditious gathering". GK 5371. The evil nature of the gathering as a conspiracy comes from the context. The related verb is "gather" in Mt 17:22. Thus, they "held a gathering", at which they "bound themselves under a curse", resulting in a "sworn pact and alliance", v 13.
25. On this word, "to bind-under-a-curse", see "curse" in Mk 14:71. Same word as in v 14, 21. The oath these men took was, "May God curse us if we eat or drink before we kill Paul". They enlist the Jewish authorities in this pact in v 14.
26. Or, "having formed this conspiracy". This word means "conspiracy, a body of men leagued by an oath". Used only here. GK 5350. The root word is "to swear with an oath", the word in Jam 5:12. It is a "swearing together" by a group, a "sworn alliance" (emphasizing the forty men), and a "sworn pact" (emphasizing the oath taken). Both ideas are included here.
27. On this word, see "accursed" in Rom 9:3.
28. The Greek reflected here, repeating the noun and verb of the same word, is a literal rendition of a Hebrew way of speaking. It means "we bound ourselves under a solemn curse".
29. Or, "taste". Elsewhere in Acts only in 10:10; 20:11. On this word, see "taste" in Heb 6:4. Not the same word as in v 12 and 21 (see Act 10:13).
30. That is, notify him officially. Luke does not state whether all the Sanhedrin were to be told of this plot. The conspirators may have approached the Sadducee faction and excluded the Pharisee faction. These leaders try this again two years later, in 25:3.
31. Some manuscripts add "tomorrow" {N}, as in v 20.
32. Or, "discern, distinguish". Same word as 24:22.
33. The commander had already said that he desired this, 22:30. On this word, see Mt 2:8.
34. Elsewhere only in 25:3. GK 1909. Related to "lying in wait for" in v 21.
35. That is, the promise that the commander will bring Paul down to them at a certain time. On this word, see 1 Jn 2:25.

1. Or, "gave notice of". Same word as "notify" in v 15. GK 1872.
2. The commander hand-picked two men to do this. Some manuscripts omit this word {C}.
3. Or, "cavalrymen". Elsewhere only in v 32. GK 2689. Related to "cavalry" in Rev 9:16. The root word is "horse".
4. Or, "slingers, bowmen". The precise meaning of this military term is not certain. The root word is "right", perhaps implying a weapon taken in or used by the right hand. The shield was taken in the left hand. Used only here. GK 1287.
5. That is, the Roman capital of Judea on the coast, 65 miles or 100 kilometers from Jerusalem. See 8:40.
6. That is, 9 P.M. More literally, "from the third hour". Beginning from 9 P.M., the troop would be proceeding there.
7. After the death of King Herod Agrippa I in A.D. 44 (Act 12:1), the Roman Emperor Claudius (Act 18:2) put Judea under the rule of Roman procurators (similar to the prefects like Pontius Pilate). Felix was the fourth procurator of Judea, serving from A.D. 52-59. He is mentioned in chapter 23-24, and in 25:14. GK 5772.
8. This is the name of the Roman "commander" in view since 21:31, and elsewhere only in 24:22. GK 3385.
9. Same word as in 24:3; 26:25. On this word, see Lk 1:3.
10. Same word as in v 10.
11. More literally, "is", as the Greek typically phrases it.
12. Lysias reverses the order of events, providing himself with the higher motive (rescuing a Roman), rather his real initial motive (maintaining order, doing his duty). He omits the messy (and now irrelevant) details. Some punctuate this with what follows, "troop. Having learned that he is a Roman, and wanting to know... him, I brought...".
13. That is, Paul.
14. Or, "controversial questions". On this word, see 15:2.
15. Or, "charge". Elsewhere only in 25:16. GK 1598. Related to "accuse" just used twice.
16. Elsewhere only in 9:24; 20:3; 19. GK 2101.
17. On this word, see "showed" in Lk 20:37.
18. More literally, "will", as the Greek typically phrases it.
19. Some manuscripts add "from them". Others say "that will certainly be against the man by the Jews" {B}.
20. Lysias gave this order on the next day, after this letter was sent, but before Felix read it. Same word as "commanded" in v 22.
21. Some manuscripts add "Farewell" {B}.
22. This is a city about 40 miles or 60 kilometers from Jerusalem. Used only here. GK 526.
23. That is, the walking soldiers. The horsemen continued on from Antipatris to Caesarea with Paul.
24. That is, the centurions in charge of the mission permitted it. Luke abbreviates.
25. That is, the horsemen.
26. Some manuscripts add "the governor" {K}.
27. More literally, "is", as the Greek typically phrases it.
28. Or, "learned-by-inquiry". Elsewhere only as "inquire" in Mt 2:4; Lk 15:26; 18:36; Jn 4:52; 13:24; Act 4:7; 10:18; 21:33; 23:20; and "ask" in Act 10:29; 23:19. GK 4785.
29. This verb "give-a-hearing", a legal term, is used only here. GK 1358. Or, "I will hear you fully".
30. Some manuscripts say "... arrive". And he ordered..." {K}.
31. On this word, see Phil 1:13. It was built in Caesarea by Herod the Great.
32. Some manuscripts say "the elders" {N}.
33. Or, "advocate, speaker". That is, a lawyer (in the Roman sense) who could skillfully argue their case. Some think he was a Hellenistic Jew; others, a hired Roman. Used only here. GK 4842.
34. This word is plural, and refers back to the whole group.
35. That is, Paul.
36. Or, "long". Either "much" in quality or quantity. Tertullus begins with exaggerated flattery.
37. Used only here. GK 1480. Some manuscripts say "prosperity" {N}. Related to "reformation" in Heb 9:10.
38. This is the Greek word order. Tertullus is exaggerating Felix's accomplishments. Or, "foresight—we welcome it both in every way and everywhere". In this case, he is exaggerating the Jews' submission to Felix.
39. Or, "accept, acknowledge, approve". On this word, see Act 2:41. The Jews welcome the peace and reforms.
40. Or, "delay, detain, cut in on, weary". On this word, see Gal 5:7.
41. Or, "graciousness, reasonableness, fairness, tolerance". Elsewhere only in 2 Cor 10:1. GK 2116. Related to "kindness" in Phil 4:5.
42. Or, "a pestilent one, a diseased one, a pest, a troublesome one". That is, a public menace, a (spiritually) diseased person who is a threat to society. Elsewhere only in Lk 21:11, of literal plagues. GK 3369.
43. Or, "arousing, agitating". Same word as in 21:30.
44. Or, more strongly, "riots". Some manuscripts have this word singular {N}, meaning "dissension". Same word as in 23:7.
45. In a more favorable context, this word would mean "leader, chief". Used only here. GK 4756.
46. Used in this way only here. On this word, see Mt 2:23.
47. Tertullus is referring to 21:28-29. On this word, see Mt 12:5.
48. Having raised the hammer of accusation, Tertullus stops, and hands it to Felix, instead of slamming it down himself in conclusion. Fiery demands would surely backfire. This is especially true in view of the weakness of the accusations—"a pest"?; "disputes"?; "tried to"? These are Jewish religious complaints, not violations of Roman law. Lysias was correct, 23:29. It appears the Jews are hoping for a favorable response based on political considerations and good relations, not evidence. They want a favor (25:3), not Roman justice. The Romans often went along with them in this fashion with regard to Jewish people and issues (as in the case of Jesus), but they would not do so with regard to a Roman.
49. Some manuscripts add as v 6b-8a, "And we wanted to judge him according to our Law. But having arrived, Lysias the commander led him away from our hands with much violence, having commanded his accusers to come before you" {B}. This addition also makes "from whom" in v 8 refer to Lysias rather than Paul.

1. Or, "joined in setting upon" him. Used only here. GK 5298. Related to "set upon" in 18:10. Some manuscripts say "agreed" {N}, using the word found in 23:20.
2. That is, that they are true. On this idiom, see 12:15.
3. That is, one administering justice. GK 3216. Related word in Mt 7:1.
4. Felix had been the Roman procurator for about five years at this point, with two years remaining until he was replaced by Festus, v 27. See 23:24 on Felix. Paul had been out of the country for over seven years, except for the brief visit in 18:22. But he knew of Felix.
5. Used only here. GK 2315. Related to "cheerful" in 27:36. Some manuscripts say "more-cheerfully" {N}.
6. Or, "fully know, find out". Same word as in v 8. Thus the Jews point Felix to Paul, who points him to other witnesses. Both express their confidence that Felix can find the facts through his own investigation. On this word, see "understood" in Col 1:6.
7. This is an idiom, literally, "there are no more than twelve days for me since...". The Greek counts from the past forward. We count from the present backward, and would say "No more than twelve days ago, I went...". Some think Paul is counting from his arrival in Jerusalem in 21:17 to his leaving it in 23:23; others, to his arrival in Caesarea in 23:33. There are other views.
8. Or, "to worship in Jerusalem". On this word, see Mt 14:33. On the grammar of it, see "to do" in v 17.
9. Or, "holding a discussion, speaking". That is, trying to convince anyone of anything. On this word, see "reasoned" in 17:2.
10. Or, "a stoppage, beginning". Paul did nothing to cause a crowd to stop and gather. Some manuscripts say "disturbance" {N}. Elsewhere only as "pressure" in 2 Cor 11:28. GK 2180. Related to "suddenly come upon" in Lk 21:34.
11. This word means "to place beside, present, offer". Used only here in this sense. The Jews cannot place witnesses and evidence beside their assertions to prove them. On this word, see "present" in Rom 12:1.

13. See 9:2 on this term.
14. Same word as in v 5.

24. That is, acts of charity (with the gifts sent by the Gentile churches. See Rom 15:26). On this word, see "almsgiving" in Mt 6:2.
25. On this word, see 21:26. Paul may be referring to the offerings associated with Pentecost (20:16), viewing the gifts of the Gentiles as a firstfruit offering.
26. Same word as in 21:24, 26. That is, in obedience to its laws, not in violation of them.
27. Same word as "uproar" in 21:34.
28. Paul stops abruptly, and calls for his absent eyewitness accusers to specify the charges against him. Why should he state it for them by finishing the sentence with "who accused me of defiling the temple".
29. On this idiom, see "should have" in Mt 25:27.
30. Or, "been here". That is, to have been and continue to be present. The word "ought-to-have" looks back to the beginning of this event in v 1. This word (more literally, "be present") refers to the presence of these accusers which still continues to be necessary at the moment Paul is speaking. The idea is that if they had done what they "ought to have" done, they would "be present" now. English is unable to reflect both verbs, so some render it as "ought to have been present"; others, as "ought to be present".
31. That is, the high priest and those with him (v 1), who were not eyewitnesses of anything.
32. Some manuscripts add "in me" {B}.
33. The following statement caused a great dispute and split between the Pharisees and Sadducees in 23:6—to which Lysias will attest, and about which the Romans have absolutely no interest. Thus the Jews can produce no witnesses against Paul, while Paul can produce Lysias himself to prove it was a purely religious dispute. Paul's case is strong.
34. Some manuscripts say "And having heard these things, Felix..." {N}.
35. Or, "deferred, postponed". Used only here. GK 327.
36. Some think Luke means "Although knowing...", and therefore being without excuse for not releasing him.
37. That is, the Jerusalem commander who rescued Paul, 23:26.
38. Or, "decide". Felix will investigate through to a judicial decision. He says this in keeping with their confidence in him to "learn" the facts, v 8, 11 (a related word). Though he surely saw Lysias many times in the following two years, he did not decide the case. He had nothing to gain by deciding it. His motive is made plain in v 26. Elsewhere only in 23:15. GK 1336. Related to "decision" in 25:21.
39. This word is plural, referring to all of them. To reflect this, "people" is added.
40. Some manuscripts say "Paul" {K}.

1. This is an idiom, literally, "As holding the now", used only here.
2. Or, "an opportune time, a convenient time". GK 2789.
3. More literally, "will", as the Greek typically phrases it.
4. Some manuscripts add "so that he might release him" {N}. It is a perfect solution for Felix. He honors Paul's Roman citizenship by not punishing him; he does not infuriate the Jews by releasing him; and he opens up the possibility of making a personal (though illegal) gain off the whole affair.
5. Elsewhere only in Lk 24:14, 15; Act 20:11. GK 3917.
6. Or, "completed, filled up". Probably during this period, A.D. 57-59, Luke gathered the information to write the Gospel of Luke and much of Acts. Perhaps he even wrote Luke and started Acts. While present in Palestine, he was able to talk with the eyewitnesses. Same word as in 7:23, 30; 9:23. On this word, see "filled" in Eph 5:18.
7. Festus was the fifth procurator of Judea since the death of King Agrippa I (in Acts 12), appointed by the Emperor Nero, and serving from A.D. 59-62. Upon his death, the high priest had James (the leader of the Jerusalem church, Act 15:13) killed, an illegal act that cost him his position. Festus is mentioned in chapter 25 and 26. GK 5776.
8. This word means "to lay down, deposit, lay up in store". Elsewhere only in 25:9. GK 2960. Luke could mean "lay up a store of favor with the Jews" (gain favor), or "lay down a favor for the Jews" (grant a favor). Having been recalled to Rome regarding another incident, Felix wanted no further problems following him there, as might have happened had he released Paul.
9. Or, "gratitude". Same word as in 25:3, 9. On this word, see "grace" in Eph 2:8. Some manuscripts have this word plural {N}.
10. This is a participle, "having been bound". That is, in custody at Caesarea.
11. On this word, see 21:4. More literally, "having gone upon [the ground]".
12. Some manuscripts say the "high priest" {N}.
13. Same word as in 13:50.
14. That is, Paul.
15. Festus answers based on his schedule. He is not staying in Jerusalem long enough to summon Paul. So instead, the Jews should go to Caesarea with him, and he will deal with it right away. On this idiom, see "quickly" in Rev 1:1.
16. Or, "since", as Festus supposes there is, 25:18. The grammar means "assuming that there is something...", granting their position for now. Paul must have done evil, or the Jews would not want him so badly, and Felix would not have kept him in custody. Festus learns more in 25:19.
17. Or, "wrong". On this word, see 2 Thes 3:2. Some manuscripts say instead "this" {N}, so that it says "if there is anything in the case of this man".
18. Or, "in the case of". GK 1877.
19. Some manuscripts say "(more than ten)" {N}.
20. That is, Paul.
21. Or, "serious". Same word as in Mt 23:23; 2 Cor 10:10. Elsewhere only as "heavy" in Mt 23:4; "burdensome" in 1 Jn 5:3; and "savage" in Act 20:29. GK 987. Related to "weight" in 1 Thes 2:6.
22. Or, "complaints". Used only here. GK 166. Related to "charge" in v 18, 27; 28:18.
23. Or, "having the power". On this word, see "can do" in Gal 5:6.
24. Or, "attest, show". Same word as "attest" in 2:22. The Jews could not "show, display" evidence to "attest, prove" their charges. On this word, see "display" in 2 Thes 2:4.
25. This word means "do wrong, commit an offense, fail a requirement, miss the mark". Used 43 times. GK 279. Related to the noun "sin" in Jn 8:46.
26. Or, "grant". On this word, see 24:27.
27. That is, with me as the judge. Same word and grammar as in v 10; twice in 25:26; 26:2. Here, some think Festus means "in my presence", with the Sanhedrin as judge. Same word (but different grammar) as "before" Caesar in v 12. GK 2093.
28. Or, "should". More literally, "where it is necessary that I" be judged. The root word is "it is binding". This idiom refers to what should or ought to happen by necessity, the compulsion being based on what is fitting or proper or required by the circumstances. Here, as Festus knows, the necessity lies in the circumstances of the case and Paul's Roman citizenship. Same idiom as in v 24; 26:9; Lk 12:12; 13:14; Rom 8:26; 12:3; 1 Cor 8:2; Col 4:4; 1 Thes 4:1; 2 Thes 3:7; Tit 1:11; etc. GK 1256. Same word as in the idiom "must" in Mt 16:21; and "should have" in Mt 25:27.
29. Some manuscripts say "For" {K}.
30. Paul uses grammar that emphasizes the contrast between the two halves of this sentence.
31. That is, under Roman law, the only other possibility.
32. That is, if the Romans had a case against Paul, they would have executed him. The fact that they have not done so is not because Paul refused! He is being held for political, not legal purposes. Festus knows this, but his reason for his proposal is not justice (v 9). So Paul takes it out of his hands by appealing to Caesar.
33. That is, under Roman law.
34. Or, "grant, give as a favor, graciously give", without cause. Same word as in v 16. On this word, see 1 Cor 2:12.
35. In this case, to Nero, Emperor from A.D. 54-68. This was the right of every Roman citizen in a capital case. This is repeated in v 12, 21, 25; 26:32; 28:19. If Paul could not reach Rome as a free man, he would go as a prisoner. On "Caesar", see Lk 3:1.

37. That is, Agrippa II, son of Herod Agrippa I (Act 12:1), great-grandson of Herod the Great (Mt 2:1). His Roman name was Marcus Julius Agrippa. The Emperor Claudius (18:2) made him King of Chalcis, and later made him tetrarch of the areas once ruled by Lysanias and Philip (Lk 3:1). The Emperor Nero gave him more territory in A.D. 54. He was given authority to appoint the high priests in Jerusalem, though he did not rule Judea. His capital was in Caesarea Philippi (Mt 16:13), which he renamed "Neronias". He ruled until about A.D. 100.
38. Bernice was the sister of Agrippa II and Drusilla (24:24). She was the daughter of Agrippa I (12:1). She is mentioned also in v 23; 26:30. GK 1022.
39. Presumably from his capital in Caesarea Philippi.
40. Or, "greeting". On this word, see Mk 15:18. The tense of this verb means "having greeted [upon arrival]", or "greeting [at the time of arrival]". Some manuscripts say "to greet" {N}, expressing the purpose of their visit using the same grammar as "to do" in 24:17.
41. That is, laid before Agrippa for his consideration. Elsewhere only in Gal 2:2. GK 423.

9. That is, Israel, as Paul uses "my nation" elsewhere in 24:17; 28:19. Some think he means Cilicia.
10. Or, "previously-knowing me". That is, before this incident. On this word, see "foreknew" in Rom 8:29.
11. That is, from the beginning of my life in Jerusalem. On this word, see "again" in Jn 3:3. Luke uses "from the first" (v 4) and "from-the-beginning" together also in Lk 1:2-3.

16. That is, continually. On this phrase, see Rev 7:15.
17. Or, "earnestness". Used only here. GK 1755. The root word is "stretch out". Related to "fervently" in 1 Pet 1:22; and "fervent" in 1 Pet 4:8.
18. Some manuscripts add "Agrippa" {N}.
19. Or, "not believable, incredible". Used elsewhere 22 times meaning "unbeliever" or "unbelieving". GK 603.
20. This word is plural. To reflect this, "people" is added. Some think that Paul means his current audience; others, you Jews. Compare 17:32; 23:8.
21. Paul resumes from v 5. So as a Pharisee, "I thought...". Having summarized the key issue in v 6-8, he now returns to the beginning to give the details.
22. Or, "opposed, hostile". Same adjective as in 28:17; 27:4. Paul uses this word of the Jews in 1 Thes 2:15.

28. That is, to deny or curse (1 Cor 12:3) Jesus, if Paul is still viewing his past, and the "blasphemy" in particular, from his present Christian standpoint (note "saints" in v 10). Some think he is referring to blasphemy from the Jewish point of view as a Pharisee persecuting Christians at that time in his life, in which case blasphemy would mean confessing Jesus as the Messiah (compare Mt 26:65). On this word, see 1 Tim 6:1.
29. Or, "beyond measure, very, even more". Paul could mean he was enraged "beyond measure". Or, he could mean he was enraged "even more", the persecuting in Jerusalem increasing rather than decreasing his passion. Elsewhere only as "even more" in Mt 27:23; Mk 10:26; 15:14. GK 4360.
30. That is, outside Jerusalem or Judea.
31. Or, "full power" to act. Used only here. GK 2207. Related to "steward" in Lk 8:3.

5. Some manuscripts omit "while being" {C}.
6. This word was used of the help or aid received from an ally. Used only here. GK 2135. The related noun (not in the NT) is "ally".
7. Or, this may be punctuated "help from God to this day, I stand here testifying".
8. More literally, "of things going to".
9. Or, "If". Paul presents these two issues as questions to be considered based on Scripture. These are the two main subjects Paul reasons about with the Jews—whether the Scriptures teach these two things—and are the same two subjects Jesus mentions in Lk 24:46. For simplicity, others render this word "that", making these two statements. Same idiom as in 4:19; 5:8; Mk 15:44; Jn 9:25; 1 Cor 7:16; etc. GK 1623.
10. That is, whether the Scriptures teach that the Messiah can suffer, is capable of suffering. He does suffer, as Isa 53 shows. Note Act 3:18. First comes the suffering, then the glory, 1 Pet 1:11. Used only here. GK 4078. Related to "sufferings" in Phil 3:10.
11. Paul may mean first before others, "whether He the first One from...", a thought similar to firstfruits of the dead in 1 Cor 15:20. Or he may mean first before glory, "whether He first" (before He comes as the King in glory, incapable of suffering) "from a resurrection from the dead" (implying also His suffering and death) is going to proclaim...". Death could not hold Jesus, 13:35. From it, He proclaims the light of salvation.
12. Or, "by, by means of". Same phrase as "by the resurrection from the dead" in Rom 1:4.
13. Some manuscripts omit this word {K}. Paul is referring to Isa 49:6.
14. Or, "raving, out of your mind". Same word as in v 25. On this word, see 1 Cor 14:23.
15. Or, "Much learning". On this word, see "writings" in Jn 7:15.

17. Some manuscripts say "But the one says" {K}.
18. Or, "speaking out, uttering". On this word, see "uttering" in 2:4.

20. Or, "speaking boldly, speaking freely". On this word, see "speak boldly" in Eph 6:20.
21. Some manuscripts omit this word {C}, so that it may be rendered either "For I am not persuaded that any of these things", or "For I am persuaded that none of these things".
22. This is a participle, "is not having been done". This is another understatement (litotes), on which see 12:18. It was done right out in the open, for all to see.
23. Or, "with a little effort, in a little while, with a brief speech". Some paraphrase this here as "almost". Whichever is chosen, v 29 is to be rendered the same way. Some take this as a question, "In [such] a short time", do you think you can persuade me?; others, as a statement, "In a short time [longer]" you are going to persuade me. In either case, Agrippa is evading a direct answer. He does not want to say "No, I do not believe the Prophets", nor does he want to say he believes them and be drawn into the discussion about what they teach (v 23). He saw exactly where Paul was leading with his question, and refused to go there. There are other views. Consult the commentaries.
24. Some manuscripts instead say "become" {A}, as in v 29, so that it says, "persuading me to become a Christian".
25. Or, "with a little effort and a great effort", or "with a brief speech and a long speech".
26. This word is elsewhere only in 1 Cor 3:13; Gal 2:6; 1 Thes 1:9; Jam 1:24. GK 3961.
27. That is, Christians, to use Agrippa's word from v 28.
28. Or, "this imprisonment". Same word as "imprisonment" in v 31. On this word, see "imprisonment" in Phil 1:7. Paul is probably not implying that he was physically restrained at the time, but is speaking of his continuing custody there. Consult the commentaries.
29. Some manuscripts say "And he having said these things, the king..." {N}.
30. Or, "withdrawn, retired". On this word, see "went back" in Mt 4:12.
31. Some manuscripts omit this word {C}, so that it says "This man is doing nothing worthy...". Compare 23:29; 25:25.

33. That is, when the arrangements had been made and the time to leave arrived.

4. Or, "attention". Whether Luke means medical care, personal refreshment, or spiritual fellowship is not stated. Used only here. GK 2149. Related to "take care of" in Lk 10:34. This does not imply Paul was unaccompanied by a guard.
5. Or, "sailed under the lee of". Elsewhere only in v 7. GK 5709. The "lee" is the side of a ship or island sheltered from the wind.
6. Because the wind was contrary (that is, from the west) they could not sail the straighter course to the south of Cyprus, the one Paul took in 21:3. They had to take the coastal route to the north so as to take advantage of the westerly currents there and the more favorable winds coming off the land. This advantage continues until Cnidus (v 7).
7. That is, the next Roman province west of Syria. On this word, see 6:9.
8. The next region west of Cilicia. GK 4103.

16. Or, "coasting along". Elsewhere only in v 13. GK 4162.
17. That is, the south side of Crete.
18. Or, "Beautiful Harbors". This was the farthest point on Crete a ship fighting a northwest wind could reach, due to the geography of the island. This proper name as such is GK 2816. "Havens" is the word "harbor", figuratively meaning "haven, retreat, refuge", and is elsewhere only as "harbor" in v 12. GK 3348.
19. The city of Lasea is roughly in the middle of the island.
20. Luke may mean since the beginning of the voyage (perhaps a month and a half), or while waiting at Fair Havens for the winds to change.
21. Or, "prone to fall, prone to be tripped up". Used only here. GK 2795. The root word is "to trip up, cause to fall".
22. That is, the fast on the Day of Atonement at the end of September or early October, the only fast commanded by the Law of Moses. The Mediterranean was considered unsafe for travel between mid-September and mid-November, when sailing ceased for the winter. Some think the Day of Atonement referred to here was October 5, A.D. 59.
23. Or, "by this time, now". On this word, see Mt 24:32.

43. Or, "helps". Some think Luke is referring to ropes or cables which ancient ships carried for such an emergency. They were run under the hull and secured on deck to help hold the ship together. The straining caused by the heavy mast as the ship was tossed in the sea would spread the planks of the hull, causing the ship to founder and sink. Elsewhere only as "help" in Heb 4:16. GK 1069. Related to "help" in Rev 12:16.
44. Used only here. GK 5690. The root word is "gird" in 12:8.

47. That is, the Gulf of Sidra, off the coast of modern Libya, a place of shallow and shifting sands. If the sailors let the wind drive the ship in its path, they feared this northeast wind (if it blew long enough) would push them straight into the coastline of Africa, resulting in the certain loss of the ship. So they chose to turn to the wind, and be driven into the open sea. With storm sail set, they would have pointed the ship as much northward (away from Africa) as the ship could bear. This would drive them west. As the North-easter abated, they could turn further north to Italy. GK 5358.
48. Or, "let down". Same word as in v 30. Elsewhere only in Mk 2:4; Lk 5:4, 5; Act 9:25; 2 Cor 11:33. GK 5899.

- 2D. And we being violently storm-tossed¹, on the next day they were doing *a jettison*² 18
- 3D. And on the third day they³ threw-off^A the equipment⁴ of the ship with-their-own-hands 19
- 4D. And neither sun nor stars appearing^B for many days,⁵ and no small⁶ storm lying-upon⁷ us, finally all hope that we might be saved^C was being taken-away⁸. *And⁹ much¹⁰ abstinence-from-food¹¹ being present,¹² at that time Paul, having stood in their midst^D, said 21
- 1E. “O men, having obeyed¹³ me, you indeed should-have^E not put-to-sea^F from Crete and gained¹⁴ this damage and loss¹⁵ 22
- 2E. “And as to the things now, I advise¹⁶ *that you cheer-up*¹⁷. For there will be no loss^G of life^H from-among you, only of the ship 22
- 1E. “For an angel stood-before¹⁸ me *on this night*¹⁹ from the God Whose I²⁰ am, Whom also I serve²¹, *saying, ‘Do not be afraid, Paul. You must^I stand-before^K Caesar. And behold— God has granted²² you all the ones sailing with you’ 23
- 2E. “Therefore, cheer up, men. For I believe God that it shall happen²³ in this manner— in accordance with the way²⁴ it has been spoken to me 25
- 3E. “But we must^I run-aground^L on a certain island” 26
- 7C. Now when the fourteenth night came, while we were being driven-about²⁵ in the Adriatic-sea²⁶, during the middle of the night, the sailors were suspecting²⁷ that some land was approaching²⁸ them 27
- 1D. And having taken-soundings²⁹, they found it to be twenty fathoms³⁰ 28
- 2D. And having set a short interval³¹, and again having taken-soundings, they found it to be fifteen fathoms 29
- 3D. And fearing that³² we might run-aground^L somewhere against rocky places, having thrown-off³³ four anchors from the stern³⁴, they were praying^M that day might come 29
- 4D. And while the sailors were seeking^N to flee^O from the ship, and had lowered the [ship’s] boat to the sea on a pretense³⁵ as-though intending^P to stretch-out³⁶ anchors from the bow— 30
- 1E. Paul said to the centurion and the soldiers, “Unless these ones remain^Q in the ship, you cannot be saved^C” 31
- 2E. Then³⁷ the soldiers cut-off^R the ropes^S of the [ship’s] boat, and let it fall-away³⁸ 32
- 5D. And until which time day was about to come, Paul was urging³⁹ everyone to receive⁴⁰ food^T, saying, “While waiting-in-expectation⁴¹ for a fourteenth day today, you are continuing without-food⁴², having taken^U nothing. *Therefore I urge you to receive food^T. For this is for your preservation⁴³. For a hair from the head of none of you will be lost⁴⁴” 33
- 1E. And having said these things, and having taken^V bread, he gave-thanks^W to God in the presence of everyone. And having broken^X it, he began to eat 35
- 2E. And everyone having become cheerful⁴⁵, they also were taking^U food^T 36
- 3E. Now we, all the souls^H in the ship⁴⁶, were two-hundred seventy six⁴⁷ 37

1. Used only here. GK 5928. Related to "storm" in v 20.
2. Or, "a throwing out". Used only here. GK 1678. The sailors were throwing off excess or unnecessary things in order to lighten the ship, as they do again in v 19 and v 38.
3. Some manuscripts say "we" {N}.
4. Related to "gear" in v 17. Luke could mean the "gear, tackle, rigging, furnishings". Used only here. GK 5006. Whatever it was, it belonged to the ship, and the crew itself threw it overboard.
5. This would make it impossible for the sailors to determine their position.
